I opened the door to the waiting room and entered.

“Hello, Senior Testa!”

Then, I looked at the waiting camera and rookie group.

‘The same goes for these guys with sloppy hair.’

“It was really cool. Thank you so much for teaching me and helping me!”

“We were really thankful~ Fighting for debut!”

I officially greeted the debut group of < Azusa > once more in the behind-the-scenes cut like this.

I opened the door to the waiting room and entered.

“Hello, Senior Testa!”

Then I looked at the waiting camera and rookie group.

‘The same goes for these guys with sloppy hair.’

“It was really cool. Thank you so much for teaching me and helping me!”

“We were really thankful~ Fighting for debut!”

I officially greeted the debut group of < Azusa > once more in the behind-the-scenes cut like this.

As soon as the camera was turned off and the board was cleared, I called one.

Gold 2.

“Nenep?”

“Shall we talk for a minute?”

“yes!”

Among the rookies, ‘They must be really close!’ After a while, Gold 2 followed me happily.

Big Sejin asked a small question.

“Isn’t Heeseung doing something wrong?”

“no.”

I lightly denied it. Big Sejin shrugged and waved his hand. I guess he guessed that he was talking about a performance in moderation.

However, I brought the Gold 2 all the way to the van parked in the parking lot.

“hitter.”

At this point, Gold 2 voluntarily bowed her head, probably realizing that the situation was not serious.

‘Did I do something wrong!’ is clearly visible.

‘mistake… Should I say.’

I closed the car door and threw him a can of drink.

“Oh, thank you.”

I got the gold 2 quickly and opened a drink. I waited for a while before he brought the drink to my mouth.

and the right timing.

‘… I didn’t know I’d be doing this line.’

Not that crazy guy. I held my breath and opened my mouth.

“so… What year did you come back from?”

“… !! Cool.”

Gold 2 barely squirted a drink.

I’m sorry, but that reaction alone was no different from the answer.

“Uh uh… .”

I took out another can of drink, squeezed it out of my hand, and said.

“You talk too openly.”

From the beginning, the situation was unique.

Especially if the audition was successful.

Because the production team and viewers prefer fresh faces unique to that season.

‘But this guy eventually debuted at number one.’

In addition, in this process, when Chae Seo-dam, the previous No. 1, was sent away, his attitude was too calm.

-ah… . Oh, it was kind of strange.

After the reaction to this extent, it was a bit surprising that they completely trusted our words.

‘The response was too skillful for his age.’

So the next time we met, I checked the status window.

This is what was in the bottom row then.

[! Abnormal status: bounce back]

-I really end up becoming an idol!

: ‘Failure’ when the team fails to reconcile within the period.

Doesn’t the feeling come directly from the structure?

That this is a status ailment similar to Cheongryeo’s ‘correction’ or my ‘debut or death’.

And the words this guy said while dealing with Chaeseodam.

-after… No, how could that hyung make his debut again this time… .

Even the hastily glossed over after this. The heart attack seemed to have ended here.

Gold 2 Kwon Hee-seung returns from the future.

Maybe as my next hitter.

“Starting with Chae Seo-dam’s debut ‘this time again’, your actions in general are too obvious.”

“… … .”

Of course, Kwon Hee-seung doesn’t seem to have the brain to admit it. It was worth it. First of all, the biggest problem is trust. From this guy’s point of view, he has no reason to tell me that he came from the future.

‘I have to throw the bait on my side too.’

I had information to dig out of this guy. I will have to bear it ‘I’ll start by giving this much.’

Click.

I muttered as I opened a can of drink.

“I’m from the future too.”

“Huh up.”

Are your lungs protruding?

Gold 2 covered her mouth and looked at me.

“… … .”

“… … .”

After a fairly long silence, he nodded and murmured.

“… no wonder! He said he was very good at it.”

did it work

“Oh yes.”

“Wow, I thought I was the only one, but was this really a precognitive dream? It was there.”

Words poured out from Gold 2 as if it was quite frustrating.

“Did someone else come back as well? It’s not just me. It’s usually like that when you watch dramas.”

There seems to be a misunderstanding, but let’s put it aside for now and chime in.

Also to understand the situation.

“okay. then… Did you come back because something didn’t work out while you were active?”

However, Kwon Hee-seung answered like this with a face that seemed to be dripping with sweat.

“Oh my… I wasn’t an idol.”

… what?

* * *

“… I was a model.”

“Yeep.”

I moved to the company because I thought the conversation would be long.

Gold 2 said, ‘I thought my heart was falling’, and continues to drink green tea.

“nice… . There were a lot of things that happened while modeling. So I really thought I was on the wrong track.”

“hmm.”

“So this time I quit modeling and came back to < Azusa >.”

Gold 2 put on a proud expression, saying, “I was confident because I watched this season so hard.”

“Then Chae Seo-dam… .”

“ah! That hyung, as soon as he debuted anyway, love rumors and controversy about his personality caused a stir. So I sent it without any guilt!”

So was it.

I was going to ask about my future once, but I let this guy talk a little more.

“Somehow, my older brother was good like a ghost! I really come… It’s so reassuring. It was good, but I was just worried about what this was going on.”

Gold 2 is a much more comfortable expression.

“Usually, the cause is that the earth just collapsed and sent people back to the past. Is that really the case?”

This guy is clearly mistaken that I have returned to the same time zone as him.

And this is the first time I’ve come back to the past.

Judging from the description in the status window, this guy might be the first and last chance like me.

“This is another case.”

I’ll have to find out more.

“Let’s start by checking. You’ve been back for years.”

“uh… That’s the end of the year, so um… I think it will be 11 months?”

“… … .”

1 year?

“Isn’t it great? Not even a day, I don’t know what this is.”

I was speechless for a moment and looked at him.

that… It’s almost as if you haven’t come back.

“You bought that stock. really… What did you buy bro? Have you ever bought a lottery ticket? Oh, you don’t need it.”

“hmm.”

For now, the knowledge of the future is gone. I returned to this purpose with a wry smile.

Once this is enough, it may be clear.

“I came back a little while ago. Now the future I came back to has passed and become the past.”

According to the truth check I saw last time, there are lost memories… Let’s leave that aside for now and connect the logic.

“oh my god. So, what have you found out so far?”

I intentionally rubbed my chin.

“I’m guessing on that. … If it’s okay, may I ask what you did right before you returned to the past?”

Cases so far… It’s likely a sensitive question, so I thought I’d understand if you hesitated to answer.

However, this guy’s reaction was a bit different.

“how? Oh that… It could be a bit funny.”

Gold 2 laughed embarrassingly with a cold sweat on her face.

“What is it?”

“I accidentally fell into the river and hit my head on the bridge… So really bad luck… .”

“… … .”

“Oh no! Anyone trying to help with this! I didn’t do anything stupid!! Sasin saint! There was an accident while filming. Wow, the real environment is so poor… .”

It started as an excuse, but Gold 2 seemed to have something to say anyway.

It is said that there were many twists and turns while working as a model, so when I was resting, I was stuck at home and denied the world.

Gold 2 sighed.

“… Anyway, as I fell in love like that, thoughts like ‘I will never come back to this filthy industry’ or ‘The answer was idols’… I think you did? Then, the situation really made it possible to become an idol… .”

for a moment.

“Then you now… It turned out the way you wanted it.”

“Um, can you see that?”

Gold 2 nodded. I glanced over at him.

‘The guy who came back to the past just once.’

And what you want… ‘To quit modeling and become an idol.’

… I see an angle.

I took out the variables that bothered me.

“If you had come back earlier, you could have debuted in the previous season with me… What do you think about that?”

“Uh uh… .”

Gold 2 rubbed her head with a shy expression.

“That brother. I’m sorry, but that’s a bit… .”

“… ??”

“That season was so damn poor, so it’s hard to do it again… .”

“… … ”

“Ah! And to be honest, I don’t even have the confidence to debut in that lineup! It was honestly a scam.”

… I have nothing to refute.

‘Anyway, he said he didn’t like it.’

I tapped the desk with my finger and threw out the proposition I had organized.

“Then the time you came back is the most… Would you consider it appropriate to achieve what you wanted right before your return?”

“yes? uh… .”

Gold 2 thought about it for a moment, wondering if he had ever thought of it that way, but soon nodded.

“Yes! I think only the parts I wanted to try again were organized.”

sure I crossed my fingers.

‘It’s back to the point you want the most.’

I recalled the point of view of Cheong Ryeo in ‘Truth Verification’.

The monologue of the bastard.

-If I had made it, I wouldn’t have done it like this.

… He wanted to do idol again from the beginning.

perhaps… ‘Continue until you succeed’.

And it came back to the point before debut.

‘i get it.’

It is outlined.

system. This bastard isn’t just bouncing people back to the past.

‘I’m granting your wish.’

Desire, lingering, whatever name you give it… In any case, the wishes of the parties are reflected.

According to this strand, the status ailments can be seen as coming from the same context. This is because the penalty is structured according to the direction of the wish fulfillment of the person concerned.

There is just a problem.

… it’s me

‘I don’t remember wishing for anything like this.’

Compared to the two cases before and after me, there is definitely a sense of incongruity.

It’s hard to think that I would have wanted to become an idol with someone else’s body out of the blue, no matter how drunk or depressed I was.

then… Is this the wish of ‘Park Moon-dae’?

why?

“… … ”

First of all, it seems that we need to explore more detailed conditions to understand the mechanism.

And it would take a case comparison to know more.

“brother?”

“… … Um, wait.”

After thinking for a while, I took out my phone and picked it up.

[Are you on tour?]

In a minute.

Chapter 298

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 298

Idols before and after their active period are filthy busy.

When there is no name value, we are busy publicizing it, and when we have a name value, we are busy making a profit.

In that sense, it is quite a reckless challenge for 10-year-olds who are on a stadium tour in their 4th year to release a hit song right before their debut and hastily gather in one place.

[So it’s a video call? Awesome.]

“Yes.”

I pressed my forehead while watching the split screen floating on my laptop.

The left column is empty. And on the right, Gold 2 sits with a headset on, looking agitated.

It is 2:00 AM now.

I chose a time when all three of us were there, and only this time slot was left.

“It would be right to be in a soundproof place.”

[yes. I’m in the dorm’s dressing room right now, and the door is locked! But even if they get caught, wouldn’t everyone think they were talking about a drama?]

“… … .”

I barely answered.

“Be careful though.”

[Yeah!]

This guy is too light, perhaps because he came back after 11 months and even succeeded in stocks.

You seem to know how to use your brain, but your attitude… What is your life, you know.

[The name of our team came out, do you know it? Spacer!]

“Yes, congratulations.”

Gold 2 Kwon Hee-seung took a deep breath and started talking about the main topic only after talking about his personal affairs.

[I’m a little nervous. A meeting of the future… . It’s a situation that will appear on Netplus.]

Is that so.

[And really… Wow, I never imagined that senior would come too.]

Yes, there must be some explanation about this point.

I checked the initials lit up for ‘online’ in the friends window on the screen.

-CHR

As anyone can see, this guy is Cheongnyeol.

Yes. Instead of isolating these pups separately and collecting information while remaining anonymous, I opened up from the beginning and prepared for a three-way meeting.

There is only one reason.

[Come to think of it, I've been collecting information on what kind of situation this is.]

Gold 2 This bastard… Because it would have been discovered within a few months at the latest.

look at that shit

[I heard there are cafes like 'People who came back from the future' on the Internet? But it turned out that I was just pretending… What worldview do you have? Wow, I was really disappointed.]

"… … ."

'I must have been robbed by Cheongryeo by the end of the year.'

I can tell you.

And when Cheong-rye belatedly realizes that I already knew this guy's identity and used him to eat it, do you have the confidence to take care of it?

I thought for a moment, then nodded.

'Yes.'

There is nothing you can't do.

However, the future is so obvious and troublesome. You don't have to pretend. It's better to explode on a board that I can control.

I moved the mouse to join 'CHR' Cheongryeo in the video call.

Soon, his face appeared on the screen in the background of the hotel room.

He said 'Argentina' and it was daytime. Soon after, Cheong-rye opened her mouth as if she had checked her screen.

[Hello.]

[Huh, hello, senior… ! It’s really nice to meet you like this!]

[Yes. Nice to meet you.]

With a smile on his face, he glanced at the corner of the screen where Gold 2 might be.

Those eyes look like they’re showing some kind of emotion.

‘I’m sure you wouldn’t think so.’

I recalled the situation when I gave the information to him.

-therefore… This < Azusa > 1st place is the person who came back to the past?

He didn’t get excited or show undue interest. I was just talking nonsense.

– It’s funny. Has there been any tradition since your junior?

-Stop joking.

-And 11 months… Um, should I say no?

– You’re sorry?

-haha. Wouldn’t you benefit from a difference of at least two years? Well, it’s going to be difficult for that team to do well. There doesn’t seem to be any information to choose from… . where do i write it?

After weighing it, I think the explanation that it wasn’t worth it even as a competitor or trade partner would be perfect.

Anyway, I honestly stated my purpose.

-I don’t need future information.

-then?

-I'm trying to hypothesize why we're doing this.

The guy on the other side of the receiver didn't answer for quite a while, and then gave a short answer.

-is it so.

And now I am participating in this video call.

"Once everyone has said hello, let's start a conversation."

[Yes, yes!]

[Haha, speak comfortably.]

I'm already tired. I opened my mouth, trying my best not to lose my composure.

"first… I want to organize it from the time zone."

[…] ? Time zone?]

[Ah, order.]

Chungryeo put her chin on her chin and muttered.

[Time won't be twisted. see… First of all, my junior said it started 4 years ago in December.]

That's right. The day I woke up with Moondae Park's wallet in that old motel.

I nodded.

[That one?]

[Yeah, when I woke up, it was the end of October last year!]

The pattern is strange.

Based on memory, my future knowledge was until July last summer.

‘The day I fell asleep after confirming that I was eliminated from the public examination and drinking alcohol.’

However, it was October last winter when Gold 2 came back from the future and woke up.

July and October.

‘It’s been 3 months.’

There is a difference between Cheongryeo and Park Moondae, which are almost immediately connected.

But that strange memory I saw in the last ‘Truth Verification’… If it is true, the period overlaps.

It was a memory for at least a year or more that I quit my civil service job and got a job at a company.

‘Then, Gold 2 shouldn’t appear without seeing the future already.’

Both don’t fit perfectly.

Then, to make this fit neatly… .

“… !”

Let’s change the home itself for a moment.

okay. Unless ‘the future point I know’ is not the criterion for this strange baton touch.

Isn’t there a plausible criterion next?

“… Seniors.”

[Yes?]

I asked quietly.

“… When did you realize you had cleared the last mission?”

[…] …]

Status abnormality clear date.

[mission? What kind of mission do we have?]

Cheong-rye answered briefly, ignoring Gold 2’s remarks as if it had never happened.

[November 30.]

That’s right.

And I… .

It was the Chuseok holiday last year. It is October. I still remember. The pollen popping hologram that floated then.

[Great success!]

User: Park Moon-dae (Ryu Gun-woo) succeeded in removing all status abnormalities!

I chuckled. now i get it

“Was this?”

[A new idea?]

“It seems like a new person appears when the existing person clears all the missions.”

I erased the line and drew it again and put it on the call screen.

[4 years ago /

Chungnyeo end of November (mission cleared) – Bakmundae mid-December (start)]

[1 year ago /

Parkmundae mid-October (mission cleared) – Kwon Hee-seung end of October (start)]

It fits neatly.

[…] …]

Chung-rye erased her expression and raised her eyes. like you're guessing.

And soon he nodded.

[You can think of it like this. But why does that bother me?]

"Here… Suppose there is something."

Among these, there is a situation that only I intuitively realized.

This is because I saw with my own eyes the occurrence and disappearance of 'status abnormalities', which this guy called missions, and various special abilities through the status window.

"It is something that allows people to wake up from the past according to their wishes and then customizes the mission."

The operating system that disappeared leaving me with only a status window.

'system.'

"There is only one of them, and the moment the mission is completed, it seems that the story is correct."

[Hmm.]

So, perhaps, the standard for this chain of return to the past is ‘the presence or absence of a system’.

What if I saw that the system that left me after I finished all the status ailments during the holiday last October entered the body of that Gold 2?

And now, he granted the wish of that newly attached body and gave it a ‘status abnormality’.

[excuse me… Excuse me, can you tell me what the mission is… … . I’m a bit scared!]

To that guy who’s crying right now.

“It’s like something you have to do in exchange for coming to the past.”

[Yes??]

Chung-Ryeo opened her mouth with eyes looking at some kind of leaflet.

[Let’s think of something we need to do right now.]

[Uh uh… . Are you making a successful debut?]

[In the sense of a vision, not a plan.]

[Non-vision? uh… All of our members are proud of each other, so it lasts for a long time!]

[Hmm, is that so? I think it’s better than 1st place in this situation. Cheer up.]

[Yes?]

[Hmm? Isn’t this enough of a virtue?]

You crazy guy.

I gave an appropriate explanation to Gold 2, who was frightened, and returned the conversation.

Fortunately, they quickly understood whether the head of Gold 2 was worth using.

[Uh uh uh then… I don't know what it is, but something that sends that person back to the past is going back and forth to us?]

"That's right."

If you have to call… It feels like a form of catching a host.

These psychic parasites, which I call 'Systems', switch bodies while granting wishes.

But I still don't know how to change it.

"There must be a reason why you chose this person."

Gold 2 raised the dog with a slightly expectant look on his face.

[Ah, in case you saved someone and almost lost your life with honor… Could it be like that? Do you need qualifications?]

Cheongnyeo smiled.

[This is a different idea.]

"… … ."

Absolutely not.

In my opinion… He seems like a guy who is willing to die and has a wish to go back to the past and make it come true.

'I'm sure there aren't even one or two of them.'

Honestly, if you put your mind to it, you could find hundreds or thousands of people a day to switch to faster. overflow.

Occupation or age… There is also a biased side, but it is ambiguous to separate.

Is that enough?

"… … ."

After a few meaningless suggestions and considerations went through my head.

Cheongryeo opened her mouth again.

[see… . Because I've taken the time into account. How about reversing the axis this time?]

"Reverse?"

[Space.]

"… !"

[You seem to like it.]

This supernatural phenomenon… It wasn't an idea that would come easily, but it was definitely a useful idea if it was processed a little more.

If we add the notion that the system 'moves'… .

"Let's do it on the street."

I asked quietly.

The focus is on the date the system went over.

"When you realized the mission was cleared on the 11th, where was your senior?"

[In the car. maybe… Western Expressway.]

I immediately opened the map app.

"… !"

[Where did junior wake up with knowledge of the future?]

"… Guro-dong."

In the map app, you can see the Seobu Expressway passing right next to Guro-dong.

"It's nearby."

The ecstasy is short-lived.

A laugh was heard from across the screen.

[Oh, this is interesting. Where did you wake up with future knowledge?]

[That Hangang Park! Gwangnaru!]

The place where Gold 2 has the system is Gwangnaru Hangang Park.

And the place where I officially cleared the status abnormality and the system disappeared is Bae Se-jin's house.

"… It is near Cheonho-dong."

[Huh!!]

Bae Se-jin's house is in Cheonho-dong.

A view of the Han River.

'X feet.'

It fits perfectly.

‘Time and distance.’

In the end, the system chose the one who could enter the fastest among the candidates.

A voice mixed with laughter asked.

[how is it? Is it a useful reasoning?]

I calmly declared.

“yes.”

Thus, the three-way meeting ended with the expected results.

‘If I figure out how to select candidates for the system now, I can see a rough outline.’

It will become clearer if you summarize it a little more, but honestly, it’s more than I expected.

[Hey already! I’m sorry!]

And Gold 2, who was immersed in it, checked the time and ended the call first, frightened by the early morning schedule.

I was about to end the call to sleep for a few hours.

“Should I do this?”

However, instead of preparing to turn off the screen, Cheong-ryeo tapped the screen and opened her mouth again. It’s daytime, so I’m brisk.

[I don’t understand.]

“What?”

He said monotonously and knocked on the desk.

Tuk-tuk.

[I don’t know why I rushed this conversation. Isn’t this the kind that can be used even if you speculate and establish a theory?]

[Your junior would have known, of course. Analyzing this pattern doesn’t mean you can figure out who’s next. It is not possible to know where that person will die in the future.]

Cheong-ryeo smiled.

[or not… Is there any other way to try?]

Damn it.

I held my breath and opened my mouth.

“therefore… .”

Then a knock was heard outside the door.

-smart.

“… !”

“Is it Moondae?”

It was the voice of my roommate.

Chapter 299

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 299

It's not surprising that you can usually hear your roommate's voice at dawn, but right now the situation is a bit exceptional.

'I'll be thrilled.'

Today, Chungwoo Ryu went as a guest to a camping variety show that lasts for 2 days and 1 night.

So, in fact, I was in a solitary room, so I was able to comfortably conduct video calls.

[oh… .]

"Wait."

widely.

I closed my laptop once. Then I got up and headed for the door.

"Brother, wait a minute."

and opened the door

Liu Chengyu, lightly dressed, stood with a somewhat puzzled expression.
I'm curious too. why are you here

"Hmm, I thought you were filming."

"Ah, due to a cast issue, we decided to rejoin tomorrow evening."

Liu Qingyu touched the back of his neck a few times and said in a slightly embarrassed tone.

“But the door is locked… If you were sleeping, I was just going to sleep in the living room, but I heard a noise.”

“… … .”

I couldn’t be so calm if I heard what you were saying.

‘It’s also a place with good soundproofing in the first place.’

I sighed and moved away.

“There are a lot of noisy guys, so I guess I locked it up and forgot about it. sorry.”

“There is nothing to be sorry about.”

I mean that, but it’s even funnier that you seem to understand this excuse. I briefly thanked Cha Yoo-jin and sat down on my bed.

After waiting for a while, when Ryu Cheong-wu goes to wash up, he takes his laptop and goes out… .

“Moondae, the laptop light is on.”

“I just played a game.”

Liu Qingyu seemed a little shocked.

“Until this dawn?”

“Yes what. I think it will be fine for a day or so.”

This excuse came to mind because he had been thinking of Cha Yu-jin until right before. I feel like my dignity is being shattered.

A vague answer came back.

“hmm… It can be bad for your health, so let’s moderate it.”

“yes.”

I answered with difficulty.

“I will sort it out now.”

“okay. Even if tomorrow’s schedule is afternoon, it’s already 3 in the morning.”

Liu Qingyu smiled faintly and began to take out his pajamas.

I made a rational decision, holding back the desire to punch the bed.

‘I’ll go in to wash in 30 seconds.’

So get ready to pretend to organize your laptop… .

“Um, Moondae. Just because the situation… Is it okay if I ask you something?”

“sure.”

Liu Cheng-wu, who was holding the clothes, spoke a little cautiously.

I should have guessed there.

“About that VTIC senior.”

oh shit

I swallowed my saliva at the topic of the bastard in my laptop.

‘It’s covered, so I won’t be able to hear it.’

“Listening to what Sejin said, it seemed like there was an incident. What did that old man do?”

“hmm… ”

I calculated briefly. How close to the truth are you going to tell them specifically?

And made the right concentration.

First of all, it is implied that it is a thing of the past so that the reaction does not grow unnecessarily.

“I had some work before.”

And it changes the atmosphere by focusing on the explanation that it is not my fault rather than the incident itself.

“It was because they fought because they were fighting. I didn’t hit you first, I hit you back.”

“A fight?”

“yes. So each other… We fought with fist fights.”

“… … .”

I was a bit perplexed.

good. I think it will flow into a situation similar to the last two guys with the same name.

“that… It sounds like you were hit back while trying to hit your junior.”

Accurate.

“Yes. Apparently, there is also a yearly difference… Hierarchically, it was their fault. I did a good job fighting back.”

“okay.”

Is it the end?

It’s time to start listening to comfort and advice… .

“But did you become close enough to play games with that senior?”

shit.

I don’t know how many times this surprises me.

However, it seems that Ryu Cheng-wu did not intend to question him, but was just curious.

“I came in earlier, but I heard a sound through your earphones. I didn’t mean to listen.”

As soon as the laptop was closed, it did not go back to dormancy, but it must have been alive for a while. No matter what, he’s a damn good guy.

“Do you have any concerns or inconveniences? About there.”

… It seems a bit worried too.

Perhaps, as I add up various circumstances from the recording of my profane speech, I suspect that there is some kind of situation in which I am constantly being disciplined and harassed.

Is it speculation that it will be used as a production bot in the game until dawn to harass juniors?

‘Because he’s a guy who used to exercise, he must’ve come across a lot of examples.’

I shrugged.

“Nothing. Fighting makes me feel comfortable, so I’m contacting you. I got enough apologies.”

“hmm.”

“I’m using it well, so you don’t have to worry.”

“… Do you use it?”

“what… It’s enough once you’ve got it sorted out. Don’t worry, it’s easy to mobilize from time to time.”

“Only… .”

Ryu Cheng-wu seemed to understand something, but soon a worry flashed across his face.

and asked hastily.

“Mundae, doesn’t that mean you’re harassing me on the contrary?”

It’s me who gets angry every time. It’s a baby.

“sure.”

I took some time to reassure Liu Cheng-wu, who was starting to worry about the situation on the contrary.

“Hyung, I don’t think I look like that person.”

“No. Of course not. But um, since you’re so smart… … If you ever want revenge, you know you don’t have to be the same person… .”

“Don’t say it for granted, let’s go wash up.”

Ryu Cheong-wu entered the bathroom only then with a shy smile, and I came out to the living room with my laptop with the words ‘I will explain that I will finish the game and leave’.

And I opened my laptop with my back to the veranda. I was thinking of stopping the app and turning off the power, but… Surprisingly, Cheongryeo’s face popped up.

[Ah.]

It looks like he was writing something down.

But you didn’t bother hanging up this video call?

[Is the story over?]

“I didn’t know you were still online.”

[I want to hear the answer to the question.]

Ah, it comes back to that in the end.

‘Why are there so many people asking for clarification on this and that?’

I pressed my throbbing forehead and answered lowly.

[Good.]

-CHR: Like this?

-Apple : Yes

-CHR : ^^

-CHR : So why do analyzes that are not available?

did you leave it?

I felt skeptical for a moment, but quickly typed in consideration of this guy’s merits.

-Apple: After analyzing the pattern completely, there is something I want to infer.

-CHR: What?

-Apple: I don’t know why I’m here.

-Apple: I don’t remember that time,

so I hear him making a low sound through my earphones.

I thought I was lost in thought, but soon an absurd article came to my mind.

-CHR: Wasn’t it your wish to become an idol with a new identity?

-Apple: I was a public official.

-Apple: My relationship was just taking and selling data

-CHR: Could it be that I secretly developed a longing for idols?

this kid is real

I deliberately didn’t express emotion and calmly operated the keyboard.

-Apple: Looking at the cases of you and Kwon Hee-seung, it seems that they had very specific wishes

-Apple: Do you think I would?

Laughter came from the earphones. I tried to change the setting to silent and it only stopped right before.

-CHR: Okay

yes.

-CHR: But I don’t think that’s the only thing.

what?

-CHR: I don’t think he was the one who showed all his hands just because he wanted to be cool.

-CHR: Any other reason?

okay. I had the exceptional means of status windows and missions, so more things were possible.

But even if you don’t have to explain it, there is an explanation that can be done. I paused for a moment and then slowly wrote my answer.

-Apple: I hope this crazy thing doesn’t happen in the future, so it ends up here again.

It is a well-spoken wish, but it is crazy to go through ‘status abnormalities’ in a state where there is virtually no status window.

How many times have I almost died right now?

… I don’t even know how many times the guy on the other side died.

‘It’s already crazy in that it has neither choice nor knowledge.’

This must be the reason why I took action as soon as I got a clue instead of waiting for the ‘conversation with Park Moon-dae’.

However, the person chatting didn’t seem to agree very much. Cheong-rye glanced at the monitor.

-CHR: So you mean you’d rather just die?

-Apple: It can’t be.

It’s extreme again.

-Apple: If you don’t want people to die, you can use another method

-Apple: Whether you’re running a donation campaign

-Apple: It doesn’t look good to send it to the past and make it die again if you can’t clear it, but a short answer came back.

-CHR: Are you unhappy now?

It’s funny because it’s said by someone who has benefited.

I typed again.

-Apple: We are a case of success

-Apple: We do not know what happened to the person who failed

Clearly, only ‘failure’ was written, but the effect was not written.

‘The request was clearly specified until restart.’

If so, it usually means that in case of ‘failure’, it may just end like my status abnormality.

What will happen after that… That doesn’t sound very positive.

-Apple: It must be difficult to catch the next target

-Apple: But if you analyze the pattern, you might come up with a way to stop it

-Apple: It’s worth a try, because time and space are controllable factors.

[…] …]

Cheong-Ryung didn’t answer for a few seconds. He only moved his hand on the mouse a few times.

By the time I realized it was like petting a dog, the answer came back.

[Maybe.]

I nodded slowly.

And the guy on the screen suddenly laughed heartily.

‘what?’

-CHR: And

-CHR: To prevent variables in activities due to someone with future knowledge?

“… … .”

-Apple: What are you checking when you know

[Hahaha!!]

You can hear it through the earphones. I was disgusted and turned the setting to silent this time.

-CHR: Kicking the ladder is good.

-CHR: Yes. I will cooperate well in the future, junior-nim

“This new… .”

“Are you still playing the game?”

At that moment, I realized again that I was sitting in the living room of the hostel.

“no. wait a minute.”

Good job putting it back to silence.

-Apple: Turn off.

This time I closed the app and turned off the laptop completely.

Liu Cheng-wu was sticking out his upper body from the room with a subtle smile.

“It looks like the game was a lot of fun.”

“I will delete it.”

“I don’t think so… .”

“no. I will do that for myself.”

After silently enduring Liu Cheng-wu’s encouragement, I lay down on the bed.

“I will close the door.”

“yes.”

‘Let’s sleep properly.’

After asking Ryu Cheng-wu for his understanding, I set the alarm for 10 o’clock and put my smartphone down.

I was more tired than I thought, maybe it was because I said a lot of things that I wouldn’t normally do as a typewriter.

‘… I’ve guessed everything I can think of right now.’

A system that transfers to a candidate closer in time and space.

Finding that pattern was an achievement. However, the more it happened, the more eerie corners were revealed in detail.

‘The system knows how to transfer people who will voluntarily die in the future.’

No, it was a transcendental ability that allowed me to return to the past at the point of death in the first place.

I inadvertently called the status window once.

[Name: Park Moon-dae (Ryu Gun-woo)]

A list of lines starting like that.

Why does this remain with me even though the transfer system has left?

The more I analyzed the pattern, the more my uniqueness was revealed, which was a strange feeling.

And in the end, I realize that my choice was not wrong.

‘In the end, it is necessary to talk to ‘Park Moon-dae’.’

I couldn’t deny it. There was a high probability that the blank I had could be found there.

‘And if it goes on like this, at least one target… .’

When I thought that far, I fell asleep.

It was a deep sleep without long dreams.

and the next day.

Gyeeing-!

“… … .”

You slept well.

I turned off the 10 o’clock alarm and erased the message notifications and pop-ups on the screen.

And among them, I didn’t pay much attention to, was the entertainment newsletter app I recently subscribed to.

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 300 T

-Holic. The first group that held the idol industry tightly before VTIC came to power.

To put it in a word, it is a symbol of idols of all generations.

"Isn't this the first song Mumundae sang?"

"okay."

'Party in me', which I sang during rank evaluation in Azusa, was the solo album song of this group member.

'It's been a few years since I encouraged solo activities, so my annual leave is full.'

The majority of contemporary idols have already gone their separate ways.

However, all but one of them released an album together again.

I inadvertently watched T-Holic's music video play automatically at the bottom of popular videos on YouTube.

Coincidentally, the member who sang the song I covered was the thumbnail.

[T-Holic – Let's go M/V]

To be honest, I don't have a very sophisticated taste, and the sensibility feels like a few years ago.

“T-Holic seniors made a comeback~ Wow, it’s been a while. I did a lot of covers when I was in middle school.”

Lee Se-jin, who was sitting in the back seat, nodded and pretended to know.

Thanks to that, even Cha Yoo-jin got aggro, but… .

“Who? Umm… I do not know.”

Maybe it’s because he’s an American guy, he didn’t seem interested in idols who were popular more than 10 years ago.

However, Kim Rae-bin seemed shocked.

“T-Holic sunbaenim… You don’t know?”

“that’s right!”

“It is unprofessional to not understand the background knowledge while actively promoting as a KPOP idol!”

“… ! I know a lot of KPOP Songs! It’s not just a song I studied!”

okay. By the time KPOP reached the U.S., everyone was in the military and had little group activity, so Yujin Cha’s argument has some truth.

“I know my name! T-Holic senior!”

“Not enough!”

my ears will fall

These days, when a topic comes up, the reaction explodes into a chain reaction, and it becomes this mess.

I watched without inspiration as Bae Se-jin, across from me, crumpled into a corner and plugged in his earphones.

Activities are cruising, and no one has any particular concerns or shows suspicious behavior.

As a result, the response to such trivial conversations is great.

‘Some of them got used to each other.’

I sorted out the situation after watching the guys holding each other’s words without hesitation and interfering in the conversation.

Reality will be fine.

That was the end of my sentiments that day. However, T-Holic’s comeback caused a bigger wave than expected.

The first was a sense of memory.

In other words, selling memories.

-All of a sudden, there were a lot of new T-Holic songs -Honestly, the previous generations had better individual charms. Now they look like factory dolls -Ah, I miss them. showed a favorable response to

With almost no members leaving the group and a group album being released after a few years, it created a sensation amid nostalgia and admiration.

People who hated T-Holic at the time responded positively, mixed with beautification and longing for their childhood.

‘Of course, if the song isn’t good, it’ll be sentiments that will disappear like a typhoon in a teacup.’

But here comes the next factor.

The second is the property of T-Holic.

These pups… It was funny.

-I almost threw up after laughing

-No, I think falling down is crazy. Why are you all falling over? -What the hell did you do in the military ?

From WeTube contents to TV airwaves.

These guys hit the jackpot by appearing in variety shows. It was thanks to the skill of keeping the line without being afraid of being broken.

leisure and sense.

‘The jjambab you ate doesn’t go anywhere. It can be seen as the opposite of VTIC’s route of fine-tuning media exposure one by one.’

They greedily occupied the content and gained momentum.

Normally, it would be normal to lose freshness and eat moderately and fall down or become quiet, but a few lucky coincidences applied.

A few scenes from the broadcast became memes.

– T-Holic tray karaoke is a legend.

-Is that my fault?.swf

-Is it my fault? The meme is from T-Holic?

In the end, they succeeded in appealing to the younger generation by trending as the latest meme instead of the existing image that was consumed as it was consumed and ran out of honeydew.

And driving that momentum, they even created a WeTube channel that airs their own variety shows.

[We're starting anew on WeTube… PPL madmen of desire | T-Holic's Show Business Ep.1]

In addition, unlike this entertainment topic, T-Holic's records and sound recordings were not at a great level.

Just to the extent of being respectful.

In the current KPOP market, which is swollen with inflation, their sales volume was at the end of the first group.

As a result, the current idol's fans also felt less restrained as a competitor.

– Show business is really neat. It's just professional entertainment lol

– I hope my kids come out too

And in the end, in this momentum, T-Holic's own entertainment became a hit within a short period of time.

That was a bad sign.

"… … ."

I checked the TV viewer ratings of T-Holic, which was organized as a regular variety show on Gearco CVN after it became a big hit on YouTube.

Episode 1 is called open mouth, episode 2 is important… .

Episode -2: 5.8%

It was a figure worthy of flagship. Because it was at the level of CVN's primetime entertainment show.

'It's too much.'

It did better than expected because it hit a void where there were no recent popular dramas or variety shows.

"Oh~ T-Holic sunbaenims have a good spirit."

Like me, Sejin Keun, who was waiting for the next shoot, shrugged and intervened.

I plainly affirmed.

"I know."

Of course, it didn't seem like it would last long.

'If things go well beyond the mark, there will be those who try to kill them anyway.'

It is interesting gossip that a person who used to be popular goes bankrupt. The moment a pod is caught, the momentum will die due to controversy.

Even if it's not that, the entertainment type topic doesn't have that long lifespan. So, the lifespan of this fad is… At most three or four months.

'That's not even a competitor.'

Everyone knows that it would be embarrassing to even mention it in the same context when it comes to grades in the first place.

However, the problem was that it was now.

'I shouldn't lose the topic in the second half.'

This is because Testa sold both music and albums well, but neither one was the overwhelming top, and the grand prize was not confirmed.

‘That’s VTIC and Youngrin.’

So, in order to win the Daesang in the current evaluation system, which is divided into music and album, the image of the ‘trend’ had to be solid.

But all of a sudden, these guys are sucking up popularity.

‘And these guys are officially classified as idols anyway.’

So, the idol that is getting the most public attention right now is… It’s a tea holic.

‘Dangerous.’

If the value of the item called ‘current trend’, which exists separately from grades, falls, if the testa’s presence is damaged, the target will be disrupted.

I muttered as I turned off my smartphone screen.

“We should work hard too.”

“yes?”

Big Sejin lightly affirmed.

Seeing that he didn’t go over well with comments like “I’m already working hard, what are you talking about?”

“Going on at the end of the year too~”

And even those who don’t know the details, but just promise to get motivated and work hard.

“Yes! I will also talk more in variety shows… !”

“Undoubtedly, since idols are comprehensive artists, I feel once again that they need various entertainer talents as well as album activities.”

In that sense, there were people in this group who could be used even with numbers not displayed on the status window.

mental word.

It means that even in such an openly successful situation, he maintains a sense of improvement enough to consider various variables and make rational decisions.

‘Usually people get possessed in this situation.’

Right now we are shooting a photo shoot.

“Yes, I will proceed immediately~”

It wasn’t just a regular magazine pictorial.

Through a partnership with a magazine, they are in the process of creating a special issue using only Testa’s pictorial and interview ads from beginning to end.

I know that this magazine, which is made up of 8 types of covers, from individual shots of individual members to groups, has already exceeded 800,000 pre-orders.

“Oh my god, it’s so pretty~”

“Haha!”

During the filming, there are no officials who say anything unpleasant. It is an almost unconditional treat.

‘It’s an environment that spoils people openly.’

Especially for those who are in their 20s, it’s perfect for spoiling social skills and manners.

There’s no penalty for yelling at someone you work with, but it’s hard not to be rude and sincere when you’re having a hard time in a situation where there’s no coercion.

The difference between when you have physical strength and mood and when you don’t is extreme.

‘If you want to act like X, you can act like X.’

However, these guys are maintaining the tension that is nothing special from the beginning of their debut.

“One more time~”

“Yes!”

Taking a group cut for the cover Guys in jeans and a T-shirt get together and take a cut.

And Bae Se-jin muttered during the short time to change and supplement the concept.

“… I remember when they debuted.”

“I know. That’s the color of your hair at that time.”

“I like red hair!”

The concept of this pictorial is from Testa’s debut to the present.

It can be seen as a concept worthy of a group that has the best male idol song of the year.

‘Has time already passed like this?’

I looked back over the years with a strange feeling.

I went through a lot of unbelievable incidents, and when I think about it, it felt like I did Azusa last year.

Also, it seems that the filming of ‘Magical Boy’ was just a while ago, and

I inadvertently recalled the compliment I intentionally gave to Bae Se-jin right before filming resumed.

“Hyung is good at taking pictures then and now.”

“You guys are doing well too.”

And Bae Se-jin, unlike that time, accepted the compliment meekly and seriously.

‘Yes, one thing has changed.’

That is, the mental distance is reduced. I’m sure trust has built up in my own way as I’ve been through all sorts of odd things in between.

“… .”

“Oh~ Mr. Mundae’s expression is so good!”

“thank you.”

Well, now is not the time to get emotional.

There are only a few steps left to the target, but I have to clean up the falling rocks that suddenly fell.

So what’s the best way?

First of all, benchmarking entertainment is stupid.

‘If we put out a reality together at this timing, we can compare.’

There is no need to stick your head into the results of luck and experience that have led to regular entertainment programs.

So, let’s get into some more tricks… .

‘hmm.’

I thought about it until the end of the shoot and came to a conclusion.

‘Let’s use it in reverse.’

To catch a tiger, you have to enter the tiger’s den.

T-Holic’s program went well.

What that means is that now T-Holic’s topicality is actually subordinated to their entertainment programs.

And the topicality of the program can be used by anyone appearing on it.

In particular, if you are a guest, depending on the format, you can beat the host and become the main character of the program. If T-Holic is more topical than the daily conversations that have been carried out.

And if you’re having fun with it.

‘That’s the best.’

So, after discussion within the group, we analyzed T-Holic’s program format and picked two that would have the strongest impact.

fully customizable.

“I look forward to it!”

Yoojin Cha.

“This is the first time I have been selected to appear on a variety show with such a small number of people, so I will do my best!”

Rabin Kim.

and… The one person who can control these two guys without being invited to another variety show at the same time.

“okay.”

Chapter 301

If you can't debut, you'll die. Episode 301

'T-Holic's Show Business' was a studio entertainment that has largely disappeared due to observational variety shows.

Unlike observational variety shows that create interesting situations through editing, it also meant that only the really funny guys survive.

"Ahahaha!! driving me crazy."

"Why why?"

"no… Do you know what Wonseok hyung just said? 'Do all idols look like that?'

The member called said shyly.

"No, I'm not surprised."

"yes? That's right."

"Didn't you know? If we had debuted now, it would have been ruined. Guys. Don't forget that and be humble."

"No, is it our talent to be born well with the times?"

"stop it! Because it makes me sad!"

Look at that comment pouring in as soon as the camera starts rolling.

There are no professional entertainers, but perhaps thanks to the idol image, that itself becomes a character.

Whether it's prejudice or generosity.

'So it's bound to be a burden for a single guest to play an active role here.'

In a composition where they bring the spotlight to their own show, guests have no choice but to rely on the other person overall.

Even these guys are quite a big senior. Most performers will lose in seniority first.

"Wow, have people been born since the millennials?"

"You guys are so cute."

Of course, considering the atmosphere, T-Holic will make the gesture of spreading a plate and feeding the juniors, and then this picture will be like this.

-Wow, T-Holic is really popular haha

-It seems like it's been a while since I've seen you talk so comfortably on a kids' broadcast. Thank you!♡ -As expected, being on T-Show Bee can cure shyness in any variety show.

As one of the components, the sense of presence is reduced.

However, if there is a person who is seniority, nabal, and unconscious, the words will be a little different.

"That cuteness is small! I'm cool!"

"Huh?"

Cha Yoo-jin raised her hand and shouted.

T-Holic opens his mouth, perhaps for the first time in such a violent (?) rejection from the beginning.

‘I knew it would be like that.’

Cha Yoo-jin doesn’t know T-Holic very well.

It’s a big senior and a nabal, and it’s just talking hard as usual.

And I feel less spoiled. because you are a foreigner

“Is that so?”

“yes! That tiger.”

“I see. Our friend Cha Yoo-jin is a tiger.”

“that’s right! Tiger~ Like a T!”

“T!”

“Hyung, don’t ride the rhythm to look cool.”

So no matter how hard it is, people will get over it. Because Cha Yoo-jin’s American sensibility was already famous.

‘And these guys will take care of the rest.’

T-holic guys, who are accustomed to making the atmosphere lively by having fun with the program, can’t be serious or clumsy with Cha Yoo-jin.

‘Besides, there is a person who will neutralize it next to me.’

“Cha Yoo-jin! If you say thank you for being cute, you should be grateful!”

This is Rabin Kim.

I think he said he whispered in his own way, but since he’s wearing a microphone, it’s useless.

“I got it! I didn’t refuse!”

“You reduced it to be small. It could sound rude!”

“Uh uh uh.”

“No, we understand! I understand!”

“Thank you so much for your understanding! I will show you how to do my best today.”

“So far?”

The figure of T-Holic lowering his head together with Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin who lowered their heads… It was funny.

‘The impact is good.’

And I confirmed that some of the guys who had fallen behind during T-Holic laughed and made eye contact.

It seems that they came to the conclusion that the composition they struggled with in the beginning would be fun.

“Yes, very cute, cute and cool testa!”

“Hi-Hi.”

“Hey, is this Generation Z? Do you think we are a little old?”

“Hyung, all of us are idols in our 30s. I have already entered the coffin in that industry.”

The composition was set in such a way that T-Holic, who does not understand the new generation, is trying to somehow adapt to the new sensibility.

He took advantage of Cha Yu-jin's unstoppable momentum.

'The focus is still on T-Holic.'

Testa, now a popular idol, has slipped into the opposite side of T-Holic.

And I was faithfully fulfilling the role of a quiet common sense person.

"Then Moondae is the main vocalist, right?"

"yes. That's right."

"Oh my song! I heard you sing 'Party in me' very well."

"Don't lie to me, you were in the army!"

"no! I heard you were on vacation!"

"Oh, what an honor. thank you."

"Yeah~ Moondae hyung sings really well!"

I received a request, so I sang a line of the song and received applause.

It is said that the idol who appeared for publicity did all the obvious things to take care of even the minimum amount.

It will be roughly angled.

'Ah, since this guy's sensibility is a bit normal, I guess I'll just have to go like this and pick a phrase from the two of them.'

As long as those guys are used to this kind of broadcasting, the price must have come out quickly.

'Well, I don't think these guys would have watched my entertainment show beforehand.'

At most, I would have checked my recent activities and grades, but the more you think of me as a calm personality, the better.

“Now, the self-introduction is over!”

And they moved on to the next one, probably because they thought they had picked enough funny scenes from Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin’s small talk.

Virtually the main corner.

It was mainly a full-fledged humor with games.

There were things like playing basketball without a ball, a chair flying into a ball pit, drawing portraits with feet and guessing who it was.

“It’s time to play show business track 2, our mind game!”

As much as Main Connery, I’ve come up with a few predictions about this type of game, but the one that seems most likely is… .

“The game we are going to play with Testa this time is~ < I heard it is right >!”

“Puff.”

okay. That’s it.

I cleared my throat, which was about to be snatched away. … I couldn’t help it because it was a phrase I had heard many times.

‘It was good to find out in advance.’

The first time I saw that on Witube, I almost spit out the water I was drinking.

“Hyung, hydration is important.”

yes thank you I listened to the dazzling progress of T-Holic while drinking the water Kim Rae-bin handed me.

‘Anyway, the expected corner came out.’

Recently, it’s a corner that appeared once every 3 episodes, and the reaction was very good, so I knew how to use it when I came out in the 1st group.

[After listening to it, you’re right!]

Just hearing this title would seem like persuading your opponent like I had, but it’s similar, but a bit different.

The youngest member of T-Holic held a voice-changing microphone and acted seriously.

“Each team chooses one of two captains to convince their opponents. The game ends when one team is logically persuaded. A terrifying penalty awaits the losing team.”

“Whoever wins the mini-game gets to pick a captain first. Good luck, then.”

Does the content sound normal? But these guys put a trap in every game.

It is usually revealed when the claim is revealed after the mini-game has passed.

“Voila!”

[Our team’s goal for next year]

[Receiving 1 billion won vs being in distress]

“… ???”

“Ahahahaha!! You must be crazy, really!!”

“Guys, welcome to show business~”

The balance was completely ruined.

After winning the mini-game, T-Holic happily chooses the former.

“One billion! 10 billion!”

“I will show the bitter taste to Generation Z who chose distress~”

If you look at this point, you might think that the subsequent pictures will be boring. It will be a one-sided beating of guests.

However, at the next timing, the second trap was revealed again.

“Guys, did I mention that the game is over when I am ‘logically persuaded’?”

“… … .”

“Hey, can you?”

“That’s right! Most plausible! The team that is logically persuaded wins.”

So to speak, it is a sophistical discussion.

The goal is to reasonably yield to the opponent’s argument.

What this means is that I have to understand what the other person is saying while explaining the side I am defending in as absurd a way as possible.

In other words, now T-Holic can win only when he is persuaded by the side that says, ‘I will suffer a shipwreck instead of 1 billion won’.

On the other hand, Testa just needs to accept the obvious proposition, ‘I will receive 1 billion instead of being in distress’.

“Isn’t that a scam??”

“no!”

‘Well done.’

It is a picture that makes them win by sliding and laughing and floating the guest position.

‘As expected, it reflects the best comments on YouTube.’

– I think it will be fun even if the team that is persuaded wins hahaha

– It is truly a legend… Please eat it like a beef bone!

Just like startup companies that have just launched, the production crew here seems to be paying more attention to communication than necessary.

It was common to see the best comments on a video being reflected around the next episode.

So I looked at the videos and expected a few variations, but it worked.

The flow after that is obvious.

“uh? that… When you suddenly receive a lot of money, people are a bit broken. If you want to retire now, I think you should receive 1 billion!”

“It is!”

“I hate retirement! I want to do it for a long time!”

“Okay, then what should I do? uh? Do you have any answers left?”

“I won’t retire after receiving 1 billion won! I’m not broken Our members are strong!”

“Wow, that’s really bold… .”

“But money is really scary~ No, I’m not saying don’t accept 1 billion won!”

Those guys will be restless for no reason while teasing a guest who speaks common sense while brazenly making absurd claims.

It’s a picture that warmly loses after eating the guest’s reaction to their actions like that… .

‘Then those guys take all the flow.’

I didn’t come here for you to make your own and use it for us.

I chuckled.

‘How to best play this game?’

Simple. You just need to reinforce your opponent’s logic. This is the way the production team would have expected it to play.

If you ride the flow of common sense, you will be swept away by them.

so… we go the other way

I put my hands on the table and interlocked them.

“Seniors.”

“Yes, Mr. Mundae, speak up~”

“I tried to understand and understand the argument of the other side as much as possible in order to win, but… .”

I solemnly declared

“No matter how you think about it, the claim we received is correct.”

“… ??”

“I think our team members would choose distress over 1 billion.”

“yes??”

“What are you talking about?”

I answered seriously.

“Because you can learn something more valuable than money from distress.”

“yes?”

“What are you learning?”

I gave a clear answer to Cha Yu-jin, who asked a small question with a tap.

“Realistically, the places where we can be in distress right now are places where we can be rescued within a few days. In the meantime, you learn new experiences.”

“aha! that’s right.”

Cha Yujin coolly nodded.

“Then, distress is fine! I like it!”

“… … ??”

T-Holic’s maknae, who served as the MC, intervened.

“Wait! If we go on like this, what are your instructions?”

“Because I can’t give up my beliefs because of this one corner issue.”

“Do you have faith in distress?”

“Guys, why… . I’m scared.”

Even Kim Rae-bin nodded earnestly when T-Holic’s maknae was frightened at the crazy game.

“I think so too.”

“yes?”

“yes.”

“yes. It’s because we actually got into trouble while filming a variety show.”

Kim Rae-bin said with her eyes sparkling.

“And I learned a lot from that experience.”

“for a moment.”

“I made the title of my last album during that distress. I am concerned that choosing the former between a billion and distress is not in line with the act of abandoning musical achievements in pursuit of money!”

“Why are you concerned about that?!”

Kim Rae-bin started to express his opinion seriously without being conscious of the fact that it was a variety show.

I knew it would happen if I immersed myself in the thesis itself.

“no… Think about it guys. does this make sense? What kind of trouble is this??”

“Receive a replacement payment and do 1 billion views like a stone!”

I raised my hand.

“Come to think of it, the amount of settlement increased with the title song created by Rabin at the time of distress, so in fact, some financial gain was included in that choice… .”

“Oh~”

“I see!”

“Please don’t react like it makes sense.”

And the set started to fall into chaos.

It was as planned.

* * *

A few days later on a weekday night.

“Wow! It’s here too!”

The graduate student laughs at the picture of Moondae on the thumbnail and sees the pre-release video of “T-Holic’s Show Business,” which has been uploaded as a popular video.

and after 1 minute.

“Puff!”

The graduate student spewed the coffee he was drinking.

Chapter 302

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 302

〈T-Holic’s Show Business〉 Testa Edition. Since it is an entertainment program that everyone has seen at least once in a clip because of its recent popularity, there are pictures that people expect or anticipate.

-Tyhoic Ajae Testa I’m going to make fun of it ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

Oh, I think it’s very cute ㅠㅠ -Play well!

Funny tea holic. And the vivid reaction of the guest that I haven’t seen before!

This is because when calling guests, this program mainly caught T-Holic’s funny behavior and the guests’ reactions to him as a laughing factor.

It was also the reason for the favorable reception that the guests skillfully filled the gap between them with publicity, which is the purpose of the guest appearance.

The best picture for both the guest’s fans and T-Holic’s fans to mutually support each other and be satisfied!

However, Testa’s anger this time… The atmosphere was quite different.

[Generation M, look at the spiciness of Generation Z!]

[Cha Yoo-jin: That’s a tiger!]

[Hajin-tae: That’s right. Our friend Cha Yoo-jin is a tiger.]

[They get distracted by the tiger's remarks from year 0X]

T-Holic was pushed back from the beginning of his self-introduction, and finally started to fill in the amount with his own reactions.

Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha hahahahahahahahahahahahaha

-Crazy Testa Gen Z madness

hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

It was a different taste from the usual variety show, but it was definitely funny.

'The testa kids are really full of personality!'

The graduate students laughed several times while watching the beginning of the main story following the pre-release.

In the meantime, I was proud of the fact that T-Holic's resting place seemed to be only Mundae.

[Park Moon-dae: Then just one line… .]

Park Moon-dae took the reins of the two maknaes who were running wild like crazy and calmly worked out what had to be done.

Promote the tour, mention the connection with T-Holic, sing a song… .

Park Moon-dae's fans were admirable and suffered from the sight.

-Mundae Yeon Sang-mi What's going on? -Actually, my child

is the youngest in the line

. In the end, the generational conflict that was rampant on the screen was gradually caught up.

In addition, as soon as we entered the main game, T-Holic took control of the atmosphere again.

After winning the mini-game of reading words in the form of mouths, they took an easy argument, and conversely, realized the rule of 'persuasion' and were devastated.

[Receiving 1 billion won VS Being in distress]

[Maknae Kim: Let's make good use of the opponent's argument and answer clearly 'why I was persuaded'~] It contained a lot of funny twists that you would expect from variety shows!

"Ahahaha!!"

Even when Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin failed in a mini-game, it was funny, but even that was a good thing!

Cha Yoo-jin on the screen was also giving a thumbs up to her members.

[Cha Yoo-jin: We like it! Rabin Kim! Well done!]

[Rabin Kim: You lost because your mouth was so fast and inaccurate, so you actually brought this gain!] [It's praising, right, guys…?]

T-holic's despair with those tiny reactions It got even funnier when combined with .

And Park Moon-dae cleaned up the situation again.

[Park Moon-dae: Everyone did a good job. Let's win and do well from here on.]

[Cha Yoo-jin: Go TeSTAR!]

[Kim Rae-bin: Yep!]

-It looks like a kindergarten teacher hahaha -If you cut this cut, you'd think it was a sports event.

– On the channel app, Park Moon-dae is mature, viewers warmly praised the team atmosphere after laughing out loud.

At the same time, I expected how calm Park Moon-dae would be taken aback by T-Holic's absurd words.

-Is Tibetan Fox finally coming out

hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

] -I'm looking forward to how she'll react

That is until Park Moon-dae reveals his true colors.

[Park Moon-dae: Our team members seem to choose distress over 1 billion won.]

Park Mun-dae said bullshit with a serious face.

"… ??"

The graduate student immediately wondered if he had heard it wrong.

However, Park Moon-dae ran out of control like crazy and began to speak nonsense with a shameless face.

That was a level of seriousness that was completely different from T-Holic's brazenness for gags.

Because they weren't trying to win, they were supporting the losing side!

As if to represent his true feelings, even the subtitles ran.

[Park Moon-dae: Because I can't put my beliefs down because of this one corner problem.]

[Insanity]

-X-haired Park Mun-dae
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

– Tibetan Mundae's face looks like this?

– What kind of bullshit is this

? This is because persuasion was completed in one conversation.

[that is… Is that convincing?]

Besides, the logical structure itself was concise and easy to understand.

In my experience, distress was more meaningful, but what can I do!

-It's even more persuasive

-Okay, distress is the best, never distress, must be distressed.

In fact, it is correct to agree with Testa's words and turn it over, but it came from a reactionary refutation, getting caught up in unexpected bullshit.

[Martin: Everyone! Let's think realistically… . Does it make sense that distress is good??]

[Kim Rae-bin: If you look at this claim from a realistic point of view, it makes more sense. As Moon Dae-hyung said earlier, even if we are in distress, we are in the middle of modern civilization!]

And there are cuts from Testa's Island Distress variety show that pass by all the time.

[Experienced person's assertion]

[Received: Entertainment jackpot, next album title, money, fame]

[☆ and distress are better than 1 billion!☆]

[I'm tempted… ? by production team]

The moment the production team surrendered, viewers also acknowledged it.

-This claim

was wrong

Holic did not give in and worked hard to come up with a different logic.

The important issue is 'Still, it can be dangerous! People can get seriously hurt!' But Park Mun-dae muttered this with sad eyes.

[Park Moon-dae: That's… Shouldn't it be seen as a sad accident, not a distress?] [Ha Ji-tae:

Distress

is also an accident!!] -Ha ha ha

[Cha Yu-jin: Senior, are you in distress?]

[Martin: No]

[Cha Yu-jin: Then I don't know if you really hate it! You have to try it!]

Park Moon-dae calmly said to the opposing team, who had his mouth wide open.

[Park Moon-dae: Wouldn't it be more reasonable to trust the testimony of juniors who have experienced the same job, rather?] [

Cha Yu-jin: That's right. Experience is important!]

[Kim Rae-bin: You are indeed wise.]

-You

sound like wisdom!

[Looks like you're right… !]

That's how T-Holic got a mere shell victory… .

[Maknae Kim: Alright, now it's time to organize it~ Everyone, did you prepare a reason for being persuaded?]

In the end, T-Holic declared bullshit with his own mouth.

[Ha Ji-tae: Distress is… Because we are idols! New experiences provide opportunities for growth and financial gain… .]

[Ha Ji-tae: So… Distress! It is more worthy of our goal next year than a mere 1 billion! Ugh!]

[Maknae Kim: Okay~ That's very persuasive!]

As soon as those words came out, applause came out from among the crew. It was caused by a riot.

[Hajin-tae: Don’t laugh, these people!! is this funny?? We have a target for distress next year!]

Meanwhile, the three Testas nodded.

[Park Moon-dae: Even though we lost, I think we fought well.]

[Martin: What are you talking about, I did my best to lose!]

[Hahahah

The spinning penalty board slowly slowed down… .

[!!!!]

The shocking penalty has been revealed!

* * *

“Ah~ Today’s shooting went well.”

“It was a lot of trouble.”

“thank you!”

Together with the two of them, I bowed my head to the T-Holic guys.

As soon as the camera was turned off, these guys became calm as if they were lying.

‘Was it for entertainment after all?’

It means that the appearance of bursting into a waterfall of harsh words at each other has disappeared and they have just returned to work like colleagues they have seen for a long time.

‘That might be the secret.’

At that time, during the filming, one of the guys who talked the most and talked hard secretly added a word.

“You talk well, but are you interested in entertainment?”

“… ?”

Is it line recruiting? I answered clearly.

“Entertainment is good. Well, by the way, according to the agency’s policy, we are going to focus more on the album.”

“Ah~”

he understood at once. Then, while drinking water, he spoke slowly.

“This is my advice as a senior… It’s difficult for a group to do well for a long time while only promoting music. It’s a little ironic, but to be a group for a long time, each one has to do well.”

“hmm.”

“People get tired of it quickly and their minds are not consistent.”

is it an experience?

Coincidentally, a similar conversation was going on next to me.

It was because he was carefully holding out the T-Holic album that Rabin Kim had brought with him and getting an autograph.

“Thank you, senior… !”

“Ah~ What are you doing with something like this? Do you need anything else?”

“Well then! We would be grateful if you could give us some advice on the driving forces that have kept the group active for a long time!”

Kim Rae-bin’s eyes twinkled and the T-Holic members scratched their heads.

“hmm. Let’s not expect too much from each other, shall we?”

“yes… ?”

“It’s a little easier if we don’t forget that we’re close because we’re on the same team, not because we’re like each other.”

That was some serious advice.

‘The guy next to you isn’t your friend, so you mean to say that even if you don’t get hit?’

Seeing Kim Rae-bin bickering with Cha Yu-jin, he seemed to have many thoughts.

Even so, the T-Holic members themselves seemed a bit taken aback, probably because of Kim Rae-bin’s atmosphere.

“okay!”

However, Kim Rae-bin interpreted this on his own.

“That was the resemblance to family. It’s like you can’t choose your own family.”

“… ??”

“Even though we didn’t meet for the purpose of friendship, I believe that a true sense of solidarity can grow within it!”

“uh… is it so. Go for it!”

T-Holic had a strange face, but I didn’t bother to ask if I had met all the stars.

‘… Funny guy.’

I smiled and looked back at the guy in front of me who had made something similar to an entertainment network offer.

“But I’m still trying to focus on group activities and work hard.”

The guy shrugged.

“okay. If it’s an agency, there’s nothing special.”

After finishing the conversation moderately politely, I approached Kim Rae-bin, who was taking autographs, and asked.

“Can you prepare within three days of the penalty?”

“No problem.”

Rabin Kim smiled brightly.

The penalty this time is… The childhood romance of Generation M.

It’s an anime theme song.

Chapter 303

If you can’t debut, you’ll die of illness.

In episode 303 of < T-Holic's Show Business >, the stage or contest given as a penalty is natural, but it’s for gag purposes.

It is to take a famous meme that is popular as a trend or a steady seller and reinterpret it or reproduce it as it is.

‘So far, T-Holic has done half of it.’

In fact, there may be more because it often helps guests win. And because these cubs are so funny and well-chosen, even if directing or coaching goes well with the guests, there is a strong perception that ‘original’ is tea-holic.

Then, what is the most important thing to pay attention to when composing this stage?

“The following is a draft that I gave a drum sound to and reconstructed the beat.”

Rumble!

Cha Yoo-jin’s eyes flashed as the accompaniment sounded like a well-placed exhaust sound.

“This is great! Do this!”

“for a moment.”

I stopped Yujin Cha.

“Listen to something else.”

“Okay then I’ll play number 3.”

The thing to be careful of is that you shouldn’t do well in a heartwarming way.

‘If I just do well, they’ll say it’s no fun.’

What viewers expect is a funny stage, but if you do well without a smile, there is a high probability that you will think ‘even these things are subtracted’.

It is none of those people’s business that I put my whole body into making it with only a week left.

‘For a story like that to work, it has to be a survival story.’

It’s a sound that is unheard of in general entertainment programs.

However, blindly aiming for laughter is not the best solution.

‘There are not one or two funny guys in this punishment.’

It would be faster to find those who are not funny and have become solemn. The directors were resourceful, so they organized it well.

Similarly, if Testa follows this trend, it will only be absorbed by the program’s good reputation.

-As expected, T-Shobi is merciless, even Testa hahahaha -Ah, it’s so fun, I didn’t expect to see Testa do something like this

-T-Shobi, please call our kids again Promise… ^^

Doesn’t the angle of response that you expect from the program roughly come out?

‘He even gave us a list of recommendations.’

I passed the candidates for the ‘memorable animation theme song’ given by the production team with my eyes.

motorcycle racing cartoon greek roman mythology cartoon mystery cartoon… .

‘What I just heard is the mystery comic opening… .’

Kim Rae-bin changed this into a nice rhythm with a hard-boiled taste. In other words, it’s not funny at all. just be cool

The next song was the same.

“I like this music!”

“I know.”

After that, it was the theme song of a Greek mythology cartoon, but it was arranged so that it was easy to listen to, so there is no such thing as an easy-listening indie band song.

And only then did I realize my mistake.

First of all, it was the wrong idea to look at the arrangement and set the direction.

‘In the first place, I should have been a direction coach.’

At the order of ‘arranging the animation theme song to fit the testa stage’, Kim Rae-bin really only selected such an arrangement.

Sophisticated without being ridiculous at all.

‘No, I don’t think it would be difficult for this guy to make a low-quality, funny arrangement in the first place… .’

Of course, since he's a guy with senses, he should be able to select all of them after he comes across a few references, but it's absolutely not something he's specialized in.

Especially in this state, where he has deliberately chosen arrangement plans for all of the candidate songs, saying, "It looks like it would be fun." I think I'll be discouraged with a high probability.

"How are you? It may sound a bit clunky as I haven't done any detailed adjustments and mixing yet, but I think the important delivery has been done!"

"okay. It's definitely easy to hear."

"thank you!"

okay. This guy is totally awesome.

'I don't have much time.'

I said useless things for no reason, but Kim Rae-bin said, 'Funny… Music?'

First of all, I listened to all three songs Kim Rae-bin chose and was immersed in my thoughts.

purpose of the video.

'Why were only animations that went viral on WeTube listed as candidate songs?'

I want to stop talking about this generation, but… Anyway, it is a choice aimed at the Z generation who watched the popular video or the M generation who watched the cartoon itself when they were young.

After all, the keyword… Consensus and topicality in terms of content.

'hmm.'

It was when I was rubbing my chin.

Cha Yoo-jin asked without hesitation.

“Moondae hyung! Do you not like this?”

“… !”

this.

“… ! Please point out my shortcomings and I will correct them!”

Kim Rae-bin was horribly surprised, and then stood up like a private soldier.

‘Did I say too much?’

Well, any savvy guy could tell that I wasn’t very happy with it. I was careless because it was Kim Rae-bin.

At times like this, the more comfortable the reaction, the less serious the atmosphere. I shrugged.

I just thought of a way.

“The arrangement is good… I don’t think it’s a cartoon song that you guys know. I wonder if you know.”

“I don’t know!”

“I’ve watched Detective Arthur before, but I’ve only heard of reputation for the others.”

Cha Yu-jin asked brightly.

“You know what? saw?”

… Right. Park Moon-dae is only two years older than these guys.

I came up with a common sense answer.

“… I saw it on YouTube.”

“Oh.”

“okay. for the stage… You are truly prepared!”

Let’s get it wrong.

“Anyway, the songs the producers gave me are okay, but the songs aren’t really related to us… .”

I threw the bait.

“Wouldn’t it be more fun if we did a song related to us?”

“Is there a song like that?”

“I like ‘Billy’s exciting animal tale’!”

It’s the first American cartoon I’ve ever heard of.

I shook my head and said.

“You have to choose a cartoon that was famous in Korea before and after the 2000s. Because that’s the penalty condition.”

“Boo… .”

Because it’s a ‘memorable anime theme song’. In that sense, Cha Yoo-jin’s sensibility is dismissal.

‘I wonder if this is enough.’

Instead, I showed them the WeTube video of the candidate I just came up with.

Apparently this also became a meme because of the creative gesture on tic tac tok.

“therefore… How about this.”

“… ?”

If this is the case, there is no need to go for a ridiculous arrangement by reducing Kim Rae-bin’s motivation.

‘But there’s no need for us to dress up in a funny way.’

It can be funny the other way around.

‘The stage isn’t funny, but I make it funny because of the situation.’

Humor in context.

So that the person who arranges it can comfortably immerse himself in it without thinking that it is funny.

“This… ah.”

As expected, Kim Rae-bin’s expression brightened.

“okay. surely… It can be a significant challenge. Please wait a moment!”

And Rabin Kim put on a headset and went to work.

‘… On the ground without the original song?’

Anyway, it seems that the fire is definitely on. I nodded.

‘Is it okay?’

At that time, the last unit member next to him opened his mouth with a serious expression.

“brother.”

Oh, this guy could be a problem.

I assure you, this is not Cha Yu-jin's taste.

"Why"

"Hyung and Kim Rae-bin really like this? Really?"

"uh."

Then Cha Yoo-jin watched the video once, looked at Kim Rae-bin once, and looked at me for the last time before sighing.

[My God!]

What?

"This is a comedy stage whose purpose is to be funny. This is good enough."

"i know! right… ."

Cha Yu-jin licked her lips a few times with a sad face, but soon shrugged.

It was a declaration of surrender.

[brother. I really do this for the team. I never thought I would do something like this in my life.]

I chuckled. Got it baby

"Here's the pitch… ."

Kim Rae-bin worked hard to adjust the key and match the accompaniment, and came up with an arrangement of 1 minute and 24 seconds in half a day.

The early morning practice was fixed.

Turn the scene around and the point at which the live broadcast of the sophistry discussion with Testa has just finished.

In reality, the penalty was filmed after a week's term, but in the broadcast, the penalty cut naturally followed Testa's crazy defeat.

After the commercials, of course.

[Penalty stage prepared by Testa?]

[Revealed after 60 seconds]

People who were already familiar with the technique made various predictions and chatter in the gap.

-One vote for Dionysus's classic stage,

┗T-Holic.. I already did it..

┗Hahahahahahahahahahahaha

┗At this point,

there were many funny songs and concepts that would come to mind when it comes to respectable animation.

And since there was never a joke in the history of this program, they already had the direction and feeling they expected.

-Unconditionally, it seems to be directed by halo in the 90s

-Please

save the face

This program didn't break down clumsily, but I knew how to faithfully reproduce this funny sensibility!

But when the screen returns after the interim advertisement.

-?

The three testers were just standing in the studio in neat school uniforms.

The lighting that is plugged into the testa who turned around is also a state-of-the-art sensibility. No other filters were included.

-Eh

-Testa penalty, right?

At that moment, the song started with a bright and cheerful accompaniment.

Park Mundae of the center makes a symbolic gesture as he turns around.

[The dream of love conveyed through song begins now]

-?????

It was the same gesture as the transformation theme song of the 2001 magical girl animation < Melody Angel >.

A classic magical girl manga that becomes a magical girl with a melody and purifies enemies with a magical song.

Testa, who realistically reproduced the school uniform without exaggerated makeup, grabbed a real microphone and started live.

-This is me.

-Live?

[Magical lights up!]

This cartoon also had an original song, not an adaptation, thanks to the investment of an ambitious animation broadcasting station.

The theme song of the main character group.

It is the theme song of memories neatly arranged so that it is perfect for listening to now.

A melody that almost everyone in their 20s and 30s knows was reproduced with original sensitivity. [

A magical heart bullet flying with love in a pure song !]

Because of those lyrics and motions, a twisted gag video for destroying children's hearts has been popular for a while. Thanks to this, even teenagers knew the original video.

However, Testa did not use or stage the meme. It's just a faithful reproduction of the original animation.

Even in the chorus, they come out wearing nice-looking capes and gloves as stage props and continue the stage.

It is exactly the point at which the cape appears in the full transformation scene of < Melody Angel >.

[Open your heart, LOVE,

I'm going to make a wish today]

Testa did a really good job.

In terms of the reproduction rate and coolness of actual cartoons, it was better than any other video uploaded on the Internet. From the song to the facial expression and choreography, it was truly a job.

So it was even more funny.

The CG glitter effect was used only once, but even that was the same as the cartoon, so it was more difficult.

And a short interlude in the second half of the stage.

The comment that appeared in the place where the program traditionally has subtitles for impressions was the highest peak.

Chapter 304

Episode 304

“Euhahahahaha!!”

Sejin burst into laughter in the living room. On the giant screen of the smart TV, I saw three grown men wielding capes.

[♡Magic Heart bullet!♡]

“… … .”

It was a YouTube compilation of the penalty stage. Playing a children’s animation cover stage in the middle of a living room is, in effect, a public execution.

“Turn it off.”

Before Cha Yu-jin jumps out and grabs me by the collar.

“Ah, why~ It looks professional and it’s so good?”

However, the big Sejin laughed.

“Sejin also has a professional mindset, but it’s a pity that I couldn’t participate~”

“You went to the jungle and came back.”

Take a look at the long tongue of the guy who took a solo commercial and appeared in a variety show while other guys were wearing a cape and trembling.

Of course, if this is the case, he will be left with a lot of regret.

“So, if I had a team for a couple of weeks, I would have made time somehow… .”

I can feel him sneakily watching TV with an eye that says the big Sejin is a waste.

“The response is really good.”

It was an undeniable truth.

[Maknae Testa’s overindulgence hahahaha]

[Generation M idol getting helpless by Generation Z hahahaha]

[Bakmundae Sonamoo certified broadcast.jpg]

[Today’s T-Showbi Testa is really crazy]

From discussions to punishments, the characters we’ve built up The bread exploded and completely ate up Buzz.

‘It’s ours.’

It can be seen as the achievement of the goal because it belongs to the image of Testa, that is, the topic that was generated not because of the program, but because of the performers… .

“Look at this, Moondaemundae. I heard that watching magical girls is your hobby?”

“Will you see?”

“Hahahaha!!”

… It’s kind of like that when you’re this old and did that.

‘Everybody even tried fucking with popcorn.’

Fortunately, as time passed, people who admired or were addicted to the stage itself began to appear one after another.

‘Because I made it well.’

If the stage was ridiculous, it would have been a dark history, but it is satisfactory that it successfully solidified the image of a singer rather than an entertainer.

– Please give me the sound source. -Not releasing this as an official sound source is to play with the memories of those born in the 90s. It’s true

. Kim Rae-bin received the silver medal.

At the end of the penalty video, an interview with Cookie was inserted because Kim Rae-bin answered the arrangement process very honestly.

[Moondae hyung (editing) recommended a meaningful and good song, so I enjoyed working on it. Thank you for the great opportunity.]

[(Editing) It took a total of 5 hours!]

-A 20-year-old anime theme song arranged in 5 hours?

-Wow, Arranged by Kim Rae

-Bin -Recommended by Park Moon-Dae ㅋㅋ You were really sincere

-It was just Cheonsang-gye Arranged in a day

-Kim Rae-bin, what the hell is this My Little

Medieval Rabbit

? He said that he did not know that he would have to give the country to this extent.

Everyone was tongue-in-cheek at her skill at refining an old children's animation theme song, which could easily become ridiculous because it was a magical girl theme song.

'Since most of the co-productions have been co-produced, I feel that Kim Rae-bin's ability has been underestimated.'

"Rabin, look at this~ You are a genius!"

"I really appreciate the undeserved praise, but I will work harder!"

Kim Rae-bin answered in an instant like a fully automatic robot.

Judging by the spleen expression on his face, it seems that this guy also looked at the reaction on the Internet, and he also had an excessive spirit.

'Because he's always good at it.'

Actually, the reaction wasn't too much. Kim Rae-bin's ability distribution is at the level of cheat keys in this industry.

In particular, his composing-related abilities, which are not marked as stats, are outstanding. Even the speed is fast because it has the characteristic 'Maestro (S)'.

It's a performance that pulls out as soon as the order comes down.

'Isn't it the most preferred employee in modern society?'

I'm a bit clueless… Being honest and sincere, that can be seen as an advantage.

'Looking at it like this, I feel lucky again.'

It was only when I appeared in < Azusa > that I was in a hurry to debut, and even after that, I didn't evaluate the long-term value of each individual because I didn't know about the crazy future with a series of 'status abnormalities'.

However, after debuting, it is almost a miracle to have such a good mix of skills as a survival game.

'I thought there would be one or two bastards.'

I shrugged.

Anyway, now that I'm stuck with T-Holic, I'm not pushed, so the topicality in the second half is stable.

I just have to manage it well until the year-end awards season.

Liu Cheng-wu smiled and said a good word.

"Come to think of it, this activity will be over soon. Everyone has been through a lot."

"Iknow, right."

The domestic schedule is in the final stage without a new schedule for advertising events.

All that remains is the preparation for the concert and the next album. It was a neat success.

"Now, our Rabin will do a great job arranging music for concerts~"

"I will make a great song to meet your expectations… !"

The atmosphere was fine. There is no immediate problem, and it is the afterglow of success that can be enjoyed immediately after announcing the result and receiving high evaluation.

I nodded and turned the TV screen.

All the big things have passed, so I thought it would be okay.

However, some of us didn’t enjoy this timing very much.

From his point of view, it must be because ‘big cases’ were still scattered.

Short break for a few days after the last event in Korea.

smart.

“It’s Moondae. Did you see Rabin… ?”

“hmm.”

Seon Ah-hyun, who came in after carefully knocking, asked the same cautiously.

‘But the content is out of the blue.’

The whereabouts of Kim Rae-bin. I took my eyes off the plan I was making and answered.

“no. why?”

“Oh that… I can’t come into my room these days.”

“… … .”

Even after hearing the explanation, it is still out of the blue.

First of all, Seon Ah-hyun and Kim Rae-bin were roommates. Both of them are the type that sticks well to the room, so they probably have no choice but to see their faces often, but it was strange that they didn’t come into the room.

He’s not the type to go out often.

“I haven’t seen you today either, so let’s ask.”

“Oh, I guess so. for a moment… !”

“No wait.

Why do I have a smartphone in my hand?

I blocked Seon Ah-hyun from going back to her room and put a message on my phone.

[Where is it?]

But no reply came.

“… … ?”

He’s the one who usually responds politely within 5 seconds.

“hmm.”

“No reply… ?”

“Yes.”

I called.

Tu-

“… … .”

But he doesn’t even answer the phone.

‘what.’

There is a possibility that you can leave your phone somewhere on the veranda inside the accommodation… If you’re not at the dorm, you’re out.

‘Has anyone seen Kim Rae-bin go out?’

I immediately went out to the living room and asked the others if they had seen Kim Rae-bin.

Cha Yoo-jin and Keun Se-jin go out. The only ones left are Ryu Cheong-woo and Bae Se-jin.

“Lavin? Come to think of it, I don’t think I’ve seen you today.”

Liu Cheng-wu, who was in the living room, seemed equally puzzled.

and Sejin Bae.

This guy averted his eyes.

“today… I never left my room.”

“… … .”

“What is it?”

“I can’t see Kim Rae-bin.”

I understood the situation anyway. Kim Rae-bin seemed to have evaporated without any news.

This… Even during breaks, it’s strange. I don’t know if it’s Cha Yu-jin, but he left without saying hello and didn’t answer the phone?

“I said I wouldn’t even answer the phone.”

“yes. I would like to contact the company once.”

I checked with Seon Ah-hyun for the last time.

“When was the last time you saw Kim Raebin?”

“I didn’t see you last night… ”

“When do you sleep?”

“I go to bed early… I don’t know. Sorry. They are roommates.”

“I am not going to apologize.”

“okay! I’m not sorry!”

I entrusted Bae Se-jin with comfort and picked up my smartphone again to call the company.

It was then.

[Raebin Kim]

“… !”

I got a call from myself

“Uh uh… !”

“Are you Ravin?”

“yes.”

I got the call right away. The words poured out as if they had been waiting.

-I have contacted you after confirming your absence. Forgive me for being late… !

“No, it’s okay. Where is it now than that?”

-yes? Ah, I came to the company recording studio for a while!

Liu Qingyu spoke quietly.

“Rabin. Even on holidays, keep in touch. Everyone was worried because no one saw you today.”

-today… .

For a moment, the phone went quiet. what?

However, strong apologies were soon heard.

-sorry! I was frivolous!

“I don’t think so… . Anyway, good job.”

-yes!

Kim Rae-bin hung up the phone only after a few polite expressions of gratitude.

Bae Se-jin sighed and muttered.

“It wasn’t a big deal.”

“Iknow, right.”

“I think Rabin forgot to contact me because he was working.”

The story was organized internally, saying that it seemed that some kind of inspiration came and ran out.

‘Is it the end?’

I shrugged my shoulders and moved on to finish the plan I was writing.

And dinner a few hours later.

Kim Rae-bin, who was wearing glasses, nodded his head as he entered.

“I came to check my future plans in the studio. It’s been a long time since I’ve had a long time, so I thought I shouldn’t miss this opportunity!”

“okay.”

“I am sorry if I have caused you concern.”

“Oh no. I was worried that something was wrong… If that’s the case, I’d like you to tell me.”

“It’s not uncomfortable at all. Please let me know if there is anything uncomfortable with me!”

The two of them spoke thoughtfully and conversed amicably.

‘What happened?’

I shrugged and tried to pass by, but at that moment, I checked Kim Rae-bin’s face up close.

“… … .”

that… Are you too lazy?

It’s not like he had a very good impression, but he can be seen.

‘hmm.’

He is a guy who often works on music even at the dorm. I’m not the kind of guy who becomes like that just by touching a song for a while… … .

‘no way.”

After talking with Seon Ah-hyun, I caught the guy trying to go.

“Kim Raebin.”

“yes?”

“Did you work all night?”

“… … !”

“It’s not that I didn’t see Seon Ah-hyun because she slept early yesterday, but you didn’t come to the dorm at all.”

“… … that’s it.”

It is a face that anyone can see.

Kim Rae-bin hesitated, but soon answered quietly.

“that… I was so engrossed that I didn’t know how much time had passed and I couldn’t report it. sorry.”

Like a guy who can’t lie, he tells the truth.

Well, staying up all night isn’t a job that lasts for a day or two, so I’ll take care of it, but it’s a pity that right now isn’t the season for that.

“What did you do?”

“I prepared the concert sound source and the next album!”

I said to float.

“It’s okay if you don’t have to. It’s not because I’m in a hurry.”

There is quite a bit of time until the concert. The next album is even better.

“You work fast, so you don’t have to stay up all night… .”

“You can’t rely on such tricks!”

“… !”

Kim Rae-bin seemed to be shocked by himself for cutting off the other person’s words and talking back.

“Sorry! It may not be fast this time, so I want to be more prepared… … .”

After all, it wasn't that inspiration came and I ran like crazy, but was it because of the pressure?

"Yeah, I got it. Don't overdo it though."

"yes… ."

Kim Rae-bin shook his head and walked slowly to his room.

Seon Ah-hyun did not leave her seat and watched it all the way.

Looking at his face, it says 'I'm worried'.

"Are you concerned?"

"Yes."

Seon Ah-hyun seemed to have come to a similar conclusion.

"I think the burden of wealth is heavy… . I think I've been like that before."

"Um, yes."

Everyone on the Internet is talking about being a genius, so you have no choice but to be more concerned about the next results.

Aren't you the kind of person who thinks of all the possible outcomes right before releasing an album every time?

'Still, he's been doing well so far.'

Gi-woo is just Ki-woo, and as time passes, you will see the results and regain your confidence.

'Right now, when I told people not to worry, I remembered the refutation.'

First of all, I took the lead in not controlling him to do whatever he wanted.

But this time there was a variable.

A few days later, in a blind test for concert arrangements… Kim Rae-bin's arrangement was finally eliminated.

Chapter 305

of episode 305,

Raebin Kim was clearly nervous.

-It's okay Ravin, you've done well so far.

-Of course~ Even if it doesn't work, we don't have ears to listen! But can't it be?

-That's right, I like Kim Rae-bin's song!

-… thank you

At least after listening to the encouragement from the others, my complexion improved a little.

But when I opened the lid… .

– Then you go to number 2 4 5 like this? okay. Then our Ravin's number is… .

-… It was 3 times.

His arrangement ended up not even in the rankings.

It's literally a dropout.

It's funny to explain it complacently like this, but it's something no one could have guessed.

‘Kim Rae-bin’s arrangement was finally eliminated… … .’

This is because up until now, this guy’s arrangement has been put into the final draft to the point where it’s okay to call it ‘must have’.

Of course, it has never been fully adopted. However, at least a crucial part of the draft was reflected, and I was fully involved in the final work.

So, the members also talked about the next work like a habit.

-Now, our Rabin will do a great job arranging music for concerts~

But this time, it’s the first failure since debut.

‘That’s also because he couldn’t sleep for several days and hung on.’

“… … .”

I swiped through the material for the ‘Concert Arrangement Plan Blind Voting Results’, which also arrived via e-mail, and turned off the screen.

Then he folded his arms and leaned back.

‘There must be several reasons.’

The direction was different, the AR team poured in good drafts because it suited their taste, or they had plenty of time to work.

But why is it just now?

However, it is foolish to overturn the results of the vote right away.

Because of his personality, there’s no way he’ll be happy, and he can’t lower the quality just to take care of himself.

‘It’s just aggravating the situation without any benefit.’

But it was foolish to leave it as it is.

“… … .”

I got up from my seat.

It was to quietly go into the room after the morning concert meeting and find the impaled one.

But I didn’t have to go far. Rabin Kim was sitting on the sofa in the living room.

Next to them were Cha Yu-jin, who was quite resolute, Sun Ah-hyun, who had a worried expression, and Keun Se-jin, who looked puzzled.

Cha Yoo-jin held out something to Kim Rae-bin.

“Kim Raebin, eat this.”

Kim Rae-bin was wearing a coat and socks. It seems to have caught the guy trying to get out.

“I’m not going to eat. I’m in the studio for a while… .”

“Why are you in the studio?”

“… !”

The guys I was talking with turned to me. Kim Rae-bin swallowed and muttered in a low voice.

“If we don’t work on correcting our shortcomings, we won’t be able to produce results that people will be satisfied with in our next attempt… .”

“Do better next time Kim Raebin! It can’t be once. No problem, it’s okay!”

However, Kim Rae-bin was neither annoyed nor sympathetic to Cha Yu-jin’s words.

“I’m not sure if it’ll be okay or not.”

just muttered quietly.

“But since I failed this time, I can say that the probability of things not going well has increased. So, in order for the probability to decrease, you need to prepare more… … .”

“… … .”

After a short silence passed.

“Why don’t you get some rest, Rabin?”

“That’s right. We still have a lot of time left until the concert… I need to conserve my stamina… !”

Words poured out in an instant.

He must have thought that something could happen if he sent it to the studio as it is.

‘It seems so to me.’

I don’t know if I’d rather be angry or resentful, but that’s like an obsession. Big Sejin sat down next to him and patted him on the shoulder.

“Don’t monkeys sometimes fall from trees? Let’s take a break while thinking about our stage~ They say rest is important too?”

This… I’ll have to help.

I opened my mouth.

“I’ve been running without resting so far, so let me rest my head. Muscles also attach when you rest, but you didn’t rest too much.”

“Rest.”

In the end, Kim Rae-bin reluctantly nodded. I held back a sigh.

The timing was bad.

And days passed.

Kim Rae-bin did not go to the studio as promised, but his complexion was still not good. It seemed that the shock of the first failure had not yet gone.

Still, after spending a busy time filming a promotional video for the tour, it was around the time when I relaxed again because of some stages that had yet to be drafted.

‘It’s quiet.’

My body woke up early in the morning, probably because I couldn’t adapt properly to the changed schedule.

‘Should I drink some water?’

I left the room quietly so as not to wake my roommate.

And I found something unexpected. Light leaking from outside the veranda of the living room.

The light source is too close because it came from beyond the window. It looks like an electronic light… … .

‘invasion?’

There’s no way the crazy bastard climbing down the rope from the rooftop… Well, there must be.

I approached cautiously without limiting the scope of my thinking. Keep an emergency contact network open so that you can report it in case of emergency.

But what was out there… The person was right, but not a stranger.

“Kim Raebin.”

“… !”

Kim Rae-bin, who was sitting on the tile, looked back in amazement.

“Tongue brother.”

The appearance of wearing headphones or the program on the screen… Anyone could see it was working.

This kid secretly came out to the veranda at dawn and was squatting and working.

“What are you doing.”

“that is… .”

“I’m touching the song.”

Is this why you look so tired during the day?

The complexion could not be restored. This stupid guy… .

I closed the balcony door and strode in and stood in front of him.

“I am… .”

Kim Rae-bin hurriedly tried to clear his seat, but accidentally pressed the keyboard.

And the laptop window changed.

Kim Rae-bin… I was monitoring at the same time as I was working.

[Results of blind voting for the concert arrangement plan]

A group email with the same subject as the email I saw a few days ago.

‘This… .’

Looking at Kim Rae-bin’s recent appearance, I don’t think he had a productive thought to get motivated and motivated by watching it again.

I must have been shocked enough.

and… That email wasn’t just about the voting results.

In order to find a reasonable combination direction, I wrote anonymously why each number was selected and why it was not selected.

But if you look at the tone, you can roughly guess.

-Number 4 is the most fun.

-Number 2 is smooth and good to listen to

. I didn’t choose No. 13 because I thought it would spoil my taste.

“… … .”

That’s why we couldn’t even make pretentious sounds like four songs were the best but we had bad luck.

The members also voted together.

… And I also put one comment for each number there. Of course, even under Kim Rae-bin’s candidate song.

-The sound is excessive

“… … .”

For the past few days, Kim Rae-bin had posted the peer review and read it over and over in silence.

And among those words, there was not a single person who liked Kim Rae-bin's song.

'X foot… really.'

Could it be that he was trying to reflect this at dawn?

"listen."

I sat in front of him and made eye contact.

"The majority is not always right. Actually, the public might like your arrangement more."

"… … ."

"I don't have to worry too much about this result. It's just a concert arrangement."

Raebin Kim suddenly replied.

"But my brother also judged that my arrangements were of poor quality."

"… … ."

"Feedback that is excessive… Didn't Moondae hyung give it to you?"

"I'm not a composer, so you don't have to believe my words unconditionally. Your senses more than anyone else's words… ."

"no!"

Rabin Kim lowered his head.

"My older brother's judgment on songs has always been objective and good. I've never missed it, but I didn't arrange it properly… ."

"… … ."

It feels like getting hit in the head.

This guy is more shocked by this.

‘I was noticing that my judgment on songs was particularly good.’

It was thanks to the characteristic ‘grabbing ears (A)’. He probably didn’t realize something unusual like a skill, but he recognized it right away because he had a good sense for music.

– Moondae hyung’s choice is always great.

I thought that I was criticized by the evaluator who trusted the most objectivity.

‘under… .’

The taste was bitter.

I won’t lie. In fact, even now, I don’t think Kim Rae-bin’s arrangement is very good.

‘It was too typical for Kim Rae-bin.’

I just knew that the AR team had come up with it.

And this trait is what I got from the status window, so it’s definitely guaranteed… … … .

‘Wait a status window?’

At that moment, a few examples of what I experienced suddenly pass through my head.

‘… … .’

I called up Kim Rae-bin’s status window.

I hoped it wasn't, but there was a word I hadn't seen there that was added at the very end.

!Status Abnormality: Damn Dodori

Pyo.

[Dodol-Yi-pyo]

: Lost in place,

'Attribute: Maestro (S)"s reaction. sensory deterioration.

"By the way… By overdone, do you mean that the song has too much structure? So, a little less here… Can you tell me what this sounds like? Are you better than before? Will it get better?"

"… … ."

This… this won't work

It was clear that this guy was completely out of his mind.

I get it now The reason Kim Rae-bin seemed solid against criticism was because he was able to come up with an alternative right away.

But now it seemed that the system had completely collapsed. Dependent.

'X foot… .'

I received the headphones he gave me, but I didn't wear them. asked instead.

"… How does that sound to you?"

I heard Kim Raebin whimper in a low voice.

"I do not know… . I tried to reflect as much as possible on what people said they liked and produce results that would be expected… I don't know if I did it right.”

“Do what you want to do.”

“I don’t even know what I want to do… .”

I know what this means.

‘The balance is broken.’

I know that this guy has a humble side that sincerely tries to accept other people’s opinions.

But at the same time, he had faith in his abilities.

An instinctive level of conviction that if you like it, it’s good, and if you don’t like it, it’s not good.

So, even if feedback is given, it is absorbed based on one’s own judgment, whether it is interpreted on its own.

A style that runs all the way as it understands and is inspired.

Look at T-Holic’s remarks, which were also interpreted as family.

But this time, things were a little different.

When reviews that were better than expected were pouring like crazy from an unspecified number of people, they were overwhelmed by the direct fire.

‘Rather, I lost my confidence.’

The thought that I shouldn’t disappoint, the pressure to produce perfect results destroyed the joy.

There, the personality of my pace is lost, so the song has no personality.

However, when I receive harsh criticism, I am completely embarrassed and care too much about the evaluation. Because it was the first ‘failure of ability’ in this guy’s life.

I endured the swearing.

And after calming the guy who was about to burst into tears, he confiscated the laptop.

“Stop this for now. Even if it’s not this, you have a lot of work to do and you’re a talented guy. Let it go.”

“… … .”

“I’m not saying this because I don’t think I can do it, but if you do this and get insomnia, bigger troubles will happen.”

“Once you finish one… .”

“no.”

I confiscated my laptop. And in conflict, he said.

“… If you’re doing it for fun, it’s not my business to interfere, but right now it’s ruining your condition. You can’t even sleep.”

“… … .”

Rabin Kim lowered his head.

I tapped him on the shoulder and realized only that I was filthy incompetent at this sort of thing.

‘X feet.’

A countermeasure was needed.

* * *

Even after that dawn, Kim Rae-bin faithfully participated in the schedule.

But the witty feeling from before was shattered.

And one of the guys who noticed it found the reason in my room.

“Park Moon-dae, is that his laptop?”

Big Sejin said seriously.

“I’d rather just let it happen. That’s where you catch the kid.”

“… … .”

I shook my head roughly and answered a beat later.

A solution I’ve been grinding and polishing for days.

“Then get a mountain hut.”

“… ? what?”

I wasn’t kidding.

I remembered Kim Rae-bin’s ‘Abnormal Status’.

A counteraction of the Maestro characteristic that increases the production speed of a song that can be considered almost industrial.

Raebin Kim’s exceptional sense of deterioration.

‘In the end, I was obsessed with performance and efficiency, so there was a reaction.’

Then it’s simple.

Let’s do some non-productive creations that have nothing to do with testa performance.

So, I started planning a healing course with garbage-like efficiency that I had never considered in my life.

It is a training camp for self-development.

“just… Let’s go to the mountain at all.”

not a destination.

Chapter 306

If you can't debut, you get a fatal disease Episode 306

Rumble.

It was quiet inside the moving car.

The members sitting in the seats of the spacious van seemed to be listening to songs or working on their smartphones.

Kim Rae-bin tried to recall today's schedule and detailed preparation method, but gave up. At all, thinking did not move in a productive direction.

And I felt guilty for that.

'This kind of negligence.'

It could be defined as 'the heart is very tired' in the vulgar language, but it came to himself as laziness.

'… Everyone is working hard.'

And then, I suddenly remembered the scene where the manager and the members were talking about today's schedule.

-It was filmed in an outskirts studio, right?

-yes. That's right.

-Then it will take a while~

It sure seemed like a long time had passed since I got into the car.

I didn’t even volunteer, but I didn’t know if it was because the anxiety that lost direction throughout that time was endlessly going back and forth.

It was the hardest when I was still.

In the past, times like this would have gone by in an instant, even recording various plans and thoughts that came to mind.

Kim Rae-bin turned his head to avoid the memory of failure being replayed.

The blue color hit his vision.

‘Blue?’

The window I saw after half an hour was on a large road flanked by mountains.

The van… was driving on the highway.

“… ?”

I said I was going to the outskirts, but if I enter the highway like this, isn’t it a completely different area as my destination?

Kim Rae-bin did not have a driver’s license. However, since I remember attending a local event, I thought of a reasonable question, but I soon put up with it.

I’m not in a position to ask questions.

After arguing to do as he was told to do, Raebin Kim quietly stood in his seat, swept away by his own thoughts and worries.

And Park Mun-dae, who was sitting next to him, secretly checked his appearance and turned his head back.

‘I didn’t notice.’

and again after a while.

“Oh, we have arrived.”

The members started to get out of the stopped car. Kim Rae-bin followed them down like a habit, but soon stopped.

The place they got off was halfway up the mountain on the side of the road.

There was only one old, tasteful house, but that seemed like a destination at least.

‘Is it a nature-friendly concept… ?’

And before Kim Rae-bin again blamed his lack of knowledge, the manager got back into the driver’s seat and nodded to the members.

“Then I will go downstairs.”

“yes! I’ll contact you later!”

“… ??”

This was also quite odd.

‘Aren’t you going to accompany me during filming?’

It was the first time since Testa’s dedicated team was launched that it had been left to take care of the work on its own! Kim Rae-bin forgot the moment of helplessness in this unfamiliar situation and looked around.

A cool breeze was blowing in the beautiful autumn mountains.

The wind blew into my heart as if the knot that had been tightly tied was loosened.

He reflected on his short insights and prejudices. Isn’t it a wonderful scenery, like one of the stems of the Taebaek Mountains in Gangwon-do, where he lived?

Then, as he turned his head, a road sign caught his eye.

[Mt. Seorak ↑ 32m]

"… … ??"

Kim Rae-bin was confused.

Seoraksan is… It is in Gangwon-do.

So this is not the outskirts of Seoul… It was really Gangwon-do!

At this point, even those who are tired of self-blame will open their mouths on their own.

"Sorry, but I want to ask if there was an error in setting the destination!"

The members looked back at Kim Rae-bin's outrageous cry.

"why?"

"This place looks like the mountains of Gangwon-do, not the outskirts of Seoul!"

"that's right."

"yes?"

Liu Qingyu replied calmly.

"This is the destination, Ravin."

"… ??"

Kim Rae-bin fell into confusion again. Then Park Moon-dae, who had sent the car in which the manager was riding, looked back at Rae-bin Kim only then.

My respected brother was smiling.

“filming… … .”

“We didn’t come to film.”

“then… ?”

“I just came to the mountain. Let’s do some self-development training.”

Park Mun-dae answered quickly as if he didn’t want to speak out, but at the end he smiled again.

“This is a songwriting camp.”

Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth wide.

Entering the quaint brick cabin, it looked like a friendly cabin except for an unnatural, state-of-the-art TV.

However, Kim Rae-bin was still standing in the middle of the living room covered with floral wallpaper, unable to come to his senses.

“Kim Raebin, sit down!”

“Wow~ It seems like you really came to MT. yes? The budget is right there.”

“Do you want some fruit?”

And when I came to my senses, I was sitting on the floor that was starting to get hot with one side of the boat in my hand.

“… ?”

What the hell does this mean? Kim Rae-bin fell into agony while analyzing the words of Park Moon-dae, without properly noticing that everyone except himself was calm.

… songwriting camp.

‘I’m sure he didn’t like my continued attempts at composing… .’

Does it mean that I’m so frustrated that I’ll check the performance until I get it right? I was scared for a moment, but I didn’t know if that was what I was hoping for.

‘If I continue receiving and refining my brother’s feedback, I might be able to write good songs like before.’

It might be very painful, but on the contrary, my heart became impatient.

From now on, I wanted to write a song right away, get evaluated right away, get out of this helpless state and go back to the previous state… .

So Rabin Kim immediately shouted as soon as Moondae Park, who had gone to the kitchen, entered the living room.

“May I ask what you mean by that songwriting camp?”

“It is literally.”

Park Moon-dae took out the equipment from his bag. It was his familiar laptop.

Kim Rae-bin held out his hand to receive it quickly, even though he seemed to be stiff from tension.

Took.

The heavy weight comes down by focusing on performance rather than portability.

he said in a trembling voice.

“then… From now on when I write songs, other people will give me feedback… … .”

“It’s not just you.”

“yes?”

Moondae Park took out a new laptop from his bag without stopping.

“Oh, is it Mundae Flex?”

“Take that red one! REDMAN~!”

And he distributed them one by one to those who reached out.

“Everyone will compose on their own. And negative feedback is prohibited.”

“… !”

“During camp, I couldn’t get any feedback from the outside. I haven’t installed KakaoTalk on PC. Mail is prohibited.”

There was no tyrant, but Kim Rae-bin could not think of a phrase to refute.

Lastly, Moondae Park took out his laptop and spread it on the table with the TV on his back.

widely.

Reflexively, Rabin Kim followed it and opened his laptop.

And only then did he ask in a slightly trembling voice as he watched his program appearing on the screen just as he had worn it last time.

“Then, what purpose is the song for…? .”

Cha Yoo-jin intervened.

“There is no use!”

“… !”

“You said Park Moon-dae. It’s called camp.”

Bae Se-jin calmly concluded his words.

“I’m just making it.”

Staying in a mountain hut blocked from the outside for 2 nights and 3 days passed with full support than I thought.

‘… I didn’t know that the cabin would be like a family home.’

I checked the ginseng wine on the veranda and twitched my eyes, but I held it in.

Keun Se-jin and Ryu Cheong-wu came to a mountain lodge that looked like a relative’s house in the countryside.

‘I should have left it to Bae Se-jin instead.

Just then, Sejin Bae opened his mouth.

“… The atmosphere here is cozy.”

“I will.”

I will cancel. I should have done it.

But it was my job to make the plan, so I couldn’t help it. It’s been a long time since I tried to do something so unproductive, so there was trial and error.

I looked at Kim Rae-bin.

He was looking around at his laptop and people with a puzzled look on his face.

okay. It was worth it. If you know how to compose anything by yourself, then that is the case.

So, I have decided on the candidates for the subject of composition.

“Each of us picked a theme… I thought about what I could do for fun.”

I turned my head and turned on the TV. Witube was connected to the only state-of-the-art smart TV in this house.

There were several conditions in selecting the composition subject.

first.

-It shouldn’t be Testa’s job.

Now, Kim Rae-bin is in a state where if there is an element to testa’s career in the song, even if there is no feedback, he will make a virtual reaction and pay attention.

‘It should be a pure hobby.’

Second in the same sense.

– It won’t be Testa’s job from now on.

In a word, it means that there is no possibility of being officially involved with us, so there will be no room for useless thoughts.

Of course, even if it is announced, it should be a topic that will not be caught in the pod, so you will not be anxious.

‘Then the scope narrows dramatically.’

and last.

The most important point.

– Anything that might interest you.

From the second team match of < Azusa >, his preference was clear.

‘Inspiration.’

You want to make it into a song. So, this is the topic I picked up as number 1.

I operated the Witube with the remote control.

And after logging in, I clicked the playlist.

Electronic sounds, 8-bit sounds, and text floating on a black screen.

[Welcome to SECTION 127]

[!wARinG! ※L21%]

“This is the boss theme BGM for the sequel to Section 127.”

“Ohhh~”

This is the sequel to the well-made game < 127 Section >, which we collaborated on at the beginning of our debut.

‘I can never use this for work.’

Because it’s copyrighted.

And in the future, this copyright problem will not be solved. Because it ended neatly and fell out. Everyone knows that doing it again is brain damage.

‘But it’s fun.’

because… .

“Finally, each boss in the second episode… They said it was from the first tutorial member we collaborated with.”

Because of this.

association and creativity.

‘I think he sounded like a grudge from some parallel world.’

In any case, what is certain is that it is a choice that brings back memories of past works without burden.

[Sold OUT – II8: BGM]

On the screen, the sound of the first boss, which happened to be from the character ‘B11’ I played in the trailer, was coming out.

“How about arranging the BGM for each character you were in charge of?”

“Oh interesting? It’s like a recreation instructor at Moon University. Hey~”

The guy who went through the briefing yesterday and voted unanimously made a fuss.

However, this structure itself was necessary. A structure in which each person attempts to compose.

It should have been like this.

‘I put too much pressure on Kim Rae-bin.’

Right now, I don’t sing the entire verse alone just because I have the highest singing stat.

It had to be the same in producing.

Regarding the sound source part, I had to more actively participate in the production itself and improve my proficiency, rather than just giving feedback, but I delayed it.

Because Rabin Kim is so good.

‘The song is the most important thing, so it didn’t work.’

It would have been bad from the beginning if Rabin Kim was alone to hear something like the identity of Testa's music.

It's not at the level of making a concept and genre frame, but you should have touched it in detail at least once.

I thought after checking the composition program installed on my laptop.

'I hope this performance has the effect of reducing the pressure.'

okay. Anyway, I'll have to check his reaction.

I looked up and looked at Kim Rae-bin and opened my mouth.

"And next… ."

no, i don't need the next one.

I closed my mouth. Rabin Kim was watching the video on the smart TV.

Chapter 307

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death. Episode 307 The composing camp started right away.

The item is within 60 seconds of arrangement of BOSTEMA BGM from the follow-up to < 127 Section >.

“Why are wow game songs so addictive?”

“It seems more like that because the section is repeated.”

It’s not something to risk your life, so the members turned on the composition program while having a leisurely conversation to create an atmosphere.

Everyone knows the basics because the agency gave them basic training on how to use a composing program formally from the time they started marketing with self-producing at the time of their debut.

The problem is that even that was of no use for three years.

“Mmm.”

“Why is the order here? Let me know!”

“This once… Top notes.”

I looked down at my laptop screen.

I know I have to take the original sound and put it in, but… There's no such thing as a well-understood rule of thumb.

– Moondae, do you know how to call this?

-… I'm going to watch the basic lecture.

Yes. To put it bluntly, we were just X rice.

Everyone knew it, but I didn't deliberately study harder than I did.

'That doesn't fit the purpose.'

Because this is a hobby

"I'm so sorry, but this… … ."

"It's a drum machine group!"

"… thank you."

I saw Rabin Kim answering the questions around him wholeheartedly even while operating his laptop quickly without blinking.

Even then, it gets sucked into the laptop again.

On the contrary, the hectic surroundings do not allow one to agonize over composing.

'It's fine.'

I also moved the mouse and started building the base appropriately.

and after some time

"Three hours over! Now let's hear each other~"

"Wow!!"

Except for Kim Rae-bin anyway, it was a three-hour work for all of them, so I took turns playing the songs without much burden.

And as expected, the degree of perfection was shit, but… Unexpected pieces of shit started popping up.

“Hahahaha!”

“This is great!”

“Yeah, cool!”

An out-of-tune whistle blasts through the Bluetooth speaker.

It was fortunate that it was a mountain hut. If it was a resort, I would have been kicked out.

I shook my head as I listened to Cha Yu-jin’s crazy arrangement.

“How is your brother?”

“Hi-Hi.”

It’s not a compliment, but it’s good. When I turned my head, Kim Rae-bin’s pupils were shaking. He looks flustered.

It’s easy to give feedback though.

It’s because you can give advice and talk to your heart’s content instead of thinking that the other person is a better person and is acting presumptuously.

While listening to Seon Ah-hyun’s song, which happened to be the next hitter, Kim Rae-bin, who was seated next to him, finally opened his mouth.

“What do you think… ?”

“that… .”

Besides, you have to say only good things.

The pressure to answer honestly offsets it once more.

Kim Rae-bin played the sound a few times earnestly and earnestly, and seemed to be doing everything in his power to squeeze out compliments.

“The harmony is thicker than the original song, so it sounds soft and beautiful… !”

I guess so. Because the original song was 8-bit.

“I see… . Thank you.”

Still, Seon Ah-hyun’s face brightened because it was a compliment from an expert.

“Right, it feels more like a main character than a boss, right? It’s Ahyeon too~”

There really is no club. Kim Rae-bin said quietly.

“That is correct. The guitar sounds good, so I think it would be beautiful to turn up the volume a little more.”

What is it? Now I see one that I want to polish a little.

It seemed certain that I was freed from the evaluation pressure. If you praise the arrangements of these beginners, you will gain confidence.

And not long after, the time to play Kim Rae-bin’s song came.

I deliberately did not put it at the end or front, and put it in the middle.

“Oh~ Lavin~”

“Yes. I will play it.”

Kim Rae-bin operated the mouse with a slightly excited face.

And the sound, tightly woven like a spider’s web, began to flow.

“… !”

It wasn’t a song form.

A sleek structure close to New Age.

The original taste of the background and theme was faithfully maintained by arranging the short sections of the time when it was BGM.

However, the resolution of the song was different.

‘… I can’t believe it can sound like this.’

It feels like it was ideally implemented by pulling out the essence of the song that entered people’s ears and remained in their heads.

And after the first 30 seconds, different elements are mixed and the song rises.

“… !”

“This is our song! Right?”

It is the signature of the rap part of the collaboration OST ‘Bonus Book’ we made and mixed it.

Forging that sounds sad somewhere falls like water droplets on a spider web-like structure.

The character’s narrative matched perfectly, and the pleasure of the song’s development was great.

“Hey~”

“Rabin, this is so good??”

okay. good night.

It’s not a song that’s likely to be sold to the public, but the song was good enough for me to express it with expressions like spider webs.

And even though they decided to give only positive feedback, there was sincerity in their gestures and voices.

“I love hearing this!”

Kim Rae-bin seemed a little taken aback by the admiration, but also a little bit emotional.

I rated it short.

No other words were needed.

“… !!”

Rabin Kim raised his head. I nodded.

“… thank you.”

I heard his voice tremble, but I didn’t bother pointing it out.

Raebin Kim looked at the laptop screen and touched the touchpad even after the one-minute arrangement finished.

We left him alone for a while.

And by the time Kim Rae-bin came to his senses, the next guy came, which was like a public execution.

“Um~ Next is Mundae!”

it’s me

I sighed inwardly, but I was the one who brought myself to this hell.

‘Short and bold end.’

And hit play.

Ugh.

Well, since this character was a symbol of a drone, I made it sound like an ominous sound by making use of the electronic sound more.

And that crackling… I also gave a complex musical instrument effect.

Nodding around.

“Are you okay?”

is it? no sympathy needed

Listening to this after the perfect pro’s song, there is no dog step back.

It sounds like the ‘grabbing ear’ is screaming.

I crossed my arms without inspiration, but Kim Rae-bin across from me raised his hand.

“The elements are fun and it seems that you have a clever sense in modifying the melody… !”

“I know. Mundae must have a sense.”

Even Kim Rae-bin said empty words… for a moment.

I saw his face

Kim Rae-bin’s face was focused on the song, just like when he checked the subject on TV.

“… ?”

Are you serious?

He even comes to my laptop and checks the notes I took.

And he clenched his fists.

Like you want to hold a mouse.

“brother! If you’re not going to excuse me, I’m just a little bit of this song… .”

“okay.”

Rabin Kim looked up at me with a bewildered expression.

A smile grew on his face as if he couldn’t contain it.

He had a bright face, not like someone with a bad impression.

On the first day of the composition camp, the content was changed to Kim Rae-bin’s arrangement lecture.

-There are many rough and strong sounds in the VST you wrote, so if you adjust the level here… .

-WOW!

Kim Rae-bin excitedly gave advice to the members to take advantage of their arrangements, and the members quite happily corrected their own songs.

And my song… Well, almost like Kim Rae-bin did some remodeling.

The strange thing is that the original feel was left behind.

-The idea you used for the arrangement was great and the direction was clear, so it progressed quickly!

In other words, doesn't that mean I didn't notice the imbalance that would be obvious in your hands?

… Well, if you're satisfied with it anyway.

Kim Rae-bin changed all 7 theme songs to his own version, satisfactorily had dinner, and ended the camp that day.

And now it's dawn.

"hmm."

I woke up alone before the alarm went off, so I thought I'd check today's schedule in advance.

I stepped on the blanket and sat down at the kitchen table, avoiding the guys who were about to kick me.

and shook his head

'today… .'

I'm thinking of picking children's songs and idol titles one by one and combining them.

Of course, as an idol, we will choose among the outstanding juniors and make sure we never officially use them.

'And when time permits, Ryu Cheong-wu even brought hiking boots… '

"?"

At that time, the guy who had been sleeping with the blanket spread out in the kitchen opened his eyes.

This is Rabin Kim.

“tight.”

“No, thanks… ”

And then he staggers up and sits across from me.

“I really want to say thank you.”

now?

“It may be that my self-consciousness is bloated, but I feel that you have been very considerate of me so that I can recover my competencies for composition… .”

“Not caring.”

I tilted my head.

And the words I had to say when I confiscated my laptop a few days ago came out.

“We had to gradually develop a hobby of composing. There are seven members, but it’s abnormal to put all the burden on one person.”

“… … .”

“So it’s okay if I beat you up for not wanting to compose. Everyone wasn’t doing it, what?”

However, Kim Rae-bin struggled to open his mouth.

“But many people are looking forward to it. The company’s employees and the AR team also said they were waiting for my song.”

“Are you afraid that people will be disappointed if you can’t use it?”

Kim Rae-bin hesitated. It means positive.

I held back a sigh.

“Rabin. You are good at stage and rap, but why do you act like you are good at only one thing?”

“… !”

“It’s good if you do it because writing songs is fun, and if you don’t, even if you change the method, this group will work somehow. You can buy the song.”

Kim Rae-bin raised his head.

“Of course, it’s true that you make ridiculously good songs, and thanks to you, I’m getting a lot of help. We should be grateful for that.”

I spoke calmly.

“But if you don’t do it, it’s not your fault, and it’s not ruining you either. Let’s always remember that there are other options.”

“yes.”

Kim Rae-bin answered while holding both hands tightly and lowering his head.

“I will not forget.”

The answer was watery, but there was certainly a sense of relief as well.

‘It was right that the pressure was severe.’

When I kept making it well, it didn’t touch my skin, but when I slipped once, I was scared.

Worrying that your reputation will be ruined and that you can do a lot of damage to the team.

‘Come to think of it, it was like that when I was badly criticized in < Azusa >.’

During the 2nd team battle, I remembered that this guy was so intimidated that he blindly accepted the feedback.

‘… Could that have been the cause?’

Well, it’s not something that can only be guessed at now, so let’s move on.

But anyway, since I said it after making a good song like this again and getting out of my helplessness, it should be a bit easier to breathe.

I waited until Kim Raebin calmed down.

After briefly wiping his face with his shirt, he opened his mouth again in a locked voice as if he had made up his mind.

“I… But can I just tell you one thing?”

“okay.”

Let’s see.

I even expected to say, ‘With the current members’ composing skills, my hiatus will be fatal.’

However, Kim Rae-bin said seriously.

“All members are involved in the production of albums and activities, so it seems like an exaggeration to say that I am helping unilaterally… !”

He’s a really consistent guy.

“okay.”

I smiled and untied my arms.

“thanks.”

“no.”

Kim Rae-bin answered steadfastly.

Beyond that, you can see the veranda where the sun rises and the light comes in. It seems to push the darkness away.

‘It’s good.’

And a cylinder shining with golden light… .

hmm.

[Big 150,000, Small 70,000]

[Cash price]

I said without thinking.

“Shall we have a drink?”

Kim Rae-bin followed my gaze and checked the ginseng liquor. And shouted with a bright expression.

“yes! I will follow you.”

“… ?”

I thought you would say no.

However, Kim Rae-bin has a puzzled face.

“yes? They said that ginseng wine is good for the mind and body… .”

“… Grandma?”

“yes!”

okay. That's right. I drank ginseng wine with Kim Rae-bin at 6:30 am when everyone else was asleep.

The alcohol I drank in a long time was not as thrilling as I remembered, but the taste was good.

"Does anything bother you?"

"No something… Looks like the layout has changed."

I ignored Bae Se-jin's words when I woke up in the morning. There is no evidence.

Instead, the moment when I was about to proceed with my next schedule after having a good breakfast with rice balls.

One of the guys who was rejoicing while playing the songs he made yesterday opened his mouth.

"hmm… Rabin. Rather than not revealing this at all, should I put it on the Internet? It's a pity that only we hear it."

"… ! You mean on Testa's social media account?"

I did it this way to make sure it doesn't happen.

'… Originally, I was going to do it on the last day after camp.'

Now that the words are out, let's move on.

I naturally moved to the next step.

"We just create a WeTube account and upload it. We don't have to use our names, can we?"

"Oh, yes."

“Okay, that will work!”

Bae Se-jin shouted out because he was more excited and quickly created an account. He’s doing well.

I reviewed the order.

Camp level 1.

1. I keep making songs for my hobby without intermediate feedback.

And next step.

This is Muravel verification.

“Oh wait a minute~ Why don’t we pick out our screen image first?”

… However, this spreads to a much larger scale verification than I expected.

Chapter 308

If you can't debut, you'll die of an illness Episode 308

Second day of composing camp.

Arrangement was carried out amidst laughter.

"Hahahaha!"

"You're such an idiot!"

It's because the work of merging children's songs and idol songs was more stupid than I thought, so various strange works came out.

Even the songs were chosen by lottery.

'I'll never disclose it.'

The moment it turns out that we made this, by any chance, 'Are you mocking juniors?', causing a sense of controversy.

I played the result of combining 'Dreaming Bear' and 'Hacker' and turned it off without regret.

[Teddy bear~ Go go go go bear!]

It was an indescribably strange piece of trash.

However, Kim Rae-bin produced quite interesting results here as well.

"Oh~ Lavin, this beat is a Golden Age song, right?"

“That’s right. I borrowed the beat of the verse and finished it with a more colorful feeling!”

“… … So, ‘Nabiya’ sounds like this?”

Kim Rae-bin’s mash-up was unique and wonderful enough to understand Bae Se-jin’s question.

‘Butterfly’ sounds trendy.

‘I was trying to make everyone go bankrupt and lessen the burden.’

On the contrary, it seems to have made Kim Rae-bin more excited… . Well, that was a good thing.

I got up from my seat while looking around the composing camp that became a gag training ground.

“Where are you going at Mundaemundae?”

“To see chickens.”

The idea was to check the rice cooked in the pressure cooker for lunch.

But an unexpected guy caught up with him.

“I’m coming too!”

It was Cha Yoo-jin.

‘I don’t think he liked Baeksuk more than chicken.’

You must have been excited to come play. I shrugged, put it on, and headed for the stove.

When the ginseng liquor on display on the veranda next caught my eye, it reminded me of drinking at dawn.

‘He uses the spray like this.’

I changed my clothes, brushed my teeth and even used mouthwash, so no one would know. Isn't there nothing to get drunk with that little bottle?

'… … for a moment.'

It's me, but who else?

"The more I listen, the more Sejin hyung seems to have made an excellent choice to use only the most addictive melodies in children's songs!"

"Hahaha! okay? Rabin just wants to keep listening~?"

"Yes, very interesting!"

"… … ."

Could it be that Kim Rae-bin became so talkative because of his drunkenness?

'what… … It's good to relax.'

After all, no one knows I passed the ginseng wine beyond the window.

But at that time, Cha Yu-jin was sober.

"Did you drink that?"

"… … !!"

How did that bastard know… . no, deny it

"I don't know what you mean."

"lie! I don't believe you."

Cha Yoo-jin smiled and pointed at the refrigerator.

[In the morning, I saw an empty bottle in the refrigerator. Isn't that the strange liquor over there?]

“… … .”

[I found it while looking for Coke.]

Was that the cause?

It was the most gluttonous discovery method here.

Looking at him, wondering if he might want to ask for another chicken leg, Cha Yoo-jin unexpectedly shrugged his shoulders.

And I glanced at Kim Rae-bin.

[Did you drink while talking to him?]

“Yes.”

[also! He seemed more comfortable today. I heard that alcohol sometimes opens people’s mouths.]

“Someone said that.”

[Hmm, is this my maternal grandmother?]

I think I know why he and Kim Rae-bin got along well since the previous agency. I briefly remembered Kim Rae-bin’s grandmother who praised ginseng wine, then erased it.

Cha Yu-jin lowered her voice and said.

“I like Kim Rae-bin because he looks so comfortable.”

It was a rather peculiar sound.

“I thought you were very worried, but why don’t you tell me yourself?”

Cha Yu-jin shrugged.

[We are in the same grade. I have a pride problem.]

I wonder what the guy who came to Kim Rae-bin crying during < Azusa > would say.

‘Is that another field?’

Anyway, I just nodded and checked the pressure cooker with the chicken.

Cha Yoo-jin caught up with her again and this time raised her thumb.

“Brother is great.”

Baek Sook?

[Hyung gave a lot of support to Kim Rae-bin so that he could compose.]

“It’s just that he did well.”

Honestly, that guy who turns nursery rhymes into popular songs would have made a living wherever he went.

However, Cha Yoo-jin crossed her arms.

[no. My old company wasn’t very smart! Kim Rae-bin certainly had talent, but he didn’t often entrust me with composing.]

“Um.”

[However, Kim Rae-bin often said thank you for trusting me from the beginning.]

I thought we were always yelling at each other, but did you say that?

It was heartwarming enough to be embarrassing to say that I saw the Maestro trait in the status window.

However, Cha Yu-jin’s story did not end there.

[Originally, athletes and artists go through a slump someday. So, it’s not that Kim Rae-bin fell into a slump because hyung put more pressure on him.]

“… … .”

[Kim Rae-bin must have wanted to say this, so I’m saying it in advance. As a BFF!]

… … I didn’t expect to be encouraged by this.

I don’t know what that has to do with my back, but he tapped me on the back.

[And look at that. You even worked on your brother’s magic drink. Honestly, I respect you?]

That’s right.

I looked at the laughing guy, checked Rabin Kim once again, and answered briefly.

“thanks.”

“Hi-Hi.”

[But don’t talk about alcohol to other people.]

“Okay! [I will keep a secret for my friends.]”

Cha Yoo-jin said with her eyes shining.

“But I drink too! That is the condition.”

Ginseng wine?

I don’t think you’ll like it very much, but because of the color, you must have mistaken it for some kind of dessert wine taste.

“when.”

“NOW! No, it’s night!”

me really

I smiled and answered.

“okay. Either drink.”

Cha Yoo-jin smiled and held out his fist.

Then a gloomy voice interrupted.

“What are you drinking?”

“… … !”

Why are you popping out of there again?

It was Bae Se-jin.

He looked at Cha Yu-jin’s fist as if he was uncomfortable with it, and immediately shouted with a shocked face, as if he realized something.

“you… ! You drank ginseng wine!”

Damn.

“No, that… … … .”

“Kim Raebin! Did you drink that with Moondae Park?”

“Ah yes! together in the morning… ah.”

Kim Rae-bin replied with a shy face, probably remembering the words I said, ‘Let’s not say it because the other members may feel left out’.

“sorry. I should have waited until evening… … I will definitely make a new one for dinner!”

“that… … !!”

Bae Se-jin’s face turned red, but he endured it.

oh.

“… … okay.”

“All right!”

“What’s going on?”

“We talked about drinking ginseng wine in the evening!”

“This ginseng… … … ?”

“Oh, that’s what you mean.”

The members had mysterious faces, but they didn’t bother to argue.

It’s been a while since I stopped drinking, and I don’t think I’m going to say anything to Kim Rae-bin right now.

does it pass like this?

Well, Bae Se-jin seemed to have guessed that there was a situation. And I don’t feel very excited about drinking now, so it’s okay.

‘Like this, one more time naturally in the evening… .’

Then Sejin Bae grabbed my shoulder and said.

“You can’t.”

“… … .”

hey.

“Look bro! It’s fine now. A little wine is no problem!”

“That’s not wine, it’s spirits!”

In the end, Cha Yu-jin was sober and shy.

“I’m sorry bro.”

done… .

I didn’t get another drop of alcohol until the moment I left the lodge.

still… … Well, overall it was a good camp.

When I left the lodge, Kim Rae-bin’s laptop was in Kim Rae-bin’s hand, not my bag.

After returning from the composing camp where we were cut off from the outside world for 2 nights and 3 days, we are completely busy preparing for the concert.

Of course, this does not mean that there is no free time.

I used to briefly monitor the reactions of the arrangements in section 127 that Sejin Koo uploaded by pulling out the background screen.

In conclusion, the response is better than expected.

-What is this person?

-OK I’m not lying This is SOO000 interesting

-I’m bored.

-What are you doing with the ruined factory? You have to put money in right away. If something like this comes out of the boss room, it’s fucking hot. Maybe it’s because this game has so many global enthusiasts, it seems that people who search for covers periodically flow in and word of mouth spread quietly.

‘I thought it would be because of the quality. They didn’t get buried on purpose, and they put in keywords to make it easier to find in a search.’

And, of course, the theme song arranged by Kim Rae-bin received the best response.

No matter how much Kim Rae-bin has refined ours to the level of re-creation, the quality would be better if he put it all together himself.

And the reaction… … It was mainly about being a genius.

– Estimate established composers

ㄴYou are confident as an outsider

ㄴX-door bastard, he’s talking about anything hahaha I just noticed that he’s a talented arranger with a lot of time.

I deliberately let Kim Rae-bin look for these.

No, we also watched it together.

“I say so.”

“Yes, these are somewhat embarrassing but thankful words… !”

I hoped that Rabin Kim would strengthen his confidence that he was out of the slump while reading the comments.

At first glance, these comments are similar to the high evaluation of the public who gave Kim Raebin a slump, but there is a slightly crucial difference.

There is no high standard or background knowledge.

It’s just pure praise feedback about the arrangement without any other intention, so it can be substituted as a driving force.

And this time, even if I get cursed at, I am not afraid of the repercussions. Because it’s anonymous anyway.

Besides, there is a corner to escape from there. Because I made it with beginners.

‘It’s the end of this line where you fail or do well.’

In addition, it has the effect of making other guys continue to be interested in composing.

A few times I’ve seen Sejin Bae looking for feedback on his songs.

“… … Why why!”

“no.”

Well, I also look for reactions to my own arrangements, so it’s not the time to talk about others.

Anyway, that’s why there was a taste of seeing feedback without burden during the concert.

Maybe thanks to that, even though it was the first concert he didn’t participate in arranging, Kim Rae-bin seemed to concentrate well without unnecessary thoughts.

And, on the contrary, there were people who took advantage of this.

“Moondaemundae.”

“… … ?”

The choreography practice had just ended and just before returning home, Sejin Keun held up a tablet PC and started talking.

“hmm… … At this concert, Rabin was working, so we almost didn’t touch the sound source directly, right?”

“okay.”

“So the arrangement will come out sooner… … … How about giving more strength to other elements in the spare time?”

oh.

“In a way.”

“Like this~”

Keun Se-jin turned on the screen and showed the set list.

It is not the existing one, but the draft that you have changed by drawing a line yourself.

“… … !”

“Are you fine?”

It was.

I answered without hesitation.

“Good. Shall we upload it at the meeting tomorrow?”

“Okay~”

Big Sejin grinned.

‘It’s productive.’

I was drinking water and sharing files.

But the agenda of the day did not end there.

“excuse me… … There was a comment.”

On the way home from practice, Bae Se-jin showed a screen.

There was a comment window for an anonymous channel for our arrangement, which we were familiar with.

It received so many recommendations and rose to the top… … .

It was a formal invitation.

-hello. This is T1 Place. We will inevitably contact you through a comment because you do not provide your contact information on a separate channel.

“… … ??”

And at the bottom of the long comment, there was an email from the person in charge of T1 Place.

ripe in the eyes

“… … … Is that the person you contacted when we were doing our game collaboration?”

“Iknow, right.”

All of a sudden, huge fishing has begun.

Chapter 309

If you can’t debut, you’ll die if you don’t debut.

It was the theme song that Kim Rae-bin arranged alone with comments from T1 Place, the company that took over the production team for episode 309, section 127.

And the comment, which had only been running for less than a day, was crowded with large comments from people who were full of expectations and pilgrimages to holy places.

Gazuaaaaaaaaaaaaaaahhhh

It’s funny, but I felt the same way.

‘When did it get to this point?’

I knew the reaction would be good, but isn’t it a separate problem from being a topic?

A parody video of a game uploaded by a new account is such a big deal in one week.

It’s an anonymous account anyway, so I just left it there, but it doesn’t work.

I turned on my smartphone to find the cause of this uproar.

‘Is it an algorithmic pick again?’

It wasn’t. It was more artificial than that.

It is true that ‘127 Section’ has gone through its heyday again in Korea, leaving only maniacs behind and losing popularity and sales.

However, perhaps because of the right sensibility, overseas, it has settled down as a steady seller based on a strong fanatic base.

Thanks to this, there were many foreign game YouTubers who were hooked on this game series, and one of them seems to have seen this video during live.

Gnome subscribers… .

[25,920,000 subscribers]

Yes, it was a piece of cake. Thanks to this, it came into the eyes of the person in charge who works hard, and this situation happened.

So what’s the conclusion?

“What can I do?”

“Iknow, right.”

Since a while ago, the frequency of ‘yes’ as an answer has increased significantly.

It was such a funny situation.

It’s not like I’m a minor character, it’s because I’m going to build a second career as a professional composer.

That’s because the current partner was caught on the bait by himself.

At that moment, Cha Yu-jin raised her hand.

“We do! fun!”

I thought so.

“Wait a minute!”

“Let’s think about it, Eugene!”

Watching Ryu Chong-wu and Lee Se-jin stop Cha Yu-jin, who was about to throw him away by majority vote, I opened my mouth.

“first… If you really accept this offer, you will have to put your real name and account number when writing the contract.”

“Ah, so we’ll get caught right away, right?”

“yes.”

At that moment, it is clear that Testa is being used as a story to promote the game. Since it’s the same affiliate, the headquarters will push it without thinking that it’s right.

It’s a fun story, so I thought that Testa and the game were also profitable.

‘And suspicion of fabrication is everywhere… .’

Of course, such a good sister and brother-in-law coincidence tends to look like an obvious marketing deception.

-It’s disgusting to float a testa

-I’m going to try mangem

once more

. Think of the formation of public opinion such as ‘Testa is not qualified’ during the Rookie of the Year award.

It is important to actually receive the grand prize, but the public’s acknowledgment of ‘deserving it’ definitely affects the success of the mission.

‘Even if we try to stop it, one of the upper heads at the head office can become an X the moment we make up our minds.’

can’t see that

Then, an unexpected person opened his mouth with a serious face.

“How about doing it in the name of the family… ?”

It was Seon Ah-hyun. It seemed that he suggested it because he felt sorry for giving up on Kim Rae-bin’s achievements.

“Oh are you okay?”

“I like it!”

I answered with difficulty.

“no. The moment they are caught, the charge of tax evasion comes out.”

It is unconditional. It’s a sensitive area these days, but you have to be careful.

Bae Se-jin, who once went through an uproar over his comprehensive income tax return in the first year of his debut, swallowed his saliva.

“then… Shall I ignore it?”

“Some of that too.”

Since it has already received attention once, it seemed that contact stories would continue to come out if I continued to post arrangements on this account.

‘If it’s Rabin Kim’s talent, it’s worth it.’

Besides, look at the comments while having fun right now. On the contrary, if there is no response, that part may be unique and attract aggro.

Then those who want to use it as a viral can come out.

‘… Should I just change my account?’

Well, I thought this account had a symbolic meaning for Rabin Kim overcoming his slump, so I tried to leave it as long as possible.

To avoid that… In the end, it’s true.

“If you’re thinking of refusing, I think it’s better to express yourself in appropriate words.”

“Yes.”

It’s perfect if you have an appropriate excuse that everyone can understand and move on.

There comes a time when my interest fades away when I just do arrangement activities without difficulty.

“Make up something plausible, you’re good at this!”

“yes? me?”

Sejin Bae flinched as Sejin laughed as if it was ridiculous. After a year or two, the two of them behave politely, and then the medicine seems to be running out.

‘Still, it’s okay to say it openly.’

Anyway, Sejin Bae gave his opinion instead of fighting uselessly with Sejin Bae.

“As expected, the opinion of the first contributor is important for this~ What does Lavin think?”

“yes?”

Kim Rae-bin, who seemed to be deep in thought with his mouth open, suddenly came to his senses at Sejin’s name being called.

And he answered carefully.

“I am… It’s okay to say no!”

“Wouldn’t it be a waste?”

“yes! It was originally made at a composing camp as a hobby, not for commercial purposes, so the reaction right now is undeserved and enjoyable!”

“Um, if it’s Rabin.”

“Okay~”

The conversation ended with an appropriate refusal phrase or thought.

“Wouldn’t it be okay to study?”

“okay. Tune in a bit.”

So this is the comment I put on the video.

-I really appreciate the offer of a formal contract, but I don’t have time because I’m studying. I’m satisfied that I can upload it on Wetube and share it

.

I’m done with this.

Maybe everyone thought the same, but things didn’t go that way.

“Hey, this guy is persistent.”

Again, a few days later we found the rep’s comment below the pinned comment.

– That satisfaction… wouldn’t it be bigger if money was included? (Frown emoticon)

You can sign a contract with the arrangement you have already made, so please feel free to contact us! Go study

‘… They come up to the community as well.’

[Abandoned factory in trouble]

[Is that arrangement that bad? I heard it’s difficult]

[The current status of the hard-working company]

Someone captured it and carried it.

– Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha

ha

ha. accept it!

The atmosphere is as if if you refuse here, you will break the fun and become a rude kid.

Of course, there will be people who curse the person in charge, saying, ‘Why are you bothering me when you say you won’t do it?’

‘Then it’s really going to be a piece of shit… . There is no topic that spreads as easily as a controversial one.

If it turns out that the arranger is actually Testa in the mess, a really unpleasant situation will break out.

In addition, as elements other than the arrangement become a hot topic, more and more people are writing bad reviews or compliments in the comments with intentions.

The essence of opening an account is already blurring.

‘X feet.’

It bothers me, really.

I’m busy concentrating on the concert, so what kind of fuss is this?

Thanks to Raebin Kim, it even made me feel a bit down.

“I’m really sorry for bothering you about trivial matters at such an important time… .”

I smiled.

“What are you apologizing for being talented?”

“Of course I didn’t mean it that way… !”

Kim Rae-bin was stunned, but he couldn't find anything to refute, so I checked once again to turn the conversation on.

"You agreed to turn it down not because it was burdensome, but because it was neat given the circumstances."

"yes? yes. It is, but… ."

"That's it. It's okay to ignore all of this. Because the concert comes first."

"… yes. All right!"

Kim Rae-bin seemed relieved to hear such a definite answer. In the place, Sejin big smiled and came in with a shoulder strap.

"Yes~ We have to show a great image at this concert~ We are preparing so hard!"

That is true too.

In fact, there weren't many people left with enough energy to pay a lot of attention to this game company's shit.

The more he immersed himself in the setlist he changed, the more details he took care of.

'He's a good guy.'

I suddenly saw a big Sejin.

If there is a corner to take advantage of, it's quite a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of

'That's why he's the one who played the biggest role in my plan.'

Yes. The curriculum I had set up when planning the trip to the mountain hut was still unfinished.

There's one final step left.

-Stage 3 of composition camp.

Since you have recovered your confidence through the second step, this time it is a way to prevent mental collapse even in a slump situation.

‘as soon as… .’

The authority to touch production and to feel a sense of accomplishment and reward in a disconnected situation.

That’s what this concert is.

“Me too.”

The graduate student made a fuss with his friend Park Moon-dae, who was sitting right in front of him diagonally.

And unlike the excited ones, a third person with a shy face was also sitting nearby.

‘Why am I here… .’

It was their friend. He participated in ticketing as a mercenary, but surprisingly, all his friends succeeded in ticketing and tickets remained.

And with the persuasion and curiosity of my friends, I was able to sit here… I was already regretting it.

‘I’ll sell it as a scalping ticket.’

I didn’t want to get caught and have trouble getting a job, but it was a pity to sit here in an uncomfortable chair.

‘It’s going to turn 100 years old with that money!’

Yes. She was a modern mobile gamer who wasn't afraid to spend money on random games.

'I thought it was a very famous idol… phew.'

She shook her head after looking at her friends who were already talking excitedly.

'This is also a bit embarrassing.'

The lightstick was so dazzling that I wanted to insert it.

However, at the concert hall where everyone was excited and sharing excitement, she had no choice but to helplessly hold the cheering stick.

'Ugh really.'

That's how she started to resent her friends.

– A soft voice announcement began to sound.

-hello.

Aaaaaa!!

"Oooh."

Is it that exciting to start? She was startled by the cheers that erupted around her.

-I would like to inform the audience who came to see Testa's 'Wave for me' today.

It was nice to hear the man's voice talking carefully about the manners of the audience, but somehow it felt a little out of place.

It was because it was a word choice that would have been made in a more theatrical venue than a concert, but she didn't notice it specifically.

-Then I hope you enjoy watching.

Then the graduate student mouthed her with a big smile.

'That's Moondae!'

uh?

At that moment, the lights went black.

-Now we go into the waves… .

The performer's last announcement sounded just in time.

And in an instant, a sound began to be heard slowly in the hall that had become quiet.

It was the sound of the sea.

And slowly, the orchestra and electronic sound melted into it and began to come to the fore.

A clear rustling sound.

It was a song she had heard.

'Is it Testa's debut song?'

But the very next moment, another powerful melody comes in.

This is a song I know. But again, in a matter of seconds, the next accompaniment appears… .

'what?'

It was the overture.

A notice played at the opening of an opera or musical.

The difference is that this is not meant to introduce the song.

Because everyone at the scene already knew the song.

This was for immersion.

And the lights come back on in the arena.

It was an intense blue light that covered all the seats. But it wasn’t static.

“… !”

Numerous light blue and deep blue colors rippled and colored the indoor performance hall.

the air moves

Chi profit.

Then, dry ice spread under my feet. The smoke drifted softly.

“and.”

The lighting, the cool smell, and the accompaniment that resonates a bit in a daze… .

The five senses helped with the analogy.

Episode 310

Testa's concert started with the underwater view fully realized in the concert hall.

And what unfolded… It was an unexpected performance for a gamer who came to the concert with a friend.

'her.'

Usually, whether the subject is a singer or an idol, when you say 'concert', there is a format you expect.

A performance in which the performer presents his or her own stage.

After mixing and distributing the hit songs and the latest songs, the order is adjusted so that the tension of the performance does not drop.

And, in fact, Testa has also done such a concert so far, so her friends gave her a similar explanation.

-There are a lot of songs you know, so it will be fun haha

-Yes, and all the kids are really handsome and good at it. Ticket prices are unconditional!

But not now. Instead, this concert had a story.

I don't want to get out of the night when I’m slowly submerged]

Through the dry ice, the elegant choreography from modern dance unfolds as if floating in the sea.

Selected as the first song, it is ‘Midnight and Next’ arranged with a perfect orchestra.

It was a very unique choice.

This is because it is common for idols with a lot of hit songs over the years to skip the songs they performed a lot in the beginning of their debut as a medley at best.

However, Testa dared to use this song while arranging it.

Because this is the starting point of the narrative that will be shown in this performance. [

Forget all the songs and dreams. It’s midnight here.

Your Midnight]

The boy who fell into the sea dies in the past along with his dreams.

The mainspring turns and the members sink into the sea and experience the past.

The members lay down in the deep sea at the same time as the grandfather bell signaled the end of ‘Midnight and Next’.

[Dang-]

And the stage background naturally becomes a classroom.

As if in a dream, the lighting changes and becomes clearer.

The song that connects naturally is ‘High Five’. A bright and cheerful rock sound that sings of cheerful youth!

The members get up and run around the stage doing a choreography where they grin and roll their feet after an interlude where they are slightly bewildered.

[My feet move

faster and farther!]

The boy who went back to the past pursues his dream, falls in love, and develops the strength to meet and overcome enemies.

In each context, Testa’s songs were woven into each one.

Of course, Testa is an idol, and the story was not as explicit as a real musical or opera.

However, I was able to fully understand the context through the lyrics, the atmosphere, and the VCR that appeared in between.

Especially if you don’t have a lot of background knowledge in Testa!

‘this… Is this the song you originally made to do this?’

It was to the extent that gamers were perplexed.

Fans were familiar with the song, so it was a little smoother, but in fact, the members put in an expression that matched the story between each song.

And gamers accepted all of the text in equal proportions to the song.

Embarrassment Joy Tension Boundaries… .

Because of his overflowing talent and expressive power, gamers quickly immersed themselves in unfamiliar songs.

The main character on stage, who has grown through the realization of love, puts on an intense performance as if showing off his strength.

[Bite and enjoy

Now Spring out!]

The narrative enhances the three-dimensional effect of the stage.

In the end, by the time the concert-type performance using guns and dancers exploded intensely, she was almost unconsciously applauding and cheering at the end of the stage!

“omg.”

It’s not like they’re cheering for idol concerts, but they’re reacting like these conditional reflexes?

Asking herself what kind of musical she came to see, she was dumbfounded, but there was no need for that.

Testa was more sincere.

The lights flickered at the end of the intense ‘Spring out’ ending, with high notes and strong choreography in harmony.

A tearing roar and heart-thumping epic upsurge.

But in an instant, everything stopped as if washed.

“… !”

After the song that ended with a splendid climax… It’s time for a break.

[~Intermission~]

[Act 2 begins soon.]

They even kept the format of the intermission alive.

It’s like asking you to think over what you just saw. As if to inflate expectations further.

[Yahoo!]

The gamer opened his mouth as he watched the VCR playing, with the members running around in animal pajamas, like some kind of public service announcement.

It wasn’t just her.

Like an intermission, when the lights turned on and the atmosphere loosened up, the fans started to run amok with the tacit permission that seemed to be a ‘break time’.

“Uh uh uh uh… .”

“What is this?”

There were numerous people holding their smartphones and frantically writing something down.

And gamers also got a message.

-The great genius, the great genius, the great genius,

-(collapsed emoticon)

They were two friends.

When I visually checked where they were sitting, it seemed that both of them were sending KakaoTalk messages with their eyes completely fixed on the VCR.

‘Huh.’

It was kind of scary.

But I got a little bit of understanding. ‘It’s well made so that even people like me who don’t know anything can enjoy it.’

A concert like this is worth seeing at least once. Saying that she knew the reason for the force, she admitted inwardly.

It was the first time that Testa had performed this type of performance, and thanks to this, she did not even guess that SNS was a mess. Unlike before, she waited for the second act with more excitement.

‘Am I just about to fight?’

Because she was familiar with the narrative of the main character of the royal road game! There was no fun without the colorful dancing and singing!

Soon, the performance resumed with lively announcements.

[Audience, were you a little surprised by what these guys were thinking when they put on a performance like this? Are you somewhat curious?]

This is Lee Se-jin.

When the audience is buzzing with laughter and reactions to that clever comment.

[However, you will soon see what happens to the testa. Then Act 2 begins now.

The lights go out.

When the light orchestra flows and the performers cut the tempo appropriately, people’s hearts are filled with anticipation again.

Now gamers are easily impressed.

‘Did you do it with the feeling that the audience is participating on the stage?’

There was an aspect of this perverted level of detail that stimulated the hearts of maniacs!

‘It was completely determined!’

Yes.

Testa delicately framed and poured her skills into this performance to give it a story context and immersion.

However, no matter how they were put together, there was an unavoidable gap between them.

Testa’s songs weren’t composed for a single story, and they weren’t as rich in variety as musicians’ songs in musicals.

So, the cover stage fills that void.

It was a solo and unit performance.

The second act was filled with the latest popular songs to be highlights and cover songs to support them.

So Testa had to calculate and move very elaborately even behind the scenes.

“Heo Eok.”

“Three minutes!”

Backstage where moaning and short-answering shouts come and go.

It’s a nerve-wracking noise, and it’s nasty, and I keep counting.

‘It’s tight.’

As the connection between the stage and the feeling of the stage became more important, the time to catch my breath was reduced. Because there is no time to talk or relax between stages.

– Wow!

I clicked my tongue to avoid being swept away by the cheers I had just heard.

And I thought soberly.

‘As expected, likes and dislikes will be divided.’

Right now, the audience will love it because it’s fresh and fun, but the moment their heads cool down, the words come out.

There will be fans who want to communicate more interactively at concerts.

To make up for that, it was the right decision to plan W Live communication after the performance.

‘good.’

There was no more time to be satisfied. Just in time, the guy next to me who was going up on the next stage was dying.

I asked Kim Rae-bin, whose face was white.

“Are you worried?”

“yes? Oh no We will do our best to show you a stage that will satisfy the fans… !”

Kim Rae-bin answered quickly, but he was opening and closing his hands.

It means you are more nervous than usual.

I crossed my arms.

We lacked this experience.

Efforts to understand and implement the songs unilaterally given by others without touching them.

After debuting, there was almost no career that fit oneself into a work that was already completed according to the composer's intention.

'Because I continued to participate in the song and concept.'

It is no different from omitting the training that a rookie would originally practice over 45 years and use as a foundation.

I can't touch the sound source, so everything else… Especially learning how to use yourself to the limit.

'I will learn this opportunity.'

That was also the part where we had to tear apart one by one today and show them properly.

Why did Keun Se-jin revise the set list in such a way that the story stands out in the first place?

It was simple.

-You decided not to touch the song~ Are you using that time here?

Excluding the time for arranging, he added the ability to further refine himself in that void.

The factor that the performer considers and expresses on stage even includes 'context'.

I hit Raebin Kim on the back.

"Practice was good, so come comfortably."

A swallowing sound was heard.

“… yes.”

Kim Rae-bin nodded firmly.

Well, actually, it’s a problem that’s okay if you don’t do this.

“It’s Mumundae, I have to move with Lavin over there… .”

The guy who had finished his transformation came sneaking up in front of Kim Rae-bin.

Seon Ah-hyun.

He is the member who will do a unit performance with Raebin Kim on the next stage. I smiled and opened my mouth.

“Seon Ah-hyun.”

“Yes?”

“I think Kim Rae-bin will do well on stage.”

Seon Ah-hyun answered without blinking an eye.

“huh.”

Resoluteness without a single hesitation. It was a rare self-confidence for a guy.

“thank you… !”

Thanks to that, Kim Rae-bin seemed to be impressed by the momentum. The two shook hands before running away.

“Ooh, let’s do well and come!”

“yep!”

‘It’s good that I pasted it.’

There is a basis for Seon Ah-hyun's conviction. Because he's the only one of us who doesn't need to lay a foundation like this.

because it's already

Sun Ah-hyun devoted her childhood to the goal of presenting perfect interpretations of the intentions of her previous works.

Nome was a senior ballet major.

"Ooh we're going… !"

"okay."

I saw Kim Rae-bin and Seon Ah-hyun running.

The picture was fine.

Right before the stage.

[This is the sound that calls you]

The performance of the boy's inner temptation called 'Call' is over. Bae Se-jin, whose throat was caught, glared at the audience.

'Ahhhh!!'

Park Mun-dae's Homma swallowed the cry inside.

'How can you come up with such a cute and lively genius plan at a concert and not even promote it! Could it be that 'as rich as a musical' was a hint in the description of the detail page!'

And I took a deep breath. I had to calm down.

Even if Park Moon-dae's gloomy solo part added to the calling performance was so incredibly sexy that I wanted to chew on it, I had to watch the next stage closely!

[Tuk.]

But when I looked at the VCR, it seemed that the unit stage would appear next.

‘hmm.’

Just by looking at the two hands shaking hands, she guessed that it was not Park Moon-dae. So I relaxed a bit.

‘Let’s enjoy it as a stage.’

Taking care of her reason, she fixed her gaze again.

At that moment, even under the stage, the members of Testa, who had also changed their outfits, were waiting and watching the monitors.

“Start!”

Park Moon-dae tried to touch his chin, but he lowered his hand, conscious of his makeup.

And I focused on the screen.

The stage scene was being broadcast on a large monitor installed by the dedicated team.

For the unit stage inserted in the final build-up stage of the climax, the VCR turns off and the music starts playing.

Rrrrrrrrrr!

It is the intense sound of a progressive rock band that was responsible for the end-of-the-century experimentation of the 90s.

‘Implementation may be good.’

A boy who was defeated at the decisive moment in a confrontation with the enemy.

The performance following the ‘Call’, which was a temptation for greater power, is ultimately an inner conflict.

The thunderous electrification that raged like an intense temptation soon fades away, and the elegant and agile sound that was active in the first act fills its place.

Orchestral violin solo and low vocals.

[A place to stay dizzy]

So, Sun Ah-hyun is the first to go up on stage.

Symbols that symbolize reason and intellect are all expressed through directing, and the characters gently cross the stage.

A white spotlight falls along with the motion applied to modern dance.

[Standing on tiptoe]

It was an experimental song, but it did not harm the performance performed with Seo on stage.

Because the delivery power was unbelievably good.

“and.”

“Cooool.”

Ahyeon, wearing a white outfit and drawing straight lines, perfectly portrayed the whole scene of the song.

The unshakable vocals even melt into one of the accompaniment, making the performance stand out.

[Even if the lights change, I have to keep my voice]

[Step by step]

The fabric flutters as she stretches out her hands, flips back, and lands softly.

The power of that proficiency level, which seemed to use up to one inch of remaining capacity, was extraordinary.

‘really… .’

The static climax that the audience falls in love with.

But the dissonance comes into play here.

thud.

the violin breaks

Rrrrrrrrrr!

Elec rushes in.

Then, with a flashing spotlight, another person appears from the other side of the stage.

[Red light]

This is Kim Rae-bin wearing clothes tightened with countless black buckles.

He didn’t dance or anything.

Instead, they just moved forward slowly with head microphones.

slowly overbearingly.

[You’ll fall if you walk,

stop there and go back]

Then, the rap shot out.

The mixed rap in English and Korean started slowly and then got faster.

And an electronic crackle from the microphone.

It was a song performed in collaboration with a Korean rapper at a band concert in the 2000s.

At that time, the focus of the performance of this song remained in the interview.

-A song where you have to break in like an uninvited guest in the middle of the stage and become the owner, and Raebin Kim did just that. He pushed the orchestra away and forced himself onto the stage to the tempo of the electrics.

[Tick-tock Tick-tock]

[When the lines change, you are not you.

Where your feet are, your heart is.]

The rap enters, the gestures grow, and the choreography expands.

take the stage

Accompanied by the sound of the orchestra, Seon Ah-hyun faced a short and intense performance like a final resistance, but it was already eaten away by all directing.

Thus, the orchestra disappears and Seon Ah-hyun falls impressively from one side along with the stage equipment and disappears.

Rrrrrrrrrr!

The stage completely changed the tone. And only then, Rabin Kim’s short and intense choreography with dancers fills the stage as much as the time

Seon Ah-hyun dominated in the beginning.

-Wak. Wak. Wak. Wak!

In the midst of the dancers' group dance mixed with dominant and intense krump, Kim Rae-bin matched his feet and fluttered the hem of his coat.

Inwardly, impulses ruled.

In this way, the song was reproduced in the 2020s with the meaning of the original songwriter's intention.

Except for the single ending.

– Um-um-um.

Jisung did not come back.

The only thing that stood until the end was impulse. -Ending of song Raebin Kim turned back and disappeared under the stage.

Get off

* * *

Wow!!!

"Wow!"

The screams of the concert hall resonate as if they would shatter even the framework of the narrow hallway in the backstage.

Originally, I am generous with cheers, but this is enough to be honest impressions.

'It means that unit's cover song was as good as the original stage.'

It was a success. I was happy to open my mouth.

“It was good.”

“Thank you… !”

Seon Ah-hyun, who returned first, smiled while covering herself with a towel. And the one remaining has now appeared in the hallway. The members cheered generously.

“Kim Raebin!!”

“Really good job! It was so cool!”

“thank you… !”

Kim Rae-bin, who took off his coat, nodded his head with a flushed face.

‘I must have done quite well even in my own opinion.’

It’s rare to find someone so honest.

I chuckled.

“good job.”

“yes… !”

Without saying anything further, I tapped Kim Rae-bin on the shoulder a few times.

There won’t be any more time to do it anyway.

“Change your costume.”

“ah!!”

Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth as if he was about to say something, but immediately entrusted himself to the staff to carry out the mission of ‘recovering in 20 seconds’.

“Now, there are 150 seconds left~ Shall we go to the parade?”

“Come!”

Yes, the concert is still not over.

And that wasn’t all I had prepared.

Chapter 311

If you can’t debut, you’ll die of a disease. Episode 311

The second act of Testa’s concert was a series of endless climaxes.

As the narrative of Rae-bin Kim and Ah-hyun Sun continues, the boy’s inner side, dominated by impulse, eventually flows in a dangerous and dark direction.

A stage to express that passion.

Welcome on the day that finally came]

Instead of the sound of traditional musical instruments, fragmented electronic sounds create an ominous noise.

Never get away from me ya]

The version of the song that was much darker than the original song was intense and sexy enough to look slightly grotesque.

Ryu Cheng-wu, standing in the center, nodded with an expressionless expression.

‘Joseon Zombie… .’

No concept could be more intense than this, so gamers thought this was the best climax of the most conflicted part.

But no.

For each part that seems like this is the climax, a new build-up goes in and continues to rise.

‘Uh uh uh?’

‘Better me’, which depicts the wandering of a boy who had overcome his enemies but had doubts about himself, followed.

It was an overwhelming shadow performance.

‘This is the climax!’

It wasn’t.

After wandering and gaining enlightenment, the boy returns to his true self and holds a splendid return ceremony.

“… ??”

The stage that unfolded was ‘daybreak’, a combination of the two titles ‘Wheel’ and ‘Drill’ from the last activity.

Firecrackers like fireworks exploded, and the insanely colorful and exciting jaw-dropping performance caught the attention.

[Turn my ferris wheel around fire-light bursting like a star!]

A shudder flowed.

It was truly a stage worthy of the climax of a concert… But now gamers know it too.

It wasn’t.

‘What else is there?? uh??’

At this point, I was starting to look forward to it.

At the bottom of that psychology, there was also a wish that this crazy performance would continue without ending.

Because this stimulation and immersion was so delicious!

And as if to repay that heart, the next stage continues.

Tung-.

But this time something was different.

‘It takes a long time… ?’

The preparation time was longer than before.

Even after the VCR was turned off, only drums rang on the black stage for a long time.

‘what?’

But everything returned to the stage at once.

with an exciting whistling sound.

Whiik!

Water was pouring out on the stage.

‘crazy!’

I don’t know how much money was poured into it, but the stream of water that you would see at a super-large water show collects on the floor and creates a water source.

And the light came through.

Whihwihwi-ik!

The lights turned on according to the stream of water collect on the floor of the stage together with the water, creating a fantastic scenery.

And at that moment, the performer appears.

The performer jumped from the water stream in front of the concert hall in the dark and landed in the water.

“… !”

It was Cha Yoo-jin.

Unlike the two-unit stage, Cha Yoo-jin was the only one who came up on stage alone during this performance.

[Yeah yeah yeaaaaah]

And without waiting, I started doing my solo dance right away.

Literally, like a fish in water, the water rises up to the calf, and a splendid solo intro was performed with light and spray.

The water and light draw a parabola, causing diffuse reflection and flashing. However, all those effects are absorbed as part of the movement of the solo performer.

Cha Yoo-jin’s characteristics instantly took over the stage.

Gamers were amazed without even realizing it.

“Wow.”

Are you human?

As soon as the intro performance was over, Cha Yu-jin took off her goggles and smiled at the audience.

Aaaaaaaa!!!

Despite the deafening shouts, Gamer did not frown.

Because the familiar prelude came out.

‘Oh this!’

Testa’s most recent hit song. It was “Promise,” which is still firmly holding onto the music charts.

It is currently the hottest song among Testa songs. Even gamers were used to it because they could listen to it once every two times when they went out.

So I made a pretty convincing guess.

‘Ah, then, let’s go to sing together like a festival?’

Unfortunately, not this time either.

Instead, with Jeonju, what was in the beginning returned to the concert hall.

lighting right away.

Woong~

Waved blue lights cover the concert hall. And this time, instead of dry ice, soap bubbles pour like air bubbles toward the audience.

“uh… ?”

The final stage to finish everything.

The venue turns into the sea again.

However, this time the boy did not sink.

[Umm]

Turning back, Cha Yu-jin shrugs and looks up at the ceiling, that is, the sea.

And right around it, the stage floor opens and six figures come up.

testa.

[Take your STAR]

They were going up to the surface.

“… !”

As soon as the first verse entered, Testa laughed and started kicking the water.

[The Day the Stars Fall]

The performance shown in the pouring rain unfolds as large and splendid as a concert, as originally intended.

In the relaxation and pleasure of countless practice sessions, the anxiety added by the heavy rain completely disappeared.

As the water flows down, like cool vocals in the grass where the water level is lowered to the anklebone, the choreography that looks good and is upbeat pours out.

[Run and Fly to the sky by kicking the waves

As the number of people increased, the movement of the water became more splendid.

“and.”

The intimacy of ‘as it is in the original song’ met force and was replaced by immersion.

A melody passes by in an instant.

If you wave the light stick while being immersed in the performance using the water spray to the fullest… [

Promise me to go with Mood that shines like a star,

Make you fly]

We arrive at the bridge in the second half of the song.

The choreography of the members becomes static and the lights pointing towards the water are turned off. By the time you want it to get a little too dark like that.

Pod!

In an instant, the inside of the concert hall itself began to sparkle.

“omg.”

And gamers were taken aback when they saw their cheering sticks shining white with full power.

Not all the cheering rods in the concert hall, but countless small lights on the ceiling above the stage were shining and creating a cluster of stars. [

Today will shine

across the horizon to the tip of the island]

It was beautiful.

The boy, who was stagnant and sunk in the consciousness of the past, comes back to the earth where the stars of reality shine with enlightenment.

And the members leave the stage where there is almost no water and start running into the stars.

[Umm Umm Umm~]

Ending.

After getting out of the water, the members came to the front of the protruding stage and performed the final highlight dance.

The lights were no longer blue, and the venue was like a sandy beach in midsummer, with bright golden light and pollen flying around.

A true climax and finale. A clean and enjoyable last story without anything bothering you.

[Thank you!]

That's how Testa, as an idol, finished the story.

"… … ."

The gamer watched the whole scene with a somewhat dazed mind.

It was because of the cool feeling.

After a while, the Testa members came out one by one and greeted each other like a curtain call.

The music to be played is their first fan song 'The Magic is You'.

[I'm in a good mood today,

it's like something good will happen]

When their part started, they jumped out onto the stage and went around the venue with head mics, doing fan service.

"Moondae Yaak!"

“Ahh here!”

It was a time for fans who would regret the distance, and the second fan song and picnic took quite a long time as everyone sang together.

However, instead of being bored, the gamers sat like other fans for a long time after the curtain call.

‘… … .’

And after everything was over, I belatedly opened my smartphone.

[PM 10:31]

The show started at 6:30 PM. 4 hours disappeared in an instant.

“crazy.”

she hit her head

The way back.

The two friends laughed inwardly as they looked at their gamer friend who seemed to be impressed.

“how is it? Did you pay for the ticket?”

It was an obvious question, but the gamer accepted.

“Oh, that’s fun… . Time goes by in an instant.”

This kind of cultural life was worth spending money on. It was to the point where a crush on idols grew in my heart.

In the end, she murmured like an exclamation.

“Hey really… He did well.”

“… !”

The two friends exchanged glances at the moment. Seeing that he is good at it, if it's vocals or fan service, it's likely Moondae Park!

"who?"

"Who do you like best??"

At the moment of tension, the gamer opened his mouth with a serious face.

"I am… Everything was good."

"… ??"

"It is the best to perform as a group like that. very… This is it."

Yes.

Recently, she ended the viewing ceremony with the all-fan mentality that it is more precious than wild ginseng.

And similar confessions were also coming up on the Internet, but the people who performed were delighted at a more primitive level.

11 o'clock at night.

We haven't been able to leave work yet due to feedback problems and are working overtime at the practice room. But the atmosphere is fine.

the concert was good

"Great success~"

"Ah, the best, the best!!"

"fun!"

Everyone has a smile on their faces, as if they still have energy after performing the crazy set list.

‘It was worth the money.’

Originally, the pleasure of succeeding in a new challenge was extraordinary. This is even more so when it comes to large-scale events such as concerts.

I rated it neatly.

“Your idea was good.”

“… ! Ay~ What are you talking about! It’s me, I just added a spoon to the complete set list~ I also included a lot of ideas!”

My mouth is tearing up, but I pretend not to.

Anyway, W Live is going to be long like an after-party on the last day, so today you just have to congratulate yourself on your success and check it out.

But I have a few more things to say.

“Hmm, Eugene looks a bit dangerous here.”

“I’m cool!”

“Yes, it’s cool, but it’s a story about landing safely.”

I found a conversation partner by passing the guys giving and receiving feedback.

“Kim Raebin.”

“yep!”

Kim Rae-bin was talking with Sun Ah-hyun about the unit stage. After saying a few words with Seon Ah-hyun, I sat down in front of him.

And it went straight to the point.

“How was it?”

“yes?”

“How was it after performing on stage?”

“… … .”

Kim Rae-bin had a slightly nervous face, but answered without hesitation.

“I was very concerned about whether I could appropriately interpret the other person’s production results and express the intention of the production well enough not to be ashamed of as a professional, but… .”

After a long introduction, the answer comes out.

“… I think I did pretty well this time.”

yes.

“Of course, Ahyeon hyung, who performed with me, showed such outstanding ability that I am aware that I jumped on the bandwagon, but still… .”

Kim Rae-bin’s eyes shone.

“I could… !”

It was a solid answer. I smiled and asked again.

“Can you do it in the future?”

“yes!!”

good.

After hearing that firm answer, I called up the status window without hesitation.

And I confirmed what I was waiting for.

[!Status Abnormality: Dodori Table (Disabled)]

His status ailment was clearly returned to its inactive state.

‘okay.’

Of course, it hasn’t completely disappeared, so maybe someday the ‘my production is ruined’ state will recur.

But don’t worry. Now this guy will be able to get out of the slump on his own.

Because I’ve been out once.

and… The option that it would be okay if I quit producing must have been well entrenched in my head.

That was enough.

“Good job.”

“no… . I was so grateful! I will work harder in the future.”

Kim Rae-bin bowed his head. Seon Ah-hyun, who was next to me, clapped with a red face.

It was a good finish.

This is the end of worrying about the sound source for the next album.

‘Well then, there is only one left.’

Leaning against the wall of the practice room, I prepared the opportunity to talk about the last treatment I had been thinking about for days.

“I have a suggestion.”

“huh?”

On the way home from work just before midnight, I raised my hand in the car.

“That arrangement account.”

“Oh that.”

First of all, the official contact for the game theme song, which was put on hold because the concert was urgent.

I said boldly.

“If it’s something you just want to try, I think it would be okay to accept an offer.”

“… !”

“Uh how… ?”

Simply put, this is it.

“You can donate the proceeds.”

“… ??”

You have to give up money.

“When we sign a contract, we return the profits to the welfare foundation.”

After all, there is no one here who regrets the money.

It’s a shame to just change the account, and I want to avoid unnecessary attention.

So, just say OK once and use that account all the time.

“If you donate anonymously, there is no tax evasion problem, so there will be no problem if you are caught later. The name can be handled within the business.”

“aha… .”

The person in charge will not dare to go so far as to illegally track a novice business operator and dig up detailed personal information.

“okay! There is no disagreement about profitability because I am not greedy.”

Kim Rae-bin answered brightly.

The person himself doesn’t seem to know at all, but since the guy with the most stakes is doing this, he’s in a situation where he has no choice but to shut up even if there’s someone he wasted money on.

Well, it doesn’t matter since no one seems to have talked about money in the first place.

However, Bae Se-jin asked with a confused face.

“Can’t we just sign a free contract?”

Can not be done.

“that… If they get caught, they will say that they are dealing with intellectual property rights because the money has rotted away.”

“… … .”

“It seems that there will be stories about the negative impact on the industry beyond the attitude controversy.”

Originally, public opinion is a tough opponent for idols

. you have to consider everything

I passed by Bae Se-jin's face, who seemed to feel both disillusioned and terrified at the same time, and asked.

"So, if you're going to do it, I'm wondering how about handling anonymous donations like this… I wonder what you think."

The cool positivity soon returned. I thought so.

"I like it~"

"Me too!"

Even Ryu Cheng-wu smiled and opened his mouth.

"Yeah, it looks fine."

It was unanimous.

I rubbed the back of my neck.

With this, the composing camp account can continue to operate without any problems.

"yes. Then do that."

Testa's arrangement account with an infinitely high stake in Kim Rae-bin… .

"A Star of the Stars also creates a career!"

… Yes, 'Song of the Stars' will reply to T1 Plays.

"… … ."

FYI, I objected to that account name.

Why did I want to give it a connection with Testa… I just want to say that I gave in to the majority.

‘Because not all the plans I’ve made work.’

The funny thing is that this time, my plan didn’t go perfectly as expected.

A few days after signing an official contract with T1 Place, articles like this started appearing on the Internet as popular articles.

[Youtuber who flexes properly]

[The result of trying hard.jpg]

[What kind of person is doing a star song]

“… ?”

There was nothing to trace the cause.

just… The person in charge made a public comment on the arrangement video.

– Thank you for the formal contract! According to ‘Byeolbyeolgok”s will, the down payment will be donated in full to the Skysori Children’s Foundation

thanks to this it happened

– Full donation to the Child Welfare Foundation

– Is it true?

– God’s God song! God’s God song!

-Look at the X sign. This is Flex

“Are you going to ignore it?”

“yes.”

We stopped all feedback after one complaint email to the person in charge.

With the awareness of the Bukkae so suddenly, the weather got colder and started running toward the announced date.

It was the end of the year soon.

Chapter 312

If you can’t debut, you’ll die from an illness Episode 312

The two-day concert ended in great success.

-Please encore

-No, what if I make something like this and finish it in two days, you crazy people (it’s not a good idea)

-Make sure to buy it when it comes out on VOD. This is a recommendation for public interest

. First of all, it was fun and fresh.

A dramatic concert that embodies a narrative. Since I’m good at the stage, I must have eaten half of it.’

The status window opens, but there is nothing to remove. The performance was great.

Of course, there were some people who were disappointed in terms of intimacy and communication, but after the W Live after-party as scheduled, it drastically decreased.

[Kyung ☜ Testa karaoke opening ☞Congratulations] I didn’t just recite the behind the scenes of the concert, I received the songs in the form of a karaoke room and ran.

Thanks to that, my neck was a bit strained, but… It was worth it.

‘Okay’

I slapped all the pear bellflower juice I was drinking down my throat.

A cold wind was blowing outside. Looks like the guys out there are having a hard time.

– Are you really not going to Mundaemun University?

The guy who asked until the end eventually went out to enjoy just one day off. It was worth it.

Now is the period of preparing the stage for the end of the year in early November.

What it means is that you shouldn’t expect a day off this year after today.

‘No, until about February.’

It will end with an awards ceremony and tour combo.

Today, there is no special contact from the staff. He’ll be filthy busy too.

They said that the format of this concert is special, so it’s difficult for us to match it perfectly at concert halls or tours.

So, they must be diligently modifying the plan by mixing general concert configurations according to the specifications of various venues.

‘It’s a busy season.’

Today is also my last free time, so it’s better to clear my head and rest… .

Drooling!

Smartphone rings.

[VTIC Senior Shin Cheong-ryeo: (Image)]

[Senior VTIC Cheong-ryeo Cheong: How are you?]

“… … .”

Are we going to say goodbye? When I was resting, this bastard contacted me and I’ve never seen anything good, so it’s best to just ignore it.

However, when I saw the attached image, I changed my mind.

I thought it was a dog again, but it wasn’t, it was a capture from an internet article.

[“A magical boy who defeats villains with a song!” Testa < T-Holic's Show Business > Appearance]

It was a provocation.

I replied to the guy.

[Yes, senior. We are working hard. So many people enjoyed the photo you sent, so I’m going to accept it now.] It’s a good thing because the reaction is good, but it doesn’t matter if it’s a magical girl or a boy.

It’s not mental victory, but really, that entertainment story still comes out on the Internet.

Both in name and reality, he is the hottest rising male idol in Korea this year.

‘In the second half of this year, I ran without a single twist.’

Sexuality and topicality are not pushed anywhere. If it’s an awards ceremony close to T1, it’s almost certain that they’ll give us a grand prize.

‘Is this bastard doing this because he’s pissed off?’

But the reply came without a delay.

[VTIC Senior Shin Cheong-ryeo: That's right. I was trying to say that it suits you well ^^]

This bastard is completely trying to attract people… .

'Is this because Eun-won settled everything with the help of Gold 2?'

In that case, you'd better get a picture of the dog. I briefly contemplated whether to just turn off my smartphone.

But at that moment, I didn't even reply, but the phone rang out of nowhere.

[VTIC Senior Shin Cheong-ryeo]

"… ?"

So what.

There might be information between the bullshit, so I received it for now.

"What are you doing?"

Then a calm voice was heard.

-hmm… I wonder if you have anything to say to me.

"yes?"

what kind of bullshit

Then, there was silence over the phone for a moment, and then I heard a slightly regretful voice.

– Is it yet?

"yet?"

– I'm talking to myself. I just called because I was curious how you were doing.

I don’t think so.

“As I said, I am doing well.”

Surely ‘not yet’ doesn’t mean that some trick has been played but it hasn’t exploded yet.

I asked outright.

“Did you prepare anything else?”

-hmm?

“I want you to say ‘yet’.”

Then, the sound of laughter comes over the phone.

– Oh, it’s not really different. I wondered if your junior hadn’t entered the country yet. Testa had a brief overseas schedule last week.

‘But that sounds like an excuse.’

There was no sign of cheating, so I decided to let it go.

– We entered the country.

I see

“If you have time, let’s go out to T-Holic sunbaenim’s variety show after entering Korea. I recommend it.”

I wondered what to do with those nojam bastards. However, the guy answered meekly.

-Oh that… Seniors.

If it wasn’t for the phone call, he probably wouldn’t have called you senior.

-Your survivability is really amazing. I have good resilience no matter what happens… I have often admired it.

It is a story that he did everything possible to kill him before, but he survived by far.

I made it simple.

“Senior is like that too.”

– Well, is it? Have you ever been in that position?

I don’t know why, but it pisses me off because he seems to be having fun.

-Anyway, I have no intention of going there, but thanks for the recommendation

Taeyeon.

‘… Even if you go over one target item, your position is strong.’

what a good thing It means that the probability that this bastard will hit me in the back of the head has decreased.

Cheong-Ryeo ended the call with a smile.

-Then see you at the awards ceremony.

“yes.”

And it actually happened.

The last time I saw Cheongryeo was at an awards ceremony for a major music chart that was scheduled for the last time that month.

“Ah Testa, I showed you something today… Can you give it to me?”

“of course!”

“haha!”

The members, who finished all preparations in the waiting room before the awards ceremony started, look half excited and half nervous.

To be honest, if there’s a guy who doesn’t expect to win an award in this situation, that’s a weird guy.

… I didn’t expect that he had already taken out the champagne.

“Now, shall we toast?”

“Yeah cheeeeers!”

The guys with the non-alcoholic champagne included in the catering looked like test takers eating glutinous rice cakes right before an exam.

‘what… The atmosphere is good.’

Among those who were in such a mood, Ryu Cheong-woo pointed out one with a smile.

“Sejin seems to have something to say. Can you give me a toast?”

“My me?”

“huh.”

“Oooh~”

Sejin Bae reddened his face, but didn’t get angry.

“Well then… .”

Instead, he cleared his throat a few times before seriously opening his mouth again.

“This year too… It was a lot of hard work and no matter what the result! Let’s not doubt that we worked hard and did well!”

It was surprisingly plausible. I don’t think Ryu Chung-woo pointed it out for nothing.

‘Looks like they prepared it secretly.’

“brother… .”

“I think so too… !”

“I am impressed.”

The atmosphere was even better.

Big Sejin also held out his hand with a smile without saying anything.

“I wish you all the best next year! Oh, we still have to do the official slogan properly one more time~”

“… okay!”

“great!”

And to shout fighting slogans, the members put their heads together to form a circle.

A relief formation that would only appear right before a sporting event.

It may not be very different in terms of winning and losing and being rewarded.

“Oh Mundae hand!”

I reached out. A familiar slogan comes out energetically.

“Ah Testa, show me something today!”

“and!!”

The adrenaline rushed.

I finished the non-alcoholic champagne in one go and left the empty glass on the table.

“Then let’s go out.”

That’s how the first awards ceremony began.

The first part of the < Grape Music Awards > went by without any special features.

Rookie stage with good grades The performance is regrettable, but a meaningful stage Rookie stage of a large agency… .

It doesn’t mean much. It’s just that the group with Gold 2 briefly showed their faces.

Of course, there could be controversy over my attitude, so I took the position of eagerly watching the stage.

After the long first part is over and the second part is over, the long-awaited words come out.

Again after stage and stages have passed.

When the popularity of the person who appeared as an award presenter changes, and the effect before the presentation and the time leading to the introduction change.

[The next award is given to the artist who has shown activities that comfort and move the most people this year.]

Yes.

[Artist Award!]

It was the first grand prize. And that's the prize we're aiming for.

The camera finds and captures the target candidates.

The camera, which arrived right in front of our block, grabs this table without hesitation.

"oh… ."

"Shh!"

Big Sejin controlled Cha Yujin. that's right

Time goes by like that.

[The Artist of the Year award winner is… .] drumming.

Singers laugh awkwardly.

A swinging cheering stick.

And finally the words are spat out.

[…] Testa!]

The camera lights up.

[Congratulations!]

Wow!!

The sound of pollen popping, the sound of cheers, the sound of music.

And the familiar faces on the billboard. The expressions on their faces, passing bewilderment and entering into joy, are very similar.

The funny thing is that I'm no different.

"ah."

I was expecting to receive it.

I don't think they brought the order to the front for no reason. Because I have to subtract them in order of year and give the ending to the seniors.

but… yeah i'll be honest

It feels like someone has hit a gong in my head. Goosebumps ran all the way to the inside of my skull.

'Target.'

Are you really riding this this year?

Big Sejin staggered and stood up from his seat. I pulled out of my chair and got up.

I think people around me are clapping, but I'm not sure. I dragged Cha Yoo-jin, who tapped my shoulder, up to the podium.

Sun Ah-hyun and shoulders collide.

We stood on stage. Bouquets and trophies pass each other.

"thank you."

Liu Chengwu took the microphone off his lips as if he was choking for a moment, then calmly spoke again.

"we… I am very happy and honored to receive this undeserved award. Not just this year, but the members who have been working hard every day since their debut."

Ryu Chung-woo took care of each and every one of his fans, staff, and parents. I heard that they were practicing from the dorm, but I didn't spill it and listened.

He was the one who deserved it.

And it felt like that.

“… Thanks again.”

But just as I was about to say that, someone stabbed me in the back from behind.

I thought it was the wrong poke the first time, but I’m sure it wasn’t the second time.

“… ?”

What.

‘Mundae!’

It was a big wave.

he pushes me Other guys made a seat and openly vacated the middle.

‘what.’

That’s how I ended up being pushed to the center. The guys around me tap on the shoulder. The pollen stuck there stuck to his nose and fell.

There is a microphone in front of it.

‘… That’s great.’

Procrastinating to occupy the last impression… Of course not, I picked up a laugh and grabbed the mic in front of the audience.

… I’m a little excited.

‘Now that I’ve caught it, I should say something.’

That was the moment.

[Mission cleared!]

“… !”

A hologram appeared.

After clearing the status abnormality, the one that didn’t appear when I wasn’t calling.

And I understood the situation a beat late.

‘ah.’

Right.

As I expected, public opinion was important.

This… Because Testa is an authoritative object in the public perception of being a target.

‘Still, clearing at the first awards ceremony.’

It was a development I liked. I was willing to accept this situation.

But the hologram is not over. It pulls out unsolicited articles.

[Payment is being settled… .]

“… !”

now?

The order is odd.

‘I have to accept the reward to receive it… X feet!’

I realized that I was mistaken about something.

This wasn't the 'Status Abnormality' that the system gave.

therefore… It means that there was no guarantee that what was possible when clearing the status abnormality would be the same.

The same was true of compensation checks.

'Unless I'm in the form of pressing the reward.'

A cold sweat runs down my neck.

The hologram that appeared in front of me crackled and changed its shape.

[Reward completed!]

Reward: Conversation with Moondae Park completed?

At that moment, my vision blurred.

– Park Moon-dae!

Just like the debut of < Azusa > when I cleared the first status abnormality.

And it was a blackout.

When you think about it, it was really strange.

That I, who had never participated in a talent show, had a job dancing and singing in front of others.

'Originally I… .'

Why did you take pictures of idols?

I can say that because it makes money, but then why did the people who didn't make money film it?

The pleasure I got there… .

Was it vicarious satisfaction?

"Huh."

I opened my eyes.

inside a dark room.

I saw a familiar ceiling. But it's been so long that I don't feel familiar or welcome… that. This is the ceiling of my old bedroom.

"… !!"

I got up. And groped his face. A glass ball is caught.

Without running to the bathroom to look in the mirror, this head, hands and glasses… .

my original body.

Ryu Gun-woo, not Park Moon-dae.

"… … !"

I clenched my fist. And he bowed his head.

'Calm down.'

and this situation.

'this.'

This… I already had a similar experience once.

‘daydream.’

Is it similar to the coma? Even now, in case you dream… … .

It was then.

[Hey there!]

“… !”

what.

Hearing in my head… No, a strange resonance that I don’t know if it’s right to say I hear this.

[I… bro why are you here… … … .]

I spat out the words.

“Who are you.”

[Yes yes?]

An echo as if crying.

Then a small resonance sounded.

[Bar Park Mundaeyo.]

“… … .”

this… What’s up with the X.

Chapter 313

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 313 An unexpected situation where I get thrown out of the body of 'Park Moon-dae' and return to my original body?

Of course, I thought about it and expected it. In the first place, I was trying to find a way to return.

the problem is… Although I never thought of going back with the owner of the original body.

[…] … .]

"… … ."

[Me]

"Be quiet. Because I'm thinking about it."

[yes… … .]

I pressed my forehead with both hands while hearing a voice that sounded like a crying resonance.

My head was itchy.

'X feet.'

I can't figure out what the heck is… No, first of all, from information gathering.

“you… My name is Moondae Park.”

[yes yes… !]

There was nothing distinct about that voice, but I could understand some of the tone.

It means that a little intimidated child seems to be right.

‘Damn it.’

Could it be that this is the ‘conversation with Moondae Park’ reward you received for clearing the mission?

There is a degree of absurdity. It’s a sudden reward like this, and I’m going to take a look at the person on the podium… for a moment.

“… !”

I am… It was right before the target impression. At the music awards ceremony being broadcast live.

In an instant, the blood ran cold.

[Geonwoo hyung… ?]

I ignored his words and got up right away. And started looking around.

[What are you doing?]

“Cell phone.”

After ripping off the blanket, I asked in a low voice.

“Where is the phone?”

[I don’t know… I don’t know why I’m here… !]

I wandered around the room and finally found a small TV on a dining table-cum-desk next to the sink.

‘TV?’

I’ve never bought anything like this… It’s done and once it’s on

I quickly turned the screen to the news channel. I wonder if there is any breaking news. and… saw it

Today’s date floated small at the bottom of the news channel.

“… !”

[December 15, 202X]

It was four years ago.

Today, where I lived, was not the day of the awards ceremony at the end of November when Testa received its first grand prize that year.

… December 15th. Park Moon-dae’s birthday.

The very day I entered the body of Park Moon-dae, who was lying in a motel after taking a sleep inducer.

The day everything happened.

“… … under.”

As I stepped back, I stumbled over the chair.

[Are you okay??]

You said you came back again?

‘no.’

It can’t be.

So this… Everything is too similar to when I was really in a coma, but even then… … … .

okay. I know for sure.

“Is it a dream again?”

[yes? Brother!]

I sat down on the chair. And I put on the pod with both hands. The tremors subsided.

“okay. Let’s talk.”

Since this is a reward for X-shots, it must have meaning.

I opened my mouth without hesitation.

“Park Moon-dae. You said you didn’t know why you were here.”

[yes? … Yes.]

Whether that’s a lie or not, it means that I’m not in a state where I can easily explain why I entered his body. If so, hit it in reverse.

“Then what were you doing right before this uproar started?”

[I am…]

The wave of the voice wavered a little uneasy. I waited patiently for an answer.

[…] I went to see my brother in the hospital.]

“Hyung?”

It’s the first time that Park Moon-dae had an older brother.

However, an unexpected answer came back.

[Geonwoo hyung. … Brother.]

“… !”

I mean.

my sick? what else is this… No, there was something I had felt before.

‘This guy knows me.’

From the beginning, without hesitation, he called me ‘Geonwoo hyung’. It means that you are sure that you have a relationship with me.

I seemed to have caught a clue. I continued to ask questions.

“when.”

[that is… ! I think that’s strange too. I was definitely living in the year 202X, but in the previous broadcast, the year was strange… .]

I have to admit this. I guess this guy… Park Moon-dae in the situation I saw in the last ‘truth’ confirmation I saw.

The future Bakmundae, which is not in my memory, who kept in touch after getting a meal from me.

A small trembling resonance rang again.

[By any chance… Don’t you know me?]

“I’m not sure.”

[Yes??]

It means that I don’t even know if I know you.

“First, tell me the last situation you remember. I… Because my memory seems to be jumbled right now.”

[Then… .]

Park Mun-dae was hesitant, but soon began to obediently share his memories.

[My brother… I was worried because I was hospitalized. But after that, when I came to my senses… .]

“Why were you hospitalized?”

[…] Uh, you’re overworked.]

I nodded.

“Don’t lie.”

[…] !]

Saying that I was hospitalized for overwork is nonsense. And when this guy lies, the tone of his voice changes.

“There must have been another reason, not overwork.”

And there was an answer that passed through my head.

“… Did you make an extreme choice?”

[…] … yes. Tongue bro… My heart hurts a lot and I’m tired… . You must remember that.]

As expected.

He tried to die in the last truth check, but he didn’t really die and must have been taken to the hospital at good timing.

Bad luck was in good shape, though. The situation was absurd, but he nodded his head.

“Basically, what kind of conversation did you have when you visited the hospital?”

[I couldn’t talk. My brother hasn’t woken up yet… .]

“… … .”

That he was in a coma.

I inquired further, but he said that he did nothing in particular during the hospital visit. Looking at the nuance, it’s not a lie.

So, is there anything more to know?

“What were you thinking?”

[Yes?]

As a result of the last cross-validation, those who returned to the past hypothesized that the time to return seems to have been selected based on their last thoughts and desires.

If so, it is necessary to check the last memory of this ‘Bakmundae’. I have never wished to enter Park Moon-dae’s body.

“I wonder what was the last thing you thought about back then.”

For example, after seeing my appearance, you might have thought that if that was my future, I would want to run away.

[…] … .]

The resonance was more trembling, but he said it without hesitation.

[It was nothing. I just wanted my brother to live a long, healthy life… … .]

“… … !”

It was an answer I did not expect.

I was a bit stunned and kept my mouth shut. myself somewhat… Because it felt petty.

‘Damn it.’

And after a while, he said something.

“first… sorry.”

[…] Yes??]

“I’m sorry for suddenly saying things like I’m asking you all of a sudden. You would be surprised too.”

No, suddenly my body disappeared and only my voice remained, so it was fortunate that I did not panic.

It was a dream, it was nabal, and it was stupid to suddenly threaten this guy. I had to deal with it more rationally.

“Anyway, when I came to visit… Thank you for thinking so.”

[ah… .]

A slight bewilderment and bewilderment mingled in the resonance.

[no! I’ve been helping all along, but I haven’t gotten anything back… .]

What is the repayment?

I expected it, but I don’t think I’ve ever had much help from people around me. I don’t know how many times I hear that word over a bowl of soup.

Thank you, but let’s move on to something more productive.

“That’s fine, but more than that, how exactly are you now?”

[iced coffee! Even though I can’t move my body… I can even feel it when hyung moves… ?]

“Yes.”

Then we share the same body, but I have the right to control.

Anyway, ‘conversation with Park Moon-dae’ is taking place. It’s a bizarre way to make them talk in the same body, though.

‘Why is it like this?’

If we’re going to make a dream like this anyway, shouldn’t we just talk with each other’s bodies?

perhaps… In the reality where I lived, there was no ‘real ego of Park Moon-dae’, so was it implemented in this way?

“hmm.”

It’s not a very sweet hypothesis, and it doesn’t come to a conclusion. I’ll have to check out how this dream is structured.

I got up and started searching my phone again. It was then.

[Looking for that brother’s phone?]

“Yes.”

[that… Maybe it’s in your back pocket.]

Gong Myung added with a confident tone.

[Now I feel like I have something in my back pocket… .]

Ah.

I immediately put my hand in the pocket of my jeans. And I found a familiar square.

all sighs come out

“thanks.”

I’m not crazy enough to consider this. I clicked my tongue and opened the phone.

Then a pop-up appears.

[Network registration failed.]

“… ?”

This… It’s a pop-up that could only appear in an air system. No phone number… .

… no way.

In a strange intuition, I immediately turned my head and looked around.

At the time, I lived as an option, so I didn’t notice much until now, but there was a definite sense of incongruity.

And I found the cause.

[Hyung?]

It was a family photo on the system window.

It is a picture of four strangers. Never something I would ever photograph, buy, or place.

traces of others.

“… … .”

Suddenly, there is an idea that crosses my mind.

When I first entered the body of ‘Park Moon-dae’, I checked Ryu Gun-woo’s active account, phone number and site ID.

everything was gone

At first, I thought it was a parallel world, but I concluded that it was a supernatural evaporation after going through verification that ‘all accounts and records that were used in the past remain’.

-‘Ryu Gun-woo’ disappeared from all places, including the Internet and the real world, starting from the moment I entered the body of ‘Park Moon-dae’.

And if now… What if I suddenly ‘appeared’ in that situation 4 years ago?

without any connection to reality.

I inadvertently punched him in the face to check.

[Hyung!]

“… … .”

it hurts

‘Such a fucking foot.’

I got up right away. And I took a closer look around.

and concluded

‘It’s not where I used to live.’

And judging from the pain, it wasn’t even a dream. This is fucking reality.

Then, the first thing you should do is… .

“Let’s go.”

[Are you leaving??]

Yes. If the monthly rent contract is also initialized, it means that you are in someone else's house!

I hurriedly came out of my own room, which had become someone else's room.

They didn't touch anything in particular, so you wouldn't notice the trespasser.

The problem is next.

'What I have now is… '

A folder phone that is not a smartphone that has become an air machine. And I only have about 140,000 won in my wallet.

"… ."

Of course, there will be no bankbook.

'I want to kill you.'

I grinded my teeth. and called

"Status window."

what was open

[Receiving reward]

"… … "

Keep calm.

can be taken in a positive sense. It means that it will be restored to its original state after receiving the reward.

I squeezed my situation on the verge of my rapidly emerging acceptance speech. Even thinking about it now doesn't help.

“after.”

Gong Myung, who roughly grasped the situation, also lowered his voice and hummed.

[Hyung over there… Are you okay? What kind of situation is this… .]

Not really. But no matter how much I say shit, nothing changes, so I shut up and sat down.

The most urgent thing right now.

‘I don’t have a house.’

No, not just a house, there is no foundation. Because all contact with society has been reset.

I don’t know how long this damn situation will last, but it’s impossible not to have a phone that’s opened right now.

… Then there is only one thing to do.

After concluding, I moved on again.

[excuse me… Where are we going now?]

“Convenience store.”

I added casually.

“I’m going to buy a lottery ticket.”

[Lottery ticket… What? I feel like I’ve come to the past, but I don’t know the lottery numbers… .]

There is a misunderstanding.

“I know the number.”

[…] .]

I opened the phone again.

Even though it’s an air machine that doesn’t make calls or anything, I was able to confirm one day of the week.

-Friday

and tomorrow, Saturday, are lottery winner announcement days.

Think about it.

As soon as I entered Moondae Park’s body, I also thought that there were no stocks or lottery numbers that I knew.

Even if it’s regretful, I’ll see it once.

And such an impressive experience is bound to remain in your head.

‘Because I still remember.’

As soon as I entered the convenience store, I bought about 20 lottery tickets, including one or two confusing numbers.

“One of these is unconditionally right.”

Resonance rang like swallowing saliva.

[brother… You’re really smart.]

It wasn’t a brain problem, it was a situation problem. To understand that, I think I need to explain a bit about what I went through in my own body.

‘now… This guy seems too tired.’

Anxiety began to mix with resonance earlier. It's scary that this situation is coming true.

'For now, give me time to rest.'

I then found a place to stay for a reasonable price. I just need to hold out until Monday morning, so cash is fine.

'For now, let's rest and talk after the head cools down.'

As soon as I wake up, I need to tell this guy what I've been through and explain the exact situation.

I said as I lay down on the bed.

"If you can't sleep after I fall asleep, wake me up."

[yes? no! Fine… … .]

"Wake up."

I fell asleep after checking the status window where only 'receiving compensation' was still displayed.

* * *

Light pours from outside the eyelids.

[Geonwoo hyung… ?]

"Inhale."

I inhaled and opened my eyes. My head is clear, probably because I fell asleep deeper than I thought.

And I heard a voice almost crying.

[brother! Oh, I thought you were still here… !]

Why are you so happy? I got up.

And I was bewildered.

“… ?”

You can see the inside of an officetel, not a motel. And the green trees and the sun shone through the window.

“… … .”

It’s never December.

“what.”

But first, resonance rises.

[Oh brother! I won that lottery! I got 1.2 billion!]

That’s good. But what that means is that the time has passed enough to pick it up and buy a house.

I asked him exactly that.

“It seems like a lot of time has passed since the day I bought the lottery ticket.”

From then on, the voice becomes much quieter.

[yes. I bought a lottery ticket then. I woke up the next day… My older brother disappeared and I became my older brother… ?]

What?

[That’s why I’ve been like that for now… .]

It was a bullshit that made my eyes dizzy.

‘… Let’s stay calm.’

Still, there seems to be no money problem whether the lottery won properly.

I erased one of my worries when I saw the house looking much better than the room I used to live in.

But the most poignant part happened next.

[And I… After Hyung disappeared, something strange happened… … … .]

“What?”

[Look at this… .]

after a while. [!

Chapter 314

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease. Episode 314

Public Notice Level 7.

It is the very test that I failed the 3rd interview at the last minute while living as Gunwoo Ryu. Doing so immediately reminds me of the life of exams that will take several years of my life.

But why did this suddenly appear in this situation with an abnormal condition?

‘Are you crazy?’

It didn’t even pop up on me.

[Receiving reward]

It still pops up for me. So, that weird condition… Seeing that the resonance of ‘Park Moon-dae’ appears only when it is called, it seems to belong to him.

‘Then I have to give them the stats. Why are the stats not appearing again?’

I asked, holding back the double desire that was about to come out of my mouth.

“… When did you wake up?”

[I remembered that my brother called the status window on the day he bought the lottery ticket… I called again the next day… … .]

Damn it.

‘Did you see that?’

I’m asking now if I couldn’t say anything because of the atmosphere.

[Come to think of it, that ‘receiving the reward’ is… Did hyung do something like this too??]

It’s similar.

However, without a reply, Gong Myung continues to speak without a break, as if pouring out words that he hadn’t been able to say before.

[I bought an officetel, but was it right to buy this… ? Would the monthly rent be better? And something really strange happened… .]

In addition to the condition of dying if I can’t get the public notice, quite a few shocking things must have happened to ‘Park Moon-dae’, who lived in my body for the past few months.

And the king of the end is that.

– Re-listing! Idol Co., Ltd. ┃ Moondaengdaeng’s Moondaeto Moment☆

[Hey! Am I right??]

“… … .”

The fact that some guy participated in the idol survival with his own body.

‘Was it the same timeline after all… .’

It seems that the past of the same world where I lived in the body of Park Moon-dae is correct here. I silently endured the highlights of Park Moon-dae on the screen.

[I tried to contact you somehow, but there was no place to contact me… .]

Yes, I guess. Because you were also disconnected from your smartphone.

When I saw the chicken feet mukbang, I felt complicated.

‘At that time… That’s how I lived.’

I struggled to open my mouth.

“That’s me.”

[…] ?? Bro, I think I misunderstood… .]

“No, you are right.”

I held back a sigh.

“I lived in your body.”

[uh… Uh uh uh??]

I’m sorry for the frightened guy who popped up the status window anyway, but it was an explanation that preceded it anyway.

Sitting on the sofa in the living room, I slowly began to recite what had happened to me.

It wasn’t difficult. It was easy to summarize.

After a while, Gongmyong shouted:

[So… My brother became an idol with my body!? Because if you can’t become an idol, you’ll die?]

Oh, that’s it.

Resonance rang like mad.

[Uh-oh-oh-oh-oh! It was too cool to be called me!]

Are you serious?

I know how to speak softly. I also know my broadcast image around this time. It's okay to say that I look like an idiot.

[Then, when you suddenly opened your eyes right at the point where you were about to take the grand prize, you said you were here??]

"Yes. But right now, that probably doesn't matter."

[yes… ?]

I said grimly.

"Look at my case. If you really don't pass the public notice, you could die."

[…] .]

I don't know if Gongmyeong can swallow saliva, but it felt roughly similar.

[That's right.]

Unexpectedly calm.

[actually… I didn't know, so I bought a problem and studied it. I do not know… …]

Isn't it desperation?

'I'm going to have to design this first as soon as possible… .'

After thinking for a while, I opened my mouth.

"Listen. First of all, look at the text on the hologram from earlier."

The name of the status abnormality that popped up was 'Death if you don't pass!' However, if you look closely at the explanation, you can see an escape route.

-If you do not receive a report card without errors in the first written test of the ‘7th grade open competitive recruitment exam’, this is the part where you die.

“Failure, not pass, is the criterion.”

[…] Ugh!]

“You only need to get over 40 points for each subject on the report card.”

And judging from the fact that ‘(1)’ was added after the status abnormality, this status abnormality is probably not the end. The first pass should be around the next condition.

Right now, it adds persuasiveness to the logic of ‘just avoid failing’… In the long run, it’s a death marathon.

“What month is it now?”

“It’s April… .”

The first test was in July. Only 3 months left.

‘Why is this… .’

Who is saying that someone took the fact that he failed to pass the civil service exam as a grievance? I grinded my teeth.

‘It would be more comfortable if I could see it.’

It seems that the level 7 PSAT can be raised to the passing line after a month or two of rehabilitation.

The problem is that I seem to have woken up after a few months, but if it continues this term, the exam is no different from skipping water.

And if it is certain that this status ailment belongs to ‘Park Moon-dae’, then Park Mun-dae… .

“… … .”

I can’t. I sentenced

“I’d rather go to a boarding school.”

[Yes??]

Depending on the facility or instructor, there are high-end boarding academies that allow you to study without worrying about anything else if you put in about 200 per month.

What would happen if I put all the remaining money in futures options related to stocks I know and go in and study?

“Anyway, if the next status ailment appears as a passing condition… A boarding school is the most efficient option.”

Isn’t boarding school better than dying?

[all. Is there another one??]

“I guess so.”

[Uhhhh… .]

It depends on where the standard is.

If the memory of ‘Park Moon-dae’ is the center… Judging from what I said, it seems like I’ve returned to the past for about six years, so it’ll be about seven.

‘It’s hell.’

Even after being hired, it won’t be awkward if a promotion or performance appraisal comes next.

But slightly twisted… What if it was retroactively applied to the person who disappeared after I had a ‘conversation with Park Moon-dae’ as a reward and lived in my body?

‘then… The standard is when I rode the target.’

Still, about five. I held back a sigh.

Of course, I can’t be sure because I don’t know how it will be applied, but the important thing is that I’m a high school student.

7 status ailments or 5?

‘X foot… .’

I held my breath and sat down in front of the PC. Then I opened the page and searched for civil service exam lectures.

[202X Public Official D-100 All-in-One Package OPEN!

] .”

no wait

When I see an advertising banner floating in front of my eyes, something flashes.

okay.

‘I must have solved the previous year’s papers… !’

It was the latest release of the period when I was most focused on public disclosure. I have a clear memory of tidying up to the Ingang.

“… … .”

I grabbed the mouse again.

And Gongmyung began to hum like a confession.

[Brother me… I haven't studied much since I came out of high school… … .]

"No, it's okay."

[Yes??]

I called up the PDF file of the workbook that this guy had downloaded from the desktop.

And after taking a look, I laughed.

I remembered.

"I'll take a picture of what will come out, so study it as it is."

[…] !!]

I think I can go to boarding school next year. This year, I will take all the types, so I will avoid mistakes.

… Of course, assuming that this guy has basic reading comprehension.

'It's over without it.'

By the way, surprising results awaited.

* * *

[So number 3… ?]

"… … ."

I nodded.

"answer."

[Yeah!!]

After turning it around, this guy's head looked fine.

no, it's not that good… Basic comprehension itself is good. To the extent that I would have thought that if I had continued to go to high school, I would have done well on the CSAT.

'I think my memorization skills are lacking, but the PSAT isn't a memorization test anyway, so it doesn't matter.'

In addition, since the previous exams in my memory have been combined, it means that I will pass the first exam easily.

I slammed the problem book that I had finished checking. I searched for all similar types and checked them.

"If it stays like this for 3 months, it will be fine."

[Really?]

"Yes."

If you cling to death, you will avoid mistakes.

[…] …]

Resonance seemed hesitant, but soon it hummed with a lower trembling wave than before.

[In fact, this is an expedient. Because I'm receiving what hyung studied… … .]

I was surprised that he had the spirit to even consider such ethical considerations when he looked like he would die if he couldn't stick with it, but I kept my mouth shut.

It's because I felt like I was soaked in emotion from him.

[But I'm really happy that I can do it. thank you… … … .]

Because I became an idol with your body.

When I say that, the resonance jumps out like a little excitement.

[that! Shall we see that then? The older brother from < Azusa >!]

“… … .”

Should it be so?

However, since I studied for almost 10 hours, it would be good to give me something.

‘Is it fun because you’re on TV?’

I change the PC screen without talking and access Witube… .

– Park Moon-dae’s past sanitary napkin controversy?

I almost tore off the sofa for a moment, but it soon subsided.

All I saw was the latest video recommendation. The incident where he tried to voluntarily leave Azusa.

‘That must have been today.’

Turns out, the date was just right. I drool.

Anyway, it was a problem that would be solved by the person concerned coming up in the morning. Now you don’t have to feel different emotions again.

But this guy is the problem.

[That one… … I am… … … .]

“I know it’s not. It’s all sorted out, so don’t worry.”

‘Park Moon-dae’ is a very shocking situation.

It would be upsetting to suddenly have your private life publicly exposed. it could be scary

“… sorry. It must have happened because I went to survival without your consent.”

They tried to avoid sudden death, but that may not be the case for the person concerned. But the resonance was frightening.

[Oh no! me too… I came into my brother’s body and I’m getting help like this… .]

Resonance trembled uneasy.

[however… What if hyung can’t debut because of me… .]

“Because I do.”

I’ve already done it, what are you talking about?

But what this guy was thinking, there was no answer for a while.

And it wasn’t until we started preparing the meal that it suddenly started humming again.

[I… I think I can try contacting you!]

What.

[I don’t remember the number, but… I have that friend’s email address!]

“… !”

[I emailed several times because of the group meeting… It will definitely stay.]

That’s right.

The two seemed to have gotten along very well, so there were likely to be traces of that much.

But do you need to?

Anyway, I will notice this morning and post an explanation. I'd rather not do anything suspicious…

'for a moment.'

… no way.

I hurriedly recalled the past.

-I didn't do anything, but suddenly things got this good?

It was strange even then. I didn't think everything could magically work out this quickly.

And if now is the same timeline as then… .

"… … ."

I finally nodded.

"Where are you writing mail?"

[…] ! It's my favourite… !]

Following his words, I left a rather long e-mail to the friend.

It was a sincere request filled with concerns, regards, apologies, and sorry.

It could have been done more effectively, but I didn't bother. I just made sure there are no inappropriate remarks.

And as I read the contents again, I intuitively realized that this friend had written an explanation after reading the e-mail.

‘Vocabulary overlaps.’

It was obvious that word choice was affected.

In the end, thanks to this e-mail, an explanation was posted.

[I want to send it like this… .]

“… okay.”

I was overcome with a strange feeling as I pressed send mail.

The idea at the time was right. Things don’t get better all of a sudden.

It was just that someone specifically worked on it.

So the favor was the favor.

That night I admitted lying in an unfamiliar bed.

“thanks. Thank you for sending me an email.”

[no. It’s only natural… .]

After saying thanks, Gong Myung rang rather depressingly.

[I made you get caught up in something strange… I’m sorry.]

“Will you be the only one who has to take the 7th grade in 3 months?”

[Eww.]

Yes. worry about you I smiled bitterly and threw my smartphone away.

[That brother. If you fall asleep… .]

“That’s why I also try not to sleep.”

[ah… Yes!]

Resonance became a bit lighter. He must have been afraid that I wouldn't wake up again for a few more months.

"Looking at the pattern, it seems like it will definitely come back, so don't worry if it disappears, and I'm preparing well for the exam."

[…] Yes.]

I had a meaningless chat with him while looking at my watch.

The clock moved steadily.

-11:55.

And the moment the minute hand points to 12 o'clock… .

I fell asleep naturally.

* * *

When I opened my eyes again, it was morning again.

'Am I going to fall asleep unconditionally when the day goes by?'

I can't stand not sleeping. I clicked my tongue inwardly.

Then I heard a scream similar to the previous morning.

[Ah! brother! Hyung is here??]

"Yes."

Judging by the fact that he is wearing sleeveless clothes, it must have been a while again. I held my breath and got up.

And all of a sudden, resonance poured in.

[I took the test! I couldn't get it… There was no error!]

Seeing that we could have a conversation even if you didn't say anything, it seemed like that.

"okay. Good job."

[…] ! Yes!]

Resonance seemed happy, but soon calmed down.

[But again, a status ailment popped up… . Oh, before that, I had a schedule for that day…]

"Schedule?"

[It's displayed on the smartphone alarm over there… … .]

For some reason, the sound is getting quieter. I'm not even going to mention it myself.

'Did you really think I would scold you for not registering at a boarding school and playing around?'

It wouldn't be more urgent than a status ailment.

I got up with a smile and picked up my phone. And I immediately checked the alarm name.

-Appeared at the Testa Festival at 2:30 pm

"… … ?"

[I… Shouldn't we go there?]

I wanted to hear from the beginning what the hell happened.

Chapter 315

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 315

When I open my eyes, it's been a few months, and out of the blue, I'm going to go see my old performance.

And the cause of this situation… It was surprisingly simple.

I pressed my forehead and tidied up.

"therefore… When I had time while studying, I was curious and looked up my activities, but at some point I found it interesting."

[Yes!]

He answers very clearly.

[To the magical boy… Oh, the stage in that baseball uniform was really cool too! And the variety show that came out alone was really fun… I didn't see the main room because I was studying… .]

It seems like you've got all the news about famous activities, but I think you managed to avoid a sudden death by avoiding a fallout.

… No, there is a possibility that this was the only pleasure in life.

'Have you relieved your stress by watching idols?'

Then what can you say?

[And when I checked the score, it seemed like I passed the test… I wondered if I could go see it for myself for a day or so, so I bought a ticket… .]

“… … .”

Resonance faded, as if muttering words.

‘I really want it.’

I said with a sigh.

“… Where do you do it?”

[…] !]

Yes. understood.

People go crazy after studying all day long. In the long term, it was necessary to take a day off.

Resonance resonates like crazy.

[Not far from here! It was a Gyeonggi-do festival… .]

“Wait.”

I changed my clothes.

There must be thousands of people, but I wonder if there are any stars. It is enough to endure the scene of solemn monitoring that I personally cheer for on my stage.

[Thank you so much hyung!]

I think I heard three thanks while putting toothpaste on my toothbrush.

“It’s not that difficult, but what? You should have fun like this.”

[Yes?]

I chuckled.

“I’m going to go to boarding school tomorrow.”

[…] Ugh!]

I have no intention of interfering with the last leisure time of the year.

* * *

An hour later.

I bought wireless earbuds at a convenience store so I wouldn’t be suspected of a lunatic talking to himself. This is enough to match the assortment.

Of course, while moving, I was doing what I had to do at the same time.

“First, let me tell you what happened.”

[Yes!]

First, I checked the status ailments that appeared on this guy.

[! Abnormal Status: Pass or Death! (2)]

If you fail to pass the 1st written test of the ‘Grade 7 Open Competitive Recruitment Exam’, you die

. I knew it.

The deadline is the same as 1 year. hmm.

‘From now on, I have to tell them to delay the clear confirmation.’

If it is pushed forward, there may be a crazy situation where the period expires before the second or third exam.

There won’t be much difference since the test is for one year, but you can benefit from the period.

However, the moment I thought about that, I also remembered how the confirmation of my status ailment was done.

‘Truth check.’

I don’t know if this guy also pops up trash like ‘Check the truth ☜ Click!’, so I’ll have to check it out.

“Looking at the date, it doesn’t seem like the status ailment changed immediately after checking the grades.”

[uh… yes Still, something strange came up… .]

Resonance somehow trembled thinly. And as soon as he explained, I knew why.

The option that appeared at the bottom of the success pop-up that appeared as soon as I checked the first grade.

[Synchronization Acceptance ☜ Click!]

Clicking this is somehow creepy, so I hesitated for weeks and received it in September.

[I was going to wait a while and ask if hyung comes… .]

But I had no news, and in the end, that guy clicked that button yesterday.

And the result…

[Accumulation completed.]

A window like this appeared.

‘… It must have been very embarrassing.’

[That brother. Maybe I did something wrong and the penalties are accumulating… ?]

“No, that wouldn’t be it.”

As for the feeling… It seems that ‘Park Moon-dae’ existed in the process of making the compensation I bet, and it seems to be settling down, but I’m not sure.

‘What kind of mechanism does it float?’

There are more things to analyze. I thought so at first and passed it on.

Because you have already reached your destination.

I got off the bus and checked the athletic field in front of me.

“Here.”

[Wow!]

I remember.

‘I think it was a festival held by some company.’

It was rare for such things to be sold without a rental. It seems that this guy got the hang of it.

‘The lineup… We were at the best level.’

I went inside, reviewing the details.

The air inside the venue was stuffy. It was an obvious result because it was hot even at the end of September, as befits a modern society where abnormal temperatures occur like eating rice.

‘It’s not like I slept wearing a sleeveless shirt for no reason.’

Sitting in the aisle outside, I felt a strange sense of deja vu. Did it remind you of the days of the data arm?

[That brother. Do you remember this performance too?]

“Yes.”

[then… ! By any chance, hyung, when are you coming out?]

I consciously pressed the Bluetooth earphone and answered.

“Before the penultimate.”

[and… … .]

I wonder if there was something to be admired in the conversation just now. The practicality of just getting off work quickly in the midst of a fight to stand at the ending?

‘Should I at least release an anecdote about my active period when the time comes?’

It feels like being a curator. I closed my mouth. And on the stage, the performance was just beginning.

“… … .”

The stages that followed were not very exciting. I saw them so often because they overlapped with each other.

However, seeing it from below again, I feel a sense of déjà vu as if the data arm had gone back in time.

[Hyung, aren’t you having fun… ?]

“No, it’s fine. It must be because you are used to it.”

It’s so loud, but even if I mumble, it’s something I can do because I know that people around me can’t hear me. And Gong Myung understands well because this is also his body.

[Because you were active as an idol, of course!]

“That’s also true, because I went to shoot something like this in college.”

[…] !]

Well, I said it for nothing.

However, the resonance is ‘Did you intern as a reporter?’ Instead of saying the same thing, he enthusiastically agreed.

[Yes! That hyung also filmed the Youngrin fancam… !]

“… ??”

What are you not so good at?

“Did I even tell you that?”

[that… yes. I found out by chance!]

Yes. Well, it wasn’t particularly a secret, so it could have been spilled like this while drinking.

I nodded.

Since the guy who shared my sights was excited, I watched the rest of the stage without turning my head.

And after a long time, the long-awaited guys finally came up on stage.

Wow!!!

Compared to the previous one, there are three times more screams.

And the figures who come up and form formation.

testa.

-I think of you whom I met tomorrow

all day,

wearing a navy blue stage costume and holding a microphone… me.

-Dreaming a blue dream like daytime

“… … .”

[and… !]

It was a strange feeling.

Obviously, stage monitoring was done countless times. I need to check what the hell I’m doing so I can refine it.

However, to see a real performance from a completely spectator’s point of view… It was almost shocking.

Even if it’s the size of a lighter.

‘Did I have that expression?’

The face on the display board and the running matchstick-sized figures intersect in the field of view.

-Cast a spell

Only then did I actually understand that I was included in the sights I once left as data.

Moondae Park on stage I’m quite… He seemed like a good idol.

I sat quietly in my seat among the cheering people until Testa’s performance was over.

And it was only when the rapper came out that ‘Park Moon-dae’ wasn’t interested in that I got up and left.

[Hyung?]

“Use the bathroom.”

I wanted to pour some cold water on it. I can't believe that I am so impressed with this situation.

… … … I missed you.

'oh my god.'

I moved my feet and naturally headed towards the end of the hallway. And the moment I entered the bathroom, I realized.

just now… Very naturally, I came into the area where no one is allowed to enter.

"… … ."

He probably thought he was a staff member because he was invisible to the performer's fan base. Event security sucks.

'Because I don't even have a camera.'

I shrugged and turned on the water at the sink.

and heard at the same time.

bang!

Someone slamming the door open and coming out of the bathroom stall.

"… ?"

What.

At that moment, the person in question could be seen in the front mirror.

however… He was someone I knew.

[Uh uh uh! This person!]

This is Bae Se-jin.

In that moment, I grasped the situation.

‘I was stuck in a cell and cried.’

It’s obvious that it’s still early debut. Come to think of it, have you experienced a similar situation when you daydream?

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin was trying to be less harsh, but still had a dirty personality due to family issues.

I saw Bae Se-jin, who did not approach the sink and stopped. There was power in the eyes with vigilance.

‘hmm.’

I felt odd. a little… Should I say I’m glad

Of course, he might look like a weirdo, so I’ll have to deal with it.

I said briefly as I washed my hands.

“Are you Sejin Lee? sorry. I’m surprised that I’m a fan.”

“… !”

“I saw the stage well earlier. I think you always look really good.”

Bae Se-jin No, Lee Se-jin, who has not yet changed his last name, has a blank face.

‘Ah, was it time to eat a lot of swearing at this time?’

It’s the timing when the additional successful candidates are getting beaten up by public opinion on the Internet because of their lack of stage ability, so it might be more vigilant.

However, Bae Se-jin did not do that.

“… thank you.”

Instead, a look of embarrassment crossed his face, perhaps a bit embarrassed.

“I really appreciate it. I will cheer you on.”

“… yes.”

Only then did Sejin Bae come to the sink and start washing his hands.

‘I passed it.’

I was about to dry myself off and walk to the door, but I heard a voice behind me.

“that… ! If you really need an autograph.”

“ah.”

I’ve thought about it before, but this guy secretly likes fan service. I pretended to rummage through my pockets a few times before nodding my head.

“I don’t have a pen. Please be sure to ask next time.”

“… yes.”

I ended my short conversation with Bae Se-jin from the past and carefully left the staff area without anyone noticing.

It cannot be denied that it was a refreshing experience.

[and… Could it be that he recognized him?]

“I don’t think so.”

I guess we didn’t even chat at all at the time.

‘If it was September of the year I debuted… .’

Come to think of it, it was soon after that guy stabbed the police for his father’s fraudulent gambling and changed his name. Was it early October?

‘hmm.’

at that time… Obviously, it seems that the sentence was greatly increased because it was not only gambling, but also drugs.

‘I even knew the identity of the drug addict on my hind legs.’

I stopped.

… if?

“Can I stop by somewhere for a moment?”

[yes? Yes!]

I found the nearest public phone.

[…] ?]

Then, I called the civil affairs office of Gyeonggi-do Northern Police Station.

[Hyung??]

Oh, I got it.

“Drugs are being loaded into an illegal gambling den in the basement of Building XX in XX City.”

And hung up.

[uh… uhh… … .]

You might think it was a prank call now, but if Bae Se-jin makes an anonymous report, you'll be reminded of it.

There is almost no difference in date, but two reports with completely different feelings came from the same location.

'There must be an effect of looking around for drugs.'

I shrugged and walked out of the phone booth.

"It's not a prank call, so don't worry. The police won't come."

[Sure… ?]

I slowly returned to the officetel talking about a few anecdotes from the beginning of my debut.

And after dinner and washing up, it was already near the end of the day.

'Going out definitely eats up time.'

I first made a request related to status abnormalities, and then quickly took a picture of the first exam for next year. After studying for a few months, they accepted it quickly.

After that, there were only 30 minutes left for today.

Thanks to that, I'm chatting with Gong Myung of 'Park Moon-dae' who seems to be a little depressed.

[Hyung, maybe… Does your brother come back every time you get rid of this status ailment?]

"It could be."

There was only one case, but it was a story with a possibility. Then the resonance hums melancholy.

[then… Maybe I'll see you in a year next time.]

I chuckled.

“If you think of it the other way around, if you stick with it for the first time, you will see your face again.”

[that… Is that so?]

“Uh. work hard.”

[…] Yes!!]

If you don’t work hard, it’s a new thing in the yard of a sudden sign, but wouldn’t it be a little better if the guide comes to you like an annual membership?

I went to sleep after giving him one last instruction on how to sell stocks in case he ever ran out of money.

It was midnight.

* * *

And again morning.

The reason I woke up again was the sound of the alarm.

The sun was coming in.

Now, the hypothesis of ‘Park Moon-dae’ is… .

[brother! Right

?

“okay.”

I laughed at the resonant sound that seemed to be excited.

“Did you do well on the test?”

[yes! yes!! I’m stuck… ! 1st!]

Yes, that’s great.

No matter how much you register for boarding school… Wait, but this is still the officetel.

I got out of bed and looked around. There was something on the table.

“Aren’t you enrolled in boarding school?”

[i did it! Oh, it’s the weekend, and I had something to do yesterday, so I came to the officetel for a while… And I thought this side would not be unfamiliar to him when he comes.]

“Yes.”

It was a rather peculiar idea. I nodded and headed for the table. What’s on the table is an advertisement bromide… .

for a moment.

Chapter 316

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 316 I don't know what happened in the past year, so I don't know if the autographed bromide of a competitor in the same industry is in this house.

It's not even another guy, it's Cheongryeo.

'Isn't this the time when this bastard has been grinding my back for a while?'

What kind of wind blew, and I even got this Reset Syndrome baby sign.

Just because this guy won the lottery doesn't seem like he's going to put money in a fan signing event.

Sure enough, there was another reason.

[ah! I won because I bought clothes for that!]

After living with a completely initialized bare body, even if you are not interested in clothes, you can afford it, so it seems that you bought in bulk to survive.

Especially winter clothes… It's perfect to freeze to death without a coat, so he said he bought coats and padding all at once during the sale period.

[I don't know much about clothes… I just bought what the store recommended… .]

It happened that the store was an outdoor brand advertised by VTIC.

And, just for fun, I won the fan signing event of the advertising model with the entry ticket I put in the lottery.

I'd rather have Testa advertise… No, that would have been weird.

'Why did I apply for a male idol fan signing lottery in the first place… … … .'

[The concert we went to see last time was cool… Because I'm an idol, I'm interested in it. There are also people who appeared on variety shows with that older brother… .]

"… … ."

It was my fault. Got it.

I averted my gaze from the bromide with uneasy eyes. It seems like you're studying properly, so it shouldn't matter too much.

"When did you go?"

[Yesterday!]

It seems like they went there to commemorate the end of the first test like last time.

I was given another year of probation anyway, so it was understandable because I told them not to be too conscious of the second and to focus on the first.

And in fact, in a similar form to the first round, it seemed that the status ailment of avoiding failure would appear.

[! Abnormal Status: Pass or Death! (3)

If you do not receive a report card without errors in the 2nd written test of the '7th Grade Open Competitive Recruitment Exam', you will die. Yes, I knew it would be like this.

So next year, all you have to do is pass the first round and avoid failing the second round. And since I know until next year, there won't be any problem.

I tried to explain it, but this guy said something unexpected.

[I… Actually, I've seen the second round now, but if you only look at the score… I don't think there will be any errors!]

"… !"

[I was very lucky to take a lot of pictures! I don't think I can stick to it… …]

Still, it was a ridiculous achievement.

"that's enough. good job."

[…] ! yes!! Thank you!]

Then I can eat the new status ailment raw within a month. I nodded and counted.

"Still, don't clear it right away, but make sure to wait until right before the second grade comes out next year before clearing it. Set aside some free time."

[Yes!]

Well then… Do you want to come back in September next year?

I checked the current date on my smartphone. September is right. I filled it up and came back to this body after a year.

[He told me to wait this time too, so I tried to wait as long as possible… !]

"That was good too."

Resonance rang like it was bouncing around. probably smile

‘Then I don’t have anything special to do today.’

I felt like I could spend my time trying to find out if there had been any special incidents other than his death over the past year.

I accessed the stock app and continued talking with ‘Park Moon-dae’ while choosing the guys to sell.

“How is the boarding school?”

[great! People are kind too… You taught me well, so I got along really well. The rice is also delicious… !]

That’s right. After selling and buying stocks a few times, I closed the app.

‘At this level, if I just study without thinking, I won’t have any money problems.’

And the moment I went out to the living room while listening to Gongmyong talking about his daily routine for a year, I saw a very impressive figure.

“… … .”

flower head.

The hologram character ‘Groom in May’, which I made when I appeared in < The Singer I Made >, is sitting right in the center of the sofa.

‘What.’

greatly… It seems that he has been impressively observing the performance of his body.

“Not even this.”

[Hyung, you sing really well… I thought at least one would be fine as a souvenir…]

I am the one who set the monthly stress relief cost. So it doesn't matter as long as you like it… .

Feeling a bit hesitant, I put off the doll and sat down on the sofa.

And Gong Myung carefully brought out the main topic that he seemed to be waiting for.

[After that second grade comes out… Would it be okay if I go see you at Testa's year-end concert? At the beginning of this year, I couldn't go because I was studying… .]

It seems like a phrase I prepared since yesterday.

I chuckled.

"What permission do you have? If you think it's okay to go, then you can go."

[…] ! yes! Thank you!]

There is nothing to be thankful for. Of course, going to a male idol concert with my body is a bit conspicuous… for a moment.

"That's a fan signing event."

[…] ??]

"… You said you went yesterday."

[Yes!]

I looked at the bromide with the VTIC sign on it again.

It's not the fan signing event attached to the album, but rather non-fans come to the advertising model signing event… I guess it would have stood out though.

[They are very kind.]

More ominous.

I didn't know, so I connected to Witube and put in a search term.

Combining today's date, activity name, and clothing brand name… There is also a direct cam video of the fan signing event.

As I scrolled through the comments, I came across what I was concerned about.

-22:34 Chungryeo responding to male fans is a joke hahahahahaha

"… … ."

When I clicked on the corresponding time, the shady back of 'Ryu Gun-woo' receiving the autograph was caught halfway.

Resonance echoes like a scream.

[Uhhhhh! I didn't know it was coming up like this… .]

I captured it and color corrected it.

[Hyung?]

Wearing a hat, probably wearing glasses… .

Isn't this the same as Ryu Gun-woo's impression that I told him about?

'Damn it.'

Just in case I didn't know, I checked the bromide he had signed once again.

recipient's name.

'Could it be Ryu Gun-woo… .

-To. big moon

“… … .”

big moon?

[This is a nickname I used before… For some reason, I’m sorry to receive it as my brother’s name.]

That’s great judgment.

‘Hoo’

I quickly removed Cheongryeo, who was signing autographs with a smile on the screen.

“Evade this guy from now on.”

[Cheocheongryeo?]

“Yes. Because he’s crazy.”

[Uh huh up.]

I gave him a hint to find the whereabouts of ‘Ryu Gun-woo’, but now I don’t know where he is, so even the number and address don’t matter.

There is no need to increase the variable by meeting such an unpredictable and dangerous bastard.

‘Come to think of it, the reason why his whereabouts were unknown was because I put him in a boarding school.’

Now it makes sense. I rubbed my chin.

‘Then, when I finish this and go back, I’ll contact him… .’

no. I guess I’m misunderstanding something.

‘… How do I know that will happen.’

I don’t know what will happen when this status ailment is over.

In the worst case, this guy could disappear saying that the reward was over.

And even if it remains in this body… Wouldn’t you like to come back to your own body?

Take a look at how he got his autograph under his former nickname.

“… … .”

[I thought you were close to Mr. Cheongryeo, but I thought he was a strange person… Huh hyung?]

“I’m not friendly, it’s for broadcasting.”

[ah… … .]

This is a bit… I’ll have to think about it.

I was fortunate to have time today. I can turn my brain to my heart’s content.

I started preparing the meal with a few hypotheses and contingency plans.

After that, there was nothing particularly urgent or needing to be done.

[Hyung, you’re good at cooking too… .]

“Oh thank you.”

Since we shared our senses, it was comfortable to do it alone.

On TV during prime time in the evening, a variety show in which I appeared with Sun Ah-hyun was appearing. It’s about solving problems apart from the Joseon Dynasty.

‘Was this the time when the company searched for industrial spies?’

I lived very hard. I looked at my self-important figure without much inspiration.

[I like variety shows, but I think it's even cooler when I'm on stage. 'Paradise' was really cool… ! I hope you comeback soon… .]

I openly raised my stats, but looking at my own face, I say that… ?

But compliments are compliments and don't feel bad. I answered lightly.

"It's the 14th of the month right after our comeback."

[omg… !]

"Don't go around talking."

[yes! I have no one to tell!! Even at the academy, everyone doesn't talk about idols!]

They say things for granted.

Resonance was excitedly fluctuating with unknown waves, but it soon calmed down and began to hum softly.

It was a bit cautious.

[That brother. I get help every time like this… Is there anything I can do to help? Just like the last time you called the police. If there is something to do, I will do it!]

What should I do?

Well, come to think of it, Chung-rye will try to kill me next month.

I pondered for a moment, but soon shook my head.

I was aware of that and handled it well. I can't ask the person who needs to care about his status abnormality to do anything more.

“There is nothing more. Just study hard.”

[yes… … .]

The grass seems dead. me really

And the closer it got to midnight, the worse it got. Resonance sounds almost disturbing.

‘Even if I don’t talk, I must have had a hard time spending a year alone.’

There was no one to talk about the whole situation openly, so it was understandable. It may be that you need something to do or think about other than studying.

So I brought up a new topic by the time I went to bed.

“Do you have anything else you want to say to me?”

[Me?]

Yes.

The resonance seemed hesitant, but soon it rang again softly.

[Then brother, maybe… How did you feel when you saw my nickname?]

“Nickname?”

big moon. I know it’s a nickname from his real name ‘Mundae’, but it’s not a very unique word. It seems rather familiar… .

[that… You know, I have the account that my brother used to run. I often left comments there.]

Ah.

“Was that you?”

[…] ! Do you remember?]

“Yes. You left it behind every time.”

[yes… !!]

Come to think of it, that was the nickname I saw in the first ‘Truth Verification’.

Actually, I didn’t look at the comments too much, but I remember seeing them as I ran almost as soon as I uploaded them.

It was so matched.

‘Have you been interested in the idol stage since then?’

Realizing that this type of face is unique, I shrug my shoulders.

“If you are interested in that field, I think you can buy a camera and take pictures.”

[…] Is that so?]

“Of course, after this exam is over.”

[Sure! Still… Wow.]

The resonance sounds a little more comfortable, perhaps feeling better.

And just like that, the time has come.

“okay. Then think about it. See you next year.”

[yes… .]

Sleep came slowly. It was quite calm.

* * *

[Brother? … Brother?]

I opened my eyes.

It’s the same morning as last time. The temperature seems to be similar, so maybe September of the following year… .

[Geonwoo hyung, right?? Hyung!!]

“Yes.”

I think he’s in a panic. Did you call because you had a problem?

I got up right away. But first, the resonance rang incessantly.

… It looks like weeping.

[Hyung hyung car accident… .]

Ah.

‘X feet.’

I immediately opened my smartphone.

-Four days after the debut anniversary on

Chapter 317

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death. Episode 317

If it were four days after the accident, the media would have been talking about me saying that there was no sign of me waking up.

I opened my mouth right away.

"are you okay. recover everything."

[The news that the state is dying… … .]

"I don't die."

I don't know which lunatic used that word to describe comatose state, but I'd like to sue.

[Hyung, you're not really dead… ? Didn't you die and come to help me right now?]

"Because I'm not."

What the hell are you talking about because you went up to the target?

'I heard you disappeared, not me.'

Hearing this from a guy who doesn't know what will happen when this 'receive the reward' is over right now… It can be disturbing.

I said with a sigh.

“sorry. I should have told you earlier, but I didn’t think of it. I woke up fine and worked well.”

[…] … .]

Even if there were obstacles, I didn’t think there was a problem that I had to tell you in particular because I smashed it well every time. Because this guy is going to solve it even if he doesn’t have to do anything.

But for those who don’t know how it’s handled, it’s well worth worrying about.

That too… It would have been more if I had lost someone close to me in an accident.

‘I was complacent.’

I sat down on the bed and spoke calmly.

“You got a new abnormal status and tried to check if I was coming, right?”

It was still June. I decided to wait some more time and then get a new status ailment, but I guess I just took care of it now to make sure it showed up properly.

‘Actually, it’s better to endure for four days.’

I was anxious because I kept hearing that I was dying on the news, so I couldn’t have figured it out without checking.

The resonance seems to subside, then it trembles again.

[Sorry. I was supposed to press it in September, but I… .]

“No, good job.”

It was a situation worth checking if you think about it efficiently. Because the guide almost evaporated suddenly.

‘It’s much better than taking a test in this state and then failing.’

I sighed in relief and got up.

“Don’t worry about it because you handled it well. Since it’s a month before the exam, I can take one more shot, which is rather advantageous.”

[yes… … .]

The resonance subsided as if greatly relieved. It was right that I was in a panic state.

“Good job. four days.”

Resonance shook as if whimpering.

I checked my body just in case, and realized that my stomach was almost sore.

“Didn’t you even eat?”

[…] There are people who keep talking about hyung while eating… Sometimes.] They say they don’t talk about idols, but they talk about idol accidents. Originally, the disaster of others is an interesting law.

Anyway, it was painful to hear stories of people I knew dying while I was eating. I clicked my tongue inwardly.

“But next time, eat rice unconditionally.”

[yes… .]

Resonance faltered. I don’t think I’ll be able to speak properly because I’m nervous, so I’ll figure out the situation myself.

‘first… Today is Monday.’

As this year's exams were just around the corner, I thought it would be an academy all the way from the weekend, but this was an officetel.

'It must have been removed on purpose in accordance with the timing of my return.'

Looking at the schedule on the screen of my smartphone, it seems that I went to the boarding school steadily.

Next I got on the internet.

[Testa Park Moon-dae, unconscious for the fourth day… The meaning of 'recovering' in the agency's statement?]

It was an article that came up on the social side and sucked up criticism like 'Why is the title like this?'. I read through the comments.

After four days, a lot of aggro is lost because of the perception that it has become 'really serious', and most of them are fans.

Worry Panic Despair Nervous… …

"… … Actually

, at the time, it was the first time I saw something raw to this extent because I watched it after it was all over, but seeing it in person, it was complicated. I'm going to be unconscious for the next 18 days.

But on one side… It's no wonder I'm a little happy.

'… Don't think about it.'

I sighed and turned down the news screen. Everyone else must have come to their senses by now and are in the hospital.

'I heard that most of them ended up with minor injuries, so there were no major problems… … … .'

When he actually woke up, only Cha Yoo-jin was recovering from a major visible injury. The rest were, at best, guards.

‘Hmm, then the company might cut me off and make a new plan.’

Looking at it now, I was a little puzzled.

At the point where I can’t wake up and go over two weeks, it must have been a gesture from the company.

Even if we refrain from subsidiaries because of manager problems, T1, the head office, will still be there.

‘… Come to think of it.’

Suddenly, I remembered what Seon Ah-hyun said earlier.

-When I got into a school traffic accident, Sejin worked really hard… .

-Speaking to the company… He kept coming to the hospital and talking about surgery… I worked really hard! I can’t even eat well…

“… … .”

After thinking about it for a while, I created a new anonymous email. And I put the agency mail format in the ‘recipient’.

However, it is not a representative address.

I directly wrote down the e-mail address of the ‘Management Office Manager’.

and title.

-It is said that the 4th quarter testa activity enforcement plan will be announced.

It is written as if it were a whistleblower disguised as anonymity to what kind of external backlash will come if the six-member system activities are enforced.

‘This works when I’m in the middle of a faction fight with the head of headquarters.’

If this is the case, even if the head of the headquarters talks to the head office and brings out this plan, the management chief will immediately protest. Because you already know your weaknesses. Then it won’t proceed properly because the two of them are biting each other… .

‘… There will be fewer things for the members to consider.’

Big Sejin.

At this point, he was the only person in the group who could properly communicate with the company, but imagine that the company came with an X-like proposal.

I didn’t know what would happen to this guy’s head under extreme stress.

‘Still, until I woke up, it seemed like I did well.’

Well, it would be nice if it had some effect. I clicked send mail.

I felt a little lighter.

Only then does the resonance ring again faintly.

[Hey, can I ask where you are sending him… ?]

“Ah, the company… .”

for a moment.

Talking to this guy reminds me of one more thing.

-Actually, the article was about to go out last year, but the company blocked it.

This guy's parents' plane crash.

By the time I was discharged from the hospital, the company said that the article had prevented the explosion, but I doubt that these bastards properly prevented it in this crazy situation.

"… Moondae Park."

[Yes!]

"Just one thing… I want to ask for your understanding."

I explained the situation to this guy.

If you don't do it, the media can bite the prey of family affairs.

It's annoying enough that it's already been revealed to the public, but I can't pass it on.

So, I thought to alert the agency by sending an e-mail like a reporter who wants an 'exclusive' title in advance.

… It's not a very desirable method, but it's the most effective because of the limitations of time and space.

"So I have to write the contents in the mail first, but I'm sorry if it's uncomfortable to see."

[no… . Oh I'm really fine… ?]

"… ? okay?"

[Yes.]

Resonance sounded dully.

[Actually, I don't even think it's like me… They look very different… … I just don't know what to say… It's like watching my real brother appear on TV.]

“… Um, got it.”

[It may be my own thoughts, but maybe that’s why I feel a sense of familiarity… .]

“Thank you for that.”

Resonance rang as if he was laughing involuntarily.

“I wake up on July 6th, so don’t watch the news for nothing until then.”

[Yes!]

“The donation concert will be held after the second exam is over.”

[yes… … .]

And one more emphasis.

After the 2nd round, the 3rd exam, the interview, remains, but the next status abnormality must be the 3rd round.

So here’s what to do.

“First of all, you have to receive the next status abnormality immediately after you go through the interview and it seems like you’ve made it.”

If you receive a status ailment, you only have one chance to clear it.

He’s someone who’s never done anything like an interview in his life, so I can’t help but think about the odds of being eliminated.

[I will definitely do that!]

But deep down, I thought that this guy could stick with me at once.

And when I wake up in the morning again.

[…] Brother.]

“Yes.”

I realized that I only woke up the following spring.

I failed this guy’s interview.

* * *

‘Park Moon-dae’ was eliminated in the third round.

Of course, it wasn’t because I didn’t get through the interview.

[Sorry, my score was out of 1 multiple and I was so bad at the interview….]

In the first place, the score in the 1.5 multiple selection was intermittent.

“good job. If it’s the second one, it’s almost as if you’ve arrived. You just have to suffer for one more year.”

If it sticks this year, it’s enough. But Resonance shook uneasy.

[I… What if I can’t make it this year?]

It seemed like I was scared when I slipped from the goal once.

But you don’t have to.

“No, you can stick. I’m not trying to encourage you, I’m serious.”

I got fed up with the question, so I was eliminated because I uselessly tried to beat the interviewer. This guy just needs a little more points.

and you will be able to raise

“You raised your score to the pass mark in two years, but honestly, it’s ridiculous.”

[Uh heh heap.]

“And for the first three years of this class, if you work hard, your score will inevitably go up to some extent.”

I said without hesitation.

“So, if you’re already qualified, you’ll be able to pass if you work hard for a few more months.”

[…] Yes!]

Power returned to the resonance that responded.

‘good.’

Motivation is back. I nodded and started my day.

Now I have to run to my death for the last test opportunity, so I spent this time cooperating with this guy’s rest as much as possible.

While doing what I want to do, taking a break and answering my questions.

Like this.

[Hyung, by any chance, the next comeback… .]

“July 12th. So don’t look for more, just listen to the song on the day.”

[Yes!]

I realized as I answered. The song that will be making a comeback on July 12th is the newest song ‘Promise’.

In other words, it was the year I returned before I knew it.

‘I’ve caught up a lot.’

I didn’t know anything specific about the system in particular.

‘This guy himself doesn’t seem to know anything about it.’

I crossed my arms.

Still, if I were to point out one by one, the ‘conversation with Park Moon-dae’ itself was well done. I think I’ve gotten a little closer to this guy than I thought.

Besides, I think ‘Park Moon-dae’ will successfully end the status abnormality better than the first expectation.

‘It’s strangely rewarding.’

Well, I’m seeing some gains too.

[Hyung, what is that?]

“I have something to deal with.”

It’s because it reminded me of the ‘good timing’ revelation that I sent the most annoying guy at this time.

Chae Seo-dam’s secret dating account.

Of course I didn’t do anything. I’m a public official, so I shouldn’t be sued.

just… I just posted this on an anonymous site.

[Looks like Chae Seo-dam is working on rumors]

This account ID creation method is very similar to the previous Chae Seo-dam account, but recently I made it

.

Do you want to swear this much?

It’s amazing will be.

If this is the case, those who want to claim to be real will stick around… Well, then, as I saw, even hacking bastards might come out.

It's just a possibility. what… Although I did see the results.

'If this wasn't really me, I could have used it as a card to silence the anti-speakers.'

Unfortunately, it was true that Chae Seo-dam himself was careless.

I waited 5 minutes after noticing that the comments were growing, then deleted the post.

'Clean.'

[brother… Did you help him get framed?]

"It's the opposite."

[…] ??]

I didn't bother to explain in detail to Gong Myung, who was ringing blankly. study or work hard

After that, I spent time resting as planned, and the day passed quickly.

Resonance hummed gloomily.

[Already 11 o'clock… .]

"Yes."

In other words, it means that it is time for a decisive battle.

If my hypothesis and calculations are correct, it is the section where I have to clear the last 5th status abnormality.

I didn't explain in detail, but this guy also believed my words that the 'status abnormality' would end with this test itself.

But I was curious about what happened after that.

It’s because I asked this right before the end of today.

[Hyung, when this is all over… What’s going to happen?]

It’s something I’ve always cared about, but I answered plainly. There’s no need to make you anxious.

“For me, nothing special happened, only the status ailments disappeared, but it was over.”

[Really?]

“Yes. what… Even if it wasn’t, I wouldn’t suddenly die any more.”

Resonance trembled like laughter.

[I guess so!]

Yes.

And, just in case, I have prepared an alternative even if I go back to the time I was feeling at the grand prize.

“Then do well and see you in half a year this time.”

[Yes!!]

“If I don’t come in, call me on the number I gave you in December.”

Resonance wavered with tension and anticipation. It seemed like an affirmation.

‘I can control either way.’

As long as this guy passes.

So I fell asleep considering the possible outcomes.

* * *

When I opened my eyes again, I realized that I was lying in the officetel bed this time too.

"… … ."

It is also the body of Ryu Gun-woo. Nothing in particular has changed.

And looking at the season outside the window… It is late autumn.

The season when the results of passing the 7th grade will be announced. I got it right away.

'It's attached.' That's the only thing I'm back at this timing

. I smiled and got up. and called

"Park Moondae."

Good job.

But no answer came back.

"… Ryu Gun-woo?"

No resonance was heard.

There was no trace of a strange vibration that resonated somewhere inside.

"… … ."

this… what's the situation

I waited a little longer Just in case, this bastard is playing a prank to commemorate passing the exam.

But for more than five minutes, the surroundings were silent.

I was the only one in the officetel.

I swallowed.

"… status window."

[Receiving the reward.]

It means it's not over yet. I was still receiving the 'Conversation with Park Moondae' reward.

therefore… Obviously not the worst case scenario I was considering.

'But why did my conversation partner disappear?'

What is the situation?

I held back my swearing and immediately got up from the bed. First of all, I was thinking of finding out and reasoning about something through the surrounding clues.

It was then.

Jiying.

A call came in. It was a smartphone by the bedside.

'Unsaved number'

I received it right away. With the intention of ripping off the information to combine anything.

Then, a voice was immediately heard on the smartphone.

It was just a familiar voice.

-found.

… Cheongrye.

Chapter 318

Episode 318

The sound over the phone changes tone and rings softly.

-hello. Is it our old age?

When I listen to it again, the voice of Cheongryeo is correct. It gives me goosebumps.

‘Why is this bastard here?’

Even the phone number is different, what the hell is this? In the meantime, what are you talking about again?

– I’m a new mover in the dormitory, so I said hello. You are Gunwoo, right?

“… ?”

– I found something you left in the room, not anything else. I will send it by courier. Can you give me the address? The academy only gave me my phone number as personal information.

“… … .”

Is it voice phishing?

I was dumbfounded for a moment and kept my mouth shut, then pondered for a moment about the probability that it was really someone else.

And he gave an accurate answer.

“Delivery is fine, I will drop by today and pick it up. thank you.”

-okay. All right.

It comes off surprisingly easily. No way, it’s really another person with a similar voice… .

-It’s a weekday, so I have to listen to lectures during the day… Shall we meet in front of the academy at 9pm?

It can’t be.

I couldn’t stand it and opened my mouth.

“Do it.”

-What are you talking about?

“Shin Jae-hyun to do it.”

I didn’t call him by his stage name with the last possibility in mind, but looking at the reaction, I think it’s him.

There was a brief silence on the other side of the phone, but soon a voice mingled with laughter was heard.

-You are my junior.

“… !”

-hmm… Looking at the reaction, it seems like you know me, but how are you using both bodies?

The quicker you notice, the more annoying you are. No matter how much it is, I wonder if it is enough to reason about this nonsensical situation right away. … question first.

“How did you know this contact number?”

– You came to the VTIC signing event.

“You’ve probably had autograph signings thousands of times, but don’t make ridiculous excuses.”

Even if it was an advertising model signing event, it wouldn’t have happened once or twice, but how could you identify a guy who got signed without giving his name more than a year ago?

But the voice was calm.

– Well, it was quite impressive. Besides, it’s not common for people to change their name twice and make it into a nickname.

“what?”

He remembered the situation in detail and explained it.

The phrase is automatically reconstructed and played back in the tone of resonance in your head.

‘Park Moon… No Ryu Gun-woo… … . sorry. Just ask for a big moon!’

-I told you both of your juniors’ names.

-Isn’t it strange that you don’t know? I immediately thought of it when I heard the junior’s impression.

“… … .”

-I thought you told me on purpose… Wasn’t it?

this damn… .

I endured my anger and silently endured my anger. It was because he knew that there was no point in cursing at ‘Park Moon-dae’, who did not know anything.

In the first place, since I am fundamentally not here, I end up coming back to the same question.

‘Where did this guy go?’

I must say one thing though.

“That is not me.”

– It’s been a long time since I even got a nickname, but that excuse is fun.

“Because it isn’t.”

I pressed my throbbing head.

“that… Because it’s really Park Moondae. not me.”

Cheong-Ryeo over the phone opened her mouth after a while.

– I think we need a detailed conversation.

* * *

After an hour and a half.

I came face-to-face with a guy with a dog at a residential cafe on the outskirts of Seoul.

The place where I met him last time is the same, and the situation is very similar since he is accompanied by a dog.

‘Am I going to try one more time to see if I’m right?’

You roll your head tenaciously. I sat across from him and said.

“See if you come here often.”

“Sometimes when I have time.”

Cheong-ryo shrugged as she stroked the dog holding the ball. There is no sign of doubt.

I held back a sigh.

I feel a bit skeptical about living alone with this bastard, but… These are the brain cells of a person who has experienced a special situation. would be better than nothing

In the meantime, he examines my appearance and nods his head.

“What should I say… It’s a look that matches your personality.”

It sounds like you’re cursing, but I don’t have the time or resources to get angry at it, so I’ll skip it.

I nodded and he changed the question.

“And is it strange and lives by changing bodies? To say that, I think I was always a junior when I was active.”

“I want to ask you since when did you become interested in voice phishing?”

“You talk too much. Voice phishing… I never lied.”

Cheong-Ryeo put something on the table.

“He left this behind.”

“… … !”

that… It was a compact camera. Brand new, unopened packaging yet.

And the advice I gave to ‘Park Moon-dae’ comes to mind.

-If you’re interested, I think you can buy a camera and take pictures. Of course, after this test is over.

‘Did you buy it for motivation?’

I sighed, feeling confused about what to say. Cheong-rye smiled.

“I just tracked down the sightings, and a boarding academy came out and wrote people. There is no fraud.”

“And why are you calling yourself?”

“sure. Originally, the decisive thing is that you can’t borrow someone else’s hand.”

He was a prudent pup.

Even if I think about the process until I came here, the evaluation does not change.

Look at what he said as soon as we agreed to meet.

-great. If I send a car to the officetel, would you like to ride it?

I tried to agree involuntarily, but I knew what he meant.

-… You already know the address.

-haha. Procedures are important in human relationships.

I knew how to use the hand I had, befitting a guy who repeated the same time zone several times.

That’s why I’m not very happy to tell you what cards I have… It would be more beneficial to inform this board.

I decided to give him slightly more points for his cooperation, which he showed in the incident with Gold 2.

“Listen.”

I leaned back.

“I was able to print the mission.”

“For me, the word ‘status abnormality’ appeared directly in front of my eyes. Like a game window.”

Silence passed.

Cheong-ryeo lowered her head to the side and immediately replied nonchalantly.

“is it so?”

That’s not too surprising. I clicked my tongue.

“Is it teased?”

“It was a bit like that, but it was understandable even considering the balance.”

“balance?”

“look. Instead of letting you restart the mission… It has a ‘status abnormality’. If you give one, one follows as a penalty.”

Chung-rye slowly drew a line with her finger on the table.

“Your junior, both your body and job have changed, right? That’s a big penalty. It wouldn’t be awkward to say that help was given instead.”

“… … .”

You can see it from that angle too.

Cheong-rye continued asking as if she was really curious.

“hmm… You graduated from a prestigious university, wasn’t it a waste to give up your foundation?”

“I was a public official, but what?”

“haha.”

Cheong-Ryeo asked ominously softly.

“Did you infer from that help that it’s all over when juniors die?”

“… okay.”

“Hmm, should that be considered a penalty?”

I’m going to rob the level up system like this. I held back a sigh.

Now that it’s like this, I’ll have to check what I wanted to experiment with before getting into the main topic.

“first… Try it.”

“hmm?”

“… Shout ‘status window’.”

He stared at me with a rare expression on his face.

And burst into laughter.

“Ha ha ha ha ha!”

Don’t laugh x-foot.

It feels like my tongue is shrinking when I speak directly in front of others. I took off my glasses and pressed my forehead.

“You must have a rich imagination, junior.”

“shut up.”

“No, I did too.”

Cheong-ryeo leaned forward.

“I tried all kinds of contents and superstitions. Logout or comani… . Um, was that the 9th or the 10th?”

“… … .”

“How many times do you think I’ve done that? Nothing works.”

Cheongryeo smiled.

“nothing.”

“… … .”

“so… Well, shall we shout at the status window again?”

“done.”

I pressed my eyes. After hesitating, he finally spat out the next words.

“Good job.”

“… … .”

It was futile.

‘… Did it become a habit to study ‘Park Moon University’?

If you’re this bastard, ‘Will you give me a song instead of words?’ Someone who would say the same thing…

“… thank you.”

“… … .”

“Can you hear the explanation about your current condition, junior?”

“okay.”

I ignored the dog sitting at my feet and finally got to the point.

After the ‘status abnormality’ was over, I took on the mission on my own, and appropriately omitted the progress so far.

Hearing that he had received the mission himself, his eyes slightly narrowed, but his appreciation for the explanation still popped out.

It wasn’t very useful.

“It is strange.”

“what.”

It’s not just one or two strange things, can you understand it by throwing it like that?

Cheongryeo tapped her fingers on the table.

“look. Whether it was my juniors or me, when I restarted, the time before was nothing.”

“okay.”

“But this time, the two of them exist together on the same timeline and influence each other. They are completely different.”

“What do you mean?”

“I wonder if there is another force at work. It seems that a time paradox occurred in the process, and it is interesting.”

Whether this bastard is interesting or not isn’t going to come to a conclusion right away, what matters is the outcome of this situation.

“Anyway, after the status ailment of the test is over, I wake up with this body, so ‘Park Moon-dae’ has disappeared.”

“Ah, you said you went into that body?”

“okay.”

I’m going to have to scrape a hint of what the hell this is.

“I’d like to ask if anyone ever suddenly disappeared during a restart.”

“no. It was always the same.”

He replied as if he had nothing to consider.

And he responded with a face that he didn’t understand.

“however… Is it that important?”

what?

“Listening, juniors seem to be going back to normal after today. After that, won’t it come back to that body on its own?”

“Maybe not.”

“I think it would be comfortable even if it wasn’t, but are you worried that your original body will disappear?”

“now… .”

What is this madman talking about?

“It saved me time to worry about ethics unnecessarily. Think carefully. Junior, that… What if ‘Big Moon’ asks the junior to return to his original body?”

“… … .”

I swallowed the cold coffee and set the cup on the table.

“If you want, you should think about it.”

“Isn’t there a way?”

“I have something to try.”

I have no intention of telling this guy, but I have something in mind.

‘mission.’

Another mission… You can take it as a ‘body change’ reward.

“And Park Moon-dae is his own body, so he has rights.”

Regardless of whether I do this or not, isn’t that the case if I only ask for authority?

But the guy sitting across the table… It was heartbreaking.

“I think you’re misunderstanding something.”

“… !”

“Everything Moondae Park has has been accomplished by juniors. It doesn’t matter if it’s your body or not, it’s your mind that’s in your head, and you made it.”

“… … .”

“But why are you planning to give it to me? It’s right to come up with a way to not get involved more effectively… .”

“It’s not about making a plan, it’s about options… .”

“Why do you keep that option open?”

“… … .”

“listen. I’m going to tell you about your junior’s activities so far.”

Her fingers started tapping the table again.

“He saved a person who didn’t exist before with his own body, helped him study, and made a plan so that he could survive until now. Well, I think I did enough morally.”

“… … .”

“I’m not trying to kill you. just… I thought it would be okay to leave it as it is.”

Cheongryeo met her eyes.

“Isn’t it?”

I clenched my fist.

Chapter 319

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 319:

Let's leave 'Park Moon-dae' alone?

therefore… Whether or not he disappears like this, I will just go back to the point where I rode the target and continue living as a testa.

Now, there is no need to talk further with Park Moon-dae just to understand the principles of the system. Because I didn't seem to know anything.

I've done as much as I can, so I'll stop worrying about it and completely get my hands on the idol life I've been developing for years.

I won't deny it.

It sounded plausible when I heard it apart from being ruthless. Because I came to admit that the life I lived in that body was also mine.

'but… .'

I took a deep breath and relaxed my fists.

"is not it."

"… … ."

Cheongryeo stopped tapping her fingers on the table.

"Of course, what I experienced as a body at Park Moon University is my experience. Because I did it."

“is it so. then… .”

“But the body is different.”

I leaned over.

“I can’t say that it’s mine unconditionally just because I’ve been using it for a few years. Park Moon-dae’s growth background is what he went through.”

“… … .”

“I happened to get quite a bit of help there.”

If ‘Park Moon-dae’ hadn’t lived right, it would have been difficult to win such a dramatic first place. And even after debuting, it would have been X in the past.

Cheongryeo stared at me.

“Have you ever thought that you would have succeeded faster if you did it with your original body?”

“I haven’t tried it, so I can’t say for sure. And in the first place, this is also a problem that has nothing to do with achievement.”

I chuckled.

“Park Moon-dae has the right to live with his body. Don’t blur the subject.”

“… … .”

He continued to stare at me without saying a word, then quietly opened his mouth.

“So if that’s what you want, you’re going to give up your junior’s career?”

“I never said I would give up.”

“then.”

I crossed my arms.

“We have to come to an agreement.”

Now that his status ailments are over, I plan to listen to what he wants and make adjustments.

I’m like that again… can’t do it

“I’m just saying I’m not going to wipe my mouth and eat my back.”

“I don’t understand. You don’t need to think about it that much.”

I shrugged.

“what… I must have heard it.”

After sharing how ‘Park Moon-dae’ has been for several days in a row over the past few years, it is because I am human too.

‘It’s kind of funny how you think you’re going to respect the doctor and not how to get this bastard to give up.’

At that moment, the person sitting across from me removed his hand from the table without expression.

“It makes me feel good.”

“okay.”

“I didn’t expect it to weigh the same as your achievements.”

I put my glasses back on.

“I keep trying to measure things that can’t be either/or… Change the words to four and a career and think about it.”

“… … .”

“Isn’t it easier to live now with both of them than when I gave up on one because of career considerations?”

Just in time, the dog under the table barked. Cheong-rye reflexively lowered her hand.

I could see the dog rubbing its nose.

“I’m also going to try to handle the situation with the goal of having both of them okay.”

“… … .”

Cheong-ryeo kept her mouth shut with a mysterious expression. It seemed as if he was rolling something in his head that he did not know whether it was a calculation or a thought.

‘It’s surprising.’

I thought that this bastard was good at encouraging me to weed out competitors.

‘The way of thinking is exaggerated, but I gave honest advice.’

I ended up adding it briefly.

“anyway… Thank you for recognizing Testa Park Moon-dae as me.”

“… … .”

It wasn’t a bad feeling that the first evaluation after hearing all this shit was recognition.

He paused for a moment, then smiled bitterly.

“is it so. What if it is?”

no i will cancel Well, I’m a little pissed at Tura for giving me such a big permission.

Cheong-rye removed her hand from her dog.

“That’s too bad. I was willing to help in case of emergency.”

I don’t think this bastard was trying to help bury the main body of Bakmundae.

‘How wasteful is the career of a group 1 idol?’

I changed the subject to wake up the useless overindulgence of the guy.

“Then give me a phone call tomorrow.”

“tomorrow?”

“I thought I’d have to check who was in this body after today.”

“hmm.”

“Don’t do anything stupid.”

In order to prevent an unexpected situation, I was thinking of leaving a note telling ‘Park Moon-dae’ to listen carefully to the voice coming through this phone and remember it and skip it in the future.

Cheong-rye shrugged.

“great. I will contact you through another body, so wait.”

“I don’t need that… .”

for a moment.

I remembered the phone call I received from this guy out of the blue one day in November.

-hmm… I wonder if you have anything to say to me.

and the next word.

– Is it yet?

“… … ”

Looking back at the date, today is the day before.

‘I see.’

now i get it This bastard contacted me knowing the situation at that time.

‘But he didn’t mention it once and wiped his mouth until he got on the target.’

Whether it’s helpful or not, he’s an unpredictable bastard. I clicked my tongue and got up.

“Are you going?”

“okay.”

Since the story was over and there was no case in particular, I thought of looking for more traces of Park Moon-dae, even physically.

“Uh, good bye. I will contact you tomorrow.”

It felt a bit odd that I had already received that call.

“okay.”

I ended the conversation with Cheongryeo and returned to the officetel.

Upon arrival, the search began immediately.

‘Is there anything?’

No sign of anything came out.

I didn’t feel much of a sense of life in an officetel, perhaps because I was stuck in a boarding school. Only one bedroom was filled with hobbies everywhere.

Testa’s albums and MDs.

It was kept well in various drawers that I didn’t even have time to open because I’d been chatting with him every time.

‘Did you come to the concert again?’

I even visited the MD of the world tour I did earlier this year.

“Looks like you’ve had a good time.”

I smiled and put them back. Still, it wasn’t a bad feeling to have been used to relieve stress in this guy’s life for exams.

But the situation was still the same.

The whereabouts of ‘Park Moon-dae’ are still unknown, and the only thing that can be confirmed is the calendar on the smartphone.

-The day I meet my brother!

“… .”

Other than that, there are no special schedules and no logged-in social media accounts. Except for looking for Testa, I think I really only studied and lived.

I tried a few times to see if I could see his status window, but nothing popped up. It’s just my ‘receiving my reward’.

“after.”

Once here

Eventually, around midnight, I sat down on the couch and started scribbling notes.

-When I came in, you weren't there, so I left it in writing. First of all, congratulations on passing and hard work.

Since the Cheong-Ryeo phone call was set to be recorded, I once again organized everything from not to meet or spill additional information after familiarizing myself with the voice, to how to contact me in December.

Then soon… It's midnight.

dang-.

I'm lying on the sofa

A small bell rings in the corner.

'You changed the clock.'

After a short thought like 'I think that was a concert MD', unconditional sleep comes over again.

Soon the senses and thoughts disappeared. As always these days.

dang-.

But the bell rings.

'Wait a minute'

And what I'm doing is cognition and thinking.

'I'm coming back.'

I don't know what it is, but it's like I'm trying to completely fall asleep and have been interrupted… .

“brother!”

“… !”

I got up.

I was still in the officetel. But there was one strange thing.

“It’s really nice, brother… !”

A strange-looking boy was sitting on the floor in front of the sofa where I was lying.

It seems to resemble me in a strange way, but it’s not exactly the same… .

“Park Moondae.”

When his name was called, he smiled awkwardly.

“yes… I’m not sure if I can call you by that name.”

I could guess why he said that. That guy seemed to have been fixed in his early twenties by mixing some of Ryu Kun-woo into the frame of Park Moon-dae.

‘Did you receive that as a new body?’

I have a headache because of sleep. I pressed my temples and rose from the sofa.

“That’s your name, though.”

“that… My brother uses that name too. Because I also wrote my brother’s name… Ah, then, please call me ‘big moon’!”

It sounds like a title that could only come out of a game jeongmo, but do whatever you want. I nodded and went straight to the point.

“How is the situation now?”

It’s an unexpected situation, but it seems strangely calm.

The guy in front of me turned to the blinds on the veranda with a slightly nervous face.

and operated the button.

“Oh first… Please look at this.”

Wiing.

The blinds open and what you see… .

“… !”

The sunset was setting outside the window.

However, it is not a common color. The feeling of the golden and purple-red sunlight colliding with each other and hearing the sound of a music box somewhere.

It was something I knew.

“It’s a scene from the < Magical Boy > teaser, and hyung and I must have been very impressed. This has been implemented.”

“… avatar?”

“yes.”

The guy laughed awkwardly.

“I… This is the world of imagination.”

“… … !”

“So it’s not real, it only happens in our heads… .”

“You know what, stop it.”

“yes.”

You can understand it as a state similar to the daydream you had during that coma.

And I also realized why he was behaving like that. It seems that self-awareness was mixed while living as ‘Ryu Gun-woo’.

‘I’m going through all kinds of experiences.’

I held back a sigh.

The guy laughed awkwardly.

“Your brother really knows everything… .”

I said that because there are so many things I don’t know about that I feel like I’m going to turn around.

“No way. Rather, you seem familiar with this situation.”

“… … .”

“Maybe today… So, were you still here yesterday?”

Originally, Park Moon-dae’Keun-dal’ sat carefully on the floor. And he answered seriously.

“yes.”

also.

“And it wasn’t just yesterday.”

“what?”

“Brother I… You’ve been pressing ‘accept synchronization’ while resolving status ailments.”

I remember. It made people feel uncomfortable by only mentioning ‘accumulated completion’ every time.

“It turned out that it was synchronized with the time I was with my brother.”

“Are you with me?”

“yes.”

“I have no memory of that.”

“It was different.”

Keundal rubbed his palms on his thighs with a nervous face. and said quietly

Bring up a random topic.

“Hyung, I want to apologize first.”

“My older brother suffered so much… Actually, it’s my fault.”

“… … .”

“that… When my brother fell into a coma, I had a crazy idea.”

He slowly began to explain the situation at the time.

“Because my brother said he might never wake up again. So I… I cleaned my brother’s house. I knew then.”

Following those words, the thoughts he had experienced at the time began to rise directly in my head like a resonance.

-this… .

the camera I used.

And among the data that I didn’t delete there, there was also something I uploaded with the ‘gun1234’ account.

And this guy who was tidying up the house seemed to recognize it at once.

The psychological blow was very decisive.

-What should I do… .

“at that time… I must have been very heartbroken. It’s no different than hyung helping me from then until now, but there’s nothing I can do to help, and hyung is going to die soon… .”

“… … .”

“So I was packing up and going back, and I accidentally leaned against the handrail of the outer stairwell with the trash in my hand. without thinking… .”

It was such a cheap one-room building, so I thought the railing looked dangerous when I went out to smoke.

“But the railing couldn’t overcome its weight and collapsed… .”

And, of course, when this guy is at his most frantic, it is destroyed.

-ping!

at the worst possible timing.

“To be honest, I thought I might have broken my leg in moderation until now… … I didn’t talk about it because I was worried. But maybe… Maybe I was on the verge of dying then.”

I almost bit my tongue. But the man’s story wasn’t over.

“So I guess the system got it wrong.”

“mistaken?”

“This system grants wishes based on the thoughts you had right before you died.”

The big moon swallowed.

“however… I hoped that my brother would live a long and happy life, but at that time, he was in a coma on the verge of death like me… An error occurred. You misunderstood the object.”

“… !”

“My older brother went back to the past and lived in my body instead of me.”

– Ugh… .

I remembered waking up in a dirty motel room.

But the point of view of that scene… It was me.

“I think I was fused into the system in the process… I guess there was still a bit of ego left. It’s like a pattern of behavior that needs to be corrected.”

And I realized

This guy continued to use the word ‘system’ naturally.

… Just like the usage of the word I had never explained to anyone who defined it myself.

I barely opened my mouth.

“… status window.”

The guy nods.

“that’s right.”

“… … .”

“So, brother, I am… It was my brother’s status window.”

Chapter 320

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death. Episode 320

The moment I hear the definite answer, the questions related to the status window so far pass through my head like a flashback.

'… 'Park Moon-dae' is the status window' and before making a conclusion.

The original Bakmundae 'Keundal' started talking as if he were retracing the things he had experienced as a status window.

"At first I was completely unconscious. but… My brother was shouting the status window, and I suddenly came to my senses."

-I quit because I was playing a game ㅅㅅ

The last words I posted when I closed the WeTube account 'gun1234' where I uploaded fancams.

"Hyung likes games, so I thought it would be helpful… ."

"Maybe it was the last shock I had when I was a human, and it might have been because I realized that the account was my older brother."

I barely opened my mouth.

"Then leveling up or drawing specials?"

"yes. I've only played mobile games… Maybe that was the only thing that seemed plausible. sorry."

It was nothing to be sorry for.

The privilege I got The status window that I had alone… It didn't stick out because of the balance, as Cheong-ryeo thought.

That's exactly what this guy did.

"After that, it assimilated into the system again… I just played the role of showing what the system was trying to do in a good way."

I cut him off.

"No thank you."

"… ! that that… no… ."

The guy sitting across from me didn't know what to do, then lowered his head.

"Actually, strange things happen from here."

strange thing?

"I told you that I, who prepared for the civil service exam with my older brother's body, synchronized with me who lived through the status window."

"okay."

"that is… I think I, the status window, was adversely influenced by me preparing for the civil service exam."

"… !"

"so… Even in the status window, I vaguely knew what would happen to him in the future. I've seen all of hyung's activities since Azusa."

I see.

I remembered not only what I wanted, but also the draw in the status window, which gave me the necessary characteristics at that time, as if I had predicted the future.

It wasn't predicting the future. It was because of the people who really lived in the future.

I pressed my forehead.

'There is no beginning and no end.'

If I hadn't set up a 'conversation with Park Moon-dae' as a mission after clearing all status abnormalities, this guy who was preparing to become a civil servant would not have existed.

But I need this guy who was preparing to become a civil servant so that I can clear the status abnormality with the predictive shot in the status window.

"Cause and effect are just mixed up, right? haha… I am a bit confused too."

"I know."

Even if you return to the past, time does not reset and coexists as it is, so there is no order back and forth.

It's as if I intervened in Testa's activities in the middle while helping with this public announcement.

"hmm."

In the meantime, the big moon carefully opened his mouth again.

"Um so… It was when I realized that my older brother's car accident was not far away when my ego, which was a status window, woke up properly."

"… !"

I instantly remembered the unusual option I received as a reward after clearing the ‘200,000 audience mobilization status abnormality’.

[Option]

: Check ‘truth’ ☜ Click!

: Obtain ‘coin’ ☜ Click! !

※ Duplicate selection is not possible

“… … Coin..”

The big moon smiled faintly.

“that’s right. At that time, the choice was not the system, but I did it.”

oh my god.

“Any errors after that?”

Right after that, when the next status ailment appeared, all kinds of lines were stretched and the status ailment was continuously updated.

‘No 1 or Death’ occurs!

‘If it is not a target, death’ occurs!

‘Performance or death’ occurs!

I thought it was as if someone had hacked it, but it was an accurate hunch.

“yes… Fortunately, my brother picked out the coin, but there was an error there.”

I opened my mouth unconsciously.

“Is it because the truth has not been confirmed?”

An error occurred because the final condition could not be cleared.

"… ! that's right. That's why the status ailment that was supposed to end with that originally popped up once more… ."

"… … ."

"Ugh, I think it happened because I just intervened. So I tried to change or cancel something as easy as possible… It didn't work."

The boy bowed his head with an embarrassed face.

But in fact, the burden of that condition was entirely on him.

"That's why the target of death also changed to you."

-The death of 'Park Moon-dae' if he cannot meet more than 400,000 spectators within the specified period.

The big moon nodded.

"… yes. Actually, hyung's status ailments ended right before that. The penalty is something that the creator has to bear."

I muttered calmly.

"I don't understand that."

"yes yes?"

"The number of my status ailments."

I folded my fingers.

"In the end, it's just that I don't remember, but it was right that I lived a few more years and then came back."

The guy who said he organized my belongings… My future job at the company. The one I saw in the last truth check.

“Why did I get fewer status ailments based on my memory rather than that standard?”

“that… It is because the preliminary work was done to grant my wish before my brother goes back to the past.”

His wish is… .

-I hope Kun-woo hyung lives a long, happy life… … … .

It’s an absurdly good wish, but there is something even more absurd than that.

“You said I didn’t have to have that memory to live?”

“yes.”

The guy across from me seemed a little pale, but he was determined.

“During those years, the system judged that you would not accept your new body because you were so heartbroken.”

“… … .”

“And looking at how much I returned to the past based on my older brother’s memories that were deleted like that, the status ailments were reduced that much.”

I was speechless.

I gritted my teeth for some reason and replied slowly.

“I don’t even remember meeting you.”

I don’t even remember that I contacted him from the time I bought him soup.

“That too. If it enters the body of someone you know… I must have thought that my brother would react strangely.”

I’m going crazy.

‘I set it up so that I can thoroughly grant one wish.’

Blowing away other people’s memories is not a way to look personable at all, and it was a judgment that some AI would have made.

Come to think of it, there is my uniqueness that comes to mind by being connected by itself.

“Could you even check the truth?”

A status abnormality clear reward that was given only to me.

“yes.”

The guy on the other side closed his eyes.

“When the system analyzed it, the older brother decided that he could overcome his trauma by seeing himself… same.”

Isn’t it crazy.

“That’s why I did it using the existing status window.”

“The system used the status window?”

“yes. From that point on, I wasn’t the only one using the system, the system started using me too. … We were able to influence each other.”

“… … .”

I suddenly looked closely at the guy on the other side.

The big moon sitting in the image world was a mixture of ‘Ryu Gun-woo’ with ‘Park Moon-dae’, but looking back, somewhere… I felt out of place.

Tick.

At that moment, a crackling noise bounced around the creature's outline.

'Damn it.'

"To be honest, I am still a bit confused. It seems to be a bit mixed with the system."

It was a strange situation. I frowned.

"The system would have moved to someone else."

Gold 2 Kwon Hee-seung.

"You stayed in the status window. But are they still mixed?"

"hmm… As hyung finished the status abnormality, my ego became clearer and clearer. So when the system moved, it could remain on its own."

The guy opened and closed his hand.

"however… I can use some of the same abilities as before."

I automatically remembered what I had pulled from the last talent draw.

[Characteristic: Acquiring 'Mission Constitution (S)'!]

Ability to trade rewards and penalties in a form similar to status ailments.

"It must have been you who gave me the nature of the mission."

"yes."

So, in the end, this guy saved himself.

'hmm.'

It should have been fun for a while.

“therefore… I think we are still somewhat connected. We cannot interfere with each other.”

“okay.”

This… I might be able to use it somewhere. I nodded and relaxed.

“phew… .”

The guy on the other side let out a small sigh as if he had taken care of something big.

‘I guess I’ve said everything.’

I chuckled. Then it was my turn to talk.

“I heard you well. Everything I was curious about has been answered.”

“yes!”

Here is the main point. I cleared my expression and opened my mouth again.

“and… Thank you for saving me.”

“yes?”

“Thanks to you, I lived well.”

I remembered what I had experienced over the years as ‘Park Moon-dae’.

There were a lot of really bad things, but looking back… The ending was always good.

The whole experience came to mind vividly. therefore… I never thought I would say this out of my mouth.

“Idols were fun.”

If I had to do it again, I could have done it.

of course… .

“I didn’t know I wanted to be an idol either, but I guess I did.”

Suddenly, the man in front of me started to weep.

“… ??”

What are you doing?

“I’m sorry. I’m really moved… . I hope you will say that at hyung’s concert… ” was ridiculous, but I just laughed. I didn’t feel bad.

“… … It

And it was like a joke.

“I was surprised by your civil service exam, too.”

Did you ever want to have a job like that?

“… !”

At that moment, the guy makes a pricked expression.

What.

“Um bro, that’s it.”

“why.”

“That’s true… I just thought of hyung, so I guess I, the status window, roughly decided.”

“… .”

I’d rather be in 9th grade, you bastard.

I can’t say anything because I got stuck in the end, but I don’t know why I pushed myself into the pit of hell.

The guy who muttered a few words like an excuse, saying, ‘I didn’t know the civil service exam well’, quickly returned to the main topic.

“Your brother really helped me a lot there. To be honest, hyung saved my life several times starting with the mission… .”

“Then let’s say we helped each other.”

“yes… … .”

The tension in the conversation gradually eases up and you start to have time to think.

And as if expressing such a state of mind, outside the window, the sunset is over and one or two stars are visible.

At that moment, the drowsy guy jumped up.

“omg! Is it almost time??”

“hour?”

Do you think it’s an imaginary world?

“yes! My brother is… It’s because I used a trick for a while right before leaving my brother’s body who was tested… .”

After all, that’s the most important thing. future whereabouts of this man.

“Then what will happen to you in the future?”

“that… You can even go back to the status screen!”

You are talking nonsense.

“Have you ever thought of wanting to use your body?”

“uh… To be honest, it’s because I’ve been in the status window for a long time, so I don’t feel like my body… . I am not attracted to you.”

“… … Is that so?”

It’s a win-win situation for me, but it’s kind of bitter… the moment you think about it.

An additional explanation is attached.

“And if I go back to my body, Testa will disintegrate. I can’t really… How did you come?”

“… … .”

why do you care about that

I don’t know if I was overimmersed because I spent a long time in the status window or because I was comforted by the exam life, but I don’t think this is the case.

“You can do it. Since my body is the same, I think my stats will be the same.”

In my daydream, I used the body of ‘Ryu Gun-woo’, but that wasn’t the reality.

But the guy on the other side grinned.

“That brother. There was something I wanted to say about it… .”

“… ?”

“Do you remember the character from the very beginning? Even before the feature draw came out.”

It was before the talent draw… .

“Infinite potential?”

“yes!”

okay. A ridiculous morale trait that allowed all stats to grow to their limits… .

“That’s my brother’s original.”

“… !”

what?

“So, the traits you picked and the stats you raised… It’s just that the talents that my older brother had were revealed.”

“… … .”

“Among the things he accomplished, there was nothing he couldn’t have.”

The big moon nodded coolly.

“I want you to know that.”

“… … .”

I stared blankly at him as if I had been hit in the back of the head.

‘It’s mine.’

Slowly, a strange feeling of exhilaration rises.

Its name is… It was a sense of satisfaction.

voice goes on

“So please show me a great activity.”

I reflexively nodded. My head couldn't turn because of the sense of security that filled my head.

The guy on the other side mumbled.

"I really want to continue to support hyung as an idol… ."

"… … !"

At that moment, I came to my senses.

Now is not the time to be sentimental, but the time to direct traffic.

from this guy.

'If you're not interested in your body… .'

"Then are you not interested in a body that has been put to the test?"

I don't think I'm going to stick to the 7th grade and throw it away.

"Uh uh!"

Fortunately, this time the positive response came back. Since you've spent the entire 4 years, you must have wanted to do this.

"Hey, hey, is that okay? It's my brother's body!"

"What am I doing in the yard where I use your body?"

It's not like I'm going to put on my extra body and boil soup, so what is it? I looked at him with the attitude of not accepting the specifications.

Then he nodded his head a little reddened.

"then… I will use it well for a while."

for a while?

The moment you want to ask a question about the awkward word choice somewhere.

“Brother time is up! I think it will flow soon. Hurry up and lie down!”

“ah.”

I turned around to lie down on the sofa at his fuss. It was then.

The reflected light from the dark window, which had clearly become night, reflected my figure.

“… !”

I can see there… It was not the perfect ‘Ryu Gun-woo’. But if you ask me if it was only ‘Testa Park Moon-dae’, I don’t know either.

It was both.

I don’t know how that’s possible, but it just seemed like no matter who knew what I looked like, they would recognize that as me.

It was a solid figure that was completely settled, unlike the figure of the big moon where elements were mixed as if it had not yet been refined.

As if he’s already convinced of who I am…

‘I am.’

After subtracting it like that, I guess they both thought it was me.

I lay down and burst out laughing in a feeling that I couldn’t say anything.

It was kind of cool.

“If I get a chance… .”

I replied to the cautious voice.

“See you again.”

“… !yes!”

And then I closed my eyes to sleep again.

This time, it was a dark battle in which all five senses completely disappeared.

Dormancy in which consciousness and thinking disappear.

dang-.

The moment I thought I heard a bell.

“Park Moon-dae… !”

I came to my senses and realized I was on the podium.

Smell of stage equipment and air conditioner.

“… … under.”

It was the day Testa received the grand prize.

Chapter 321

If you can't debut, you'll die from an illness Episode 321

The buzz of people under the stage, the noise of devices, and the flickering light from the cheering rod stimulate all five senses.

I'm back.

"… … ."

someone grabs your shoulder When I turn my head, I see big Sejin and the faces around me.

This kid is laughing, but his hands are getting stronger. I think it was this guy who called me earlier.

'I must have stumbled.'

When I debuted in < Azusa >, I remember that I almost collapsed after watching the first truth check.

I don't know if it was a similar situation, but the difference in the time I feel is so big.

Suddenly, I quickly scanned the faces of the guys standing behind me.

'A long time.'

From Ryu Chung-woo to Bae Se-jin, who stood on the outskirts. Actually, I met Bae Se-jin a few days ago, but it's surprising that he has a different impression from the guy at the beginning of his debut.

‘I’ve seen it for a long time.’

It’s been 4 years.

As a student, it is no different from going to the same high school and going to college together.

I came this far by forming a team with six strangers my age. It is a rare experience.

However, I have an irrational thought that I could not have made a better team than this even if I had chosen with my own eyes with a status window.

It was a rare thing.

I laughed in my heart when I saw Kim Rae-bin with his pupils shaking.

‘It’s as you said.’

-Although we did not meet for the purpose of friendship, we believe that a true sense of solidarity can grow within it!

There is more to this than simply wanting to keep doing it as it is because of the good grades.

And the same goes for the cheering sticks shaking in front of them.

I gave a slight nod to the guys behind me, then turned to the front again.

People who support Testa.

And, as Testa’s Park Moon said, the one in front of me is me.

The conclusion that came out after going through all those situations is still that.

“… … .”

I can’t do this. Perhaps because of the words he heard in the world of images just before, his head struggles in his emotions.

‘It’s embarrassing.’

It was then.

All of a sudden, text popped up on the prompter.

-Please express your feelings quickly.

“… !”

yes feel.

I came to my senses. The fact that I had something to do right now raised my head to reality.

I was frozen for about 3 4 seconds. It’s already been a long time since I’ve been in the middle of a long time at the awards ceremony, but I’m going to have a good time.

‘Still, it’s the first target to receive fair grades, so I hope you understand.’

I chuckled and grabbed the mic.

“Did I procrastinate too much? sorry. I’m nervous.”

Small laughter erupts from the audience.

I don’t think it was a funny remark… I’m going to say that I accepted it well.

“When I look back at the moments I was active as a testa, it seems like it was a very long time, and it seems like I debuted just yesterday.”

I took a deep breath and spoke again.

“It was like that moment when I decided to become an idol.”

It is a journey that started because of an absurd threat of sudden death.

“Honestly, as an outsider, I wasn’t sure or expecting how far I could go. just… He said he could do it, so he appeared on the program.”

I wouldn’t have thought of doing it without the sudden death threat. but… .

I remembered what I said to the big moon right before I came to my senses.

-I didn’t know that I wanted to be an idol, but I guess I did.

I could imagine in a very specific way the perspective of the person taking pictures of me from under this podium, avoiding security.

Because I’ve done it a lot.

And at that time, I did not bother to trace the cause of my satisfaction. Because I couldn’t imagine the sight of looking down directly from the stage beyond that point of view.

“But after meeting these members and meeting the fans, Testa came all the way here.”

But what if standing on the stage in person is more genuine and stimulating than watching the stage from the audience?

that… What I did with the data arm was exactly the vicarious satisfaction.

And if you think the fact that I succeeded in finding this real joy is actually thanks to my ‘infinite potential’, the taste of mulberry will grow… It is an illusion.

‘It’s a lot of money.’

Numerous variables came into play. And I wasn’t the only one who moved that variable.

Because idols are groups.

“Regardless of this award, I think I was really good at challenging myself as an idol at that time. … I am very happy.”

I didn’t know that such embarrassing words would come out of my mouth, but what if everyone didn’t understand it?

“I believe the members will too.”

I put my arm around Seon Ah-hyun, who was standing next to me.

“… !”

‘… Does he look frightened?’

I thought I would naturally take it over because the mood was burning, but I almost became embarrassed.

Still, I didn’t hate the complexion, so I looked around and said something.

“thank you.”

“… … .”

Then, a strange look as if they were crying began to spread on their faces, and naturally, something like a game ceremony began to happen.

Encouragement and sense of accomplishment for having worked hard.

‘oh my god.’

In the audience seats, the cheering rod shakes like crazy and cheers resonate.

I’ve embraced being one of seven professionals who hug each other.

And I was thinking of another one.

‘Did you go in well?’

I finished my last words between my arms, thinking of the guy I was probably watching on TV.

“Thank you so much for awarding me.”

It was a general thank you.

* * *

Fanfare burst out with the aim of quickly ending our speeches and asking for seats to be vacated, and we went backstage holding the trophy.

As soon as the award ceremony is over, our stage continues after a brief preparation time.

That’s probably what the first target placement was for.

I thought silently as I moved with the trophy still in my hand.

‘I must give up the next award ceremony unconditionally.’

It was because when reason came back, he realized that he had been overexcited.

‘I think it came out, but next time, I’ll have those who haven’t spoken about it prepare separately… .’

But I couldn’t keep counting. This is because an urgent question came before I even arrived at the place of change.

First of all, a big deal.

“Park Moon-dae, are you okay?”

“… ?”

“You just almost fell. If you feel unwell, tell me. Let’s drop some painkillers and leave.”

That’s why you grabbed my shoulder. I understood his behavior.

‘I’ll start by grasping the situation to what extent.’

“Did I almost fall?”

“I thought I was about to collapse… .”

Seon Ah-hyun muttered with a blue face. It seems to have staggered more than expected.

‘this.’

I’ll have to see if this excuse works. I sighed first and rubbed the back of my neck.

“sorry. Since it is the first target… . I can’t remember what to say and I think it’s because I’m nervous.”

“… You said it was because you were nervous?”

“you… ?”

Why are these bastards so suspicious?

I answered as calmly as possible.

“sure.”

“Wait a minute.”

“Manager, give me a thermometer!”

Doubts rained down like bombs. I think you know roughly what my impression was during that time.

I raised both hands.

“I’m fine, that’s right. just… I really like it.”

I looked around at the faces of those guys who seemed to be a little shocked and smiled.

“Because it is the first target. I know how to be thrilled.”

“Park Moon-dae… .”

The astonishment disappears and the warmth permeates. Everyone will have their first target song, so I thought this would work.

“… okay. Things like that happen, too.”

“It’s belatedly said, but I think it was a wonderful acceptance speech!”

good. All the weak-minded people have passed.

‘… Well, it wasn’t even a lie.’

It’s true that I felt good. I handed over the trophy to those who were intoxicated with the target atmosphere.

“Let’s fight next year too.”

“Ughhh!”

“Good!”

Ryu Cheng-wu seemed to be enjoying this atmosphere with a face that said he was pleased with the teamwork, and then ended his words gently.

“I’ll take your temperature anyway.”

“… … .”

do whatever you want.

I changed into a costume and was judged normal body temperature. It’s absurd, but it seems like I’ve overcome some kind of hurdle.

“13 minutes left~”

But at the same time, I realized the real problem.

‘Damn it.’

I rolled my head and finally stabbed Seon Ah-hyun.

“Ah Hyun-ah.”

“Ugh huh?”

and said quietly

“Can you quickly check the revised choreography this time… .”

“Why can’t I suddenly remember the choreography at Moondaemundae?”

quick-witted kid.

“… After the testimony, the tension is relieved, so check it out.”

“Ah, that’s right.”

It’s not a lie.

‘I haven’t danced or sang for days, you bastard… .’

There is a year-end one-time revised choreography that I practiced for just one week right before Ryu Gun-woo entered the body, and I am going to use it now.

I’m breaking out in a cold sweat because I’m afraid I won’t be able to remember right now on stage.

“Anyway, check it out.”

“Yes! Let’s do it right away… !”

Fortunately, there was no time, so instead of other conversations, the choreography lesson started right away.

Once the two dance lines were attached, the angle was instantly established.

“I kick and turn here… Hit your toe with a pointer and go… .”

“Moondae was half a beat fast, be careful!”

“okay.”

“I know that choreography best. Brother, will you tell me!”

“Would you like to go get some drinks?”

So, with the help of the others, I completely relearned the choreography in 3 minutes.

It was comfortable to live alone, but the taste of being with many people was not bad.

* * *

This evening, the prestigious music awards ceremony is being broadcast for the first time at the end of this year.

-Park Moon-dae I think I almost collapsed.

-Kwanjong haha

-Isn’t the schedule too overworked? I think there are aftereffects of that accident. I need to be careful.

-Looks like they’re just thrilled, but look at them running like dogs.

Twin Homma, an office worker taking pictures of Lee Se-jin and Park Moon-dae, clicked his tongue as he watched the real-time comments that made his expectations for humanity disappear.

But this is a normal thing, and something else bothered her more.

‘I can’t believe he’s feeling that emotional.’

Park Moon-dae has handled everything rationally like a knife until now, but only this time, he acted as if he couldn’t stand the overwhelming feeling.

Before the acceptance speech, I couldn’t take my words off, staggered, looked back at the members, and the editorial was long… I did everything I wouldn’t normally do.

I don’t know if there is a story or if the object was so meaningful… .

‘It wasn’t bad.’

The twin hommage nodded, saying that he could understand why Lee Se-jin had to concede to Park Moon-dae.

Since Park Moon-dae has a calm image to the public, like a fourth dimension, shaking like this would come as a charm rather than annoyance.

It was no different from showing the public a scene with an effect similar to crying at a concert.

In fact, by the time Park Moon-dae’s testimony was over, the reaction to the comments had changed quite a bit.

-It’s kind of touching

-Park Moon-dae really looks like a puppy with Opusity.

What

‘s going on?

-You’re thrilled right? Dogs.

Besides, even the last act that seems to confirm the members’ affection for the team.

It seems that there was something about that series of flows that stimulated people's heartstrings.

'This kind of thing works well.'

A collection of reactions from a singer who won first place on music charts for the first time since his debut was not wandering on WeTube for nothing.

People like the fall of a star, but they also like the thrill of a star.

Testa's emotion came raw to suit the taste of such people.

The twin homma nodded quite satisfied.

'Good job.'

Park Moon-dae didn't really calculate that, and he was expecting a very bad reaction.

In any case, contrary to his expectations, Testa's impression of the grand prize was expected to be successfully discussed as a touching speech of the award.

Awards season was only just beginning.

And this season, Testa's amount was going to be very large.

Chapter 322

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 322

A few days later.

Testa’s stage clip was uploaded on the official WeTube channel of the music company that hosted the first awards ceremony this year.

It was the stage I did right after the first grand prize this year.

[Whee-Ik!]

The colorful choreography supports the performance while water and light are emitted from a simple underwater device applied to the stage of a concert.

Fans who watched the concert said, ‘Isn’t that cool? I liked the concert better than that,’ and tried to make a stage that could be sold with excitement, and that’s how it ended.

Of course, it was ranked as a real-time popular video.

[(RMA) Testa (TeSTAR) | Intro + Promise Live Performance]

Of course, VTIC’s performance was also ranked, but what do you know if they wave their capes or ride a boat?

My stage, which I hadn’t done in a while, was so impressive that it consumed all my brain capacity.

I held back a sigh.

‘I’m glad I didn’t do shit.’

My body barely remembers and I lived. I almost made a choreography mistake on stage after the first grand prize.

‘It’s a brain break from there.’

Strangely, the reaction to my acceptance speech was ridiculously better than expected…

Excuses like ‘I did it because I was thrilled’ will be over if I did it until the stage.

It’s as simple as whether you have professionalism or not.

But that didn’t happen, and instead all that was left was… There were only a few unnecessarily intense close-ups.

[The island of the sky that sails,

we are Fly so far!]

“Oh~ Moondae hyung’s smile~”

“… … .”

Admit it. I got a little excited.

It was spectacle from the thumbnail of the comment collection that popped up as a recommended video earlier. -Mundangdeng

“What the… ! I’m watching!”

Don’t talk like the guy who popped out while brushing his teeth was watching.

I changed the screen to a magical girl cover stage and Cha Yoo-jin ran away.

“Hyung, you’re too much!”

If it’s unfair, next time you can grab the remote control first.

When I saw Cha Yoo-jin go back to the bathroom, I tried to turn off the screen, but inadvertently found T-Holic guys standing in the background of the Magical Girl performance.

[Heart bullet of flying magic!]

There is no focus in the eyes. Their overwhelmed expression was perfect for creating a bad mood.

‘Come to think of it, I think those guys also sent a congratulatory message to the target.”

I opened my smartphone and looked at the contents.

On the day of the award, as soon as I got home, it wasn’t as big as the big guy who managed messages and calls to the point where his smartphone was discharged, but I also got quite a bit.

After winning the grand prize, everyone from young rin to an entertainer I saw once in a variety show got all the calls, so they must have sent them too… .

[Listen to Testa, we also have enough of each of us to get one of the grand prize trophies. I hope you continue to treat them as seniors] [

Please]

[Of course, we couldn't actually take it, so it will be in the company president's office] Did these bastards even open a new group message room to send this?

In addition, there is even a personal message asking if it's okay to upload it from a capture on their entertainment SNS.

'I live hard.'

It wasn't that I was eating for a long time as an entertainment route until the heyday was over for no reason.

I replied politely with 'It doesn't matter if you upload it, but if there is a controversy, do it yourself'.

For other small things, if you reply in moderation, there will be no problem.

It was then.

"No, why did Moondaemundae have a penalty stage… Oh T-Holic sunbaenim~"

The one with the quickest sense of things like this sticks his head into his smartphone.

'This bastard is starting to lose privacy.'

But I didn't bother covering the screen. T-Holic's partner is like work.

But I guess that wasn't the point of this guy. Big Sejin smiled and sat down on the sofa.

"As expected, T-Holic sunbaenim~ KakaoTalk also has one shot! Um, by the way, what do the other seniors say?"

There's no need to ask who you are. I'm talking about seniors who narrowly missed out on their first Singer of the Year award.

That’s VTIC.

So I was just curious about this guy.

‘It’s even funnier if you send reactions to all sorts of awards and keep your mouth shut here.’

Of course, VTIC showed off their strength by winning the ‘Album of the Year’ at the finale.

And probably in about half of the award ceremonies after that, the Singer of the Year award will also push us forward.

‘Still, it would feel like X if I lost it after doing it all the time.’

You may not be sending friendly messages one-way anymore.

“What did you come for?”

“You just say congratulations. But we can also recognize the nuance, again~ So I just wanted to know how you sent it to the other members!”

will it be hard

It means that I am curious about whether there is a tea to be checked. I smiled and took down the message windows that I had turned on one by one to organize.

And finally, I found a message from a VTIC member.

however… It was not a celebration.

[VTIC Senior Senior: Do you have something to say now?]

Oh this.

‘I got the mood.’

After talking about it since November, I felt like I had some sense after seeing my impressions when I was at the grand prize.

‘This bastard has been waiting.’

Then I hear a quiet muttering next to me.

“… What to say?”

Right. From the point of view that I know that my relationship with Cheongryeo is filthy bad, this seems almost like a quarrel.

‘I think I saw it as a fight to ask if I had anything to say.’

Of course, it is true that the relationship was dirty. So excuses come easily.

“Ah, we almost got into a fight again over the subject matter.”

“what??”

“It’s nothing else, it’s just a fight. In a little while, the winner will be decided over the phone.”

I shook my hand.

“This bastard can’t beat me. Because I have a recording.”

“… … Moondae is great. amazing.”

He shakes his head as if he is tired of the big Sejin. Yes, if you change the topic as it is… .

“Give me Sejin hyung-nim will listen and tell you who won.”

what

“Don’t worry, I’ll be polite when I call. There is no such thing as the last time.”

If you remember Chae Seo-dam's recording situation, it's not unreasonable for this guy to come out like this.

However, the big Sejin narrowed his eyes.

"Who cares about that? No, I'm worried about that too… Well, Bakmundae fortress is strange."

"… … ."

hmm.

"I seem to have forgotten the choreography, and even when I sing the part, I feel like I'm doing something strange and come back to my senses… ."

no way.

While I was silent, Sejin Keun finished his sentence.

"As expected, did you come secretly on an NIS mission?"

"… … ."

look at the imagination

I looked at him as if it was ridiculous, but Sejin just smiled.

"I practice and schedule every day, but there is no time for that."

"dawn? oh wait Chungwoo-hyung is a morning person again, so it must be real?"

"Stop talking nonsense."

"Mundae caught Rabin composing early in the morning. Maybe~? Did you see it on your way out?"

Are you kidding this kid?

However, while talking bullshit in his mouth, there is an awareness on his face that he is talking bullshit.

I know what it is, but it means that I will cover it up with a joke.

“… … .”

I said with a sigh.

“You said you would if you could talk.”

“… !”

spoke slowly.

“Of course, but it’s not the NIS either. It’s just a personal matter. There is no problem with Testa.”

“… I know.”

Big Sejin sighed and then smiled bitterly.

“sorry. we had a lot of work So I did it because I didn’t want to talk about you in case you were in trouble.”

It sounds like sincerity.

I thought briefly, but soon answered equally honestly.

“I’ll talk to you if I’m in trouble.”

“Really?”

okay.

Big Sejin erased the bitter smile as soon as I nodded. Then he patted me on the shoulder and got up from the couch.

“okay. I believe you, Moondaemundae~”

He dragged Cha Yoo-jin, who had just arrived, to the kitchen.

“after.”

I leaned back on the sofa.

‘I don’t know how long this medicine will last.’

However, it is crazy to talk about such an absurd situation and ask for trust. It’s not like I’ve been keeping my mouth shut up until now.

‘It goes well as a group for a long time, so this happens.’

It’s hard to hide something. Especially for the smart guys.

Even to some extent… Just because I wanted to say it.

‘Is there any other option?’

This is a separate countermeasure and do it right now.

I went out onto the veranda and made a phone call.

[VTIC Senior Senior Cheong Yong-ryo]

After a fairly long call, the connection stopped. And a locked voice was heard.

-hmm… Junior.

Did you wake up? I can’t.

I immediately hit the lines for recording.

“Did I wake you up from sleeping? sorry.”

-no. I have an early morning schedule… hmm.

Cheong-rye was silent for a short time, then answered in a normal voice.

-are you okay.

I haven't eaten jjambab for nothing for decades. It seems that he has completely adapted to his irregular life pattern.

-So why did you contact me?

I could feel the anticipation in his tone. I answered calmly.

"I have something to say. As you messaged."

– Oh finally.

Cheongryeo's voice gains strength.

-how is it? I think you came back well.

"I am fine. There was nothing wrong with it, and the target was well received."

-is it so. Congratulations on your first target. I hope you enjoy the moment.

It means you won't be able to enjoy it in the future.

I thought of a rebuttal such as 'I hope seniors would do that' and then erased it.

It was not the time. Instead, I went straight to the point.

"thank you. Then may I ask what happened to the thing you were supposed to call back then?"

Because this guy was supposed to make a confirmation call to 'Ryu Gun-woo'.

-ah… that person.

Cheongryeo replied casually.

– I tried to contact you on that cell phone several times. however… It always says my phone is off.

“… … .”

what?

“Then how are you?”

-yes? haha. Junior. How can I know that? It’s just that they don’t answer calls.

“… … .”

this damn… .

-The very next day was the departure schedule. Where would you have time to find out about domestic affairs during a concert?

“… yes.”

Yes, that is a reasonable statement.

However, hearing it from the mouth of the guy who even found out the address of the officetel by himself, it feels like he’s been victimized for some reason.

‘After’

I pressed my temples.

Why did I try to find out the whereabouts of ‘Ryu Gun-woo’ right away from this bastard?

Still the original Bakmundae… That’s because ‘Keundal’ didn’t receive a separate text message.

I released the recipient limit to receive it, but all kinds of spam and stalker messages were poured out.

‘hmm.’

I thought it would be better to wait until he wants to contact me. I’m just in the 7th grade, so there must be a lot of things to do.

But, of course, I thought this guy was the one to contact… Even after I received the target, there is no contact for several days.

The feeling was not very good.

‘at that time… He must have said that.’

-then… I’ll use it for a while…

Why did you limit the time period? Of course, I knew the address of his officetel. If you get lost, just go and find it.

‘Of course, there are methods that can be used before that.’

hang up the phone at once

“All right. Then I hope you have a good night’s sleep.”

-Wait. Is that the end?

“yes?”

what is this again

– I thought you would tell me something like impressions.

… It sounds like you’re a bit disappointed, but this bastard… upset?

“… … .”

It doesn't look creepy, but… yes on my own… When I was in Ryu Gun-woo's body, I listened to his advice.

I can't deny it. This guy is also involved now.

I finally backed off.

"I don't think it's something to talk about over the phone, so let's meet at the next time."

-hmm… Yes. great.

I never thought the day would come when I would leisurely hold a friendship with this bastard.

I ended the call with a feeling of trembling.

However, the screen did not turn off. Instead, I immediately manipulated the screen and pressed the 'text' icon again. Then I opened the field to compose a new text message.

'I'm not stupid either.'

Of course, I memorized the number of 'Ryu Gun-woo' at least roughly.

It is enough to contact me from my side.

'I'll just put in two or three confusing numbers and write the content so that only this guy responds.'

I put in the number I remembered and said, 'Keundal-nim, why haven't you contacted me? I last saw you in November… It was the moment I wrote up to '.'.

"It's Moondae!"

"… !"

I closed my smartphone for the time being as a lesson from the big Sejin.

I turned my head and waved my hand outside the veranda door to see if Liu Chengyu had walked from the hallway.

“are you busy now? Or maybe we could go to work together for a while.”

less calm than usual It seems there is some urgent news.

You’ll look suspicious if you turn this down during recess.

“yes. But what is it?”

“I’ll talk to you as soon as we go.”

Liu Cheng-wu opened the veranda door and urged me on. This is also rare.

‘I’m really in a hurry.’

I timidly picked up my coat and followed him out the front door. I was thinking of continuing to write down the texts I used to write when I got into the car.

But the moment I sat in the front seat and saw Ryu Cheng-wu operating the navigation system.

I knew something was wrong.

“brother.”

“huh?”

“Isn’t that the company there?”

“ah. for a moment.”

the car started The car driven by Liu Cheng-wu left the underground parking lot and left the complex in an instant.

And with a smile on his face, Liu Cheng-wu opened his mouth again.

“… ?”

Why is that story coming out at the right time… .

“I got a call saying I found it in the middle of the door.”

“… !”

“Ryu Gun-woo.”

what?

Liu Qingyu lowered his voice slightly.

“They say I’m a 7th grade civil servant. I think I was confused because I was studying for the test.”

“… .”

“I guess you passed and got in touch.”

I suddenly had an ominous feeling. I barely opened my mouth.

“Maybe now… .”

Liu Qingyu smiled.

“that’s right. So now we are on our way to meet him.”

“… !!”

“Anyway, I have a car and I want to see you in person… … Are you Mundae?”

ah… Damn.

All of a sudden, I happened to meet Ryu Cheong-woo and Park Moon-dae in the body of Ryu Gun-woo.

Chapter 323

Episode 323 Park Moon-dae goes to meet Ryu Gun-woo with Ryu Cheong-woo… la.

“Moondae, are you really surprised? are you okay?”

“it’s okay.”

What kind of guy’s work can get to this point in an instant. I pressed my eyelids so as not to tremble.

therefore… Ryu Cheng-wu has now come and found Ryu Kun-wu’s whereabouts. yes from this

“I was a bit surprised. I wonder how you got in touch all of a sudden.”

“yes? I did too.”

No, your reason and mine must be different, but anyway, Ryu Cheng-wu grinned and continued his explanation.

“One of the grandsons of the eldest family contacted me after meeting at the Seoul Civil Service Training Center.”

“There must have been a lot of people in the family who remembered it.”

that… It seems that not many people simply remembered it.

Isn’t it that the seniors in the family who were dying at the words of Ryu Chung-woo, former gold medalist and current grand prize idol of the national team, asked everyone who came to work?

It’s lethal with just one title, but it’s eye-rolling because it’s a double title.

So, as soon as Ryu Kun-woo’s body started social life, he was arrested.

Regardless of the situation, I understood the logic. So he silently nodded.

‘But how do I turn this car?’

On the day that guy notices the strange feeling between Moondae Park and me in Ryu Gun-woo’s body, it’s a psychiatric hospital appointment. I shook my head furiously.

At least Ryu Cheong-wu should just drop me in front of Ryu Kun-wu and turn the car around and let me go out… .

“Sorry. I guess I did it as a surprise because I was excited. You may need to prepare your mind for this.”

You know how to make excuses. I answered seriously, trying not to be embarrassed.

“Hmm, I’m grateful, but I’m a little worried about being able to have a proper conversation because I’m nervous and at a loss. How about going back today?”

It’s stupid to say something like ‘I’ve changed my mind and I don’t want to meet you’ after you’ve asked me to find it when you talk about the price of your life.

‘Take your time and turn it gently.’

However, Liu Cheng-wu opened his mouth with a worried expression.

“okay? Except for today, it would be difficult to make a day to meet for a while… It’s a tour after the awards ceremony.”

Damn.

“hmm… . We have to make time for it somehow.”

Liu Qingyu smiled.

“Don’t worry too much. Because I have a license… I think I can do a little bit of secretly picking up the company and leaving.”

“… … .”

“You don’t have a driver’s license.”

“… … Yes. thank you.”

Going crazy.

‘after… … .’

Since this guy already knew it, it would be difficult to wipe his mouth and meet Ryu Gun-woo separately.

However, it could be an emotional problem if this guy even made a position, but he refused and whined to find out his contact information and put it out.

‘I think I’ve changed my attitude since I turned it inside out and found it.’

I even think that it might be best to get in this car and see it today. I counted the number of cases of this and that.

and concluded

“If you’re very nervous, I’ll go back today and I’ll tell the company to set aside some time… .”

“no. I’ll try to calm down while we go.”

“Um, yes.”

let’s not grow The moment you talk to the company, it may leak to the person in charge or to the reporters, and then it’s really shit.

‘There are many people who are already interested in the past history of Park Moon University.’

Ryu Gun-woo is a commoner, but he is related to Ryu Cheong-wu. I can’t guarantee that there won’t be a guy who digs into the financial situation or the family environment.

“… … .”

yes x feet. decided. I am going right now.

Now that the situation had come to this, I tried to grin. It’s because it’s more suspicious if the expression looks like trash here.

“anyway… thank you. It’s kind of surprising and heartbreaking.”

in several senses.

“haha. okay. I have some time, so I’ll go slowly.”

Before the meeting with Ryu Gun-woo, I tried to induce him to drop out with the last “it’s okay to drop him off and go” way to get rid of him, but… .

“Well, how do I get back?”

I just kept my mouth shut.

If you don’t like talking to the company, you can’t even call a manager. If you take a call taxi, there will only be eyewitness accounts.

‘Either way, Ryu Chung-woo is better for security than that… … .’

Let’s give up, it’s comfortable like a lie. let’s do something

I erased the text that I had written down with two or three candidate numbers for ‘Keundal’. It is because Liu Cheng-wu can’t find the record left when exchanging phones.

‘I’ll just pretend to exchange numbers for now and then break up quickly.’

I came up with a few scenarios, but somehow the feeling of pulling the backbone was not unusual.

And little by little, realistic questions come to mind.

“however… Did you have an appointment with him?”

“huh?”

Liu Chengwu shrugged.

“I got a call too. A relative who went to the training center with me said, ‘There is someone I want to meet. Can I see your face for a moment?’

what?

* * *

After a while, a training institute outside Seoul.

People who had just finished today’s training poured out of the door.

Due to the issue of appointment, only Seoul has been urgently scheduled for training, so there is no camp schedule, only commuting schedules are being carried out… It’s not something I know because I couldn’t even stick to it.

The important thing is that ‘Ryu Gun-woo’ was in the restaurant room next to it.

‘This bastard.’

surprising. There was no need to doubt that there was no way you could get caught up in the flimsy words of ‘there is someone who wants to meet you’.

That’s a good catch.

“Um, hello.”

Looking at that reaction, what was inside was the ‘big moon’. I was convinced as I listened to the tone of the guy who was about to break out in a cold sweat.

It’s true that I’m upset, but I’m also relieved.

After seeing it in the world of images, I thought that seeing this guy in real life would feel a similar sense of discomfort, but it didn’t.

On the contrary, it was the first time seeing him move Gun-Woo Ryu’s body… Feelings are new.

Maybe if I had a younger brother, I would feel this way.

“You came to see me… ?”

yes baby The other limbs are fine, but there is no contact.

… I couldn’t say that, so I calmly lowered my head.

“hello. brother.”

“Yes yes?”

“You remember me. This is Moondae Park, whom my brother helped me with.”

Get your words right. a little.

Big moon quickly looked at me and Ryu Cheng-wu, and then replied as if an exclamation mark had floated above his head.

“Ah ah~ Mundae… Goa!”

“… yes.”

ruined. This guy has no talent for acting.

However, Ryu Chung-woo looked a bit puzzled, but perhaps it was because he was embarrassed, so he smiled and greeted him.

“I was also surprised to hear that there is a relative and older brother who helped Mundae a lot. Thank you for meeting me like this.”

I think we will continue to sit with our asses in consideration of the fact that various embarrassing situations may arise due to our jobs.

In fact, there is nothing to blame even if this guy is a relative of Ryu Gun-woo and a fellow student at Park Moon-dae camp.

‘On the contrary, I might get hurt by sending him out.’

He will probably leave on his own when he thinks he has calmed down enough. Until then, there is no I watched it with a mixed feeling.

“Thank you… ! What have I done? I’m rather dry… . Hmmm.”

And you knew it would be like this. I immediately changed the topic.

“Let’s start by eating.”

“Oh then. What about Geonwoo hyung? Oh, is it okay if I call you like this?”

“… yes.”

ruined. I was going to go out quickly after drinking tea, but they even ordered me to eat.

My stomach hurt when I saw Ryu Cheng-wu ordering a course meal. There was already a long way to cover it.

‘Damn it.’

… and an hour later.

While I ate the whole thing and put the main course, Peking duck, in my mouth, Keundal's remarks that I collected would exceed five times.

"… … ."

It is a record of its own.

'I guessed.'

It is at this point that inertia develops. In fact, the big moon wasn't even that careless. While Ryu Cheng-wu keeps talking to lighten the mood, he inadvertently comes up with the wrong designation once in a while.

For example, this is the story when explaining how Park Moon-dae and Ryu Gun-woo met.

-Ah, at that time, he really bought me a meal and gave me a lot of advice even though I was seeing him for the first time… .

-My brother did it. I still remember it well.

It's like this. It was close.

Keundal tried to speak as consciously as possible about his position and our changed body, but it is not easy for a guy who has only studied for 4 years to do so while eating.

For reference, the time I ate Dongpa-yuk immediately before was the best.

-At that time, Gern-wu hyung… What?

I made a mistake on the name.

I won't lie. I broke into a cold sweat here too.

-… yes. I said, 'Gunwoo hyung was very helpful, thank you'.

-… … .

I honestly thought I was screwed.

However, Liu Cheng-wu answered rather softly.

-Oh, I see.

And after a while, he lowered his voice and whispered to me.

‘It must be a bit difficult for you to speak too much because you have been studying for a long time. I will restrain myself.’

‘… … .’

After tea, Liu Cheng-wu made another excuse on his own. It was the aspect of a sincere personality who tried to understand others.

‘Iknow, right. Let’s finish it quickly.’

I quickly accepted and ate it and lived on.

And now, right before the meals finally arrive.

“I’m going to call you for a while.”

“yes!”

Liu Cheng-wu left.

widely.

The moment the door closed, I could see the guy on the other side sighing.

“phew… … .”

You suffered.

I crossed my arms and looked at the guy in front of me. The guy is looking down to see if he knows his mistake.

“… … .”

“… … .”

good. There are no popular chucks around.

I untied my arms and opened my mouth to get to the real point.

“Why didn’t you contact me?”

It looks fine, though. The calculation becomes complicated because I wonder if there is another problem.

But the guy on the other side was startled.

“I did… ! I did!”

what?

“I didn’t hear from you at all, so I was going to contact you separately, but what are you talking about?”

“Oh, I thought this was the contact… … . oh no Once I… .”

The big moon replied with a very unfair face.

“I texted him right away after seeing him win… .”

“… … .”

for a moment. I went through verification once.

“Right after watching the live broadcast?”

“yes… . There was no reply, so I waited because I thought you were busy.”

hey.

“I… He told me to contact him after the awards ceremony.”

“yes??”

It’s a stupid expression that says that’s what it is. I said with a headache.

“Numbers not in my directory are all blocked, but I can’t change the settings because I don’t have time to look at my smartphone while working at an awards ceremony.”

“… ! Whoops.”

This character was filtered like many other characters that came at the same time as the Prime Minister.

“sorry… !”

“done.”

It was my fault for not explaining the reason in detail. I held back a sigh.

“And if someone you don’t know creates a place like this, ask in more detail.”

I don’t know how you had the guts to accept such dubious words.

The guy on the other side muttered in a dejected voice.

“no… I thought this was something like an autograph from my brother to me.”

“sign?”

“Like 007. I wondered if it was because he was the same ‘Ryu’ that he contacted me like that… … . Because there is Ryu Cheong-woo among the members… .”

“… … .”

Imagination is a really rich guy. But surprisingly, it penetrates the core, so it’s funny.

I chuckled.

“okay. It was right this time It means to be careful in the future.”

“yes!”

It feels strange to see a proud expression on Ryu Gun-woo’s face. It’s because it’s more like me than I expected.

‘Depending on who’s inside, the impression changes like this.’

I shyly admitted it and passed the topic.

It is the most pressing subject.

“And what I care most about right now is to be careful with what I say so that I won’t get caught.”

“Oops. yes… .”

I bowed my head as if I was frustrated.

“Actually, this situation is also my fault for asking Ryu Cheng-wu to find out where I am. So don’t worry too much. I will continue to cover it.”

However, he avoided giving long answers and explained that he should shorten his answers by saying, “I am tired from receiving training.”

The guy nodded his head wholeheartedly. You seem well informed.

I also gave myself a task.

“From now on, I will deal with the topic well so that only our past will not come up as a topic.”

The guy on the other side rolled his eyes.

“Ah then, should we talk about Testa?”

“It’s okay.”

“Hmmmm, if that’s the case, we can talk all the way from the real debut.”

me really

He seemed to have relaxed a bit, and his shoulders drooped slightly. I gave up a few pieces of Peking Duck left over in the relaxed atmosphere of the room.

“Answer slowly while eating.”

“yes!”

However, apart from the calming atmosphere, since the story of the debut comes out, there are thoughts that are naturally connected.

The experience of the imaginary world where the scene from our debut song Magical Boy teaser unfolds on the veranda window.

The man’s remarks that caught my heart there.

“… … .”

I opened my mouth slowly.

“I mean you.”

“yes!”

“… The other day, I said that I would like to take care of you for a while. Are you planning to come out of that body soon?”

“… … .”

“There is no need for that.”

His face, which had shown expressions of bewilderment and joy until now, stiffened slightly. Instead, a queer expression appears on his face that seems even slightly less human.

It is the feeling I saw in the world of images. I closed my mouth.

His answer came without hesitation.

“I need it.”

what?

“But brother, I don’t think so.”

“… then.”

“I am… The last day you live as a human is fixed, right?”

The day this guy fell off the railing and made a wish on the system.

“That’s next summer.”

“… … .”

“So the date I can use this body is… Until next summer.”

Chapter 324

Episode 324

I clenched my fist.

I guessed that ‘Please take good care of me for a while’ means that Ryu Gun-woo will not use his body for a long time.

However, I thought it would be an ethical story to say that I am sorry to the end, but why do you say that you will die next summer right now?

For that reason, explanations such as ‘next summer, I died as a human being and returned to the past’ pop up?

Are you the only one who returned to the past?

“What are you talking about when you say that those who were originally dead lived well beyond that point?”

“It doesn’t mean I’m going to die.”

The guy shook his hand. And he answered rather gloomily.

“just… It means that it will be difficult to continue as a human after the days I have lived as a human being.”

I understood the words in an instant.

therefore… .

“Are you going back to the status window?”

“yes.”

The guy on the other side lowered his head. I asked while holding back my sleep.

“Why is that?”

okay. This guy was implemented because I received a ‘conversation with Park Moon-dae’ as a reward using the new attribute ‘Mission Constitution’.

“Why is that?”

“You saw it. Even if you return to the past, the life you lived before does not disappear, it remains and does not change. And when the past trip is over, you get the life you originally lived… That’s it.”

“… … .”

“I guess that works. So, in the same way, when this journey to the past, where I live in a human body, is over, I get my life back.”

The guy swallowed.

“To the status window.”

“for a moment.”

I raised my hand.

“So if I call the status window now, doesn’t the status window pop up? Because you are here.”

“Oh no. As a human, I am here, and the affected parts of the system are still there. It will float.”

“It means being separated.”

“yes… … .”

I called the status window as a test.

[Accepting reward]

Really.

‘Come to think of it, even after I returned to my original body, there was no pop-up like ‘compensation received’.

Then I… It was as if he was still receiving the reward for ‘conversation with Moondae Park’.

In the end, this guy is maximally extending the ‘compensation period’ as a trick, but the limit is next summer.

‘after.’

I held my breath and organized the story in my head.

And I came up with the first solution. It was a similar idea to what I had thought before.

“I can do the mission again and get the same reward as now.”

The ‘Mission Constitution’ characteristic would not have suddenly disappeared.

Then, this time, wouldn’t it be enough if this guy received the mission with a reward for permanently using Ryu Gun-woo’s body?

However, the big moon shook his head.

“that is… Perhaps by the time I become a road status window, it will be difficult to separate myself as a human and enter the body like this.”

“why.”

“I feel that the part that has been assimilated with the system is getting stronger. It seems to have some effect even if it moves to another body.”

The big moon swallowed.

“Maybe when we go back, we will be fully united.”

“… … .”

I closed my mouth. The guy on the other side grinned.

“But bro, I’m really fine! There are still several months left. And even if it’s the status window, I’ll try to be able to talk to my brother… … .”

“No, be quiet.”

“yes?”

I rubbed my chin and concluded. It was clear.

“Let’s get rid of the system.”

“yes? Wait.”

“If the system disappears, I think part of the system that assimilated with you will also disappear…”

“It could be, but… No, guess that… .”

“I was trying to get rid of it in the first place. This system creates too many variables. It’s an industry with a lot to consider, but it’s getting in the way of my activities.”

“The system is canceled because it interferes with some activity!?”

I came up with a reasonable conclusion at best, but why is this guy freaking out?

Even hit the table to see what came to mind.

“Oh, come to think of it, hyung said something like that! With those regressors!”

“Regressor?”

“People who have returned to the past!”

You use professional names casually. Anyway, I nodded.

“that’s right. The system has been tracking it since before. You should have seen it in the status window as well.”

“that is… That’s it!”

The guy on the other side jumped up. And muttered with a slightly uneasy expression.

“brother… No, I think I really wanted to tell you that since the status window… .”

“what.”

“Don’t touch the system if you can. … .”

The big moon looked at me seriously. For a moment, I thought I had some kind of sympathy for the system, but I read a familiar feeling in his eyes.

It was fear.

“that… It’s really weird. This isn’t some kind of fantasy or sci-fi movie, is it weird? It’s like some kind of AI, and it’s also like a ghost… .”

“I heard you were also influenced.”

“So you know what you’re talking about!”

I meant that it was self-deprecating, but I screamed out loud.

“Actually, even if I had an influence, I don’t know what or how… You called the system a mental parasite. I really think so… … . Like a super-powerful supercomputer parasite… .”

“… … .”

“just… Can’t you do something like that? I’m kind of scared.”

After contemplating, I nodded.

“Um, I’ll consider it.”

“You mean you’re ignoring that?!”

The jjambab I was looking at on the status window didn’t go anywhere. As expected of him, I ignored his words. The guy was frustrated.

“really… I mean, it’s dangerous. I can’t really… .”

“Let’s ask one more question.”

“yes?”

I asked calmly.

“Is it possible to use the original status window function instead of this ‘receiving your reward’ window? Something like checking someone else’s stats or writing their traits.”

The guy on the other side rolls his eyes.

“that… I wonder how I can do it.”

“okay?”

“yes. I’ve done some of that. If you ‘connect’ to the status window and operate it… .

He forgot his frustration for a moment and fell into it. His expression disappeared as if he were concentrating.

It seemed like they were trying to hack.

Just in case, I lowered the status window and waited for him.

And after a while, his expression returned and he opened his mouth brightly.

“Brother, this is… !”

That was the moment.

smart.

door knocking sound.

And the door to the restaurant room opens softly. The big moon sat down immediately.

“Oh, I guess you were talking.”

Ryu Cheng-wu, who had left, returned.

I immediately checked his face. Calm down.

‘Did you hear?’

‘Ryu Gun-woo’ just called ‘Park Moon-dae’ his older brother.

Once the big moon doesn’t add useless noise, I… .

“yes yes! You are here.”

If you’re going to open your mouth, don’t be serious. No, don’t laugh awkwardly.

“It’s been a while since I met someone I used to know… I couldn’t speak well. Ha ha ha ha ha.”

no. At this level, he really looks like a successful longevity student who has spent several years replacing his social skills with studies.

I was rather relieved. And, of course, Ryu Cheng-wu just smiled awkwardly at him.

“Anyway, the test is a fight against oneself. I also had a similar experience… Oh brother, you are already good enough.”

Doesn’t this guy seem a bit pitiful?

“My me? thank you Actually, it’s strange that I got an interview… ha ha ha.”

“Please sit down.”

“Oh yeah.”

I immediately cut off the conversation and sat down. Eat some rice and shut up.

I’m going to organize some plans.

After that, without any problems, they each ate the noodles they ordered and talked about Testa.

Although Ryu Chung-woo was a little taken aback by the guy who boasted a fairly wide range of testa knowledge, from albums to concerts.

– You know very well. Are you studying for an exam and we are in the way? … .

-no. I gained a lot of strength… …

It was heartwarming, it was definitely heartwarming.

Looking at the guy who doesn't feel awkward anymore, Ryu couldn't avoid making a diagnosis like 'He seems to be a person who speaks well only in areas he's interested in'.

"Thank you for today."

"I was so grateful… !"

Anyway, after successfully exchanging numbers, we closed our seats. I parted ways and made eye contact with him.

'Details on the phone.'

'I'll definitely go to the concert!'

It doesn't seem to work very well, but there's no problem with texting, so it's okay.

Moreover, it seemed that Ryu Cheng-wu had completely hardened his impressions at the last minute when he even took the autographs of the two of us.

It's because I got into the car and started the engine and said this.

"If I had known it would be like this, I would have brought the other kids' autographs."

"Iknow, right."

done. Even if this is doubtful, I can understand the situation. I relaxed my shoulders and leaned against the backrest.

From now on, let's make a plan for him to keep his ass attached to Ryu Gun-woo's body… …

"It seems that Ryu Gun-woo's impression has changed a lot."

I stopped thinking for a moment.

“… … impression.”

Could it be that it reminded me of the memory of meeting me when I was young? Once I shut my mouth and search my memory, the explanation continues.

“Like when I saw it on that home video. You saw it too.”

“… Yes.”

Oh that. Home video of Ryu Cheong-woo’s house where I caught Ryu Kun-woo’s whereabouts.

I leaned back on the backrest.

“Originally, they say that humans are animals of the environment. It must have changed.”

“that’s right. yes?”

Liu Cheng-wu answered comfortably.

“however… Rather, I think it resembles you.”

“… !”

“The person in the video looks just like you.”

Liu Cheng-wu glanced back at me and gazed at the front again.

“… … .”

“If you don’t deliberately correct that, it won’t change very well. I know it well because I corrected it a lot while getting scolded for my posture and gait while archery.”

Liu Qingyu did not explain further. I knew from that attitude.

I am convinced of this baby.

And I missed the timing a bit to make a natural excuse.

-Left turn ahead 50M ahead.

However, after the words of the navigation system rang, Ryu Cheng-wu opened his mouth again.

“Is there a situation?”

“… … .”

“I have no intention of digging it out. Well, I just wanted to say that you don’t have to worry about whether you’ve been caught or have to deal with it. It’s no different from the last time I climbed the mountain.”

Ryu Cheng-wu added with a slightly embarrassed tone.

“I was worried about whether or not to talk because I was afraid it would make things awkward.”

“… … .”

“That’s all.”

And I realized

That this guy wasn’t trying to ask me for a convincing explanation, he just wanted to convey the words ‘I noticed the situation between the two of you’.

It is nothing more than that.

And that… Much more than I expected… No, it was an incredibly accepting attitude.

‘this.. Does that make sense?’

It is not an invitation to enroll in a psychiatric hospital, but an implicit understanding.

I inadvertently saw the guy driving.

You can see a strange tension disguised as tranquility, but you can see the underlying emotion.

It was a sense of security.

In other words, trust.

“… … .”

After the lights changed and the car stopped for a moment, Liu Cheng-wu opened his mouth again with a slightly embarrassed face.

“Well, I’m sorry if it was more burdensome because it was useless. that… Well, then I’ll call you by name.”

I opened my mouth.

“brother.”

“… ?”

“Just let go. It feels strange to hear such respectful words all of a sudden.”

Ryu Cheng-wu was surprised for a moment, but eventually turned the steering wheel with a smile.

“Haha is that so? I was a bit weird too.”

“yes.”

I thought about it and added briefly.

“and… thank you.”

“… what.”

Liu Chengwu looked straight ahead and seemed to smile a little. Then he shrugged his shoulders and said.

“Again, tell me if you need help.”

ah. okay.

I was in a bit of a good mood and opened my mouth.

“I have one now.”

“huh?”

“I would like to hear your advice.

In fact, the status window called up again around the time dessert was being served in the restaurant room was classified as a pop-up with the ‘Receiving Reward’ window.

And it was possible to use the existing functions through the main window.

‘good.’

According to Keundal’s own expression, ‘connection’ was successful.

And the reason I asked for this back is not simply to check the status windows of competitors while being active and to come up with countermeasures.

I meant to write another one.

[Characteristic: Mission Constitution (S)]

This is it.

And for each of the ‘reward’ candidates I came up with, the same mission content appeared.

That’s it.

[Mission: KPOP record breaking]

“What KPOP record can we break?”

Chapter 325

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 325

KPOP. A newly coined word that mainly refers to Korean idol music.

In fact, it is not a name given by itself in Korea.

'Perhaps the word has been around since the days of the Korean Wave.'

So, if the new mission is to 'break KPOP records', isn't there a high probability that only records that are recognized abroad will be recognized?

Status Window I asked for confirmation by text message.

[I've never thought of it that way, but I think it's true]

Oh, I guess it didn't get updated because I asked about it, even though it worked on any popular record.

I closed my smartphone with a prickly heart.

After returning home, I am sitting on the bed in my room.

Are you going well? As soon as the completed copy of the special stage choreography arrives, you have to go to the practice room. It's because the end of the year isn't such a fun season.

And likewise, the roommate who was sitting on his bed and waiting opened his mouth.

"If I have to break records, I will have to do better than all my predecessors in the end."

“Yes.”

He said ‘I’ll think about it’ from the car, and he seemed to be really thinking about it. What a sincere guy

The words that followed were characteristic of his personality.

“Why don’t we take a look at a new evaluation item recently? It’s easy for a new item to make a record.”

It was a realistic remark worthy of a person who has run as an athlete. I broke my jaw.

“Let’s see. First of all, there are tolerable records in Asia… .”

VTIC ate them all. X feet.

“haha. Did the seniors work hard?”

“yes.”

It really was. Even the Million Seller Dome Tour, which won first place for several weeks, has already set all the records.

Even while Testa focused on securing a domestic presence, VTIC even solidified its global presence… It can be seen that it was scratched and eaten.

“The same goes for South America.”

“okay.”

Previously, the neighborhoods where the K-pop market was a hit had outstanding records. Renewing this during next summer is a reckless challenge with only one live ammunition.

And it is not necessarily the records of the predecessors that are the only obstacles.

“Everyone is still working hard. Good grades.”

Globally, not only VTIC but quite a few groups have better grades than Testa.

Liu Cheng-wu nodded as well, probably remembering what he heard in the company briefing.

“Well, it is difficult. Even if you try your best to create a good stage, there is no guarantee that the result will be good.”

The entertainment industry is like that.

“okay. There are many similarities, but I think it’s a bit different from sports in this area.”

Liu Qingyu smiled bitterly.

“I tried to break records when I was a player, but celebrities don’t just win and lose… It seems to be very complicated that you have to win people’s hearts.”

“Iknow, right.”

I nodded and Liu Chengyu seemed lost in thought.

The atmosphere is flowing with a story that is deeper than expected. Better catch a little bit.

I slightly brought up the topic.

“Now that I’ve heard it, I’m also curious about what record you challenged before.”

“huh? haha. It’s not a big deal, it’s a challenge for everyone. Asian Games, World Championships, Olympic 3 Gold. Those are the kids who will try to do it as the youngest.”

“… … .”

3 gold?

I don’t know what kind of industry Korean archery is.

‘What kind of gold medal do you talk about as winning a regional league?’

The ecosystem over there is beyond common sense.

“You are wonderful.”

“It was great, but it failed. I was not selected as a starter at the world championships.”

Liu Qingyu grinned as if he was a bit embarrassed.

“Still, I got a record for being the youngest at the Olympics.”

“That is great enough.”

“Haha, will it break again soon? A lot of young friends came up to the selection finals… .”

“… !”

for a moment. Something seems to come out of those words.

‘The youngest.’

Suddenly, a new road flashes in my mind.

‘… yes. That kind of approach is possible.’

Not simply aiming for the best overall score, but subdividing the record items themselves in different directions.

To the extent that it can be used externally, towards ‘items that appear to be present’.

‘Okay, it came out.’

I’m going to have to grab a strand this way. I nodded.

“Anyway, I’ll think about your question some more. I’m sorry I can’t tell you anything useful right now.”

“No thank you. I think I got a hint.”

“… ? okay? If so, that’s good.”

His face was that he was not sure where he got it from, but Ryu Cheng-wu just laughed it off.

I added a word just in case.

“You can rest assured that we will never think of anything to the detriment of Testa’s common interests.”

“I’ve never been so worried… okay.”

Ryu Cheng-wu agreed to that extent.

It’s a plainness that is no different from the reaction I showed when I said ‘I have to ride the target’ last time.

“… … .”

Come to think of it, he didn’t even ask why I asked this until the end. It seemed like he guessed that it would be burdensome.

‘What kind of guys are there?’

Same goes for the car. Uncharacteristically, I was a little impressed by the situation, so I moved on and rubbed it in the cold… .

Come to think of it, I wonder how the hell this guy is understanding this situation.

‘He seemed like the type who didn’t believe in the supernatural at all.’

Aren’t ghosts the ones who don’t treat you at all?

No matter how much there was a bottom meal before, isn’t it too unrealistic to jump over with the trust in Park Moon-dae that he has been through?

‘It doesn’t look like he has other plans.’

I rubbed the back of my neck and just sighed.

oh i don’t know Let’s just ask.

“brother.”

“huh?”

“What I said in the car earlier… I was wondering how my brother was so sure of my situation.”

“… … .”

“Honestly, it seemed like nonsense.”

The proposition, ‘Ryu Gun-woo and Park Moon-dae switched bodies’ is true.

Liu Qingyu smiled shyly.

“Well, I actually tried to come up with another explanation… There were gaps in everything.”

“… … .”

“But at first, I wondered if the two of them were influenced by each other so much that they shared a lot as if they were one. I thought I should take that into account and treat it well.”

I remembered what he had suggested to me, ‘You can speak comfortably’.

‘Is that why?’

But the explanation did not end there.

“Then, I met ‘Ryu Gun-woo’ today… and realized it wasn’t there.”

Ryu Cheng-wu calmly concluded.

“They were very different. … As if they were swapped.”

“… … .”

“So, it reminded me of what you said on the mountain last time, like lightning.”

-just… I acted the way I did.

Liu Qingyu laughed.

“If you take it literally, everything you’ve been questioning will fit right in. cleanly.”

“… … .”

“Your knowledge, coping skills, things like trauma. And the reactions of you and Ryu Gun-woo on the spot.”

Liu Qingyu smiled bitterly.

“And why did you get angry with me and avoid me before… same thing.”

“… … .”

“It made so much sense.”

GNOME’s summer package.

Have you already thought about why I had seizures with your car accident story?

I kept my mouth shut and Liu Chengwu continued to speak quietly.

“At that time, it was like I understood you one-sidedly, but… In fact, you also looked at me a lot. yes? Sorry.”

“… no.”

I barely answered.

“It is absolutely right for me to apologize.”

Liu Qingyu laughed.

“Stubbornness seems to run in the family.”

“… … .”

“Anyway, that’s how I found out. Of course, I still don’t know the principle… It’s okay if you don’t know. You don’t have to listen to it.”

After all, this guy… It was based on reason and exercised instinctive judgment.

On top of that, since he’s such an easy-going guy, it seemed like the situation fit well and flowed smoothly all the way up to this point.

‘Besides, the value of the information was especially high after hearing it like this.’

In the end, I laughed too.

“It is embarrassing to hear explanations every time without being able to explain properly. thank you.”

“Because it’s okay.”

Liu Qingyu grinned, but his expression changed as if he remembered something.

“Well, come to think of it, that wasn’t the end.”

“yes?”

What else is there?

“actually… I even heard it myself unintentionally.”

Ryu Cheng-wu looked a little embarrassed.

“When I went out to talk on the phone at a restaurant earlier, I was standing outside the door trying to catch up on the timing before I came in… … .”

for a moment.

“… So maybe.”

“huh. He called you hyung very naturally.”

Are you confirmed there?

After all, it’s not wrong to have a sad premonition. Got it.

I felt a pull in the back of my neck at the situation I was concerned about, but it was soon gone.

‘Anyway, it worked out well.’

It’s like a phone call. Suddenly, I saw Ryu Cheng-wu.

and said abruptly.

“I wish you all the best in the future.”

“Haha, please take good care of me.”

I suddenly came to create an assistant who didn’t have to hide my identity.

And not long after, the door bursts open and other guys come in.

“Everyone~ The choreography is here~”

It was time to practice again.

“okay? for a moment.”

Liu Qingyu immediately stood up and said as if adding to me:

“Let’s come back and continue talking about that KPOP record.”

“yes.”

I think I can think about it alone, but I had to talk steadily unless I was going to act alone anyway.

So I nodded my head obediently, but the response came from another guy after Ryu Cheng-wu left.

It’s a big word.

“What is Moondaemun University’s KPOP record?”

“We were debating what we could target next.”

Anyone can see, isn’t it a productive idea to do with a leader?

“Oh~ You seem to have become much more comfortable with Chung Woo-hyung after you became roommates at the university?”

Big Sejin smiled. Then he deliberately pretends to cry.

“Hey, just the two of us went out to play, but Sejin is not the only one who feels left out… .”

How did you know this quick-witted bastard secretly went out?

“You were on the phone with the entertainment MC at the time, what?”

“Ah, when our main vocalist’s best friend Moondae called, he hung up and ran right away~” he said casually without spitting.

I was about to hit him on the back, but I hesitated at the momentary thought.

‘… Come to think of it, I said I would tell him if I could tell him about my circumstances.’

… Liu Cheng-wu already caught me first.

“… … .”

“Mundae?”

After all, should I voluntarily explain to this guy?

But this… I didn’t get caught, so I don’t know if it’s okay to say it openly. Is the risk too great?

Isn’t it possible to restart again if you said it yourself and failed to persuade?

Besides, this bastard has the personality to listen to everything from one to ten of what the hell is going on the moment he confides.

I’m worried that if I think about explaining it all to an idiot who doesn’t even know what the status window is, I’m worried that I won’t believe it or not.

I was silent for a moment, but then I held back a sigh and opened my mouth.

“… Then, when the time is right, let’s go out by ourselves.”

Still, if I get a chance, I’ll have to give it a shot. What Ryu Cheong-woo knows and only this guy doesn’t know, the moment he makes a mistake later, the picture becomes strange.

“… ! I finally want to get out of the house! Okay, okay~ I’ll take a look!”

no, dude

Keun Se-jin chuckled and patted my back, but I silently went out the front door with the members.

‘I have more work to do… .’

How to explain this unreal situation to that guy.

‘I decide this slowly while noticing.’

I put that thought aside and brought back the original worry.

‘So, to make the KPOP record breaking, which is the mission goal, even easier… .’

1. Pioneering new markets 2.

Subdivision of new evaluation items .

Then, even if the items are subdivided, the market is large enough to look authoritative, and the public awareness is good, and there are still pie left to eat… .

I unconsciously spit out an expected answer.

“USA.”

“Are we going to America?”

“no.”

are only candidates.

“Boo… .”

Cha Yoo-jin, who reacted like lightning, walked past me and got into the car with her shoulders drooping. Still, there is no difference.

‘It’s not just one or two cases of failure after entering the US.’

There are other things that need to be prioritized.

‘From the analysis.’

Starting from which market the testa will have an advantage in, it draws all the data values, builds a method, and enters.

I will never do anything to ram the head into the United States.

And to do that… I should be able to sleep as I want more with planning and activity plans.

I broke my neck.

‘It’s about time.’

And he remembered the contents of the contract he had renewed with the general manager.

-If Testa wins the grand prize at the annual awards ceremony during the following year, we fully support Testa’s establishment of a new independent label.

Here the subject has already been burned.

So the time has come to create an independent label for Testa.

Chapter 326

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 326

When I made a deal with the general manager, 'Establishing an independent label when winning the grand prize', there was a strict standard for the awards ceremony that I put as a condition.

It seemed difficult to achieve within the timeframe, so the company was trying to lower the alarm and get me to sign it.

-'Annual Awards Ceremony' refers to an awards ceremony held by a music source or music platform that broadcasts 70% or more of the sales figures in the music market that year.

And let's see what we rode.

It was received at an awards ceremony hosted by the music platform and reflecting up to 75% of sales figures.

'It's flawless.'

It is the achievement of conditions that cannot be disputed.

And there is a guy who said this before me.

"we… I can be independent now!"

As soon as the manager disappeared from the practice room today, Bae Se-jin shouted as if he had been waiting for it.

"It is also independent… ?"

“Are you leaving your house? Isn’t that independent?”

Of course, the reaction came back, asking what kind of dog is eating grass, and Bae Se-jin’s face turned red, but he stood firm.

“No, not that… I do not remember? Moondae Park came with the contract. If you ride our target, you’ll be able to set up a label!”

Well done. Another guy held the gun, so it became easier to talk. I nodded my head to those who looked back at me.

“that’s right. I asked for the dedicated team to be independent as a label and organized under it.”

“Ohhhh.”

“I have experienced and forgotten many things… .”

Most of them nodded their heads and gave a good response.

It’s been quite a while since the damn car accident, and his feelings toward the company have softened a lot, but there’s nothing to restore his ruined reputation.

“okay. Sejin brought out the words well. I need to talk to the company.”

“Hmm, that’s right. So, let’s talk right away when the manager comes back.”

However, not everyone agreed with this statement.

Keun Se-jin seemed to glance at Bae Se-jin and the mirror in the practice room a few times, and then spoke sadly.

“Ah~ that’s really nice, but once awards season is over, why don’t we talk about it? We have a lot to prepare now… .”

“What are you talking about, you have to say it right away when you can, so you can’t say anything else… !”

“… … .”

Sejin twitched his lips for a moment, but then spoke softly again.

“Think about it, bro. How many more places will we receive the Daesang this year?”

well yes

“There are many awards ceremonies early next year, and I don’t think the company can really say anything different if we talk about it after we get a few more grand prizes there and then organize it. I will definitely go~”

“Oh~”

Keun Sejin raised his thumb at Cha Yujin’s chuimsae and finished his words.

“So, right now, I want you to focus more on preparing for the awards ceremony. After all, the stage is the most important~ Of course, this is just my opinion.”

“… … .”

And Bae Se-jin, who was silent for a long time, opened his mouth to know what these words had touched.

“… It doesn’t mean that I will neglect stage preparation. I will work hard.”

“I mean that too… No, that’s not what’s important.”

You’re trying to be polite with the wrong people. I ended the conversation at that point.

“Speak a little earlier or later, let’s not strain each other over the difference.”

Isn’t there only one answer anyway? I crossed my arms.

“Because no matter what happens, I will set up a label and come out.”

“… … ”

“That’s right.”

“Cancer, that’s how we should be.”

what why

“hmm… So, shall we do it by majority vote?”

As suggested by Liu Cheng-wu, who came out to sort out the situation, the small dispute was neatly concluded with a vote.

The result was icing.

“It’s 4:3.”

The ones who voted for “let’s talk right now” were Bae Se-jin, Sun Ah-hyun, and Ryu Cheong-woo.

and… The winner was decided by one vote added here.

“Mundae is also right here, right?”

“Yes”

is me.

“… !”

Liu Cheng-wu immediately declared.

“There are more things to say right away. So, let’s go this way?”

“Sejin hyung’s words are cool! Over voting… .”

“Hey, what’s wrong with Eugene! You must surrender cleanly!”

Big Sejin smiled and raised both hands.

“All right. If that’s the team’s opinion, then what? Instead, everyone practices as hard as usual?”

“Of course!”

“of course.”

Practice resumed in such a warm atmosphere.

But after a while.

While I was going to the bathroom during practice, I was caught in a headlock by Big Sejin who followed me.

“Moondaemundae This is a betrayal… ! I have to deal with it properly one by one. What is this? Have you already talked to the company?”

The result is a piece of cake. This guy also pretended not to be and got mad.

I said as I barely escaped.

“Not like that.”

“or not?”

I rubbed the back of my neck and murmured.

“I just want these bastards to rip the label off… .”

“… … .”

No, even if it’s not because of the mission, it’s annoying to see the company’s management go back.

Crossing the line once or twice. Doing this every time was a skill.

Big Sejin let out a sigh.

“Yes, you can do that… .”

why? Oh, I was the most injured in a car accident, so I was able to return to normal.

‘If you think otherwise, it means that the other guy who said it won’t understand.’

Bae Sejin said.

I’ve heard from before that they’re slowly losing their strength, but especially during seasons where emotional and stamina consumption is high, such as at the beginning of the year or during active periods, it’s easy to tolerate the two of them.

Due to the collapse of the tacit order as a team for a long time, it was not the position of the strong one-sidedly as before, but there are new noises caused by being equal.

‘hmm.’

I tried to defend Bae Se-jin myself, but instead of ruining the atmosphere, I said a little roundabout.

“Don’t worry, we’ll adjust the stage preparations so there’s no problem.”

“know… But isn’t that something to worry about?”

Big Sejin sighed and walked.

“All in all, everyone is so impatient. Label independence is no joke, and the company won’t let it go easily… . What are you talking about in advance to give us time to deal with it… … after.”

yes that’s right You can’t just trust the contract, it’s good to have enough environment.

I honestly admitted.

“In fact, if you think rationally, your story is correct.”

“Hey, you should have said that earlier!”

Then the ticket may change, but it’s not a baby.

I know how you feel about that, though, so I gave my guess instead.

“The problem is that the company must have had that rational idea.”

“… … .”

Big Sejin kept his mouth shut for a moment, but soon opened his mouth with a face as if he had been hit in the back of the head.

“You already know.”

“yes.”

How could the company forget that people like us are secretly stepping out?

There must have been a related meeting at the moment we rode the Daesang.

“Then I think it would be more justifiable to speak sooner rather than later.”

“… phew.”

Big Sejin smiled bitterly.

“I’m going to be annoyed by the sluggishness.”

And just like that, things unfolded.

On the way back from practice, the story of ‘label establishment’ delivered through the manager came late the next day.

meeting right away.”

it’s cracking I snorted.

‘He’s starting with tricks right away.’

no. 1. buy time

First of all, they are trying to somehow delay the fulfillment period of the promise. In the meantime, I’ll be meeting with a lawyer.

While making offers such as ‘If you fill up the contract, I will put you in a label when renewing the contract’.

‘Because I didn’t specify the implementation period in the contract.’

The moment I wrote that down, it would be very annoying, so I left it out.

They may be threatened by citing the principle of good faith, but even if a label is established, it will be owned by T1 anyway, so here you have to be careful and push it in moderation.

‘You can’t look radical like you want to leave T1 at all.’

As an artist, you have to give the impression that you want to demonstrate your full potential.

“hmm… .”

I went back and forth in the hallway of the practice room, briefly organizing my thoughts. I was thinking of going in before the break was over.

It was then.

Click.

“excuse me.”

The guy who opened the practice room door and came out spoke to me. It's Bae Se-jin.

'what.'

He closed the door, looked around, walked towards me and muttered softly.

"… thank you."

"… ?"

"Thank you for agreeing with me!"

oh yesterday

Bae Se-jin exhaled and calmed down his excitement before continuing to speak quite seriously.

"I actually thought it wouldn't work. Maybe some people think I have no tact and can't grasp the situation… ."

Right.

Same with the company lawsuit, Bae Se-jin too often went through situations where his opinion was not accepted by the team.

"no. You and I had thoughts. Thank you for speaking up first."

"… okay."

Only then did Bae Se-jin loosen his face. It was a look that I was proud of.

'Is that why I have to take the time to say this… .'

Indeed, for a person who is sensitive to stage fire and straightforward, he is weak in supporting himself.

It's a style that is very easy to be robbed and eaten by scammers.

“… … hmm.”

for a moment.

“Why why?!”

No, that’s what I thought of when I saw it.

‘… I think I did something similar with Ryu Gun-woo’s body.’

When we met in front of the bathroom sink.

– I saw the stage well earlier. I think you always look really good.

I encouraged Bae Se-jin in a situation where he was not recognized.

‘I’m sure he’s not weak enough to be recognized or praised to the extent that he remembers the words he heard back then.’

I doubted it when I thought of a guy who was looking for something like ‘Bae Se-jin’s stage change angel’ on YouTube, but I soon erased my thoughts.

‘no way.’

No matter how much he gets scolded, he has so many fans that he becomes a testa. There can’t have been one or two such incidents.

Let’s continue what we were talking about.

“I just thought that it is true that label independence is not reluctant to see the company.”

“right… am i right? They’re doing this on purpose! Should I go out stronger… ?”

“wait a minute.”

I stopped the bastard.

“You don’t have to go hard on that side. just… You just have to move first.”

“… ?”

Actually, there is a method I just came up with.

‘Someday my relationship with the company was destroyed.’

It’s something I thought about before, but in the process of making our label, we shouldn’t increase the tension with T1 anyway.

However, what about ‘T1 Stars’, which is a subsidiary that hastily prepared to receive a testa, and if we become independent, its own sales will drop by less than half?

‘If there’s a cause, it’s X food.’

I smiled and opened my mouth.

“Brother, I have an idea.”

* * *

A few days later, ToneA, an awards ceremony hosted by T1.

After the stage in modern suits in front of a very antique fountain set, we received the award as scheduled.

Singer of the Year Award.

“Congratulations, Testa!”

Sprays of flowers and cheers Now it’s the second time, and the guys who have gotten used to it go up to the podium smiling brightly.

‘Honestly, if I didn’t know if I was going to receive this, it would be ridiculous.’

“thank you. It is a great honor to receive such a great award in front of ToneA’s KPOP listeners who are broadcasting live in 32 countries, and above all, I want to give this joy and gratitude to the lovers… .”

I passed by Kim Rae-bin, who breathed and spit out his thoughts, and listened to the other members’ comments, which I hadn’t been able to do before.

And when the prompt pops up in the end prompter at the end.

When everyone thinks their impressions are over.

“Thank you~”

“Thank you!”

I hurriedly grabbed the microphone with a bright face as if I had just remembered.

and screamed

“We are launching a label to commemorate our target!”

I’m sorry, but I didn’t include a confidentiality clause in your additional contract.

‘What should I do?’

It is enough to say that the terms of the contract have already been met.

“Wow!!”

“Please take good care of me~”

The members also smiled happily and added a word, as if they didn’t feel any discomfort with this statement at all. doing well.

‘good.’

Moreover, this save had an additional effect beyond just publicity. A level that the company can never correct.

‘I’m already looking forward to the reaction.’

“I would like to thank the company once again for helping me physically and mentally. I will promote with a better image. Thank you!”

I smiled and put the microphone down.

And from that evening, frightening articles began to appear.

Chapter 327

Episode 327

[Idol Testa of the Year (TeSTAR) ToneA Singer of the Year Award]

[‘202X ToneA’ Testa’s Steps to the Grand Prize]

[ToneA’s impressions of the Grand Prize… Testa “Let’s launch a label!”]

At first, the news of the target and the story of testa’s impressions were widely covered.

I don’t know, but there must have been many people who had already almost completed it and were preparing to press enter at the moment of winning the award.

If the content is high-quality, the article that is exposed first is more likely to get more views.

Even after that, at most, I wrote down what I said in my testimony and added it, pouring in for an hour or two.

However, the true taste of public opinion came into play only after the awards ceremony was over.

[Launch of Testa’s exclusive label, a new attempt at T1’s KPOP nurturing strategy?]

[T1’s new independent label for KPOP artists… Testa starts]

It was a reaction to Testa’s impression of being an exceptional target.

‘Why a label is launched.’

In fact, the separation of labels specialized for artists was not that rare anymore.

However, there was a difference in the reporting method.

It wasn’t announced at the company’s business level, but because the singer suddenly spoke directly in his acceptance speech.

It’s like a performance at an awards ceremony hosted by the head office.

‘T1 made up its mind.’

‘Looks like he’s going to do something.’

People who were interested in how the entertainment business worked smelled it as soon as they clicked on the article.

In addition, the reaction of the fans also played a role.

-Finally, finally, finally -The days of leaving our children at the subsidiary of X Small are over. Guys, I’m proud of it

.

Exclusive label before contract renewal season with -Do I dream?

“Push it properly.”

People who have had a lot of heartache because of the company who put in a lot of manpower, but fans who even heard the news of the label’s independence from the Daesang exploded in a good way.

As the melting pot of enthusiasm and excitement covered the comments and posts, even the public, not fans, were affected.

‘uh? Is this a big deal?’ do.

Thanks to this, a second movement took place.

it’s stock

[What do you all think about the news of Testa’s exclusive label this time?]

Can you see this as a good news for T1 Entertainment?

_____=

-Spacer, a male idol from the new season of < Azusa >, may have overlapping positions with Testa, so he is the only one for Testa. I gave you a label. It looks like a new plan will come out from next year.

-ㅋLooking at T1Stars’ sales this year, the reason for the exclusive label is clearly visible

. Good news. ㄴYou are correct. And overseas, if you catch domestic, it usually follows.

– T1 owns 100% stake in Testa Label, right?

-It’s not like I’m buying entertainment.. You look so sweet.

Rumors that ‘T1 has a big plan’ became a trend, and even reflected in the stock price to some extent.

Then, a few articles that analyze it again come up and spread like a fait accompli.

[Why did T1 Entertainment’s share price soar?]

[What are the advantages of being an independent label? T1’s new plan]

Now that it's at this point, T1, the parent company, wouldn't even bother announcing that it was 'first time in a while' on Testa's exclusive label right away.

If you don't do it, it will be interpreted as a bad thing and it will only be scratched.

And even if we become independent, T1 has nothing to lose. It's because it's a subsidiary anyway.

In the end, the agency lost the biggest card to use when teasing, appeasing, and bullying us.

'The subtle threat of asking if I want to get along with T-One doesn't work.'

Thanks to you, it turned out this way.

Three days after the award speech.

"The company said they wouldn't publish an article saying 'nothing has been done in detail yet'?"

"omg."

also.

Instead of taking a strong stand, the company slightly lowered its head and began to come out moderately. By asking our doctor.

'done.'

Now you are ready to voluntarily sit down for negotiations.

I nodded my head in deep satisfaction at Liu Chengwu's message.

Most of the members also responded that it was a bit ridiculous, but anyway, the fact that these bastards came out to communicate with each other out of embarrassment is a positive atmosphere.

Even Bae Se-jin raised his thumb and spoke with his mouth.

‘good job… !’

“… … .”

It sounds like someone who first heard and agreed to this method. I shook my head and nodded.

However, one of the members blushed and started to get angry.

“I think Joe was a bit too much… !”

“… ?”

… This is Seon Ah-hyun. suddenly?

He clasped his hand tightly and began to explain.

“At that time, you said something mean to Moondae… !”

ah. On the day of the awards ceremony.

right. On that day, they even called and said a few words to see if they couldn’t control themselves.

‘I think he said something like he was careless and lost his trust.’

I knew it would happen, but even if it did, it was just words, so I just listened to it and spilled it.

Still, in order not to get caught in the negotiations in the future, ‘You may have been embarrassed. I’ll tell you first and then we’ll talk.’ It was a gesture of apology.

In the end, it was said that the performance was no different from what was expected, but he must have paid attention to that.

Seonahyeon clenched her fists and said.

“I apologized for not saying anything… But that person doesn’t even apologize and tries to announce it as if it was a lie… I don’t think this should be the case.”

“I think so too. I’m not good at company. You must taste justice!”

Cha Yoo-jin agrees. I must have learned an idiom after watching a dubbed version of a hero movie a while ago.

Liu Qingyu seemed to be thinking deeply, then asked softly.

“Then what do you want to do?”

“I wish I could protest. With that majority vote… Oh, can’t I?”

“No, I am fine. Then I’ll vote.”

“… ??”

won’t you ask me?

With the exception of the person who was so insulted, a majority vote was put together to come to a conclusion.

The result is a neat affirmation.

Seon Ah-hyun said firmly.

“Let’s protest… !”

“… … .”

I nodded shyly.

“okay… I am grateful.”

“Oh no… ! Umm, what do you want to say?”

what words?

Looking around, everyone is implicitly expressing their intention to follow their opinions. It means you are looking at me with your mouth shut.

If so.

I shrugged.

“Then let’s just talk about it.”

“Yes?”

“That’s what you said.”

There was nothing more to add. I wrote an honest reply that reflected Seon Ah-hyun’s position.

To put it simply, here’s what it says:

– I was very embarrassed by the company’s request this time. The contract is obvious, but why are you trying to say ‘nothing has been done’? Were you thinking of not doing it?

-I apologized for what I said at the awards ceremony, thinking that the company might have been embarrassed by the press, but now I see that too.

-We naturally thought that the company would fulfill the contract and said it in our testimony, but we want to believe that it is not that, and it is not more angry.

To sum it up, it’s ‘Don’t be silly, give me a plan right away, bastards’.

“Then I’ll send it like this… !”

“Okay~~”

“I think we captured the regrets we felt well enough! You are amazing!”

Amid cheers from the members, Sun Ah-hyun delivered the information to the management of the company.

And the big Sejin bowed his head towards me and whispered.

“Wouldn’t that work?”

“It doesn’t work.”

When the agency saw that, it suddenly came to its senses and from tomorrow it said, ‘Sorry! We will promote label independence right away!’ can you say the same thing

It just makes me feel worse and more irritable.

‘I’m angry because something doesn’t go the way I want.’

In the meantime, since we have to appease us, we have to be more upset and soothe us, so we can’t show off in a way that we neglect our care.

A situation where I suddenly became a loser in every way.

A dead end road that cannot be moved in any direction.

I chuckled.

“But in situations like this, mistakes usually happen.”

“… … .”

Big Sejin looked at me without saying a word and then patted me on the back.

“Mundae, our testa, let’s go for a long time. No, we are testers for life. know?”

“That’s it.”

I laughed out loud.

It felt so good to be recognized. And it was quite pleasant to be able to comfortably say yes to that statement.

And if things go according to plan, even better.

A few days later, as expected, the agency had a huge accident.

It was a fight with T1 Entertainment, the direct parent company.

* * *

The agency, which failed to persuade neither the parent company nor Testa, lost the power to speak on its own.

However, I couldn't just sit around without expressing my position. Because the fans also started to help out in unison.

-Why didn't the agency say anything

? -It's kind of like that because the article just said that they haven't made an official statement

yet

. It seemed like they were going to send a protest truck to their agency.

Well, and looking at it at this time, it seems that my announcement also played a part in raising the buzz among the fans.

It seemed that the people who were talking their own way behind the scenes guessed 'why did Park Moon-dae say that'.

-Looking at the slutty microphone, I think the label X invested a lot of money hahaha -Is he the CEO or something

? I was swept away by major Iranian public opinion and ate a lot of swearing, but originally the controversy increased the amount of comments.

Moreover, since even these negative words are based on the premise that ‘Testa’s label will be amazing’, everyone who heard the news naturally came to think that way.

‘It’s a topical business that money can’t buy.’

So in the end, T1 Enter itself asked for this rice cake.

[The new vision of KPOP proposed by T1, “From the launch of an artist-specialized label”]

They published an article first.

In fact, it was a declaration that T1 Stars had absolutely no intention of helping T1 Stars to let go of Testa.

And did the executives of our agency give up after seeing this?

no. Hearing the rumors, it seems that his eyes were turned upside down and he sent a rather tough position statement to the parent company.

‘It was a stupid decision.’

Normally, I wouldn’t have done such a thing, no matter how stupid I was, but because I was buried in this contract issue for several days, I made a mistake in my judgment.

The statement, which was not properly reviewed, went to the parent company… .

The agency’s executives were properly taken as guilty of this matter by the high-ranking people of T1.

the result?

“… So if I do well, I think I will be independent early next year.”

What is it? It’s a declaration of surrender.

-oh my god!!

The guy who appeared on the video call screen of his smartphone flashed his eyes.

Since the acceptance speech at the last awards ceremony, I am curious about the situation, so I am in the process of solving my curiosity.

Originally, I was going to make a phone call, but I tried to check the status of this baby and proceeded with a video call.

‘Fortunately, there are no other signs yet.’

He is receiving training well and seems to be healthy.

– Isn’t it too cold there? It looks like a veranda… .

I chuckled. Come to think of it, the things I do to avoid the members seem to come here every time.

And in fact, it’s okay to make a video call with a screen the size of the palm of your hand.

“are you okay. The house is expensive, so the draft here is well blocked.”

-and… What a relief. really nice!

“okay.”

I shrugged.

– And congratulations to the label. As a fan, I’m really looking forward to the next album… .

Keun-dal, who uses the body of ‘Ryu Gun-woo’, began to express his feelings, and I listened to them silently.

It was then.

There was a popular chuckle from the side.

drooling.

“Park Moon University company contacted me..!”

“yes?”

When I turn my head, I can see Bae Se-jin, holding a smartphone in her hand, hurriedly open the veranda door and come in.

‘what.’

company contact?

I tried to talk to him after removing one of the earphones I was wearing, but Bae Se-jin moved first.

He suddenly started pointing at my smartphone.

“… ?”

“Uh… uh huh??”

As if you recognized someone.

“… … .”

-Bro bro?

Chapter 328

If I Can't Debut, I'll Get a Deadly Disease Episode 328

Certainly, I've met Bae Se-jin in the body of Ryu Gun-woo.

'At most, it's all about cheering in front of the sink to get out of the situation.'

There were times when I doubted whether Bae Se-jin remembers the experience impressively.

However, I never doubted that he would remember Ryu Gun-woo's appearance.

There must be tens of thousands of fans who have seen this guy's face, but he remembers the face of a fan he's only seen once? The one who even wore a hat?

However, if you point with your finger and exclaim, it means 'I know you'. There is no doubt about it. I have a face.

'after.'

Still, I guess I couldn't hear the bizarre situation where 'Ryu Gun-woo' called me hyung because I was wearing earphones. good.

As soon as I guessed the situation, I immediately opened my mouth. naturally.

Talk to the guy in your smartphone.

"Brother, I will contact you again."

-Uh… ? uh… .

You can't let Bae Se-jin ride the flow. Cut it off once and let it go.

However, Bae Se-jin moved first. He grabbed my arm and sighed.

"you… I found you!"

"… !"

"That…is that the guy you saw in the video?"

In that moment, I understood the situation correctly.

'ah. Was it that way?'

right. I remember now Bae Se-jin accompanied me when I checked Ryu Chung-woo's home video.

I must have remembered seeing it carefully several times back then.

… Or I remember doing crazy things like breaking into a co-worker's home on holiday night and rummaging through family videos.

I barely answered.

"… … yes. He is the older brother."

"also!"

Bae Se-jin looks at 'Ryu Gun-woo' on the screen with knowing eyes.

'Even so, he has good eyesight.'

The home video was filmed when I was quite young, and the contents inside have changed, so the impression would be different, but I managed to find out.

-excuse me… Shall I say hello?

no, stay still

I took Bae Se-jin's question while glancing at the screen.

"How did you find it?"

"Because there is someone in Chungwoo hyung's family that I have contacted."

In order to prevent more questions and answers from saying unnecessary things, he explained the situation in more detail.

Let's finish with this.

"You know, when the two of us went out for a short break a few days ago. Then we met and exchanged contact information."

"Hmm yes."

That… It looks like he didn't even know that Ryu Cheng-wu and I went out that day.

'Well, he's not even that big.'

Even though Cha Yoo-jin is my roommate, he's the one who doesn't come out of the room often.

In any case, the situation seemed to be entering a calming phase. I nodded and opened my mouth.

"I was going to tell you the news because hyung went with me to check Chungwoo hyung's home video. thank you."

"that… no. what did i do Anyway, it went well and uh… Let me know if there is anything I can help with… ."

Bae Se-jin started talking gibberish and soon acted very socially.

He said hello as soon as his eyes met Ryu Gun-woo in the screen.

“So this is you… … Hello.”

-yes? yes… !

Even if he answers, I can only hear it in my earphones, so why are he saying hello together?

-Ah, even if I say this, you can’t hear me over there, right?

I guess now you know

“… What are you talking about?”

“wait a minute.”

Anyway, it would be neat if we exchanged greetings briefly and then hung up.

I deliberately looked at the screen and spoke clearly.

“brother. I couldn’t get through the conversation… If you don’t mind, I’ll unplug the earphones now.”

It means prepare.

-… I get it!

His tone changed, probably because he thought he wouldn’t make a mistake this time. And his expression changed… Are you following me?

The guy pulls the power out of his face and speaks in a firm voice.

-hello. This is Gunwoo Ryu.

doesn’t fit

“Yes, I am Bae Se-jin, who is on the same team as Moondae.”

As soon as communication started, Bae Se-jin returned to his true self, as if the first greeting was a lie. You are covering your face for a while.

Still, it is welcome that the atmosphere has calmed down. It was because the guy on the screen also greeted me politely enough to be excessive.

It’s a good sense of distance. Let’s go like this.

-yes. Testa is cheering for you a lot. Congratulations on the target.

“… … thank you.”

However, Bae Se-jin replied a beat late, then with a strange expression, he got away from the smartphone camera and whispered to me again.

“… Does that person work in broadcasting?”

“… … ?”

what kind of nonsense

“no. why?”

“just… Somehow, the face looks familiar… … .”

Bae Se-jin stopped talking and stared blankly at the guy who was still copying me on the screen.

“… … .”

It’s a very significant sign.

I opened my mouth right away.

“Hyung, then see you next time… … ”

“Wait.”

Bae Se-jin raised his hand and spoke in a tone that he wanted to go to Gingamin.

“Have you met me years ago… It was a performance hall, and we talked about autographs in front of the sink… .”

“… !”

no, no surprise Let’s calm down.

‘I’m not sure.’

As the situation overlaps, it is to check once to see if a flashing thought occurred.

And that guy on the screen didn’t do it anyway. You can answer ‘I don’t know what you’re talking about’ without much remorse… … .

-Uh… ! in that bathroom… … .

“… … .”

why are you so excited there?

‘You’ve experienced the same resonance, is this?’

I watched the two excited guys with cold eyes.

On the screen, ‘Ryu Gun-woo’ reacted excessively, and thanks to this, Bae Se-jin was immediately convinced.

“..!! also!”

-Wow, I was wondering if you would remember… .

“… Of course I remember. I was really grateful for that.”

Bae Se-jin seemed to be a bit conflicted, but eventually added another word.

“many… It gave me strength. Thanks to that, I found a lot of good stories.”

-Hmmmm, that’s right.

What are you proudly squinting your eyes at?

It was absurd, but he continued with a slightly excited tone.

-I think I would have been very happy to hear it… !

“… … “

Ryu Gun-woo at that time?

I hope this guy didn’t meet the cold… .

‘Did it mean that I had to listen?’

I was speechless and looked at his screen.

The big moon is twitching the corners of its mouth with a happy face, perhaps forgetting to manage its expression. Bae Se-jin seems to be embarrassed and clears his throat from the side.

“Hmm yes. I am also happy to greet you like this. I couldn’t even sign it back then… .”

“… … .”

yeah what… It’s a good thing that something insignificant has helped Bae Se-jin in the past.

It’s not a big deal, it’s a small joke, so it might be better to wrap it up here and move on than to realize it later and make a fuss.

I smiled.

“I decided to give you a signed album when the next album comes out.”

“Oh, well, that will work.”

-I’m really looking forward to it… .

“It is an honor.”

The atmosphere is slightly relaxed. To be precise, Bae Se-jin alone began to let go of his shyness.

‘It looks like they’re chatting like this.’

There might be loopholes in the conversation any more, so I organized the conversation this time.

“Hyung, I heard that tomorrow is also training. I guess I wasted too much time.

-… ! that’s right Sorry, let’s go in.

“Ah yes. that… yes. thank you.”

Big moon quickly recognized the signal this time, and the call was over.

Tiriling.

Staring at the disconnected screen, Bae Se-jin muttered with a mysterious face.

“… You were a real fan of our group.”

“… … .”

Wouldn’t it be weird if I didn’t ask here?

“Do you two know each other?”

“It’s not like we met… As a fan, I’m cheering you on… … … No, I didn’t know you were the person I was looking for until now because I looked at you for a few seconds! I know I'm looking for you, but I didn't tell you on purpose… ."

"I guess so. I don't remember the face of every person I meet."

"That's right."

Bae Se-jin sighed with a slightly relieved expression.

"still… that's interesting. You and I both got help from the same person… I didn't know that we could have something in common like this. I also think that human connection is real."

"Iknow, right."

"Kuhm… It's a bit strange to hear that the person who said such a good thing in the beginning is still cheering for me… ."

"It must be because my brother has been doing well in the past."

"Is that so? Hmmm, not so much… thank you."

"What."

Bae Se-jin seems to be net excited now.

"Isn't it nice to say that in entertainment? is not it?"

"… … ."

let's go there

"There is also a way to keep it as a memory among us. More than that, the reason you called me… ."

"iced coffee!"

Only then did the guy's complexion change and he got to the point.

“That’s right, I got a call from the company… !”

hmm.

‘The type of contact that Bae Se-jin will run to find me?’

It’s not like you’re trying to overturn the declaration of surrender. I crossed my arms.

“Your agency?”

“It’s not that company… The company above it!”

Bae Se-jin shouted with a slightly excited face.

“I got a direct call from T1 Enter!”

“… !!”

It was the parent company’s appearance.

I followed Saejin Bae into the room. A few people gathered in the room ahead of him, as if Cha Yu-jin had also been ordered.

“I came home!! As you warned, we got out quietly without being noticed by anyone on the AR Team!”

“That’s right.”

When Kim Rae-bin, who had gone to the studio for the last time, also joined, the briefing finally began.

“Nothing else, I have an offer.”

“A suggestion?”

Liu Cheng-wu explained briefly.

T1 Entertainment sent an email directly without going through the agency. The opinion of the board of directors was sent directly to the person in charge who talked about the problem of the dedicated team last time… .

I rubbed my chin while listening to the words and summarized them in a light sentence.

“therefore… It means they’re going to take us out as a direct label.”

“yes.”

Not under their subsidiary, T1 Stars, but as a direct affiliate of the real T1 ENT.

‘You’re crazy.’

It was an incredibly generous offer. It is said that they even sent a plan to reorganize the settlement structure and explained how profitable we were.

“Then, where is your current agency?”

“There was no mention of it.”

It was worth it.

‘They’re just X’s, so I wrote them down myself.’

Originally, even if you set up a label, planning and activities would be carried out independently anyway, and the accounting structure such as sales processing would belong to T1 Stars.

‘It means that our sales will continue to be captured by this agency.’

Because it is an affiliate label.

However, if this happens, the relationship with the agency will come to an end.

Literally transfer.

Even we will carry all the dedicated teams, so the company will be hit hard because there is an emergency.

However, there is no need to worry about retaliation as the parent company is raising its fist behind the scenes.

“if it goes like this… It’s coming out of that agency!”

“Oooh~”

The perfect breakout timing that could only be dreamed of.

Maybe it was a cool situation, but there are already people clapping their hands… .

‘hmm. It’s not good.’

I twitched my eyebrows.

This is an unconventional Daewoo High School, and anyone interested in the entertainment industry will judge Testa as the enemy of T1, and it is a big deal change.

so that’s the problem

‘Don’t get too involved with the T1 image.’

T1, like a large company that runs an octopus-eating business, is said to have trashed its image.

Even in the culture business, there is a lot of talk about ‘ruining the industry’s ecosystem’ with a strategy to suck up aggressive KPOP represented by the Tnet channel.

By the way, such a business signboard image that T1 grabs and pushes each?

It’s the worst if it sticks.

‘It’s not just about benefiting from large companies, it’s about becoming the main player in T1’s entertainment business.’

Even at the Rookie of the Year award, they said that they were tyranny of a major broadcasting company, but there is a high probability that T1 will join us whenever T1 is fooling around.

If something happens in the future, it’s perfect for being framed as the strong perpetrator.

‘That’s not all.’

There is one most important reason.

‘… We shouldn’t get caught in the image as if the company is entirely on our side.’

In business, not everything can suit everyone’s taste. Obviously a problem arises.

It was the same with the idol business.

Then, when a problem arises, there is also a place of responsibility… If the company starts by feeding us well and respecting us, then we end up taking all the aggro.

-T-One did T

-One -Ah b*t let my kids

go

-LOL.LOL..Guys, please do it right

.

The number of people saying this is increasing. Absolutely not.

‘T1 must be an image that does not align with our interests.’

The moment this is broken, even if the company makes a mistake, they think the same as the idols, and instead try to protect them more than enough, or even bring the idols together and blame them.

It is a handshake in the long run.

"… … ."

"What do you all think? I am… I think I'm fine!"

"Me too."

The problem is, I don't know if I can properly convince these guys who are already excited just because I think so.

'Honestly, the reason is a bit dirty.'

Isn't it true that people say that we should make the company blame everything on us, but we shouldn't make it difficult.

I see at least three guys who won't be persuaded by these words.

'… It would be perfect if there was an emotional cause.'

At that time, Kim Rae-bin quietly muttered with a drooping voice next to him.

"Then, some members of the AR team will completely change their affiliations and break up… … ."

this bastard… well spoken

This is it.

"Um, can't we just bring them all?"

"That will be difficult. I don't think the agency will come out so lightly."

I answered as if I was deliberately conclusive.

“Even if we take out a dedicated team, it would be a huge blow to the agency, but it would be difficult to get other people out.”

“Um… .”

“Well then… What about those who can’t go together?”

“You will be working in a more difficult environment than before.”

Kim Rae-bin’s face turned pale. I crossed my arms.

“But we don’t have to be forced to stay for them. Because everyone lives their own lives.”

“yes… … .”

It was then. Seon Ah-hyun carefully raised her hand.

“There… .”

“huh.”

“Then why don’t we just stay here and drive out all the bad guys? Is it impossible… .”

I answered calmly.

“Ugh. Also… .”

It was then. Ryu Cheng-wu opened his mouth.

“By the way, can’t you make me stop doing bad things in the future?”

“… !”

“Right?”

Surprisingly, this also makes some backups. I nodded.

“That works.”

“Oh, I like that. Fight!”

Cha Yoo-jin immediately changed his stance. It was like a guy. And Bae Se-jin muttered.

“Not bad… .”

okay. I thought this would be your taste too.

“Then let’s consider this as well.”

A pretty good response came back.

‘Okay.’

I clasped my hands.

“Then, until everyone is completely convinced of one side… Let’s wait for the timing.”

“period?”

“Since the conversation has already progressed, I think it will be okay.”

I turned to the guy sitting next to me.

Big Sejin.

“Like he said last time, if everyone is gifted, our right to speak will be greater.”

“… !”

That is, until the other guys get their most restless.

Big Sejin opened his eyes wide and then smiled.

I laughed along too.

“Let’s wait until then.”

Testa then received a total of 32 award trophies during the awards season at the beginning of the year.

And 5 of them were grand prize trophies.

Our deal started moving at that point.

Chapter 329

“Congratulations.”

“Congratulations.”

In January, I bowed my head and said hello to a senior I met in the hallway of the Gold Disc Awards.

It was one of the last awards ceremonies to wrap up the season of the year, but unfortunately it did not receive the grand prize here.

‘There was no possibility in the first place.’

It’s because there are only two parts, like a record sound source knife. There was no singer award that was different from the overall score.

Again, the result is obvious.

‘Youngrin and VTIC shared one.’

okay… . This bastard who greeted me right now.

Cheong-rye smiled brightly.

“From the best group to the best performance… You’ve won a lot of good awards. The fans must have great passion.”

No matter how much you rub it, it means that you can’t get the target if you cut it sexually.

“yes. I think it’s because we worked hard and the fans voted passionately. Although I can’t compare it to the grand prize of seniors’ albums.”

It means that those who were pushed back from voting are talking a lot.

“haha.”

“ha ha ha.”

I had a good laugh with him. The staff in the hallway pass by watching with warm eyes.

Cheong-rye stopped laughing, changed her expression and asked.

“hmm… Did you organize the ‘feelings’ that you hear when you meet?”

Oh yes.

I decided to talk to him one more time about what I had experienced while entering the body of ‘Ryu Gun-woo’.

‘Both of us were filthy busy during the season, so we didn’t really have a chance.’

I stopped fighting and cleaned up.

“I have found the person I was looking for. We are going to help with what we were originally trying to do.”

“aha.”

Cheongryeo’s eyes narrowed.

“It would be fun to meet you once.”

“When the opportunity arises.”

I found ‘big moon’ and seemed to understand the meaning behind that it would help with system processing.

‘At this point, this would be appropriate.’

It’s not something to talk about in an open hallway. It was enough for this bastard to not come out uncooperatively in the future work.

Cheong-rye smiled.

“I wonder how he can help. Are there any other problems?”

“A problem.”

“yes. I heard that you are setting up your own label. It’s more complicated than you think.”

Judging by the way he speaks, it seems that he already knows everything about the conflict between T1 headquarters and the agency.

“is it so?”

“yes. I am only focusing on reaping good results by working harder next year.”

In the end, the goal is to clear the ‘KPOP record breaking’ mission.

Of course, taking away the album target from those bastards is the best.

I shrugged.

Of course, if it’s this kid, it’s like, ‘Oh… It’s going to be difficult,’ and they’ll try to scratch the inside of people again.

I looked at him, preparing to retaliate.

However, Cheong-rye only muttered with a normal face.

“hmm… is it so. Good luck.”

“… … .”

“what… It might be a little easier this year.”

what?

“Mumundae!”

I heard a voice calling me from behind, but I stared at Cheongnyeo.

But he just shrugged his shoulders and turned around.

“… You say it’s easy?”

“You say you work hard? See you again when the time is right.”

That was it.

‘What kind of ulterior motive?’

Isn’t this the guy who rushed like a poisonous snake to the sexual story this year? It’s not like I’m not confident in my next grades.

strangely… I feel a sense of excitement.

Why is a bastard who only serves half a year in the army like that? I looked at the back of his head awkwardly, then looked away.

‘Should I look for some VTIC rumors behind the scenes?’

I don’t know if it’s a good thing, a bad thing, or a mood.

“Sorry for saying goodbye.”

“Oh no no.”

Seon Ah-hyun, who approached, saw Cheong-ryeo returning with a slightly nervous face, but soon looked back at me and smiled.

“I was meeting and saying hello to senior Youngrin over there… !”

“okay? let’s go.”

“Yes!”

I followed him down the hallway.

Turning the corner, another grand prize winner was smiling.

“Mr. Moondae.”

“Seniors.”

It is Youngrin who received the digital music award the day before at the awards ceremony, which was divided into two days.

However, at the music awards ceremony today, I received the Bonsang and participated. And even sang a song.

‘I usually only attend one day to receive the grand prize.’

It was a rare and sincere attitude.

“Now it is really a new year. I hope the testers will show great performance next year.”

“I will work harder.”

Youngrin smiled lightly, but the dancers behind her began to sob and sob. what?

Perhaps noticing their gaze, Youngrin introduces the dancers.

“They are new friends from my agency next year. Let’s say hello.”

“hello!!”

It seems that he was written as a dancer as a kind of stage experience. It's common.

Seon Ah-hyun looked at it with a happy face and spoke to Young-rin in a small voice.

"I must be a junior whom I cherish very much… ."

"Does it look like that? you're right. I am in charge of producing."

"Seniors… ."

The trainees, Youngrin and Sunahyeon are creating a very warm atmosphere. Of course I have no intention of wearing it.

'If it's young-rin producing, it'd be nice to have one great song.'

I sorted out the information about the prospective rookie in one place and broke up with Youngrin.

Returning to the waiting room, Seon Ah-hyun touched her hand as if it were new.

"We are already seniors too… ."

"yes. I am no longer a rookie."

As the new year approaches, Testa is already in her 5th year.

Since it's been 3 and a half years since debut, you can say that you've taken off your rookie mask. Now we have to keep in check those who are slowly coming up.

'I have two direct subordinates.'

I thought of two groups of juniors from < Azusa >.

In the future, our actions will determine whether or not we will continue to be 'directly under'.

Will you escape this agency and go directly to T1? Or will you stay and grab it?

“hmm.”

In fact, it was as if the conclusion was reached the moment Rabin Kim’s opinion came out.

‘There are so many members who are attached to the people of the planning team and the AR team.’

Aside from the decision makers of the agency making people angry, I can’t help but feel sorry for the hard work of the staff who sees their faces every time.

It’s even worse for guys that age.

As awards season wore on, I could see the kids considering the latter.

It was the same with Bae Se-jin. He seemed to be struggling with various aspects of this and that, and finally came to this conclusion during last night’s practice.

-If it has the same effect, it might be better to stay. I guess that would be a better lesson.

It was a moment of de facto unanimity. I smiled and opened my mouth.

“Seon Ah-hyun.”

“Yes?”

“If you stay here, who do you want to shut up first?”

“I’ll shut this mouth… ??”

You look bewildered. However, Sun Ah-hyun soon regained her composure.

“Rather than shut this mouth… I wish I could be more considerate of the people I work with and not bully them… . So do we, the other staff members, and the idols… .”

“okay.”

Do not mentally harass members. Please treat me personally

That’s right… That’s a good reason.

I grinned.

“That’s a good word.”

“Thank you… !”

A few days later, we won the only grand prize at the last awards ceremony, the ‘Korea Music Awards’, and reaped the beauty of the end.

And the moment they entered a short break before the tour, the agency finally began to bend their backs.

My heart would be different, of course.

* * *

‘The vulgar bastards… … .’

The general manager was sitting at his desk, shouting inwardly a vulgar curse that he did not normally do.

There was only one reason.

This is because the performance was ruined at the most important timing because of the tantara cubs who did not even have blood on their heads.

‘Do you think it’s thanks to you that you’re selling well? It’s all thanks to the product quality created by the company!’

Didn’t he even receive the grand prize thanks to his numerous financial support and quick decision-making?

He was thinking of adding that target performance nicely to his portfolio and stepping down for a new business!

After that, can’t we just take care of the label or whatever?

I was just thinking of handing over the process to the next person in charge without making any gestures while I was here… .

‘X-footed things! I can’t stand it because I don’t know patience!’

It was hard to believe that he had been put in such a mess because he made such a fuss about winning his first grand prize.

Especially the guy who exploded during his acceptance speech.

Moondae Park.

‘A bully who only rolls his hair.’

I should have known from the time I started playing tricks with additional contracts.

It was clear that he could only use such low and vulgar means because he did not go to school properly and did not learn. It’s kind of like instigating a witch hunt.

The general manager huffed and put his hand on the Bluetooth keyboard.

Anyway, now that I fell out with the parent company because of the stupid board members, the cards I could use were limited.

But at the same time, even to that extent, on the contrary, hope shimmered.

‘If you settle here, it will be a blessing in disguise.’

This is because Testa is still dragging on the offer from T1 Headquarters instead of shouting ok.

Clearly, there is fear and reluctance to make a fresh start among themselves.

And in this situation, even if you just sit these guys at the label here, you can leave as a competent general manager in terms of financial statements… .

‘I’ll stab you here!’

He threw away various specialized English words and leisure that he used to use.

Instead, he prepared a letter to send to Testa in a serious and candid tone.

[To the artist testers.

I am cautious about writing because I think you must have been very hurt by the recent events.

What I can say for sure is that I have been thinking countless times about the incidents that have hurt you…

…]

‘The company lacked consideration.’

‘But there are numerous communication errors and misunderstandings.’

‘Please hate me and don’t hate the staff.’

Acknowledgment of wrongdoing, apology, clever excuses, and 4-step apology of emotional appeal worked well everywhere. He banged on the keyboard like he was going to fly.

[Of course, if you leave, this agency will take a big hit. I know it can’t be helped, but the only thing is that the people at this company who worked for you had no bad intentions…]

Even emphasizing the working staff.

As a person with a lot of experience in various businesses, the general manager picked out Testa's weakest psychology with surprising accuracy.

And as if responding to that wonderful stab, the reply came the very next day.

"… !"

It was a document delivered to Testa's leader, Ryu Cheong-woo.

[I read the message you sent me well.]

The text that started like that consisted of uncomfortable feelings, a polite refutation of his writing, and a bit of depression.

[You didn't want to keep the contents of the contract, but how can we give you more trust. I'm not sure.]

'That's right!'

It is true that these are in conflict!

Once the reply came, there was already room for this refusal in that there were no sarcasm or personal attacks.

He wrote again himself. It felt like my head was on fire with passion.

'It's not that I didn't want to keep the contents of the contract. It's embarrassing, but it's the end of the year, so the company doesn't have enough manpower… .'

A few letters came and went like that.

There was also an attempt to meet in person, but Testa canceled the meeting on the pretext of schedule.

The general manager keenly caught that point.

‘It’s shaking.’

Originally, when people hear voices and face to face, they are bound to tell deeper stories.

that’s what’s scary The anxiety of being persuaded!

‘I’m really here.’

He analyzed Testa’s writings and read their desires amazingly.

And I threw a bait that would satisfy it in the next writing.

‘Independent label staffing OK.’

‘This… I can approach it through the integrated management of the management office.’

‘If I talk about organizing a direct AR team, I have no choice but to come over.’

So every time he sent a letter, Testa’s reply became more and more emotional.

‘good!’

Pass. There was also the pleasure of clearing one level of the game stage.

And finally.

In the fifth letter, Testa accepts the meeting.

“after… !!”

A feat accomplished in one week.

The head of the division prepared for the meeting with a clear mind, sending a message to the board of directors, saying, “Progress is positive.”

‘The moment it comes out, it’s over.’

Last time, the guy who was in a coma dragged the lawsuit and all to a very low level, and it was just a problem.

To him, originally, coaxing guys in their early and mid-twenties wasn’t even an orderly thing, he thought.

“hello.”

And the only person who appeared on the day was the leader, Ryu Cheng-wu.

“I consulted with the members, and they said it would be better for me as the leader to be seen as the representative, so only I came out.”

“Oh, you see.”

It was better.

‘It’s the best setting.’

I have already told the staff that I am a guy who only works out and has a docile personality to avoid unexpected situations.

A predictable model like this is the best persuasion, but even alone.

The head of the headquarters had considered the fact that the madman would appear.

‘Perhaps those guys cut it on their own line.’

He was overly impulsive and had no occasion, so he was not allowed to come to such a place where he should have a serious conversation.

‘That means this position is important to me.’

It seemed that the highlands were already in front of me. The general manager started the conversation by offering coffee to Ryu Cheong-wu, who put down his umbrella.

“A latte?”

“thank you.”

After a short conversation about taking care of yourself, the main topic came out in a soft atmosphere.

Liu Chengwu said in a low voice as he grabbed the glass.

“There are many differences of opinion among us. exactly… There are more people who want to go out, but there are members whose attitude has changed a little while talking with the general manager.”

“is it so. I’m really curious about what you like the most.”

“that… .”

Ryu Cheng-wu seemed to be conflicted, but sighed several times.

‘Hurry up and open it!’

And it was only when the head of the headquarters burned out that he opened his mouth again.

“After all, I still have trust issues.”

“Trust me.”

“yes. We’re lucky enough to make a label, but if it were other idols, we wouldn’t have been able to. doing… That kind of doubt.”

Ryu Cheng-wu smiled bitterly.

“This is true, but there are members who think that the general manager’s explanation is nothing more than words. I am very interested in idol human rights… That friend is tough.”

It was the idea of a child with a lot of dreams.

‘Those who make hundreds of billions of dollars are saying that they are full. Anyway.’

Even though he thought it was worth it, the head of the headquarters rolled his head and thought of an appropriate answer.

It seems that he wants to show an ethical gesture that will satisfy his moral vanity rather than profit.

‘Other idols can’t. la.’

“… !”

At that moment, an intriguing thought popped into the general manager’s head. ‘With this, nothing is given away!’

He laughed inwardly and opened his mouth with a calm expression on the outside.

“Then… .”

* * *

“I got it.”

“Ohhh!”

“It was raining, but you worked really hard!”

Ryu Chung-woo, who returned from the meeting, smiled and shared the documents he had taken in the group chat room.

[T1 Stars artists can sign a contract with an affiliated label when renewing a contract, and agree on this before renewing the contract.] It is the certification that ‘Anyone can go to the label when renewing the contract’.

“You really did.”

“I know.”

Liu Chengwu shrugged.

“Actually, I didn’t expect to get so many oks in writing.”

“that’s right!”

“Mundae hyung is a wizard!”

What are you talking about after writing it all together?

“It is because we are the top. It just made things a little bit easier.”

After all, if we can raise the company and catch it in the yard that will all disappear when we open the company, of course we won’t do it.

I just wanted to do it in the form that the company voluntarily puts out, not what we asked for.

‘So I can’t say anything else later.’

But the guys next to me giggled.

“Oh~ humble~”

It was. I shook my head and laughed.

“Chungwoo hyung is more amazing. You received almost exactly what we said.”

“well. You just let me know… ?”

However, Sejin Bae also raised his hand.

“… great!”

“Um, thank you.”

It seemed that he had been greatly impressed by the change in company guidelines. It says ‘I did it!’ on its face.

‘It’s amazing.’

When renewing a contract, can I unconditionally choose an affiliated label? This kind of thing doesn’t do any large.

‘It must have been possible because of the uniqueness of this agency.’

It’s an audition program anyway, so it’s a structure that runs with the hottest kids this season.

The board of directors must have said okay, thinking that Testa was just a special case and that the later guys would be replaced after 5 years of good use and when they run out of sweet water.

Even if you go to a label, sales are captured anyway.

‘Stupid bastards.’

Conversely, who in the company would notice those guys who paint a picture that their group will do well even after 5 years?

It’s the label that the best-selling group 1 idol belongs to.

‘And when the idols create the atmosphere, the working staff also agrees with it.’

In the end, it was a matter of influence. I swipe the amendment floating on the screen.

‘I skip one by one.’

If it continues, eventually the label will grow and the agency will remain only in name.

I finally smiled and opened my mouth.

“It’s nice that it ended well. Everyone has worked hard.”

“You worked hard!”

“Ah~ Let’s quickly decide on a label name!”

High fives and laughter fill the living room. How heartwarming.

Now, let’s do something fun with this label… before doing.

“Before that, I have something to do first.”

“Yes?”

“I plan to prepare for the next album.”

Kim Rae-bin tilts his head.

“Wasn’t it parallel work during the tour… ?”

“that’s right.”

I smiled and crossed my arms.

“As for the plan, during our tour we spent once a week in the same room, right?”

Cha Yu-jin’s eyes lit up. I think I remembered it right away because it was a tradition that came about because of my escape.

“that’s right. there is!”

“… Liu Cheng-wu made a good suggestion.”

“haha.”

Ryu Cheng-wu looked a little proud. Between them, a big Sejin intervenes.

“Oh~ Shall we gather like that this time to prepare for our album? Like composition camp back then?”

“Wow wow.”

“I am in favor!

The friendly guys looked at each other with a smile. I also smiled and opened my mouth.

“There is something different about my proposal.”

“huh?”

“Not once a week, but three days.”

“… … .”

“It must have been possible because the tour schedule was generous. And there is one more difference.”

“What is it?”

I laughed at Bae Se-jin.

“It’s an album, but I have to let it die.”

“… !”

“This will be an overnight camp, not a hobby camp.”

Kwagwawang!!

Just in time, lightning struck and cast shadows on the faces of those with open mouths.

That’s how the ‘KPOP Hell Camp – Tester ver’ draft was announced.

Chapter 330

Episode 330

Testa's global tour.

Although it was not possible to bring the Seoul concert that applied the musical as it is, important key parts and stage equipment were well taken out and put in.

'Certainly, the planning and AR staff do a good job.'

Now that it was launched as a label, the labor force has become more prominent. It felt like a taste of escape.

For reference, the head of the planning team was the head of the label. It's a self-protection principle that doesn't do useless things, but it's a good sense of experience, so it's just the right person.

'I'm not a celebrity, so even if a problem arises, I won't become a target for arrows.'

I've heard some silly noises along the way.

-How about Moondae as the representative?

-yes? Will you do it bro?

-Haha sorry.

There was a guy who came up with an idea that deserves to stay for another 10 years.

‘Idols directly represent the label.’

There are endless things to catch up on. I’d rather build a company and tell him to be the president. I held back a sigh.

Anyway, I’m going to go to the middle of the day… The first performance of the tour was very successful.

[Make me breathe!]

The moment the last encore song was over, we heard cheers for a long time until we came down to the back of the stage drenched in sweat and water.

Wow!

thud!

Cha Yoo-jin, who excitedly jumped down the iron stairs, laughed out loud.

“It’s so much fun! Concerts are the best!”

“That’s right… !”

“I like it better because the stage shines brightly. You must do this a lot!”

It must have been really fun wielding a lightsaber. I just laughed and brushed the water off my hair.

Instead, Sejin Bae, who was wiping his stomach with a towel, awkwardly opened his mouth.

“surely… Concerts have their charm.”

“brother!”

Before his debut, the guy who was always on the verge of death because of his stamina and nervousness is now saying things like that.

‘Was it influenced by the two of you being roommates?’

Cha Yoo-jin exclaimed more excitedly after shouldering with Bae Se-jin.

“Don’t take a week off, it’s okay! Do it again! We do a lot of rehearsals!”

is it?

“We don’t take a week off.”

“Ah??”

I slung the towel over my shoulder.

“We have to camp.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

“yes! We have prepared for you to have a good time!”

Only the workaholic was excited.

no wait Didn’t you all like to work?

“Don’t you want to work?”

“… ! oh no… !”

then what is it

At that time, following Sun Ah-hyun’s words, Bae Se-jin turned his head and muttered.

“If you say so… Usually because of the ridiculous things that happen.”

“… … .”

“Yes, because Moondae Park said something meaningful, everyone was scared~ It was because of Moondaemundae… Wow!”

noisy.

I slapped Sejin's back. And I immediately regretted the water sticking to my hands. Liu Cheng-wu, who was looking at the situation with happy eyes, opened his mouth.

"Hmm, then, is it a camp instead of an after party after tomorrow's concert in Osaka?"

"iced coffee… ."

The atmosphere melts away.

However, no one opposes that they will have an after party instead of camp.

… Are you really scared?

'Did I say it too one-sidedly?'

Come to think of it, I didn't properly collect opinions. I rubbed the back of my neck and shook my head.

"The back-and-forth… I have to."

"… !"

I relaxed and laughed.

"It's been a while since I've been to a concert, so I have to commemorate it. Even after receiving the Daesang, I was busy and couldn't do it properly."

"Park Moon-dae… ."

"Uh, that's right… !"

Take a long time… No, because physical strength is important to work together.

Satisfied with the warm atmosphere, I nodded.

“Come on, let’s move.”

“Yeah~”

Soon, Testa started running backstage following the instructions of the staff and leader, listening to uninterrupted shouts.

I let the others go first and slowly got out of bed. Then the big Sejin stuck next to me.

“You know it’s a joke, right? When everyone listens to your opinion, the results are always good, so they follow.”

“… … .”

“You’re not pushing it, are you?”

“okay.”

“That’s right~”

I looked at Sejin the big smile. surely… He was more than quick-witted…

So that makes me more confident.

‘I’m sure he’s waiting.’

That is, until I confessed my circumstances. I’m sure you’re analyzing the sense of incongruity you’ve felt so far.

‘I should also look at the timing during camp.’

Once at work, by the time this guy was completely exhausted and lost his ability to think critically, citing several movies and dramas as examples… .

“Let’s do well with the next album as well.”

okay. You also thought that would be a priority.

‘Let’s do a good job for now.’

The next day’s concert also ended well without a single minor injury in surprisingly good condition.

And the proper and pleasant level of the after party also ended well.

It was an appropriate background.

Thanks to that, everyone attended the camp the next day with a smile on their face.

“Shall we order room service?”

“The manager brought laptops for our composing camp!”

Everyone has a good face from having a good time. Full of passion too.

I didn’t stop these guys from setting the food and seating because they were excited.

On the contrary, I helped him appropriately, and when he relaxed, he went out.

Suite living room. I turned on the prompter in front of the guys sitting on the sofa side by side.

[Testa’s direction]

“Look at that, Hyun-Ahyeon, I prepared a presentation material, I’m really serious.”

“Ugh… .”

Then it’s a job, but is it serious or a joke?

“First, I will tell you the results of our analysis of the current situation.”

Yujin Cha quietly put down the popcorn she was eating.

“As you all know, Testa won the grand prize at five awards this year.”

“Oh oh.”

“But it’s not here that you need to see now.”

“yes?”

I changed the screen.

[Distribution of Lovebirds]

[- > Target Popularity Award Voting Pool]

“This is the result of the Popularity Award voting.”

I reached out.

“As you can see, we won the Popularity Award at three awards ceremonies. What do we have in common?”

“I don’t know! Please tell us!”

You are proud.

“These are places that have blocked overseas voting. The firepower of domestic fans is that Testa is in two fingers among singers who made a comeback this year.”

“and.”

“Mundae, where the hell did you get this?”

“The Internet.”

I spoke again to the open-mouthed bastards.

“However, the moment overseas KPOP fans participate in the vote, it turns over.”

“… VTIC seniors win unconditionally.”

“Yes.”

I changed the graph by voting rank. There are even one or two examples of capturing the voting results where Testa is ranked 3rd or 4th.

“Even I’m being pushed by idols from other big companies.”

“hmm.”

“We are still definitely weak overseas.”

I concluded

I have been brought here to say this.

“So, I want to promote properly with the next album aiming at the global market. How is everyone doing?”

“… … .”

The members exchanged glances with each other or looked at the presentation material screen.

There was no positive affirmation. Even Cha Yu-jin, whose base is the United States, is the same.

I laughed heartily.

‘That’s how it should be.’

No one should fall for such naive words.

Instead, a rebuttal came.

“If I do well in Korea, won’t overseas people recognize me? We’ve seen a lot of cases where we were forced to advance and things didn’t go well.”

right. In fact, we also thought about that, so we didn't bother with overseas activities until now.

"Since I have already won the Daesang, I think those who know about the domestic situation would have known about it. Isn't it time to increase the overseas exposure and appeal a little more?"

"hmm… okay."

Liu Cheng-wu seemed to understand in his own way. But the next guy came in.

"But on the contrary, I don't think the domestic fans will like it, so it's a bit like that~"

Keun Sejin said.

"Of course, we will do a lot of W apps and show a lot of our own content, but honestly, there is a sense of distance~ It might not seem like we are loyal to do so right away after receiving the grand prize!"

I crossed my arms and laughed.

"Yes, if the best guys in Korea change their routes to be more foreign-friendly, it's like toadyism."

"Ah well, it may not be that far, but we need to know and be considerate of our sad feelings! this is it Even if you know all about it~"

It was an accurate point.

"That's right."

I nodded.

"That's why it's perfect if we go in the form of being invited."

"invitation?"

“yes. That’s what America calls us. Then, I can just look at it and increase the exposure.”

“Go liver… .”

It’s not that we’re hungover and anxious to advance to the US, but since they’re calling us, it’s the feeling that we’re going to go and do some activities.

Instead of giving an answer, I just spat out the condition.

“I hope it’s not openly KPOP-related. Because the VTIC seniors have already caught them all.”

“At the same time, I hope that calling us doesn’t seem too artificial.”

“It’s a topical topic, so it’s worth using.”

The members’ faces gradually become blank at the line of words. Yes, it’s tricky, so think about it slowly.

But the moment I shut my mouth, there was a guy who raised his hand right away.

‘oh.’

This is Rabin Kim.

“Even if I tell you my opinion… .”

“Of course not. say.”

“yes! I would like to tell you about a field that I recently had a relationship with and is highly recognized in the United States!”

I laughed heartily. The answer seemed to come out.

“Where?”

“These are the people from ‘Abandoned Factory’, a company in < 127 Section >.”

“… !”

“The newly released game is also a big hit in the US and a movie is being made with that world view, so it might be a good idea for us to try to participate in the OST for that movie!”

“W Movie??”

Of course, opposition poured in here and there.

“Um~ Wouldn’t it be like that again? We didn’t create a separate account for ‘Song of the Stars’ for nothing.”

Of course, getting involved with the game company again is a complete brain teaser.

And to Sejin Bae’s remark, surprisingly, Saejin Bae fires in support.

“okay! And that company is also owned by T1. It seems like it was done too much inside the company… !”

To be honest, if it wasn’t for the company, how could we contact you first, but the image was the most important part.

‘Because if the media play is judged as self-praise, it will only become a joke from then on.’

However, Kim Rae-bin did not withdraw his opinion.

Instead, more information was released.

“… ! It could be. However, from what I have confirmed, the film is being produced in a place other than T1.”

“where?”

“… !”

“This is the news I saw in the comments while running the Byeolbyeolgok account. All the gamers were expecting it because it was taken over by ‘Limestone’.”

“Limestone??”

Cha Yoo-jin whistled.

“There’s a hero movie production company! [Insanely famous!]”

Yes. It is a hero movie line under an animation company notorious for its IP business.

All-American businessmen.

I opened my mouth.

“therefore… Through our company, T1, I can make contact quickly and look like I was actually called by an American company.”

Also, since the film production company is another large company with a famous IP, it is also evoked that they are too involved with the game and feel bored with each other.

“yes! Are you okay?”

Are you okay?

It was the best.

‘I caught candidate number 1 right away.’

As expected, this guy has this sense apart from his notice. It’s the sense of choosing the fun things you want to do.

“Like it.”

“… !”

“I wonder how everyone is.”

“I like it!”

“Of course I am too!”

The upvote comes out pretty clearly.

It seemed that many of them were interested because it was a fresh challenge as well as a lot of things they were worried about.

Finally, Sejin also smiled and opened his mouth.

“Okay, let’s try hard~”

“Well then, the conclusion has come.”

We decided to aim to participate in the OST of a Hollywood hero movie, which is like the essence of subculture.

Sporadic applause came from here and there.

“I contacted the person who will be the CEO of Les Label… I’m just saying I’d like to work with you… ?”

“that’s right.”

“and.”

“I liked that game. It’s good to make a good movie.”

Bae Se-jin muttered tremblingly.

“But if you don’t accept… ?”

“So what? Limestone damage.”

“… is it.”

Cha Yoo-jin shrugs, asking why she was so scared when she was a Daesang singer. The atmosphere lightened a bit.

‘good.’

Good timing. I opened my mouth.

“Then, I hope this title also feels like something that people who have been introduced to the original game-based hero movie can enjoy.”

“yes.”

“I think it will be a lot of fun.”

“Um fine.”

I laughed.

“Then, from now on, let’s pick a concept that works well for that side, doesn’t seem to be aiming too much, and expresses Testa’s color well. Implementation.”

“practice… .”

That’s how the brainstorming KPOP hell camp began.

There was just a problem.

Unlike the hobby composition camp, the difference between honor students and inferior students became more pronounced.

Chapter 331

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 331

Kim Rae-bin At the mountain lodge composing camp for encouragement, only praise feedback was possible.

So even if beginners were a bit new to development, everyone was laughing and moving on. Because I was just there to play.

But when it comes to 'work', the words change.

Let's take a look at Bae Se-jin's carefully brought out opinion.

"… Anyway, it was the song 'Promise' that won the grand prize. Then, how about doing this as a series of basics?"

"A common sense suggestion!"

It seems that the feedback will end like this, but it is not.

"yes. It's good to push the one with the best grades. However, the overseas reaction is just that, with no major change, even for the target music."

"Is that so?"

"Iknow, right. Overseas, I think you'd prefer something strong like 'Drill'~"

"That's right. I am against it!"

In an instant, it will grind to death without remorse.

“… okay. You can cancel!”

“I was good. I’m sorry Sejin.”

“Hmm. okay. Well then, what do you think!”

No criticism in particular. However, if you get caught by the majority, it will pass naturally.

“Is there anything else fresh?”

“I came up with a unique idea! The concept of a robot by making use of mechanical sound with MIDI and electric noise… .”

“Ooh~ cheesy~~”

No, there are people who blatantly jeer.

“Cha Yujin, you haven’t given your opinion since a while ago and only criticize, so it’s a very inappropriate attitude!”

“Ok! I’ll tell you. I like transformation heroes!”

“I did it for < Azusa >, and when it comes to OSTs, it overlaps too much. dismissed.”

“right… .”

send a self boo

Anyway, most of the members made sensible remarks like this. It just didn’t fit the current situation, so I implicitly knocked it out quickly.

As a result, the brainstorming turnover rate is exceptional.

“Since the story is so confusing, let’s touch it with a diagram. I only caught the core of the concept that received the best response overseas and the OST concept for a hero movie.”

“Okay~ Is it made by Mundae?”

The work comes naturally.

“Sorry. Moondae. I need to learn some of these things too.”

“it’s okay. You have a lot to do, so what?”

In the end, it took just half a day to pick out the concept traits we should be aiming for.

-One. Intensity (hero movie)

-2. Uniqueness (Testa)

-3. Familiarity (American)

I cleaned up without holding my breath.

“Based on an intense action beat, an American-friendly concept with Testa’s uniqueness.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

“and.”

If such a request came from the company, the proposition that he would go to kill his boss was completed.

But you have to. Art and physical abilities are originally like that.

“From now on, this will be the central frame… Let’s talk about the concept and song we want.”

“Yes..”

The bloody meeting that had been ping-pong like that went into a lull for a while.

“My throat hurts… .”

“Eugene, from now on, let’s not scream and whisper. Because you can’t perform with a hoarse voice at a concert.”

I checked the other guys while listening to Ryu Cheng-wu jog-jo-gong beating Cha Yu-jin with a fact.

‘First of all, Raebin Kim is doing well.’

This is almost at the military level. pass.

‘Even Sejin has good eyesight.’

On the contrary, he was more competent here than at the creative camp, which was just for hobby. It is at a high level to weed out good opinions and gather public opinion.

‘Cha Yoo-jin puts vitality into it.’

Saying the opposite without hesitation at an unpleasant level keeps the meeting going.

‘… It’s a good group.’

Now, rather than just coming up with good ideas, I was more than happy to spit out usable stories without getting discouraged even when I was driven by the limits of the frame.

And when we entered the composing part, even one unexpected guy did a great job.

It is Bae Se-jin.

“… They say it’s American, so why don’t we take some metaphors from American literature?”

It was an approach no one had ever thought of.

“American literature?”

‘It feels good.’

I asked right away.

“Have you been thinking about anything specific?”

“I am… Among the classic novels, I thought of the Edgar Allan Poe novels.”

Edgar Allan Poe.

He was a pioneer of the American mystery and horror novels.

“There is that grotesque thing. It’s very famous and distinctive… .”

“Ohhhh.”

Possibly thanks to the response, Bae Se-jin spoke quickly with a slightly flushed face.

“You know the ‘Black Cat’ written by that writer, right? It’s creepy and there’s a twist… Isn’t that the kind of uniqueness Testa is trying to do?”

“… !”

“I guess so… !”

oh.

As a person who reads a lot of books, he talks about symbolism quite plausibly.

‘Is it classic horror literature?’

It’s okay.

For now, Kim Rae-bin is blinking his eyes.

“If the concept is right, I think a very cool composition will come out even if I quote it in rap lyrics. I will make sure to write it down.”

“… okay.”

It was almost the first time Bae Se-jin himself came out and gave his opinion on producing.

‘Surprisingly, he has talent.’

Bae Se-jin’s face showed a bewildered pride, probably not knowing that he would be accepted this well.

Ryu Cheng-wu smiled and cleaned up.

“Then, how about mixing our world view with a Hollywood movie-like feel based on classic American literature?”

“For now, we hold the production strand like that.”

I rubbed my chin.

To be honest, it’s a bit… but lacking

‘It just doesn’t feel like coming somewhere.’

First of all, I decided to focus on the fact that I had an idea after grasping the strands.

‘The key is that it can be completed simultaneously with the movie OST.’

In fact, pushing this camp was not intended to produce high-quality results right away.

Rather, it was closer to checking and encouraging each member’s producing ability.

‘I was just trying to see if the label would work.’

Because now the group is really halfway to stand alone.

‘When you become an independent label, you have more decision-making authority, but there are definitely guys who need a period of adaptation.’

And from what I’ve seen so far, most of the members have been good savers. Everyone is chatty and cooperative.

‘Chengwu Liu has a talent for tuning, so that’s fine.’

I gave almost everyone a passing grade.

But after looking around like that, only one person remains.

“… … .”

“Seon Ah-hyun.”

“Yes… !”

The guy who had been arguing for most of the day raised his head.

“About the drafts that have just come out, I was wondering what you think.”

“Yes… I think everyone has good opinions… !”

“Which part?”

Seon Ah-hyun flinched, but answered slowly.

“Ha, Hollywood movies… Because it feels very popular. I think it’s good to add a deep feeling like classic literature… .”

“… okay.”

okay. If you ask them openly and slowly, one by one, they will give you pretty good feedback.

the problem is… The most important thing in working is that real-time is not working.

‘I can’t give an opinion.’

Sun Ah-hyun is astonishing when she expresses a given task well, but she was a bit weak when it comes to creative ideas and ideas.

However, even if it is not a moral issue, even if there is an opposing opinion, it does not fight well.

Because of consideration, I tried to take a step back and listen to the opinions of others, so I couldn’t catch the timing to intervene at all.

In short, in this kind of thing, you just add the number of heads to the majority.

I know that myself.

-brother! Any comments?

-I am… Not yet.

-Um~ OK.

-… … .

After this conversation with Cha Yu-jin, Seon Ah-hyun lowered her head.

I sat next to him

“It’s okay if you take it slow.”

“… … huh.”

Seon Ah-hyun didn’t quite agree, but she nodded her head.

that was rather good.

‘He has his own pride.’

I guess I feel a strange sense of competition for not being able to do it. There is room for improvement… .

“What is the mood like?”

“… !”

Big Sejin laughed and intervened.

“Ah~ What did Mundae say about Ahyeon not being able to express much of her opinion!”

“… … .”

“Oh no… !”

Seon Ah-hyun reacted a beat late. I guess I felt that way… .

“Ah, what do you care about? There are a lot of friends who are good at producing like this. Let’s just have fun, Ahyeon-ah!”

Of course, these words did not work for Seon Ah-hyun.

“Because there will come a moment when I have to do it myself… .”

Big Sejin smiled.

“At that time, Mundae can do it for you!”

“… !”

“Won’t Ah-hyun do solo production later in college?”

“My my solo??”

“okay! We’re not going to do a unit or a solo at least once in the future~”

You cleverly left out the sad description of the situation, ‘When the other members went to the military’.

Anyway, I laughed.

“If you want, you should, of course.”

“… !”

“Look, can you ease your mind?”

“huh.”

Seon Ah-hyun smiled faintly and got up from her seat with a much more comfortable face.

“Thank you.”

“what.”

Still, looking into his eyes, the ‘psyche to try’ didn’t seem dead. I just felt a little more at ease.

“I’ll go in.”

“okay.”

“See you tomorrow, Ahyeon~”

As today’s camp was almost over, some of them had already left.

With a thoughtful face, Seon Ah-hyun followed them out of the living room of the suite.

“… … .”

Keun Se-jin kept his mouth shut until Seon Ah-hyun disappeared.

And suddenly he spoke out.

“Ahyeon cares a lot, every time.”

“Because I am a member.”

“Um~ yeah?”

Big Sejin added in a comfortable tone.

“You know that Mundae Ahyeon is really good at producing and starting to prepare, right?”

know. Still, I want to grow a little bit.

“In the time to worry about friends of the same age, let’s do well together~”

“Yes.”

No, in fact, you are all younger than me. I endured the big Sejin giggling and patting me on the back.

‘This guy is still fine.’

It seems that he has some stamina left, so if he says bullshit now, he won’t be able to get his bones out.

I got up from my seat thinking that I would have to look at the timing to reveal my ‘circumstances’ again tomorrow.

“Where?”

“restroom.”

Just then, an unexpected text message came to my smartphone.

[The concert was so cool, it was the best ㅠㅠ]

“… … .”

It’s a big month.

[Did you follow the tour]

[Yes! Since it’s the country next door, I made time for it on the weekend, but I think I did really well. This is healing…]

That’s right, he’s a guy with enough money to get on a very first class plane.

I shrugged my shoulders after estimating his wealth. As long as you don’t get scammed, it doesn’t matter how you use it.

However, another text message arrived in succession.

[Are you okay with video calls? There is something I want to check.]

Um.

I guess this is what happened.

[okay. Wait a minute]

[Yes!!]

I went into the small room where Liu Cheng-wu was banging on his laptop.

“I’ll have a video call with Ryu Gun-woo for a moment.”

“Um, yes.”

I even thought about getting a new room and talking on the phone, but I gave up because I thought it would lead to more suspicious misunderstandings. This suite was my room.

If you have this guy, he’ll cut it even if someone else snoops around.

‘… It’s reassuring to have someone I know.’

“Can I say hello too?”

“You can do whatever is convenient for you.”

I made a video call to Keundal and it was accepted as soon as the sound went off.

-hello!

“… You keep saying the opposite.”

-Oh sorry… . Are you out?

“yes.”

This time, there is no such thing as the last accident.

-how have you been doing?

“sure.”

Keundal immediately corrected his tone, and only then did I ask him how he was doing and get right to the point.

“Why do you want to call… .”

At that time, Liu Chengwu called from behind.

“Is it Moondae?”

Do you dare to give me permission again?

“No, not that… Sejin said he wants to say hello too.”

“… !”

“Ah, it’s Bae Se-jin, not my younger brother Se-jin.”

When I turn my head, I see Bae Se-jin, who looks a bit nervous, standing over the door.

Ryu Cheng-wu looks a bit flustered.

“Because you claim to be someone you know… that’s right?”

Going crazy.

I looked at Bae Se-jin and Bae Se-jin cleared his throat.

“that… Look how often you make video calls like this. I thought I’d say hello too… .”

“… um yes.”

If I say okay here without thinking, I think I’ll keep telling useless lies. I searched for a way to end this crazy situation and rolled my head.

It was then.

“What are you all doing there… hmm?”

Big Sejin, who saw the three of them gathered in front of the door, approached.

I immediately hit the end call button.

belt ring.

“Park Moon-dae, you call… !”

“ah.”

Bae Se-jin was frightened as if he knew it was a mistake. Big Sejin burst out laughing.

“Were you on the phone? You said you were going to the bathroom, where did you go?”

“I got a call from someone I knew for a while.”

“okay?”

Keun Se-jin looked back at Ryu Cheong-woo and Bae Se-jin and shrugged.

“… Do you all know each other?”

“ah… He was the one who helped me when I was young.”

“Ah, yes.”

“There is a person Moondae Park has been looking for since last year. that… ah.”

Bae Se-jin saw the atmosphere and belatedly shut his mouth.

‘Damn it.’

Of course, thinking that Sejin would know, he brought out the words, but he seemed to realize that it wasn’t true, but it was worse than not doing it.

“Anyway, it turns out that I know a little bit… .”

“ah… yes.”

“… … .”

Big Sejin kept his mouth shut. An awkward silence for no reason lay between the visits.

“… Shall we go to rest for now? This is the original Mundae room.”

“That’s right.”

Bae Se-jin looked back at me with an expression that he made a mistake, but when I shook my head, he quietly kept his mouth shut and followed Ryu Cheng-wu out of the room.

“Sejin-ah, let’s go in too.”

“… … .”

Instead of responding to Ryu Cheng-wu’s call, Big Se-jin rubbed his shoulder.

And after a while, it looked like he was about to turn around, and then he suddenly opened his mouth.

“a little… Isn’t that too much?”

“… !”

It was a tearful pitch.

“How many times have I… Everyone knows, but it seems I’m the only one who doesn’t.”

X feet.

It was misleading.

“No, not everyone knows. It’s not that kind of thing, but the situation before… .”

“Then why do you know everything if you say it’s hard to explain? Until that brother… .”

For a moment, Sejin seemed to hold back his next words. and shut up

“… … .”

‘Open your mouth.’

I barely remembered what to say. And I opened my mouth as calmly as possible.

“therefore… .”

“Park Moon-dae was just embarrassed. Aren’t you sorry for me right now?”

“… !”

Words come out reflexively.

“no.”

“okay? however… .”

Big Sejin opened his mouth as if he was about to shoot, but… sink again

“… no, now i… Let’s talk later.”

“Wait. You… .”

“later.”

Keun Se-jin muttered to himself in a voice that was not so angry, and then opened the room and left in an instant.

bang.

No matter how fast I left, I heard the door close immediately.

Bae Se-jin muttered in the hallway.

“… sorry.”

“… … .”

Chapter 332

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 332

What kind of situation is this?

I'm lying in bed I don't have a particularly good idea. I'm just chewing the cud.

The situation right before I went to visit Sejin, who had left the hotel room for camping.

– Beep.

I pressed the doorbell of Sejin's hotel room, but there was no response.

-… … .

I wondered if you were not in the room. But is he the kind of person who will go out and make a gossip with big Sejin?

obviously inside

– Sejin Lee.

I waited a moment and rang the doorbell again.

Then came the response.

drooling.

Not at the door, but at the smartphone.

[Let’s talk about it later, Moondae. I’m a little tired right now]

That was the end.

“… … .”

I took my hand off the pillow, checked the text once, and swiped it away.

-Are you okay?

“uh.”

Then, the face of Ryu Gun-woo appeared on the screen. I’m in the process of returning the call I hung up earlier.

… … I have to do my job.

“What was the story you were trying to say?”

-… wait a minute.

The guy on the screen moves. Then, raise both hands and point to the air.

– Do you see this?

“no.”

The guy on the screen carefully lowers his hand.

-You can’t see… .

“… … .”

-I did a little research since the last time I logged in to download the ‘receive rewards’ pop-up.

is it.

– A few days ago, I was able to open the status window by calling it from my side. So I wonder if you can see it on the screen… .

“okay.”

It was something worth making a video call with. I understand.

And when he shut his mouth, the room became quiet again.

“… … .”

A cautious voice was heard.

-That brother. Also, what happened earlier?

“no.”

Can’t you stop asking about that?

I almost felt annoyed at the moment, but I recognized that there was no need for it and pressed it.

… From his point of view, the phone suddenly hung up, so of course you can ask.

“I was hung up on by someone I don’t know, but there was a bit of a misunderstanding.”

-ah… .

After a brief exclamation, he was speechless again. He seems to have understood the situation roughly.

‘Is this the end of the story?’

Now, when you wonder if it would be okay to end the call and hang up.

-I… Then wouldn’t it be okay if I told you the circumstances?

“what?”

– Lee Se-jin, right? You were my close friend. then…

“I’m going to return to the past in someone else’s body and become an idol, but if I don’t, I’ll die, so just say that you leveled up and came this far.”

-… … .

“Common sense, this… no sorry.”

At that moment, I realized why Keun Se-jin had stopped talking and left. I guess I did this to avoid needlessly shouting.

I shook my head and continued.

“I will organize and analyze the status window problem you just mentioned, so you should rest today too… … .”

-no. brother.

The guy stopped talking.

– I think it’s really the first time that hyung doesn’t pay attention to the system story like this. Normally, you would have asked a lot of questions.

“… !”

– I think you are concerned about the current situation.

“… … .”

And a small voice was heard.

-Then just say… How about having a good time?

I involuntarily clenched my fist.

That was the moment.

I suddenly recalled afterimages derived from those words.

Mistakes this guy made every time I met him until now.

-brother!

-Geonwoo hyung… .

Errors in titles or endings.

I knew it was because he was so bad at deceiving others.

But now that I think about it, I wonder how the guy who lived in the body of Ryu Gun-woo for several years made such a mistake every time… .

Isn't it unnatural?

"You can't believe you made mistakes whenever you were with the members… ."

-… … .

"Is it because you wanted me to be found out?"

after a moment of silence.

A voice came from the screen.

– Maybe…

"… !"

-I wasn't conscious at the time, but I think it was a bit unconscious… … . I think that will help my brother.

"what."

-Testa is someone close to you who has lived with you for several years. I wanted my brother to feel at ease after revealing his secret… .

It is an action based on good will.

However, it reminds me of something in that it does not consider the other person's intentions and feelings at all.

And he talks about it himself.

-But that's what the system does.

okay.

-Hyung, ignoring your thoughts and feelings and just doing it.

It was an overly mechanical and inhuman impulse for this frail fellow.

I opened my mouth slowly.

"… So you guessed that it seems to be affected by the system?"

The last time we met, it reminded me of the guy who was especially afraid of the system.

– I feel that the part that has been assimilated with the system is getting stronger. Even if it moves to another body, it seems to have some effect.

And a bittersweet voice comes out of the screen, as if a little dejected.

-yes. So after I noticed, I'm really trying not to make mistakes… .

"… … ."

– It wasn't really intentional. It must have been uncomfortable for you, but I'm really sorry. I will be very careful not to be swayed in the future… … .

"… okay."

A sigh of relief was heard from the screen.

'You're having a hard time.'

Being influenced by something you don't know must be quite unpleasant.

'I'm going to have to pay close attention to this guy's condition from now on.'

As if I had been bathed in cold water, I looked at the big moon with a bit of my senses.

But the topic has returned.

-But hyung, though, this is a really separate message. That friend will definitely trust you.

I'm going crazy.

I said while holding back my sleep.

"If he had the personality to believe such science-fiction sounds, he would have been cleaned up by now."

However, Lee Se-jin had the most realistic personality.

I conceded.

'so… I was procrastinating.'

Because I have to work, the timing is not right.

With such an excuse, I was rationalizing the situation where I kept my mouth shut and procrastinated.

I was drunk with the atmosphere and said 'I'll tell you when the time is right', so I should say… No matter how I convey it, the probability of not believing it seems too high.

I sighed.

Then, a voice that sounded a bit ridiculous on the screen… What's not funny?

-Hyung, I'm telling you in case you forgot… That brother was the status window??

I know that.

-I know how Lee Sejin-nim and hyung have been!

"… !!"

– The hyungs fighting and stuff like that… Anyway, I am speaking from the point of view of a third party who knows all the information. Trust me… !

It was quite embarrassing to see all of it.

However, the big moon was embarrassing and nabal, and was almost making a noise now.

-That friend knows you as much as you are realistic… ! And we trust each other a lot.

And I'm funny, but I'm listening to that.

– If hyung explains it sincerely and honestly, you will believe it.

"… … ."

I laid down on one arm.

-brother… .

I don't know.

"I don't even know how to say it. It happened like this."

-ah… .

"first… Take a look at the situation."

It’s nabal to tell the truth now, and I don’t know how this guy will turn out tomorrow.

There was a possibility that it might not be a big deal because my emotions were intensified right away. If you cool down, you can explain the misunderstanding and be a little embarrassed, and then it will end.

– Bro, so… .

The guy on the screen seemed to be trying to say something of encouragement in his own way, but it didn’t really come across.

“okay.”

I immediately ended the call and replied to Sejin’s text message after conflict.

[sorry. Rest well]

And it was funny, but it really didn’t matter.

The very next day, the overtime camp for the album went smoothly.

* * *

“I put a blast sound on the beat, what do you think?”

“Good? But how about putting it only at the point of the chorus and replacing it with a different sound in the verse? Your ears might get tired quickly.”

“All right!”

Big Sejin gave feedback and adjusted the situation well, no different from the previous day. Push the good comments and cut out the inappropriate ones.

“I want to choose a song based on demo number 4. How about that?”

“… That’s fine. But I think number 3 is better.”

“okay.”

It’s not like when I was angry and the relationship was awkward before, and I didn’t just laugh and act well.

just… The sense of distance has deepened.

‘Damn it.’

You don’t give me a chance to have a private conversation.

It was hard to even apologize for this. It’s because ‘I’m sorry’ is impossible to develop a ‘I’m fine’ conversation.

“Let’s get some rest.”

“yes.”

and break time. I woke up after following with my eyes the guys who were scattering around the suite more freely than yesterday.

‘Let’s pour cold water on it.’

If you can’t concentrate because you’re frustrated, it’s stupid. Let’s have a cold water friction and wake up and look at the album.

I was on my way back after using the washstand by the front door.

“… Lee Se-jin.”

“yes?”

A voice came from the kitchen next to the hallway.

Bae Se-jin calls the big Se-jin.

It was rare. That's why I remembered the conversation I had with Bae Se-jin after the big Se-jin left yesterday.

-I… Did I say something strange?

-… no. It's because there was a bit of a misunderstanding with me. Sorry for getting you into trouble.

– No, no.

It's a situation where anyone who hears it will bring up the topic.

The voices of two people with the same name continued to be heard from across the corner of the hallway.

"excuse me… I mean yesterday Sorry if I made a mistake."

"yes? no. It's not like that. I made a fuss by myself."

"… Isn't that because there's a problem?"

"Oh, that's just my problem. Did I say something rude then? I'm sorry bro."

"No, that's fine… ."

After a moment of silence.

"Um bro. I have something else to do, so is it okay if I just say this?"

"… … wait for a sec."

I heard Bae Se-jin swallow his saliva.

"… Hey, it was yesterday, but Park Moon-dae told me about the person Park Moon-dae was looking for, so it wasn't me. I didn't know because I happened to be there."

"… … ."

“I didn’t have to say… .”

“brother.”

Big Sejin stopped talking.

“I think you should hear this from yourself.”

“… !”

“I really don’t think it’s your fault, so you don’t have to worry. Rather, thanks to you, you know. situation.”

I heard Bae Se-jin’s pain. The feeling of wanting to say what was going on and the thought of being out of place if I intervened more seemed to cross paths.

and finally said

“okay. that… I hope you have a good talk with Moondae Park.”

“… … .”

The guy who would normally have said ‘yes’ and finished, instead spat out in a tired and sharp tone.

“… I don’t know. to do.”

“… !”

“anyway… yes. All right.”

I knew then.

Clearly, this guy was more concerned about the current situation than he was.

And there was also the urge to listen to the story because I was so pissed off right now.

‘then.’

I suddenly remembered the last words of the big moon that I replied to my words yesterday, ‘I don’t know what will happen after this happens.’

A statement that didn’t make much sense at the time.

-Now that the situation is like this, wouldn’t you believe it more if I told you? You’re not the type to say nonsense to an angry person.

-Since I know you, you won’t think of it as an excuse or a prank if it sounds strange!

“… … .”

X feet. okay.

I picked up the phone and called the manager.

There is no other way. Let’s do it.

Sejin Lee liked concerts.

If you are familiar with him, it would be easy to misunderstand that someone like Lee Se-jin would prefer variety shows or appearances on famous YouTube channels.

Originally, what people thought with their head and what they felt with their heart were different.

The concert was no different from proof of oneself as an idol.

Existence of dreams and ambitions.

‘So good… .’

But today I couldn’t fully enjoy that good concert.

Originally, at a concert, it is normal for the members to get together and enjoy a meet-and-greet around the time of the encore.

Even if it’s not that, when I match the sum with the members who are on stage like that, it also inspires immersion and a sense of belonging.

But today that was impossible.

‘under… .’

It is because we stood on stage together without having had a proper conversation with Park Moon-dae since the uproar a few days ago.

I am conscious of it moment by moment as if a stone got into my shoe, and every time I feel depressed.

‘why… .’

In fact, I already knew that Park Moon-dae did not ‘look at me with as much generosity’ as the other members.

In fact, I was rather willing.

Because it felt like a kind of relationship establishment.

‘Equal friends.’

I even shrugged a little. Even if the group disappears, he is confident that he and Park Moon-dae will continue to work together and remain friends, even if no one else knows.

that reassurance.

However, once you know that it is an illusion, as much as that certainty… I feel betrayed.

‘It’s really funny.’

No, Park Moon-dae didn’t say that he believed in you the most, so what kind of betrayal did he have?

Sejin Lee laughed.

I know very well that being a human being can easily change positions depending on the environment. And there was nothing particularly sad about it.

‘This industry is more like that.’

However, he couldn’t understand why he felt so sad as if he had become a great friend with Park Moon-dae.

But if you think about it again, isn’t that enough?

‘It’s not like we were just a moderate group.’

We spent a lot of time talking about all sorts of worries and accidents and even revealing our personal history.

And yet… .

Sejin Lee clenched his fists.

‘It’s over with an apology through text.’

Park Moon-dae means that he has nothing to regret right now.

What’s even funnier is that he’s thinking about whether to talk first and solve the situation.

Wow!

Sejin Lee took a deep breath as he watched the shower of flowers burst from the side of the stage.

It wasn’t just out of breath.

‘It’s annoying.’

On this fine day, it was absurd that I was in bad shape because I had a fight with one of the members in front of a large number of spectators.

It’s because I’ve tried the most idiot who can’t distinguish that kind of construction.

So I paid more attention to performance and live. If you lack immersion, you have to do it elaborately.

“Thank you for your hard work~”

“You worked hard!”

So, when I came down after the concert, I felt a sense of desolation greater than the overflowing joy as usual.

It felt like the energy that was overflowing on stage had disappeared.

“… … .”

“How are you biting?”

“What were you doing, you left quickly!”

In the meantime, the fact that the other party went unharmed somehow made me even more pissed off.

‘Why am I the only one consuming my emotions?’

Lee Se-jin struggled between heat and fatigue, and eventually left with a sigh.

I was thinking of getting in the car and going back to the hotel and going to sleep.

Tirik.

But when I opened the door to the hotel and went in.

“Are you here?”

“… ?!”

Someone was already sitting in the room.

“I got the key from the manager.”

Someone who had their hands on the table… … It was Park Moon-dae.

Lee Se-jin doubted his eyes for a moment.

‘this… .’

What’s the matter?

Why the hell is the guy who said he went in first?

At that moment, a flash of hope passed through my mind.

‘no way?’

I’m going to grab an apple and try it… .

“Sorry for trespassing.”

“Ah, sorry about that?”

X feet X feet.

Big Sejin felt the urge to slap his own mouth. I don’t even know why I’m talking like this.

In the first place, it seemed like it was losing in itself to reveal a displeased look.

and… So I was afraid that the relationship would become strange.

“I’m sorry about that and I’m sorry about the other things.”

However, despite this, Park Mun-dae calmly answered without any other reply.

Being calm, somehow I didn’t like it more.

“what.”

‘No really calm… Did you do it?’

He almost cried, but at the moment he checked Moondae Park’s face and posture.

His expression was still serious, but his hands were touching his fingers and making small movements on his shoulders.

“… !”

Park Moon-dae… I was very nervous.

“That’s something I couldn’t properly explain to you yesterday.”

“… … .”

“The hyungs don’t know all about my situation properly. Only part of it was caught.”

“You heard me?”

“okay. So it means that this is the first time I am speaking with my own mouth.”

“… … .”

Lee Se-jin forgot all the complexities and irritations for a moment and focused on the conversation.

what the hell are you trying to say

“first… I think it would be appropriate to start by saying this.”

Park Moon-dae’s eyes lit up.

“I am not Park Moon-dae.”

“… ??”

“And back to the past.”

Lee Se-jin began to suspect that he had actually fallen asleep in the car.

Chapter 333

Episode 333

Lee Se-jin also speculated about the ‘secret’ of Park Moon-dae in his own way.

And some of them were unrealistic, but I thought they made a lot of sense.

‘Are you Park Moon-dae’s cousin?’

In fact, Park Mun-dae, whom he knew, was an older person, but it was speculated that he was using the identity of a younger brother due to the situation.

Of course, when I recalled the reason, my reasoning was fuzzy to an absurd level, so I quit right away.

‘Because I said I’d tell you.’

While listening to those words, he accurately picked out Moondae Park’s sense of incongruity and was recognized by him.

Still, because I had been guessing for a while, there was a time when even a spy from North Korea suddenly came up with a reasoning.

It’s because the way he overdoes it to produce results for amnesia and even the way he adjusts public opinion fit perfectly.

Of course, I immediately laughed and passed it on.

‘It’s not a drama, what kind of spy is this?’

But now, Park Moon-dae said something more unrealistic than that.

-I'm not a Bakmundae, I'm back in the past.

It was a remark worthy of a pseudo-teacher.

I broke out in a cold sweat.

'what?'

dream… Aren't dreams usually like this?

Lee Se-jin unknowingly turned his hand behind him and pinched his thigh.

'Ah damn it.'

… It hurt.

In the meantime, Park Moon-dae continued to speak.

"… I was originally a civil servant named Ryu Gun-woo."

"… … ."

"The video call you saw yesterday was with that body, and Park Moon-dae is currently in there."

Lee Se-jin tried to answer calmly.

"ah… okay?"

What does 'yes' mean to freeze to death?

I had to think properly and react, but this was just what came out of my mouth.

Lee Se-jin stood still and tried to figure out what Moon-dae Park meant… .

“okay. I can make a video call again right now if you want. Shall we check?”

Going crazy.

“… hmm.”

Lee Se-jin was confused. I was speechless now.

At that moment, Park Moon-dae, who was looking at himself in a daze, smiled bitterly.

“You won’t believe it.”

“… !”

“what… I thought so.”

Park Moon-dae said as if it was not a big deal.

“That’s why I’ve been putting off talking until now, and there’s no particular visible evidence. It is all testimony.”

But the body language of the other person said otherwise.

His friend was in a cold sweat.

‘ah… .’

Lee Se-jin was completely dizzy. And contradictory, but at the same time, he woke up as if he was electrocuted or bitten by ice.

Is Park Moon-dae, the person he knows, the kind of person who would say something that would not work in this situation?

‘no.’

Absolutely not.

There was no way the guy who performed concerts in a natural way even with cracked ribs could not be the guy who kept up his schedule even though he couldn't sleep.

He had never seen anyone who lived as fiercely as Park Moon-dae.

And if he wasn't mistaken, his friend was sincere now.

"I knew you would suspect it was a mental illness. therefore… ."

"no."

"… … ."

Lee Se-jin moved his legs and walked.

Then, with the table in between, I sat across from Moondae Park.

"I will listen, so speak slowly."

"… !"

Then, after a short surprise, a faint expression passed on Park Mun-dae's face.

laugh.

It was a brief relief.

"Is it so?"

And Park Moon-dae's words became a little more natural.

"then… To begin with, it was a few months before Azusa when I woke up at Bakmundae."

From then on, the story started to unfold from an unexpected perspective on a story that Lee Se-jin knew well.

＜Re-listing! Park Moon-dae, who participated in Idol Co., Ltd.

Of course, there were stories that were hard to understand.

“They said that if I didn’t become an idol, I would die.”

“Mmm.”

They say that some kind of instruction is floating in the air, but Lee Se-jin kept his mouth shut because the symptoms of psychosis really came to mind.

‘that is… Was it schizophrenia?

Of course, Lee Se-jin was not interested in this field and had no intention of looking into it, so I couldn’t be sure, but fortunately, I was able to soften the impression soon.

This is because Park Mun-dae did not appear to be suffering from delusions of persecution or going back and forth.

More than anything, I didn’t want to question Park Moon-dae right now. It didn’t seem like that.

So instead, I just listened.

with a light match.

“okay.”

“Um, that’s right.”

He even made a joke like this.

“Then, is that why I became close with Ahyeon? Are you doing well in the future?”

Although, of course, there were bones.

At that time, Park Moon-dae looked at himself with a slightly comfortable face and smiled.

“I had no intention of becoming friends, but what about the guy who treated me in a bundle?”

Park Moon-dae said that some of the debutants he had heard of as a public official were not Lee Se-jin or Sun Ah-hyun.

“ah.”

I didn’t intend to do it in this situation, but it was a little pleasant.

In the end, whatever the truth, it means that it was really Park Moon-dae’s pure kindness that solved the composite picture of his cigarette.

‘It’s funny, really.’

Even while listening to these unrealistic stories, I was immersed in the end and arguing about these things.

In the meantime, the story of Park Moon-dae passed his debut and entered the testa activity period.

And among them, there were contents that were so unrealistic that they seemed to fit one empty spot in a puzzle.

“He’s the guy who came back before me.”

“… !”

VTIC Chungrye.

“… … Go Cheongryeo.”

“I guess you decided not to attach it.”

“What kind of senior are you on this board? really… .”

After all, he was a real madman.

Park Moon-dae only informed that Cheong-ryeo had returned to the past in moderation. And, in order to know the future knowledge, Lee Se-jin read between the lines, even though he was threatening himself.

The nonsense of Cheongryeol.

'… Aren't you a psychopath?'

If Park Mun-dae did not properly inform him of his future knowledge, he might have really tried to kill him out of anger.

Goosebumps ran up my spine.

However, Park Moon-dae's attitude was bizarrely gentle.

"Don't worry, I'm pretty conscious now."

It wasn't a simple 'reporting it, we'll lose too, so let's move on'.

Park Moon-dae's unique generosity in close human relationships.

'… They shared the same experience.'

Lee Se-jin hit it short and suppressed the rising antipathy.

In fact, even now, his sense of reality has long since exceeded the permissible limit.

Besides, the next bomb was waiting.

"And speaking of Chungwoo hyung… They are my relatives."

"… !"

"It's the same Poongsan Ryu. The village is closer than I thought."

As if putting another puzzle together, the situation became clearer.

Why did Park Moon-dae avoid Ryu Cheong-wu and became close friends after becoming roommates recently?

And when the two of you go out

"… I went out to meet Ryu Gun-woo."

"… … ."

Park Mun-dae did not mention the accident of his parents and Ryu Cheong-wu, but the structure was sufficiently completed with just that.

'So, Chungwoo-hyung… .'

Oddly enough, has the attitude toward Park Moon-dae changed recently?

All circumstances fit. In the end, Lee Se-jin emotionally acknowledged Park Moon-dae's excuse that he was 'caught up'.

In addition, Park Moon-dae also took care of the explanation for the next person.

"Bae Se-jin hyung knew it was Chuseok. I was at his brother's house. I don't know the details at all."

"… … ."

Going that far, Lee Se-jin began to feel even a slight sense of shame.

'It wasn't anything special, but… … .'

The explanation of Park Moon-dae he had heard so far was unrealistic enough to doubt his ears, but there was a neatness that came out of agony.

Lee Se-jin could easily picture how impatient he must have been to tell this nonsense to himself.

'I wouldn't do that.'

he murmured frankly.

“… Sorry. by urging.”

Park Moon-dae laughed.

“You deserved it. When did you say something?”

Even after that, Moondae Park’s experience was organized through his mouth.

In fact, Park Moon-dae omitted daydreaming in a coma and some truth checks that need not be said, but the content was still extensive.

And Park Moon-dae was always sincere and tried to answer Lee Se-jin’s questions truthfully without evasive words.

Often seen when bluffing or lying… There was no obsession with useless details or repeating the same words.

“… … .”

Thanks to this, Lee Se-jin found himself completely immersed in this unrealistic story.

And the story has flowed to the most recent incident.

Park Moon-dae, who briefly returned to Ryu Gun-woo’s body.

“… That’s how I came back to the point of riding the grand prize and gave my acceptance speech. That’s why I suddenly forgot to dance.”

Park Mun-dae, who should have arranged the end like that, finished his speech as if he was relieved.

“this… It’s my ‘circumstance’.”

“… … .”

Lee Se-jin saw Park Moon-dae.

Then he got up and brought water. Park Mun-dae did not hesitate and took the plastic bottle and put it to his mouth.

And until Park Mun-dae almost emptied half of the water, Se-jin Lee silently organized his thoughts.

'how is it?'

how is it I'm dying of confusion I can't quite understand… I wonder how unrealistic it can be.

'The drama won't be this far.'

I was immersed in it because of the speaker's attitude, but my head is saying something else.

At least, as Park Moon-dae said, there is no visible evidence.

but… .

"Now I see. Did you put it off because you thought I wouldn't believe this?"

"… … ."

"Certainly, Moondae knows me well. But… I should have known this."

Sejin Lee smiled.

"You really believe what I say~"

"… … !"

Is it realistic that Lee Se-jin successfully debuted and is touring and performing concerts in front of tens of thousands of people as a popular first-team idol?

If he had known the future half a year before < Azusa > came out, he would have laughed at the person who told him about it and chewed on the hopeless reality.

but didn't you

'I was with him.'

Perhaps that was more unrealistic for Lee Se-jin.

So he stopped laughing and answered seriously.

"You kept doing that. so i will do the same I believe in Park Moondae."

"… … ."

Lee Se-jin added like a joke.

"Again, if I believe you, the results are always good. Are all the members like that? Park Moon-dae should have done better."

At that moment, Park Moon-dae laughed.

"… thanks."

Park Moon-dae emptied half of the remaining water.

Lee Se-jin pretended not to know that the hand holding the plastic bottle was shaking slightly.

Instead, he realized again how absurd he was and how much he was still accepting.

'I slept all over.'

All sorts of thoughts and reasoning seemed to be going on all night, but Lee Se-jin didn't show it.

Then, it seemed that Park Moon-dae started to tell all kinds of thoughts.

“You should have known it when you heard it.”

His friend, who had crumpled a plastic bottle, muttered hesitantly.

“I didn’t originally intend to become an idol. I might have been disappointed.”

What the hell is he talking about?

“Park Moon-dae, are you an idiot?”

“what?”

“You love being an idol so much, but you say something like, ‘I didn’t mean to do it originally~’.”

“… !”

“Here, where is the person who said he would become an idol from the beginning… If you’re trying to live, it’s fine, it’s fine.”

Park Moon-dae’s expression became a bit bewildered.

“Anyway, what should I call it? Do you call me Geonwoo? Geonwoo geonwoo?”

As if Park Mun-dae deliberately told him to hate it, Park Mun-dae was actually a bit fed up.

The atmosphere lightened a bit.

“okay. It’s because we’re from survival groups, but these days everyone uses stage names. Moondae Park is also your name.”

“… … .”

“Isn’t that right, Mundaemundae?”

“… okay.”

Sejin Lee smiled.

In fact, before returning to the past, I suddenly had the urge to ask if I hadn’t heard anything about myself, but I held back.

‘It wouldn’t have been nice.’

If it hadn’t been for Park Moondae, he would have voluntarily dropped out due to controversy over school violence… Even if Park Mun-dae knew about himself, it would not have been very good news.

So instead I said:

“thank you. It must have been hard to say, but please tell me.”

“… … .”

“Honestly, it was dizzy to say something like ‘There are letters that only I can see in this world’, right? I could see that I was completely embarrassed… Wap!”

“Noisy.”

“haha!”

Avoiding Park Moon-dae’s hand, Sejin Keun smiled coolly.

That day, Park Moon-dae and Lee Se-jin had a long conversation before going to bed to get in shape for the concert.

“Then how old were you originally? “

“… Before I return, I will be 29 years old.”

“Oh, can I call you? older brother?”

“and… yes. After all, I’m a professional idol. It’s best to be young than to be treated like an elder… Wow! I dodged it this time!”

“Chit.”

It was mostly nonsense. However, it was a strange feeling to have a personal story that I had never heard before subtly unravel.

“… You’re from a very prestigious university at Moondaemun University! Isn’t it a waste?”

“It’s not worth it. Not even money.”

Park Moon-dae seemed comfortable.

So Lee Se-jin didn’t have to regret getting angry with his friend over useless things.

There wasn’t a drop of alcohol, but the conversation flowed well and ended with a deep foundation.

It was a new layer of trust.

and the next day.

Unlike yesterday, Lee Se-jin recovered his original sense on the stage where he went up without any awkwardness.

‘Good good!’

He put on Cha Yu-jin and Sun Ah-hyun on both sides to show off a nice ad-lib, then came down humming after a splendid encore.

And the moment I tried to find Park Moon-dae.

“Looks like you did a good job reconciling.”

“… !”

Sejin Lee looked back at the leader of the group who briefly tapped his shoulder.

Liu Qingyu smiled lightly.

‘It looks obvious.’

Sejin Lee immediately lowered his head.

“Brother, I am so sorry! Have I been like that these past few days?”

“no. I was fine. Just because I saw it… I tried to play around a bit in case it would be difficult for the two of you.”

“… … .”

remote?

Come to think of it, suddenly last night the meeting time the next day was delayed by about three hours.

I thought it was because of the schedule adjustment.

“I don’t think the meeting time was delayed… .”

“Yeah what… Everyone did that to recover their stamina.”

It made it easy for the two of them to talk.

“… thank you.”

“It’s a group like us. Of course, these things must match each other for a long time. Everyone said yes right away.”

Liu Qingyu laughed. Sejin Lee was speechless for a moment.

It is because he thought that there would be no one as sincere as he was in doing his best to ensure that this group would be maintained well until the maximum possible lifespan.

‘… No matter how much it was, I was worried that if I had a yearly leave, I would lose all of them due to individual activities.’

that… Lee Se-jin admitted that it might have been a bit conceited.

In the meantime, Liu Cheng-wu’s words continued.

“Sejin and Sejin Bae suggested it first. I was very worried about you two.”

“I’m glad it worked out. Oh, there it is.”

Following Ryu Cheong-woo’s chin, I turned my head and saw Bae Se-jin talking with Park Moon-dae holding a towel next to the steel structure.

Chapter 334

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 334

Big Sejin believed.

'How did this happen?'

I do not know. I even turned on the status window to see if I had received any corrections last night, but nothing happened.

In a completely peaceful state, Keun Se-jin understood my situation.

'This will work.'

I'm still bewildered. but… Of course it's not that I don't like it.

It was a bit odd. Because I've never been so honest before.

I didn't even predict that my attitude wouldn't change even after hearing all the stories.

Thanks to you, today's concert… I think I overdid it.

'I feel like my lungs are about to fall.'

"Here you go!"

"thank you."

I gasped and looked down at the towel and smartphone the staff gave me.

'even… I didn't even go here.'

In fact, inside this was the preparation I prepared for the exposure last night.

‘Big Sejin has a realistic personality.’

And I thought that in order to convince such a bastard of bullshit that would come out of a web novel, I had to bring in real evidence.

But could there be such a thing?

The only thing that exists is the circumstances.

‘Testimonies of those involved.’

The only cards I could use were words, so I tried to secure at least a variety of cards for each species.

First of all, Ryu Chung-woo.

– If I can help, of course I should.

Even so, I asked the two of them to talk first.

Next is the big moon.

-I… Do you have a video call with Sejin Lee?

This guy was a great welcome. nothing more to say

In addition, he even made an appointment with Keun-dal to meet later with a big Se-jin.

The problem is:

“… … .”

Wouldn’t there be a corner of doubt if I only recruited people who were friendly with me or who I didn’t know very well.

From the perspective of Big Se-jin, the spectrum was correct only when one person who was hostile was involved.

Cheongrye.

-is it so?

He seemed to wonder, ‘Why did you do that?’, but he didn’t refuse.

I just said this.

– It doesn’t matter, but… I don’t recommend.

– I won’t believe it.

yes x feet. In fact, I doubted that too.

But I believed

‘He believed only after hearing my explanation.’

I won’t deny it. It could be because I was sleepy and out of my mind, but when it was all over and I went back to my room at night, the top of my head was thrilled.

Thanks to that, I did something that I would be buried with controversy if I posted on the Internet yesterday.

Before going to sleep, he texted the senior in the morning.

[I believed]

And this is the reply I received this morning.

[Really?]

[Bring me one next time ^^]

Are you crazy?

‘Why are you inviting me naturally?’

I don’t know what you mean. I took my eyes off my smartphone with uneasy eyes.

It was then.

“… What are you doing?”

“I was wondering if there was any contact.”

“I see.”

Bae Se-jin just spoke. The boy paused, and finally spoke with an expectant face.

“you guys… Are you reconciled?”

I laughed. I thought there was no time to talk because I was preparing for the concert, but as soon as it was over, I asked.

“yes.”

“Whoa… Sejin

Bae let out a long sigh of relief as if his tension had been relieved. the ground will go down

I looked at the guy again.

He said he delayed the meeting time thanks to this guy.

“Thank you.”

“What what.”

“You told Se-jin Lee to talk to me about time.”

“… ! Did you hear?”

“yes. Not intentionally, but accidentally. Thanks to that, I also had the courage to apologize.”

Bae Se-jin’s face reddened as if it were about to explode. I chuckled.

“But you didn’t even have to apologize to him.”

“I know, I was just trying to talk… !”

“… … .”

did you

“He’s totally in the mood with you… .”

“… … .”

Did you tease that much?

Bae Se-jin was almost like a soul coming out of his mouth.

“It’s the first time I’ve been in a situation like this… . I don’t know if I did well.”

“Because you did well.”

I’ve been talking about that until now, what are you talking about?

Still, I understood what Sejin Bae meant. Does that guy have a history of trying to mediate between peers?

‘Even when he was in school, he seems to have voluntarily bullied everyone else.’

I guess he didn’t know that his first attempt would work so well.

“Yeah anyway… I’m glad you reconciled… .”

Bae Se-jin seemed to have burned white, as if he had consumed his vitality in a different experience, but he looked very proud.

‘Should I make a late night snack?’

As I opened my mouth, I saw that Sejin had stopped talking to Ryu Chengwu and was approaching this way.

‘Couldn’t you have marked each one with Ryu Cheong-wu?’

This is the first time I’ve been treated like this. And the big Se-jin who approached me gave me a few glances and then started talking to Bae Se-jin.

“Here bro.”

“Huh?”

“thank you. I heard from Chungwoo hyung. I heard you delayed the meeting time?”

‘Did I tell you that too?’ passed over Bae Se-jin’s face, but pride soon seemed to win.

“We are a group. It’s good to understand that all of these things together. … and! I wasn’t the only one thinking… Everyone agreed.”

“… … .”

“Well, why did you interfere with work? Well, it could be, but this is… .”

“I don’t think so.”

“… !”

Big Sejin stroked his neck. I saw that bastard was sloppy.

“I didn’t know my brother would care so much here. No, I’m not being sarcastic, it’s real.”

“… … .”

I was going to leave it and slip away, but I decided to stay because there might be another dog fight.

Bae Se-jin didn’t seem angry, but his expression calmed down.

“why… You thought I wouldn’t care?”

“I thought you would avoid it even if you were concerned about other members’ work. It’s a turtle.”

“… !”

By the way, I was surprised.

‘Why are you talking as they are in your head?’

Even Bae Se-jin’s mouth, which was forced to speak through a filter, began to become free.

“It’s not that hard.”

“yes.”

“But there was a concert tomorrow and I got involved in your fight. … I did what I could.”

“… … .”

“You would have been too.”

“… !”

Big Sejin’s face became as if he had been hit by a blow. Bae Se-jin said with a pretty plausible expression.

“Isn’t it big?”

“… no.”

At that moment, Big Sejin relaxed his expression and smiled.

“Of course it must have been. Anyway, I misunderstood needlessly. sorry.”

“… … .”

“And thank you. really.”

“okay. Well, it was hard.”

The atmosphere lightened up a lot. I shrugged.

“… Park Moondae! You suffered too!”

You drag me in because you’re embarrassed.

“What. We are going down slowly.”

“Oh yeah.”

Only then did the three of us start walking briskly down the hallway. All the others had already gone to the waiting room.

In the meantime, Keun Se-jin suddenly laughed and even threw a joke.

“Is that why you were out in the living room when we were roommates? Do you want to do what you can?”

“no… That’s inconvenient.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

“yes. what.”

“Keuheum Next time I become a roommate… Let’s have a little conversation about that.”

Big Sejin took on another challenge.

“Hyung, even when I spoke to you, you didn’t even answer properly!”

“no! I really have nothing to say!”

I knew it would be like this.

But honestly, it’s much better if you tell me what you don’t like.

‘Even though I knew in my head that there was no malice between them, I guess they didn’t realize it.’

It seems to be felt now. I shrugged.

“You know I really don’t understand hyung sometimes, right?”

“know. so do i.”

It seems that Keun Se-jin and Bae Se-jin will be sorted out at that level this time.

It was a big step forward.

‘It won’t explode even if I stick it together.’

I accepted the unexpected income quite willingly.

* * *

When I entered the waiting room and prepared to go back, I went through a similar process.

-Brothers! Welcome!

-Hyung, this is delicious. eat!

I try to hide it in my own way, but all these guys show it.

‘I know that you guys fought and reconciled, and I’m proud to have contributed in some way’… the atmosphere.

Even the staff pass by with a smile as if rumors had spread. oh shit

-Ahaha thank you~

Keun Sejin did not stop laughing. It seems quite embarrassing that you knew everything. know. Me too.

Even so, he quietly left a message for me.

– If you have a problem with Park Moondae, tell me anytime? I want to see the person who introduced me soon~

Yes. Not bad if you want to see it with your own eyes.

‘It seems like Ryu Cheng-wu and I talked to each other on our own.’

… I was a bit uneasy. I straightened my shoulders. Then another guy came in.

Seon Ah-hyun.

He was sitting alone in the corner looking at something, and when our eyes met, he was startled.

“… ? Why why… ?”

“no.”

Come to think of it, from this guy’s point of view, two people of the same age excluding himself from the team fought and then reconciled.

‘I didn’t expect to know this much.’

Besides, in the future… I’ve got another thing to say without this guy.

I stumbled upon it once.

“I’m sorry for bothering you.”

“Oh no… ! I was worried, but I thought you would reconcile.”

Seon Ah-hyun laughed a little and then added in a small voice.

“excuse me… If you have a problem with mumundae, it’s okay to tell me anytime.”

“… … .”

I don’t think this guy knows everything… Of course not.

“thank you.”

“What what.”

Sun Ah-hyun smiled and started packing her luggage. I thought involuntarily.

‘If this guy finds out, how will he react… … .’

I don’t know. In the first place, I didn’t know if I would believe Keun Se-jin, but what?

Well, I don’t intend to bring Sejin into this game anyway, so I don’t think there will be a big deal with Seon Ah-hyun.

I even lifted my belongings by his side.

Then I found it. Bae Se-jin’s electronic devices… Is it an e-book reader?

“This is my brother.”

“uh? okay.”

While holding it, I handed it to him, and in the process the device screen lit up.

It was locked, but the title of the book was visible.

[A day that is okay to fight]

"… … ."

"… As a reference!"

"Yes."

It is a self-help book.

really… I see you worked hard

'It'd be funny if I didn't give compliments here.'

I opened my mouth right away.

"Your brother sure… I think you'll do well once you do it."

Surprisingly, Bae Se-jin was not frightened by these words. Instead, he murmured in a slightly excited voice.

"I know. As for producing, I thought I couldn't do it, but I thought that there were things that worked well once I tried… surprised."

"… … ."

"from now on… I want to be a little more active."

"good idea."

"huh."

Bae Se-jin seemed to have made a new resolution.

And the opportunity to fulfill that promise came soon.

A few days later.

“I got an answer from the film company.”

“Ohhhh.”

Inquiries for an OST for a movie borrowed from the game world of an abandoned factory seemed to have been safely delivered via T1.

However, Liu Cheng-wu, who was contacted by the company, laughed awkwardly.

‘… Difficulty?’

“It’s positive.”

“oh my god!”

“Wooooow!”

Cha Yoo-jin, whom I was most looking forward to, blew a whistle. However, Liu Cheng-wu’s embarrassed expression did not disappear.

“however… The deadline is very tight.”

“yes?”

no way.

“Looks like we’re pushing through. So, if you really want to participate… .”

“if there is?”

“I heard you have to put out a demo in four days?”

“… !”

It was crazy.

Everyone reflexively looked at Kim Rae-bin. This is because the situation requires an expert opinion.

But I already know the answer.

‘It’s obvious without looking at it.’

As expected, Kim Rae-bin… eyes were flashing

“You are indeed Moondae’s older brother. Concerned about this situation, you brought a strong policy of living together for three days a week!”

“… … .”

Let’s say so.

K-Pop Hell Camp… reopening.

Chapter 335

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 335

Everyone agreed that this OST requires a slightly different approach from previous album songs.

"It's not a collaboration like a game, so we just have to make it fit for the movie."

"At the same time, it's important to show Testa's color just right~"

Putting the center on the movie, Testa is just enough to be recognizable as a base.

There is just a problem.

"Yes… It would be better if there was a main melody like a crab game."

"… Whether you make it or not, you have to give the data."

The film industry didn't have much to offer.

Some of the keywords and scenario summaries that were given as 'limited to the leakage problem' were poorer than expected.

Let's start with keywords.

[Space cyberpunk super power battle focus]

The plot is at the level of an obvious sci-fi hero movie. There is almost no explanation of the worldview.

‘No matter how much it’s too much.’

I frowned. You can even write a confidentiality memorandum, but I think it’s less than telling people who come to auditions.

“First of all, I will proceed with composing while being conscious of the fact that it is background music in line with the movie OST composition method… .”

So, even if Kim Rae-bin shouted sternly and started working, the rest of the members had nothing to do.

‘I don’t know how to compose an OST, so what can I do with Zero Base?’

There are four days left, but now it’s hard to learn and cram.

‘At most, I’ll have to touch the melody…’ .’

There’s no room for brainstorming. Daeron Lee seems to be giving feedback on what Raebin Kim made with surplus manpower.

‘I started a camp to avoid this situation.’

Right now, when composing an OST, it is a bit bitter to follow the previous steps without any special choice. I turned around and got up from my seat.

“Where is Moondae hyung going?”

“Go get some water.”

“I’m coming too!”

Cha Yoo-jin followed. For some reason, it seems to follow me whenever I go to the kitchen… I don’t think it’s an illusion.

“Can I eat this?”

“okay.”

Let’s not bother to tell you that half of the cost is actually paid by you anyway. Because this guy has enough money.

Cha Yoo-jin, who was finding snacks in the hotel refrigerator and popping them into her mouth, suddenly threw up a word.

[You can see the trouble on your face?]

“… what.”

“Is it tasty! take it!”

Not required.

I murmured as I chewed on the nuts he offered me.

“Are you worried?”

Isn’t it obvious

“It’s because the selection of an OST in four days is a forced march. There aren’t many materials provided by the company.”

I’m not one to be swayed by realistic words, so it’s okay to say this much.

As expected, Cha Yu-jin looked fine, but shrugged.

And he made a bombshell statement.

“That company is doing it on purpose!”

“… !”

Cha Yoo-jin crumpled the snack bag and threw it into the trash.

bang.

“On purpose.”

[Yes. This is perfectly clear. Well, it seems that this company doesn't want to give us a job, right?]

"… … ."

keep talking

I leaned against the wall. Cha Yoo-jin also leaned against the wall.

[It's unpleasant that we suddenly interrupted. Well, some prejudice may have worked.]

Ah.

'Is it on the racist side?'

He was a local, so he knew it well.

"Are you talking about experience?"

"No! But I don't care."

Now you use double negatives.

Well, judging from the look on his face that said that Cha Yoo-jin's Korean skills were insignificant anyway, it seemed that nothing serious had happened.

"So I know this too. If you do well, you can't talk."

oh.

"And you can't. We're cool even without OST!"

"You wanted to go to America."

[Well, there are always other options!]

It's still the same. There's nothing to lose if you politely decline.

‘It’s been a long time since this guy showed off his hair so aggressively.’

It’s kind of interesting. Shall I encourage you?

“Then I don’t want to quit, but what if these bastards are offended?”

“Then I am screaming that I want a 100% proper request. Stars are like that. And] I want to! Our company sends an e-mail.”

hmm.

It’s definitely a cool way, but… It’s true that we squeezed through the T1 line, so there’s no need to give the opponent an excuse to openly refute.

I grinned.

“What if there is a quieter and cooler way?”

“… ! Let me know!”

okay.

“hmm… If you look at the fact that these guys come out unfairly pretending to give them work.”

Rather good situation.

I smiled and opened the plastic bottle.

“It’s enough to say that, but you should pay attention.”

“Are the two different?”

“different.”

I drank water.

“It’s just that you can’t refuse.”

So, aren’t you making unreasonable demands?

“Oh… .”

Cha Yu-jin nodded his head softly.

“But why do you like it?”

“It means our company is using some strength.”

“Is it stronger than our company’s Limestone?”

No matter how much T1 can do against that crazy copyright conglomerate.

“It’s not like that, it’s because of the close relationship. T1 Entertainment distributes Limestone movies in Korea.”

“Oh.”

There’s definitely a reason the film studio couldn’t turn it down. I don’t know what it is, but T1 made a better deal than expected.

Perhaps T1 saw our proposal as a green light for flattery, saying ‘Thank you very much’.

‘Did you think we bowed down on our own when we were about to be sarcastically because our direct label proposal fell through?’

It’s completely misunderstood, but it’s good to use it.

Anyway, T1 must have wanted to grow the overseas pie of the target singer, so I was excited and contacted the film company and made a big deal.

However, considering the relationship with T1, the film company said okay, but the working staff was annoyed when a non-American KPOP idol suddenly intervened.

I touched my chin.

‘Someone is playing a joke somewhere in the middle of film history.’

At most, it’s about one OST for foreign guys, so did you think it was okay?

“Someone among the head of the Limestone staff seems to be looking at us with respect.”

“all right! But when will you tell me how?”

“now.”

Caught, I grinned.

“okay. The meaning of the explanation so far is… .”

“Please tell us!”

You are proud.

“It means that once we meet the absurd conditions that these guys called, we will have no choice but to say okay.”

“hmm?”

“It’s a situation where everyone at the top agreed. You can’t refuse without a reason. I don’t know if it’s a revision request.”

That means you can run.

“So how… First of all, I will send you a well-made finished copy.”

“Boo woo woo. You lose that.”

this guy

“It’s not just about making it well, it’s about making it by adding more than keywords on its own.”

I drank water.

“We are doing elaborate additional work by adding the existing hero movies of this film company and keywords of the game world view of the game company itself.”

“Why do you do that?”

“I had to make it embarrassing.”

“hmm?”

I crumpled an empty plastic bottle.

“I’m just adding it honestly as I send it. You guys didn’t send me something so I collected the data and made it myself.”

“Uuuuuh!”

“And the next words are important.”

“what?”

I laughed.

“The person in charge doesn’t seem to know, but when requesting an OST demo, they kindly inform us that this level of information and time is usually required.”

“… !”

I shrugged.

“And when you have a meeting, you just need to tell them that you need to prepare these things, as if you were teaching a kindergartener. Then it’s over.”

No matter how many OST songs there are, preparations for the first meeting with outsiders cannot be left out without a report from the top.

Then, even if you don’t know who the prankster is, there’s no place to escape. You will have to explain to both companies yourself what happened.

“WOW.”

Cha Yoo-jin changed his stance.

“Hyung, that’s totally Badass!”

“Do you like it?”

“I like it!”

I’m glad you like it.

Cha Yoo-jin asked for a high-five, and even ran to the hotel parlor and started explaining herself first.

“Let’s make our cool OST and embarrass you!”

“what?”

I knew it would be like this.

I completed the explanation by supplementing Cha Yu-jin’s words. The members looked bewildered, but soon became serious.

“It’s a classy way.”

“It’s okay~ Even if things go wrong, we did our best.”

In this way, even if things go wrong, it means that you can win unconditionally in the public opinion war. yeah i considered that too.

“Shall we try a majority vote?”

“okay.”

As soon as the unanimous vote was OK, Cha Yoo-jin blew a whistle.

“Our members are really cool!”

And Kim Rae-bin started to get excited again.

“Then we must get to work immediately.”

“okay. We’ll quickly bring up movie and game references~ Our Rabin, fighting!”

“yes!”

That’s how the surplus manpower, excluding Kim Rae-bin, also had something to do.

“Well then, should I tell the company about the explanation to be sent there?”

“Well, I think it would be more effective if we use it.”

It is not likely that an interpreter who can save all the subtle nuances will be attached in this short period of time. Rather, it is better for us, the parties, to spend a little more time.

‘There’s just the right person.’

“Do I?”

“no. Gather your references I know American culture well.” Not

“OK”

Cha Yu-jin. I’m active, but to be honest, I don’t think I’m going to use the official document vocabulary well.

I turned my head.

“Ah Hyun-ah.”

“Yes… ?”

“Can we make a description of our work in English?”

Sun Ah-hyun’s face brightened.

“Ugh… !”

Studying abroad at a prestigious private school and having an advanced English vocabulary, this is probably better. Before sending, you need to have it inspected by an expert.

Besides, Sun Ah-hyun doesn’t participate in producing well, so it seems she’s glad that she has something she can do.

“I will work hard… !”

“good.”

It seems that Seon Ah-hyun also put some pressure on her mind with this.

Big Sejin smiled.

“Ah~ I think everything has been sorted out. Shall we go fighting again?”

“OK!”

The air became lively again.

And in that atmosphere, Kim Rae-bin muttered as if he had realized it now.

“Then, considering the description and translation… The deadline is half a day off.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

Kim Rae-bin raised his thumb.

“The scheduled camp date was originally three days, so it seems to fit perfectly!”

Yes, if you’re okay, we’re all okay.

“Ah… I am tired.”

TI ENT’s external cooperation department on duty sighed.

Since overseas calls were made even at dawn in Korean time, it was the worst thing to have to stand on standby for an emergency one day a week.

I slept on the side and watched netplus, but it was still boring.

‘In the first place, I don’t have the right to read anything that comes at this time.’

There is nothing to do except quickly call back when an emergency arises from a few of the requested customers. The worker rolled the company’s ERP system with a sigh.

Then I saw a document.

[TeSTAR movie cooperation case]

I heard rumors from the knowledge department because they are so hot idols.

‘I told you first that I would work with Limestone.’

And I think I heard that they sent an actual demo the day before yesterday.

I didn’t have permission to read it, so I checked it slightly over my shoulder, but I could tell that it was made with great care, even the explanation attached as an appendix.

So it was embarrassing.

‘One so far… .’

To be honest, it seemed a bit servile.

‘Everyone seemed to be ignoring them, but an idol who won the grand prize in Korea… .’

Could it be that the company did it?

For some reason, his ego was hurt by the proxy, so the worker used it as an excuse to curse the company.

And the future was also predicted briefly based on the time.

‘If you give me an ok sign as if you were choosing it, I’m sure they’ll say something again with it, this damn company… .’

It was then.

A new mail has arrived.

[Fw: In response to your request of… …]

It caught my eye from the recipient.

‘Lime Stone!’

Just click… I wanted to, but I didn’t have the authority. So, unfortunately, one caught the eye of the worker, who was even scratching the surface.

Attachment size.

‘uh… .’

What arrived was a pile of files as large as Testa sent… !

‘What the hell did they send?’

If it was a simple OK sign, there would be no such clear, and the contract clause was the same.

‘damn!’

It was frustrating that I couldn’t see it because I didn’t have permission to read it… ! The watchman sighed.

And after the day is bright, the watchman gets the circumstances of the mail.

That it is a gesture of voluntary tax payment and reconciliation sent back.

‘Wow!’

It was a cool substitute cider.

‘What did you send? No, how well did you make the song?’

* * *

“A proper request has arrived.”

“oh.”

It worked.

Of course, I don’t know what else I’ll say when I actually leave the meeting.

‘No, in this way, we can just send and receive emails without meeting.’

Still, I didn’t bother to stop the members from laughing and high-fiving.

‘One win is one win.’

Liu Cheng-wu smiled and continued the briefing.

“There are very few correction requests, only some arrangement requests regarding the structure of the song.”

“It’s not difficult!”

Kim Rae-bin is almost flying. He shows an unbelievable aggressiveness for a guy who worked while drinking caffeinated drinks like water for three days.

‘Looks interesting.’

It was then. What Ryu Cheng-wu showed a puzzled expression.

“and… They say we’ll sign a contract with a cameo appearance?”

“… ?”

“Really? A movie cameo?”

“huh.”

I was amazed.

these guys… .

Just because things have turned out like this, they really want to eat Korean box office mulberries.

“You mean this movie, right?”

“Yeah. It just appears in the background as if passing by.”

“If that’s enough… .”

“Are you okay?”

And naturally, we all looked at one guy.

“Why why… ?”

“I will only trust you.”

“… !?”

Bae Se-jin, a genius child actor, has come to challenge Hollywood.

“Don’t believe me!”

Chapter 336

If you can't debut, you'll die of a disease. Episode 336 The film production company called Testa to the United States ten days after accepting the offer.

It seems that filming was already in full swing.

'I think we intervened when the schedule was quite advanced.'

But you even offered a cameo?

I thought this was a gesture of reconciliation and ambition, but I guess I should keep my eyes open for other possibilities.

'It could be used to feed water.'

I was going to mention that I should prepare my mind, but I didn't have to.

"Even if it's just one scene you pass by, you can wait for hours because you don't know what the order will be. It's not like I skipped the whole day for nothing."

"Oh oh."

"Of course, Hollywood may have a different system, but we will definitely fall behind in our priorities, so consider it… ."

This is because Bae Se-jin is pouring out on-site problems like bombing.

Thanks to that, the atmosphere of 'I even went out for a movie cameo to refresh myself in the middle of the tour' was gone. Everyone has an angle of welcoming a new job like a newcomer going out to a meeting.

In the meantime, Bae Se-jin is now trying to fix it.

"… But it could be good! Film acting is definitely attractive!"

The effect was minimal.

"I guess so."

"I think it's a different matter than whether we can perform well."

"… I was an idol too! You can too!"

"It's hard to generalize because it's not the case of the same person… ."

"That's right~ Let's do our best!"

"… ??"

Kim Rae-bin was blocked and the big Se-jin settled the atmosphere.

'Well blocked.'

Bae Se-jin seemed to want to convince the end, but that's it.

I spent some time on the plane looking through the OST materials they sent me.

Of course it's English.

'I knew you wouldn't translate. Because time is running out.'

The agency provided a summary translation, but the quality was not very good. As soon as the label independence ends, I will start by finding a full-time professional interpreter.

Fortunately, Cha Yoo-jin and Seon Ah-hyun gave a briefing, so everyone was familiar with the contents of the movie.

To sum it up, this is it.

[The story of a courier who goes out into space through a naturally occurring warp gate after the earth is half ruined and goes on a dangerous and exciting adventure!] It only borrowed the sci-fi format, but the actual style seems to be a mix of a western and a hero movie.

‘And the universe system in this earth ruined story is the world view of the < Abandoned Factory > style game series.’

While monitoring < 127 Section >, I checked the words I had seen a few times and the titles that appeared in the new game.

‘I’m a little confused because it’s in English… .’

“If you need a word explanation, I can tell you… .”

“Then thank you.”

“Yes!”

I listened to Seon Ah-hyun’s explanation in the seat next to the plane and matched the structure.

With a cameo, we confirm once more what role we will play.

‘hmm… I want you to pay homage to the game starting characters you collaborated with before.’

It seems to appear briefly in a fight scene.

There is nothing to be prepared for. There was only one ambassador.

I knew it would be like this because the film company bought the copyright for the world view and there is no copyright problem. Because it was an expected draft, I was able to easily organize the effects and side effects in my head.

“… hmm.”

and predict

‘I think I’ll be ridiculed if I’m aloof.’

Isn’t it an overly one-dimensional interpretation and intervention? And makeup is also a concern.

‘There are no Northeast Asians among the main characters.’

It would be difficult to make a good impact even if the 7 of us appeared on the stage at once, but it would be difficult to avoid a sense of incongruity.

“Hmm.”

“Are you dumb?”

“Oh, I want to look at the scenario book.”

I put our entry papers behind and pulled out the screenplay summary again.

The brain went tight.

It was 12 hours before arriving in the US.

* * *

And the United States finally arrived.

We quietly entered and moved privately. Fortunately, nothing special happened as if T1 hadn’t hit Unplea while drinking kimchi soup already.

After that, the first place I entered was… It’s a dajja gojja movie set.

That’s funny.

“uh… Aren’t you going to start with the OST meeting?”

“They said they couldn’t change the set schedule. It is said that the schedule is completely divided into hourly units.”

Certainly, apart from the scale, the scene was quietly and smoothly run by people who took care of their own business.

“… … .”

“… I thought it would be noisy.”

Even Bae Se-jin seemed a little flustered. The person who was attached as a site guide for a while smiled and spoke in Korean.

“This division of labor is unique to Hollywood.”

“Ah yes.”

And after hearing a few words of explanation and saying hello to the assistant director… I started waiting in the trailer.

“… … .”

“Mmm.”

At this point, everyone seemed to have noticed the atmosphere, and even the members laughed bitterly.

“I neglect.”

“I know.”

They take care of blankets and food pretty well, but at least I haven’t even started dressing up yet.

It seems that only our manager and officials are running hard.

‘Does it go as expected.’

It looked like it wasn't checked properly. It's a bonus treatment that I've never received in Korea since I became a member of the first team. this is fun too

"The manager must be having a hard time~"

"It seems that communication is not going well. Shall I go out and come back?"

It was a time when I was making my own plans while listening to the conversations of some guys.

Cha Yoo-jin, sitting next to her, stabs her in the waist.

"… ?"

What.

When I looked at him, he muttered in an awkward way.

"This is not normal!"

"then?"

"It is bad."

Cha Yoo-jin continued to speak only in the form of mouth.

'Pretend not to hear.'

"… !"

[It's a pretty classic method.]

Oh… therefore.

'Are you ignoring our staff as if it were unintentional?'

This crossed the fun line.

I crossed my arms.

“The grounds?”

[In Hollywood, actors are basically the best. But look at this treatment. Because that side treats us completely as extras or props, not as actors.]

“… … .”

It’s worth it.

Looking back, I was so concerned about the time schedule, but since we didn’t have a special contract in the contract and we set aside enough time, it’s okay to neglect this much.

“Why, what happened to Eugene?”

“hmm.”

Cha Yu-jin shrugged and looked at me. What is this, translate it to me?

I only briefly talked about reality.

“They seem to be deliberately delaying until the last minute of our last minute before letting us shoot.”

“… ah.”

“Ugh.”

Everyone breathes a sigh, as if they guessed it based on the atmosphere.

Ryu Cheng-wu smiled bitterly.

“It is as Bae Se-jin said.”

“… no. I said this while thinking about the filming in Korea, but here… Things look different.”

Bae Se-jin continued with a firm expression.

“If you’re doing this on purpose… It’s bullying.”

And Kim Rae-bin was astonished.

“… ! Is this racism?”

okay. That’s it.

“Something rushed in… Race or reputation must have played a part in foreigners.”

Because it originally depends on how you treat the work that suddenly pops up in the yard where the schedule is already set.

And in their perception, we don’t seem to have much power.

“… … .”

I snapped my neck and checked the others.

No one is outraged.

Heck, until we sold 1 million copies, it wasn’t like we weren’t treated like this at all.

“It reminds me of < Azusa >.”

“That’s right.”

Crucially, it is because the experience is weaker than the debut program.

He is calm like those who have been through a mess since before his debut.
I shrugged.

“It’s a meeting in the evening anyway, so let’s start with the meeting and then talk again.”

I asked the guy who spoke up.

“how is it.”

[If I fall out of here, I couldn’t film it because you guys refused to do it because I skipped the schedule. Would it end up like this in violation of the contract?]

“I guess so.”

“yes!”

Seon Ah-hyun immediately convinced me. Then, the two guys who ate foreign food came to the same conclusion.

“Hmm.”

“Ah, that’s embarrassing.”

Aside from being pissed off, you have an allergic reaction to punk like a guy who likes to work.

“What do you think of Moondaemundae?”

what am i

I crossed my arms.

“I am… I don’t think it’s okay to break the contract.”

“… !”

I saw Sejin Bae with a hard face.

“Hyung, it would be very sad if his entry into Hollywood was canceled, but… .”

“hey!”

Bae Se-jin was hot. The atmosphere lightened for a moment, but he soon calmed down.

“Even though I don’t want to film in this situation. It’s not even my own name, it’s because I’m using the group name.”

“brother… .”

The past few days, reactions automatically explode from those who know that he has been excited by pretending not to give advice.

“that’s right. It’s a role too small for Sejin to appear.”

“Not like that!”

I chuckled.

“It was a joke. In fact, I don’t think it will go as far as breaking the contract.”

“… ?”

“Why why?”

“These guys will never give up on OSTs.”

“I don’t want to fight that out, so I think I’ll come out quite amicably at the dinner meeting.”

“… !”

If you hear the finished version and say you want to take it out, those bastards are X-scenes.

Even if the people who work in the field and the people who work there are completely divided, even if the treatment here is like this, now the OST people in charge can never joke.

I got bitten once… .

“Rabin Kim made it so well.”

No matter what kind of politics I did with the explanation, it actually worked because I liked the finished version.

“Oh… .”

“As expected, Rabin is a genius.”

“This is an undeserved compliment. I will do my best.”

okay. Take a deep breath and speak. The atmosphere was so organized. In fact, it was as if a conclusion had been drawn.

Big Sejin shrugged.

“then… Are we leaving?”

The members looked back at each other a few times, and soon even Sun Ah-hyun nodded.

“Let’s go.”

“OK~”

At that moment, as if Cha Yu-jin had been waiting, he kicked off the trailer and went out.

“… !?”

Ignore those who look back at what this is all about.

“Let’s start with the manager.”

“yes.”

And we blocked it by saying that we would talk about anything again after the meeting, and we really left the set with the company staff.

The staff just pretended to stop me and followed me.

‘I must have suffered a bit.’

“They say that we will also sue for damages because the tour schedule was disrupted because of the trauma.”

“good.”

Thanks to that, everyone’s fighting power has risen.

Even Bae Se-jin was furious as he entered the hotel.

“We are like that… You don’t have to put up with rudeness. is not it?”

“Yes.”

Besides that.

Actually, from the moment I first guided them to the filming set until the meeting, I planned to persuade them to drag on without filming.

‘On the contrary, it helps.’

I shrugged.

I didn’t even execute the plan, but it’s going smoothly on my own.

‘Thank you, territorial.’

That’s how we escaped the first day’s cameo shoot.

It was the first schedule punk in the Testa group.

* * *

And the meeting spot that night.

Surprisingly, the executive producer of the film production side came out.

‘It’s rare.’

I thought Gaga, the top working staff, would barely come out to work on the OST.

“When the director comes out… Isn’t that right?”

“I heard that the supervisory authority is not that great in this town. You can see that everything is divided.”

“I see.”

It’s a relief that the interpreter didn’t translate even when we were silent.

Afterwards, there was a short exchange of conventional greetings and introductions accompanied by staff dispatched from T1.

The interpreter carefully conveyed the producer’s words.

“They ask if there was a problem with the filming or why you didn’t film it.”

Oh, did the producer come out because of this?

After leaving the filming set, it seems that the report went into T1, and again, it seems that there was something between the people at the top.

I nodded.

“I waited indefinitely without hearing any explanation. The trailer is cold, but if you hurt your neck and can’t go on tour, you can’t do it.”

If you use English here, your vocabulary will be limited, and it will feel like you are adjusting. I don’t think so.

As the interpreter translates these words, the producer nods as if he understands.

And this is what came out

“… !”

what

I was hot from Bae Se-jin.

“No, we are not… .”

“Brother, wait a minute.”

okay. It seems that we misunderstood that we were taking our anger out on a cameo shoot because we were pissed off because we were fooled around with a few keywords during the request.

It was when the atmosphere cooled down.

Suddenly polite English rained down.

[It is absolutely not normal to stand by without any instructions. Also, the words of our staff were not conveyed properly to the assistant director, shouldn’t respect be a mutual relationship?]

“… !”

Seon Ah-hyun spat out a long sentence in English.

His face was pale, but his gaze was determined.

And there was no agreement with anyone.

Big Sejin was amazed.

‘Ahyeon must have been really pissed off.’

‘I know.’

I closed my mouth. The producer seemed a little taken aback, but he didn’t seem angry at Sun Ah-hyun’s words.

On the contrary, it seemed that only then did his head begin to turn toward a proper grasp of the situation.

And after a while, the interpreter opened his mouth again.

“You say that there seems to have been a mutual misunderstanding. He says he will respect your time more on site.”

“… yes.”

Sun Ah-hyun kept her mouth shut. It didn’t look very satisfied, but I slapped him on the back.

‘Good job.’

This is enough to set the mood. Seon Ah-hyun smiled faintly.

And I opened my mouth again.

“Then, let’s do the cameo again on another day and in another scene.”

“… !”

I’ll eat you up to the point where you’re pretending to yield.

Chapter 337

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 337

Let’s look at Testa’s previous movie cameo appearances again.

-A role that backs up a supporting character when the main character leads a large-scale battle and then disappears.

‘It’s a perfect composition for homage or parody.’

Looking at the scenario scene roughly, it seems that not only us but also a lot of game characters will appear as if passing by.

‘If I’m guessing, it’s probably right before the climax in the mid-to-late half of the movie.’

However, what would happen if we were the only ones who suddenly jumped out as game characters, neither established actors nor CGs?

Even if you do well, you won’t be able to do it.

If you’re a little clumsy, you’ll become sober.

‘If I go further, I will become a ridicule on the Internet.’

It’s understandable that the director and the field don’t like it. This is clearly a choice made by the production company as a company to company.

And the producer sitting in front of us right now is the head of a working staff located between the production company and the production team.

I have authority, but maybe I am in a position where I can sympathize with the field.

But even now, we have pulled the justification from our side. That person is ready to listen.

‘Seon Ah-hyun set the mood well.’

Now, if it’s possible, I’ll accept the opinion that it’s okay if it’s a red skirt.

So I slowly opened my mouth.

Carrots first.

“We also have no intention of infringing on the set schedule. In the first place, it is impossible because of the tour schedule.”

We’re busy too, kid.

When the interpretation was delivered, the producer nodded quite seriously. I continued talking.

“So, why don’t we proceed simply enough to find out that the testa is out. Our contract has to be fulfilled.”

An interpreter relayed the words of the producer.

“He said let’s proceed to secure the schedule by checking scenes that are as similar as possible.”

Thinking that we are also bowing down, I asked coldly.

I knew it would be, but it wouldn’t be like that.

I laughed heartily.

You can’t appear in a fight scene with that X-like cosplay feeling.

It will come out with a different image.

induce

I recalled the scenes I had noticed while reading the summary of the scenario on the plane.

And I picked up one of them.

“How about something like this scene instead?”

It’s because I asked our staff, who wandered around the filming set, as soon as I got home from the hotel.

Among the scenes I filmed, did you hear the staff mention it?

and got one

-Oh this…

-Did you tell me?

-yes. Um, I think after a while this actor said he was using this set?

That’s what this scene is.

A final draft that fits the schedule perfectly.

I held out that page of the summary to the producer.

“It’s more fun for a singer to play the role of a singer. Since we are singers, large-scale battle scenes might look awkward.”

Cuts that can be hit and run with little disruption to the shooting schedule, and at the same time we can use them as images.

go with this

“I don’t have anything specific for you to do, just a few words and inserting the background is all it takes, so I thought you’d feel comfortable using it.”

The producer listened to the interpreter. I looked around a bit.

Since it had been agreed upon at the hotel, there was no particular agitation.

However, Cha Yoo-jin, who was sitting closer to the producer, raised her eyebrows humorously. I felt like I heard something.

‘oh.’

Cha Yoo-jin smiled. I know roughly what you’re talking about.

after a while

“You say you want to hear the story in more detail.”

It was actually an OK sign.

‘yes.’

I shrugged.

And three days later, the afternoon cameo shoot went ahead as planned.

* * *

Late winter morning.

As always on a Hollywood set, the workers know exactly what they are doing.

Even if waiting for them was just a series of things I didn’t want to do with low pay, nothing was different. If it was only for a living, I would have gone to law school, but I wouldn’t be here.

The same goes for the assistant, who is like the feet of the production team. The youngest of the PAs, she barely listened to the briefing while checking coffee on set.

“Do you have extra people?”

It’s a short cameo appearance, but it’s rare that it’s suddenly added on the same day.

When she asked who the ‘exception’ was, the team member answered briefly.

“KPOP star.”

“ah.”

They were foreigners who had left their seats without permission a few days ago.

They don’t know how well known they were in their country, but even she, who knows what KPOP is, didn’t know.

‘VTIC? That’s the only KPOP boy band name I know.’

Thinking of her sister who is crazy about KPOP, she slightly frowned, but soon straightened it.

“Certainly Joan was rude.”

The attitude taken by the assistant director and half of the production team at the time was too much.

It was something you would do to an unknown actor. It’s a different discussion on whether it’s okay to do such a thing because you’re unknown.

“Still, it’s nice to have the guts to leave.”

The words of the team members were ironic.

If you can’t stand it and leave the trailer, you have to give up on being successful in Hollywood.

‘It’s going to be a rough day.’

She sighed after briefly assessing how much of a mess the band would make for her today after leaving the set in one day.

“Is this an extended shoot?”

“30 minutes.”

“uh… We should pray that Steve doesn’t kill anyone.”

“You should pray that it will be short.”

The chat ended quickly. She got a call and started running around the scene again.

The set and effect were extremely realistic thanks to the director this time refraining from CG as much as possible and applying it to the set cost.

It was a rare environment for acting in this film series, where people often act while wearing only green jackets.

‘still… What the hell are you going to do here?’

This scene was the beginning of a huge range of worldviews, in which the protagonist, who first arrived on the space station, entered a bar and met a helper.

There was no place for KPOP stars wearing eccentric clothes anywhere.

‘Well, Joan, the assistant director, would know.’

Because he was in charge of managing trivial matters at the filming site. She held back a sigh and moved the desk.

And it was the moment when I was trying to lift a few chairs.

Her feet twisted.

“Ugh.”

It is the wrong step on the floor.

‘oh my god!’

The assistant closed her eyes for a moment, but did not collapse to the floor with the chair.

Instead, someone snatched the chair she was holding.

“Are you okay?”

“… ! iced coffee… yes.”

“My God, what did you carry so much on your back? I see people playing over there.”

It was a lively and relaxed voice.

‘Who is it?’

She was puzzled for a moment, but she stood up from her collapsed body.

And I was surprised.

“Each of us has a job to do… … !”

“Well, that might be right.”

When I looked up, more than ten people were standing in front of me. All Asians, mostly men.

And the tall boy, the man carrying her luggage, grinned.

“My job is cameos. nice to meet you. This is Testa.”

“hello!”

The boys of my age who greeted me from behind were quite polite. All had good skin and good looks, but some were too pretty in her eyes.

‘Still, he has a good attitude.’

The concerns I had a few minutes ago disappeared like a joke.

“hello. yes. thank you.”

She thought of something like ‘You speak English well’, swallowed it, and gave a normal answer.

As if he had noticed it, the pink-haired boy behind him opened his mouth with strange eyes.

“This guy is from here. California.”

“Oh yeah.”

Come to think of it, no matter who heard it, it was the accent of this state, so they were more surprised when they looked up.

She looked at the boy who helped her once again.

He has a good body, is relaxed, and has the unique momentum of a well-rounded person.

“You can call me Eugene.”

“Um, that’s right.”

“Wouldn’t it be okay not to eat that delicious sandwich in the trailer today?”

that way of speaking… Definitely from California. Say negative words first and blur them with positive ones. She laughed hard once.

“Maybe. Right now, Joan… I will guide you to the assistant director.”

“thank you!”

As she moved to hand them over to the assistant director, she heard a foreign language behind her.

[Hey, Yujin is so good at talking?]

[I know!]

I don’t know what it means, but it was a bright tone. It doesn’t sound too bad.

‘Did they even increase the amount of cameos?’

What is certain is that the attitude of the assistant director has also changed. Joan suddenly began to treat them with excessive courtesy.

‘What is it?’

In any case, they quickly pre-occupied the set before the main actors who were filming today arrived.

She also moved quickly.

First of all snacks and drinks.

“Where can I take it when it’s all over?”

Instead of their staff, a pink-haired boy glanced back at himself and raised his hand in a short reply.

up?

“thank you. Up there.”

“… ?”

She followed her hand and raised her gaze.

The boy continued with a hard tone.

“We are going to perform.”

oh my god.

Where the hand points… It was a place made for perfection in a corner of the bar.

A small stage in a bar.

They came as performance extras in the background in this scene!

It was absurdly humble.

‘This… Why are you doing this?’

No matter how much they dressed up, the question was whether this crazy set atmosphere would really go well with them.

In the meantime, the filming preparations were steadily progressing, and the boys actually stood on the backstage of the bar after a camera test.

‘I’ll deal with the sound in hindsight anyway, so I’ll just have to pretend.’

They adjusted the mics and even had one actually sit down at the keyboard. There was also a boy who asked about the use of the bizarre space instrument.

And the moment when filming actually started in a quiet scene with no expectations.

Ugh~

The pub set is dark and mirror balls and luminous lights are flashing. -A rich sound echoes from the microphone, not for singing black hole songs.

“… !”

The amazing tones formed a harmony, and the accompaniment poured in like lasers or starlight.

But it wasn't elegant. A textured sound like randomly drawn crayons jumped out.

An addictive song with a fast beat suitable for a kitschy space opera. And a band that sings in a rather rebellious manner on a narrow stage.

-Let me swallow it

All of that melted into the atmosphere of a grotesque pub faithfully showing off the face of a sci-fi back alley.

A talent for seizing the moment.

"… … ."

She came to understand why the boy had to leave his birthplace and go to a distant country.

'It's hard to reject a team like that.'

They were meant to be flagships in light of the fact that they weren't formed as a team in the first place, just an ad-hoc group of survival survivors.

Anyway, the OST performance, which was arranged in just two minutes, made not only her, but also quite a few workers in a daze.

In the heightening parts and climax, there were even staff members who were watching and slightly shaking their bodies without realizing it.

Took.

"thank you."

It added its own status to the leisure of those who say hello after the end. It was a really popular celebrity-like posture.

‘… It was unexpectedly great.’

Besides, they didn’t look at the camera until the end. It was a skillful preparation for the film.

So it was even more pitiful.

‘Everything will be edited anyway… !’

The odds of reviving this performance in a movie were nil. It’s because it’s so out of the blue and it’s an external factor. o

This was taken as a candidate to be revealed behind the scenes at best!

She somehow felt that it was the most unfair.

I can understand why they chose this as a cameo scene, but it was unfortunate that they made a mistake because they didn’t know much about this field.

“phew.”

It was just a futile worry.

It’s because the parties didn’t even have such expectations in the first place.

What they were aiming for wasn’t simply because the performance looked great and was featured in a movie.

It was a connection with what was to be filmed next.

“Mmm.”

“You’re not filming any more shows, are you?”

“Looking at the atmosphere, I think so.”

Park Moon-dae, who fell off the microphone, opened his mouth to Bae Se-jin among the members waiting for the next cut.

“Hyung, now show off your acting skills as a genius child actor.”

“go for it!”

“There is no need to feel burdened, but we want you to know our deep faith and trust!”

And Bae Se-jin nodded earnestly, putting the past days when he reacted with something like, “It’s a single line of dialogue, but it sounds like some guy’s ability to control the camera.”

“… okay!”

“Oh oh!”

‘I was immersed.’

Park Moon-dae judged Bae Se-jin’s condition.

While refusing the water provided by the staff, Bae Se-jin just changed her gown with calm eyes.

And after a while, the ‘real’ cameo shoot that took place after the actors joined.

“… !”

The youngest assistant completely understands why the KPOP band chose this on the spot.

confused at the same time.

‘That person… Why are you in a boy band?’

* * *

Two months after that.

The tentatively edited internal blind preview of this film was first shown, and Testa's editing volume did not diminish despite the feedback from this preview.

However, rumors spread and speculation articles began to appear in Korea as well.

Chapter 338

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 338

April.

Kim Rae-bin’s fan came to the cinema after a long time.

‘I turned!’

Graduation is just around the corner, but the college student himself thought it was crazy to hit all the premiere events during the midterm exam and finally win.

It’s because of the chirashi article that is not even sure.

Rumor has it that a KPOP idol will appear as a cameo in this Limestone movie.

And, of course, that movie was the very Gukppong sniper movie that took the world view of the game series of ‘Abandoned Factory’, which made 〈127 Section〉.

Of course, candidates for a group that could be involved were also hotly sought after, but the number one priority was her idol.

Because everything is right.

-Didn’t you use a group that you collaborated with ? -Common sense?

-I’m so excited What is it What’s going on

Superficially, expectations mixed with positivity and anxiety were the mainstream.

Of course, the game community broke up the game company, saying things like ‘They were aiming for the United States, but the original mind was destroyed’.

If ‘splashing on KPOP idols’ is true, the general opinion was that the world view of the game was sold cheaply for marketing that crossed the line.

And interestingly, a similar reaction was coming from the idol fan community behind the scenes.

– As soon as I received the grand prize in Korea, I sent Cheonjoguk haha I lost my words because it was so messy.

-Now Korea is the meat I caught. Yes, I live while watching translated rice cakes.

-Idol

cameo.

‘Could it be that the independent label was also a rice cake to be sent to the US?!’

Fans who had already been suspicious of ‘the company can’t give me an independent label’ were preparing to attack the agency early on.

At the same time, he even kept quiet and caught the negative reaction to Testa externally.

‘Is it true that the agency ran around making things so disturbing during the period of inactivity?’

However, despite this heated response, T1 Stars did not make any official statement.

Normally, this company, which would have been crazy whether it was the first time in a while or press play, was quiet, on the contrary, making fans more anxious.

it became suspicious

‘It’s not that the quality is so bad that you can’t use it even with Unflo… ?’

‘Wouldn’t they have bundled up the kids and sold them with some crap deal?’

‘Why do you spend so much time with a cameo appearance? Could there be anything more?’

Of course, Testa was on tour, so it was difficult to evoke with other content.

Even if you ask questions as if they were plastered in comments on W Live, even if you don’t bother to answer, it has become an established theory that Testa actually appeared and is keeping it a secret.

And the anxiety was heightened.

‘Don’t come out, rather don’t come out!’

That was what the college student was thinking while frantically finding all the lottery tickets for the premiere.

But time passed steadily.

The premiere of the first day of the film was held yesterday.

And everything turned upside down.

-Crazy

-Limestone is always right

-Ah,

just watch it

. The game world view was also successful in making it attractive and provided good material to Gukppong YouTubers.

Besides, Testa's appearance… .

-I'm really surprised my kids saw that and she only logged out.

'Where is the crazy bastard posting spoilers so that they can be searched for!'

It was to avoid any influence in advance. And I didn't go on social media again until I came to this premiere today.

I didn't even check Testa's official SNS.

'I'll just look at it on a zero basis and evaluate it.'

It's not a day or two for commenters to manipulate movie ratings, and it's not a day or two for fans to catch public opinion on the first day.

She organized her thoughts with such alertness.

'The only thing that's certain is that Testa will appear!'

The college student sat in the movie theater with a sober mind.

"Hey, my popcorn."

"shut up."

There is no one to bring him, so he gives a face mask to the younger brother who brought him, and soon after, the emergency passage is guided and the logo appears.

Limestone's unique English sentence.

and title.

[Cosmic Gunner]

It was a typical name for that movie. Just like the premiere, short cheers rang out here and there.

But the grand story that followed… It only killed the video, but it was just like that to her.

Because I wasn't interested in SF. I don't know what you're talking about, and I'm not very interested in the game.

'I knew it would be like this.'

The college student eagerly chewed caramel popcorn.

'When will Testa come out?'

But it was definitely fun to watch as a movie.

From the sarcastic black humor when explaining the ruined background of the Earth to the nice storyline with nice scene transitions.

Overall, it is a movie worth watching even for those who are not interested in science fiction or heroes and do not know much about them.

'It's fine.'

I felt the familiar taste of limestone. She relaxed for a moment and watched the movie blankly.

Assuming that Testa would only appear after the middle, like most Hollywood cameos do.

At that time, on the screen, I was looking at the decadent and colorful neon sign of the space station where the main character had arrived.

[Wow, isn't it worth watching?]

– (I’m serious, but this was a false delusion.)

People in the theater burst into laughter at the flashback monologue that intersects with the main character’s words.

In the meantime, the main character of the movie saw the alcohol-shaped sign at the station and sneaked into the bar.

The intense and meaningful performance of the band is close-up in this part, and the main character sits down at the table using it as BGM.

Then, a conversation like a rakugo exchanged with the supporting actor who appeared as a helper.

[Are you from Earth? How is it there?]

[Well, it’s the same that these bar songs are loud.]

At that moment, rough slang English burst out from the weird band in the background.

[What the fuck did you just say?]

[I love this song, friend! hey! It was the best performance of my life!]

The band members glared at the protagonist from afar, then nodded and looked away, blurryly portrayed. Once again, the audience burst into laughter.

The protagonist groaned.

[Teenagers with no blood on their heads staring at them.]

[Uh-huh, be careful! Newbie friend, you shouldn’t judge people with common sense on that planet.]

And a small alien supporting character sitting across from the main character lowers her voice and introduces.

From now on, the world the main character will encounter.

[There are over 1200 planets contracted with this station!] The extraterrestrial cuts are edited and pushed to the audience.

‘oh.’

The effect filled the cinema. The college student briefly admired.

In the meantime, the voice of the assistant continued the narrative.

About the unique history of various planetary people who use this space station, the treasure conflict relationship, and the armed group.

Quite a few things went against common sense on Earth.

Even the risk.

[Little guys are mostly those who hide force shooters thanks to the protection law. Can you see that?]

[Like you?]

[Yeah, like me.]

The supporting actor on the back screen of the bar smiles and shows the force shooter in his pocket, then hides it. The main character looks at it carefully.

[And finally… You have to be careful of lunatics who walk around like lunatics.]

[Crazies?]

[Ah, there are guys who stand out at a glance!]

After the supporting actor’s words, the screen returns once again.

To the ‘teenager’ band who said a word to the main character earlier on top of the bar’s small performance area.

Soldiers dressed in overbearing combat uniforms quarrel with them as they descend after organizing the session.

Shown only from the back and profile, they are avant-garde, as if they were a combination of a rock band and a game character from the 70s, but they are not gigantic like the guys in combat uniforms.

The atmosphere seemed like the band would be beaten up by the soldiers or run away at any moment.

[Oh.]

But when the camera is right in front of the band from the soldier’s point of view.

Those faces were just plain grim.

And those were also very familiar faces to most of the audience at the premiere.

“… !”

“Wow!”

Testa!

The moment when admiration and reaction burst out from the audience at the unexpected appearance.

[It’s okay to dress like a crazy person, so I’m going around like that!]

The camera rolls along with the narration of the supporting actors.

“… !”

Whiik!

The image of the soldiers being subdued with exaggerated cleanness by the bizarre space instruments passed quickly and turbulently.

Tarak!

A member of the band blasted the last one over a table with a laser.

Then, naturally, she brushed off her crumpled gown, carefully but sparingly trimming the green stains on it.

With just that momentary movement, the audience can recognize that the stain on the white gown is deliberately stylish.

When I look up, a young man wearing glasses, wearing makeup, shakes his head expressionlessly.

'Wow.'

college students realized

It's a stage costume that follows the 'Doctor' in 〈127 Section〉!

And it was only a beat late that I realized that the person was Bae Se-jin.

"… !"

Even though Bae Se-jin didn't say a word, he looked like a completely different person from the usual idol Bae Se-jin. I couldn't even recognize her voice when she shouted in English earlier.

Even though the college student knew Testa too well, no, that's why it was even more unfamiliar.

In that short moment, Bae Se-jin appealed to the character he had given.

'what.'

Fans of Kim Rae-bin swallowed saliva at the specialty of Kkakdugi, which was treated like a mascot.

And the screen composition has been converted again.

There is a brief glimpse of the seven band members leisurely passing the table of the protagonist, ignoring the fallen soldiers.

Bae Se-jin said without looking back.

[Come to listen again.]

[That's such an honor… .]

However, it disappears from the screen before the main character's words are finished, leaving only the sci-fi sound effect of opening the door and exiting.

Shuuk!

[…] …]

The two main actors, who were watching it on the screen with their eyes wide open, soon bowed their heads and whispered.

[I saw it. This is a neighborhood.]

[…] … Oh.]

The main character narrowed her eyes.

[Then I just… .]

[Yes, I almost died. Rather, I have a good plan… .]

The cinema was filled with laughter again. It was fun and welcome only for those who knew who the cameo was.

And Rabin Kim's fan was briefly shocked while holding popcorn.

The scene, which ended with laughter, was a way to effectively introduce the introduction of this worldview to the main character and the audience.

Humor, twists, and coolness.

A cameo appearance with all three virtues.

‘And the fucking feet.’

T1 can’t do such a good job… no no This is also a virtue that the members received well after all. It’s not because of those kids.

‘Bae Se-jin… .’

Fans of Kim Rae-bin, who had been reciting the name of a particularly hard-carried member, had a realization as if struck by lightning.

Come to think of it, what song were you playing?

And the moment the band’s music at the bar played along with vocals in the ending scroll following the final battle scene, she realized that she wasn’t wrong.

-Exploding far away

This high pitch that sticks even to pop songs.

And who the hell is the one who chose this insanely good OST?

‘Kim Raebin! Moondae Park!’

Her pick didn’t fail either!!

And as soon as the premiere of the movie ended, the Internet, which she reconnected to, was already causing waves due to this short cameo and OST.

Chapter 339

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 339

The testa tour is also in the middle of April, with only a few weeks left in the US.

"Let's go to the cinema again!"

"I don't have time."

"Then make it!"

Be persistent today.

I looked at Cha Yoo-jin, who was singing to watch a movie even at the composing camp.

Because of this guy, I am on my way to see < Cosmic Gunner > like robbing every city I go on tour at night.

'There have been quite a few sightings.'

I went and stopped when people who were aiming for a predictive shot came looking for me, but they are doing that as if they had some kind of withdrawal symptoms.

"It is not good to continuously steal the hyungs' sleep time in order to re-watch Cha Yoo-jin's appearances that last only a few seconds… ."

"My voice is long! And we were great!"

"Haha that's right. It was amazing to hear our song in the ending credits."

Yes, I didn’t know that our song would be adopted as the main theme song.

I don’t know, but I guess the reason the producer came to the scene last time was because he liked the song more than I could have imagined.

‘Even though those bastards never paid more.’

Let’s say it was used for publicity. First of all, the composer himself is very excited.

“yes! I was very excited too!”

“okay.”

“I wasn’t curious? Rabin’s song was really good~”

Once again, admiration poured out for the top contributor. Even Cha Yu-jin nodded.

“Kim Rae-bin’s song was great too.”

Kim Rae-bin solemnly nodded.

“There were parts that were somewhat disappointing in terms of completeness due to the hasty production, but after filming, I supplemented it with feedback, so I decided that it was finished to a level that I am not ashamed of.”

“GOOD~”

Rarely do the two of you fight and agree.

“The bar response is great. Even in the US… An article appears.”

“Oh~ Really?”

It seems that Seon Ah-hyun even tried to search on rare occasions. If you do something different, you get all sorts of results.

I translated the article he gave me.

“It was a KPOP boy band that composed the main insert song for this Limestone movie… It is said that the identity of that impressive cameo star is surprising the public.”

“Ohhh~”

It’s too early to admire that the articles are all published separately, but when I actually entered the American anonymous community and searched, there were posts about knowing.

‘First of all, the movie was so successful at the box office.’

This was something we couldn’t do anything about, but we were lucky.

Anyway, it seems that we are already posting thanks to the well-shot in the popular movie.

Even the testa cameo scene leaked in low quality and wandering around was attached.

The funny thing is that there were many people who said, ‘I thought it was a supporting role, but I was embarrassed because it didn’t appear again’, probably not knowing that it was a cameo.

-I thought that crazy band would reappear later, but it’s a pity ? Still, the song in the ending credits is what they were playing

right

? It seems to be coming.

I remembered the comments on a popular article titled ‘The identity of the crazy band from < Cosmic Gunner >.’ -*Is this * K-Pop?

└Both of them (crying smiley emoji)

-Testa is one of the most talented K-pop groups I've ever seen, so I wasn't surprised

└Right

! It's a boy ?

└ As expected, K-pop fans are popping out lol

And if you go out a little further, even a variety show where we sold hotteok in the US is often attached as a recommendation at the end.

In other words, the overseas response also complied with more than expected.

"The overall response is really good."

"I know."

And there's a guy who's listening carefully to all this, pretending he's not here.

He is the one who brought this reaction in the form of a two-headed carriage with Kim Rae-bin.

I turned my head.

"My brother was very good at acting."

"… Hmmm."

It's Bae Se-jin.

It's not once or twice that people around me do this, but now I'm a bit embarrassed. At first, I was very frightened.

Cha Yoo-jin cheered.

“that’s right! Absolutely perfect!”

“Actually, it wasn’t perfect. I tried my best to interpret the lines according to the makeup and the situation, but there are pronunciation problems… anyway! Thank you! You helped me a lot with my pronunciation.”

“i know!”

Bae Se-jin stopped at that point and admitted meekly. It seems that he is finally starting to become aware that the atmosphere becomes embarrassing if he is serious here.

Perhaps the fact that I saw so many good reviews also played a role.

I recalled the favorable reactions pouring in on the first day of release. -I just thought you were an actor from there

-Crazy

-What is Bae Se-jin? What is Bae Se-jin?

‘They asked a lot of questions on set.’

Bae Se-jin tried to understand as much as possible about the script and the situation, even using Cha Yoo-jin as an interpreter.

‘As I finished it at the end, an ad-lib passed in one cut.’

In the beginning, the cameo line was only a humorous curse word and a line of argument.

However, I thought, ‘Wouldn’t it be more fun to say something at the end’, and the line I came up with on the spot was that ad-lib.

– Come listen again.

It was a pun, knowing that our song would play again in the latter half of the fight scene.

I didn't know that it would come out with a euphemism with vocals in the ending credits, but it would be recalled.

Anyway, his skills related to his acting and talent were at a level high enough to sweep almost overwhelmingly positive reviews.

Of course, thanks to this, there were also people who tickled each other. -I don't know why they're idols

. Isn't it

good for acting

?

It was obvious, so the group's fans all prepared and blocked it.

However, it is a problem that such an unusual reaction came out even among ordinary people and cinephiles who just came to see the movie. –

It's too wasteful to only do a cameo, please build up your filmography quickly.

'Anyway, they still pay more to actors than idols.'

Is it a matter of job life and characteristics? I thought briefly and then just shrugged and quit.

'For now, let's enjoy it.'

Right now, right after Testa has raised the status of the group by winning the grand prize, public opinion is not collapsing and maintaining a balance.

In the first place, Testa participated in this movie as an OST, so Bae Se-jin appeared as a member of it.

It means that the atmosphere is not expected that Bae Se-jin will quit group activities ‘immediately’ and start acting.

‘Still, if you want to do group activities naturally while doing individual activities, you have to be careful from now on.’

I don’t know what these guys will prioritize then… It’s safe to create an environment where you can choose first.

‘It’s good to do various activities as a group and produce good results.’

And I wonder if things that have not yet been properly revealed in this film will help with that.

Coincidentally, a similar topic has also returned among the members.

“Umm~ Hyung, did you ever say when the euphemism of our OST will be released?”

The OST of this movie we sang.

‘Black hole’.

Even though this was not an official sound source, even illegal sound sources extracted from trailers were circulating. Google even auto-completed it in English.

However, we do not have the right to release the music.

“well. I didn’t receive a specific date… It will probably be released according to the schedule of the film company.”

I nodded.

“Yes. Because it will be included in their OST album, not ours.”

From the standpoint of T1, since the contract was like that, it wouldn't be much of a difference.

… … And in fact, I was aiming for this too.

'If this side had the authority, I would have already released it with excitement on the first day of release.'

This kind of thing should be released when demand is at its peak, but it would have been unbearable until then because it was full of public opinion. I'm sure.

Besides, the most important reason is:

"The Limestone will take care of it."

It is the title of 'Limestone'.

American superhero film series.

'If it's released as an OST for this movie, it's a huge profit in the US.'

The moment a song comes out with a familiar and cool Limestone title instead of the name of an unfamiliar foreign KPOP singer, the entry barrier to the song disappears.

The elimination of preconceived notions and prejudices.

It was the best reward.

'This is worth doing.'

In addition, there is content to add boosters here.

'Hmm.'

"For an American album, that too is amazing."

“That’s right. It was also my first film song… You’ve worked hard, Rabin… !”

“Ahyeon-hyung also worked hard with smooth communication support and performance guidance!”

I worked hard calculating the return on investment in my head as I watched the guys exchanging conversations in the way that ‘the experience alone was enjoyable’.

and after a few days.

In the name of ‘Thank you for your support’, the OST sound source was released with the label of Limestone.

And not only the sound source, but also a short video was released to the world.

– What is this?

-Hey fuck,

it’s a live performance we took on the set of a bar on the set.

Yeah, the Limestone bastards decided to release this for promotional purposes, not VOD or Director’s Cut.

* * *

The day the OST sound source and performance video were released.

While returning to Korea for a while, we watched the video on a tablet PC using the in-flight WIFI.

“and.”

“The editing is definitely different.”

It is edited to make it feel like part of the movie, a little different from the camera work used on stage, so the unfamiliar taste is excellent.

[Black – hole!]

The lighting on the chin and the back of the hands and feet handling the instrument are artistically captured under colored lights resembling neon signs.

From the avant-garde attire and background rebellious performance to clear vocals. The band performance that made the most of the atmosphere of < Cosmic Gunner > was really worth seeing.

It was natural because there were people who had actually used similar instruments to the bizarre space instruments.

[Hit it like a comet!]

I nodded as I saw the camera catching Yujin Cha throwing a microphone from bottom to top at the last center.

‘It took quite a bit of effort.’

It is full of American sensibility, but it was unique because the image of this band in the movie was so strong. There is a definite attraction.

And I don’t think it’s because I’m the one who performed.

[22938704]

It hasn’t even been a few hours since it was released, but it has already reached tens of millions of views.

At that moment, Cha Yoo-jin blew a whistle.

“We’re #2 in popularity in America!”

“Ohh~”

“You mean real-time popular video rankings?”

“that’s right!”

That’s how I knew where this hit was towed. is the target market.

done.

Whether it’s a movie fan or whatever, there’s nothing wrong with a high-quality performance video that has a steady rise in views.

It might take some time to explain that it’s not a band, but that’s what it’s like to turn it into an episode on a talk show.

It was time to roll my head on how to maximize this.

Sejin Sejin, who was watching the previous video and monitoring the reaction, suddenly hit his shoulder. What.

“Park Moondae.”

“why.”

“Look at this.”

I checked the smartphone he was holding out.

[Comparison of Testa OST plagiarism controversy]

“… !!”

plagiarism?

I immediately checked Raebin Kim’s face in the front seat. Then Sejin shakes his head and pulls my neck.

“Read on.”

“… … .”

I turned my eyes once. And read the text… … .

Testa’s Cosmic Gunner OST Blackhole Bridge (from 1:30)

Arranged by YouTuber ‘Star Song’ Channel 〈127 Section〉 Time running Arrangement (from 2:56)

Judgment is up to you.

+For your reference, I am a student studying Star Song, but I am not an amateur and have participated in the official game theme song

“… ??”

What’s this.

Why is there an account for our arrangement?

I immediately called Kim Rae-bin. And I showed the article to Kim Rae-bin.

“… ??”

He made the same stupid face as I did two minutes ago.

I waited patiently for some more reaction. Fortunately, Kim Rae-bin shouted as if he knew right away.

“… ! That’s right, it seems that some of the samples I made before overlapped because I was in a hurry!”

“ah.”

“sorry. Since we have the same world view, I didn’t recognize it during urgent work and stopped… .”

And to sum up the following guy’s explanation, it’s like this.

‘I frantically chose out of pre-made beats and samples to work on the OST, but since they all share the same worldview, they seem to overlap. It’s my negligence! I will do deep reflection and take countermeasures at the same time!’

“No, wait.”

I calmed down Rabin Kim.

“Moondaemundae?”

After showing a gesture asking Sejin to stop for a moment, I first entered the account of ‘Byeolbyeolgok’.

The comments on the video were already exploding.

And the main argument is this.

-Sue, never sue

-Byeolgok, cheer up hyung, I support you

-It’s the first time I’ve heard it, and it’s such a good song. It really can’t be compared to plagiarized songs.

“oh.”

Everyone is excited.

I rubbed my chin. This… If I do well, I might be able to use it.

Chapter 340

. Let’s see the public’s reaction to episode 340 of ‘Byeolbyeolgok’ and testa Kim Rae-bin’s plagiarism dispute.

No, to be precise, I organized the guys who were excited about this situation by type, where they could curse Testa for an amazing cause in the first place.

First one.

aka ‘I didn’t know that’.

-Kim Rae-bin said that he was a genius, and when he saw it, Lee Ji-kyung… Ugh

-It

‘s so shocking.

I never thought badly of Testa, but I’m emphasizing that I was greatly disappointed by this incident.

Of course, if you do it the other way around, the taste is amazing.

that’s number 2

aka ‘I knew it’.

-Contemplation is science

-At the time of Ajusa, it didn’t seem like a bad side, so the fans were oblivious to sales

-The end of this tech tree was usually a drug, but Kim Rae-bin, by any chance, can’t speak and gibberish

? And it’s fun to be able to tell rumors to your heart’s content. And the most important, the last 3 times.

Play a star song.

The more you deify the victim, the better it feels when you hit the wrong guy.

-The songs on the Starlight Channel channel are really twinklingly pretty. I understand why they plagiarized

it .

If we were to predict the reaction of Kim Rae-bin, the central member of the well-received Byeolbyeolgok… ”

“… thank you?”

“Oh that’s it.”

At Sejin’s words, the members either sighed or burst into laughter.

As soon as they dried up Kim Rae-bin, who was about to post on social media as ‘Star’s Song is Testa’, they gathered at the dorm at dawn as soon as they entered the country.

“What about Rabin?”

“Good night.”

“okay.”

“But why stop Kim Raebin? Say it’s us quickly! Show me the taste of justice.”

“Umm~ Eugene, it’s better to prepare and say something like this.”

Big Sejin smiled bitterly.

“They misunderstood, but there are people who are angry that they were deceived.”

“right… I’m stinky.”

The guy was right.

Of course, the moment it is revealed that Byeolbyeolgok is a testa centered on Kim Rae-bin, mainstream public opinion will turn around.

However, the problem is that useless side effects can come out depending on the method.

I crossed my arms and opened my mouth.

“It could be said that we were deliberately aiming for publicity.”

“So that’s a possibility.”

As soon as I signed the contract for the OST, I created a YouTube account and uploaded an arrangement related to < 127 Section >… There may be people who are trying to create public opinion.

-Honestly, it’s too quick to respond, and it’s too exquisite to be a coincidence

. -Hmm… After signing the OST for the world of the ruined factory, I created an account to upload the game arrangement of the ruined factory

Liu Chengyu made up for it with a serious face.

“But I can’t wait long. Lavin was being attacked too much.”

“Yes. It is a serious misunderstanding.”

If left unattended for too long, the symptoms will only get stronger.

‘I don’t want to apologize.’

This is because quite a few of the people who sweared in sympathy with the plagiarism controversy would not want to admit that they were wrong.

Then, wouldn’t you try to somehow create a cause to blame the other person, not me?

Seon Ah-hyun cried.

“Oh, even if it’s a misunderstanding… I think it’s too much. Rabin did not even listen to the explanation and went this far first… .”

“… okay. Too bad.”

I nodded.

“It’s a side effect of the song going too well.”

I don’t know if it was just a song that caused controversy, but now this OST is in the national meta.

‘The vicarious satisfaction is destroyed and becomes a vicarious shame.’

He is more enraged because he fears that he will be humiliated abroad. It was a side effect of the gukppong meta. Even if our title was plagiarized, the internet wouldn’t have been so uproarious.

“after.”

I laughed out loud when I saw the number of subscribers to the WeTube channel of ‘Song of the Stars’ going up along with the overheated atmosphere. Big Sejin, who pushed his head to confirm, was shocked.

“Hey, it’s over 100,000.”

“I know.”

In the meantime, it became noise marketing like this. Should I register as a profit-generating account and tell them to get paid even if the copyright is removed?

-go for it!

-I subscribed. The song is really good.

-☆★☆ ☆Limestone Look here, this is the original, do it with this genius☆☆ ☆

-It’s really amazing. He said he was a college student. As expected, age doesn’t matter when it comes to talent

“… Really, Raebin Kim is recognized as much as Raebin Kim is criticized… … ?”

“That’s right… … .”

It was a funny situation that was neither happy nor sad. Cha Yoo-jin stretched.

“Whatever, if you do well on the next one, I won’t be able to tell you! Just let us know soon!”

It’s the same.

And surprisingly, Ryu Cheng-wu opened his mouth seriously.

“Actually, I feel the same way.”

“yes?”

“Maybe I’m being a bit optimistic, but… Just to be honest, I think it will be fine without much talk.”

hmm.

“Honestly?”

“Yeah, I thought it would be good to explain why we created that account. It’s actually a good story.”

“Mmm.”

Is it a public corporation?

In fact, it was the most correct way to make a statement. To honestly explain the situation.

“I was wondering how about an official statement through the company.”

Then I heard a low voice from behind my head.

“that… I am in favor.”

“… … .”

“Ahh!”

“sorry!”

When I turned my head, I saw Kim Rae-bin standing hesitantly behind Bae Se-jin, who was frightened.

“Aren’t you sleeping??”

“I woke up a few minutes ago. I came out to drink water, but it seemed like they were having a chat, so I unintentionally overheard them while moving quietly!”

“Uh… .”

Why are you making excuses when we are in a situation where we have to be stabbed while talking about a guy who is not there?

Anyway, since the party came out, an atmosphere was created to listen to the doctor.

“so… Does Lavin like this opinion? Are you honest about everything?”

“yes.”

Kim Rae-bin, who was seated, nodded.

“In fact, the reason I managed this account was the good help of the hyungs who were considerate of me when I was in a slump, so I want to tell you that.”

“Rae Ravin… .”

“Even though it will be difficult for us to operate the account as a hobby anymore… Let’s develop another healthy hobby in a different direction!”

Kim Rae-bin clasped his hand tightly.

‘oh.’

I smiled.

“okay. Let’s just be honest.”

”… !!”

I heard a whisper next to me.

“Moondaemundae?”

“Has he been drinking?”

I ignored

“Rabin is right. Truth always prevails. I think it’s best to be honest.”

“thank you!”

“… Wow~”

Keun Se-jin looks at me with a face telling me not to scold. Look at this baby.

Of course, I still had more to say.

“But why don’t you go through the company and do it yourself.”

“Ah then on Testa SNS… ”

“No, not there.”

“… ?”

“Then where do you want to put it?”

I smiled and turned the smartphone around and showed it to him.

maximum impact. let’s go.

* * *

Half a day after the plagiarism controversy broke out.

The internet was still hot.

Beyond this incident, all sorts of past rumors about Kim Rae-bin were patched together and went to the verge of being dragged out.

In the meantime, when astronomical terrorism pours down on an OST whose music charts are skyrocketing, recreating the topic endlessly.

-Awesome Byeolbyeolsong live started, and the person who was plagiarized appeared on the mound!

[This is my position regarding the plagiarism controversy.]

People were excited about the new firewood and clicked on the video like crazy.

In the video revealed after the black thumbnail… .

[hello. This is Testa Kim Rae-bin, who runs the Byeolbyeolgok channel.]

-???

why are you here… ?

In an instant, the live chat was filled with question marks and exclamation points and all sorts of onomatopoeia.

However, Kim Rae-bin, who was sitting in a room in a dorm wearing plain clothes, continued to announce his position with a serious face referring to the paper he was holding.

[First of all, thank you for supporting the channel. And I'm sorry for causing controversy .]

-What is this?

'Are you trying to say that you have reached an amicable agreement with the parties?'

'Wouldn't it be too clumsy if I forced myself to appear like this?'

However, Kim Rae-bin continued to speak.

[At the time of late last fall, I had difficulties composing due to a sudden slump… As a result, the member hyungs split their free time to arrange hobby camp activities.]

[It's unfortunate that this happened in the process, but I want to tell you that it's my mistake and the members have no reason to take responsibility.]

People From his low posture and tone, I finally guessed that Kim Rae-bin came out to apologize for the plagiarism.

Thanks to that, the swear words finally started pouring in.

-You mean you plagiarized at the hobby camp?

-No, I don't know what your hobby camp was like hahaha Please apologize properly

-Ugh

[I accidentally mixed the samples… .]

That was the moment.

Suddenly, a member came out of the corner of the dorm. This is Seon Ah-hyun.

-???

Then, after waving hard at Kim Rae-bin, he soon realized that it didn't work, so he came over and whispered in his ear and disappeared from the camera.

Only then did Rabin Kim open his eyes wide and nod his head.

[ah! Didn't you tell me? I'm sorry.]

-So what?

[I’m a star song!]

-??????

[sorry. I should have said this first, but I wanted to give a detailed explanation before… .]

The comment section was again filled with confusion and screams. Although it was of no use to Kim Rae-bin, who did not know that he could view real-time chatting in the first place.

[To be precise, this was an account where the entire Testa posted arrangements and compositions at the hobby camp.] [

Thank you for your support. Even recently, I gained strength from reading the comments!]

-Yes?

[Let’s match the song that each member led the arrangement… Oh, I almost strayed from the subject of today’s video. Sorry again!]

-Tell me right away!!

-Mi-Mi-Mi-Mim

-Chin crazy -Is this a true story? However, as Rabin Kim had prepared, he only diligently explained why the situation had turned this way.

Among them, this was the only Sajok.

[Inspired by the positive response from all of you, I even sent the works of this account to my portfolio during the OST contact.

] It was a sentence that was pushed in secretly.

Of course, Kim Rae-bin thought he was simply conveying his thanks, so he said it carefully.

-Wow

-I really can't imagine

-Byeolbyeolgok = Raebin Kim Mozart in the age of a god genius

Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha And the real-time chatting changed its posture in an instant and started to come out pleasantly.

Because it's fun!

And because Kim Rae-bin doesn't blame or blame them for swearing, he says he caused misunderstanding!

Laughing at the guys who cursed more severely than he did and caused controversy, the chat window began to save only his identity as an advocate of Byeolbyeolgong.

The aggro who really came in with antipathy to Testa disappeared or started to pay attention to the changed atmosphere.

-What can

I do with all the scolding bastards?

What followed was a detailed explanation of how Rabin Kim composed the OST and why the samples overlapped.

[Due to a problem with the production period, the demo version had to be produced in four days, so there was a mistake in overlapping samples in the process… .]

And even that was a situation that aroused enough empathy and sympathy in modern people.

-Deadline…

-You've been working on it -

sbmmm

Dressed in comfortable plain clothes, they hurriedly lowered their heads, with Kim Rae-bin in the middle, and dared to match the formation.

[Sorry for causing controversy!]

When the image that appeared on the thumbnail of an apology appeared, the comments were again filled with laughter.

[sorry! I suggested! Try it as a hobby!]

[We didn’t know it would turn out like this either! Lavin is innocent!]

It was so funny that anyone could see it was sincere.

-Hahahahahahahahahahahahaha, we’re sorry. -They must have been so surprised that I couldn’t sleep

-I had a hard time.

It was a section where the controversy completely turned into a pleasant happening.

[Then, next time, I’ll see you without any mistakes!]

The last camera shakes awkwardly a few times, and the live ends.

However, the comments were still full of the aftereffects of the delightful scandal that was unimaginable.

-No, I’m

crazy

hahahahahahahahahahahah

Because it’s funny.

[Byeolbyeolgok identity]

[Kim Rae-bin and Kim Rae-bin plagiarism controversy amicably agreed… . jpg]

And only after they spread appropriately, Testa uploaded the evidence on their official SNS as a reflection of the happening.

Chapter 341

Episode 341

“I heard that ginseng liquor sold out at Moondaemun University.”

“… … .”

I checked the article of the seller of the ginseng soaked liquor kit, which was shared as a popular post on social media.

– This is a support that I never dared to expect. thank you. I will donate part of the profits in the name of Testa Moondae Park. (bowing emoticon)

Yes.

The Star of the Star incident has completely become a meme on the Internet. The effect of pleasantly catching up at the right timing was amazing.

It didn’t cover my taste and even responded appropriately to the funny reversal situation, so it spread all over the place.

Besides, they said that the more you learn about it, the more funny things come out. -Looking at it now

, they ‘re

screaming that I’m Testa Bukae from the account name

The formal arrangement of the boss theme song in section 127 of the forced debut of the song with great care and consideration was also re-examined, and humorous articles reconstructed as image files by guessing our feelings at the time were also circulating

‘Everyone is excited.’

Thanks to this, the useless controversy defense ended in one shot.

-Am I the only one who likes a well-organized viral story?

ㄴCome and see the video of the target idol testa getting his head pierced (link) ㄴIf you were thinking of making a big deal out of it, then why lie about studying needlessly?

I’ve already changed my attitude after cursing, but it’s tiring and boring to switch to cursing again.

Of course, there were quite a few fans who felt disillusioned or angry at those who changed their attitude after swearing.

But first of all, everyone is more concerned about restoring the ratings of the terrorized sound source as they are greatly relieved that the atmosphere has quickly reversed.

‘It was a big case of plagiarism, though.’

I was worried about how far I had to encourage and stop reproducing memes to cross the line.

“Oh, this is fun. Why don’t you post a copy of Rabin’s copy?”

“It will be fine.”

For now, to make things even better, we've allowed ourselves to respond directly to the meme once in a while.

'It would be nice if it was finished right in the proper line.'

I shrugged.

If possible, I thought to capture the public sentiment in Korea and use it as an episode when I go to the United States.

Isn't it perfect to talk about on a talk show? It's also related to movies.

However, the plan did not materialize. Some foreign guys preoccupied this before the person concerned could even use it.

"… … ?"

The first was an American game YouTuber.

In the first place, the arrangement account for Star Song was an account known to gamers by this YouTuber, a fan of the < 127 Section > game.

That guy didn't miss the material to suck up the views again.

[KPOP boy bands are everywhere… You fooled me!]

After turning off aggro with this title, ending it with admiration and cheering reactions that don't go against the planting of KPOP fans who clicked.

[Oh crazy God. The owner of this arrangement channel is a K-pop band, but that band from Cosmic Gunner?] [

And also, this game collaboration trailer video is also from them, right? Not an actor?]

[How can you not be an actor!]

[They write their own songs? So they also wrote the soundtrack for that movie? That's right in the first place! The arrangement channel is ! Because it's theirs!]

Every word he said while holding his forehead as if in shock was exquisite enough to thrill the hearts of KPOP fandom and gukppong addicts.

In the meantime, since he has so many American subscribers, it seems that the Limestone movie fan base, who became interested in the game world, was also informed of this news.

-Do they plagiarize themselves? It was a very funny incident lol Thanks for letting me know ?

-Stop adding K-pop to every description. Testa is a unique and cool group that doesn't fit into that mold!

okay. Even those who had prejudice or antipathy toward the existing K-pop came out saying that this should be recognized as an exception.

'Not bad for an opening.'

If there are more sounds like that exception, it will feel like an attack on the contrary, but it hasn't reached that level yet, so pass.

So, if it ended here, it would have been good to use it as an episode because of the warm ground meal.

The problem is the second guy.

"Park Moondae! Look at this."

"… ?"

I checked the WeTube video that Sejin Bae put out.

It's a talk show scene.

[Jason! Could you tell me an anecdote about a very rare and unique filming set that hasn't been told elsewhere?]

[Haha!]

[If you don't, I'll collapse here and all the staff will testify that you're the culprit!]

[Okay! all right! Let's see… There was a very interesting thing during the additional filming, which was a cameo appearance by a foreign star!] A movie supporting actor who appeared in a bar scene at the time would first come out on an American broadcast and open his mouth.

"Do you remember this person?"

"Nope! no!"

"No, someone who hasn't said it before speaks so naturally."

It seems that he is saying this because he is probably a person who has missed episodes on talk shows and has mentioned KPOP on social media.

[Because of a 'real' performance on that small stage set as if it were a live venue. Wow I just did. 'As expected of KPOP bands, the performance kills them!']

[But after that, they act, but why do they pretend to be top-notch actors?] [

And after that, it turns out that they have a secret arrangement account?] [

What the hell ? The band does! Did you receive any special training?]

This guy had never seen us in particular, but he put together what he heard from the staff and talked like the real thing.

"Still, you did a good job introducing yourself."

"Iknow, right."

I wonder if this is a kind of prejudice, but anyway, even the absolute master of hermitage in the East seems to have found it interesting for Americans to talk about it as if explaining it.

‘In the first place, the content is funny.’

[I should have gotten an autograph, but it disappeared in an instant, so I didn’t get it. I hope to see it in the next < Cosmic Gunner > series as well.]

This story, told by the cast of a popular movie on an American prime-time talk show, had quite a big impact.

People who were secretly curious about the identity of the crazy band in the movie, but did not bother to find out, accepted this remark quite impressively.

Those people started checking Testa’s band performance plagiarism happening videos and our game collaboration trailers with the algorithm.

-X I can’t believe it. So you wrote that black hole in four days?

-It’s a band that’s like a subculture incarnate

. -Are there any more English songs? ?

-They made a lot of good songs in their native language (link)

-I don’t know how this sounds, but being a survival program survivor group really suits

us. “It doesn’t suit me.”

But

I plan to use it well. I nodded.

Of course, this wasn’t the climax. Because the final result that made all the members open their mouths remains.

A few days later.

“This this this… !”

Billboard 200 album chart presented by Sun Ah-hyun.

[2. 〈Cosmic Gunner〉 Special Edition / new!]

“…!”

The movie album appeared in second place. Although the singer is not a testa, but a soundtrack. Still, it was an unbelievable achievement.

“Wow,

uh, wow… I expected this, but it’s a hit, right?”

It didn’t end there.

The main theme song of the movie we were in charge of even charted separately on the Billboard Hot 100. [9. Black hole / new!]

“Ahh!”

No. 9.

Of course, I heard that movie OSTs sometimes top the Billboard charts every few years, but I didn’t expect a single digit number to come out here

.

‘ This is how it works.’

“Hyung! Raebin Kim faints!”

“I didn’t…. But I didn’t think about it… but I didn’t think about whether the song I made in four days without long deliberation and even made the mistake of using duplicate samples is a decent ranking….” “OK, Raebin Kim, I’m fine

. .”

It was a commotion. And it’s such an achievement.

I lowered my voice and asked Ryu Cheng-wu in the midst of screaming like crazy.

“This wasn’t even released on Friday, right?” “Yeah.

It wasn’t.”

It was an unbelievable achievement to have this ranking even though it was not fully reflected.

I checked the analysis score.

‘The on-air score is also good.’

It’s a song by a group I don’t even know, but it seems that it was played here and there on the radio. Truly, long live a major movie.

Barrier to entry This softened American market was literally a lump of honey itself.

It was a success of the operation.

” Okay.”

“Should I post a thank-you note… ?”

“So~! They even share Billboard posts!”

Looking at the excited guys, I nodded again.

Before this momentum and atmosphere die… .

“And I have to work on the next album.”

“ah.”

As the water rushes in like this, isn't it troublesome if you can't put a motor on the boat and the oars are too late?

'Before the images captured with the limestone fall out, I'm going to put my eggs into the next album.'

I broke my neck. Beside him, Liu Chengyu spoke softly.

"okay. The result is really better than what we discussed at the last camp. Everyone had a really hard time… Let's make our album well."

The guys nodded their heads eagerly. It seems that real grades come out, so I am more motivated.

"yes yes… !"

"I will do my best. We will do our best so that not only those who are newly interested in the movie OST, but also existing listeners can enjoy listening to it!"

"good! Let's go testa~"

"Well then, shall we start right after eating?"

Excited with a sense of accomplishment, these guys are so excited that they plan a bizarre camp schedule on their own like a student taking an exam. good attitude and some… Thank you too.

I twitched my eyebrows, recalling the situation that only I had among them.

Completed the mission of 'Breaking K-Pop Records'.

'… My free days have decreased faster than I thought.'

According to him, the big moon can stick to Ryu Gun-woo's body until August.

Now I only had 4 months to spare. You have to complete the mission in it.

If everything goes according to plan, there are plenty of possibilities… .

[Hyung, I'm listening to Black Hole very well. Really ㅠㅠ But did you make this with Cha Yujin-nim thinking? It's a black hole, so I feel that way!]

… In the meantime, the person concerned is very afraid to live without urging or questions, but it seems that he has no hope at all. I clicked my tongue.

'Unconditionally makes people live longer.'

"Now, let's eat and bring our laptops to each person."

So, a week before the US tour, I decided to spend all 7 days working on the title song and concept.

… However, it was a problem because planning and execution do not always coincide.

* * *

For four days, the forced march continued without any unusual incidents.

"Coffee is banned now."

"Moondaemundae quickly persuade this hyung."

"Give up."

The concept was almost outlined, and the music video synopsis and album design were all selected. In fact, I was in a state where I just had to work on the title properly.

Around the time when everyone is focused on work, even taking off their smartphones.

“Ten minute break!”

“Yeah~”

Weekday morning. After a short break, I checked my smartphone for the first time in a while.

‘Is there any other news?’

However, there are several missed calls instead of news.

[VTIC Senior Shin Cheong-ryeo]

“… ?”

‘what.’

It was more sinister because it was out of the blue.

After a brief conflict, I called him.

The call was connected in an instant. Looks like this guy was also holding a smartphone.

“Seniors.”

– Junior.

The answering voice was calm and unremarkable.

However, the next words were not very calm.

– Could you open the door for a minute?

what?

“What door?”

-entrance.

no way.

While I was in denial, I passed the living room where the members were scattered and resting and headed for the front door of the dorm.

Then, with the chain hanging, I opened the door. I could see the outside through the gap.

“… … !

“… … .

A faceless face holding a phone.

really cool

‘Did it turn?’

This bastard came to someone else’s dorm without any hesitation.

Chapter 342

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 342

A guy who’s never told me his address or made an appointment in advance is standing in front of the dorm door.

I didn’t even ring the doorbell, but out of the blue, I made a lot of dirty calls.

But what if that bastard already has a gem-like madness record?

‘X feet.’

I checked Cheongryeo’s expression through the chain again.

It is still a surprisingly expressionless face.

“Why did you come?”

“I didn’t come here on purpose. I stopped by on my way home.”

“I bet you never gave me your address.”

“You talked about it last time.”

Never.

“You told me what floor you live on.”

“… … .”

Yes, when I met a guy with a dog at dawn before, I said it in passing to lighten the mood before mentioning the information of ‘Ryu Gun-woo’.

And if you know which line I live on, then of course you know where I live… .

‘That’s a piece of information collected and put together, bastard.’

It’s a habit that a guy who remains in a corner like Restart would have without hesitation.

This bastard wouldn’t have had enough taste to make such a social judgment, but Cheong-ryeo’s words didn’t end there.

“I have news to tell you.”

“what… .”

And an unexpected answer came.

“Kongie is sick.”

“… … !”

what?

“I’m on my way to leave it at the hospital now.”

It was only then that I correctly interpreted this bastard’s eccentric attitude.

He… There was no recession.

‘X feet.’

I held my breath in a different way.

“for a moment.”

Click.

I loosened the chain and opened the door again to get out. Anyway, this floor is our only dorm, so it shouldn't matter.

"… Where does it hurt?"

"Acute Kidney Failure."

The blue eyes were slightly twisted.

"I went as far as that. A person who works… After bringing the grapes, I didn't clean them up properly."

"… … ."

"This is the first time this has happened."

It's a calm voice that you can believe even if you slapped Ohhamma on the back of that 'worker' head.

I pressed my forehead.

"Did you get an apology?"

"Is that important? It wouldn't hurt to move your mouth instead."

It was a value judgment worthy of a man who earned money that he could not earn even if he spent his whole life.

'I guess this is why I came out to take care of the dog.'

And after taking action… I must have had many thoughts on my way back.

'Did you call like that to tell me this?'

I guessed the reason for the missed call. And the cheong-Ryeo quietly continued to speak.

“So for a while there won’t be any photos of Kong’s current situation, so I thought I’d explain.”

”… … .”

“Your junior, Kong likes it.”

I really want

“I could have done it via text.”

“ah.”

do you realize now?

But the guy quickly stopped talking.

“hmm… Because I can see your face right away, right?”

“I could have spoken on the phone.”

“It was a preview. Excuse me if you come without saying anything. There will be other people in the dorm, so it’s right to be careful.”

“… … How did you guess I would be at the dorm?”

“If you don’t have it, you can go back, but do you need to guess?”

It sounds like a very reasonable thing to say. That’s right, I’m not crazy.

I rubbed my eyes.

Apparently, this bastard was filthy nervous and wanted to talk to someone, but he didn’t seem to know that he was in that state.

“Your dog will be fine.”

Cheongryeo tilts her head to the side.

“is it so? I don’t know how you can be sure.”

“Wouldn’t you have left it to a specialized hospital? It would be good enough to let the guardian go back right there. I probably explained the process to you too.”

“… … .”

The guy stared at the air for quite some time before opening his mouth again.

“I did.”

“… … .”

“I must have taken action quickly and my kidneys were not seriously damaged. The sap worked well, and although it was unlikely, he said he would contact me if Kong suddenly deteriorated.”

“okay.”

“Anyway, I have a schedule from tomorrow, so I can’t take care of it.”

“yes.”

I nodded.

“You judged well, why?”

“well. I wonder if unexpected accidents happen very often in life?”

“… hmm.”

The guy’s eyes were dark.

I hope it’s a dog story. It’s not like you’re going to let the guy who spilled the grapes have an accident.

‘Actually, neither is a very good sign.’

It must be that the dog occupies a very large part in that man's life. Isn't this the first time since VTIC's main vocal went out that this bastard went mental like this?

'… It's a similar situation.'

When something important in your life seems about to be ruined by factors beyond your control.

this… If you don't do it, the reset syndrome won't recur.

I don't think it would be awkward even if the word "kill gold 2 and see the police" pops out like this… … .

'That doesn't work.'

After a brief silence, I opened my mouth.

This kid also needs to live a little more comfortably no matter what he puts at the center of his life.

"No matter how you live, accidents happen. It is impossible for anyone to prepare for all of them."

"… … ."

"That's why it's important to deal with accidents that happen. In that respect, you seem to have done quite well today."

"… !"

"You acted quickly and the dog didn't get hurt too much. I'm glad you're healthy again thanks to that."

Again, I came to a short conclusion.

"Good job."

"… … ."

Cheong-rye stood blankly for a moment, then nodded slowly.

“… yes. is it so.”

“So your dog… .”

“that’s right. If Kongi recovers well without sequelae, there is no problem.”

I’m still speechless. I thought so.

Even so, the way he spoke calmed down. And his expression returned to his usual state.

“Come see me when you’re discharged.”

“Look.”

I nodded and the smile returned to his face.

‘Okay.’

I don’t know why I have to take care of the baby who tried to kill me, but when I came to my senses, I was working without pay.

Even when you have to do other work.

‘Composition camp break time… .’

It was only then that I looked down at the smartphone in my hand and realized that the time frame between the missed call and the last call was quite different.

‘Almost 30 minutes.’

It seems that Chung-Ryeo has been standing outside this front door longer than expected.

‘It’s an unreasonable waste of time by that standards.’

I guess it's because I'm frustrated because I'm the only one who knows the details of why he brought the dog.

I was a bit conflicted, then opened my mouth.

"Does the people in your group know?"

Cheong-ryeo opened her mouth obediently.

"no. I'm not at the dorm right now, so I sent everything to the company. Because of that."

"… ?"

that thing?

"ah."

Cheongryeo lowered her head to the side.

"Junior, you didn't look at the internet today."

"… … ."

"is it so. If it wasn't that I didn't pick up the phone on purpose, that would be correct. Are you not using your smartphone? Are you preparing for an album or taking a break?"

Why does this bastard keep trying to reason about others?

"Something happened."

Maybe it's the social side again?

Of the remaining guys in VTIC, there weren't any that looked like it, but the ones that seemed like it weren't the only ones that matched.

But Cheong-rye was dull.

“It’s not that things have happened, we should say that things to come have come.”

“Coming?”

“hmm? Everyone should enlist.”

“… !!”

Suddenly, a bolt of lightning struck my brain.

The date is already… No, we’re good, but you guys aren’t there yet.

“Isn’t it due yet? I heard that you guys postponed your enlistment because you received some kind of decoration.”

“hmm… We decided to do it according to the deadline, so the story has already ended.”

Cheongryeo laughed faintly and leaned against the wall.

“We agreed that that would be the best way to extend the life of the group.”

“… ah.”

no way.

“Concurrent Enlistment. Simultaneous discharge.”

“… … .”

No way he caught the person.

A rare group action in which all members of the group enlist at the same time and are discharged.

It is possible to return as a complete group the fastest, but in the meantime, it is a prescription for a deadly drug that completely blocks individual activities.

There are people out there who really do that.

“So you said. The grand prize this year will be a bit easier.”

“… … .”

I nodded slowly. I understand now.

“Then you will go too.”

Then, the reason why my mental breakdown was so broken was the reset syndrome, and the anxiety before enlistment also played a part… .

“hmm? no.”

hey.

“It’s only for six months. Haha I’ll go next year. Isn’t it natural that it would be more intense if we were all discharged together?”

He’s always good at scratching people with his snout.

“So, at the end of this year, I will be the only one to appear at the awards ceremony. That’s the kind of situation that was reported in the media today.”

“I see.”

“yes.”

In any case, Chung-ryo said as if there was nothing new. It looks a bit subdued, but nothing special.

‘It must have been a mess.’

I guessed the internet situation and then quit.

“Doesn’t it feel good? A competitor that is hard to beat disappears.”

“I can win even if I don’t go.”

“ah. is it so.”

I don’t believe this X feet.

“How are you feeling?”

“well. Not good. Because managing the hiatus is difficult.”

It is a more thorough business response than expected.

Even though all the guys I was with were missing, this guy didn’t seem to have much human emotion.

‘hmm… You can’t miss it ‘

It’s a little strange. It’s the first time I’ve been here.”

“… … .”

“I will use the dorm alone… .”

The man who was talking stopped for a moment. At that moment, a noise started coming from the front door.

Tidik.

the sound of a door opening

“… !”

And the upper body suddenly sticks its head out.

It’s a big sejin

“Why did you go outside at Moondaemundae? It seems that break time is almost over, but I didn’t see it, so I came to find it.

However, he stopped talking when he saw Cheong-ryeo standing nearby. Damn.

“Lee Se-jin.”

“for a moment.”

And the guy changed his stance in an instant.

“Ah, hello, senior!”

“hello.”

“I have heard a lot of stories. What’s going on here… .”

“many?”

“… … .”

Sejin stopped talking for a moment, but then replied in the same tone.

“Yes, a lot.”

In the meantime, I hear Kim Rae-bin shouting from behind the front door.

“Who is your brother?”

“Um~ that”

“Wait a minute.”

I can’t. I grabbed the big Sejin and entered the door.

thud.

As soon as the door closed, Sejin’s face hardened.

“Park Moon-dae, why is that person here?”

“The dog collapsed… No, it’s not about us anyway, but rather, they say they’re going to the VTIC army.”

“what??”

“Hey, are the VTIC seniors going to the army already?”

“… … .”

“oh my god. Did you come to tell me about that?”

When I saw Rabin Kim who jumped out, I immediately realized that things were getting bigger than I thought.

The people gathered in the living room at least heard Kim Rae-bin’s voice.

“army??”

“… Is he out there right now?”

“Oh, did Moondae hyung call you senior?”

“… ! If you have been invited to receive advice to help us in our work… … .”

“for a moment.”

I stopped talking once. I’m breaking out in a cold sweat.

“I didn’t call you first.”

“then ?”

I moderately mixed his circumstances and made an excuse like, ‘My dog had an accident, but all of my acquaintances were busy, so I came because there was nowhere to talk.’

‘… No, come to think of it, it’s not an excuse, it’s a fact.’

It happened all of a sudden.

“Ooh, sorry for the puppy… .”

“okay.”

Those who only knew that I had fought like a dog with Cheongryeo seemed to understand.

Bae Se-jin looked like he was about to open the gate and shout out, but since Ryu Cheong-woo is trying to stop him, it should be okay.

I immediately spit out the closing remarks.

“I’ll send it and come back.”

“Ah, I have to see off the seniors too~”

“… … .”

yes do it your way

I didn’t bother to remove the big sejin and opened the front door again.

Cheong-Ryeo was still standing against the wall. Just go back.

“I guess everyone was at home. Well, I’m sorry if it was difficult.”

“It’s done.”

My back hurts.

“I came up with something to tell you as an apology.”

“yes?”

Chung-Ryeo shrugged her shoulders and immediately opened her smartphone and sent a file to me.

“… ?”

Keun Sejin was right. But it was not a song.

Chapter 343

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 343

Gold 2. Kwon Hee-seung.

The activities of the group to which this guy belongs, 'Spacer', are being tracked.

Of course. If you are a latecomer in the same affiliated company, you should always check to see if anything unusual happens.

Besides, isn't he someone who knows a little bit about the future anyway? What benefit might you be seeing?

Of course, that's not the main purpose of keeping an eye on this guy.

'It's because it's a hand to use.'

I remembered meeting a guy at the company who was preparing for the first year-end awards ceremony a few months ago.

– Hello, senior!

To be precise, his status window.

Due to the timing, the status ailment period was not long, but the status ailment was still floating on him.

However, the content was different.

[! Abnormal Status: Make It Work]

– If you are an idol, is teamwork the answer?

‘Failure’ when the team fails to release a joint work within the time period.

Instead of the old one, a new status ailment took its place.

-After Seodam Chae quit on his own, the atmosphere in the team really improved! At this rate, if we all get along well, the mission will be successful… . … … ? Did you already succeed?

– Ehehe! Are there any more? what else do i have to do? what??

In other words, he had already cleared the first status ailment, but the second popped out.

The system must have judged that 11 months is close to a year. Seeing that this guy got his second status ailment.

‘… Have the conditions become harsh?’

I’m not sure about this, so put it aside.

Anyway, having one go on without having to find a new user of the system wasn’t a bad situation for me. Because it costs less.

‘Here, ‘collaborative work’ means self-producing.’

This is the same agency, so if I get involved, clearing within a year won’t be too much, so it was just right to manage. Thanks to that, I think I was able to keep in touch with the trend from time to time.

… It means that I thought so until the VTIC leader kid in front of me held out the sound source file.

“Why? I need to check.”

If it wasn’t for the dog, I wouldn’t have left that muzzle, but I’m going to go ahead.

I looked down at the music file of the radio where Gold 2 appeared again.

‘This radio program.’

I also remember ‘future midday radio’. It’s a fairly traditional program, and we went on it even when we were rookies.

A broadcaster with the stage name of ‘Mirae’ is hosting it, and the future conte, where he guesses the situation 10 years later as a joke, was famous.

– Kim Rae-bin gave me 100 songs!

-Cha Yoo-jin No matter how many years have passed, it is difficult to give 100 songs to the same person… .

-I gave you 200!

– I can’t!

-kids… No, 30-year-old men, calm down.

I briefly recalled the fantastic gaffes that Rabin Kim and Yujin Cha did, and then erased them.

And naturally, I looked at the smartphone screen with suspicious eyes.

‘This guy can’t be… .’

I played the file at the lowest possible volume.

I heard the presenter’s voice.

[…] It’s becoming a hot topic with a special friendship. There are rumors that our friendship with Mr. Hee-seung Kwon of VTIC and Moon-dae Park of Testa is still there.] Damn it

.

[You recently went on a 10th anniversary friendship trip? How did you get close?]

[Yes… We all knew the future and became close.]

[Yes?]

[…] ! Knowing Mirae Radio~ Knowing our host, Mirae-nim, through that common friendship!]

[Aha~ 10 years ago, Heeseung must have been very impressed with our first appearance on our radio.] [

That's right! Hahaha!]

"… … ."

It seemed that he said it inadvertently while trying to do a conte for a program to instantly match the host's name and rhyme.

And after saying that, he said, 'Ouch, come to think of it, is this correct?' and trembled.

'This nervous bastard… .'

Shouldn't this bastard have been upset when he took a picture of the two of us as 'close friends' in the early interview?

I held back a sigh.

'… It's no big deal.'

It's a common mistake to make if you're in a state where you barely sleep in the crazy busy rookie schedule.

Perhaps Kwon Hee-seung's fans also cursed and buried him for asking about his friendship with other groups, even though it was his first radio show.

However, I can understand why Chung Ryeo bothered to tell me this.

I grabbed my smartphone.

‘Is this a warning?’

Good advice.

About the dangers of sharing secrets with other pups.

“I feel like this needs to be taken care of. I could, but… I don’t think my juniors will like it very much.”

The guy smiled.

“I don’t think the kind of people we’re working with are paying close attention. hmm… I thought it would be good to let you know that much. how is it?”

“… … .”

“Originally, managing people is the most difficult.”

That doesn’t just mean Gold 2.

It must have included the fact that I confided a secret to the guy next to me.

“Park Moondae.”

Just then, Sejin opened his mouth. He must have guessed what was going on in his own way, and muttered softly with a hard face.

“Hey… Is Kwon Hee-seung also involved?”

“hmm?”

However, the reaction was not me, but someone else did it first.

Cheong-ryeol.

He came out with a slightly puzzled face, looked at Sejin in turn, and then nodded as if he understood.

“Oh you don’t know. sorry.”

“… … .”

“I thought you said everything because you said you talked about me too. Was it this far?”

Then he turns his face with a slightly admiring expression.

“You are doing well. junior.”

this kid is real

I refrained from swearing and responded calmly.

“Shouldn’t you have said it earlier if you were worried that my actions would cross the line and ruin you?”

It seemed that he was dissatisfied with explaining the unrealistic situation in which he had been hit by this damn thing.

However, Cheong-ryeo just bowed her head to the side.

“hmm… There seems to be a misunderstanding.”

misunderstanding?

“Brother. I do not lose out on this.”

“… !”

“Not one or two good explanations to use when you get caught up in this gossip.”

Cheongryeo smiled brightly.

“We verify which words and expressions work. Now, it’s hard to be hit by someone else’s mistake.”

“… … .”

“You wouldn’t have thought I’d never experienced anything like this before. You have a good head.”

I looked at him.

“You’ve told others too.”

“of course. I was wondering if it would be worth using. But when I tried it, it didn’t work out, so I didn’t do it.”

Cheong-rye stared at the sky, perhaps lost in reminiscence for a moment, but soon regained her focus.

“So I’m saying this because I’m worried about my juniors, not me. I told you. I mean it as an apology.”

X feet.

I pressed my forehead.

What pisses me off the most is… It’s like being sincere.

“Is that so? Then listen. Gold 2 is… He will hold me once and take care of me.”

I kept my mouth shut and looked at Sejin, who had been listening to the conversation, and said.

“You don’t have to worry about this. He’s not someone to talk about.”

“of course.”

Big Sejin held out his fist.

‘Do I really have to do this in this situation?’

Still, if you don’t respond here, that would be even funnier. I clenched my fists.

However, Cheongryeo’s face was plain.

“yes. what… You must have said that you would believe what your junior said. It usually is.”

what?

“But there seems to be some misunderstanding here as well…” “Believe” does not mean “understand.”

“… !”

Cheong-Ryeo muttered without hesitation as if she was translating someone else’s words.

“Because we’re close, because we’ve known each other for a long time, because we’re in the same group… I want to say ‘believe’ with various reasons. It deserves it. If you don’t believe it, the member is a psychopath, but you don’t want to believe that.”

“… … .”

“But that’s it. After that, he wasn’t very cooperative, so… This one has been discarded. On the contrary, it becomes annoying.”

The guy spoke softly.

“Unless you have had the same experience, you cannot relate to this unrealistic situation. So, juniors, don’t expect too much.”

“… … .”

‘Is it because of this?’

It must be that this guy acts as if he doesn't feel a sense of human solidarity even with his own members who have been together for so long.

'almost… It looks like he's dealing with a different species.'

It's a judgment that's even a little creepy. Even more so in that he is saying that even though Sejin is in front of him.

"hmm."

I crossed my arms and opened my mouth.

It was then.

A few steps away, a high-pitched voice was heard from the side.

"But, senior, I am very cooperative with Mundae."

"… !"

It's a big sejin Why is this guy like this again?

"Aha, is that so?"

"sure. A~ How do people grow up having the same experiences? We are friends. It's good that friends have similarities and differences~"

"You say that."

"yes. It can't be helped even if you don't agree very much! Each person's situation is different. It's really good~"

It's amazing that 'You might not know because you don't have friends' can be turned into Mac like this.

The problem is that the target is Chung-ryeo, who was chewing on her old memories.

'It won't turn your eyes off.'

I confirmed that Cheongryeo was looking at Sejin with no expression.

“… … .”

”… … .”

No, don’t stare at me while laughing for nothing.

I held my breath and sorted out the situation.

“okay. what… Everyone will have their own thoughts. Anyway, I listened to the radio file well, and the dog… I hope you get well.”

“is it so. If you have something to talk about, contact me anytime. junior.”

“Yes,”

Sejin answered naturally instead. What kind of bandit boss right-hand man?

“It kills the mood.”

At that moment, the front door opened at just the right time.

belt ring.

To be honest, I was almost happy.

And the performer of this act… It is Seon Ah-hyun with a slightly nervous expression.

“There… It’s already past the start time for the camp meeting.”

“… !”

“Oh sorry. You were at work.”

Chengdu smiled and nodded his head slightly.

“Then I’ll go in.”

“okay.”

“yes yes!”

Finally, the wave atmosphere. Come in quickly.

However, instead of turning her body right away, Chung-rye hesitated a little before adding her words.

“I’ll call you when Kongi comes back.”

“… okay.”

I nodded at the guy wearing the mask.

Still, I hope that dog is fine.

Cheong-rye turned her back and disappeared in the elevator.

“Let’s go in.”

“Yes.”

We finally went back into the front door.

And Sejin took the lead in checking Seon Ah-hyeon, who was going to the living room, and was quiet enough to not be heard there.

“Wow, the words of the president really annoy me. Ah, Moondaemun University. How have you been patient until now?”

“… … .”

I feel ashamed of myself for almost shouting ‘That’s right!’

“Just like that.”

“Um~ yes. Park Moon-dae is also using short language, but is it a little stress relieving?”

“… … .”

Come to think of it, it was like that at some point.

I chuckled and opened my mouth while watching the guy who slapped me on the back.

First of all, I would have been curious about this guy throughout the conversation.

“The story of Kwon Hee-seung… .”

“Ah, you know, I couldn’t tell you because it was someone else’s situation. I’ll know when I hear that much~”

Keun Se-jin didn’t seem particularly dissatisfied there, as if he already understood that Kwon Hee-seung was my next hitter.

“But since I already knew, should I ask Heeseung to crack down on his mouth? I’m good at this kind of thing again~”

“Look at it first.”

I wasn’t going to drag it in, but now it’s blowing up to the goal of destroying the system. I sighed and returned to the living room.

“Has the child gone?”

“yes. I went in.”

Big Sejin trembled.

“Uh~ They pretended to be close to Mundae~”

You lie casually once.

“… ! Did you just leave it there?”

“No, it’s because I’ve been arguing with you all this time, right?”

“… okay. Then I… … .”

“I can’t because my brother really fights with me.”

“hey!”

I went to my seat and sat down, leaving the two of us with the same name to fight comfortably.

Then, Seon Ah-hyun, who was sitting next to him, opened her mouth.

“It’s nothing. did something happen… ? The story seems to be longer than I thought… .”

“… hmm.”

I briefly conflicted, but soon the skeleton spoke the truth.

“It’s not a big deal, but it’s a little long because of the difference of opinion.”

“ah… .”

Seon Ah-hyun hesitated, but struggled to open her mouth again.

“What kind of opinion was that… .”

“… … .”

“Oh no. sorry… !”

It’s nothing to be sorry about, but the habit of apologizing is still the same. I held back a sigh.

‘… Is this the second time?’

That’s what Seon Ah-hyun asked me to tell her story.

I didn’t just pick it up and ask if there were any secrets, but it’s very embarrassing. I think this guy guessed everything that Sejin heard.

I shut my mouth instead of saying ‘I don’t have to be sorry at all, it was a little personal’. Somehow, I thought that would backfire.

‘It’s not that Seon Ah-hyun’s expression is bad right now, so let’s keep an eye on the situation.’

It seemed that the situation was over.

But that evening.

Seon Ah-hyun’s attitude to participate in the camp suddenly changed.

On the bad side? No.

With an active attitude like never before.

Chapter 344

Episode 344

Sun Ah-hyun's attitude has changed.

It started with a camp schedule meeting.

"Then it's okay not to collect more image references for concepts, right? Shall we do it like this?"

"I am okay!"

"okay. So, if anyone has a different opinion… ."

This is a line that assumes that there is not usually.

"It's me..!"

"… !"

However, the guy who had never interrupted or interrupted someone raised his hand before he could even finish his sentence.

Liu Chengwu seemed a little taken aback, but kindly asked him.

"So what do you think Ahyeon?"

"I wish I could expand the scope a bit more and collect just one more time. Because there is still time… ."

"hmm… ."

And Seon Ah-hyun even expresses the opposite opinion directly.

‘What’s wrong with him?’

‘Will there be a moral problem if we close now?’

It got to the point where the members said this with their eyes, but Sun Ah-hyun’s words didn’t end there.

“Two more days… ! can’t you? Because the deadline that the project team staff mentioned before is the afternoon of the day after tomorrow… If the schedule is like that, it won’t go any faster even if we give it this early… !”

With a momentum that makes you feel like you’re sweating, you start attaching even the persuasive grounds on your own.

And the basis for it is also a plausible fact.

“Oh, I see, so it was.”

“Wow~ Ahyeon remember that? 3 months ago… .”

“Eh, I wrote it down… .”

I can’t come up with any special ideas. However, in a given situation, they make good judgments and make persistent claims.

It was in line with what Seon Ah-hyun usually showed.

“That’s it… ! Let’s think about it for two more days… !”

“That’s me~ Of course I agree! right?”

“Um, yes.”

However, the momentum is about ten times the usual, so the power is extraordinary. Everyone gets caught up in surprise.

‘What’s happening.’

I wonder if I should like it, but somehow I felt uncomfortable. What kind of sudden change of heart is this guy like this?

“What do you think of Moondae!?”

I thought my liver was falling.

“… I agree with you.”

“Yes!”

Now, they even collect consent from me. It’s an activism I’ve never seen before.

‘what.’

And at the evening composition meeting, this momentum was the same.

“I am… I wish the song had a bit more string accompaniment!”

“Oh oh.”

“Which string instrument?”

“Able to produce sharp, light and dramatic sounds… Violin Fiddle, for example! I think it would feel more appropriate to the concept… !”

“Fiddle?”

And Seon Ah-hyun began to explain Boo more diligently about what Piddle was.

It is the least classic among the violin playing techniques, so it was given a separate name, and it is country-like, and the sound bounces and blah blah… .

“Oh oh.”

It’s like making an announcement. Cha Yoo-jin, who was listening with interest, is almost ready to clap.

“That’s a good idea! Brother is cool!”

“Yes!”

And even though Seon Ah-hyun felt like her face was about to explode at these words, she didn’t even give up.

what?

I really don’t know what the situation is.

‘Well, at least when the other guys speak strongly… But.’

Yes, it’s a good thing if you want to actively participate because you have a mental change.

In fact, Seon Ah-hyun hadn’t intervened well in the past. If you average out the level of self-assertion of the members, you can’t say it’s worse than that.

“Then, as Hyun-hyung Ah said, let’s put the violin as a string instrument that has both sharpness and softness and harmonizes with the string arrangement… .”

“Oh no! Not just a fiddle, but a fiddle! Fiddle! I wish I could!”

“Yes yes!”

“… … .”

no it’s a bit harsh

‘The child is running to the level where it depends on whether he lives or dies.’

“I will try hard!”

“Thank you… !”

With even Bae Se-jin paying attention, the meeting was led by Seon Ah-hyun and ended.

That night.

Big Sejin, who was sitting in the kitchen drinking sparkling water, asked seriously.

“Isn’t there a sad story like if someone at Moondaemun University can’t do an album, someone will go bankrupt?”

“… … .”

“Ugh, or could it be that Mundae harassed Ahyeon to pay for the meal… Aww!”

can it be

I held back a sigh as I watched the man who had been slapped in the back sigh.

“… There must be another reason. It won’t be like that.”

“okay? Umm… what. do it.”

Sejin Keun shrugged his shoulders and passed the same, as if he had judged that it was not a bad situation.

“You don’t have to know everything about people to be friends, right?”

“… … .”

It’s kind of pissing me off when a guy who’s taken care of other people’s affairs says things like that.

In the meantime, Sun Ah-hyun ran to her room as soon as the night camp was over and didn’t come out.

‘What are you doing?’

I held back my sleep and opened my mouth.

“… I wonder if Seon Ah-hyun feels left out.”

“huh?”

“What can I do right now, leave him alone and talk to you and me?”

In fact, regardless of age, time, or rank, the relationship is the same.

It is that they are angry at this unfair treatment and are relieving stress in a positive way by rushing out of meetings.

Big Se-jin shakes his head as if thinking about it once again.

“Well, maybe it was. Ayy, but Ahyeon isn’t that kind of style… ah.”

The guy groans.

“When Ahyeon was in school, she wasn’t very good at making friends, right?”

“… okay.”

“That’s um… I might have felt a little bad about it.”

Sejin glanced back at me and asked quite seriously.

“What are you going to do?”

“… … .”

do i know

Of course, he’s not really coming up with a countermeasure, but he’s going to share a secret.

In the end, if the cause of Seon Ah-hyun's abnormal behavior is because we all know about this supernatural phenomenon.

"Um… Of course, I can't tell you what to do, but I don't think Ah-hyun's attitude will change just because he hears your story."

"… … "

That… I don't think so either.

'He's such a heartless and nice guy.'

I let out a short sigh.

"Hey, and we won't even bully you for being a man of mental age… ah! Hey, did you just get really sick?"

okay. It's a 20 -year -old arm.

… No, actually, it's the most embarrassing thing to say that it looks like his hand went out first because he was stabbed.

I sighed at the giggling Sejin.

He stopped laughing before changing the topic.

"Oh, and speaking of words… How can I say that Heeseung? Well, I was invited to this meeting too. Do you explain it like that and tell me a little bit?"

The guy grinned.

"Or are you saying that I came from the future too? Wow, that would be really funny."

"stop."

Don't even think about giving examples of hypotheses that don't match the timing.

“I don’t play around like that, because it seems to be transmitted in the form of a baton touch.”

“Oh, you analyzed a lot of things in the university. It is also Mundaemun University. Didn’t you care so much about Heeseung to find out about that?”

quick-witted kid.

I put on my handcuffs.

“Yes, there are places where Gold 2 can be used.”

“… … .”

However, Sejin did not answer for a moment.

‘what.’

Then, suddenly, as if in doubt, he opened his mouth again with a serious face.

“But Mundaemun University.”

why.

“I wanted to ask you earlier… That gold 2. Are you talking about Heeseung?”

“… !!”

how do you know that… .

“… … .”

wait i… Did you say that as an upbringing earlier?

“Right! You Heeseung was calling Gold 2? why?”

“… … That”

“Wait a minute. I’ll try to guess. no way… Gold rank in < Azusa >? Could it be that you numbered it?”

“… … .”

“Is this right?? Oh this is great! Wow~ Look at how heartless Park Moondae is! Sometime after < Azusa > ended, it’s still gold!”

X feet.

I gnashed my teeth watching the guy burst out laughing.

“It is my heart. why.”

“You really have an arm… . no no sorry did you laugh too much? Hey, I’m really sorry~”

This bastard is trying to gloss over it with something he doesn’t like.

However, Keun Se-jin trims his real face and makes his eyes shine.

“I’m asking because I’m really curious… . Did Sejin call you that too? Uh, did all the kids classify like that when they were just in Azusa? Am I Gold 1?”

The dream is big too.

“… It was just a big deal.”

“Oh~ what is it? It’s a nickname though. Good good.”

I held my breath when I saw the big Sejin shaking my head. driving me crazy.

“Then how long have you been calling me that?”

“… … .”

“Moondaemundae?”

I still call it like that.

I left the whiner and went back to my room to go to bed.

* * *

The album production camp continued the next day.

And the momentum of Seonahyeon continued.

“If we keep making no progress like this, we have to do it until night. Everyone hates working overtime. therefore… .”

“Hey overtime… ! let’s do it!”

“… … uh.”

so far… What to do?

That’s enough to ruin the character. I shut my mouth when I saw Seon Ah-hyun burning with passion as if it were Cha Yu-jin who met a special device.

“Hyung, I hate working overtime!”

“I still have to do it, if necessary… !”

Hey, now you’re saying things you don’t like about Cha Yoo-jin.

Of course that’s not a bad thing. On the contrary, it’s a good thing in terms of efficiency, but that’s… I mean, it seems like overkill.

I made my decision after seeing Sun Ah-hyun secretly wiping the cold sweat from the back of her neck.

‘I can’t do it.’

I'll have to try my luck.

"You worked hard~"

"Let's clean up."

After dinner, as soon as the meeting was temporarily over, I followed Seon Ah-hyun, who left for his room, and visited his room.

smart.

"… !"

"it's me."

thud.

When I open the door and enter, I see Sun Ah-hyun lying on her desk as if trying to cover something.

What are you doing?

"I have something to look for in a car… ?"

"I just want to talk… ."

As I got closer, I realized what this guy was covering.

Article review ratings.

It was a kind of scrapbook in which we printed out and organized all the contents related to our previous albums.

[The most important part?]

[The problem of expressiveness]

Also, as if this guy had put up comments in elegant handwriting, they were neatly organized here and there.

Not only that, but something floated on the electronic reader that this guy reflexively covered.

[The Complete Works of Edgar Allan Poe 5]

… I hope this

‘Was it made separately?’

Anyone can see that everything was preparation material for Testa’s new album.

But let’s ask one more time.

“What is it all about?”

“… ! oh yeah this… … .”

Seon Ah-hyun seemed to hesitate several times, but soon answered in a rather confident voice.

“Among the works of ‘Edgar Allan Poe’ that Se Sejin hyung told me about… Ooh, I think I found a subject that suits us better.”

“… !”

“The big black cat was nice too, but… I feel a little overlap with that < Call >… I want to combine what Testa does best.”

Seon Ah-hyun looked nervous, but smiled faintly.

And what this guy said was already plausible.

“… … .”

“Here.”

I accepted the note lying under the e-reader that this guy held out with a slightly trembling hand.

In it, the title of the work and the existing concept group of Testa that they wanted to combine with it were written.

I quickly read a few highlighted letters in the note.

[A surge of energy]

[Sense of immersion]

Then I read the notes all the time.

"… … ."

"Ah, I haven't come up with a good summary yet… couldn't tell Speaking without any basis… Because it doesn't work."

Seon Ah-hyun lowered her head as if somewhat embarrassed.

"I am… Because I can't speak well… . I thought it would be nice if the contents were well organized… ."

me really

"Seeing what you're doing today, I don't think I should have worried about that."

Seon Ah-hyun's face reddened.

"Thank you. Still, if you add the finishing touches… … ."

"Oh, you were working separately like that!"

It's a surprise.

When I turned my head, Raebin Kim, who was working at the desk over there with headphones on, took off the device and turned his head.

'Since when have you been here?'

I didn’t react as if the rat had died and was just working, so I couldn’t see it.

“I didn’t know that during the last few days living in the dorm, Ahyeon hyung-nim was always reading album reviews.”

“Yes… .”

Sun Ah-hyun’s face turned red, so she affirmed, and Kim Rae-bin nodded as if he knew.

And his eyes lit up.

“I thought it was a new hobby that I developed during the tour, but I never thought you would spend so much time and money on a large-scale analysis. It is also a face of sincerity and talent.”

“… … . Ughhhhhh.”

Even though he has a face that wants to decline very much, he absolutely affirms it.

I chuckled.

“that’s right. Great.”

“… !”

“The content is good. I could have suggested it right away. Enough like this.”

“Really… ?!”

So are you going to lie here?

“okay.”

To put it succinctly, this is something that would have been devastating if someone had only drafted it.

‘The process of drawing conclusions is so neat.’

Of course, there are cases in the world where inspiration springs up like Kim Rae-bin and creates something that captivates people in one shot.

However, sometimes there are people who find the correct answer to a single number by putting many pieces together like a puzzle and filtering them closely like a tray.

And now this guy’s judgment was like that.

The conclusion that this guy came to after looking through and analyzing all the existing testa album data, which is huge even at a glance… It was very attractive.

‘I must have suffered a lot.’

I admired the guy who was depressed because he couldn’t participate properly in the camp.

This was beyond expectations.

“I want to try this right now.”

“… !”

Seon Ah-hyun’s eyes shone brightly. It seems almost thrilled.

“It’s nothing. really… thank you.”

“Thank you for giving me a good opinion.”

However, Sun Ah-hyun’s words did not end.

“Well then… Hey.”

hmm?

“That me too… I wonder if that’s what’s going on… .”

At that moment, I realized what this guy meant by ‘what happened’.

‘this… Are you asking for a secret?’

I guess I misunderstood something.

This guy’s aggressiveness doesn’t come from rage.

This guy’s attitude… It’s like paying for the credentials of a secret society.

“Oh no! no… . I’ll be clearing this up some more… .”

Despite saying no, Seon Ah-hyun, with a face full of anticipation, quietly headed for the desk.

“Would you mind taking a look at me too?”

“Yes!”

“… … .”

… Apparently, Sun Ah-hyun moved in a very productive way than I predicted by merging the two emotions.

Two things: the desire to contribute to Album Camp and the desire to be recognized by people of the same age.

‘this… If I don’t come all the way here and tell you, I’ll be damned.’

“… … .”

Ay X foot. I do not know.

‘Make a seat.’

It seems like I’m going to talk to all the heavy-mouthed guys regardless of this guy. I washed my face dry.

Anyway, at the end of the night, Seon Ah-hyun, who called the meeting, made a presentation.

And, like those with good eyesight, the reaction came out similar to mine.

I mean it was great.

"… I like this one better too."

"Then, I think we can take a strand in this direction and work hard. Is Ahyeon okay?"

"Ugh, thank you… . thank you!"

Seeing everyone from the person who came up with the idea to the realist seemed to like it, Seon Ah-hyun nodded her head.

The atmosphere was very cheerful, as if applauding Sun Ah-hyun.

That is until the next word comes out.

"Well then, I guess we'll have to recheck the schedule."

"… ?"

Liu Qingyu smiled.

"That means… It means that we have to revise all the configuration plans that have come out until now."

"… … ."

"… … ."

Seon Ah-hyun closes her eyes.

"I'm sorry."

“What are you talking about. The album concept is getting better, which is a good thing.”

It was a reply that felt the sadness of the office worker.

‘K-pop Hell Overtime Camp… reopening.’

Fortunately, the effect of this overtime camp was outstanding.

“Let’s add this one.”

“Mmm.”

And I wanted to include things like this, but I added things that were excluded for balance reasons.

‘This is the end.’

By the time the day was completely warm, we finished preparing for the release of our new album.

Chapter 345

-May when the teaser for Testa's album was released.

The movie Cosmic Gunner, in which they made a cameo appearance, was a global box office success enough to mobilize 8 million viewers in Korea and was about to leave the theater.

-Aren't you rushing out to paddle when the water comes in? Hahaha

-Oh, please don't be in a hurry, saying that attracting popularity by type is the taste of capital.

Some people started whispering about comeback articles and rumors that popped up without notice only three days before the teaser was released.

Park Mun-dae's first runner was also on the verge of biting his nails.

'The head of headquarters looks like an idiot with a young American disease… ! Could it be to Testa?'

The head of the headquarters managed to get stuck in Mirinae and evaded the beast, but now it suddenly occurred to me that maybe it was just a lie

. Of course, some of the people whispered, and most of those who heard the news of Testa's comeback were intoxicated with the mulberry that had risen through < Cosmic Gunner >.

That was actually a bit worrying.

-Daebak daebak Testa’s surprise comeback is

crazy

. This guy’s expectations are rising endlessly.’

Mundae has never let himself down, but he always does what he wants.

‘Even if Moondae and the kids do well, it’s useless if the company does stupid things again… !’

From the words of a company official at the end of the article to the expression ‘this album that will delight various global fandoms’, I was uneasy.

-Thumping! (Link)

Still, I shared Testa’s comeback article and commented like this, but this is also a reaction for external use.

‘I am named… . self-weight… do… … .’

I especially missed Moondae who put the apple cake stickers he drew on his cheeks at the fan signing event.

… At least if we make a comeback, we’ll see it again. I’m going to do a fan signing event.

‘okay. Let’s trust and wait.’

In fact, isn’t it a season where it wouldn’t be strange to make a comeback just by looking at the term!

She organized her mind like that with a fairly pure fan heart.

and three days later

– It’s up! floated!

The teaser, which was clicked amid tension and excitement, started with black smoke rising like a haze.

What unfolds is a dark and profound modern banquet hall.

Gorgeous figures wearing masks dance in an elegant place where the shadows are thick and slightly ominous.

The silhouettes overlapped and blended together.

When you want a cut like a scene from a 20th century art movie to last for a few seconds.

The sound suddenly changes.

-Rumble!

Thunder.

“… !”

In the middle of flashing light, the scene changes to the outdoors outside the dark and pale banquet hall.

In the middle of the night when the rain was pouring down, the lights of the banquet hall leaked out of the window above the castle gate.

[…] …]

iron prick.

And a bare foot stops in front of the rainwater gate.

Its flesh is dyed red, and it drips and spreads into the water.

polluted

“… !”

Somewhat spooky camera work and editing.

And slowly the sight rises.

What has been revealed… A faceless shadow wearing a red hood.

A mask without facial features.

Go oh oh oh,

the moment you want to confirm the eerie grotesqueness, the screen turns black again.

Darkness.

A riff melody resounding in it.

– Mmmmm.

The graceful and slow-pitched violin plays ominously and eerily, and the laughter of the people in the banquet hall subsides.

The album title pops up.

[OVER the Masquerade]

[TeSTAR]

“Wow.”

The atmosphere was clear.

Elegant, ominous, dark and luxurious feeling.

– Wow!

-oh my god!

First of all, contrary to the speculation and concerns of some netizens, the visual beauty created by pressing the capital was excellent.

First of all, people who expected gukppong gave good reviews and chatted with excitement.

– I don’t think

it’s embarrassing to put it out anywhere

.

This esoteric, aesthetic, and intense atmosphere created a sense of incongruity.

because i’ve seen it a lot.

-hmm… It feels like a combination of all popular K-pop idols in the US, such as V-tic, and so on. -The taste of America must have been so sweet.

This is because dark and deadly luxurious symbols reminded us of some idols whose global momentum is better than domestic ones, starting with VTIC, which has gripped the American fanatics.

In fact, it was common for idols to change their concept, but there were also people who couldn’t laugh at the switching that seemed to be aimed at the right timing.

In other words, the form does not live. –

All Gao in Group 1 are dead

. Quality is like a big company

-I wonder if there was even a need for this

.

To be honest, I wanted to force it a little, but the spirit of the fans of other groups who rushed at me with a sense of crisis was too much.

‘Still, the public reaction is okay.’

Many people found several classic symbols in the short teaser.

-This looks like a reference to ‘The Mask of the Red Death’ by Edgar Allan Poe. As the plague spread, the vested interests who lived in a luxurious hideout by themselves eventually came to the silent visit of the plague… I’ll just talk about it here ^^

ㄴOh, I’m curious about how to apply it! Daebak It seems to have a very profound and dangerous feeling

.

‘This isn’t even an image similar to a movie appearance.’

Aren’t they too heavy? Not like the usual testa… .

“… … .

Anyway, contrary to my worries, the quality is good, so I concluded that there would be no problem if I endured well with aggro at the beginning of the release.

‘Let’s go for a career high this time too!’

However, in fact, her worries and concerns have already been paid for by the parties involved.

What is the nature of Testa?

Where is the source of their uniqueness?

– It seems to be going back to one in the end.

Following Sun Ah-hyun's analysis, Park Moon-dae concluded as follows.

– It's funny.

just fun.

And the suction power that the charm of the fun exerts.

immersion.

-So the first keyword that Ahyeon chose after analyzing all of this must be immersion.

They never made obscure symbols and allusions their main value.

That's just side story.

The main value was one.

'Fun to see and hear.'

It is the most indigenous and fundamental value that the stage and sound source have.

Pleasant pleasure that can be enjoyed without any burden and without a steamy aftertaste.

Testa's center has never changed. And that will be the case with this album as well.

-let's go.

Another week after the teaser release. A music video was released.

'Ugh!'

Homma clicked on the video right away, even as her hands trembled.

The scene in the music video begins with a gate that has been torn off in half.

It was a cut following the teaser, but there was a clear difference.

‘… There is no light.’

There is no light in the banquet hall that was leaking out, albeit faintly. And no rainwater.

Outdoor scenery in the middle of the night when everything stopped.

Go oh oh oh

, the chills for a while.

The camera work, which moves as if being sucked into the castle gate, passes through the unlit corridor and leads to the dark banquet hall.

broken masks. red paint.

In the mess that has already turned into ruins, the monster in the red robe that appeared in the teaser is caught in the center. Anyone can see that it is the cause of this horror.

‘Uh… … . Is that a plague?’

Are you one of the members? What is that creepy feeling?

But the camera didn’t get any closer.

Instead, the scene changes abruptly.

gate again.

– Whoa.

The sound of a short breath. He is caught standing with his back to the camera facing the huge, half-torn castle gate.

Instead of silence, the sound of the night forest and the sound of insects.

A tall man wearing an indigo robe.

At that moment the music returns.

Whoa-!

The sounds of drums and trombones intersect quickly and magnificently, and the person standing in front slowly looks up at the sky.

Kwakwang!

thunder and lightning strike

it is raining.

However, perhaps because of the music, instead of the melancholy that we saw in the teaser, it was a refreshing and overwhelming scene.

‘Huh?’

The moment the person turns around and takes off the mask.

A close-up shot catches the face.

Park Moon-dae

”… !”

Even the shaded neck, shoulders and ears are attached with techwear-like elements of the military uniform like sci-fi equipment.

But it was only for a moment that I properly checked it.

In the very next scene, Park Mun-dae flips over the navy hood he was wearing on his head.

White hair tinged with blue fluttered.

Rule!

Then, a glitch seemed to pop out from the back of his head, and blue light sprouted and shimmered on his shoulders like a mane.

“… !?”

Park Moon-dae smiled.

[Ha!]

The gloomy outdoor scene with a short shouting sound instantly becomes a stage filled with sci-fi luminous light!

– Hear the sound of an anxious call over there. The sound of my running footsteps. The leader who appeared first

Following the melodic rap from the first measure, a cool treble splits the accompaniment as if piercing the window sill.

The moment Park Moon-dae hits the floor as if jumping off with the highest note, the camera pulls back and the applicator flutters behind In-yeong.

And six other people appearing in between.

Kim Rae-bin’s low-pitched rap, which came out as the center, is mixed with the first bar of the high-pitched note.

-Yeah give me that baton.

The symbol of Rule The bell of justice is ringing today

Louder, tighter, and more powerful

Moondae Park doubled the last verse.

A sense of speed created by galloping rap and piercing high notes.

In addition, the chorus explodes immediately with the performance that flips the hood and swings.

-That’s ma savior!

Throw away the tension and enjoy the night of victory!

“Huh.”

A thrilling and enjoyable beat.

While watching the video with your mouth open at the momentary change of atmosphere, seven people run into the castle gate, beckoning to the camera before you know it.

Wherever they went, yellow and blue glows flashed from the candles. The accompaniment of string instruments, which are sharp and lively and full of skill, follows as if to assist.

And again, a creepy barefoot figure wearing a red robe attracts attention as if being sucked in.

Chiyiing!

The members each take their places in the seven colorful banquet halls, and each part has a fierce performance cut like a battle.

Like a hero fighting a villain.

“and.”

It didn’t look like a clumsy action movie thanks to the fact that only the part where the impact of the collision exploded was cut short.

It’s just that the dynamism of the performance has come to life more realistically.

‘What concept is this?? Who is this?’

The excited Homma clenched her fists, but no answer came out.

It was fine though! What’s certain is that… It was cool and fun to see the testa running wild wearing techwear with details from traditional military uniforms.

yes it was fun!

– Climb aboard this dance,

pull the bowstring,

don’t stop the march of the thrown dice,

the melody!

Lightning strikes the dark banquet hall. And the rainwater pours and scatters around the splendid dance.

A spectacle of performance created by afterimages of blazing blue light.

And the intense choreography of the bridge that connects the posture and body to make it look like a giant siege gun.

-That’s ma savior!

outstretched hand.

Red Hood is captured by the head in an instant.

At that moment, the performance and music, which seemed to run out of control, stopped.

[…] …]

The cloth around the captive head drooped and the red hood fell to the floor.

There is nothing in it. This is because it is the embodiment of disease and fear itself.

All that remains is the mask in Cha Yu-jin's hand.

At the moment, white noise flows on the screen, and the color and camera work change so that it is slightly creepy.

But Cha Yoo-jin, who is holding the mask… I just shook my head as if I didn't understand.

The tension disappears.

"… ?"

In addition, Bae Se-jin, who was standing behind, came out as if nothing had happened, grabbed the mask, and smashed it without hesitation before throwing it out the window.

[…] …]

Then, he looks back at the rest of the members with a face that says 'Are you okay?'.

[match… Clap clap clap clap!]

The 4-dimensional appearance of the members clumsily clenching their palms as if they were paying attention contrasted with the intense performance, creating strange laughter.

“Oh what!”

Homema also laughed. The screen was ending with the members trudging out of the banquet hall encouraging each other.

-Ring the bell Ring my bell

I wanna be your savior

An empty banquet hall that is no longer dreary.

The last verse pops up loudly in the subtitles, neatly ending all sounds and cuts.

It was a perfect ending that made me want to see more.

“under… … .”

However, before Homma can think of anything to appreciate, the video returns.

“hmm??”

An empty space inside the castle gate where the clouds clear and the moonlight shines down.

Seven round stone statues arranged in a circle were caught in the sky’s view.

And it was a stone statue she knew.

“… ! this… .”

A huge, round body that I had seen in front of Gyeongbokgung Palace.

it was lazy

“… ?!”

In Korea, a mysterious animal with a traditionally emphasized guardian character that punishes bad guys.

And Homma gets a lightning-like realization.

“that… That’s why!”

This… It was a Haetae concept to beat the plague!

There was even a cookie video.

Members Haetae opened the door of the temple and ran out coolly to the city under the mountain.

In the city, the already restored night view was shining as if it had never disappeared due to the plague.

“and… .”

Homma opened her mouth.

It’s like collecting only the essence of Testa’s album activities so far… After all, what’s different about a restaurant specializing in concept performances… no anyways!!

‘It’s fun just by looking at it! It’s even more fun when you know it!’

And the members in techwear were insanely handsome and sang well!

Especially Park Moondae!

A few minutes later, when she barely calmed down and turned on social media, the posts were already overflowing.

And the members were also quickly monitoring all of this.

Chapter 346

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 346

"… Is it a great success?"

"I know."

After checking the comments and SNS of the hot music video that was just released, we were silent for a while.

no… The response was much better than expected.

In fact, on the day of the comeback, all sorts of feedback from dirty reactions to curses were pouring in, so it was in the mood to refrain from monitoring as much as possible… .

'There's no need for that.'

-God Star God Concept God Music Video Just God

-Testa!! Testa!! Testa!! Testa! 1 Testa!! Testa!! Testa!!

-Ah ㅋㅋㅋ Testa is really sincere in Korea ~~~~ Oh, have you seen it as a hematopathy Hero

?

It's not the usual cheering comments from fans, but the comments from netizens rushing at it like a sports game.

"uh… I think we made something really great."

“I know.”

To put it bluntly, Ryu Chung-wu became a ‘yes’ reaction robot.

“Isn’t this the first time… ? Are you just saying that everything is fine?!”

“Iknow, right.”

that’s me Liu Cheng-wu tried to speak before opening his mouth. Bae Se-jin was almost sticking his nose into his smartphone.

I also swiped my smartphone screen.

I didn’t want to, so I checked it out, and even in the most extreme expressions and dirty words, surprisingly good reviews are the norm.

-ㅅㅂ I like it, it’s a good thing, I’m going to get to Gao, I’m going to be a gao, I’m going to sleep

. I know how to eat haha This is why I can’t let you guys go what… In fact, it’s a place that’s half as good as an anti, and I didn’t expect it to be so naked…

. … .”

Anyway, this side prefers a hard performance that ‘replaces the bones’, but since they won the grand prize with the last title that sniped popularity, they seem to have been swearing in advance, fearing that they would continue to go that way.

‘I don’t know what it’s like to spend energy on.’

However, when I opened the lid, I could feel the nostalgia of the parade that these people loved the most in the performance where they sharpened bones at the level of ‘Drill’, so I guess they started applauding first.

In other words, there is no reason for unnecessary turmoil within the fandom.

“hmm.”

“He said he wouldn’t do it over and over again, but it’s strange monitoring… .”

“Oh turn it off now.”

The guy who was mentally broken after looking for such a malignant personal fan den in the beginning of his debut, is good at training.

Anyway, it wasn’t during Azusa, but I just closed the page for eye health.

Still a bit shaken up

‘Honestly, I thought likes and dislikes would be quite divided.’

No matter how well the CG is written and the editing is well done, it is because the sci-fi modern ballroom haetae plague was included in the idol music video.

I dared to do it even though I thought that there would be quite a few cases where the general public would get indigestion while digesting it.

However, it is said that quality is above likes and dislikes, and reputation is above quality.

[Global reaction to the appearance of Haetae Haetae Star, a testa that beats the American plague!]

[When it comes to Korean taste, it’s Testa! The surprising identity of Testa’s new song ‘Savior’!]

Look at the selection of titles for the YouTube channels that have been followed since appearing in movie cameos.

I realized once again

‘It’s gukppong.’

After all, it was the best if the gukppong meta didn’t have brain damage. Paying for money kills.

‘You did a good job insisting even at the last minute.’

-If you have too many references to the US, public opinion in Korea may be hurt that you are too conscious of the US.

-‘Spring out’ received a good response overseas, so I’ll just add a little taste of that Steampunk Joseon worldview to the level of an abduction.

Of course, the more this is repeated, the more difficult it is to catch a line that does not break the brain, but it is an elaborate reference and structure that achieves this.

‘Seon Ah-hyun really did it for three people.’

To be honest, that guy was monitoring the reaction of the music video by rewinding it several times. I am proud of myself. This must be it.

‘I can’t hear anything I say now.’

It’s very poised to fit into a music video.

Of course, in fact, there is currently no member who is not in a state of excitement.

“Music video views are skyrocketing to unbelievable numbers. A cameo in the movie was a smart choice!”

“I know. … Um, and Sejin and Ahhyun, who reminded me of Edgar Allan Poe, really did a great job. In addition, the Haetae concept of Mundae also went well with it.”

“Ohhh!”

Bae Se-jin calmly opened his mouth to Ryu Cheong-woo, who had come to his senses.

“… I only gave you the material! In fact, Sun Ah-hyun did everything.”

“… … .”

Even in the midst of this, if Seon Ah-hyun couldn’t hear and was only monitoring, wouldn’t he have said everything?

The unfortunate thing is that Bae Se-jin tried one more time while getting red.

“that… Seon Ah-hyun did it all.”

“Abandon your lingering attachments to other people’s reactions. Let’s move on like it never happened naturally.”

“hey!”

“Me? That performance was amazing!”

“Ah~ Eugene’s power was also good!”

“So much. that’s for sure… It was fine. You used your expression well.”

“Hi-Hi.”

Even putting gold on your face is at the level of a drinking party at this point. It’s an atmosphere where it won’t be strange if someone rolls wheat and shouts a toast.

Then, after 3 days of arrangement, the main dancers who combined Kim Rae-bin and the choreography draft are rained down. Soon it will rain on me too.

‘hmm.’

Should I put these guys feet on the ground?

“And Moondaemundae~ Moondae really made this camp. This album is the number one contributor~”

“Yeah. In fact, it was Moondae, not me, who served as the leader at the camp. It’s been a lot of trouble.”

“Brother is really cool! I admit it!”

“That’s right… !”

Seon Ah-hyun When did this guy come to his senses and put it here?

Anyway, I laughed.

“Thank you. However, since public opinion changes quickly, strange noises may come out. But don’t worry, it will cool off again with time.”

Then he grinned. these?

“Are you ashamed of Moondae?”

“no.”

“Okay, okay, I’ll give it to you~”

Should I hit this one?

However, the topic quickly changes. quick-witted kid.

“It’s definitely about public opinion, but is it because I prepared too hard? I want to do the stage soon.”

“I heard that the pre-recording is going on the day after tomorrow. I am very excited!”

These guys are very confident about how well they rolled while preparing for the stage. It must have been a forced march.

-It’s not a large size there~ Again! Don’t be out of breath!

-If you take a 5-minute break… .

-Then it ends 10 minutes late~

“… … .”

That state where every last drop of stamina was squeezed out… Well, I almost thought of it and almost synchronized it. I quickly got out and returned to thinking about my schedule afterwards.

‘I’m going to go to America after taking care of a domestic music show.’

It is also a handshake that seems to go all-in on the US. Do you know what will happen in the future and do that?

So, the original plan was to appear in a few American talk shows after money in Korea, but… .

There was a slight change that evening.

“Are you calling us from here?”

“The company says so.”

Suddenly, a contact came in from a major entertainment channel during prime time in the United States.

“If you accept… .”

“… … .”

And everyone figured out the situation.

“Ughhh.”

If it’s an official appearance, there’s no way I’ll call you in such a hurry. Well, it looks like someone bought it and hit it with a hole.

Big Sejin shrugged.

“Um~ But appearances are appearances.”

okay. Even though it is an appearance that only performs without talking.

There is no doubt that it is a major broadcast with better ratings than most of the talk shows we caught.

“How many artists would appear in a country with so many people? The fact that they contacted us right away means we are next in line.”

“… … .”

Even the interest he gained from his cameo in the movie was definitely meaningful.

“Then shall we?”

“I don’t think there is any need to refuse. Just in case.”

Liu Qingyu’s words were quietly agreed upon by everyone.

Fortunately, it happened.

This is because the company quickly adjusted the schedule as soon as he said he wanted to accept it.

“Fixed.”

“Ohhh~”

Actually, it was the expected result.

‘It was fortunate that our first domestic comeback stage was on Tnet.’

It was Testa's first public live stage for this album, and it was a frustrating situation because it was delayed, but it was conceded.

It must be because it is the same T1 affiliate.

'In the first place, for the same reason, Tnet got a solo comeback show, so I withdrew from there as well.'

The affiliation was a gangster. If it wasn't for that, it would have been an offer and a nabal and I would have been blown away.

"hmm."

It wasn't a bad picture for us anyway. I'll return to Korea right after this one stage, so there won't be many fans of the saddest group.

'Even so, the time from the release of the music video to the release of the first stage was too long.'

As I released my album on Friday to aim for Billboard… It's because the first domestic music broadcast is next Thursday.

'It's open for about a week.'

It took a while to keep up the momentum.

And anyone interested in this industry would know that.

'I'm definitely trying to work on this.'

As expected, after about two days, the excitement about the 'testa that met expectations' subsided and the sound of the candles quietly started to rise.

_____==

[Personal opinion on Testa's new song]

The song is cool, but honestly, it seems to be too much. I wonder if it will be…

The music video performance is the same, but do both of these at the same time? Hmm…

I wonder if it will be pre-recorded, but it's a little push-style. Live is Testa's biggest strength, but it feels like they kicked it with their feet. You know the big picture of aiming for the US, but I hope you don't lose your original intention

. Just attached proof of being a listener (capture of music site details)

_____==

-Hul, I wasn't the only one who thought like this. Honestly, a little bit of criticism? It was because it created the atmosphere. It's not like worrying about live performances is not an insult. .The three best comments are as follows.

"hmm."

After all, noise comes out, but is that at least a live concern?

Very good.

'Looks like there's not much to complain about.'

I think he wanted to cause stronger stress than the sentimental comment, 'It's crazy, it's not my taste'… It's a very proud thing.

In the meantime, in the English-speaking world, even the bastards who heard K-pop from somewhere

– they really do this high note while dancing? Out of my mind

┗ To tell you the truth, most of them dance to pre-recorded songs ? Don’t get your hopes up ┗ Fuck you K-pop haters! They did live on almost every stage. If you wait a little bit, you will be able to see a great stage!

It’s not even a fuss.

All sorts of opinions come out from the mix of people who came in through < Cosmic Gunner >, existing fans, and people who like Cosmic Gunner but don’t like KPOP.

The middle opinion is ‘Music videos are amazing, but do they really do this?’

It was good too.

‘The buzz is sweet.’

Isn’t this kind of noise supposed to be sorted out as a good topical rice cake once on stage.

‘Of course, it’s a story when I’m doing well.’

As soon as we talked about the stage earlier, I think we have already come to a conclusion as to whether or not we will do well by looking at the members’ reactions.

I smirked and broke my neck.

Where should I look at objective indicators?

‘Status window.’

After a while, I summoned a hologram.

It’s been almost half a year since I checked my stats properly.

‘It’s not like I can do something like leveling up other than checking the facts, so I don’t see it often.’

Still, it was because I didn’t live so green that the stats I put on would disappear.

‘It will be the same.’

I checked the contents anew, recalling the moments when I benefited from good distribution.

‘Let’s see… !’

And I was surprised.

[Name: Park Moon-dae (Ryu Gun-woo)]

‘Why are there two S’s?’

No, I didn’t even take the stats of some kind of guy, but it was blown like this in the meantime.

‘Why did Chi become S grade?’

I don’t know what I did to get this to S. Are you good at stage experience?

In addition, his appearance went up a notch.

Now, it is not an A-, which is an A-grade pull-up, but a real A.

what is this… What is the power of exercise and dyeing?

‘The natural increase is amazing.’

I tossed my gray hair and crossed my arms. It seems that I lived harder than I thought.

“hmm.”

It’s kind of fun.

‘It must be difficult not to perform on stage with these stats… .’

hmm. Shall I shock you a little?

I distributed the last points without regret.

“Let’s try it.”

I smiled and crossed my arms. Looking back on the internet in a few days… .

[and… Hyung, you really have professional idol stats… … .]

“… !”

I was about to roll down.

Reflexively, I tried to push away the clunky pop-up next to the status window with trembling hands.

But before that, a pop-up pops up in front of you again.

[Hehe, is this really delivered? oh my god! No, I'm sorry, hyung, were you surprised?? I don't know if I can be either!]

Wait.

This way of speaking… .

"… Moondae Park?"

[yes! It's a big moon!]

Chapter 347

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 347

That's Ryu Kun-woo, Park Moon-dae, who is using his body. .

[brother? Are you okay?]

"… … after."

I got it. I relaxed my shoulders and sighed.

Suddenly someone said something and thought it was a ghost… no.

"Since when did you become like this?"

Clearly, he didn't have this kind of talent.

[I don't know. I just tried it because I thought it would work… It works?]

"… okay."

It seems that synchronization with the status window has come to an end. I see you can use it like that.

It's not a very positive sign, but since he's having fun, should he keep his mouth shut and stop talking nonsense?

[and… It's been a long time since I felt like we were sharing our views like this. a bit that… How does it feel when you use your body with your brother? Wow!]

No, it seems like he's having too much fun… .

I kept my mouth shut for a while at the always static description text or the chat that flooded the status window that came up.

It’s to the point of feeling uncomfortable.

[Can I use that emoji too? Like this >_< Huh!] "Yes, it's really amazing." You're doing things you never could have imagined. I held my breath and got up. It's a pity that Ryu Cheng-wu is out on the phone with the company. At least it would have been funny. [I'm sorry if I was reckless... . Heck, it’s the comeback season now, but if you’ve stumbled somewhere] “No.” I blocked the text of the pop-up window that was growing. Who does this look like a weakling? “Because I’m fine, don’t worry about that. I was a bit surprised because I was concentrating on checking my stats for the first time in a while.” [yes… … .] seems a bit genuine. I twitched my eyebrows at the pop-up window that seemed to convey even the nuances skillfully even though it was only text. Still, I don't know where I can use it, so let's check it out. "Looking at what you're saying now, it looks like you can see my situation. How far can you see it?" [Just to the extent that hyung sees… yes. It seems to be the same!] “Anything other than sight?” [The sound is a bit muffled, but I can hear it. Other than that, I don't really feel anything else!] Finally, a quick answer comes out. "always?" [no! I think it only happens when you access the status window like this. Something… When I turn on the status window, it feels like an electronic signal is coming to me!] That's right. So, when I turn on the status window, a call is sent to this guy and it is synchronized. 'If I'm in a hurry, I could use it.' The possibility is extremely low, but if, for example, you get stranded on an uninhabited island again within a few months. I nodded. "okay. It’s nice to have one more way to contact you.” Unless you're on the verge of death. [Right?] The pop-up window vibrated slightly. this… I hope it's because I'm excited. And even slightly smaller, soon new letters are written slowly as if hesitating. [I… May I contact you when I look at the status window sometimes?] I smiled. "of course." [Thank you!] The window widened again. It seems to reflect quite well. And he starts pouring out his impressions in earnest. [Ah hyung, seeing you taking stats really made my heart race! I really want to see the first live in person, but it's a pity I couldn't go!] “Does it look useful in your opinion?” [yes! I'm so excited that my heart feels like it's going to come out of my mouth!] He made watching

Testa one of the pleasures of his college entrance exam life, and then, for some reason, the words fans use stuck to his lips. I opened my mouth for an answer, but the text that came up quickly came first. [Really fighting! Oh I'm going to go to work now! Lunchtime is over.] “… … .” That's how the pop-up window disappeared with a glitch in an instant. 'It's like a real KakaoTalk.' … I guess it will take some time to get used to. I rubbed my shoulders and turned off the rest of the status window. Let's go ahead and come back to reality. The important thing now is the first stage. 'The preparations are over.' The amount of practice, actual combat experience, and even a trump card have been filled. … Somehow, it's not a performance, but it's a phrase that sounds like going to the World's Best Martial Arts Competition. I laughed while shaking my head. 'There's not much difference.' It's just that I didn't lift a knife, but isn't it the same to have results that won't be embarrassing? 'Let's go to the real sword fight.' Because it was a soldering iron, I couldn't add any special effects or devices. The only thing given is a firecracker originally installed on the stage. So better. If you are impressed by this stage, I can't give you a reason other than the person who performed, Testa. “It’s Moondae. I have to go to the practice room... !” "okay." I left the room. The first release of the stage was right around the corner. * * * The news that Testa's first performance will be pre-released on the famous American survival audition variety show 〈You got a chance〉 hit the Internet. -Hey, this is cruel and funny, but Testa is out? Awesome hahahahaha There are two teams of Maehwa outside performers, but I didn't know that Korean idols would come out haha -This has never even been released on Vtic. -I'm already looking forward to it. It is famous for calling only trendy or hot performers, and people said it was a very good thing. Of course, the live worrying posts popped up all of a sudden as if they were determined. -The title was so good, there was a post recording review. ㄴFans are like that . I know Testa Live is good, but this? Lee Se-jin and Park Moon-dae's twin homage office workers kept their reactions down. 'Now, in a little while, Testa will do well, but he will praise me excessively, saying, 'What are you talking about?' To make a fuss even if it ruins a little bit. “Tsk.” she clicked her tongue. But even so, he didn't bother to stop the corners of his mouth from moving. Because this is the person who came to see the pre-recording. It was really not like himself. Whether it's an event or a concert, I went directly to a pre-recording of a music show that's famous for treating fans like garbage. 'Did I get enough of waiting in the middle of a crowd while receiving neglect from other broadcasting stations that early in the morning?' Had enough. No, it was to the point where I thought that what I saw for free did not fit my budget. 'It's better because it's a live broadcast.' It was better because I couldn't correct it. If it was the guys he knew, he would never have neglected managing his neck or ankles in this situation. The office worker nodded and calmly finished the correction. However, somewhere in that hand, I felt a sense of rhythm caused by anticipation. And time passed, on the day of Testa's American TV show performer appearance. [The following is a celebratory performance. This is Testa, a global KPOP singer and 'that' crazy band of 〈Cosmic Gunner〉 !] In the middle of the program, a brief introduction passed without much expectation or grandiose notice. Not only was there not enough time to prepare in the first place, but it was only the first half of the congratulatory performance that was invited as an experiment. And, as always, the mid-advertisement went in and the screen returned again. […] …] A group of people are standing on the huge stage where the auditionees were on until just now. Dancers in red costumes. And in the meantime, seven people wearing black jumpers and masks. - Testa! -Hey, it came out. 'The costume is fine.' It wasn't too conceptual, and it had a modern look and fit to suit the seat. While the office worker nodded. The black testa came forward at the end of a choreography that seemed to sever and push away the red dancer. The beat begins with the sound of an intense trombone while masked dancers turn their heads and stare at each other. sing. Park Moon-dae casually throws off the black mask and scratches the vocals once. [There's a sound of desperate calling and the sound of my running footsteps] Next, we slow down the choreography. and gallop. [The leading edge that appeared first!] Super high pitch in the first line of the introduction. A sharp and clear sound that is not disturbed by a single pitch cuts through the air firmly. thud! You can hear the sound of your hands hitting the floor and then jumping up and down. At least, it is a clean sound without AR, which was put in to catch the scale. -????? -Wow, Mr. Park Moon -dae -It's live, right? 'that's right!' The crazy sense of security he heard at Sanhok rang again in the office worker's ears. 'I wonder if that's a human.' After the almost circus-like stunt leaves a strong impression, Kim Rae-bin's low and refined rap part follows along with a meaningful slow choreography. The eyes covered with black bangs shine. [Appearance!] Then, the choreography continues with bursting movements full of energy.

[Visitors outside of showers in April (Hi) Knock on a firm heart and step into it] Even with the choreography that uses feet, another song is dropped, ending with Ryu Chung-wu's middle and high notes. [Now the rain fell] A drop before the chorus that goes in with the dancers to the humorous sound of the fiddle. Even in the fierce group dance that seems to be buried by the dancers, the composition and gestures make it stand out. And the tenacity to sing even the narration and chorus. [Whoa uh] -He sings all of them -I think he's crazy; Testa never ran out of energy until the end of the first verse. There is no rush or break moment. A flowing, explosive performance in which all dynamics are exquisitely controlled, without any break in one limb. Momentum suitable for the concept of a hero movie. [That's ma Savior!] Before the introduction of the 2nd verse, a slow choreography where both arms are moved backwards. The black jumper has a blue haetae opening its mouth like a tiger on the back, just like a college tailored jumper. -Is this gukppong? -Refreshing -Testa When are you breathing ? A density that is full without even a gap for cheers to fit into a composition like a single organism. However, because of the eye-catching wow points and sense of immersion, the useless burden that would come from that full feeling is not conveyed. Thanks to this, the office worker was ready whenever he noticed. 'It was like this on Sanhok.' I was originally good at it, but when I think it's time to slow down, I bring something stronger like a ghost. Even the choreography of the huge bombardment in the final chorus thrilled even office workers. -Yeah that's ma Savior. Click. Lee Se-jin of the center smiled. thud! Light scatters in the choreography that connects as if flying, and the accompaniment explodes again. “… !” The firecrackers of the stage set were made to pop out in time with the beats and movements like artillery fire. Connection to the exquisite stage. And then, a light and splendid choreography with lots of lingering beats. It was a festive ending. -Ring the bell Ring my bell I wanna be your Savior Between the fallen dancers, Testa raises and folds her arms in succession to take formation. That's how Testa's first stage ended. And the comments and the scene exploded. - cool and charming as it was poisonous. Didn't it start completely raw without any special equipment and ended the stage with the power of raw things? My mouth was about to open. 'Hey cartilage... Are the vocal cords and lungs okay?' A question came to my mind at the moment, but I didn't want to see it as it was if I didn't want to take care of my body and did it on a domestic broadcast stage or event. 'I'll make a lot of money, so I'll take care of it myself.' This stage was really worth the money to see. Besides, this wasn't the end. 'In the pre-recording, I even did an intro glow-in-the-dark performance in addition to that.' I'm already looking forward to how public opinion will go when it comes out. Recalling the comeback show two days later to be aired on Tnet, she folded her hand. Looking at the reaction, I think it will be harder to see the real thing now... what can i do well done! She laughed involuntarily. 'Still, since it's the railroad season, run one or two college events. Let's get more uploads.' And surprisingly, as she wished, Testa scheduled a university event. Of course, the important thing in my career was not the event, but the official broadcasting schedule after that. same time. “Whoops.” “Some radish water.” Most of the testers who came off the stage sat down in a state of exhaustion. I heard cheers, but more than that, my eyes were spinning. 'It seems to consume the most stamina among all the things I've done.' 'Lungs... My lungs are about to pop out!' I couldn't help it. Of course, among Testa's titles and sub-songs so far, there have been too many difficult performances. However, there was no reckless level of one song performance where you could barely match your energy by exerting all your strength. 'That's why it's meaningful.' because it's intense Likewise, Park Mun-dae, who was sitting on the floor, holding his ribs and breathing heavily, made his eyes shine. The appearance was a success if the gut feeling that I felt on stage earlier was not wrong. 'Of course, we have to monitor properly, but... .' But now, with years of experience, his stage sense is quite good. He checked the originally scheduled program order in his head and smiled. “Cha Yoo-jin.” "yes!" “The next stage is also ready.” Cha Yoo-jin, who was stretching alone with the adrenaline effect, smiled and shrugged. [As always.] Park Mun-dae nodded. 'Okay' Next is the second stage of entering the market. This is the so-called 'close the distance' operation.
Aaaa

Chapter 348

Episode 348 Testa

‘s new song caused a considerable sensation from the first stage.

Shall we watch it from the mainland where it aired?

I put ‘You got a chance’, an American variety show we appeared on, in the search bar.

Then, after confirming that English sentences such as ‘who the hell are those guys wearing jumpers’ were automatically completed, he nodded his head.

‘It’s classic.’

The only stage performed in that major entertainment show, which was the pick of the American public. It means that I took a picture of the eyes right there.

This is why the first major exposure is so important. It’s not that I didn’t just grit my teeth and put in all the feats.

“Why do you get a lot of recommendations from comments about not being a band? Everyone is surprised that our acting was so good~”

“Still, using the sound effects and instruments used in the movie to put genre similarities in the bridge seems to be connected properly.”

“Oh, yes. There are not many people who feel uncomfortable with music.”

“People here ask who Chungwoo is. Can I at least answer that question?”

“Be patient, Eugene.”

It is connected to the image of the movie, and I am happy that various noises and likes and dislikes come out. It is a precious amount of buzz.

Naturally, the influx of music videos increases, and the increase in users on global music sites stands out.

‘It’s a level of exposure that is hard to expect in Korea.’

I am in the process of following the reaction process as it is when I am recognized on stage. It seems that this is similar whether it is domestic or foreign.

-What kind of training did you receive to be able to do that? K-pop is training, right?

┗They are from audition programs, which means they are not beneficiaries-victims of K-pop’s factory system!

… In the meantime, there are some guys who skillfully mix the truth and bullshit to post pseudo-style sales posts, but I’m going to use this too, so I’m going to skip it.

In any case, the majority of favorable reviews seem to have hit the mark in Korea as well.

-Does it sound good

-Does this mean that this is a live without editing? Fans will be full even if they don’t eat. If it were me, I would have already broken my neck.

Even if it was originally exposed, it has a taste that makes people who would have thought ‘fans are open’ and skipped over without even clicking on it.

Of course, the stage was chosen well enough to meet the expectations clicked on.

Because of this, the members who had been banging their heads, saying that they were going to collapse after the performance, changed their stance.

“We did grow up a bit. And even your fingers fit tightly?”

“Yeah, everyone has good energy… It was a great performance that suited the song.”

“that’s right! I was so cool.”

Now, the process of confirming the truth and accepting it has come to an end, until Cha Yoo-jin’s declaration that she can use the past tense correctly.

‘I’ll continue to go without modification.’

I nodded in satisfaction.

And the following Tnet’s comeback show and domestic music broadcasting stages captured domestic public opinion once more.

‘The sub song is also good.’

I worked hard to develop the concept of a modern noir thriller using ‘black cat’, but isn’t it a waste to discard it?

I used it for a sub song.

Unlike the title song, which is full of action and has a warlike feel, it has an elegant taste, so even those who were disappointed with this concept made it a good choice according to their taste.

Of course, people who didn’t feel sorry for it also liked it.

-I love you both, from gentlemen to agents, Testa’s god Seongbi, who does all the codes in one activity -Thank you guys, it’s a feast

Everything is good.”

“Oh, the fatigue is gone.”

The best result among realistic reactions.

As a testa who has spent several years of eventful life as a former survivor of a topical survival program, a warm environment that is not boiling water or ice water, which is rare. Even if you write the best comment on an article that protrudes from the social side, only good words are left.

– This is what promoting national prestige

. It was almost like a drug.

Isn’t everyone taking a career as an idol, dreaming of this image like an idol hope?

In addition, at this point, our independent label finally started publishing activity articles.

[The beginning of Testa label ‘ORBIT’ … “I will demonstrate my ability to develop an artist”]

Ryu Chung-woo smiled at the article.

“You meant the track, right?”

“Yes. ”

I named it. I didn’t mean it. .’

The first thing the company came up with was Super Nova.

‘Why are you trying to attract aggro with the name of the agency?’

It’s an internal label, so I didn’t think there was a need to jump, so I organized it on my own line.

“It feels like a planet orbit, so it’s just right. I think it’s well written.”

“…Thank you.”

Anyway, the fans liked it.

Of course, the stock market people did too. -From the Hollywood movie

, these guys are doing very well .

I’m glad I got on the floor, I’m going to have it until the end of the year^^

I hear good news translated from overseas responses every day throughout the weekend, and fans are delighted with the overflowing content.And the public is looking forward to the Billboard charts that will be revealed only next Thursday, kimchi soup – No , it was already said that there was an American variety show…

– But this time Edo seems like a career high, but anyway, don’t be vigilant and work!

-What is Testa

Among them, of course, there was also something about our moves.

-After going around music rooms,

they will go to the US

Sejin Bae opened his mouth with a trembling voice.

"… This is the first time people have been so friendly."

"Iknow, right."

national favor. This atmosphere seems to be established as a national idol any time soon.

The atmosphere was so good when the music video was released, and it was still the same even though it had already been a week since the release.

Anyone in this situation would nod their head and say, "I am only walking on a flowery path."

"huh. really good."

"yes yes… ."

However, the faces of those who say this do not have the comfortable smile that is typical of people who have had a happy ending.

So what?

They look like cold sweat dripping down their foreheads.

In the vulgar language, 'Hey, what about this'.

That face that comes out when you think about being a predestined X.

The cause… Because the time is coming soon.

"… But in a little while, will we smash this with our own hands?"

"uh."

I nodded.

"… Enjoy it while you can."

"Yes… ."

Those who put their noses in their smartphones are starting to enjoy the sweetness of public opinion.

And within a few days, the person in charge of bitter taste began to raise his head.

* * *

Long before the Billboard chart rankings came out.

An article appeared on Monday, the start of the week.

[Appearance on Testa's popular American entertainment show… Is the trend going?]

I thought everyone had come this far, so I clicked on it.

You must have been thinking, 'Oh, there's another American variety show coming out'.

However, if you read the article thoroughly, you will know the identity of the variety show that Testa is appearing on.

[Don't mess it up]

It’s an entertainment program that’s not very famous in Korea, so you can look your head up, but when someone you know starts testifying, the atmosphere changes.

-ah… I’m not sure if this is too B-level sensibility. .

In other words, it is an entertainment program that gives difficult tasks to people and makes them ruin or harass them and see their reactions. In a word, class B.

-This isn’t a program featuring popular kids. Why are you trying to appear in a place like this?

-It’s perfect for forgetting all the top-class images that were captured on the first stage with the movie…

ah…

However, Testa appears in only one corner in this film.

Moreover, usually 10 teams make up a corner, and the appearance time is only 17 minutes in total.

‘It’s perfect to look like a handshake among handshakes.’

Here is not the end.

For reference, a famous talk show that is quite cultured is aired at the same time as this program.

And most of the groups with global recognition, led by VTIC, performed in the program.

In other words, we could have appeared there, but we declined and came to this B-grade program.

At this point, you can guess the atmosphere.

-Did it turn

?

– Ha ha ha ha It’s frustrating.

It’s the first time that even a KPOP idol appears.

In the first place, one of the previous production crew even made xenophobic remarks. As a cut program, it has a strong local color among locals.

It means that our treatment cannot be good.

-after… .

-

“… Are you quiet?”

“yes.”

Somehow, they are being ignored as if nothing had happened.

‘I thought so.’

If we admit that this is Testa’s embarrassing mistake, doesn’t the vicarious satisfaction disappear and we feel lost?

It didn’t suit the taste of gukppong he enjoyed, so the situation came when everyone pretended not to see it and deliberately didn’t mention it.

“The fans are also on the quiet side.”

that’s another reason

Testa’s recent momentum is so good that it makes me even more angry, but at the same time, I don’t want to put a second on that momentum, so I keep quiet.

It’s because there’s no point in canceling an already scheduled schedule or an American entertainment schedule when there’s no substitute for it.

So, overall, Testa’s buzz went off, and the heated praise and reaction went out like a candle.

The only thing left is a video advocating Seungri-hyung’s mentality that is worse than not being there.

“… … .”

“… … .”

It’s a rare situation in which people don’t go overboard with insults even after hurting the public’s heart, but it may be more convenient to be criticized.

Look over there, even Bae Se-jin, who already knows what this appearance is for, is looking into the translation channel for overseas responses that have stopped uploading with a sad face.

“… … .”

“know. What is necessary is right!”

okay. Because it’s all discussed.

KPOP is no longer an unfamiliar genre in the US, but a genre with a solid fan base as a subculture.

The benefit is obviously great, but in the end, it also has the effect of making only the people who saw it see it.

‘I even collaborated with the Limestone movie to avoid that.’

So, you can’t just go flat on this plate and go in the direction everyone else is doing, and you can’t eat all the limestone-raised pies.

Bae Se-jin looked back and nodded.

“… We can do well according to our plan.”

“Yes.”

I shrugged. Then he hit Cha Yu-jin, who was standing next to him, on the shoulder.

“He’s got it all sorted out. Native people.”

“that’s right. I believe you! I’m good at it!”

“I don’t believe you!”

I let the two of them talk and looked back at Seon Ah-hyun, who stopped while monitoring the same.

As much as I put a lot of effort into this activity, it was because I thought I would care about the cool atmosphere… But he flashes his thumb… ?

“I, of course, believe… !”

“… uh. thanks.”

“Yes!”

yes um If so, that’s it… … .

‘Last check.’

I relaxed my shoulders and checked the best comments from the first stage that were still moderate.

I have quite a few stories.

-The

moment he enters Parkmundae after lying down hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

h

It melts easily,

but it’s a rewarding reaction to take the stats.

I remembered my status window.

‘S+’ will float… singing stats.

Yes. I added one remaining stat point to Vocal.

If you put it in a dance that is B+, the alphabet changes to A-, but why didn’t you do that?

It was because I was convinced by seeing and comparing various ability level guys in real life.

‘S+ grade is the completion type.’ Called.

For example, there is a guy whose kistat has finally entered S+ with this album.

[Name: Yujin Cha]

Talent: S+

Now, people will stare at this bastard just by narrating to any song on the street. Even the bouncing feeling, which was a bit selfish before, acts as a point.

and… There is one guy in another group with another stat of S+.

I frowned.

[Name: Cheongryeo (Shin Jaehyun)]

Dance: S+

Cheongryeo.

The goal of his dance S+ grade is perfectly optimized for the KPOP group dance center.

The power and power that comes from ‘ideally’ realizing the intended feeling with precise power and nuance.

It’s probably going to look good even if you gather some decent CD-grade guys and put them next to you.

In fact, considering the fact that the EX rank is likely to be at the level of a great man in some legend, S+ must be the final stage in which a person can sublimate into art.

So, in order to completely block the number of cases where ‘my song doesn’t work’, it was best to raise the grade of singing to S+.

‘I can’t miss it.’

and… There was one more reason why I didn’t dance.

… Because I run a group, not a solo.

‘There are so many good dancers.’

It’s not like I’m going to do a dance break center, but right now there’s no problem in completing the team’s choreography with a B+ level.

‘I have to be better at making what I’m good at stand out more.’

It is more helpful to the quality of the team to digest the role you have been assigned to a higher quality.

And everyone else did the same except for me.

I looked around with rather satisfied eyes. The guys who stopped monitoring look pretty trustworthy.

Anyway, it was time to use the vocal that became S+ once more.

This shoot was unconditionally well done and paid off… .

“Wow~ Someone in the production team here posted that our company directly contacted us and voluntarily appeared on the show.

“… … .”

Let’s see those bitches after filming.

Chapter 349

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 349

'So… You mean Eugene is coming here?'

Hannah Hamilton, who graduated from the same middle school as Yujin Cha, sat on the couch in front of the late-night TV for the first time in a while.

She was using the fact that she knew Cha Yoo-jin in high school as an excuse to watch the program.

'Anyway, we met once a few years ago.'

In the TV program restaurant that sold hotteok, a Korean fusion snack.

– Um… have we ever met? middle School? elementary school?

-ah… It's Hannah Hamilton. I was in the same class as you in middle school.

-Ah~ Hannah! nice to meet you. how are you?

Cha Yoo-jin, who still had the unique feeling of a popular group, but surprisingly took the subculture KPOP as a job.

Recognizing his group at the time (now they knew it was called a group, not a band!), she looked up the group's activities several times.

It was because he had a strange affinity for a boy of his age who was so proud of himself that he was into a subculture like her.

And despite being frightened by some cultural differences, I came this far.

‘A heterosexual man in his 20s who dyed his hair pink.’

‘… Cha Yujin does this too?? Anime magic girl?’

‘They’re such a good team that really care about each other… .’

Even watching their American variety shows while empathizing.

[MESS ~ MEEEESSS~]

A humorous primary color caption flowed on the screen. Hannah looked at it tremblingly.

‘This program is funny, but I don’t know why you’re here.’

-Testa shouldn’t come out here!

-This is sadistic noxious crap that’s no better than a third-rate reality show that harasses people who just want to make a name for themselves.

KPOP fans were crying out on her account. To be honest, I sympathized to some extent.

[Today’s challenger is… challenge! Enduring 30 minutes in a red tube with blackened lungs hearing strange noises?]

[It can’t be that only! The moment you become a coward, lovely unicorn dolls pour out! You’re a loser!]

It was ridiculed and ridiculed under the guise of a challenge.

Because it is a self-defeating structure that arrogantly makes fun of the challenger by saying, “Of course it is possible,” he also secretly avoids ethical censorship.

[Boooo! It’s complete garbage!]

[Didn’t you just blink like you were really scared? is it so. It’s a failure. You loser!]

Sometimes there is no exact standard for punishment. The production team and MC just penalize the timing that seems to be the funniest.

Even sometimes the MC himself was beaten.

So it was really funny that it was funny.

To some extent, even for Hannah, who sometimes only watches clips on YouTube, the MC’s giggles were as vivid as if drawn.

‘That’s why it’s a longevity program.’

In any case, it was not suitable for those who had an image of maintaining dignity and dignity to some extent.

As a result, testa fans in the United States also complained, and the production team tried to make fun of it.

-Their company said ‘first’ that they would be honored to appear in person? (eye-rolling emoticon)

Later, the MC was added to it.

– Fresh and kind Asian boys.. Cheer up (Emoji wearing sunglasses)

It was shit.

‘I literally almost got into a fight.’

The stubborn, conservative, and a bit low-key MC engaged in a fiery war of nerves with the KPOP fandom.

However, the scary thing is that once the filming started, all comments from the production team were cut off.

‘I guess Testa made it okay. or not… … .’

… or really messed up.

To the extent that I shut my mouth thinking that ‘that’ MC crossed the line of a joke.

“Mmm.”

Hannah took a deep breath and watched TV again.

The performer who jumped out of the coffin was filmed running away with his pants off as if he were hanging rainbow glitter and a unicorn.

[Loser~~]

[Actor Antonio Soltre is a cute cowardly pony or teddy bear!]

Testa shouldn’t be in such a terrible situation.

Still, the corner where Testa appeared this time was fortunately a part where singers mainly appeared.

[next… My own street karaoke!]

This is the ‘Street Karaoke’ challenge corner.

[Various famous songs carefully selected by the crew are arranged and played in various versions!]

[Can the artist challengers really show off these masterpieces?]

At first glance, you might think that it looks rather professional than an absurd challenge, but… .

It is an illusion.

As you’ll soon realize, this arrangement is pure ridiculous prank.

Besides, everything is on-the-fly, and it was naturally up to the production team to judge whether it was digested properly.

‘Ugh.’

The contestants whose job is to be singers make it funnier for those who see it, and the more terrifying challenge for those who take it.

Besides, the penalty this time is terrible.

[Today’s penalty is… Restaurant Cannon!]

[We carefully prepared only the hottest restaurants on social networks! Actually, this isn’t even a penalty, is it?]

Puck!

“Ugh!”

She watched the crushed hamburgers go off like bombs and slam into the faces of the bewildered cast.

It was embarrassing that I almost laughed.

‘That’s… That’s a real shame!’

Isn’t that what you see when you’re being bullied at school?

But Connor has already started briskly.

[The first song is ~ ‘Counting ma green’!]

It had to be a strong and dark hip-hop song.

However, it is arranged as an amusement park march with an exaggerated pronunciation that cannot be understood.

[Oh Hong Hong Hong! It’s lively and lovely~]

[Nanana nanana nanana nanana~]

Puck.

puck.

Puffer Puck.

To the beat of cheerful trumpets, people are shot in the face by cannons.

It was spectacle.

“Pooh!”

A person who stays blankly until the interlude passes. A person who is beaten.

They sang a few lines appropriately and were full of hope, and then even got food slapped in the face.

[Cast: What is this X…]

Puck!

[Your gesture is poor!]

“Phehehehe!”

She gritted her teeth and laughed. It was a raw laugh that I couldn’t help but laugh.

“Oh please! evil!”

The problem is that Testa didn’t show up until after two or three songs.

Even if it had only been for one second, they would have recognized it. How could you miss the intense scene of getting hit with a cannon for food?

‘no way… edit?’

Fortunately or unfortunately, it wasn’t.

This is because Testa only appeared after more than 10 minutes and an advertisement placed between the corners passed by.

Seven young men standing on the street like the rest of the cast.

Give it a little spotlight.

[that's right. They are treated preferentially because they are part of the cast of < Cosmic Gunner >. I'm close with the director there. You know?]

With MC's insane narration, the first song, Sunny March, appears again.

"iced coffee… ."

From now on, you're saying that Testa will show you how to splendidly beat food.

With that thought in mind, Hannah was curling up and watching TV.

Cha Yoo-jin, who was looking at the microphone fixed in front of the camera with her hands in her jumper with a sullen face, smiled.

And right away, grab the intro of the marching song and go in.

[Cast: NANA NANA NANANNNNNA!]

"Uh."

And Testa started walking to the beat. Parade-style choreographed steps.

Then, naturally, they follow the song while checking the lyrics that float under the camera.

On his face was the bright, capitalistic smile of an amusement park worker.

[Casting crew: The taste of money~ I can't stand it, I have it~]

The lyrics talking about money while laughing refreshingly and the accompaniment of the amusement park harmoniously harmonized and made it funny.

“Hahaha!”

And, in their own way, doing plausible parade gestures one by one, taking turns to endure the first verse admirably!

[Yes~ Whatever. Those who are lucky.]

The sound of the audience laughing was inserted behind the voice of the MC, who had lost his temper because he failed to give the penalty. so it was even funnier

However, Testa’s stature did not end there.

[Next song!]

Next, a trendy R&B band song that flows smoothly… .

Made with extreme high-pitched heavy metal.

“Ugh.”

How many people were so frightened by this new height that they couldn’t even enter and got slapped in the face?

But this time, white-haired member Park Moon-dae casually puts his head into the microphone in front of the camera.

And he opened his mouth.

[YEAAAAAAAAAAAH!]

“… !!”

Shouting.

His expression didn’t change, and he picked up that high pitched voice.

His neck was red and bloody, but the expressionless expression and the impact of the high-pitched voice were not suitable enough to notice it.

And after that, the other members naturally shook their heads violently.

oh oh oh!

Shaking the jacket has a slightly exaggerated taste, so it looks better. The sound of the audience inserted into the screen screams and cheers.

[…] Again?]

[Yeah, what a great singer. I can clap too. clap clap clap Did you hear?]

The audience laughs again.

However, soon the energy returned to the MC's voice, which had been drained of energy.

[Then the next song should come out… I know everything, but if you ruin it at the end, it's really funny!]

"Huh?"

And a new accompaniment that had never appeared before began to appear.

The latest disco song with a popping beat that is currently on the Billboard charts… .

It is a ballet arrangement.

"!"

[Then the next song should come out… I know everything, but if you ruin it at the end, it's really funny!]

"Huh?"

And a new accompaniment that had never appeared before began to appear.

The latest disco song with a popping beat that is currently on the Billboard charts… .

It is a ballet arrangement.

“Poop!”

It was so ridiculously funny, but it was funny because there was no hole for Testa to escape!

[Ha ha!]

However, one of the testers came forward from behind.

A pretty young man with well-toned black hair. He naturally crossed his legs and gracefully lifted one and turned.

“… !!”

[What??]

Fuete.

And at that moment, the six people behind me exchanged glances and started humming.

A composition that properly follows the main melody and accompaniment.

a cappella.

[…] Oh Lord.]

“My God.”

And at the right time, you can ride the accompaniment and find the intro!

[Casting crew: I can take you to the night sky~]

The audience cheers on the screen.

A twist is always fun.

After doing all these crazy things, he is even applauded by passers-by on the street.

[What do they applaud!]

[What is this… Wait, have you all gone? How much did you pay?]

When the narration of the MC, who had been surprised by the camera in reverse, burst into laughter, the audience burst into laughter again.

Cha Yoo-jin, who was giving a leisurely high-five, smiled round and round and nodded her head.

[Casting staff: Did you get paid?]

[No!! I mean you… Aww! It will turn!]

“Ha ha ha!”

In line with Hannah’s laughter, the microphone in front of the camera shakes like a pissed-off puppet.

[This… yes! This is practically a failure!]

Testa looked at each other and smiled. And the member with white hair replied calmly.

[Cast: No. I don’t know.]

[Cast: Hmm.]

Then, instead of replying and continuing the conte, Testa nods while exchanging glances once more.

‘what?’

And Cha Yu-jin opened her mouth.

[Cast: OK. Beat them all and shoot.]

“… !!”

pop!

And indeed the restaurant cannon was fired.

Not once, but many times. in everyone’s face.

Puck pup pup pup pup puck!

“Aww!”

Hannah watched it with her mouth wide open.

Testa’s appearance became as miserable as the previous ones.

[Casting member: Ouch.]

Cha Yoo-jin, whose bolognaise sauce dripped down her forehead, wiped it off with her finger.

Even so, he smiled.

[Cast: It’s delicious.]

[My God.]

[Cast: It looked the most fun, so I appeared. It’s a really awesome experience.]

[Please get out of here. Hurry up.]

[Cast: That’s right. Have a good night everyone.]

[Cast: Good night~]

The members walked leisurely out of the camera, laughing and wiping each other's faces with cloth or hands.

I saw this once.

'and… '

He's not humble at all, he's full of confidence, and his world is firm, but he's not out of luck.

It was all the conditions this town expects from an artist.

Individuality! ability! star castle!

Besides, doesn't it match the image of the band in Cosmic Gunner? They were almost themselves!

[what… what… . Play some other guys! Isn't that funny!]

And the screen ended with the performers who couldn't keep up with the ballet arrangement again and got hit by the restaurant cannon.

But everyone who watched knew it. The ending is actually the scene where the band was walking away earlier.

"Wow."

If you wanted to literally make an impression, it was a huge success.

And sure enough, as soon as the broadcast ended, a new post was uploaded to the MC's account.

_____==

[I swear on my house, but I didn't manipulate it. What a crazy band. #Save me]

———==

“Wow!”

It was a declaration of surrender.

‘It’s a mess!’

She unknowingly searched not only for KPOP accounts, but also for people who watched today’s program to pour out their impressions on their own accounts.

I thought nonetheless.

‘I’m like this, but they’re going back to Korea in a cool way, right?’

Yes, if it was Cha Yu-jin, he was a person who would remain like that.

So will his group!

* * *

We’re rinsing one guy like crazy.

Who are you?

“Seon Ah-hyun! Seon Ah-hyun!”

“Ohhh!!”

“Seon Ah-hyun did it all!”

Of course it’s Sun Ah-hyun! This guy did an ad lib that he didn’t even plan for!

I’ll be honest. We cheated a bit.

I had already organized all the candidate songs for these guys to write and studied the expected answers.

It’s something I’ve been doing every day since < Azusa >.

It’s a longevity corner that has been dragged over 100 times, so the references are clear, but the answer to the song came out right away.

‘These bastards write half the latest popular songs and half the popular songs from 10 years ago.’

Since the program must have been dragging on for a long time, I thought I would have fixed the range of songs to be selected so that the songs would not overlap.

And the arrangement also comes with statistics.

1. Arrangements used in the program for the past three years, in order of frequency.

2. Assigning weight to newly released arrangements in the latest year.

3. Excluding arrangements used in the latest 3 episodes.

After picking out the song patterns and arrangement patterns like that, it was a breeze.

-Is this funny?

– It’s not funny!

-Okay, I’m not going to use a country arrangement here. pass.

It’s because you only need to be checked by S+, the native sensibility, and match the arrangements.

‘I covered more than half with this.’

So, under the leadership of Kim Rae-bin, I already picked out all the expected arrangements and decided who would share the main role for each song, and then appeared on the show.

however…

‘Where are these crazy assholes doing ballet!’

I guessed the opera, but I didn’t know that these fucking bastards would throw in an unsung piece of music.

However, it became a jackpot because Seon Ah-hyun hit a real ballet with a straight bread.

‘If it wasn’t for this guy, I would have become a real X.’

This is because it was meaningful to clear the given songs while concepting them neatly from one to ten.

Embarrassment was the worst move, but after being unable to prevent an embarrassing situation, everyone made a fuss as they made the best play.

“No but what? Ahyeon said that she transferred to dance, how did that come out right there!”

“Yeah, I prepared for a presentation in middle school before… .”

“It’s amazing that you remember that, and it’s a jaw-dropping event!”

“no… Because I’m used to this kind of thing… … .”

I won’t accept any excuses.

Anyway, when it was time to move, Seon Ah-hyun came down to the floor with a reddened face while receiving applause.

“I… .”

But even in the middle of it, you don’t talk to me.

‘hmm.’

Roughly similar to when the concept of this album hit the jackpot, his face is young with anticipation.

Got it.

‘He wants to hear a story.’

He seemed to have judged himself that he had shown himself competent enough to listen to the story that only made a big noise with me.

And in fact, qualifications are not a problem, but it is true that this guy carried this number.

‘It’s like putting off more.’

I looked back at Sejin. He also nodded.

then… .

yes x feet. Let’s open our mouths!

By the way, it was a stupid idea like a real idiot.

Chapter 350

Episode 350

On the way home, I immediately realized the reality.

‘When will you speak?’

There is no time.

It wasn’t a tour season where you could flexibly take time out if you wanted to.

At worst, it’s an early base for activities where the schedule is set in minutes.

‘It’s hard to go out right now, so what?’

During this crazy schedule, will there ever be a time to talk to Sun Ah-hyun separately?

But the answer was easy to find.

“Can I use my room?”

“… !”

“I’m in solitary confinement~ Let’s talk at night after schedules!”

yes.

Coincidentally, the guy who had a solitary cell at the dorm knew everything about the situation. You don’t have to go out and make a seat.

“Of course, Sejin has to sleep too~ If the story gets longer, I will use your room… Moondaemun University? Are you listening?”

“Oh thank you.”

I decided to sing Seon Ah-hyun separately as soon as I got back to the dorm after adjusting a few schedules on the plane… … … .

“For now, I will be there too. No matter how much Ahyeon likes her friends, she needs to create an atmosphere and prepare for people to trust her~”

That’s right.

Still, Seon Ah-hyun seemed to care that me and Keun Se-jin had something that I didn’t share, so let’s leave the other party alone.

That day, I talked to Sun Ah-hyun at the commercial shooting site, which was directly from the airport.

“Ah Hyun-ah.”

“Yes?”

“When I go to the dorm after filming, I plan to talk at night with Lee Se-jin… .”

“Yes! all. of course!”

“Oh yes.”

I was very active. Thanks to that, the appointment was made in an instant.

So, the story is that the three of them (bodily) the same age sat together on the sofa in Sejin Sejin’s solitary cell.

“Now everyone, sit comfortably~”

“Ah uh… !”

“… … .”

I don’t know how this kid can sleep with ten of his character dolls right in front of his bed. Are the nerve cords made of iron?

Anyway, I turned my back to the doll heads and looked at Seon Ah-hyun.

Seon Ah-hyun seemed nervous, but seemed to be expecting more than that.

‘My eyes are twinkling.’

No, it’s such a huge secret… That’s right.

Yes. Just last year, I didn’t know that I would be able to say this openly.

“hmm.”

I cleared my throat and opened my mouth.

“first of all… I’m sorry if you’ve been feeling a little left out lately.”

“Oh no! Of course you don’t have to tell me… … . It’s because everyone is working hard… .”

“… ?”

for a moment.

I looked back at the big Sejin. A look of bewilderment passes across the man’s face.

In the meantime, Seon Ah-hyun blushes and continues to speak.

“I’m good at leading conversations… You haven’t been able to show off your great work… … . Ugh I don’t think it’s easy to share… .”

“… … .”

hey this

Apparently, Seon Ah-hyun thought that me and Keun Se-jin were handling some grandiose and complicated behind-the-scenes business.

And I think he thought he didn't share it even though it was a group thing because he wasn't trustworthy enough.

For a moment, I looked back at Seon Ah-hyeon's recent activities and held back my sobs.

'so… Did you actively participate in such a step forward?'

Now the puzzle fits perfectly.

'Damn it.'

twisted

I put strength into the hand that was about to press down on my forehead.

'This… It's because I was buried.'

Because of this guy's secret, incidents from Ryu Cheong-woo to Keun Se-jin broke out, so my brain was fixed on that side.

If you want to hear anything from me, it must be my secret.

"… … ."

okay. Then again… There is no need to tell Sun Ah-hyun about my identity.

'I can't even guess.'

This is the right time to gloss over the label or press issues with appropriate lies. Seon Ah-hyun will pass on that.

'… But is that okay?'

I clenched my fist.

Even so, whenever I deal with system-related work in the future, I will do without this guy again, but doesn't he feel more deceived?

If that's the case, I should have said nothing.

'At that point, I have nothing to say even if I'm beaten to deceive.'

It's not a work-related problem, but it's better to say clearly that I can't talk about it because it's a personal matter. Because we had a misunderstanding.

Seon Ah-hyun may be a little disappointed, but anyway, things will be settled there.

'the problem is.'

I… that I don't want to do that.

Although funny.

"… … ."

I half-impulsively opened my mouth.

"that… It wasn't a matter of work. I never thought you couldn't work in the first place."

"Yes?"

"It's just my problem."

I swallowed. Somehow it lifts my mood.

"I wasn't originally at Bakmundae, but I'm living at Bakmundae."

"… … ??"

"I kept quiet because I couldn't talk about it."

"… Yes?"

I started to explain to Seon Ah-hyun what had happened so far.

"When I woke up a few years ago, it was someone else's body."

Still, the sentence comes out in a more organized tone just because I said it once… .

'… This is really not something to do sober.'

"So, to my eyes, it's kind of like a hologram… ."

"Puff!"

"… If you smile one more time, I will send you out."

"Huh? It's my room, but I need to get out of the door… sorry. That doll was given to me by a fan, Moondae-sama, be careful."

I came to the crisis section desperate for alcohol a few times, but I caught the big line anyway and passed it safely.

'Gold 2 or the story of Cheongrye should be needed later.'

There would be no need to tell a complicated and diverse story to a guy who didn't even give a hint.

I ended the story with a few supplementary explanations from Sejin.

"… So now I'm just doing well."

"… … ."

I did finish it… No response.

A little hastily, he opened his mouth again.

“I couldn’t say it easily because it was so unrealistic. I was half caught by this guy.”

“that’s right. I am also very quick-witted~ Park Moon-dae tried not to tell anyone, but in fact I found out everything?”

“… … .”

And when I raised my head, I saw Seon Ah-hyun’s blank face.

The guy looked back at me and Sejin a few times, then slightly lowered his gaze.

“… That’s right.”

“okay.”

and there is silence

“… … .”

“… … .”

Than you think… long.

‘… ? why.’

You don’t even ask questions.

By the time a cold sweat forms on the back of your neck.

Sun Ah-hyun opened her mouth again.

But I wasn’t the one to talk to.

It’s a big sejin

“… over there Did Se-jin hear all this before?”

“that’s right. It’s not old… Not even a few months.”

“Uh how… did you think hear it first.”

“hmm?”

Big Sejin shrugged.

“Isn’t there any reason for Mundae to lie about something like this?”

“… !”

“Because of the Moon University I’ve seen so far… I just thought it was.”

“… … .”

At Sejin’s words, Seonahyeon lowered her head again.

‘What are you thinking?’

Why are you doing that without asking me about the content? No, of course, it’s quite shocking… but.

I bit my tongue.

‘Stop making unnecessarily excessive guesses.’

Of course, you may be curious about the thoughts of the person who heard the story first.

still… .

I opened and closed my hand a few times, then let go and opened my mouth.

“If it’s hard to believe… .”

But this sentence is not finished.

It was because Seon Ah-hyun answered.

“Oh no. believe.”

“… !”

The boy raised his head and smiled faintly with a slightly tired expression.

“huh… … . no right Moondae is not the kind of person who would lie about something like this… Of course I know.”

“It must have been hard… … . Moondae. until now… . You’ve been through a lot.”

Somehow I was speechless.

After clearing my throat a few times, I was able to answer calmly.

“So you made a lot of money and did well. That’s it.”

“Yes… … .”

Seon Ah-hyun answered quietly.

“still… Please tell me if you are having trouble.”

“Mundae will be very reassuring, right? Two backups~ Oh, I know Chungwoo-hyung too.”

“… … Cheungwoo hyung also… ?”

“Oh, that older brother had some family circumstances… .”

I confirmed that Seon Ah-hyun listened intently to what Se-jin Keun explained.

Concentration returned to his face.

“… … .”

okay… is it over

Big Sejin trembled at the end of the explanation.

“It’s no wonder we haven’t been the same age since < Azusa >. In the end, only the two of us know everything about Mundae~ Do it well, Mundae.”

I was also funny in the end. After thinking about it for a while, I reached out my hand to Seon Ah-hyun.

“Yes, please. Ah Hyun-ah.”

Seon Ah-hyun held it with a slightly trembling hand.

It was a little cold, but there was strength.

“… Yes!”

And when he answered that question, it was evident that he saw joy in his eyes. That’s it.

The next day, Seon Ah-hyun’s attitude didn’t change, and I… I guess I was somewhat relieved.

* * *

And a few days later.

A slightly unique schedule is back.

“Well, tomorrow is the day we go to Yeonhee University.”

“Oh!”

It was the college festival schedule that came back after nearly two years.

Last year, the ransom was so high, but since debut, I have been steadily going once.

I came from < Azusa >, and since my debut song, the sound source has been good, and it has become popular enough that even college students can listen to it and enjoy it.

Also, the university festival performance is quite a fun event, so everyone reacted well.

“Oh~ It’s been a while. Will it be fun?”

“I know. Is that an outdoor concert hall?”

Thanks to that, the conversation started like this, and after a few minutes, it went all the way to talking about the university itself. Well, it’s always like that when we chat in the car.

“… If I get a chance later, I want to try at least a lecture.”

“okay. I do not regret taking up cyber university to parallel work, but I am still curious about other options.”

And Cha Yu-jin shrugged.

“I had a scholarship, but I came to Korea. That’s amazing!”

“and.”

“That’s really great.”

no one will be able to refute Because Kim Rae-bin is also nodding.

“Why did you do that?”

“Hmm, is dancing fun? [It just exists. I wanted to do that.]”

And since it went so well, it’s okay to say that I got kicked out of the scholarship.

Even I, who had covered my living expenses with data pals while maintaining my scholarship, had a job completely unrelated to my major.

“brother! Are you thinking of going to college?”

“Not at all.”

I don’t want to go twice.

Let’s think about that, forced to go twice… This time, I thought of something that might lead me to active duty, but I quit for now.

‘after… … .’

I envy gold medalists and foreigners.

“OK~ Just take a look at our campus! You can do it secretly!”

“what… when the time comes.”

I checked the college festival in the schedule list with a rather strange feeling while listening to Cha Yoo-jin’s nonsensical words.

There was only one reason.

“Is this the university you graduated from at Moondaemun University?”

“… uh.”

When Cha Yu-jin stopped slapping me on the shoulder from the back seat, Se-jin said this politely.

This is the university I went to.

‘Is this the first time with this body?’

I mean, I didn’t have to go here.

And only at this agency, university events are just paid hard and places that are close to other events are put in first-come-first-served basis.

But this time, it seems that this school called in the biggest and fastest money.

'It's a cool way to spend the kids' tuition money.'

Those with a lot of money raised their tuition fees every year.

I skipped the schedule, twitching my eyebrows. I was polite to Seon Ah-hyun, who dared to sit across from me, with Se-jin Se-jin sandwiched between me.

"Ahyeonahyeon~ This is the university I went to at the liberal arts college."

"… … that. I see."

Seon Ah-hyun asked me cautiously.

"Feel … how is it?"

"… well just like that."

I chuckled.

"It's been a long time since I graduated, and the campus has been changed once, so to be honest, I'm not that impressed."

Big Sejin smiled.

"All right. big brother."

"… … ."

stop it kid

"Hehehehehe… ."

I held back a sigh as I heard Keun Se-jin hold back a laugh as his shoulders trembled. Seon Ah-hyun laughed awkwardly.

‘what… Anyway, I just need to do well on stage.’

It was a Korean event after a long time. I broke my neck.

Our role is the ending.

I was in a position where I could sing three or four encores if time allowed.

‘The spare time to fill it all… I don’t think so.’

But, as always, things did not go as expected.

Chapter 351

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 351

Waaaaa!!

Deafening music and cheers.

Cha Yoo-jin checked outside and blew a whistle.

"Wow, there are so many people here!"

"Oh, sure. It's really powerful."

It's not like seeing a lot of spectators for a day or two, but it was definitely spectacular to see peers of the same age dancing and singing in unison.

If you think that you will be standing in front of me and performing within 30 minutes at the earliest, your head will stand on end.

"Our turn is 3 teams behind. Do you have enough time to warm up?"

"yes!"

"I am very glad that it arrived within the expected time."

"that's right. Hey, you've worked hard, manager-hyung~"

The manager sighed in relief and started running to talk to the person in charge.

We sat in the space created as a waiting room and waited while warming up our necks and bodies.

‘Was there ever a place like this?’

I didn’t even know a space like this existed, probably because I wasn’t interested in festivals when I was in school. No, even if I had known, I would never have entered a place like this.

In any case, the performance should be good.

The college festival is actually just an event, but there are many people who are secretly looking forward to it.

‘Is it because it can be used as a measure of popularity?’

Direct cams are also quite popular.

In fact, until this morning, I was amazed to see the lineup that was persistently private.

‘I don’t know who pushed it this time, but I tried my best not to make a scalping ticket.’

Of course, the moment we got here, the van looked like it was all over the place.

-Testa??? testa?

-Is this a real tea?

ㄴㅇㅇ Fans are talking – Crazy, what is this year’s lineup, did they even call Testa

– Ticket prices go up in real time Wow hahaha

I don’t even have a diploma anymore. Nice to know you.

Still, it should be worth the money.

“Dae-hyung Moon, do you need to drink water before stretching?”

“are you okay.”

“give it to me!”

“Cha Yoo-jin, you are sitting closer to the water than me!”

still the same

I continued stretching after the two guys warmed up by fighting.

By the way, next to me, Sun Ah-hyun is warming up her body in the order of large muscles to small ones.

It was seen every time.

It’s like breathing.

Hey, it’s natural since he’s been doing that since he was half his height.

Hmm, maybe I should have learned something.

“Ah Hyun-ah.”

“Yes?”

“Can you tell me the order just once?”

“Of course… !”

Seon Ah-hyun’s face brightened in an instant.

‘… That far?’

Somehow, it reminds me of the days when I learned the choreography from < Azusa >.

I half-voluntarily followed the stretching secret. It’s because Seon Ah-hyun taught me too hard.

‘This guy would have made a living even if he became a teacher.’

“The last… Telegraph again.”

“hmm.”

I finished the last move neatly.

is this really good? I will continue to do this in the future. I should have found out sooner.

“thanks. I like this.”

“… … .”

However, Seon Ah-hyun did not answer for a long time, and then suddenly opened her mouth.

“I… It’s nothing.”

“Why”

“… … Oh no.”

Sun Ah-hyun smiled faintly.

“that… I want to tell you to work hard together today.”

“… okay.”

I didn’t think I would talk about it.

I closed my mouth.

‘… It’s awkward after all.’

You may have many thoughts about the fact that I am older than I originally was.

‘… in vain.’

no, let’s stop thinking

I have to work, so I only think about work. I stopped guessing and got up.

“Let’s get ready!”

and after a while

The outdoor stage where they jumped up was already hot with heat.

wow wow!!

Shouting voices with already hoarse voices and people rushing in from under the stage. Waves of people sway behind it.

It’s wild enough.

‘Was it like this?’

It is also a different taste to have such a large group of people who are not fans screaming passionately.

No, there are fans.

Park Moondae!!

I laughed when I saw a few brave people holding cheering sticks.

As soon as I went up, I sang last year’s grand prize song ‘Promise’, and the atmosphere was very good. This is why events are easy if there are popular songs.

‘There’s also the taste of singing along.’

It’s to the extent that there are even people who perform while listening with one side down.

And the moment the final accompaniment of the promise ended, we stood upright with tearing shouts.

And a handheld microphone is delivered.

“Take your star! Hello, this is Testa!”

Wow!!

After greeting with the spear of Ryu Cheong-wu, who was out of breath, the talk builds smoothly.

“I am very happy to meet these wonderful students of Yonhee University today… .”

But when Liu Cheng-wu saw this, he suddenly laughed.

‘What.’

And naturally, I put on the mic.

“… ??”

“How do you feel?”

hey… Even this bastard makes fun of people.

Suddenly, I spoke about my impressions of my alma mater. I held back a sigh and opened my mouth.

and thumbs up

‘This is national rule.’

Mention the school’s representative color and say it’s better than rival schools.

I know that everyone is like this anyway, and when they go to the next town, they change their attitude and say that they like red.

Aaaaaagh! Gyaaak!

good response

Liu Cheng-wu smiles and takes the microphone.

“So we also prepared a song where blue beats red.”

“Please pay attention to us and the dancers’ movements and enjoy them~ Let’s go to the next song!”

Big Sejin waved his hand and settled down. This is the prelude to the title.

I went in without missing the introduction.

“There’s a screaming voice over there.

Pay more attention than usual. There are dozens of cameras that can be seen right now.

the light of a smartphone.

“The leader who appeared first!”

Aagh!

The reaction when the high notes explode is also good. I ran across the stage making loud movements.

The momentum doesn’t diminish until the next song after the next song.

Both us and the audience.

“Whoa.”

“thank you!”

The contracted song is 3 songs. But time is good, so I did one more encore. It's good that there are so many songs that there's no pressure.

"one more?"

"do! We do it!"

The next encore song was 〈Black Hole〉, which was the OST for the movie.

Since you can sing while walking around, it is easy to distribute your stamina, and the recognition is good, so the response was good.

'It's a success.'

I felt it intuitively.

That this school festival event also scored properly.

Maybe it's because things are going so well these days, but somehow I don't have a very negative feeling about it.

Even if it's not me, the excited guys next to me will be filming tomorrow morning and screaming the next song again.

"Huuk, shall we do one more song? Is there anything you want to hear?"

picnic! picnic!!

magical boy!

Popular pick music sources are pouring in excellent numbers. We laughed and listened.

'The sound source is all prepared.'

I was thinking of deciding on a moderate shout size after a bit of a struggle.

But suddenly, Kim Rae-bin's eyes sparkled.

“I… Would it be all right if I said something?”

“uh? then!”

“Anyway, since you are a college student, you are preparing to go out into society, so why don’t we sing our debut song!”

Wow!!

Was this guy so good at talking?

“… … I agree!”

Was Bae Se-jin this active?

Everyone seems to be excited today. In any case, the answer is only one.

“Then shall we?”

yes!!

“great! Please sing ‘Magical Boy’.”

At Ryu Cheng-wu’s strong call, the staff below the stage exchange autographs.

Now, when the ‘Magical Boy’ music comes out like this… .

-Ohhh~ Ohhhhh~

“… … !”

“uh.”

At that time, the loud chorus of men and women comes through the speakers.

Slightly low-pitched, exaggerated band sound with melodies from famous classical music.

It’s definitely not the music box sound of ‘Magical Boy’ Jeonju.

I got it right away.

‘Wrongly played.’

We turned on the sound source for cheering after we finished the ending.

“… … Mmm.”

In a word, buy.

‘This can be happen.’

It’s a common accident that can happen at an event.

The problem is that it’s been about 7 seconds now and the sound still hasn’t turned off.

‘I think there must have been an uproar underneath.’

The moment we all freeze together in embarrassment, the encore atmosphere is created.

My smartphone is all over the place now, but it doesn’t work.

‘Let’s at least wave our hands.’

pretend to enjoy

I noticed the guys around me laughing and riding the rhythm, then I raised both hands to do a similar action.

And suddenly I realized

‘I’d rather… .’

Shouldn’t it be like this?

I stepped forward and picked up the handheld microphone I had set down on the floor.

“… ?”

And he opened his mouth to the chorus.

[Wake up! A moving portrait! Woo woo woo woo~ Our voices!]

An old-fashioned cheering song flows naturally.

Ohhh!

‘I haven’t forgotten this.’

I put it on the road every time I go to the library this season.

‘And the lyrics are from a poem.’

In fact, the lyrics could be wrong. If only it could elicit a response.

[voice! voice! Voice!]

I passed the time with the members by singing in unison.

And by the time the chorus of the first verse is passed, the music finally turns off.

Wow!!

“thank you.”

It was fortunate. I don’t know the 2nd verse. And laughter and applause poured in. The funny thing is that the members are like that too.

“I heard the encore cheer~”

“It’s cool!”

… It seems to have been a good turnaround.

* * *

“Awesome!”

“It was a great ad lib, hyung!”

As I entered the dorm late at night on my way home, the members added one more word. In fact, it’s a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of Bae Se-jin murmurs softly.

“I know trot well… .”

“… … .”

Even if you understand that… No, is it strange that there is nothing wrong with it?

And the guy who knew the situation stabbed me next to the people who were properly dispersed to his room.

“Moondaemundae!”

stop.

“Couldn’t it be that you also actively participated in such an event and learned about it? A cheering song?”

can it be

“There is an OT that saves and teaches only that when you are a newbie.”

“really??”

“uh.”

Sejin burst into laughter.

“hey.”

“I’m sorry! no imagining… Ah hmm.”

And even Ryu Cheng-wu, who was standing still next to him, made a noise.

“greatness!”

Pretend you’re not that bastard and keep beating people.

‘do whatever you want.’

Anyway, I posted one thing while I was working on it, so it was good.

“Ah~ Thanks to Moondae, we’ll be uploading another popular video~”

And Keun Se-jin caught even Sun Ah-hyun, who was slipping into a corner.

“Ahyeonah, did you hear? They said they learned this separately at Moon University.”

“… … .”

However, Seon Ah-hyun did not look back.

“Hmm Ahyeon?”

“… I heard… … .”

Seon Ah-hyun did not look back this time either, but answered.

But the voice died down. And his shoulders sway as if he is breathing heavily.

‘now… .’

It feels strange.

It was the moment when I was being spoken to.

Seon Ah-hyun stumbled.

“… … !”

“Ah Hyun-ah.”

“… … Uk.”

A gasping or gasping sound.

‘… Hyperventilating?’

And Seon Ah-hyun stumbled and ran in an instant.

“… !!”

bang!

To the entrance toilet.

“Seonahyeon!”

I reflexively caught up and grabbed the doorknob.

thud!

… locked

why?

I hear the man running next to me shouting.

“Ahyeonah? Seon Ah-hyun! Are you okay?”

There was only a gurgling sound.

“Moondae, get out of the way. Let’s break it.”

“Watch out.”

Cha Yoo-jin, who ran out of nowhere, slammed her body against the door.

bang! bang!

Ting… .

And the door opens with the sound of a knock knock.

When I opened the door, I saw Seon Ah-hyun’s back with her face sunk in the sink.

What did you do in the meantime, your head is wet.

“Seon Ah-hyun, where are you sick?”

“nine… I will call an ambulance!”

“Wait a minute, the child’s condition… .”

I walked into the bathroom and tried to tap the guy at the sink on the shoulder.

My shoulders are hunched over.

“… !”

And a small voice is heard

“I’m sorry… Moondae. I’m so sorry… .”

“… !!”

why… … .

“… … .”

“Guys, wait… .”

Behind her, she could hear Liu Chengyu taking the others out.

And I stood there as if struck by lightning.

"… what."

I said that word, but the words explode like a dam burst.

"Barbaro! I should have said… . I couldn't tell you, I like being together like that… . Oh, I'm relieved… ."

"… … ."

"I thought of you, so if it was really for you, I should have said it, but it doesn't matter."

Sun Ah-hyun turned her head.

His face was completely white.

"You need dental treatment. With company counseling… . Now is not the time to be active. . I'm getting worse… No, I shouldn't say that… . I have to say it properly… ."

"… … ."

"I'm sorry… . I can't believe it… Doesn't help either… ."

Seon Ah-hyun's face turned black and he started panting again.

And I've seen that face before.

-Oh hello… .

The state of Seon Ah-hyun when I brought her to Letty, who was a first-time acquaintance there.

Almost reflexively, I called up his status window.

Chapter 352

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 352

The festival is over.

Testa’s testimonials and certification photos flooded the Internet.

The university community is also responding.

– How dare you sing a cheering song there and induce a group of people? Park Moon -dae Honorary Yeonhee reputation. reputation.

A direct cam opens and comments are posted.

-Live is crazy Wow, this is how it works

-Let’s do waterbomb… This is absolutely not selfish.

– I hope you leave a lot of direct cams for this active song

.

Tomorrow’s schedule might be possible right now, but that’s something we can’t guarantee.

If you scroll down the screen further, there is an ad-lib video where I pick up a handheld microphone and dare to sing a cheering song.

-The video shouting that this is an idol

-Your quickness is really crazy,

right?

If doing what you know is quick, you should call a dog a tiger.

Park Moon-dae is the kind of person who sees gains from information differences and wipes his mouth. The head doesn’t work well in a crisis situation.

A really quick-witted bastard would have said something else there.

therefore. In the words of Seon Ah-hyun.

-… … .

-I’m sorry… .

– No no.

Instead of just repeating words like an idiot who doesn’t even know her mother tongue.

So instead of standing there dumbfounded until the guys who eventually came back pulled Seon Ah-hyun and me out of the bathroom.

Then I’d rather… .

‘Stop’

Stop unproductive households.

Move on to the next situation and think again.

And I… It seems like she entered my room, but Seon Ah-hyun went to her room… is it didn’t take it outside. That would mean that you can still be in the dorm, and that your condition has calmed down.

‘maybe.’

I pressed my face with both hands. My brain seemed to harden. My head doesn’t turn… .

roll your head

That’s all you can do, so don’t neglect your duties.

Why did things turn out this way… no You can’t say it like that.

‘Why did you create this X-like situation, you bastard.’

I gritted my teeth.

If you ask me where did I start doing shit… .

Of course from the beginning.

‘I shouldn’t have thought of saying it in the first place.’

Is this insane?

If you predicted that ‘if informed, you will go to a mental hospital’, then you should keep your mouth shut.

‘Because someone else believed me? You generalize it with one case, you fucking bastard.’

I should have been relieved and passed on if it was eaten in the board that was caught and explained. Why would you talk again to someone who doesn’t know anything?

Is there any reason to objectively accept this crazy sound? Did you say ‘I want to do that’?

“unnecessary… ”

Didn’t the situation become this way because of a dog joke?

‘Seon Ah-hyun’s abnormal condition… .’

What the hell are you going to do with this reactivated situation?

“… … .”

What if you only know the cause? Now that I know you’ve done a fucking stupid thing, I know how to find a fundamental solution… .

‘shut up.’

I covered my mouth. The teeth squeeze the grip.

Stop doing useless things and look at reality again rationally.

‘A thing to do.’

… somehow Sunahyeon’s status ailment needs to be deactivated again.

The reason Sun Ah-hyun has been able to disable status ailments so far is thanks to her talent.

‘Guts.’

[Guts (A): Make your own mindset. Burn your concentration and press negative states.]

-When activated, cancels one abnormal state (highest priority).

However, this characteristic… It was deactivated because of the bullshit I was talking about, and the status abnormality returned again.

I clenched my fist.

‘late… .’

Before, I persuaded Sun Ah-hyun with my characteristics.

– Just think ‘I’m going to do this’.

Seon Ah-hyun understood my words and decided to focus only on the task in front of her right now.

But now my words cannot be persuasive.

I’m the one who confused him so he can’t concentrate on his work.

You already think I’m crazy, but I can’t help it… .

“… … .”

my brain is blank

‘What can be done… .’

how to convince

Like before… .

I reflexively brought up my status window. Then, as expected, a pop-up appears.

[brother… .]

Big moon.

There are no other words. The pop-up seems to be shaking… Am I going to taste it and look like that?

How is it?

I muttered in a hushed voice.

“characteristic… Can you pull it out again?”

A quality that can convince anyone.

“… … .”

The status window did not move.

And after a while, the small text comes up.

[No.]

Ah.

yeah i knew it

[sorry… .]

“Nothing to be sorry about.”

Why does everyone apologize when I say bullshit? Do you have any manuals?

Why am I fucking doing this… .

[It’s not your fault. Not really.]

“That’s right.”

It wasn’t that someone forced me to do it, it happened because there was a problem in my mental head.

I lost my judgment.

Other than that, another conclusion… … .

smart.

“It’s Moondae.”

who is calling

When I turned my head, I saw Ryu Cheng-wu’s face as he cautiously entered the room.

“Ahyeon calmed down and it’s okay.”

“… … .”

“You said you wanted to be alone, but… Sorry, I want to come in.”

Liu Cheng-wu walked over with a puzzled face and gently sat down on his bed.

I want to stop hearing apologies.

“It’s your room, but it’s your heart.”

“… um okay.”

Then there was a short silence. Liu Chengwu opened his mouth again after that.

“It’s Moondae. It’s only natural that you want to tell others about your situation.”

okay. And being really stupid is a different matter.

“Now, it was just a matter of timing, so don’t think too much about it. Understand.”

“… … .”

I chose that timing.

But there was nothing to answer.

smart.

Someone else entered the room.

‘It’s big.’

As soon as he closed the door he came in and grasped the situation, he immediately said with a firm face.

“Park Moon-dae. It’s my fault. Sorry.”

“… … .”

I feel like throwing up.

“How can this be your fault?”

“Because I instigated it.”

What is that guy saying right now without changing the color of his face?

“I made a mistake because I thought Ahyeon would believe it.”

“… … .”

“Because you seemed so nervous when you were talking to me, so I hoped you wouldn’t be this time. I’m over it. You just did your job.”

“no.”

I pressed my temples.

“I was the one who said it. stop.”

“So that… … .”

Big Sejin opened his mouth as if he wanted to say something more, but soon closed it.

thank you for that Because I felt like my head would break.

“It’s not anyone’s fault, it just happened that way, both of you, stop it.”

Liu Cheng-wu intervenes and clears things up. I couldn’t agree, but I did.

But the next thing I couldn’t say.

“but… Moondae. How about we take a break for a while?”

“… … .”

what.

“Since we’ve been active for over two weeks, it will be okay to take a few days off now. On the agency side, it’s okay to say that you want to get sick with the flu or body aches.”

A soft, cautious voice follows.

“Shall we take a little break and reorganize?”

rearrangement.

The choice to cease activity.

“… … .”

If I have a conscience and think of Seon Ah-hyun’s condition, I should agree.

Considering the crazy live difficulty of the current title, the decline in Sun Ah-hyun’s ability will be noticeable right away.

Then it’s not clear what you’re going to hear. All sorts of insults and controversies.

If I’m sane, I shouldn’t be yelling at me to work here.

but… .

I turned my head and looked at the pop-up in the status window that I hadn’t turned off yet.

Rest… this guy

[Hyung, take a break and give yourself a break… . Please.]

It’s not long now. If you can’t make a record with this activity, it will die. It goes back to the status window.

But this bastard clearly knows that, but tells him to rest… .

“… … this.”

My brain is about to burst.

There are so many things to think about, so many things to deal with… what the hell is this… .

Suddenly the words came out.

“later.”

stop.

Don’t say anything that doesn’t work. There is no later.

Even at dawn, I have a schedule. Less than 4 hours left. Even now, you have to make a quick and accurate judgment. efficiently… .

someone grabbed my shoulder

Ryu Chung-woo.

“Then let’s skip the schedule for at least three days. No problem in three days. A lot of things have already been taken. Okay, Park Moondae?”

“… … .”

I nodded.

I don’t know what you can do with it. Maybe

* * *

Same visual living room.

Kim Rae-bin was in agony with the hot tea that Sun Ah-hyun often drank.

“I guess… There must be an incident between the two of you.”

Cha Yujin shook her head. His dear friend was very gifted as an artist, but this problem was a chronic disease.

So I said it honestly.

“Everyone knows. Rabin Kim.”

“… … .”

Kim Rae-bin nodded his head with a slightly depressed face instead of annoyed.

That’s how serious the situation was.

‘It’s such a mess.’

Seon Ah-hyun looked like a self-destructive sleepwalker, and Park Moon-dae seemed to pass out of shock. Because I had to lift it half way to the bed.

Cha Yoo-jin honestly couldn't understand why the situation had come to this.

They seem to be saying sorry to each other.

Doesn't that mean we don't have bad feelings for each other?

However, at the same time, I reasonably understood the situation.

'Well, it seemed like everyone didn't have many friends.'

He also often saw relationships that made each other so important that eventually the problem became heavy.

They were very clumsy people. Although that sincerity was also the charm of this team.

'hmm… That older brother is like that too.'

He saw Bae Se-jin staggering with the face of a loser and sitting in the living room.

I am… Why can't you talk like this?"

It seemed that he had failed in trying to speak kindly to Seon Ah-hyun.

Feeling a bit sad, he nodded his head.

"I speak well. I will come and tell you."

"Wait a minute."

Originally, I was going to go first to help Moondae recover his energy, but isn't the situation more difficult when he needs advice in addition to consolation?

'I have to go to a place like that.'

Cha Yu-jin shrugged her shoulders and confidently entered Kim Rae-bin's room, so Sun Ah-hyun's room after knocking.

Seeing that no one stopped him, his choice seemed right!

"Hyung, I'm going in.."

"… … ."

creak.

When I opened the door and entered, Seon Ah-hyun was sitting on the bed in front of the moonlit window.

It was a stiff posture and pale complexion, as if the soul had escaped .

It looked more like ruins than people.

It was at least possible thanks to the sedative.

"Are you okay bro?"

"… … ."

Sun Ah-hyun nodded her head very slowly. Perhaps because of the drug, his eyes seemed to be out of focus.

"Are you feeling okay?"

silence.

Cha Yoo-jin sat down next to him and stabbed right into the core.

"Can't you tell me anything? Dae-hyung Moon's secret?"

"… … !"

Seon Ah-hyun looked away. Then it seemed a bit human. Cha Yu-jin shrugged.

“Everyone has a secret. I know even if I don’t hear!”

Isn’t it rather strange to have no secrets in life?

And whether or not to share those secrets was just an option.

Are more intimate and good friends because they share many secrets? Do you know that person better?

Cha Yu-jin did not think so.

‘If it doesn’t come naturally, it just becomes weight.’

Maybe now is such a situation I didn’t know.

[No matter what, my brother heard the secret, and there was a problem of some kind.]

Seon Ah-hyun was still motionless, but murmured lowly.

“My self is ruined.”

“Then fix it.”

“… … !”

[Don’t think I’m saying it lightly. Well, I don’t think Hyun-hyung is hurt by Moon-dae.]

Yoo-jin Cha stared at Ah-hyeon Seon.

[Then, if you think about getting a good night’s sleep and talking with a clear mind to fix it, it’s easier to organize.]

It was advice to slow down and get out of panic.

And the answer comes back.

“… Oh I know.”

Seon Ah-hyun murmured in a low voice.

"… That's why I… It won't work."

"… !"

"Every time. Knowing, knowing, but doing nothing..!"

In Seon Ah-hyeon's eyes, who said that, Cha Yu-jin confirmed a very clear feeling.

'That's… .'

It was self-hatred rage.

Seon Ah-hyun knew it too. Why don't you know?

There is nothing he can do at this point, so keeping his mouth shut and sleeping is the only thing that helps the situation.

But it doesn't. Because I am anxious, because the fear of ruining everything dominates my mind.

Likewise, I realized the moment I heard Park Moon-dae's 'secret'.

'no… .'

Moondae's past activities.

Amnesia and nightmares Considering the extreme choices… This wasn't usually serious.

-I'm not Park Moon-dae.

It was seen as a sign that a broken heart was spreading to an identity problem.

And he also knew that he was the most suitable person to bring up the story to Moondae.

‘I have to do it.’

Ryu Chung-woo and Lee Se-jin are people who have overcome their own mental hardships. He received little medical help.

So, if they are healthy, they completely believe in Park Moon University.

‘It was just me… !’

The only person who could properly tell about the danger was himself, but that was the only way he could help Park Moon-dae.

I’ve been thinking and deciding to become a helpful friend and colleague who fulfills my role, but… ..

‘I couldn’t do that.’

… no it didn’t

A precious relationship built with trust and intimacy can end with just one word.

Because the possibility alone was too frightening.

‘only me… What if they hate me because they don’t trust me?’

‘In the end, that means that Moon University is strange. Then… I can’t…’

‘You’ll feel bad…’ … ’

But if you keep your mouth shut, then you can keep going.

Seon Ah-hyun squeezed her hand tightly until it turned white.

‘It was more important for me to just be friends no matter what happened to the literary college… .’

Because of his disregard, Mundae’s symptoms became more severe.

In the future, if Mundae really suffers greatly while doing activities, so if it becomes an irreversible situation… .

‘It’s my fault.’

I knew it thoroughly, trying to gather information so that I couldn’t sleep and somehow not show that I was suspicious.

– Can’t we just trust him?

I don’t really believe in it, but I want to justify that self-justification somehow.

Even though I knew everything, there was one reason why I couldn’t do anything and ruined my work.

‘I… It’s because I’m the kind of person who can’t help.’

There is no excuse.

He thought so much about good things and right things, but in the end, he couldn’t do anything about really precious and fearful things.

And I couldn’t help but pour out my weak spirit to the opponent in the worst way in the worst situation.

‘It didn’t help that… .’

it’s just a wound It gave Moondae another wound… .

My throat tightened.

‘Don’t be in pain.’

Self-pity was also a luxury. Seon Ah-hyun suppressed a scream. Because apologizing while crying is not an indulgence.

“… … .”

Cha Yoo-jin, who was watching, almost clicked his tongue uncharacteristically.

‘He looks like some kind of ascetic medieval monk.’

I couldn’t figure out the specific inside story.

I could see it just by looking at this atmosphere. Sun Ah-hyun was in pain.

Still, Cha Yu-jin decided to say something. After all, everyone has to come out of the pain on their own feet.

Still, can’t you give that person a stepping stone!

[hmm. all right. But this situation is a bit different.]

Cha Yu-jin raised her hand.

[If Hyung doesn’t do it this time, Dae Hyung Moon does.]

“… !”

[That hyung is the type of person who wants to solve something by himself in the end when something happens to this group.]

Seon Ah-hyun raised her head.

[He’s such a big brother. You know, right?]

Of course I knew.

[So this time, it’s not a matter of whether or not hyung does it alone.]

“… … ”

[Either hyung acts, or Moondae hyung does it first. It’s one of the two.]

Seon Ah-hyun gritted her teeth.

then.

… then.

* * *

Dawn.

“Let’s go Kong.”

Cheong-Ryeo was walking down the street with her dog, who had finally returned last night.

It’s just that my trail was still a course that I could use without any problems with any sightings.

Going out for a walk at the usual time, I was happy to feel that everything was back to normal.

Although it’s funny to call a routine that’s only a few years old that way.

“hmm.”

He immediately wrote a text with a faint smile.

[I’m discharged]

Send the photo you took now.

“Bean. here.”

“king!”

And he was about to take a picture of the grinning dog’s face.

I saw Inyoung sitting on a bench.

“… hmm.”

It was rare because of the time zone, but it didn’t disturb me.

It was because he was a familiar person.

“Brother.”

“… … .”

dark bench. The black hood moves slightly to reveal the contents underneath.

familiar face.

Cheong-Ryeo confirmed the pale complexion that could be seen even under the mask. In the meantime, the voice that is heard is calm.

“… I have something to ask you.”

“… … .”

It was very rare.

And since he had done this rare thing himself, he made an equally rare decision.

“Okay? Then let’s go in.”

Moondae Park was invited to the VTIC hostel.

In an impromptu way that would have been unforeseen just yesterday.

Chapter 353

Episode 353

“Come in.”

“… … .”

Park Mun-dae, wearing a black hoodie, staggered a little as he entered the front door. Kongi groaned and hovered around him.

Only the dog’s cry echoed in the spacious and quiet accommodation.

“Bean hands.”

Cheong-rye is already trying to lift her dog, which is preparing to ‘finish the walk’… .

‘hmm.’

I deliberately asked my companion.

“Can you help me?”

“… .”

Park Moon-dae silently wiped Kongi’s feet, brought him a meal, and eventually accepted the dog putting his head on his leg.

‘I can’t come to my senses.’

When I thought I had crossed the line, there was no reaction I usually see.

Cheong-Ryeo put the hot drink on the other side and spoke casually.

“Have you failed?”

“… … .”

The hooded head raised its head. There is no particular backlash.

‘Right.’

It depends on what kind of failure it is, but probably not work-related.

‘Then there’s no way I wouldn’t know.’

He didn’t miss his competitor’s trends.

Maybe it was faster for Park Moon-dae to receive information than for the poor company to realize the problem on its own… .

Cheong-Ryeo looked at the competitor who was still wearing a mask and then continued.

“I heard you have something to say. do. I will listen.”

“… … .”

Moondae Park looked down at the dog and spoke in a low voice.

“You said you explained the situation to someone else.”

“Yes.”

oh you failed

Apparently, Park Moon-dae told someone else about the situation.

Park Mun-dae confessed to Hana, who was apparently the same age, so it is highly likely that the remaining one was the same age. Relationship pressure usually works that way.

I could have said something like ‘I told you not to recommend it’, but… The request was omitted.

Even if you didn’t have to do that, it seemed like you knew it well.

“excuse… I heard you have an excuse to use.”

“Yes.”

I looked at him wondering if he was just asking for information, not a deal or a threat, but his junior didn’t seem to be in a state to make such calculations right now.

Even really out of the ordinary.

Cheong-Ryeo confirmed that the reason Bak Mun-Dae didn’t hold the cup in front of him was because his hands were shaking.

The sleeve fabric fluttered.

“… … .”

It is in a crisis state where only the outer shape remains as if it is barely enduring an enormous shock with incontinence.

Cheong-ryo found traces of her very old self that were unfamiliar to her.

Just like it happened several times in the past with Moondae Park.

So I quietly opened my mouth.

“First, I create a storyline similar to mine. Find a reference from a best-selling novel or movie with a decent reputation.”

Cheongryeo found suitable examples by year and organized them.

I don’t want to tell you in advance what will be released in the future, even by mistake.

“I said that in an interview first. Keyword-oriented.”

”… … .”

“It’s like a foreshadowing that I’m feeling the charm from a conceptual point of view.”

Then, the member who heard his secret just passed by as a prank or excessive immersion later talking about something.

It’s a way to take the public and throw away the relationship.

“It’s a way to neutralize the opponent’s mouth. It’s effective. Should I say it’s like a vaccination?”

However, no words came out of the masked mouth.

Cheong-rye guessed somewhat unevenly.

‘I don’t like it.’

Park Moon-dae was emotional to the point of being soft at times. Well, it’s only natural that I’ve only returned once.

Cheong-Ryeo offered another alternative even though she did not like it internally.

“Don’t you like it? Then just tell the other person directly that it was a mistake because it was difficult to promote.”

“… !”

“At first, it was just a daydream as a joke, but I think I really came to believe it myself before I knew it… enough?”

Park Moon-dae raised his head.

This method is entirely focused on making the other person feel at ease, so in fact, Cheong-ryeo herself has rarely used it except for a few times in the beginning.

‘Because there is a variable or efficiency problem.’

It was because he was annoyed with sudden actions even if he was slightly insincere.

However, it seemed like the right way for Park Moon-dae.

Well, if I cared that much, I didn’t think I would say anything insincere. Cheong-Ryeo kindly added an explanation.

“Then I will believe it even if I see a gap. It’s not terribly different from the expected answer you thought, but it’s positive.”

Cheong-ryeo finished her words slowly as she watched Kongi, who hadn’t been called, but even gave her hand to Park Mun-dae.

“That kind of people don’t change their thoughts that they’ve already concluded.”

And laughed.

“You don’t want to be the wrong person, do you?”

“… … .”

“Give me the answer you want to hear. Then it will be fixed.”

Steam was still rising from the drink that Moondae Park hadn’t touched in front of Cheongryeo.

And Park Moon-dae, who finally met his eyes… .

I was sure.

“no.”

this.

* * *

My head is like mud.

Thanks to this, at dawn, I sat down at someone else's accommodation, which had the same structure as Testa's accommodation. I know it's not even funny.

But even though it's a complicated worm's burrow-like head that makes you go crazy without knowing what to do, one thing works.

it's just denial

"no."

Cheongryeo, who was sitting across from her, bowed her head to the side.

It feels like cold water has been poured into the muddy water in my head.

"hmm?"

"He… Not that kind of guy."

That one could definitely be refuted.

'Seon Ah-hyun is a person who admits that he is wrong.'

That's harsh enough.

He has lived that way ever since. Keeping conscious of your own trauma and flaws.

[!Status Abnormality: Lack of Self-Esteem]

Wearing that abnormal status, keep finding and acknowledging weaknesses and points to fix in oneself.

too much.

and try to overcome

[Trait: Guts]

His traits seemed to reflect that.

attitude to overcome. And I'm trying to do my best… correct judgment.

'I'm not the kind of guy who can easily convince you that I've told you what I want to hear.'

So, on the contrary, a problem arose.

I heard what Seon Ah-hyun shouted… I remember it.

– I'm sorry… . I can't believe it… Doesn't help either… .

"… He wanted to believe it."

"I guess so."

"But I thought it was right not to believe it."

"… … ."

"I didn't come to a conclusion in a way I was comfortable with, but I ended up like this while trying to find an uncomfortable answer."

I… Because he couldn't explain it properly, he misunderstood that mental illness was the correct answer.

'… In fact, the battles were also splendid.'

I smiled bitterly as I recalled everything from seizures to alcoholism.

… I don't know why I thought Sun Ah-hyun would believe it.

"therefore… I have no intention of using it that way. not through. Because it's the exact opposite."

If it were Seon Ah-hyun, he might think about it again and realize that it was an appropriate excuse.

Then there is really no turning back.

“is it so? all right.”

Cheong-rye nodded as if she had nothing to regret.

“however… Don’t you think that’s a very presumptuous judgment?”

what?

“I… .”

“No, not junior… that person.”

“… !”

“Isn’t it that juniors got into trouble because they were sure that the wrong answer was the right answer? I don’t know why you’re so concerned… .”

“… … .”

“Aren’t you embarrassed?”

I clenched my fist.

But he soon let go of his strength with a sigh.

“I said it, and in the end I also have to accept the reaction.”

The words came out softer than expected.

“It’s not like someone tortured you, but if it was poured out, you should bear it.”

“hmm.”

The guy on the other side doesn't seem to agree very much, but he didn't refute this time either.

"is it so. Cheer up. You can give up anytime if you don't like it."

"Even if you leave Testa, your junior's life won't end. Yes?"

This bastard seems to have a healthier idea than before… .

'Why do you sound so disrespectful?'

It's pretty upsetting.

Besides, my situation right now is not the time to think about that alone.

'You bastard said someone other than me would return to the status window.'

I gritted my teeth.

However, if I say it, 'Anyway, my junior isn't going to die… um yes I get it."

I just kept my mouth shut.

And then I looked at him again.

'This guy with poor empathy is good at consulting.'

I was sitting on a bench to cool my head just in case, but I didn't know that I would come all the way to the dorm and be treated to tea.

'… A bit compared.'

I was silent for a while, remembering that I had closed the door when Cheong-rye came to see the news of the dog being hospitalized.

No, no matter how much it is, there is a difference between coming to the front of the house. Let's do what we have to say though.

“Anyway, thanks for the advice.”

“Are you not going to do it? haha.”

That’s my heart, baby.

Anyway, I started thinking again with a clearer mind than the night before.

‘Once the testa’s activities were restricted… .’

… I will never give a damn about this kid. X would love it

“Will Beans Snack?”

“king!”

I looked at the guy who was adept at handling his dog and kept quiet.

In the end, there is only one way to come back.

‘Seonahyeon’s characteristics must be reactivated.’

grit.

Re-activating it to offset the status ailment is the surest move.

but… Looking back, I don’t think my words will work.

‘… I wonder if he’ll even try to talk.’

I don’t know, but it could have been a list of recommended hospitals.

‘Stop’

I cut off the thought of going to the useless side.

in a productive way.

‘That’s why someone else should do it, not me.’

It means that the members have to do similar things that I did with my characteristics in Azusa.

“… … .”

mobilize helpers

I got up from my seat with a few ideas in mind.

no i was trying to get up

“Keeing.”

Even if the dog didn’t catch the person.

Cheongryeo’s eyes narrowed.

“I feel sorry for Kongi. It’s okay to stay here for a while.”

to the lodging?

“What about your members?”

I heard that he released an album before he enlisted, but why can’t I see him blowing his nose?

“Personal schedule. Or because it’s a vacation.”

is it.

It wasn’t just a dog grabbing a person.

I looked around again.

Well, I don’t want to closely observe where other people live, but… There were some things that caught my eye.

Photo frames and souvenirs that I received at the beginning of my debut are still arranged in the living room.

“… … .”

Wait a minute, I think I took a picture and sold it… done. no way.

I turned my eyes and looked at the guy and the dog on the other side of the road.

And impulsively asked.

“Do you have any intention of talking to the members right now?”

“yes.”

There is no sign of worry.

“I wonder why my junior said that. You don’t have to tell me, do you?”

“… … .”

that’s my question too

Fuck, I don’t know why I said that… .

“I don’t know. just… I want to talk.”

“… … .”

Whether I laughed at it or not, I answered with half-giving up.

However, Cheong-rye just replied like this after petting the dog’s head.

“It could be.”

“… … !”

“Because it will be frustrating.”

Surprisingly, a faint understanding emerges from the tone.

“Aren’t you frustrated?”

“Nothing. hmm… No, it seems like it was like that before, but people get used to it.”

Cheong-rye takes her hand away from the dog and smiles a little.

“They say they are adaptable animals, right? Your junior will be fine soon.”

“… … ..”

My head thinks it’s bullshit. weird… It’s funny that it’s emotionally comforting.

I finally answered with a sigh.

“… thanks.”

“is it so.”

He’s holding his own dog, so I’ll have to take advantage of this gap and get up soon.

I poured the cooled tea into my mouth and stood up.

‘I didn’t even suspect what was on it.’

It seems I’m still not sane.

When I left the table shaking my head.

belt-ring.

The doorbell rings.

I inadvertently looked at the intercom. I was thinking that if I was a member of this company, I would have to hide.

But the tall guy in the light clothes wearing the mask that can be seen on camera… .

This is Seon Ah-hyun.

”… !!”

I reflexively backed away. Why… It’s here.

‘What came to me… .’

It won’t be. How do you know I’m here

And there is no reason for you to come.

‘I haven’t received any contact from the company or the members.’

It wasn’t even set to silent, but there was no vibration…

“… … .”

for a moment.

I somehow checked my light pocket, then raised my eyes and looked at the intercom screen again.

One of the two smartphones in Seon Ah-hyun’s hand.

‘That apple case.’

it’s my smartphone

“ah.”

And I figured out the situation. now i… Last night, I left the door open and crawled out at dawn with no contact… .

“I have a visitor since morning.”

… It’s been about 3 hours.

Chapter 354

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 354

A member who went out early in the morning without a smartphone and lost contact for hours.

Even if the schedule was interrupted for three days because of that bastard right before?

'It turned.'

It's inexcusable madness. I gritted my teeth.

'Cha Yoo-jin even left a note.'

If you don't see it, there must be an emergency in the dorm.

In the worst case, the story might even have gone into the company… .

'… Damn it.'

I'm a fucking bomb.

I can already guess what kind of expression Seon Ah-hyun will look like.

I gritted my teeth and looked at the intercom again.

belt ring.

Even Seon Ah-hyun is not standing in front of the front door on the first floor, but right in front of this front door. I don't even know how this is possible.

So it’s even more confusing…

“You are a member of my junior. Shall I open the door for you?”

“… for a moment.”

After looking at the front door, I took a slow, deep breath.

“I want to open it.”

“hmm? is it so.”

I headed for the front door, leaving the guy who openly expressed his expression, ‘Why?’

And pulled the door open.

The guy on the interphone screen starts to show through the crack in the door.

“… !”

Seon Ah-hyun’s face, seen from the front, is white even though she is wearing a mask. However, the moment the door opens, the complexion changes.

… It was a relief.

Sun Ah-hyun lowered her head.

“He was here… Goa.”

Going crazy.

I barely opened my mouth.

“Smartphone… I didn’t know you left sorry. from morning.”

“… ! oh no I… .”

Seon Ah-hyun took a deep breath and spoke without raising her head.

“Sorry… .”

“… … .”

Judging from the look, it seems like they’ve been running around since dawn, so why are they sorry?

“I made a small fuss… You may need some time alone, even if you are not fluent… well i don’t know… .”

“no.”

I want to stop hearing these fucking apologies.

I tried my best to calmly respond, suppressing those insignificant sentiments.

and ruined

“It’s the fault of the person who disappeared without contact, so let’s stop.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

Sun Ah-hyun immediately shut her mouth. I wanted to bite my tongue.

‘You stupid bastard.’

Why are you answering like this? Are you sucking medicine instead of spitting?

The silence was like X.

At that moment, a voice without inspiration intervened.

“Because Kongyi is likely to misunderstand it as a walk, it would be nice if you do one thing whether you come in or go out.”

king!

A dog barking echoes through the hallway. Seon Ah-hyun suddenly raised her head.

“… ! I’m sorry. then… It’s nothing.”

Eyes do not meet. A smile appears on the face of the guy covered by the mask.

“If you feel better… Come in comfortably… . W Here.”

“… … .”

And the smartphone comes out carefully in front of my hand. as if to accept it.

“Phew, my cell phone seems to need blood… .”

I clenched my fist while looking at the pattern of the distorted apple.

And I took my smartphone.

“… I was just about to go back.”

“… … .”

“I’ll go.”

“Ughhhh… !”

I took my phone and went out the door. Seon Ah-hyun hurriedly moves to press the elevator button.

“Wow!”

And the dog bites the harness and jumps out excitedly… why are you

“Kongi has already misunderstood. Thanks to my junior, the walk ended up being short.”

“… … .”

“Kong, wait a minute. Let’s do this.”

I barely opened my mouth.

“sorry.”

“is it so.”

No, I was talking about your dog.

The elevator with three men in it goes down in silence, with only one harness on.

I opened my mouth first.

“I am here… How did you think?”

Seon Ah-hyun flinched slightly.

“I checked the C CCTV.”

“… !”

CCTV?

Unexpected extreme measures came out.

Usually, you have to report to the police or go to the company… That’s because Seon Ah-hyun didn’t say anything else.

‘no way?’

“Because I’m in such a hurry and beg you earnestly… I also filled out the consent form and showed it… .”

The subject is not plural.

Did this guy go to the management office alone and ask for that much?

I checked his feet. A pair of shoes hangs crumpled on bare feet.

“… … .”

It’s not a very welcome situation.

Nevertheless.. I don’t like it, but I have a strange impression.

‘Still, it doesn’t seem to be completely finished.’

The level of tension that has risen to the top of the head is lowered.

I answered quietly.

“That’s why I… knew that I was following this senior.”

“… Ughhhh.”

Seon Ah-hyun nodded vigorously.

When you want the atmosphere to be a little softer like that.

“It’s strange… . Have I ever spoken of a lake?”

“… !”

“I don’t think they showed the inside of the building where they don’t even live… . You can’t do that. Yes?”

The party stabs in the middle.

However, Seon Ah-hyun was not surprised.

“yes yes… . I heard about it because I asked VTIC senior over the phone… .”

“… … .”

“who?”

“Chae-yul senior. Thank you for letting me know right away… .”

“ah.”

I witnessed another calamity to come upon a man about to enlist in the military.

‘I’m sorry.’

Originally, bad things come all at once. endure

After that conversation, Chung-rye split up on the first floor.

No matter how you feel, he knows how to take care of his dog, so he’ll let you walk the dog like this.

Even so, I did leave a word.

“Well, I can see why you were worried. That… You’re the type with a lot of ups and downs.”

“… !”

“haha. It was an activity problem. Then it’s definitely worth thinking about.”

‘This bastard… .’

She immediately recognized the risk of a decline in Seon Ah-hyun’s stats.

‘… It’s not that the characteristics were attached for nothing.’

I recognized the characteristics of Cheongnye once again.

[Emotion (A)]

: Valuable things are scarce and trash is everywhere.

-Human resource judgment +150%

'… I'll have to be careful.'

In the meantime, looking at the guy whose appearance stats went up, it seemed that this bastard would do much more in the future.

Cheong-Ri lowered her voice and stopped talking at that point.

"I will not change your advice."

"yes."

either way

"It goes well."

I pressed my face and finally answered.

"… The tea was good."

"haha."

Cheong-rye walked to the other side with the dog.

And then silence came again.

Seon Ah-hyun did not ask why I had followed Cheong-ryeo, nor did she ask why I had gone outside that early in the morning.

We kept our mouths shut and quietly walked along the other side of the promenade.

Surprisingly, Sun Ah-hyun opened her mouth to a different topic first.

“… He said he found that dance stand… … W Is it okay if I contact you?”

“… If you go into the dorm right now, isn’t everyone there?”

How many of them went to the police station?

The future almost seemed dark for a moment, but fortunately, the report did not come out.

“Oh, maybe there is… I came out alone and ho just in case… .”

“… … .”

It seems that this guy acted alone without looking at his surroundings. And it seems that she has come to her senses now, and Seon Ah-hyun lowers her head, perhaps embarrassed at the thought of herself.

I hesitantly opened my mouth.

“thanks. For your concern.”

“… ! oh no… .”

Seon Ah-hyun suddenly stopped walking.

Seeing you make a muffled sound… please don’t

“Seon Ah-hyun.”

But he didn’t cry.

Instead, he continued speaking in a trembling voice.

“It’s nothing. I’m tired of this, but… To say just one thing… can’t it?”

“… … .”

I silently nodded.

The words follow right away, as if they had been chewed over and prepared several times.

“you… He’s a really great person and his fire activities… Whatever you do, you do really well. always… I’ve never been like that. I’m really… .”

ah.

I remembered what he said yesterday.

-Now is not the time for you to be active… . It’s getting worse…

He was crushing all the negative connotations that could be implied in that word.

“My me… You said it wrongly, so… Moondae always did well… .”

The road in front of the inn where no one is standing still.

I blankly listened to him. Seon Ah-hyun’s words did not end.

“No problem, I am.”

“… !”

“I know… I tremble alone and have ups and downs. every time… It was.”

what.

As if he had overheard Cheongryeo’s words, Seonahyeon slowly delivered the sentence.

It was brutally objective.

“Before me… Because it was.”

As if he had already felt a similar sensation, he looked down at his feet.

“now… I might be more awkward than usual… That would be a nuisance to the team… .”

Seon Ah-hyun ended her speech with a calm tone typical of a person who has already reached a conclusion.

“Then… Just announce that I am sick.”

“It is my problem. All different stories… You won’t have to.”

Seon Ah-hyun swallowed.

“And as much as I missed my schedule.. I’ll practice. I’ll practice hard.”

The voice became increasingly desperate.

“Then, to a certain extent, you will be fine on the stage. There will be no problem with the tee team… . Even if my problem is not solved by Mumundae… are you okay.”

“… … .”

“Now, you are the one who has to go to the hospital.. so I heard yesterday… never mind forget this… .”

“that.”

don’t say that

However, before he had time to say it, Seon Ah-hyun hurriedly continued talking.

“But it’s nothing. I’m sorry, I’m bad, but… Ha just once.”

There was a trembling voice.

“Consultation… Can I not take it?”

I turned my head.

Seon Ah-hyun trembled.

“I’m sorry. Talking about this again… .”

“… … .”

“And everything. Next time I’ll be sure to listen properly, I’ll be sure… . I’ll listen to whatever you say… .”

Seon Ah-hyun never cried or screamed, even though her shoulders trembled.

He only stuttered, but in fact, inside Seon Ah-hyun, a conclusion had already been drawn.

-All conflicts are due to my problems and I take care of them myself.

Therefore, Park Moon-dae asked to re-examine his condition and look back.

“… … .”

I picked out what to say a few times and then canceled.

The calculations were a mess.

But I knew what conclusion I wanted to reach.

“I’m ready to listen to whatever you have to say.”

Sun Ah-hyun nodded quickly.

And again, he speaks in a low voice.

“I asked you to let me know… ”

“No, that’s my fault.”

I spoke without hesitation.

Your conclusion is your conclusion and I have mine.

“It wasn’t a story anyone would believe. Now that I think about it again, it seems like an innocent story.”

Seon Ah-hyun seemed to hold back her tears.

I nodded seriously. Thoughts came naturally.

okay.

The source of my mistake was there.

“I should have said it properly so I couldn’t help but believe it.”

“… … uh huh?”

Let’s think about it.

Ah-Hyun Sun is not the type who can come up with ideas intuitively or make a leap in logic.

After filtering through a sieve to remove all impurities and contradictions, he is the one who agrees to leave the most appropriate answer for the condition.

‘I did that for this album and it worked.’

I know everything.

Then you should have explained it accordingly from the beginning.

now it becomes clear

‘This… It’s not a matter of trust or intimacy.’

It was a matter of timing.

And normally, I would have taken all of those things into consideration and controlled the board, but the problem was that I misunderstood that this guy believed right away and lost the reins.

“I want to hear it. okay. I’ll explain it again, so listen up.”

“… !!that that… .”

This time, it is filled with witnesses and proof cases so that there is no room to escape.

Then, whether it be porridge or rice, you will reach a conclusion without regret.

Chapter 355

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 355

"Park Moon-dae!"

"you… ."

"Are you okay?"

As soon as Seon Ah-hyun and I entered the dorm, we received a warm welcome from our cohabitants.

It's right to scream 'You bastard,' but I'm worried that this guy has gone crazy, so I approach it cautiously.

I hit the head and hit the head.

"sorry. I went out to think about it, but I didn't realize I had left my phone behind."

"ah… ."

"Yes, it was."

My face looked quite intact, and there was an atmosphere of relief for a moment.

Cha Yoo-jin, who was drinking coke, responded cheerfully.

"OK~ Tell me next time!"

“Okay is okay! I was worried because you suddenly disappeared, everyone!”

Thank you for taking it with ugg.

Bae Se-jin looked back at Sun Ah-hyun with a flushed face.

“you also! I should have said what I was thinking and left… … Seon Ah-hyun?”

“… … .”

“excuse me… .”

“yes yes! I’m sorry. Don’t say anything and move recklessly… . sorry.”

“Oh yes. that… suffered.”

Seon Ah-hyun entered the living room of the dorm with a bewildered expression. and sat down on the sofa.

It seems like a big shock.

Let’s see this guy’s reaction again right after

I said ‘I’ll tell you properly’ .

-That’s it… . It’s that radish.

– He said he would listen well to anything.

-… no right

His words were affirmative, but his face said ‘this isn’t it’.

Of course, that’s why I gave her carrots.

-And no matter how the conclusion comes out this time, I go to get counseling unconditionally.

– It’s okay to record this.

-Oh no… ! uhhh thank you… . Thank you Moondae… !

The one who was desperately shouting fell into a state of complete confusion when he arrived at the dorm, wondering if he was doing all of his expectations and worries. That’s it.

I squeezed my neck.

‘It doesn’t last long.’

I have time off my schedule, so I have to do it right now.

You can’t do more damage to the people involved.

‘Excluding three days of activity, how much is giving up revenue?’

In terms of settlement revenue, it was already an amount to start paying attention to.

Besides, speed battles are essential to silence those who will raise rumors about our condition.

‘hmm.’

Just in time, someone who needs it speaks up.

“Did you two talk well?”

I looked at Liu Qingyu and nodded.

“yes. You must have been surprised, but I’m sorry.”

Liu Qingyu smiled.

“okay. That’s right.”

“In the morning, the alarm went off, but the owner of the phone was not there. Everyone must have been three or four times more surprised than when Eugene disappeared.’

“yes.”

It’s so embarrassing.

I was silent for a while, remembering the words I had said when Cha Yu-jin was gone. Liu Chengwu pats him on the back.

“great job.”

“yes.”

You give me a bottle and give me medicine. I endured thinking of the karma I made.

‘And the next guy… .’

Big Sejin.

He was writing something with his smartphone next to Ryu Cheong-wu.

When I came in earlier, he didn’t say anything, but he still doesn’t raise his head.

“… what are you doing?”

The guy muttered when he put the phone down.

“… Upload.”

ah.

I checked SNS. A new post has been posted on the testa account.

_____==

ㅠㅠ In this weather, I get a cold… I'm really sorry. We'll get better soon and find you. Don't worry about loveuer, we're taking medicine and crushing!

_____==

It was a quick response.

"… thanks."

"what."

He grinned and slapped me on the shoulder.

"Are you feeling okay?"

"okay."

Actually, what I wanted to ask was not that, but what happened to Seon Ah-hyun and what the hell did I do when I went out at dawn.

'But I don't have the shame to ask.'

This isn't some kind of Joseon Dynasty court, so why are there so many bastards who say it's their fault?

'I'm glad I was able to ask for a helping hand.'

I held my breath and got to the point.

"however… Because I need your help."

"uh?"

"Cheongwoo hyung too."

"hmm? me?"

"yes."

Shall we start by pushing the quantity?

* * *

Seon Ah-hyun took a deep breath.

The roommate shouted ‘I hope you rest in peace!’ and packed up the electronics and went to Bae Se-jin and Cha Yu-jin’s room.

However, Seon Ah-hyun’s head could not rest. The decision was repeated over and over again in my head.

‘I’m going to react properly this time.’

okay. Maybe this was an opportunity. An opportunity to alleviate the shock that Mun-dae may have received due to his wrong reaction.

“Whew.”

‘First of all, thank you so much for talking to me seriously… … .’

After checking her reaction to the end in her head several times, Seon Ah-hyun was scheduled to visit Mun-dae’s room at the time promised to talk to him.

But it didn’t.

smart.

“Go in.”

“… !”

Even before the appointed time, Park Moon-dae came first.

And it went straight to the point.

“I came a little early because I had something to set up. Wait, Lavin, the computer.”

computer?

“Let’s begin. Ah, Kim Rae-bin asked me to deliver this.”

“Uh”

“Listen while drinking.”

Park Moon-dae, who opened the door and entered, held out the tea he was holding in his hand and put down a notebook and pen in front of him.

‘note… ?’

And without a break, information transmission began.

“I’m going to start with the witness.”

“… witnesses… ?”

Park Moon-dae paused for a moment and then spoke in a slightly strained voice.

“… I didn’t say anything before because I was afraid you would be more confused, but in fact, I’m not alone in the case of returning to the past.”

“… ??”

It was an unexpected statement.

Seon Ah-hyun froze with the tea in her hand.

However, Park Mun-dae immediately began to bring out the people he invited.

“I’m going to start with the witness.”

“… witnesses… ?”

Park Moon-dae paused for a moment and then spoke in a slightly strained voice.

"… I didn't say anything before because I was afraid you would be more confused, but in fact, I'm not alone in the case of returning to the past."

"… ??"

It was an unexpected statement.

Seon Ah-hyun froze with the tea in her hand.

However, Park Mun-dae immediately began to bring out the people he invited.

It almost happened.

[Um.]

VTIC's grace. The great senior I had just met had an openly insincere smile.

[Wouldn't it be more comfortable if we did it when we met earlier?]

"Yes. Things have changed."

[It's really fast.]

Even after that, Cheong-ryeo had a short conversation with Park Moon-dae, not knowing if he was being sarcastic or laughing, but soon admitted it.

[that's right. I am a person who knew the future before Mr. Moondae… Mr. Mundae, so Mr. Geon-woo is next.]

"… … ."

Is this really real?

[My junior is older than me, so she even talks to me in half-spoken words. Didn't you hear it earlier?]

Just… Because we became very close, I thought it was something that pops out from time to time. And I was just a little embarrassed.

[They say they're not recording, but now it's fun to use honorifics.]

"Noisy."

[Haha!]

Cheong-Ryeo finished the proper guarantee with such a nonchalant face.

[You have a lot to pay, junior.]

"Go in."

[Oops. I can't deny it.]

And Cheong-ryo disappeared from the screen.

"After"

Park Moon-dae took a deep breath as if holding back his irritation.

"He's an annoying guy, but anyway… For that reason, I watch it from time to time."

"… … "

Then, while operating the computer again with a stiff face, he added with a slightly proud tone.

"There is no manipulation. You must have seen that it's not my computer, it's someone else's computer, and I don't touch the storage media."

"… … ."

"You can go see it again right now if you want. Hmm, maybe."

"Oh no."

Seon Ah-hyun responded reflexively.

But my head was full of exclamation marks and question marks.

“Then I’ll move on, and this time, the next person going through this strange situation will come out after me.”

“Yes… .”

“Ah, if you have any questions, feel free to write them down in your notebook. Because it doesn’t matter.”

“… … .”

so… did you bring it?

Seon Ah-hyun reflexively grabbed the note, but her limbs were creaking as if they were broken.

And when another familiar face appeared on the screen, I screamed inside.

[Hyung hyung, it’s been a while! How have you been?]

Kwon Hee-seung.

It was the face of the junior Park Moon-dae, whom he secretly refers to as ‘Gold 2’.

[You’re talking to Ahyeon-nim this time… Ah, hello brother.]

“Oh, hello.”

Seon Ah-hyun pinched her thigh for a moment, but it only hurt.

Kwon Hee-seung on the screen excitedly talked about his experiences – he fell down the Han River after saving people and came back to the past! – and even grumbled at Park Moon-dae.

[Hyung, aren't you collecting too many colleagues? Our little secret organization? Wasn't it like that?]

"If you feel unfair, you can tell me too."

[that… … Our group is not yet in that relationship… .]

Kwon Hee-seung bitterly said, 'I tried to tell my parents, but they slapped me on the back to wake me up' and ended the call with a sigh.

For reference, Sun Ah-hyun could not record a single word in her notebook.

"Now, that's why he's the one who came back to the past after me."

"… … ."

"Actually, from the time that guy came back, the return on the stock he bought was about 15 times. They say they'll show you a proof shot if you want."

"… that."

"By the way, I'm the only one whose body changed during this case. There is a reason for this."

'When asked… !'

Seon Ah-hyeon, on a rare occasion, internally refuted Park Moon-dae, but Park Moon-dae ran like a runaway locomotive.

"So I called the party again."

for a moment.

also?

Seon Ah-hyun was mentally panting.

And I asked myself.

Can you justify your mental world by attracting so many people so far?

that's impossible… .

'No, no.'

A smart and great person like Park Moon-dae could do it.

'If I believe in what I am comfortable with, Moondae… .'

for a moment.

"… uh?"

Seon Ah-hyun noticed the contradiction.

'Even if I believe… Anyway, Moondae said he would seek counseling unconditionally.'

then… isn't that fine?

'No matter what I think.'

No matter what Seon Ah-hyun thinks, if Park Moon-dae can find an expert when he needs help.

'that… That's right.'

Seon Ah-hyun took a deep breath as he felt the stuff in his throat slowly sink.

The fear of making the wrong choice melted away.

The fixed conclusion played its role as Park Moon-dae's goal.

Besides, all of this is something… Something… It was not the direction Seon Ah-hyun predicted and prepared for.

'that… A deeper conversation.'

I knew how to do it, but this was like collecting data when working at a net songwriting camp!

"… … ."

The funny thing is that even in the midst of embarrassment and confusion, Seon Ah-hyun's reason began to exercise judgment.

To the natural evidence submission like the flowing water.

This was a job, not a consultation.

[Hello, Mr. Ahyeon… !]

"Now, Gun-woo Ryu, who was originally Park Moon-dae, has switched bodies with me."

"… … ."

"By the way, Chungwoo-hyung was my cousin on my parent's side."

But what happened next… It was a supernatural proof that even Seon Ah-hyun had not thought of.

After arranging a light greeting, Park Mun-dae suddenly asked a sharp question to Seon Ah-hyun.

"I think the thing that bothered me the most was that I was seeing a hologram, wasn't it?"

"… … ."

"It's an illusion. Not the most serious."

Park Moon-dae laughed when he saw Sun Ah-hyun's face darken.

"Then let's prove that this isn't an illusion before going into details."

"… … ."

“I have a question written in my notebook.”

“Ughhh.”

“Show me. But before that…”

Moondae Park stood up and turned the monitor back.

“If you do this, ‘Ryu Gun-woo’ on the screen won’t be able to see your notes. yes?”

“That’s right… .”

“no. for a moment.”

Moondae Park turned off the monitor altogether.

“… !”

“In this case, only the speaker is alive. No tricks. It’s not even my computer in the first place.”

“… … .”

Seon Ah-hyeon had no idea what Moon-dae Park was doing.

But Park Moon-dae did not stop.

“Now show me the note.”

“… … huh.”

Seon Ah-hyun did not go against her and quietly turned the note with her trembling hand and showed it to Park Moon-dae.

It was an elegant handwriting.

-Why did Mun-dae and Ryu Gun-woo switch bodies?

It was a question that Park Moon-dae would soon explain.

exactly… Park Moon-dae easily guessed that it would have been close to ‘why do you think it has changed’.

It wasn’t a big month.

[I got a lot of help from Gunwoo hyung… I wished for my brother’s happiness, but it turned out badly!]

“… !!”

Seon Ah-hyun doubted his ears.

Monitor turned off.

speaker next to it.

[Of course, I think the results are okay. Watching hyung promote as an idol is really cool… .]

A gentle man’s voice came out softly.

[By the way, the subject here is your brother, right? is that me? Anyway, the answer doesn’t change much… … .]

“… … .”

It was the answer to the question written in the notebook.

Click.

The note fell to the floor.

Seon Ah-hyun looked down at the note with a feeling of blood cooling… He raised his head to Moondae.

Park Moon-dae nodded his head naturally.

“It’s connected through a hologram window.”

I got goosebumps all the time.

“Just write something and show it. I will deliver it with this.”

Seon Ah-hyun gritted her teeth and picked up the note.

And write down any thoughts. It is something that can never be guessed at.

Foreign language.

-pas de deux

and the sound rings.

[I’m sorry… I don’t know what you mean. Pas de des?]

“… … .”

[Ah, that’s a ballet term. Yes. Ahyeon-nim originally did ballet!]

This is… this?

Seon Ah-hyun grabbed the table. My eyes started spinning around.

Common sense… was being destroyed.

It was his own room. He knew that there was no device, and Park Mun-dae also did not have any spare time to install something separately.

Even Park Moon-dae is speaking at the head.

Park Mun-dae, wearing white short sleeves and pajama pants without pockets, jumped lightly from his seat.

“It’s impossible to hide a small camera under my clothes right now, but… But first, I’ll borrow your camera detector.”

“… … .”

Then, on her own, she picked up the camera detector placed in the corner of Seon Ah-hyun’s desk and turned it around her body and the table.

Of course there was no response.

‘ah.’

Seon Ah-hyun blinked.

‘If so then… .’

But before drawing a logical conclusion from that head.

“But, one thing is that trust is lost.”

“… ??

Seon Ah-hyun lifted her head.

Park Moon-dae nodded seriously.

“Now, let’s try it with someone else too. I’m calling Chungwoo-hyung and Lee Se-jin now.”

“… … .”

“Aside from that, if you have any doubts, tell me right away.”

Park Moon-dae laughed.

“Because I have plenty of time until tomorrow.”

The beginning of the plan to do a thorough empirical proof before solving the story.

In this way, Moondae Park’s proof continued until the sun went down.

Chapter 356

Episode 356

“They are… Aren’t you eating?”

“I am hungry. We should eat chicken.”

It has already been over an hour and a half since Park Moon-dae and Seon Ah-hyun locked themselves in their room.

Bae Se-jin, who was sitting on the bed and willingly yielded his desk to Kim Rae-bin, who was playing the keyboard, thought impatiently.

‘No, without any popularity… Please drink at least.’

Bae Se-jin checked the refrigerator just in case, but there was no sign of alcohol. Since no one had ever bought it in the first place, he knew that it was speculation.

‘I thought mediation wasn’t necessary.’

Although Seon Ah-hyun, who had entered in the morning, looked a bit dazed, it was because the atmosphere seemed less serious.

Bae Se-jin slightly got lucky.

“You must be having a good conversation.”

A knife-like answer came back.

“That’s right. I have no idea why you borrowed my laptop, but I hope it helped the two of you to have a deep conversation!”

“… Hmm yes.”

Bae Se-jin decided to dispel his suspicions. It was because I felt a bit embarrassed because I felt like I was the only one who was so anxious about this place.

‘Still, I’d like someone to confirm it.’

Should I text him to bring a meal?

However, not long after Bae Se-jin thought so hard, Ryu Cheong-wu and Lee Se-jin called Bak Moon-dae, who only showed their faces, and entered the room for a while.

‘You’re the same age as my roommate.’

It was a selection that made it clear why the name was called.

Bae Se-jin was still a bit disappointed as the eldest person, but he soon remembered his narration and understood it.

no i was relieved

‘I’m glad it wasn’t me who called… .’

And like a lie, the idea became reality.

The two of them who had been called came out two hours later, tired of their faces.

Even Sejin Lee waved his hand and disappeared into the kitchen to drink water without saying a word.

‘… ?’

Bae Se-jin was taken aback.

“what’s the matter?”

“hmm.”

Liu Qingyu smiled bitterly and shook his head.

“Because Mundae isn’t very common.”

“… … uh?”

“They logically persuaded me.”

It’s not even a discussion, why is that word coming out here.

Bae Se-jin asked involuntarily.

“what?”

“Well, why do I have to reconcile with you?”

“… ??”

Are you conciliating with logical persuasion?

Something like that… Is it possible?

However, Ryu Cheng-wu added a word with an airy smile.

“It was good.”

“… ??”

Something like that… does it work?

Bae Se-jin was even more confused.

However, it was true that something similar was happening in the room.

* * *

‘Okay.’

I nodded.

The two guys who entered the room put it to good use in every form of proof.

I guess what only Keundal and the three of us talked about in writing. Answering the questions the three made in random order. Each of us drew a picture, changed it randomly, and then described what Seon Ah-hyun was holding… .

As the number of people increases, the process becomes more and more astronomically complex, and there are fewer and fewer holes to suspect deception.

The last thing I did was to have Seon Ah-hyun come up with a way.

‘There’s no special heat fight.’

All proofs went smoothly. Thanks to the big moon who paid the annual leave to come, there was no corner that got in the way.

Although Ryu Cheng-wu looked at me with a little meaning.

– You could have done something like this.

“… … .”

It was a kind of telepathic twin gaze.

Should I have only called Sejin big?

Anyway, both guys did a good job. In particular, as soon as Sun Ah-hyun’s barrier was lowered, Sejin hit my contradiction very well.

– Moondae has a different curriculum from ours. Did you hear that he said that he was not Guk Young-soo? You thought I heard wrong?

– He knows how to drive. Last time, he unknowingly taught his manager hyung. Ahyeon hasn’t seen Bakmundae studying for a driver’s license, has

it?

I wanted to stop the muzzle a few times, but the effect of improving the situation was outstanding, so I passed it.

And as time passed, Sun Ah-hyun began to actively come up with test methods.

By that point, I was starting to feel a bit nervous and exhausted.

-Then… I'll ask any question, so that that person will answer.

-okay.

And now after countless resets and iterations.

"… … ."

"… … ."

Seon Ah-hyun is looking at the empty space with a blank face. It is the appearance of completely abandoning the obsession with notes.

'I was holding onto it like a rope, and then I finally let it go.'

Questions and keywords are strewn about on the notes.

-Magic

-Without electronics…

-Others

Of course, everything is crossed out.

This is because they have been questioning Sun Ah-hyun's doubts and doubts and destroying them one by one.

At this point, I have no choice but to admit this guy.

That I'm not just a madman, at least I'm a guy with some substance.

"Any other questions?"

"… … ."

The place where the two invited as guests went out was quiet. After tidying up Kim Rae-bin's computer, I sat across from Ah-hyun Sun.

I heard the sound of Seon Ah-hyun swallowing.

And I raise my head.

"… Oh no."

Confidence returned to the eyes of the guy who answered.

"doesn't exist."

A resolute answer as if everything was brushed off without any hindrance.

'yes.'

It's worth squeezing out what you have for four hours.

I almost gave my fist a rest, then released it.

"… okay."

It's not over yet. Now I'm like, 'So you believe me?' If you yell at them, they will break all the boards.

'If I finish like this, there are definitely things that will make me feel uncomfortable later on.'

that i say first

"Of course, just because this nonsense is possible doesn't mean that what I said is true."

“… ! that that.”

Power and truth are not the same thing. Just because some crazy guy does magic doesn’t mean that everything he says is true.

‘That’s a complete scam.’

So I must say this.

blocking the source.

“But there’s no benefit to me if I lie about this.”

“… … .”

“You know, but to be honest, we don’t have much worldly values that we need more from now on.”

money fame social status.

I am standing at the peak of this short-lived occupational group, but there is no reason to obsess over the things above, unless you know if there will be a downward trend in a few years.

because you already have it

Even looking at it objectively, the idol ‘Park Moon-dae’ is in a state where both material desire and recognition are satisfied.

“There is no reason for me to say crazy things with this ability.”

And surprisingly, Seon Ah-hyun replied immediately.

“I never thought of that.”

“… !”

“Mumundae… I never thought you were lying.”

“… okay.”

I didn’t expect to hear this

But it’s not a bad feeling.

-That’s right. Moondae is not the kind of person who would lie about something like this… Of course I know.

‘at that time… Did you mean what you said?’

The short flashback is over.

… Thanks to that, I can move on to the next part without delay.

After a short pause, I spoke.

“Then let’s look at the hypothesis that I mistook myself for someone else.”

why is this not valid

Why is ‘Park Moon-dae’ mistaken for ‘Ryu Gun-woo’ as himself? It’s an awkward proposition.

‘Let’s prove that… .’

I smiled bitterly.

“‘Ryu Gun-woo’ is… You know now, but I didn’t live a life that ‘Park Moon-dae’ could envy.”

“… !”

Both were orphans and lived busy lives to make ends meet.

Even if you can feel the sameness, if you dare to think differently… Wouldn’t it be possible to be envious or have something better than yourself?

“If Park Mun-dae had his head turned around and mistook himself for someone else, it wouldn’t have been him.”

It would be better if it was Ryu Cheong-woo, but Ryu Gun-woo is not qualified.

“So that hypothesis honestly doesn’t make sense either.”

And unlike that hypothesis, so far I’ve been proving for hours to support my claim.

Sun Ah-hyun looked at me with trembling eyes.

I untied my hands.

“This is all I prepared.”

“… … .”

“I think I did everything I could. Honestly, at this point, I have no further proof.”

I said frankly.

I am fully qualified to say this after I have been talking for such a long time without leaving a single gap between the needles.

“I mobilized everyone I could and did everything I could say.”

Sun Ah-hyun nodded slowly.

Even if it’s ‘ right, it’s a door. That’s the mood for ‘Okay, now I believe’.

I chuckled.

“so… I won’t ask what you think.”

“Huh huh?”

Isn’t it obvious about this guy’s personality? I was told to go to the hospital while doing that shit, but what would happen if I admitted that I was fine.

‘I’ll blame myself until my head breaks again.’

You don’t have to look at it. therefore… . Let’s alleviate it.

“You can’t do it all at once. Take your time, doubt as much as you like. continue.”

“okay. In the future, if you have any doubts, you can ask me anything and I will continue to answer.”

“… … Seon

Ah-hyun opened her mouth.

This guy is not the one who makes noise with malice, so it’s okay to catch the line like this.

No, I’ve done it this far, but in fact, I wonder if there will be people who don’t believe it, but honestly, isn’t it normal to believe at this point?

Still, let’s try putting it on a full charge.

I looked at him with almost certainty.

“Thank you… It’s Moondae.”

However, Seon Ah-hyun reluctantly did not nod.

“But it’s okay if you don’t do that.”

“… !”

“My me… You showed a lot of unreliable sides.”

Seon Ah-hyun squeezed both of her hands tightly.

“However, even though Moondae has been working hard for such a long time, it’s not to the extent that he can’t admit it himself… no. And if you have any doubts… .”

Sun Ah-hyun took a deep breath.

“Kkok must first… After thinking about it, I organize it, and even if I know it, I look at it… Only then when it doesn’t go away though. I’ll ask you.”

“… … .”

“really… believe. It’s nothing.”

me really

“okay.”

I held out my hand to Seon Ah-hyun. Seon Ah-hyun reached out and held it. It wasn’t that cold this time.

“I wish you well in the future.”

“huh.”

It was a handshake I hadn’t done in a few days.

* * *

Finally, Park Moon-dae and Seon Ah-hyun came out to the living room.

And all the testers who saw the atmosphere between the two realized that the conflict was well resolved.

“good job. Whoever wins, eat chicken!”

“Cha Yoo-jin! your way of talking… .”

“okay. You buy it instead.”

“… ! If Moondae hyung is like that… .”

“No, not you.”

A few times the usual mischievous story passes by.

And the night when the leader made a schedule-related phone call to the company with a smile.

“Ahyeonah~”

“Eh.”

When Seon Ah-hyun, who was standing on the veranda, turned her head, Lee Se-jin smiled and stood beside her.

“Why aren’t you eating chicken here alone?”

Sun Ah-hyun smiled faintly.

“I guess Ahyeon has a lot on her mind.”

Lee Se-jin bumped his shoulders and laughed. The atmosphere softened.

However, Seon Ah-hyun did not shake his hand or spill his feelings.

“… Yes. little.”

I just answered plainly. However, Sejin Lee picked up the right track.

“hmm… Are you worried that you could have done a little better?”

“… … !”

Yes.

After the conflict was resolved, Seon Ah-hyun made an objective judgment while looking back at the incident without getting caught.

‘… I wasn’t thinking rationally.’

The moment he first heard the story of Park Mun-dae, he was terrified and, thanks to him, was buried in it.

So, step by step, without asking Lee Se-jin or Ryu Cheong-woo, whom he already knew, about the situation, he frantically raised his anxiety inside.

This conflict was a product of his own weakness.

I just wanted to talk about this fact.

Sun Ah-hyun opened her mouth.

“A little Joe. I guess so. Everyone should do better next time.”

However, what came out of his mouth was only a light poet.

“Okay Sejin will be like that too~”

“Hwaiting.”

Seon Ah-hyun thought over and over again the conclusion and decided not to repeat the poet and apology to those around her.

‘that… It’s because I want to make my heart feel comfortable.’

Even if he tried, only Park Moon-dae would be more burdensome and would only cause pain to the team.

While going through all these situations, Seon Ah-hyun felt one thing desperately.

‘If you want to share your luggage, you have to carry mine properly first.’

You have to show that you can afford it so that you can share the burden.

Rather than trying hard to show my qualifications, it was right to actually become that kind of person.

‘I have to handle my share on my own.’

However, Seon Ah-hyun will leave the fact that she did not trust Park Moon-dae as an object of self-reproach and polishing.

Seon Ah-hyun decided to do so without borrowing anyone’s judgment.

self.

So, in a surprisingly light tone, I ended my remarks.

“Umm, shall we go eat chicken?”

“Oh~ good.”

The two who were standing on the veranda left and went back to the living room. It was a wonderful return.

But inside of him, he had made an unusual decision.

and the next morning.

“Oh hello. It’s Moondae.”

“okay… .”

Park Moon-dae, who came out the door and met Seon Ah-hyun, confirms that he did not expect.

[Characteristic: Guts]

[! Abnormal status: Lack of self-esteem (inactivated)]

“… … ?”

Seon Ah-hyun's status abnormality had returned to the road inactive state.

without any help.

'What's up'

Park Moon-dae was trying to speed up the plan to reactivate the trait from today based on the trust restored by the crazy 5-hour relay proof yesterday.

'Did I see it wrong?'

Park Moon-dae almost looked at Seon Ah-hyun, frowning.

But first I saw something else.

[Guts (S): Make your own mindset. That's why I can afford it alone.

-When activated, mental abnormalities are offset. (Duplicate application possible)

"It's Mumundae… ?"

Moondae Park read one more sentence that caught his eye.

[Make your own mindset.]

That's right.

I don't know what kind of change of heart there was, but last night, Seon Ah-hyun broke his slump and reactivated his characteristics.

Maybe Park Moon-dae will be able to guess the mechanism in the future, but… .

'still… Isn't it okay?'

Because she overcame it on her own, Seon Ah-hyun herself would know.

Whenever he cursed at him for being a fraudulent trait, Park Mun-dae looked at Seon Ah-hyun as if he was quite admirable.

… Of course, if a problem arises like this, you will find a way to get rid of it from cause to result.

Not today.

“Let’s eat.”

“Yes… !”

The next day, Testa resumed its activities as scheduled with the announcement of ‘condition recovery’.

And while they were on track again, the first Billboard chart was announced.

It was the beginning of a great upheaval.

Chapter 357

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 357

Sudden announcement of a schedule that has already been canceled on the same day?

of course it doesn't work

It's because there are many cases where the situation is not possible regardless of the truth and nabalgo.

So the day I resumed my activities was free. Appropriately, 'Green light to resume activities after two days of testa… There were articles like 'Managing recovery'.

Thanks to this, the members had plenty of time during the day and performed only according to the schedule that the company conducted directly.

"Um~ I'm sorry and thankful to the company staff."

"Ugh. It really is… ."

okay. Even if I had to pay a penalty, the sudden artist issue would have been a headache, so the company paid for it this time. thank you to the staff just i expected

'Still, I'd be damned.' -No matter how much it is, everyone is taking a break during the active period

due to body aches.. Well, isn't it too exceptional? Dog weirdness

Big Sejin quickly posted an SNS post according to the situation, but it was obvious what these guys would say after the 'Byeolbyeolgok' incident.

'I'll have to deal with it first.'

As a cause provider, isn't suturing an essential procedure?

I refined some plans and hit the internet.

'hmm… ?'

But to my surprise, it didn't turn out the way I expected.

Instead, the Billboard charts were slightly different from the news of our hiatus.

"and… I forgot this."

"That's right. I think I was mistaken for a while by confusing the previous movie OST with this title."

me really

'Somehow he thinks good.'

It's okay to honestly say that I was distracted because of the chaos with Sun Ah-hyun.

I shook my head and lowered the screen.

Once the album chart. Billboard 200.

[8. 〈WEAPON for you〉 / new!]

8th place.

“Ohhhh.”

“A single digit… .”

After the mess, the members confirmed later that they like it, but in fact, this is a predictable range.

It was not uncommon for a KPOP boy group that was well-known in the US to reach the top 5 on the Billboard album chart in its heyday.

‘Still, it’s a result I really like.’

It is a sign that the chronic bearishness problem abroad has been resolved.

The problem is:

Song chart aka Hot100.

[15. Savior / new!]

“… … ?”

“omg?”

this… landed on the 15th.

‘what?’

You might wonder why it’s lower than the album chart, but it’s several times more difficult for a foreign language song to break through the ranks on this music chart than an album. It’s because you need a level of popularity to offset the fact that it’s a foreign language, or a ridiculously huge fandom to push it away.

So this… It’s kind of weird.

‘I expected a top 30 at best… ?’

No, actually, if it wasn't for the movie OST that was released right before the 30th place, it's a ranking that I wouldn't have dared to do.

'This… When Testa released a performance-oriented song a few years ago, it's a ranking comparable to the Korean weekly music charts.'

It's about to shake.

And thanks to this, the Internet reaction to Testa's suspension of activities was organized.

I mean like this.

-The water is rushing in, but the oar is smashed~

-If I'm a star, my stomach will tear

-Can you put up with this? I must have been really sick ha ha ha ha ha ha –

Aren't you

trying to go to America quickly?

In addition, conspiracy theories such as 'It's a noise caused by speeding up the schedule on the American side' occurred, and the bullshit behind the scenes was absorbed all the time.

"… … ."

The real thing worked out wonderfully, but I still don't know what the principle of this is.

Bae Se-jin also asks the locals with eyes full of disbelief whether he has studied on WiTube.

"this… Is it true that it comes out this well?"

However, the locals declined to comment.

“I don’t know! I don’t look at billboards often.”

“Then what are you watching?”

“Umm Dotifiy~”

“Dotifiy?”

It is a global music streaming site popular in the US.

‘… It’s streaming.’

I realized in that moment.

“ah.”

yes. You should have checked where you got your points from.

I immediately checked the Billboard score ratio.

Music Sales Streaming Index Radio On Air… .

“hmm.”

‘There are more on-air scores than I thought.’

Foreign language songs are not likely to be played on American radio, but considering that, I comply. The company seems to have spent its money well.

And, of course, the fandom has the highest sales volume of digital music, but… .

“… !”

‘Isn’t streaming okay?’

Yes. There is almost no difference between streaming and similar ranking songs up and down.

Also this… .

“Cha Yoo-jin, do you have a Dotify account?”

“there is!”

“Show me some.”

I went into Cha Yu-jin’s smartphone and looked at the rankings.

‘No. 26 on the global chart.’

Considering that it’s been about two weeks since its release, it’s been a great hold.

And if you check the US charts, not the global… .

[25. Savior / by TeSTAR]

“Ooh~ I like the 25th place!”

“… !”

higher than global?

This is also deformed. Usually, KPOP has a higher global index than in the US… .

“How long do you use your phone?”

“wait for a sec.”

While looking at the fan account on my smartphone, I kept checking Dotify’s streaming rankings on Cha Yoo-jin’s phone.

And I realized

“… promotion? advertisement?”

“Yes, I think I recommended this song to people who listened to our movie OST.”

The title of this testa will be told to those who have heard ‘Black Hole’ from 〈Cosmic Gunner〉.

In the direction of the connection, the US promotion algorithm was commissioned.

It’s a song composed by the same guys and sung by the same guys, and since the sample was used with a similar feel, of course it fits my taste.

Maximize natural promotional effect.

In addition, the image established through our movie cameos and appearances in variety shows created a synergistic effect.

‘… It’s the alien image of my pace gamer.’

So it seems that even the incomprehensible lyrics acted as their own unique charm and softened the reluctance.

So, to sum up…

“You did a good job at the company.”

“yes.”

Liu Chengwu’s words cannot be denied.

I can feel the tenacity to somehow squeeze the US market…

There’s only one guy who can do this.

“here. Well written.”

“yes!”

I returned Cha Yoo-jin’s smartphone and ate it.

mouth is bitter

‘… The general manager is doing a good job.’

It seems that he did not have an American business soldier for nothing. Or have you felt something through trial and error?

It’s a good thing, but it feels strange. Is it because I think of him as X-bob from the inside?

“Moondaemundae~ Won’t you come down?”

“hmm.”

I got off at the concept photo set for the tour and finished my thoughts.

For now, I’m working… I guess I should set up a dotify account for monitoring.

I opened an account for the United States that day, ignoring Cha Yu-jin’s advice.

And the very next day you realize that this was a pretty good idea.

It was a night when my schedule got busy and I crawled into the dorm past midnight.

When I sat in the bathtub to relax.

[Hyung tongue! Did you see this?]

While checking the status window without thinking, I suddenly see the big moon typing frantically on the status window.

[A new girl group appeared like a comet… Is Powty taking over the billboard]

[Youngrin junior Powty “Please love all the double titles!”]

[Powty attacks global music charts, ‘NEXT Youngrin’ appears]

“… … .”

After reading the pouring text.

I struggled to open my mouth.

“It’s a double title.”

[yes… .]

And access the Dotify account opened for monitoring to see the ranking.

A new song that has just been ranked is floating.

[14. Love Soul / by Powty]

[17. Underwater / by Powty]

Two songs in the top 10.

When you click it, a trendy English dance song appears.

-Hey goody do you want a… .

Texture like commercial music. It sticks well to the ears. Even if it is obvious, it is a well-known masterpiece that anyone will like.

“… … .”

I stopped playing the music and pressed my temples.

“this… ”

X haircut.

What kind of situation is this?

[that… A teaser parody of the two titles was a big hit on Tic Tac Tok, and the response was good even in the US… .]

Thank you for the supplementary explanation, but in fact, the cause is not important now.

In any case, the result that these rookies made a huge jackpot outside the standard is important.

‘It’s X.’

… First of all, let’s look at what ‘KPOP record breaking’ I was aiming for.

[Two testa songs listed at the top of the Billboard Hot100 chart at the same time]

This is it.

As you can see, it was a choice considering that our movie OST will definitely be on the Billboard charts by now.

Because the OST will run for a long time until the movie is released to the public and continues to be exposed.

Then, I thought it would be possible if only the title was maintained well.

‘I looked it up and found out that this wasn’t even aimed at VTIC.’

On the other hand, the album is strong and the songs are less popular.

So, since the huge fandom just decided on the title and drove it with purchasing power, I didn’t even use this uneconomical method.

so i thought you were right

‘I hit this part and go in.’

The original record is a way to be swayed by public perception, except for the traditional net exhaust.

Depending on how common it is recognized, it can become a meaningful record or end up as their own media play.

In that sense… Isn’t it quite impactful to see the same singer’s name appearing twice in the top 20?

Of course, the big moon was also checked.

– Do you think it will? Ohhh! the first!

It was like this.

‘So I thought it was almost confirmed and proceeded… .’

But here suddenly a rookie does something similar?

I rolled my head right away.

‘Unless a bigger change happens, the sales volume or the final score of streaming will inevitably be lower for rookies than us.’

In other words, according to Billboard, which calculates weekly results, we win unconditionally.

‘But that’s not the point.’

Even if the song ranks lower than ours, isn’t it the way the public perceives us as dark horses?

-Amazing, Great. A rookie is fighting for rankings with Testa

– What’s going on with K-Pop this year? What does this mean as a record… .

“… … .”

damn… No, I try to live.

“… hmm.”

I held my breath and asked as nonchalantly as possible.

“Anyway, our Billboard ranking came first, so the mission condition would be success, but two songs were listed in the top 20 for the first time. Then there’s nothing to worry about.”

Anyway, since we did it first, call it the first time and hit the mission success. This is it.

However, the big moon did not answer.

And as if creaking and slowly making excuses, the letters are slowly engraved.

[In this case… Uh, in public perception… It’s hard to say it’s an overwhelming record, but it’s a bit of a comparison because the active times overlap… . Especially if it’s a rookie group.]

“… … .”

this kid… ?

[It’s not my will, it’s my unconscious… ! Is it because the systemic unconscious judges? ! ㅠㅠ]

[I’m sorry hyung, but I really don’t know either. Will it be?]

“… … .”

Yeah, it’s not your fault.

‘Will it be? It won’t work.’

I sighed.

The young company is not stupid, and since it has become like this, it makes the media bite unconditionally while comparing it to Testa, who is active at the same time.

‘Because it’s perfect for raising the grade.’

Moreover, since they are a group with different genders, there is less feeling of fighting directly.

Then, the picture that Testa is recognized for its impact as a solo record has no choice but to skip water.

Because similar minor cases are catching up with momentum.

“… okay.”

I cooled my head.

‘Younglin… It’s a young young junior.’

And I realized They must have been introduced by Youngrin during the awards season last year. I smiled bitterly.

Anyway, there are so many variables in this neighborhood, so a tuk-tuk competitor pops up like this.

[brother… … .]

But now is not the time to accept it as a competition.

You have to tear it out completely.

To do so… I will have to intervene artificially.

“… … .”

It’s an intervention method.

I bowed my head in thought.

Opaque water filled with bath salts slithered. I can't see even an inch ahead, it seems like the current situation… .

for a moment.

"ah."

Right.

'The water must be muddy.'

Let's break the plate.

"This is fine as long as these rookies and us aren't mentioned together."

[?? that is… Is it okay?]

Why not ?

'It's enough to blur the tone and attach a different weight class.'

It's enough to make a more fun version for the public.

I sat and contemplated until the bathtub water cooled.

slash and slash

in the most profitable direction.

and the next day.

"Manager, wait a minute."

"yes?"

Before I even left my early morning schedule, I applied for an interview with the general manager.

It was the first voluntary contact since the contract with the label, and I wonder how it will be received.

hmm. and one more.

As I got into the car, I picked up my phone and texted.

[If you see the text message, please contact me when possible.] As soon as I put this in, I got a call right away.

-Ah hello, senior!

“hello.”

-yes!

It’s been a while since I heard a military voice.

“Thank you for calling. I have a question.”

Park Min-ha of the female idol group Mirinae, who is her immediate junior.

After a bit of a pause, I got to the point.

“Are you not worried these days?”

-… yes?

“It’s a matter of group orientation.”

okay.

I already established a label, so I want to contribute to the company.

Chapter 358

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 358

At the end of May this year, Testa became a flawless first team both domestically and internationally.

What does Mirinae, her direct subordinate, think of Testa, Park Min-ha, the de facto leader of Mirinae?

'How about… I just think of him as a senior.'

In the first place, I haven't seen much of it lately. This is because even in the company, the labels do not overlap because they create a separate area.

but there is this

'… Envy you! i envy you!'

Testa, who had escaped from the hands of the general manager, was a bit sarcastic, but in fact, there was no role model he envied more than that.

… And there was a certain senior member who contributed so much to her thinking that way.

'… The fact that they beat the label and announced it at the awards ceremony… Did you do that on purpose?'

Yes.

It's Testa's main vocalist, Park Moon-dae, who is in charge of 'Malangkong Rice Cake Apple Rice Cake Puppy'.

Park Min-ha let out an inner scream.

‘What is a puppy!’

I don’t know what you’re thinking, but if you come to your senses, you’ll be in the right place… Who is that person anyway?

“… … .”

‘Looking at it like this, in a sense, it’s like a celestial idol.’

It was scary anyway.

Thanks to that, it was a group of well-known seniors, so let’s get on well.

‘What if I send my older sisters and younger siblings away because friendship with the opposite sex is the poison of idols… !’

But I don’t know how such a scary person can look so harmless once the camera is running.

‘… In reality, it’s a bit difficult to approach.’

With many years of self-management and (I don’t know if Park Min-ha) invested in stats, Park Moon-dae was already in the mood to engage in a job with a camera attached to anyone.

But even now, when I watch the video, it’s frightening to see that the image of a friendly dog suits him well.

It deserved to be an example.

‘… let’s be great really.’

So, you will make a promise to yourself.

‘When the contract renewal season comes, we will really do it right!’

I will protect this group without being caught in the middle of the day… !

However, at the timing of doing so for a while, the phone call came from the person concerned.

It's also very significant.

-Are you worried these days?

"… … ."

The moment he heard that, all sorts of possible bad endings popped up in Park Min-ha's head.

what? what?

'What are you thinking… .'

So, like a reaction robot, an acceptable answer came out.

"I worry about as much as other people do! Still, I'm satisfied with my life where I can meet fans like this as an idol… ."

-hmm. yes.

Park Mun-dae did not stop talking and listened to all the stories.

Thanks to this, the repertoire for social life answers was rapidly depleted.

'Ahh!'

The pressure to say something more intensifies.

'Oh please!'

Isn't it between us to discuss our worries, senior!

Fortunately, Park Moon-dae gave Park Min-ha a hint right before she passed out.

– Well, fortunately. But do you have any other concerns?

“… … If you say different, what kind of things are you talking about? .”

-I wonder if the company is okay recently.

“A company?”

-yes. As Testa went out independently as a label, there was some distance between them, so I don’t know.

Park Moon-dae calmly wrote.

-But I think you continue to operate all groups centered on the United States. We are also active in that direction these days, so what about the juniors?

“ah.”

If that’s it.

The moment Park Min-ha opened his mouth like a conditioned reflex.

Because it was a problem I was really thinking about, and there were a lot of things piled up.

Even after I say it, I regret it saying ‘I was caught’. But it wasn’t a trap, it was a stepping stone to a proposal that was really good for Mirinae.

Of course, Moondae Park was right.

* * *

-… So, I am still working hard!

“hmm.”

I organized the information about the rookie group that Park Min-ha explained in quite detail about the current situation of Mirinae and the rookie group that I obtained quietly between the lines.

First of all, Mirinae's current position is… .

'It's ambiguous.'

is stagnant

This guy also has ideas, so instead of swearing at the company, he glossed over it, but he seems to know himself that the momentum and controversy at the time of his debut have died down.

It deserves it. As they keep making music that can be enjoyed overseas and promoting mainly on that side, the connection with the domestic public is weakening.

'Still, the fandom is fine.'

Since their own content is good and the quality of their active capital is good, the influx of fandom itself is steady.

'It's patterned like that.'

In a word, the public's interest has declined and the music source has weakened slightly, but the album sales are still rising, becoming a fandom-type idol.

'Anyway, I've settled down as a successful idol.'

However, if they explode their popularity just once, they can become a group that really has it all, but the company will continue to target only the US, so it will explode.

In the meantime, that new female idol came out of a young company.

And it started to hit the jackpot.

-That's right There are a lot of people who are really good at it these days! We are also thinking that we should work harder… .

That's what this word means after all.

‘I feel threatened because of the overlapping positions.’

A trendy female idol with global recognition, especially in the Western world.

Two similar images.

The problem is not only that the image overlaps in the US market, but also that the selling point in Korea is blurred.

And more intense latecomers usually take their place naturally.

So maybe now is the right time, before the buzz goes all the way to that rookie girl idol.

I crossed my arms with my smartphone between my neck.

‘… I’m fine.’

Mirinae has an established first-team image, and her album sales are strong.

Rookie girl idol Pauty has a strong overseas sound source even though the music market is weak right now, and domestic sound sources are also on the rise based on its topicality.

Each has strengths and weaknesses.

‘I like to make a game more because the game is perfect.’

There is nothing more fun to watch a fight than seeing similar positions running side by side.

I concluded However, there was one more gateway to go through.

‘Because it’s someone else’s business.’

the intention of the parties.

I waited for Park Min-ha's words in moderation, and opened my mouth again around the time it was over.

"yes. thank you for telling me. And I have one more question."

-yes?

I asked slowly.

"Even if it gets a little noisy, would it be better for more people to be interested in the group's activities?"

-… … .

You know what I mean by 'get rowdy'.

'It's about swearing.'

Of course, the lower the topicality, the less swearing.

Past photos of speech, hand movements, and plastic surgery… Rather than feeling the pain of being beaten in the brain by absurd rumors, they prefer the stable current situation.

'It's not strange for people who have experienced < Azusa > to have trauma.'

I waited.

But after a while, a solid voice came from the phone.

-of course.

good. You have guts.

I passed the conclusion that came to my satisfaction.

"Then can the company proceed like that?"

– How are you?

like this.

From the very next day, articles started pouring in on the entertainment front.

* * *

[Rookie Pouty's unstoppable global propaganda… 'Breaking girl group record'?]

[Pouty Mirinae beat Blue Rain and '#1 in the search index']

[Mirinae's comeback announcement, 'Monster Rookie' was conscious?]

The knights There were explicit mentions and a little concealment, but in the end the tone was the same.

'Didn't Pouty beat Mirinae as soon as he debuted?'

Contents that subtly foretold the dominance of Pouty filled the article.

And of course, the sounds that would come out in response began to come out.

Extreme clamor of all kinds.

-Stop grabbing my hair

-If you're going to do this, let youngrin or comeback… I've turned my eyes to rookies, you crazy bastards, someone built a building for you -but objectively, isn't it true that grades are better than

Mirinae's

? I would like to believe that it is aggro.

But there was one thing in common.

Everyone naturally believed that Youngrin's company would lead this publicity material article.

The media play by sniping at a senior celebrity in a similar position is a traditional way to raise awareness.

Of course, unless you're an idiot, a young company must have been thinking of distributing a similar press release, and I've confirmed that this is actually the case.

When an employee of our company contacted the media, they said that the agency had already promised to pass it on for promotional purposes first.

it was comfortable thanks

– So you like it? If you just change the subject, it's perfect.

The staff said so in a slightly excited voice.

therefore… .

'This is to help.'

I nodded.

It is a kind of donation.

Didn't he help out by beating some players that he would do in the first place? It was something to be thankful for at the company level.

Well, the one you were trying to shoot was not Mirina, but Testa, but… Nice to know we

I cool down the smartphone screen.

Articles were taken from all over the place, causing a commotion.

“The buzz is good.”

Mirinae’s fans must be a bit tired, but it’s better to consume something hot than to die and stagnate.

Rivals are good for motivation.

‘Even Mi-nae is a comeback soon.’

It would be nice if this could lead to a national topic.

-yes. I like the song!

You seemed confident.

I chuckled and threw my smartphone away.

Now, all we have to do is wait until Mirinae makes a comeback and the results come out.

‘When it’s ripe, the company will take care of it and put in a press release about our record… The mission results will be revealed within two weeks at the earliest.’

Then, if there are no other surprises, this gateway will pass.

‘It’s neat.’

I stretched lightly and stood up.

“ah.”

I have one more thing to take care of. Until the results come out, Testa should be playing solo with an image that has nothing to do with these guys.

help with that… Independent activities that are both topical and arousing.

what would it be

‘It’s a popular solo entertainment show.’

Coincidentally, the guys from the entertainment crew who had been making us go crazy in America contacted us again.

It was a very low time.

“Hello~”

“Hello!”

“Aigoo testers, please sit down quickly! oh my!”

A few days later, we were called to a meeting for a new variety show.

“If you look at the title… .”

Looking at the materials for the presentation, even the logo has already been picked out.

< That House's Grandson >

You can feel it from the naming sense.

‘It must be a fantastic composition.’

It’s rather good because it feels like I’m going to mess around.

Some familiar writers explained this with excited faces.

“Go downstairs and cook a little, and take care of the vegetable garden… I prepared something that really heals me.”

“Ahaha. yes!”

Of course it must be a trap. The members look back at each other and nod their heads.

‘What is it?’

‘I think I’ll give them self-denial training.’

‘That makes sense too.’

Should I borrow money from the countryside and ride a fishing boat this time?

But the writers persevered.

“Oh this time! Absolutely no fishing! Have some fun with mini games… Absolutely not anyway.”

okay. Let’s pretend we’re fishing.

“really?”

“yes!”

The author vehemently affirms it. We laughed and tried to nod our heads, but the writer added his words first.

With eyes roaring with resentment.

“Or you can sue me, really!”

“… … .”

Sue?

An embarrassed smile appeared on Liu Qingyu’s face. Other guys are similar.

‘Hey, I think he’s serious.’

Are you saying that you are going to create a simple healing program that will soothe the hearts of the weary modern people?

“Since you’re an idol, you can go with a meaningful feeling by combining a bit of professional knowledge! We also show the residents… “

Kim Rae-bin admired it.

“… ! It sounds like a really meaningful opportunity!”

“Well, that’s right. The purpose is good.”

Bae Se-jin is looking through the data again with a slightly relieved face, while Seon Ah-hyun is taking notes.

Everyone is in a peaceful mood.

“… yes.”

And I looked back at the big Sejin.

The guy was desperately putting on a smile, but the moment our eyes met, his eyes trembled.

‘okay.’

It was a big deal.

‘It sounds like healing.’

Chapter 359

If you can't debut, you get a fatal disease Episode 359

Rumble.

"… The scenery is nice."

"There is a cow over there… !"

Idyllic road scenery passes by beyond the commenters clinging to the window.

Yes. We are loaded into a typical chartered tour bus and are on our way to the countryside.

Of course, there were cameras all over the bus. In other words, since this will also appear on the air, it means that it cannot be wasted.

"Wow~ Is there a karaoke machine here?"

"Oh, it's been a while since I saw that."

"Call me! Mike, please!"

"okay! Shall we bet?"

Keun Se-jin smiled and lifted the karaoke microphone and raised the atmosphere. It's an entertainment type attitude that seems almost desperate.

I understand.

I can't stand this peaceful and uncut atmosphere.

“Come on~ Our main vocalist has to sing just one song here!”

You work really hard.

“Give me.”

“Ohhh!”

I chose a popular song that was about 10 years old and sang it as exciting as possible while trying to draw the best number.

This one is equally desperate.

‘When I arrived, there was a possibility that it was a deep-sea fishing boat… It’s not there.’

Producers, please do what you do well.

“That blue sea~ Cool wind~”

“Oh! Oh oh!”

Please let’s go with the meta that feeds the cast!

But when I finally arrived, what I saw… … It is a cozy and warm rural farmhouse.

“… … .”

A picturesque country house with a veranda on a blue roof and lots of sunlight.

members are excited

“Whoa!”

“It is a wonderful home with a very cozy feeling!”

“… … .”

no… Appearance may be fake. yes it is important

But after entering.

“here… The floor is warm.”

“There is a sense of life, so it feels more friendly.”

“It really is… !”

Neatly organized ondol rooms have a nostalgic charm, from mother-of-pearl cabinets and white porcelain classics to colorful candy cans and table tops.

“Have you seen the refrigerator?”

“… Yes, there were many.”

The kitchen is equipped with various seasonings and rice side dishes.

The sunlight shines through the windows, and the air is very warm. I swallowed.

‘… It’s better inside.’

It is a house where the so-called romance and longing of rural life are tightly packed.

‘What kind of nonsense did the art director hear?’

With a title like < That House's Grandson >, why did you make the lodging so useless?

To dare not fuck the cast is a betrayal.

“Wow~ Really great! How do you do this?”

Big Sejin saw the atmosphere and already changed the content with a housewarming reaction.

try hard

In the meantime, the director also sneaks up on words.

“Haha everyone, I borrowed all of these from residents, so I have to return them at the end of the period, so please use them carefully~”

“Yes!”

Why are you talking like that with a warm expression on your face?

I opened my mouth just in case.

“If we have to pay… .”

“Oh, that can’t be the case~ Of course we paid for everything with the rental! never! No way!”

yes thank you very much

‘It really looks ruined.’

After a while, we finished the reaction at the word to gather on the veranda and came out.

“Grandchildren of Testa, please sit here~” and a light briefing on the contents follows.

“Yeah~”

It’s not much different from what I heard at the meeting. Living in the countryside, helping the elderly with their work and eating.

‘no fun… .’

Rather, it is a structure that we receive every day, unless it is a full-fledged hardcore volunteer activity.

And the production team's explanation did not end there.

"Next is how to get paid~"

A lucky bag is already on the table placed on the veranda. Liu Chengyu picked it up and opened it.

"what? WOW~"

"… that's interesting. Is it a bottle cap?"

In it, a circle engraved with an intaglio pattern sparkles.

"You can only spend one currency here, and you can learn more through various tasks!"

The director points to the lucky bag.

"Right~ < Carrot Coin >!"

"Oh oh!"

That sounds like an unsound name.

However, the members shine their eyes even at the toy-like coin made by pressing the bottle cap.

"Why is your name carrot?"

"It's because this is a one-to-one exchange with real carrots~"

"Hahaha!"

A generous reaction pours out even to the production crew who say anything.

"I understand~ Carrots and carrots!"

"Are you new?"

“Let’s use this for public money.”

And then I just nodded.

‘Then it is.’

There is no way that this drug-drinking production team could graze the cast so freely and abundantly.

‘I must have played with a coin.’

Obviously, the debt will snowball or the coin will be sorely lacking that it will create a puzzled picture.

‘Then for the impact… .’

I need to start with massive consumption.

finally head back I eagerly pounced on my luck.

“For now, let’s go see this from the market for a meal.”

“I will make a list of what to buy!”

Shall we aim for the picture that makes us panic after seeing the price?

As I entered the grocery store, I asked the production crew meaningfully, holding a coin given to me by Ryu Chung-woo.

“Are you lending me this too?”

However, the production team responded sternly.

“no. I’m just giving you the initial funds!”

“… yes.”

… … It doesn’t seem like a lie.

well it could be If so, do you feel like you are running out of coins because the prices are ridiculously high?

We started shopping.

“How much is this?”

Towels are a must. Surely surprise people by asking outrageous prices for this kind of thing… .

“Ah~ young people are those… Anyway, these are two carrot coins! Just give me that!”

“thank you. please.”

“… ?”

for a moment.

“Please buy that!”

“Does Eugene want to eat dalgona? Okay~ Auntie, how much is this?”

“Oh wow, you look so handsome. uh? That’s great~”

“Thank you! My aunt is also very beautiful~”

“Really? Then, 7 of these and that one coin are perfect!”

“… Hey! Awesome! thank you!!”

“… ?”

What you choose is ridiculously cheap.

‘They’re giving it away.’

what is this

After receiving dalgona from Keun Se-jin and almost missing it, I looked back at the production team and got lucky.

"… It's very cheap."

"The residents are all kind."

That means that the residents arbitrarily set prices for things.

Then the camera goes back and it's not even real money, so of course I'll give it away!

'Is there a screw missing in the head?'

Did these lax, meaningless, free rules come out of their minds?

"Then, shall we go in and have a quick meal?"

"It's nothing. Shall I try this time… ? How much meat is grilled… ."

"… It's good."

-Free water, easy work, good house, difficult to solve.

I made a comprehensive judgment.

'It's ruined.'

Who would want to see a filthy, well-known idol doing simple healing to his heart's content?

No, of course, fans might want to see it, but… No matter what, there must be some kind of stimulus that will arouse some interest.

'There's no curve.'

With this bland structure, you can't catch the emotion, laughter, or spiciness.

In a word, it's a blind man who knows everything.

I'd rather have them do flex in a great place. Right now, the concept is neither one nor the other.

'It will turn.'

I shoveled dalgona into my mouth and suppressed my drool.

Of course, in fact, I tried to reroute the program several times before setting off.

Everything was good, from the forced march concept to the horror special. If only I could make it a little more provocative.

But surprisingly it didn't work.

-Oh, that's a bit… . Yes?

– I don't think so.

All entrance cuts.

The production team said they had already finished talking with the agency and left like a snake.

'Why are these bastards so obsessed with healing while brushing their teeth so well?'

The program right before it was also a quiz show where the actors got into trouble, so why are you doing this to us?

I tasted bitterly.

'Is it too hot?'

Because Testa is so popular, it seems that if we roll it right now, we will say something different or the fans will get angry.

It's a situation that's likely enough, so it's just an appetite. Sweet and bitter X feet.

"Hey~ Look at this at Mundaemundae. There are eels here too!"

"wait."

I decided to find a job and do more.

Now that this has happened, what can I do if I have to imprint the image of a harmonious workaholic in order to benefit from the image.

'If it doesn't exist, I'll make it.'

Thanks to that, the sweet and sour pork I made for dinner came out amazingly well, including all the useless steps.

… It would be nice if this could be used as a mukbang at least. Please.

* * *

Attempts to somehow weave the contents continued, but no matter how much I thought about it, I couldn't come up with an angle.

amazingly peaceful

'It's gone.'

Still, something came after dinner on the first day.

The guys who went downstairs came wearing something.

"Voila!"

"wow… ."

A grinning Liu Cheng-wu places a black-nosed, white-haired dog on the verandah.

The guy energetically plays with all fours.

“king!”

“… … .”

I almost reached out inadvertently, but then took it again.

A tuft of hair small enough to be picked up and lifted.

“I met the camera director’s grandmother, and she said it was one of the puppies from that house’s dog.”

“I kept following him and saying Okay and bringing him back!”

“This name is Mungerae.”

“king!”

The dog gets stuck between me and Saejin Bae and struggles. Bae Se-jin’s face turned red.

“Can I listen?”

“You’ll just have to grab the side here.”

I watched the stupid, thoughtless face of the dog and its fluttering tail.

‘This… It might be okay.’

Because people love dogs.

Besides, it’s obvious that he doesn’t even have a breed, so there’s no needless controversy. hmm. good.

I nodded my head inwardly, quite willingly.

“Since this puppy also came to Testane, I should get a working name~ How about Mundaengdaeng?”

“hey.”

Then, reacting hypersensitively to Sejin Sejin’s bullshit, he ran through the yard with Sejin Sejin and the dog.

“ha ha ha!”

I wondered if the threshold for laughter was too low, but the members and staff laughed anyway.

… maybe not bad From that day on, the dog slept together in the middle of the ondol room.

Even after that, the small work continues.

Digging potatoes Watering crops Feeding ducks Giving villagers massages.

And what I do now is deliver groceries.

“Oops!”

“We are almost done.”

It is to distribute goods to farmhouses far away.

Traveling the country roads with the dog was perfect to do without thinking.

and on the way back.

“Hey, shall we take a break over there?”

“Good judgment!”

There are no restrictions, so you can use your time as you please.

That’s why in the late afternoon right before sunset, you can put a bicycle hanging on a cart and sit in the pavilion.

“I want to lie down~”

“Me too!”

And you can even stretch it out.

‘He does everything.’

They were lying together in the picture, but it is questionable whether there will be a replacement for this.

At that time, Seon Ah-hyun, who was lying next to him, murmured briefly.

“I think this kind of thing is good too.”

“… … .”

“Without any worries… It’s been a while since I’ve spent time.”

“… I know.”

In the meantime, I ran hard and ran hard. It’s a job where you’ll fall if you stop.

‘It’s to the point of making plans to efficiently rest even when resting.’

… It must be such a long time.

Time passes aimlessly.

“Boo… .”

Bae Se-jin, who just ran into the supermarket, asked for a hard drive he had brought.

it tastes like fruit The grass is shaking in the gentle breeze.

“Smells good.”

“huh.”

It’s still.

I lay in the pavilion and realized that I was quite relaxed.

“… … .”

perhaps… Maybe this isn’t too bad.

‘This is why… Are healing entertainment programs still appearing?’

Looking back, it seems like the supply is pouring in because it’s also secretly popular, but there might be a demand for this relaxing feeling.

‘I’m sure it will feel like getting away from the exploding sexual fight.’

I fixed my head. And I thought.

‘… Should I just leave it this time?’

Even if I enjoyed it a little without thinking about entertainment or anything else, it seemed that there would be no problem in clearing the mission.

Shall we trust the production team’s editing skills and delegate the contents this time?

‘It could be that I was looking for something overly stimulating since I took my first step in variety shows with < Azusa >.’

I don’t know the taste of organic.

I slowly put my head on the floor enjoying the sweetness of the ice cream.

It wasn’t so bad that this narrow pavilion was mumbling.

* * *

Two peaceful days passed like that.

By the time the members and I finally got used to this simple life.

“hello everyone!”

“hello!”

The production crew, who came like a knife every morning, showed up again and called us.

‘I’ll give you other trivial things to do.’

However, there was something that was done before the work briefing today.

“Do you guys want to play a mini game for a while?”

“A mini game?”

“yes. There was a brief event this morning, let’s decide what happened there with a mini game!”

“Ohhhh.”

The mini game was a simple play against the production team.

Until now, I often did it, and if I won, I would win snacks or fireworks.

So, everyone naturally agreed and participated.

“Wow~ It seems that Munge always goes to Mundae.”

“Haha, I guess I feel the same way because I’m a puppy.”

“… brother.”

Ryu Cheong-wu, even this guy is like this.

I participated and lost by petting the dog without much tension.

“ah.”

“What could it be?”

“are you okay! We do more work!”

Everyone is not agitated. An atmosphere where we just laugh and encourage each other.

“Then I’ll pull out a penalty note about what happened to our event.”

“Yeah~”

So far, the penalty note has been written with sounds such as ‘One volunteer activity today’ and ‘Buy corn’.

And there are only two notes left.

“Let Labin pick it.”

“All right!”

Today’s hitter, Kim Rae-bin, vigorously pulled out one of the two remaining penalty notes.

and hardened

“… ??”

“Rabin?”

“what’s the matter?”

“Please read Mr. Rabin~”

Raebin Kim opened his mouth with trembling pupils at the production team’s call.

“An unidentified night visitor came in this morning… Did you steal all of Testa’s precious < carrot coins >?”

“… !”

Chapter 360

If you don't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 360

One hour has passed since it was revealed that all the carrot coins were stolen.

"Gaaaagh."

The inside of the comfortable dorm is a mental mess.

Kim Rae-bin, the person who pulled out the note, is stuck in a corner as if he had taken a shower in a cold sweat.

"Carrots… Carrot" seems to have a big impact.

"therefore… ."

Liu Qingyu calmly opened his mouth.

"You mean we're without a penny right now."

ridge!

If it has been edited, an exclamation mark will appear above your head. These guys are really shocked.

I crossed my arms and said silently.

"In a word, beggars."

“That’s it… .”

“No, how could this happen overnight?”

There is only one dog.

Hairballs jump around the devastated guys as if to cheer them up.

Miaang! Wow!

The complexion of the members brightens a little.

“Yes, I’m glad our Mungumunge didn’t steal it. right?”

“Ughhh!”

“… I’m still a baby and there was a risk of that, but I’m glad I did. You weren’t even hurt.”

Are you sincere?

No, I want to be like this because some entertainment money has disappeared, but the side effects of relaxing people as they have been for the past two days… .

no, it’s not a side effect.

”… !”

‘I got hit.’

These bastards planned all of this and did so well.

In order to properly pull out the shocked appearance in a disarmed state… .

‘It’s astounding.’

– Huh? What should I do? Why did you pull this out? The other note wouldn’t have that content.

-Then show me so I can check it out!

-Uh~ You can't do that! We have to write it next time too!

– Aww! really!

'He must have prepared a note with the content of coin robbing both of them.'

I held back the swearing while remembering the face of the shameless PD guy.

It's called healing, bitch!

no… Let's stay calm. Programmatically, this is the part where it will be fun for a while. healing… Yes, two days of healing is enough.

You should think so. I absolutely think so. Don't get upset. If you get upset here, you lose.

In the meantime, Seon Ah-hyun kept her mouth shut, then raised her hand as if she had made up her mind.

"Yes, Ahyeon."

"Because there is a poetry room… I made something that… Let's see if there's actually anyone… ?"

"wow."

"Hmm, people with dexterity can come up with ideas like this."

It was a good idea. The image of group 1 idols sitting together and doing the crafts of gluing doll eyes would be different and funny if they were desperate.

However, this is the intention of the producers.

“… It’s true that you’re great… Isn’t catching the culprit more important than that? The production team said so too.”

Yes, that would be the direction this program prefers.

– Who the hell are you?? who stole it?

-yes! This mysterious night visitor is someone currently residing in this town!

Bae Se-jin swallowed.

“You mean to grab it openly.”

“Mmm.”

The members were troubled. After a while, Kim Rae-bin muttered seriously with a pale face.

“If harm is done… .”

“Oh, that doesn’t work.”

“yes yes. It can be dangerous… .”

no it’s overindulgence This isn’t a genre entertainment, and it can’t be that the production staff who put funny things as their top priority.

Big Sejin nodded seriously.

“yes. It could be dangerous.”

you are so excited Is it that hardships and adversity finally come and you can pull out the amount?

Liu Cheng-wu came up with a mediation plan.

“But right now we don’t have enough to eat… Let’s start by helping out and earning coins.”

“yes!”

“Then let’s see who the thief might be. There must be a hint.”

“good… That is a wise decision.”

That much is good. I felt immersed in it, and compared to the picture I was volunteering with Haha Hoho the day before, it’s really… That must be funny.

“… … .”

no, don’t get mad

Anyway, we set off on that road in search of the locals with cameras attached.

“Father~ Is it okay if we continue cleaning the yard we did yesterday? If you give me some coins, I’ll do it for you!”

“Huh? It’s okay.”

But surprisingly people don’t give a job.

“… ?”

“How many houses have we been rejected?”

“Five houses.”

An unnatural situation for anyone to see.

Even the grandmother of the sixth house clicked her tongue and said:

“oh my… that coin? I don’t have that anymore Hey guys, can’t we just take a drink or two of that rice?”

The production team responded brightly instead.

“No~”

“Why are you answering instead?!”

“It’s the rule, it’s the rule! Why are people who know all about the pay system doing this!”

These kids are real.

The love of the countryside that the production team was crying for seems to have died suddenly overnight.

At this point, Ryu Cheng-wu also laughs and asks if Seong-gun-ja is also full of stone.

“Then what do we do?”

“so! We have something prepared just in case~”

Yes, that’s right.

‘Surely they’ll make us do ridiculous labor… .’

“It’s a carrot farm!”

“… !”

It’s not the scale I thought it would be.

We took a short bus ride and arrived at the end of a green farm on a flat plain.

“and… .”

“It is very spacious.”

How did you contact this, no, you must have contacted this and decided on the lodging and type of coin.

The PD opened his mouth with a smile on his face.

“Did I mention that physical carrots are exchanged for Carrot Coins on a one-to-one basis?”

“Ah~ I remember!”

“that’s right.”

Among the admiring members, Kim Rae-bin smiled with a relieved face.

Oops.

“Then, are you directly exchanging the harvested carrots for coins? ?”

“Uhh~ Guys, those carrots have been grown for a long time since someone else farmed them in the field

. … .”

I thought so.

And the PD makes a suggestion like a robbery.

“Once you cash in everything from here to there today, 5 coins per person per day!”

“Hey!”

“Oh I won’t!!”

“I’m leaving.”

The production crew hold back their laughter as they see the frightened guys.

is it funny

“Everyone, you should eat.”

“… … .”

Those who are accustomed to the absurdity of the program begin to move their bodies in a moment, even with their devastated eyes.

“Shall we start from there?”

“okay.”

“I hate carrots.”

Even if you grumble, in the end you will do your best.

I grabbed a hoe, dug up the ground, and pulled out the scarlet root vegetable.

‘The picture will come out well.’

Even if they wander, they will come out as pure and sincere young people who do not lose their original intention and sing tricks and work hard.

Or, again, the duped puppies.

‘X feet.’

Either way is an advantage… It’s quite tingly because I got caught in a fake and got hit in the back of the head properly.

‘Is it a land-sea fishing boat version?’

“Let’s put it here!”

“okay.”

The time of heavy labor to fill the huge basket continues.

PD grabbed the megaphone.

“Okay, five! I won’t straighten my back until I pull it out~”

“Ahh! Will you take responsibility if our backs go out?”

“Huh? Is the daily wage too high?”

“sorry.”

To be honest, it’s not too much for the body. Compared to when I was practicing for a long time, I was just tired.

“Work, work!”

“… … .”

Still, the atmosphere is just right.

The atmosphere of working like a serf in the Middle Ages is pissing me off… After editing, of course, it becomes fun. This must be it.

‘I understand.’

Sometimes I looked at the production crew with a guilty eye and diligently peeled carrots. I had to be patient up until this point.

The problem arises from

“Here’s the crew!”

“Wow!”

“We haven’t eaten carrots for a while. I won’t even eat carrot cake.”

“Yes, it’s Moondae.”

We went to the mart to buy dinner with our hard-earned coins… face exorbitant prices.

“that… Just give me ten!”

“… !?”

Suddenly, the price of dalgona jumped tenfold.

“20 pieces per keun?”

“We die!”

The meat also skyrocketed.

Of course, the blinded guys ran to the crew and shouted.

“I heard there is no manipulation!”

“We never! We didn’t arbitrarily set the price, everyone~ Absolutely not!”

Kim Rae-bin asked with a face almost bewildered.

“Then what is this situation… .”

“No, how can we know a person’s heart~? Everyone sells it at the price they want.”

“… … .”

I clenched my fist.

I don’t know who the person who came up with the opinion is, but I really wanted to stick with just one.

In the end, I returned home with a shabby shopping cart that was incomparable to the previous two days.

I boldly declared.

“I make homemade stew.”

“iced coffee… … .”

“Sujebi… It’s delicious.”

Still, it is useful to react.

“sorry… . The starting point of everything… … my negligence… .”

“What are you talking about! Of course, the PD-nim did the trick!”

Kim Rae-bin, who pulled out the note, is almost stunned, and Bae Se-jin and a dog are comforting him.

“… … .”

I can’t.

I hit the big sejin that I was putting my luggage in the kitchen.

“Flour and butter left.”

“uh? uh uh I left it… why?”

“for a moment.”

I checked the butter I had bought overspending the first day and headed to the kitchen.

I’m sure it’s up to me how I use the free time I gave to insult the producers.

* * *

Park Moon-dae makes something.

‘Mmm.’

As soon as Ryu Cheng-wu washed and came out, he smelled a savory smell. And I saw the back of Park Moon-dae moving steadily in the kitchen.

‘… is it a form? They said it was handmade.’

Even in the midst of this, being conscious of the camera angle and paying attention to the cooking process to be well filmed was truly his own behavior.

‘So calm.’

It’s obviously an upsetting situation, but I’m silently making a realistic answer. I felt like a brother in this place.

Ryu Cheng-wu cautiously entered the kitchen.

“Do you need anything?”

Moondae Park opened the air fryer.

Then, along with the savory smell… A yellow cookie appears.

“Would you like to sample something?”

“ah.”

it was a cookie

At that moment, Cha Yu-jin came out.

“I want to eat!”

“It’s hot, so be careful.”

“Whoops!”

Ryu Chung-woo realized it when he saw Cha Yoo-jin, who put a cookie in his mouth and raised his thumb with shining eyes.

‘Looks like he’s thinking of selling sweets.’

It was a really good idea. The reaction of the members who did not want to go to the carrot field again seemed to be good.

“Fortunately, the.”

Liu Cheng-wu admired both the taste and the idea.

‘I’ll have to keep an eye on it and assist when cooking in large quantities.’

But that idea is quickly shattered.

This is because Park Moon-dae, who swept more than half of the cookies into a tin as soon as it cooled down, said this.

“The other kids are making sujebi… Let’s go together.”

“… me?”

where?

And Park Moon-dae accompanied himself on foot… I went to the town hall just after dinner.

‘… ??’

What the hell is going on?

“Hello, old man.”

“ah! Aren’t you the star who came from Seoul with a camera!”

“The camera came with me today too. And what have I been making? It’s soft, so it should be perfect to eat now.”

“Oh, what else!”

Park Moon-dae scattered cookies thanks to the enthusiastic support of the elderly who found something interesting in a long time.

Liu Cheng-wu suddenly joined the action.

Park Mun-dae went even further and sold Ryu Cheong-wu himself.

“This hyung won a gold medal in the Olympics in archery. Do you remember?”

“Oh my gosh!”

“Yes, I think I remember hey~”

“Hahaha.”

Ryu Chung-woo smiled, shook hands eagerly, and gave him a massage, but he still didn’t know why Park Moon-dae was doing this.

“Shall I sing a song?”

“Draw, draw~”

Park Moon-dae even sang trot on his own and even danced ‘POP CON’, doing all sorts of jokes.

“… … ??”

Ryu Chung-woo’s feelings became more complicated, but he himself chose a line of the song without saying anything and answered the questions of the elders diligently.

‘I must have an idea.’

And when the atmosphere is completely ripe and the elders’ barriers are lowered.

Park Moon-dae went to the main point.

“Perhaps this bottle cap. Did the people from Seoul say anything about it today?”

“Ah that!”

Amidst the cameraman's bewilderment, Park Mun-dae finally hears the truth.

"That is… ."

I opened my mouth.

"So you said you decided to give the newest massage chair to the 10 residents with the most carrot coins."

The situation where all the members who heard the whole story of the incident gathered and confronted the production team on the veranda.

The PD seems to be trying to avoid eye contact. Soon he mumbled more shamelessly.

"Did you hear that?"

"Aww!"

"Right!"

"How could you do that to us really!"

Criticism runs rampant.

Even Seon Ah-hyun blushed.

"Healing or he told me to sue… !"

"Huh?"

The PD naturally recommended it.

"Do it~ Sue me!"

"… !!"

“No, a carrot coin~ Is this a real currency? I don’t know if it’s a bottle cap!”

“Ah!”

shaking.

Sejin Bae muttered with his shoulders shaking and his teeth clenched.

“I will not forget… .”

“PD-nim~ One day this will all come back as karma!”

Then, the PD also hurriedly excuses himself, as if he was a bit stung.

“No guys… You’re not going to do this to me. The thief who stole! There are definitely!”

“… !”

“If only we could find the culprit! Return all coins… We will also give you a prize on our own! 100 Coins!”

“… ! Really?”

“Really~ Did you just buy tricks?”

oh you lied

“… … .”

I took a deep breath.

okay. This is so funny and fun.

Testa has become accustomed to this production team through numerous fraudulent experiences.

So, this is the right way to create more stimulating and fun pictures.

‘It’s also the best for choosing cuts that make the kids risk their lives to find the culprit and tremble in front of the elders and production crew.’

“… … .”

however… Why are you being treated like this? M An unexpected drawing by design? i’m not funny I.

“Are you dumb? are you okay?”

“… … .”

I made up my mind.

PD’s voice echoes.

“Find the culprit~”

It was dawn after midnight that day. The point at which the production crew also withdrew with only the unmanned camera.

drooling.

I quietly opened the door and came out.

Of course not alone.

“I… Moondae hyung.”

Kim Rae-bin, dressed in a training suit, followed with a confused look on his face.

“I am… Would it be all right if I ask what you are going to do with me?”

“Pick up a shovel and follow me.”

“… ??”

“I’m going to go pick up carrots from now on.”

I won’t let go.

Chapter 361

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 361

Walking through the rice paddies in the countryside at night can be quite creepy. It's because there are not so many lights like in the city, and the street lights are flickering intermittently.

Still, it doesn't seem to have much effect on people who are used to it from the beginning.

I asked the guy who was trudging along with a shovel.

"Aren't you afraid?"

"… ! Maybe I have a reason to be afraid… ."

done. let's keep going I picked up my smartphone and turned on the video recording mode.

"Is it a camera?"

"I think we should film how the situation is going."

I waved my hand at the selfie camera. Kim Rae-bin also hangs his head in the cold.

"hello everyone. The time now is 3:30 in the morning. We left the house safely."

"That's right."

"I will explain why I came out."

I boldly declared.

“No more carrot economic fraud… We decided to start a revolution.”

“yes??”

“revolution.”

Kim Rae-bin’s pupils began to tremble.

“I… brother. Of course, getting carrot coins is important, but wouldn’t it be rude to dig up someone else’s field? .”

“That is of course rude.”

“yes?”

I stopped at an obscure area where a stream starts at the end of a rice field.

It must have come this way.

“Let’s leave the shovel here and go.”

“The shovel… ?”

Kim Rae-bin becomes dazed for a while, but regains his intelligence again.

“If you’re still pulling carrots, wouldn’t it be easier to bring a shovel?”

I chuckled.

“The destination is not a carrot field.”

“… !”

“If you do this, other people will know that you are going to a carrot field, so I brought it out.”

There are unmanned cameras all over the house. Of course, someone from the youngest must be watching on duty.

If so, our sudden action would have been reported as well.

“I’m heading to the carrot field,” he said.

‘I should have predicted it in the first place.’

Coins and carrots with a one-to-one exchange rate.

Then, wouldn’t there be people who go to frost real carrots in the middle of the night?

Just look at Kim Rae-bin right now.

“Are you worried that you’re going to steal crops from someone else’s carrot field?”

“I never question my older brother’s morality, and since it’s an entertainment show, I thought it might be possible to do that kind of behavior!”

“okay. I had a lot of trouble thinking about it. Worry no more.”

It’s because fishing aimed at it in reverse.

‘Where are you in the carrot field, look at me.’

For those of you who can’t catch up, aren’t we recording separately like this?

I put a flashlight and a hoe on the shovel. And I moved on again.

“Are you throwing it away?”

“No, I’ll leave it for a while and come back and take it. It’s kind of like walking into a store with a shovel.”

“It is, but… Are there any shops open this morning?”

“Yes.”

I raised my finger and pointed to a faintly sparkling sign in the distance.

“A 24-hour business trip.”

“… ?”

Kim Rae-bin follows his finger and turns his gaze. I took it with my camera.

A puzzled face fills the screen.

“why… How are you?”

“I hear you’ve visited places like this before and made a request.”

I heard it last time I was talking about my childhood.

“yes. It is, but… .”

“Okay, I believe in you.”

“… ?? Oh I see!”

Kim Rae-bin became more confused, but answered quickly. It’s really easy to work because he doesn’t throw up.

“good. Let’s go in.”

We entered an old building that was still lit.

Red letters blow in the wind on illegal road advertisements.

[Woori General Hardware Store]

[Emergency business trip available – open 24 hours]

* * *

And a bright morning.

“Is everyone awake?”

“good morning… .”

“… Why are you guys coming out of the hallway instead of your room… ?”

We returned home after 7pm.

I don’t have anything in my hand. It’s just the tools I took with me when I left.

The PD, who was camped out in the yard, asked in a panicked voice.

“Where have you two been?”

Still, since I sent a text message to the production team last night saying that I was on an adventure, I probably wouldn’t have filed a missing person report.

I answered, putting the shovel back in the yard.

“I was going to go to the carrot field, but I got lost.”

“Hahahaha!”

Are you happy?

Be very happy. it’s more fun that way

And after the production team’s interrogation, questions from colleagues pour in.

“What did you do? Did you eat something delicious with Raebin Kim? Did you do something fun?”

“no. I’m starving.”

“Oh… all right. cheer up.”

Cha Yoo-jin passed.

And when you pass those who are still asleep or just woke up, one of them puts a headlock on you.

Of course it’s a big deal

“No, I am very sorry. How can I leave Sejin and cut the amount at night like this… Sobbing.”

let go man

“There is no such thing as quantity. Because I didn’t have a camera, I used a smartphone.”

“Isn’t Park Moon-dae’s filming skill taken like a complete professional? It must be an important scene, I’m more sad~”

Really.

“I thought I would get caught if there were a lot of people, so that’s okay? I took Rabin because he had a role to play.”

“oh… .”

Big Sejin stops crying and grins.

“Are you more and more curious?”

“I’ll deliver it before breakfast, so gather the kids.”

“hmm?”

I chuckled.

“Because you did a good job. We have to share.”

and after a while

The production crew hears Testa’s sudden declaration of going out.

“Everyone, you only have 4 coins, are you really going to the grocery store?”

“yes. I still want to go.”

“Ah, it’s good for us~ Everything is the heart of Testa’s grandchildren!”

As if oiled, use the tongue well once. He must have been excited to draw funny images of us nervous about buying anything.

Anyway, we went to the mart again in the morning accompanied by the production team.

As soon as I entered the entrance, Liu Chengwu explained in a kind voice.

“Guys, then shall we choose everything we want to eat?”

“Yeaaah! great!”

“Well then… I’ll bring you some fruit… !”

The production team was taken aback when they saw the members scattering in perfect order.

“Huh?”

“what?”

And the PD speaks to me in a coy voice.

“You know that frost in a carrot field is stealing, right? Double deducted as a penalty?”

“Because I didn’t.”

It seems to suspect that he dug up carrots and hid them in a corner of the field where the guards couldn’t reach.

Unfortunately, that’s not the case.

“Okay~ So this is the end?”

“for a moment.”

“Wamundae is big. One duck per person?”

When I go to the checkout with a mountain of items from the mart, the manager of the mart greets me again.

But what you say is different.

“Um~ Do all the coins… Just address that one.”

“… !!”

“Thank you~”

Cries of embarrassment from the production team attach to Sejin, who is just about to finish the calculation.

“Ha ha?”

“Wait.”

“This can’t be like this… ?”

“Huh? There’s no way this could happen. That’s what the manager said~ Hyung Chung-woo, please pay the bill!”

“Haha yes.”

Ryu Cheong-wu held out a coin and finished the calculation.

Chalkang!

Looking at the amount displayed next to it, I think I bought 300,000 won. Production costs are high.

PD barely asked.

"… What did you do?"

"What."

"No, what did you do?"

"Why do you keep doing that? Originally, residents voluntarily receive the price they want. Yes?"

"… … ."

Around the open-mouthed PD, the sound of other staff holding back laughter can be heard.

I motioned to Kim Raebin not to say anything and nodded.

"It's nice that it's cheap."

"I know."

Complete section 1 first.

After having a grandiose breakfast, I drove the trolley again to help the elderly.

"Yeah-ho!"

"Cha Yujin, you speed up! speed!"

And this time, enthusiastic and generous coins are pouring in.

"Take this~ Thank you for cleaning the yard yesterday~"

“Thank you… !”

“Oh, young people are having a hard time~ Here! I’m perfect! I put five.”

“wow! Dad really… After all, good-looking people have a different way of thinking, right?”

36 coins in just 3 hours.

More than the first day.

The members shrug their shoulders.

“Oh~ I earned as much as my daily wages at our carrot farm.”

“All right. let’s go.”

At this point, the PD self-destructed.

“Elderly massage chair… Don’t you need it?”

“I need it~ It would be great to have one~”

“Ugh!”

PD can’t stand it and starts to spit out alien words made up of exclamations.

If translated, it would be something like ‘the idiots who make the game dirty’. That’s too much praise.

I low-key high-fived the members.

Section 2 success.

And when it’s time to eat the new chimpanzee.

I prepared for the last exposition before I had a brain break.

“Finish washing the dishes~”

“Let’s take a break.”

Between the guys lying on the veranda, Ryu Cheng-wu secretly untied his lucky bag and put it in front of him, as if to lie down comfortably.

And the production crew, who were confused and asked about the news of the village, quickly asked for the rice cake.

“What the hell… .”

The artist, who was looking through the lucky bag just in case, soon found something.

“Huh?”

“why?”

Then, he calls PD furiously and holds out a coin.

“Is this different?”

“… !!”

The producers begin to hum. And for a while, turning the phone like crazy and running around.

Just in time, good news is delivered.

“Someone threw dozens of carrot coins in every house in the morning! I thought it was a special offer… .”

“… !”

oh i heard

It’s already too late though.

“… Testa’s grandchildren.”

“yes.”

“now… They say there are over a thousand carrot coins unlocked in this town?”

“is it so?”

okay.

If you think that your coin holdings are as high as the TOP 10 stable, wouldn’t it be natural for people to return?

“Even at the mart… There are about five hundred of them?”

“is it so.”

okay. We negotiated on the other side as well.

-If the camera comes in the future, please be able to buy all of them with one coin.

Anyway, since we charge the producers for the goods, there is nothing to lose.

“Everyone, how did this happen?”

“We don’t know. yes?”

“Well then.”

PD cries out.

“Mr. Moondae! Mr. Rabin! What did you do when you left at dawn?”

What are you doing, carrots?

I didn’t go to the field at dawn, but I did mine coins.

‘It’s because the mining method is different.’

So who wants to make coins sloppily like a gift toy for kids?

easy to replicate.

“No this… ! this! It’s fake.”

“What’s the problem?”

I tilted my head as I watched the astonished production team holding a yellow carrot-patterned coin that was identically printed at the hardware store.

“I don’t know. They look the same, aren’t they all the same?”

“Are they exactly the same?”

“… I don’t know the difference either.”

The production crew screams at the assistance of the members of the same name who naturally agree.

okay.

It’s fun to see a variety show where people who are originally popular suffer from unexpected situations.

But I think that’s not necessarily the style.

therefore… How about a certain entertainment production team that cheats on the cast members who have only walked the road to success so far?

those guys now.

“anyway! Mr. Moondae, Mr. Rabin, you must have ordered something from the hardware store!”

I guess you figured that out now.

“yes.”

“Right now, Testa’s grandchildren can only use carrot coins. What happened?”

PD exclaimed excitedly at the tail he finally caught.

I shrugged.

“Ah, he gave it to me for free as a fan of mine.”

“… !!”

“who! I work with a fan heart! You gave me money, right!”

uh. Of course, it was put on externally. It’s comfortable because a celebrity whose face is known is like this.

It was processed by real-time express at night, so it was several times more expensive, but it was not a waste.

But I answered without changing my expression.

“Do you have any proof?”

“Oops!”

If you do that well, I’ll catch your back.

And soon the PD changed the target.

“Mr. Rabin!”

“Yes yes?”

“Mr. Lavin, you are a good person. No, do you condone such lies?”

“That is… .”

Oh oh. That’s a good approach.

But I expected you to.

“I am not lying.”

“yes… ?”

Kim Rae-bin clenched his fists and said.

“And the carrot coin… It is a desirable flow to return a lot to everyone.”

“… !!”

“If there is a problem, I will provide you with a massage chair at my own expense!”

“yes??”

I already brainwashed myself for 2 hours… No, I persuaded him by explaining it well.

“… … .”

That’s how the production team sank.

“Buy everything from our mart at Moondaemundae. One coin.”

“Wait.”

“Why, you said you would get one because the residents voluntarily set the price.”

“sorry! sorry!”

Even the writers hurriedly lift up the sketchbooks they wrote down.

[We have rabbit-like production costs and PPL! Help me!]

Surrender unconditionally.

“healing! I’ll heal you!”

“Only this time?”

“Next time too! Next time, we will send you a hot spring over there as our very healing full course hot spring!”

In this way, the economic disturbance of the carrot coin system ended with a rice cake due to indiscriminate mass production.

And just at that point, the preview for episode 1 was released.

Chapter 362

If you can’t debut, you’ll get sick to death Episode 362

_____==

[Testa’s new variety show]

(Trailer video)

A fake producer who is famous for drawing legends every time. The combination of and Testa hahaha

+ I must be going to the countryside!

_____==

It’s 11:00 p.m. on weekdays with a lot of people watching something for a long time.

Rabin Kim’s fan saw the trailer on TV immediately before accessing the Internet, and of course, related conversations were going on in the community.

-Trust and see the combination

-Hey, grandchildren are already cute ㅠㅠ

-This time,

it must be real healing

. There are a lot of people who like this kind of thing, but what are you talking about lol

└Strike x lol

To sum it up, the response was moderately good because it is a steady seller country table content with a combination of production crews that only exploded with legends every time.

However, Kim Rae-bin's fans knew.

Not much aggro means it's not that hot.

'This means that only shundeok are commenting.'

During Hotteok and Uninhabited Island, it was so spectacular that it almost turned the internet bulletin board upside down, but now it's just normal.

A sigh came out.

"Whew."

He stabbed his older sister in the back while watching a TV trailer pretending not to be her younger brother.

"Why are they on variety shows? Isn't that nice?"

"Oh, if you don't know, shut up."

This is some kind of signal.

'Mannerism signal!'

There was no resentment or anger. I just thought of it like this.

'Is that the time… .'

Kim Rae-bin's fans were feeling a bit of a hit.

As a newcomer to society as a freelancer, she gradually began to compromise her personality with social life, so she felt a similar sentiment in Deokjil.

‘Now that I have completed my annual leave and won the grand prize, I want to do something comfortable like this.’

okay. We were all together and recognized each other after taking a few days off. Isn’t the title performance of this activity already crazy?

‘Where is the color of the eyes not dynamic?’

If it had been before, I would have run amok with something like ‘take out my favorite, like a medieval rabbit, among the youngsters who have lost their intentions’, but not anymore.

‘okay… They are human too, so what can they do about burnout?’

You just don’t show off in front of the camera. Because the stage is still crazy and I am good at managing myself.

‘Even if they fight, they seem to reconcile quickly.’

Not too long ago, during a concert in Japan, it seemed that Park Moon-dae and Lee Se-jin had a fight, but considering that it didn’t show up right away, the professionalism is still the same.

She quit after recalling the timeline of her secret account, which had briefly been speculated behind the scenes at the time.

The younger brother was annoyed.

“Hey, are you not going to see it?”

“I will see!”

Overall… It’s a little out of hand, but I’m thinking of expecting a natural disaster reversal like the uninhabited island.

‘Well, what kind of spectacle is it in the countryside? Seon Ah-hyun will set fire to the kitchen… .’

Still, that PD’s history was so splendid that she decided not to judge hastily.

And the day episode 1 aired.

she’s a bit embarrassed

“… hmm.”

Unexpectedly… Is it fun?

It all started with the production crew, who gathered testers at the time of the meeting and called for healing this time.

Of course, Testa didn’t believe it.

[Ryu Chung-woo: Um… It’s scary.]

[Lee Se-jin: Hey, we just… In fact, it was rural Alaska! Is this like this?]

[Writer: It’s not real, really!]

In the end, because of the long persuasion time, teary subtitles appeared in the fast-forwarded meeting screen.

[I didn’t trust the production team until I heard the remark that it was okay to sue if it wasn’t Testa… … .]

“Big!”

Rabin Kim’s fans almost laughed.

-ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

Even if I’m a testa,

the karma is back

[Maknae writer: To the very end, Mr. Moondae's doubts and worries are just… .]

[PD: Our sins are deep. Really.]

And the gloomy and satirical scene is in sharp contrast… Testa's first shooting day.

[Testa: Wow!]

On a sunny day, the bus scene bursting with atmosphere has finally begun.

[The effect of persuasion was amazing!]

[These people were really excited… .]

On the screen, Testa sang songs, watched the scenery, and played games on the bus.

[Trance]

[Bae Se-jin: It's dangerous, so don't unfasten your seat belt!]

[Lee Se-jin: That's right, everyone keep your distance and enjoy it~]

[Cha Yu-jin: Yay!]!

[True untact ballroom]

[~So excited~]

Testa, who was obsessed with the healing keyword, was completely immersed in the outing and was in a state of high tension.

[Lee Se-jin: Rest area! Let's eat egg potatoes at the rest area!]

[Park Moon-dae: I have cash.]

[Cheers]

In a word, they looked more excited than expected.

– Ha ha ha

-
Ahhhh

The dog ate all sorts of homemade treats and became queasy. Cha Yoo-jin also benefited from it.

She continued to watch variety shows as if possessed.

The production crew handled the filming well and saved the changes and narratives of each testa in a cute way.

For example, Rabin Kim did not stand out very much in the welcome picks of the residents at first.

‘It’s a must-have award.’

Yes. It was because of the sharp impression and piercings that were even decadent. However, as time passed, its popularity increased rapidly.

[Raebin Kim: Here it is!]

[Raebin Kim: Then with this!]

[Raebin Kim: I’ll do it!]

[(Firecrackers) Worker grandson of the era (Firecrackers)]

It’s because the polite and pure attitude and outfit were so natural.

It was the unique vibe of a person who lived like that since childhood.

Later, even the residents secretly poking snacks separately were openly broadcast.

[Resident: Ah, he seems to be doing the best job! Just eat well~]

[Jumin: That… Can you eat one of these?]

[Raebin Kim: Thank you! thank you for this food! Feel free to call me if you have anything to ask me to do.]

Isn’t it a dream combination of idols in the heavenly realm who have both me and nerdiness?’

She nodded, saying that the meme will definitely be mass-produced with the combination of Rural and Kim Rae-bin.

Each character has a clear outline, so the content is filled with just Tiki-Taka.

Testa who helps the elderly who don’t know, shakes jokes, rides a bicycle and carries groceries.

[Park Moon-dae: Hyung, which leg has an engine?]

[Ryu Chung-woo: hahaha!]

Overall, it couldn’t have been better than this in the eyes of the fans.

‘Even if there is no purpose, it’s surprisingly okay… ‘

Having stayed together for several years, Testa now knows how to lead the program without making it awkward even if they are left alone.

As a result, ordinary viewers seemed good to watch without stress.

[Seon Ah-hyun: The weather is really nice. Isn’t that right?]

[Park Moon-dae: Yes.]

It’s because the electronic devices don’t come out well, and because of the sensibility unique to rural spaces, it gives off a strange feeling of old youth.

Like the previous variety shows, it lacks unique characteristics, but the name Testa is valuable enough to become a feature, so the viewership ratings didn’t seem bad.

‘I don’t think the viewership ratings are ruined and the mind won’t win with topicality… What?’

From Seon Ah-hyun, who almost started a fire while attempting a barbecue in the yard, to Bae Se-jin, who screamed without screaming after throwing a book into a rice field. The gags were also well taken care of.

[Cha Yoo-jin: Fire! fire! Fire!]

[Bae Se-jin: You know the meat, don't hit the sand! turn off! Just turn it off!]

[Lee Se-jin: Gyaaaaaagh!]

Beep!

[※ Adjusting the screen※]

[It took seven adults an hour to turn off the fire.]

There was a bit of laughter from idols who weren't used to this kind of life.

'They have their own level.'

In the end, to the excitement.

[Lee Se-jin: It smells good.]

[Park Moon-dae: Yes.]

The testers who were lying in the pavilion eating ice cream after delivery were all smiling.

A comfortable bare face that shows off a busy and murderous schedule.

Recalling the fact that he had temporarily stopped activities due to body aches not long ago, somehow even a person like himself felt a bit frowny.

"Hey, the dog is a prize seller."

"shut up."

Kim Rae-bin's fan tried to focus on the screen again by giving his younger brother a face.

That was the moment.

[??? : Waaaaaaa!!]

"… ?!"

Suddenly, red subtitles appear that cover the landscape of the dim pavilion.

And cheers and screams from several people in groups shake the screen.

[??? : done!! That's it!!]

[??? : Uhhhhhhhhhhhh]

Then a black screen appeared for a while… light up again

The production crew gathered in the yard and applauded.

"… ??"

"what."

And subtitles again.

[Why is the production team so happy]

[Curious?]

That's right.

[Released next week.]

"Hey!"

And the ads came out.

"Hey, what just happened?"

“I don’t know either!”

It’s been a long time since I’ve been so pissed off during this commercial break!

‘go away!’

And fortunately, the screen came back soon. And the trailer was also aired normally.

[I heard that Moondae wants to incarnate?]

[Agrees!]

This is Testa enjoying continuous healing.

However, as the BGM, I have put OSTs for vague reminiscences of famous dramas.

[At that time, it was good~ It was~ ♪]

Even the sepia-colored screen changes like a flashback to the past.

very blatant… It was a preview of the repair work.

* * *

Episode 1 was aired.

And I was perplexed.

‘why… Is the response this good?’

No, I thought it would be good, but I didn’t know it would be so popularly accepted.

‘I thought it would run a bit even if it sounded like a fun joke.’

Thanks to the magic of editing, the first episode made good use of the contrasting atmosphere and fell into the story neatly and not boringly.

It's a good thing, of course, but it also had some side effects.

-Oh, what the hell

did the production crew do

?

Because

the first episode was chosen so well, there was even a reaction that was slightly uncomfortable with the reversal of the atmosphere.

Thanks to that, the production crew seems to have been in a bit of an emergency.

'Do you regret getting stabbed in the back?'

It won't be.

To be honest, the progress is fast and I edited the first episode with great care, because I get tired of healing quickly.

Still, looking at it now, I wonder if the production crew would have switched back to the healing code at the last minute, even if I hadn't bothered to do it.

Because it turns out that the demand is okay.

'what… But if the result is the same anyway, wouldn't it be more interesting to have more curves?'

The production team should also be grateful. I shrugged.

At that time, Bae Se-jin, who was also watching his reaction, opened his mouth.

“We filmed… Until today.”

Oh that’s it

“yes. Now we have to slowly withdraw. If we find out where it is, people might flock to it and make trouble in the neighborhood.”

“… yes.”

The boy nodded with a serious face.

“still… This one was pretty good too.”

“Iknow, right.”

In the second half, I made a lot of food and filled it with the content of inviting people to a party, but it was fun to see the production team suffer because they spent money.

‘Of course, I’ll settle the money problem well at the end.’

It seems to have shown a variety of tastes in many ways, so I’m satisfied after it’s over. I nodded.

“But there is one thing that hasn’t been revealed yet.”

“hmm?”

Bae Se-jin muttered, hardening his expression.

“In the end, who was the culprit who took the carrot coin? That’s why all of this happened in the first place.”

Oh do you care about that

‘I left it on purpose.’

After confirming that the camera was not there because it was changing data, I gave a small answer.

“Obviously. It must have been an insider.”

“… !”

A look of bewilderment is evident on Bae Se-jin’s face.

“that that… Are you among us!?”

“yes.”

I muttered quietly.

“It’s no fun if it’s someone else. It’s good to draw the amount and the twist has an impact when it’s among us. It must be among us.”

Bae Se-jin listened with a dazed face and seemed to soon understand.

And suddenly he asked with a nervous face.

“… Are you saying it because you think it’s me? Because I need that acting ability.”

I guess it was.

“no. I don’t think you’re my brother.”

“why??”

It’s not, but why are you hot?

“Your brother was very unconcerned.”

“… ?!”

If Bae Se-jin had been the culprit, he would have responded calmly and with common sense.

Seeing him over-immersed with seriousness that doesn't match his focus like usual, it's absolutely not the case.

"Actually, there are some suspicious ones."

"who?"

I turned my head and looked at the guy outside the room.

'Is that him after all?'

Big Sejin.

The guy who still looks good is showing off his lively appearance.

He has good acting skills, quick judgment and good social skills. He's the perfect fit to be a spy.

In fact, this reason was the first reason why I didn't take him with me when copying the coin.

'Because if you stab the production team, it's over.'

Bae Se-jin opened his mouth wide as if he had noticed when he saw my gaze.

"This Ise… ."

"I am just suspicious. Let's get to know each other."

"Big hmm. Okay, okay."

I decided to stop there.

Since he's a guy who likes scenes so much, it would be better to save them for the last part of the back of the head that will appear on the air.

Clearly, I thought so at the time.

Chapter 363

Episode 363

next week.

The story of how we were stabbed in the back by the production team only came to light in the second half of the second episode.

‘I guess so.’

It was a 5-episode compilation, but if all the coins were stolen from the beginning of the 2nd episode, the amount would be out of balance.

Thanks to this, the impact of the scene where the back of the head was hit after the amount of peaceful healing became stronger.

The moment Testa smiled and opened the penalty note.

[Kim Rae-bin: An unidentified night guest came in this morning… Did you steal all of Testa’s precious < carrot coins >?]

[!!!!]

… They caught each coin one by one with close-ups as the smile disappeared from their faces.

Real-time reactions explode.

-sbhhhhhhhh -Look at the kids’ expressions

-Don’t put a bunch of surprised faces behind Mundae’s face

hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

And with the typing effect, the planning is reconstructed from the perspective of the production team.

[Entire story of the incident]

[40 days ago]

The production team sitting around the table has a serious conversation.

[PD: No, they suffered too much! I’m sure they turn on the light in their eyes to avoid getting caught again]

[Writer Lee: That’s right.]

[Writer Park: Shouldn’t we approach it very structurally and delicately.]

[Similar atmosphere of a wildlife capture squad]

These guys are all of this I was determined enough to take a picture.

“Wow.”

“You said you did that?”

Laughing reactions burst out here and there as if it were absurd. Everyone is watching at the same time while moving in the car.

Anyway, the production crew on the screen continues the briefing while laughing among themselves with the thrilling BGM.

[PD: Let’s start with the members who are moderately vigilant.]

And the subtitles appear like a mission description.

[Difficulty ★★]

[Seon Ah-hyun and Bae Se-jin]

[Features / Once fooled, it goes well]

“Me?!”

“Ummm… … .”

“Hahahaha.”

A calm laugh spreads at Bae Se-jin’s embarrassment and Seon Ah-hyun’s embarrassment.

[PD: You just have to be logically convinced here.]

[Writer Park: That’s right. Because they are so nice (it’s possible).]

[Writer Lee: Moral, moral.]

And that remark comes out.

[PD: No, just us… Let’s sue them if they get hit in the back of the head.]

[Hahahahahahahahahaha]

And at the meeting, the writers’ complaints continued.

“… !”

[It worked well.^^]

“Ughhhh… !”

Even when the two’s faces redden from the feeling of betrayal, the screen quickly shifts to the next batter.

[Difficulty ★★]

[Cheongwoo Ryu]

[Features / Doesn’t show off]

“Ha ha.”

Liu Chengyu laughed shyly at the collection of gentle expressions passing by on the screen.

[Writer Park: A little… There’s no need to cheat~ You can create an atmosphere like this, right?]

[Writer Lee: Even if you don’t believe it, it’s rather okay because you don’t show off (?)]

It was an edit that said nothing, but surprisingly it penetrates the core exactly.

[Difficulty ★★★ ?]

[Cha Yu-jin]

[Features / Unpredictable American grandson] [Writer

Lee : I really don’t know.

Eugene didn’t care… .]

On the screen, Cha Yoo-jin’s bright mukbang and driving collections pass by. He seems busy just enjoying what he is doing.

‘It’s consistent.’

I watched the real-time reaction plastered with ‘ㅋ’ again and then looked at the screen again.

Five stars appeared.

[Difficulty ★★★★]

[Lee Se-jin]

[Park Writer: Already… You seem to know everything.]

[(ㅋㅋㅋㅋ)]

[PD: Isn't it rather waiting for us to stab you in the back? He's a friend who knows entertainment.]

[Writer Lee: I'll have to cheat though. If you unconditionally catch it, you will definitely be active in line with healing.]

It was the correct answer. These kids are surprisingly good at analysis.

[Features / Sincerity in entertainment]

On the screen, Lee Se-jin's face, enjoying 200% of healing entertainment, passed through a cut scene.

"He's handsome~"

"Hmm."

I slept on my chin. In my case, I pulled out enough quantity for dogs… .

'Will it pass like this?'

It wasn't.

A red asterisk appears on the screen again.

[Difficulty ★★★★]

[Difficulty ★★★★★ + !]

And the text appears with the effect of being hit.

no way.

[Park Moon-dae]

“… … !”

“Hahahaha!”

let’s ignore

The screen excitesly pours out subtitles again.

[AKA Tibetan Mundae Mundaengdaeng]

[Features / Always suspicious of the crew’s tricks]

[PD: I think that’s almost instinctive.]

[Writer: Is it because it’s a puppy? I really have a bad nose (laughs)]

… What comes next is the edited and pasted image of me asking the production team for tricks.

[Park Moon-dae: The bus destination is definitely a country house, right?]

[Park Moon-dae: Didn’t you lend a coin?

[Park Moon-dae: Betting on production costs… .]

[Doubt]

[Doubt]

[I don’t believe it at all..!]

“Hahaha!”

“Park Moon-dae’s expression… !”

“… … .”

After going through CG and editing, I wouldn’t have looked at it with that blatantly suspicious look.

[Never lie. certainly … !]

Anyway, the magnificent BGM ends with the production team making a resolution. The screen also broke once.

Then, a strange sound comes from around.

“What about Rabin?”

“So why is it only Rabin… ”

And with a bit trivial BGM, the next scene appears.

[Appendix]

[Difficulty]

[Raebin Kim]

“… !”

[PD: I really like Rabin.]

[Writer Park: Me too.]

[Writer Lee: His character is a bit like the dream of all entertainment producers.]

On the screen, Rabin Kim puts a question mark in his head and understands it on his own. pass without

“Ha ha ha!”

“Aigoo.”

“… … .”

I glanced sideways. Kim Rae-bin is shaking his pupils again. Let’s pretend we didn’t see it.

[Thank you Mr. Rabin by all the crew members]

Anyway, after that, the content of the first episode was reconstructed from the viewpoint of the production crew, and the humor of the thriller burst out.

[A look of doubt]

[Writer Lee: I can’t do it. Mr. Moondae and Mr. Sejin are still (doubting them)]

[Maknae writer: !! Director! That puppy at the director’s house!]

[Decision to supply the same people]

And the moment they were finally caught, the production crew hugged and shouted as if they had scored a goal in the World Cup.

[Aaaaaaa!!↗ (joy)]

[This is what happened. ^^]

“Hey, people really.”

Looking at it again, it’s disgusting.

After that, Testa, who suffered from crazy water everywhere, was dragged into a vast carrot field and stretched out, there was no black comedy.

-This is why scams are so scary

-Don’t use coins

And here’s an exquisite trailer insert.

This is Kim Rae-bin holding a shovel at night.

-???

-What is it

? -Why are the thriller

lines so exquisite?

[Kim Rae-bin: I’m going… .]

[Kwagwang!]

After the inserted thunder and lightning, the program ends again with lively BGM.

So the stark contrast is more highlighted.

-In no

lol-

Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh

?

-The production team seemed to go

“Kim Rae-bin’s face is strange!”

“It’s because of Joe’s lights, Lavin… .”

“I am okay… .”

I shook my head while looking at Kim Rae-bin, whose face turned red and put her head down on the sofa.

‘I’m coming… .’

Anyway, it’s been a few days since people screamed and made funny guesses in the atmosphere of Kim Rae-bin, who seemed like he was going to bury someone.

And then it was another few days of common sense guesses.

-Aren’t you working overtime? Overtime work digging carrots haha

– As if right, the kids must have had a hard time…

But it wasn’t both.

‘It’s finally here.’

[Park Moon-dae: (I can’t stand it.)]

The reconstructed me and Kim Rae-bin’s late night getaway coin duplication ended up airing next week.

And the audience reaction exploded.

-Park Moon

-dae blah blah blah -I’m glad I’m an idol I

‘m so glad -The counterfeit punch

of justice

-No, Park Moon-dae X or the camera professionally took a good shot

.

-I was really excited to stop compositing

it. My entertainment image has settled down as a completely weird guy. In short, he is a madman.

I held back a sigh.

‘Still, I’m glad he’s not a bad guy.’

I’ve been used to this since < Azusa >. I calmly accepted this distortion.

‘The production team also made some sacrifices.’

imaginatively.

Because the production team thoroughly edited themselves into a nasty position, they were even criticized for it until this episode.

And in this episode, Testa poured tremendous catharsis with the episode that turned the tide of the battle.

‘Thank you for that.’

It was an editing that caught both Testa’s topicality and image.

‘The counterattack was also successful.’

I nodded my head, saying that I don’t know if it’s okay to be together next time.

… And after a satirical gag parody edited like a trailer for a drama called ‘Coin-taking Animal Farm’ became hot on social media.

Crossing the 4th episode that came back to healing… Finally the last episode.

We gathered in the living room again.

“It’s been a long time since we gathered together to watch our TV.”

“Really~ It’s a bit difficult because of the time difference… Is it fun?”

“Turn up your voice!”

This is because the production team suggested that episode 5 be made into content for WeTube by taking a reaction video.

Maybe one reason.

‘There’s another twist.’

There is only one unsolved rice cake, so there is nothing more to think about. Wouldn’t it come out about who stole the carrot coin?

And someone has already guessed who the culprit is.

“hmm? Why?”

“no.”

I put my head back and started watching TV on the road.

The first half of the song was edited out to be embarrassingly cute in front of the elders.

The average of us is also in our mid-twenties, so I don’t know if it’s okay to do this, but anyway, the important thing is next.

The moment we boarded the return bus.

[PD: But you guys couldn’t catch the culprit in the end?]

[Ryu Chung-woo: Haha, that’s right. Can you fool me and let me know now?]

[PD: Sorry.]

Unlike the exaggeratedly servile PD’s voice, meaningful subtitles appear.

[indeed… ?]

What is switched is the scene of the production team meeting again.

I nodded.

‘It’s time to come out soon.’

And waited for the big Sejin to appear… .

[PD: Excluding Mr. Park Moon-dae and Mr. Lee Se-jin for now.]

[Writer Park: Some people are too quick-witted. There must be surprise so people won’t be suspicious.]

“… ?”

[Writer Lee: Wait a minute, won’t anyone suspect Mr. Rabin?]

[!!!!]

And after a moment of silence.

The view point of the screen changes.

That’s Rabin Kim… standing with the crew

[On the day the carrot coin was stolen]

[PD: Mr. Raebin is the culprit.]

[Raebin Kim: Yes??]

[PD: Mr. Raebin pulled out the note that the coin disappeared. So, of course, Mr. Rabin is the culprit!]

[Rabin Kim: … !!]

Subtitles spill behind Kim Rae-bin's face as if his eyes were about to pop out.

[PD: And think about it. What did Mr. Lavin do last night? You gave us a lucky bag, right?]

[PD: What is that? That's right, I moved the coin!]

Then, a flashback scene begins. The situation just before falling asleep exchanging camera data for a moment.

[Writer Lee: Let's check our props~ I'm sorry, Mr. Raebin!]

[Raebin Kim: Yes!]

And without hesitation, Raebin Kim handed over the pouch containing the carrot coins to the production team.

"… … ."

Did you write it that way?

'It's so plausible that it makes no sense.'

it's just a scam

Bae Se-jin trembled his lips.

"you you… !"

"sorry! I didn't even know!"

yes, just looking at it, it looks like that.

'That's why you blamed yourself so much… .'

Whenever the story of stealing coins came up, a collection of cuts of Kim Rae-bin, who hesitated in a cold sweat, passed by the screen.

[Park Moon-dae: If you catch the criminal, you have to hand it over to the police.]

[Kim Rae-bin: That… That's right.]

[Criminal ↑]

He laughed pitifully.

Everyone seems to be like that.

-The rabbit who gave the carrot coin

-ㅅㅅ The production team is a bunch of evil ㅠㅠ What are we going to do with our medieval rabbit

?

And anyway, Kim Rae-bin tried to refute.

[Raebin Kim: I will surrender!]

[PD: Wait!]

Of course, this seems to be the picture the production team expected.

[PD: If you get caught now, the coin will just evaporate!]

[Raebin Kim: !!]

[PD: But if you don't get caught until the end!]

[Raebin Kim: If not… ?]

PD cheerfully exclaimed to Kim Rae-bin, who was possessed again.

[PD: I will double all the coins in this town and donate them to the town hall! To the massage chair!]

[Rabin Kim: Heo Eo-eok.]

[PD: Mr. Rabin is a villain! The thief of justice!]

[Remarks of conversion]

Then, Kim Rae-bin, who has stopped moving, gradually gets closer.

"… … ."

"… no way."

No way he caught the person.

[Raebin Kim: Oh, I see!]

"Ahh!"

"also!"

"sorry!"

Kim Rae-bin on the screen eventually clenched his fists and answered the production team.

And a large subtitle appears like a sentence.

[The phantom thief who steals carrots and coins is on a sortie]

[Writer Lee: He gave me a mission to steal coins again, so I made him a perfect accomplice.]

[Hahahahahahahahahaha]

[I wonder if such a perfect crime was committed… .]

It was smashed.

It was Kim Rae-bin who went to the hardware store at night and gave me detailed instructions on how to use and pick up the item.

[????]

[PD: Mr. Rabin, why are you open?]

[Crew embarrassed]

In the end, the crew secretly calls Rabin Kim in an emergency.

[PD: No, but why does Mr. Ravin help with that? Are you saying Rabin is a thief?]

Raebin Kim replied with his eyes shining seriously.

[Raebin Kim: Because he is a thief, he was able to commit the illegal act of producing coins!]

[PD: Wait a minute.]

[Raebin Kim: If the amount of coins increases, the amount of drilling in the town hall will increase, so I think this is the right direction.]

[PD: … .]

A stamp is stamped on the open-mouthed PD’s face.

And I looked down at Raebin Kim who was sitting on the floor.

“sorry! brother! He said that he didn’t mean to cheat, and that if he was caught, all his coins would evaporate, so inevitably… .”

“okay.”

I just laughed

‘I tried.’

It would have been a bit of a struggle to do that with this guy’s personality. Thanks to you, I was chosen for fun.

one little… It takes a while.

‘… It wasn’t a big deal.’

I want to make the affair with Bae Se-jin something that never happened. X feet.

Anyway, I hit Raebin Kim on the shoulder.

“good job.”

“yes!”

Kim Rae-bin barely raised his eyebrows and answered brightly. On the screen, bright contents are unfolding again.

[You worked hard Mr. Rabin~]

However, there is no one other than me who responds to that.

“… ?”

Looking around, the faces of the other guys except for Cha Yu-jin are still trembling. No.. Is it embarrassment rather than trembling?

‘what.’

They’re not like this.

The moment I opened my mouth in wonder, the BGM on the screen disappeared again as if being sucked in.

Subtitles open and a close-up fixed camera goes in.

And 5 different faces captured by the same camera.

[Bae Se-jin: Oh, I got it.]

[Seon Ah-hyun: … ! Then I… Did you steal it?]

[Lee Se-jin: Oh~ It's fun!] [Ryu Chung-wu: So

, you shouldn't find out who stole the coin.]

[Cha Yu-jin: OK.]

Chapter 364

Episode 364

I turned my head.

The guys next to me are either sweating cold or opening their mouths.

I turned my head again and watched TV.

On the screen, the images of each of the guys who received secret orders moving one by one are edited and displayed one after another.

[Am I a thief?]

[Cheongwoo Ryu: If you stay undetected until you leave the village, you will succeed… .]

[Lee Se-jin: It’s easy. Anyway, no one saw what I stole yesterday, and I didn’t know either, right?]

[Seon Ah-hyun: Umm, yes. I will work hard… !]

And subtitles appear on the black screen.

[Nobody]

[Never said you stole carrot coins… … .]

Viewers burst into laughter.

-Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

-?????? -So the real culprit is Kim Rae-bin, but he made everyone mistakenly think he was

him

? However, the producer's voice on TV is lively like a demon.

[Bae Se-jin: But I didn't do anything last night… I don't know how the hell they stole the coins.]

[PD: If you guess how the culprit stole last night, a bigger prize is waiting for you~]

[Bae Se-jin: Ah, of course… !]

[Hahahahahahahahahahahaha]

The exaggerated editing shows the writers and producers hanging their heads and trembling as quietly as possible.

However, those who had been given an important role could not confirm it because they were reading the note.

[Phantom thief spy of justice (fake)]

[Individual exhibition begins!]

Lee Se-jin winks at the camera.

[Lee Se-jin: Ugh~ It's a variety show for our members, so please watch it!]

Puck.

The real Lee Se-jin silently punches his thigh. The same name is also clenched into a fist. no one stopped

[Suffocating notice]

[Seon Ah-hyun: Since there is thread, shall I make something to find out if there is a person?]

[↑ A person who is stabbed by conscience]

[Bae Se-jin: It is true that you are great… Isn't catching the culprit more important than that? The production team also said that, and they are telling you to catch it openly.]

[↑ The person who is known for acting]

[Raebin Kim: Even if you are harmed… .]

[↑ Imagining what the person is suffering]

Subtitles with arrows float around, Boo explains, and viewers crawl.

[Ryu Chung-woo: (Refreshingly) That's not possible.]

[Seon Ah-hyun: (Refreshingly 2) Yes. It can be dangerous…]

[Lee Se-jin: (Cool 3) That's right. It could be dangerous.]

[An opinion that somehow fits well]

And I, alone with a question mark in my head, appears on the screen.

[Park Moon-dae: (Is that so…?)]

[↑ Someone who doesn't know what's going on]

This… … .

Unlike real-time chatting, you won’t hear a single laugh in the living room.

I bent my head. The surroundings tremble.

[Cheongwoo Ryu: First of all, let’s help and earn coins. And let’s see who might be the thief. There must be a hint.]

[Raebin Kim: (Relieved) Good… wise… It’s a judgment.]

[The big picture drawn by each person]

On the screen, they move desperately to avoid being discovered that they are the perpetrators.

[Lee Se-jin: Maybe there is a culprit in the house we went to work on the first day?]

[Kim Rae-bin: … Indeed!]

[Bae Se-jin: It’s an idea worth reviewing.]

Lee Se-jin continues to make plausible but incorrect guesses about the culprit. Of course, it was passed with enthusiastic sympathy.

An interview with a laughing guy is inserted.

[Lee Se-jin: I’m good at this kind of thing.]

“Ahhh.”

Now, the big Sejin in the living room is unable to raise his head.

And the next thing on camera is Ryu Cheng-wu.

[Park Moon-dae: I'm thinking of going to the village hall.]

[Ryu Cheong-wu: Oh, of course I should go with you.]

[↑ I'm thinking of monitoring]

"I wasn't monitoring it, I was really trying to help."

A panicked voice rang through the living room, but no one accepted it.

This is because Seon Ah-hyeon on the screen was surprised and set fire to the meat when a deduction about the culprit came out around her.

[fire… It catches fire?]

[??? : Aaaaaa!]

I even got an interview late at night.

[Q. Was it intended to cause confusion?]

[Ahyeon Sun: No… .]

Seon Ah-hyun covered her face with both hands and bowed her head. The real Sun Ah-hyun is also doing a similar pose.

it was shit

'… therefore.'

I pressed my breath and made a difficult conclusion.

'All of these bastards thought they were the only culprit.'

That's why I can't hold my head in shame now.

No, but right now I'm saying that I'm the most embarrassed. These bastards even felt cheated. Why did I… .

'for a moment.'

Now that I look at it, there's a guy with a normal face.

'Cha Yoo-jin.'

An explanation appears on the screen.

[And this person…] On the screen

of [American Grandson],

Cha Yoo-jin is standing with a camera around the production crew with a face that is no different from the living room.

And say it right away

[Cha Yu-jin: Hey, I know.]

[PD: Yes?]

[Cha Yu-jin: There are many other culprits besides me! I'm not the culprit. The PD and the writer lied to me.]

[!!!!]

You bastard… .

"You don't know everything? I know."

"… !!"

"How?"

"Everyone wants to avoid finding the culprit. And I work very hard. It's because of conscience!"

This guy won’t walk… I didn’t know.

[Creating staff desperately changed]

[PD: Meat if you don’t say it!]

[PD: Pretend it’s a product! I’ll give you Korean beef!]

In the screen with slow effect. Cha Yoo-jin slowly opens her mouth.

[Cha Yoo-jin: Okay!]

“Hey!!”

There was an uproar on both sides.

“You sold us for meat!”

“I didn’t sell it! We ate together!”

“I could have bought that meat with my own money… !”

It was the moment Bae Se-jin shouted in a fit of anger on the other side of the sofa.

[MVP chosen by the production team]

[Bae Se-jin]

[↑ Masterpiece actor]

“Cool.”

Sae-jin Bae heard a sigh.

[Q. Are you prepared to be a spy?]

[Bae Se-jin: … First of all, I made up my own character well… I'm thinking of acting how I would have acted if this hadn't happened.]

The caption sticks like a sticker on Bae Se-jin's serious face.

[I play myself… !]

"It's great."

And Bae Se-jin's exquisite speed control and immersive acting are broadcast with admiration, half teasing, and half editing.

[Bae Se-jin: We have to catch the culprit first… No, eating is important, of course!]

[Bae Se-jin: If you have a conscience, you should surrender now!]

[This person… Is it really acting?]

[And the first crisis coming]

Crisis?

At that moment, the screen changes again.

The camera screen, slightly shaking and out of level, was of low quality. It seemed that he was barely taking pictures with his smartphone somewhere.

What shines… Bae Se-jin and Heo Yeon's back of the head… .

no way.

[Bae Se-jin: Who was the culprit who took the carrot coin in the end? That's why all of this happened in the first place.]

I can see the white hair parting from the side.

It's me X feet.

[Park Moon-dae: It’s obvious. It must have been an insider.]

The subtitles make a fuss.

[!!!!]

[No way… ?]

My mouth dries up.

-Daedaedaebak -I

don’t think you noticed Park Moon-dae??

Stop guessing, really…

[Bae Se-jin: That that… Are they among us?]

[Nervous]

[Park Moon-dae: Yes.]

Then, after the gray hair on the screen said something plausible several times, Bae Se-jin asked ‘that’ question.

[Bae Se-jin: … Are you saying it because you think it’s me? Because I need that acting ability.]

[Self-destruction… ?]

X shots X shots!

I bowed my head. But the kid on TV continues to flirt.

[Park Moon-dae: No. I don’t think he’s your brother.]

Shut up, you stupid bastard!

[Park Moon-dae: (Confidence) hyung wasn’t so calm.]

Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha]

-Daddy 1

Subtitles explode. Viewers are more than happy.

In the meantime, the guy on TV doesn't close his snout.

[Park Moon-dae: Actually, there are suspicious people.]

Don't do it!

[! Point Lee Se-jin!]

[Kyung! (Congratulations on the 1/6 correct answer) Congrats!]

"… … ."

"Park Moondae Park… ."

… Subtitles flow again on the screen where the firecracker effect explodes.

[Park Moon-dae: It's just a doubt. Let's get to know each other and finish it.]

“I didn’t enjoy doing this either… !”

However, on the screen, after I left, Bae Se-jin stood up and swayed a little.

[Perfect Crime Ceremony]

Bae Se-jin’s voice disappeared. When I turn my head, I see a guy with his face on the floor.

On the black screen, subtitles appear again.

[Question that viewers might have come up with here]

[Why was Park Moon-dae excluded?]

Stop it now.

[The whole story of the case 3]

The meeting of the production team begins to appear again. want to break

[Writer Park: I’m a little nervous.]

[PD: What?]

[Writer Park: Moondae.]

The masked artist speaks seriously.

[Writer Park: If you give the culprit order for no reason, you give more hints, so doesn’t Moondae notice? Then it’s a joke.]

[How to deal with a 6-star risk performer?]

After a moment of meaningful silence, the producer speaks hotly.

After the last episode of the Great Wave.

〈The grandson of that house〉 There are various types of entertainment… It became a topic in a sense.

-Atly unimaginable spy (all)

┗ You've missed this (except Park Moon -dae)

┗ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ

The crew is a real devil -like star.

Expressions Hahahaha

-All the kids said 'Now they're getting caught', but from the time Rabin Kim came out as the sole culprit, it was crazy. All 20 minutes were highlights hahaha

And Testa became a level of puppies that will never be seen again in idol history… .

especially i

I!

'X feet!'

In addition, these careful guys even sent gifts on the day after the last episode, creating an atmosphere of reconciliation.

The feeling of defeat when posting this as a verification message on social media… I won't forget.

Big Se-jin, who allowed the conversation after four days, asked while hesitating.

"Is Mundaemun University okay? Was it a little harsh this time? Even if we do it with other people next time… ."

"No, we will do it again."

“Ohh~ As expected, Mundae… .”

“When we’re together, we make sure to hold on to the production cost and drag it out.”

“… … .”

will smash

“that… right! I must cooperate unconditionally, unconditionally~!”

“uh.”

I twitched my eyebrows at the group photo in the living room.

I get pissed off every time I see it, but the photos are innocent.

One innocent person was also taken.

… a dog.

I looked at the white lump of fur.

By the way, there were quite a few opinions among the members to bring that guy.

-Ah~ If we just leave it alone, someone will come and steal it, really?

-Well, since it appeared on the air, there’s no chance of that… .

-phew.

However, it is difficult to grow them at home.

‘There are tours… Because it’s empty too often.’

I don’t know what kind of dogs they raise.

Fortunately, a solution was quickly found.

-My mother wants to raise him… .

Coincidentally, Bae Se-jin's mother was looking for a dog and decided after seeing Bae Se-jin's pictures, text messages, and the first episode of a variety show.

-That's nice. Sometimes we can go see it~

-… uh hmm yes.

-… … .

Bae Se-jin immediately said at the time, 'Lee Se-jin said you were coming to my house… ?' He seemed to reply, but he said that he gladly welcomed the visit anyway.

'If I get a vacation, at least one day… Shall I tell you?'

It wasn't bad to bring it to the dorm sometimes.

"… … ."

Anyway, elaborate.

To evaluate it calmly in its true state, it was true that the intended purpose of this entertainment was achieved. Not to mention the topicality, because the viewership ratings were quite good.

'The last upset was 7.1%.'

Considering it's a cable, it's great.

In other words, it is time to open the lid.

'Let's check how things are going.'

I checked the status of Mirinae and turned on the status window.

Chapter 365

Episode 365

First of all, Mirinae's comeback was very successful.

So from the aggro side.

-Honestly, I think I was a bit conscious of the pouty. The song has a similar feel.

┗Eh, it's the other way around.

Pouty

fans are too old-hearted. Can't be compared to tea lol

As expected, there is a comparison group, so public opinion is hot.

Originally, people are more fun when there is a ranking that can be judged on the same line.

Moreover, even though each group has similar positions, their strengths are different, so each viewer is bound to have different evaluations.

In conclusion, a lot has been said.

'What a mess.'

What is certain is that the news of Mirinae's comeback has definitely been imprinted on the public, and interest and interest that had withered have been ignited.

‘Noise marketing went well.’

Thanks to this, Mirinae is rising vigorously on the music charts for the first time in a while.

There was nothing special about the song being aimed at the US, but it seems to have been accepted like a pop song because of the effect of the ‘global friendly’ position similar to Pouty, which was successful in the US.

‘The song itself is good too.’

I shrugged my shoulders while watching the public opinion battle between the two that had been on fire for a while.

‘Testa is completely missing from this edition.’

Since the same gender was attached to the same survival group, there was no room for us to be mentioned naturally.

And the grandson of that house… Damn anyway, thanks to the variety show being properly established, Testa’s topicality is burning in a different direction.

-Jade Floor Wanpandol (Purchasing position)

┗ Hahahahahahahahahahahahaha

… The process was a little different from what I expected, but anyway, the goal was similar. You should think so.

In addition, the reaction abroad was subtly good.

This is because T1 handed over this entertainment to Netplus, not its own OTT service, because it went through an agreement on global strategy from the beginning.

And he says he got good grades. The production team dared to send a text message directly, so I said everything.

-Netplus World TV Show Ranked 6th! All testers are doing well. Congratulations (smiley emoticon)

-Mr. Moondae? Next time, I'll go to a real hot spring. Please accept our apology and love. (Check the present)

Hot springs? I don't believe I won't let you know that this hogu is being recognized overseas… Anyway, so the plate is balanced as I drew it.

'And the media play just started.'

Even before the last episode aired, I already contacted the company and finished adjusting the timing.

[From Testa's Billboard double entry to variety shows… Where does the domestic and international potential come from?]

[From Dotify to Billboard. How did Testa's two songs, 'Destiny Idol', succeed?]

Our activities were also over.

In a situation where the Billboard rankings are also declining, this level will naturally settle without repercussions.

'The fans will like it too.'

Now is the best time to spread the news most gently thanks to the favorable image obtained through the explosive entertainment show.

'good.'

and after a few days.

A status window popped up.

[Mission cleared!]

[Reward is being settled… .]

I grinned. It’s always nice to have what you anticipate turn out well.

Of course it should have been like this, but his entertainment is… .

I sighed briefly and looked at the status window again.

Expected sentences pop out.

[Hyung!]

Yes, I thought you would come out when I called the status window.

big moon.

“How are you been.”

We occasionally contacted him, but the district office he was assigned to has a lot of work, and I’m also traveling abroad, so it’s been a while since I’ve had a conversation.

[sure! Congratulations on clearing the mission!]

As is. As if I was excited, I nodded my head at the rapidly growing letters.

I’m the one to congratulate.

[And I really enjoyed watching variety shows. Munge is so cute… The twist is funny too! It was so amazing how he came up with such a story!]

“… … .”

I closed my mouth.

The status window popup vibrates.

[It wasn’t all contrived]

“No.”

[sorry… .]

This guy has nothing to be sorry for, but it’s certain that he has to see everyone he meets for a while. I swiped one hand over my face and looked next to the popup.

The settlement was over.

With the goal reward phrase I wrote down intact.

[Complete!]

[Reward: Strengthen the interference of the status window]

This alone is very satisfying.

The status window pop-up wiggles up and down as if looking at it more closely or as if wondering.

[Hyung, but why the hell did you want this reward… ? enforce? Have you ever wanted something like that to break down what you’re showing? I could have just done that!]

“No.”

Can you accept a difficult mission like breaking a record with something like that?

I raised my finger

“Look carefully. The subject is not me.”

[Yes?]

“The status window itself.”

Yes. As a reward, the status window strengthened its own interference.

[Huck]

“In a word, your ability as a status window has been strengthened. in a broad sense.”

In order not to get caught in the system, he intentionally didn’t tell you the answer, and even wrote the phrase ‘interference’ in an ambiguous way.

[Why why?]

“Because I have a place to write.”

In order for this guy not to return to the status window, you must eventually destroy the system. I called Kwon Hee-seung Gold 2.

You are the current system owner.

“My bones hurt.”

“Do we have to do dub app today? I can’t do it tomorrow.”

The group to which Kwon “Spacer” Hee-seung belonged, at the end of the Japanese tour, was in the middle of a goal goal due to the aftereffects of the first tour.

Of course, one person who thought he had a chance to live anew was still alert.

“Hey, the downtrend comes from that lazy mind.”

“Aaaaaa.”

At Kwon Hee-seung’s words, the spacer swayed, but agreed and moved.

‘There are no people with bad personalities on our team anymore.’

Kwon Hee-seung shook his head inwardly.

‘It’s because there are some kids I don’t get along with!’

Spacers outnumbered Testa. It was the same even after Chae Seo-dam’s withdrawal, which was Sun Ah-hyun’s nightmare during her school days.

And if there are a lot of people on the team, the conflict will multiply by the square of the number of people who are not properly led.

really… It was hard.

‘Still, I’ve come this far!’

Spacer was a little less popular than the testa of the re-listing season of < Azusa >, which was a big hit, but his fandom was solid as a survival player.

And Kwon Hee-seung was confident that he was doing an excellent job as a self-proclaimed mental leader!

“Let’s go, brothers and sisters, let’s do something today too!”

“okay… .”

The comeback was just around the corner, so everyone was tired, but the individual broadcasts went well with their work spirit.

“See you again~”

“I’ll be back soon!”

After a simple mukbang, the members dispersed to their respective hotel rooms.

“Aigoo.”

And it was the moment when Kwon Hee-seung was also congratulating himself on a successful day and was about to fall asleep with a pat on the shoulder.

got a call.

[Testa Moondae hyung????]

“Huh?”

so suddenly?

Of course, some people prefer to hit the phone first, but I can assure you that this was not the case.

‘He’s a very calm, cool, and planned older brother.’

However, it was not that Kwon Hee-seung hated Park Mun-dae.

It was a bit scary, but it was because he was a good senior.

– It’s better not to fight there and just fall in.

-Don’t say that even by mistake.

-I think we should just split the room.

Occasionally, I first asked Kwon Hee-seung about his concerns or current situation, and when he asked for advice, he answered quite sincerely.

At first glance, it seemed like a friendly personality to those who fell within the line. Kwon Hee-seung rubbed under his nose.

‘Well, it’s been that way since < Azusa >.’

He stuck out his tongue, recalling Park Mun-dae, a non-celebrity participant at the time, who took care of the people around him while calmly passing Choi Won-gil’s tricks.

Recently, I even received an apology from Choi Won-gil, who contacted me through Park Moon-dae.

‘… Even when I was caught talking nonsense on the radio, he was quite lenient.’

-If something breaks, it's enough to fix it. It's a problem because it can't be fixed.

… Even though one fact hurt me enough to make me sweat cold down my spine.

'So I didn't know that he would reveal his circumstances to the people around him… '

Heck, now that I see it, I can't believe it was decided by caring about me when I almost talked about our organization(?) openly on the radio!

Or maybe he was trying to say, 'I have to reveal it this way' for example.

The timing was perfect.

'It's so cool.'

Kwon Hee-seung, blinded by the dignity of a first-team idol who returned from the future, completed an implausible reasoning.

No wonder Moondae Park is now closer to his role model!

It wasn't just because of the 'group of idols who know the future'.

'He's a real idol and someone to respect.'

It was like that when he lost in this variety show with his wonderful personality. It wouldn't have been easy for such a cool person.

-Dangdang dance~ Mungegemundae dance~ (Video)

-Park Mungdaeng and 6 thugs hahahahahahaha (captured)

'Yeah, I heard that idols must be good at entertainment to be in the 1st team. You are a very living witness!'

Kwon Hee-seung almost laughed at the thought of the humorous and cute comments that flowed into his fan account.

Piririk.

“Oops.”

While I was lost in thought for a moment, the bell rang once.

Kwon Hee-seung quickly touched the smartphone screen before it was too late.

“Hello, Moondae hyung!”

-okay.

A still calm voice came over the phone.

“What are you doing?”

– I have something to check.

“Yeep~”

I thought I was going to get to the point without muttering. It was urgent!

And Park Moon-dae brought up an unexpected question.

-You said exactly what this mission was.

It’s a mission you pay for gaining a new life in the future. Park Moon-dae said that it was all finished before. And that is what Hee-seung Kwon still has.

‘Why this all of a sudden?’

Still, Kwon Hee-seung gave an answer right away. It wasn’t the answer I liked either.

big.

I don’t know why I’m attracted to this kind of thing. No, did you say that you are not attracted to yourself, but that you feel that way because this is given as a ‘mission’?

‘Either way is bad… .’

An album that comes out with the participation of the whole team… It’s normal for this to happen over the years.

I somehow participated in it a little bit and made it, but honestly, I was a bit worried at this point, with the release right around the corner.

“actually… .”

So Kwon Hee-seung frankly expressed his concerns. It was because I believed in the counseling experience I had with Moondae Park.

-okay. It did.

Park Moon-dae replied in a calm tone.

however… There was a hint of laughter somewhere.

‘… laugh?’

why?

And the words follow slowly.

-I think I can help.

“yes?”

Kwon Hee-seung blinked his eyes. And after a few seconds passed in silence.

“Gaaaagh!”

Something floated before his eyes.

[! Abnormal Status: Make It Work]

– If you are an idol, is teamwork the answer?

: ‘Failure’ when the team fails to release a joint work within the period.

Gray text that is translucent and sparks.

It disappeared soon after, but it was clearly visible.

“Baba, that just… !”

– I showed you for a while.

The voice on the phone said calmly.

-Your ‘mission’.

The shocking surreal proof of confirming his 'mission' with a hologram!

Kwon Hee-seung only came to his senses after a few tens of seconds.

"G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G-G—" How is this going?"

I will correct it. I thought my head came to my senses, but this guy's mouth couldn't.

'Aww!'

What sci-fi movie is this? Limestone movie?

However, Moondae Park's voice from the smartphone was calm.

-I don't know the principle, but to say… It's like hacking.

"It could be hacked… ? Is this a computer?"

-… … .

Nothing was said, but Park Mun-dae was unexpectedly silent as if lost in thought.

And he answered with some interest.

– It could be.

‘I can do that!’

This isn’t some kind of metaverse virtual reality AI!

Kwon Hee-seung, who used to stick with all the IT terms he knew, recovered from the shock and was about to ask more about ‘how on earth he did this’.

Park Moon-dae hit the ball first.

-Anyway, what did you see when you looked earlier? What is the mission content?

“Mmm.”

The phrase ‘status abnormality’ bothers me quite a bit, but it’s probably not what this senpai is asking about, but what’s underneath.

Kwon Hee-seung reflexively opened his mouth.

“Announcement of the joint work… I guess it was?”

-okay.

“It is amazing. It’s a real self-produced album… .”

Kwon Hee-seung became thrilled like someone who had been bewitched.

He was like a real movie hero. I don’t know if that’s good or bad, though.

But Park Moon-dae was calm.

– No, it’s different.

yes?

-The standard is not a self-produced album, but a collaborative work.

“yes… But isn’t that what it is?”

-It’s different. Collaboration doesn’t have to be an entire album.

“ah.”

Park Mun-dae, who cut through justice like a knife, flexibly brought a trick.

-It is much easier to make the public simply admit that it is a ‘collaborative work’.

“and.”

It was a statement like a real secret organization agent.

Kwon Hee-seung, who became a bit serious at the same time, politely held the smartphone with both hands and asked.

“then… Can I have success with this album? The odds are a bit higher, right?”

-okay.

Oh oh.

Kwon Hee-seung admired briefly, but calculated the next moment.

He wasn’t stupid either. He thought about the possibility that Moondae Park might have cheated or conspired against him.

‘hmm… .’

But no matter how much I thought about it, there was no need to lie to myself.

‘No, if that older brother wanted to kill me, there were many opportunities.’

I’ve been kindly taking care of you until now, but I didn’t dare to do this… There is no need to hit the back of the head while sharing things like superpowers.

‘It’s not some kind of joker, if this hyung did that, it would already be a mess.’

Kwon Hee-seung decided to accept Park Moon-dae’s favor this time too!

But before that, a cautious voice was heard.

-Can I help you?

“omg!”

Kwon Hee-seung asked coldly.

“Thank you so much brother! But in case this is just mortgaged and something like this… .”

– Don’t do that without saying anything.

“sorry. Just after watching the movie, I asked once! Are you still helping? lol… .”

There was a choking laugh.

-okay.

And Park Moon-dae really started helping Kwon Hee-seung thoroughly.

* * *

Start with the production process.

Park Moon-dae skillfully picked out the parts that could be put on a spoon in Spacer’s latest album.

-The lyrics book is better. It’s not a part that is exposed to the outside or a photo album that fans consume, but it feels like a well-known component.

“Oh oh.”

– And even if non-experts put words on it, the result won't be ruined that much. It's an item that hasn't been released in advance, so it's easy to touch.

"It's okay… . really!"

Kwon Hee-seung thought he should tell this to the member who refused to participate in the album production until the end, believing in his own creativity.

However, the very next day, I saw that member give his opinion on the design of the lyrics book at the recommendation of the company.

"What is it?"

"I don't know, because the company told me to."

And the revised lyric book was replaced in two days.

'… Is it this fast?'

Did our company make decisions so quickly?

Kwon Hee-seung was a bit taken aback, but the work continued.

The actual album is taken out and the promotional text for the album is refurbished.

_____==

Will and leap towards the dream!

Please look forward to this album < Future Fighting >, which was touched by all the spacer members from the sound source to the inside! (firecracker emoji)

_____==

It doesn't come out on the front of the promotion. An additional introductory phrase at a level where fans will just say 'that's right' and accept the information.

There was no awkwardness as the album and image about dreams and aspirations as an idol were just off.

A finishing touch that neatly adds only the correct answer without damaging the original plan of the spacer.

‘Wow, this is what happened.’

Kwon Hee-seung was amazed.

No matter how much you live longer than yourself and come back to the past, isn’t this kind of sense and power (?) a different story!

‘Isn’t it true that Moondae hyung set up all the labels?’

The last time I asked about this rumor going around in the company, I wondered if it was because the older brother reacted very unsurely, but it must have been humility.

Kwon Hee-seung nodded, but at the same time was slightly chilled.

Later, on the day when Spacer is big enough to become Testa’s competitor… .

‘… Testa seniors will be independent!’

Yes, I heard that next year is the contract renewal season. Of course, you would break out of this crappy company. haha!

Kwon Hee-seung decided to move on just like that. What is the use of worrying about a problem that has no answer? Let’s live in reality!

So, I started greeting the person I was grateful for right away.

“It’s all thanks to my brother! oh thank you so much! I will repay you!”

-okay.

Moondae Park's answer was short, but not blunt. On the contrary, it felt soft.

Hee-seung Kwon exclaimed joyfully after making a fuss inside, saying, "If I get paid, I'll have to bite at least a lobster."

"I feel like this has been done, but it has been done, right?"

Now he was free!

But it was too much confidence. It was because Park Moon-dae gave an ambiguous answer.

-The conditions are satisfied.

"… How is it different?"

A calm voice answered.

-It will float now. for a moment.

"yes?"

support position.

"Wow!"

A glitch popped up in front of Kwon Hee-seung's eyes. And a strange hologram that appears again.

[Successful release!]

You have successfully released a joint work!

!Time limit: Satisfied (Success)

! Abnormal status: 'Make it Work' removed!

*^@5#& OK ???? Click!]

"… !"

It seemed more stable than the last time Park Moon-dae showed it, with the words saying that it was successful.

And the shiny buttons too.

'This… Can I just press it?'

Kwon Hee-seung is an outright 'Click!' I checked the button and raised my arm as if possessed… .

Park Moon-dae's voice sounds like pouring cold water.

– I mean, you're going to repay me.

"… ?"

Kwon Hee-seung, who was extending his hand toward the hologram, paused for a moment.

That moment.

– do not press

"Yes yes?"

– Waiting for it for a few days will pay me back.

Did you even have eyes? Kwon Hee-seung lowered his hand as if on fire.

"Why why?"

-hmm.

Park Moon-dae was silent for a while, then asked in a voice mixed with laughter.

-Are you interested in something nice that you can do on a day off?

"… ??"

Under the big concert hall in Seoul.

The cheers of the audience still rang in my ears like tinnitus. The members around me laugh.

"Oh, everyone worked hard~"

"It's fun!"

It was the end of the joint concert hosted by the credit card company.

"The shop behind Mundaemundae?"

"okay."

I sat in the back seat of the car among the guys having fun on the way home from the stage that was completed without any mistakes.

And I looked back at the conversation I had with Kwon Hee-seung yesterday.

'From the premise.'

I was able to adjust the timing of clearing the status abnormality through the 'Truth Check' timing.

And that was entirely thanks to the status window.

'That's why I thought the other way around.'

Doesn't anyone just need a status window?

-Can't you adjust the clear timing if you can access the status window even for the guy with the status abnormality?

That’s why Keundal connected to Kwon Hee-seung’s system and opened a status window.

[It’s a bit uncomfortable… Uhhhh]

Of course, it was more inconvenient than using my status window, but this guy succeeded without any other side effects.

I received it as a mission reward without any expedient, so it only seemed to increase my strength.

‘good.’

It was conceived from the fact that the big moon changed the state of my status window, but it was fortunate that it worked without problems.

And Kwon Hee-seung quickly accepted my offer to sponsor the system destruction war.

– Of course it’s good! Does this feel like you’re on a mission?

… It would have been better if we hadn’t talked as if we were in a VR game room. Anyway, I’m glad we went to mutual aid.

‘good.’

I nodded and fixed the neck pillow.

As well as well-controlled, the timing was just right.

After the promotion period, there was a gap in the schedule while preparing for the tour.

‘I guess I can subtract a day.’

If it goes according to plan, one day is enough to see the results. I nodded my head and entered the inn I arrived at.

Thinking of spending today reviewing plans… .

“Moondae-hyung, if you could talk to me for a while… .”

“Oh yes.”

I’ll have to delay Let’s see what’s going on. I received a call from Kim Rae-bin and moved on.

I don’t know why, but all the members are gathered at the kitchen table.

“… ?”

what are you guys doing

“It’s Moondae.”

“yes.”

“We have some time before our tour.”

Yeah, I was thinking about that too.

‘Why is that?’

Liu Cheng-wu smiled and turned the laptop screen on the table to me.

“Shall we go here then?”

“yes?”

What’s on the screen… It was a camping resort.

-Healing glamping

The well-taken picture is automatically passed.

Forest Bathing Hot Spring Countryside … animal.

Keywords you see the most.

These are the healing keywords experienced in the < Grandson from that House > variety show and the keywords the production team promised for the next healing.

‘what.’

Big Sejin grabs my shoulder.

“It is said that Ahyeon went on a family trip! Are you really good?”

okay. The facilities and appearance look good. Of course, it would be fine as long as I went to that well-to-do house.

But why all of a sudden

I looked at Seon Ah-hyun. The guy shrugs his shoulders.

“You liked the neighborhood where Mumundae went to our entertainment… . Even that was a bad memory for Mundae… I didn’t want you to stay.”

“… … !”

“That’s how I found out.”

I’m at a loss for words.

“Do you like poetry?”

“… no.”

I answered.

“and… It didn’t feel that bad.”

It was a bit embarrassing, but it was okay until I learned about the production crew’s handiwork. That’s why it was more embarrassing.

“But hyung didn’t give me anything delicious… .”

“Cha Yujin, be quiet!”

That’s because being in a bad mood and being pissed off are two different things. It’s a baby.

However, I have no intention of telling such a story now to those who notice with trembling pupils.

Bae Se-jin quickly added his words.

“okay. Anyway, you don’t have to go to the hot springs with those entertainment people. Let’s go by ourselves!”

“I know. Then how about just thinking of this as a holiday souvenir and going out to play?”

Liu Cheng-wu finished talking.

I chuckled.

“Good.”

“Ohh~”

“Then we decided to go here!”

“OK!”

The relaxed guys start chatting among themselves.

“Shall we go on a cruise together on our next vacation? If you ride in Europe or a place like this, everyone won’t recognize you.”

“Oh, that’s good too.”

“What is a cruise ship?”

“Cruise ship.”

“Oh… .”

“You don’t like Eugene?”

“My grandfather likes cruise ships. I am young.”

It was very consistent.

‘I am.’

The next morning, I cooked a large amount of food for the first time in a while. All the housemates shoved it into their mouths without saying anything, so there was no annoying treatment.

It’s funny, but it feels like a kind of ceremony ahead of a big event.

‘Finish and go on vacation.’

I chuckled. It’s not intentional, but it’s a structure that’s almost typical.

and afternoon.

I called the last collaborator.

The phone rings a few times, and a voice is heard along with the sound of a dog barking.

-It’s been a while, junior. What’s the matter?

“Let’s borrow your private jet.”

Laughter is heard.

– For what purpose?

I broke my neck.

“Use to make sure there is no next hitter.”

The system ends here.

Chapter 367

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 367

Holiday after a few days.

"Come to think of it, juniors' group didn't have private jets, right? Well, it seems that the balance sheet still isn't right."

It was the words of a guy who has a knack for saying things that piss people off, but today it doesn't even scratch that much.

"Since there is sufficient domestic demand, there is no need for a private plane on the route."

"is it so?"

"Wow! oh my god! A sheet!"

"… … ."

It's because there are all kinds of fussing guys next to me.

Gold 2 Kwon Hee-seung is looking inside Chung-ryeo's private jet with his mouth wide open.

"and… Senior Seo, would it be okay if I took a picture of this?"

"If you are confident that it will not leak."

"… … ."

I took out my smartphone while watching Kwon Hee-seung quietly lower his smartphone.

“Shall I take a picture?”

“no.”

can it be This is for contact.

I checked the messages once again.

[Cheongwoo Ryu: Have a good day everyone]

[Ahyeon Seon: Take care of yourself and let me know if you have any problems!]

[Sejin Bae: See Munge well (photo)]

[Raebin Kim: It’s really good that the puppy is doing well. I’m still going down to my hometown. I’ll call you back when I arrive.]

[Cha Yu-jin: (Hand waving emoticon)]

[Lee Se-jin: Yes, everyone, go on vacation lol]

Half of the people who thought I was going to play, and half of the people who thought I was going to work.

At that moment, the group message room is updated.

[Lee Se-jin: But why did Moondaemundae 1 disappear but it didn’t come out? (flaming emoticon)]

I smiled and moved my finger.

[Me: I came out. See you the day after tomorrow.] And I remembered his reaction when I explained this situation to those who knew the situation a few days ago with ‘I’m going to take care of it'.

-okay? we can go together

I thought so.

-That's difficult.

-what?

– It's not that I'm afraid you'll get in the way or get caught up in it. It is a matter of structure.

-what?

– You shouldn't have people around you.

Yes.

My hypothesis is simple and valid.

First premise.

– As soon as the status abnormality ends, the system moves to the next host.

The closest suitable person to get in the fastest.

Then why do you do that?

'Isn't it that they can't endure a state without a host?'

If so, what if you could make it impossible to meet the host for a long time?

chamberlain… What would happen if Kwon Hee-seung clears the status quo in a place where there is no suitable person within hundreds of kilometers?

'According to the theory, it can't stand it and disappears.'

that was my goal

And Cheong-rye, who had already reasoned with me about the movement of the system, decided to launch a private plane as soon as he heard the explanation of the situation.

‘Since this bastard was having fun at the time, I thought he would give it to me.’

I nodded inwardly.

After looking around the inside of the private plane, Cheong-Ryeo naturally sat down on the seat… .

for a moment.

“Why aren’t you getting off?”

“hmm?”

Cheongryeo tilts her head to the side.

“I don’t know why you thought I was going to get off. Isn’t that my plane?”

What is this guy all about?

‘Somehow they said they wouldn’t take money.’

I pressed my forehead and muttered.

“This time, let’s reduce the variable as much as possible.”

“Haha junior while riding?”

“… !”

“Is there any difference between you and me? The situation is the same for both of us. It’s strange that only I have a different application.”

quick-witted kid.

Yes, in fact, I have already confirmed the answer to my case.

through the big moon.

-You cannot enter the same person again… I don't think there is.

-why?

– Because I already wrote that.

The choice of words was a bit worrisome, but that means you won't be able to re-enter users of the system who have been back in the past anyway.

It was an ambiguous but unignorable statement. Because it was said by a guy who is assimilating with the system.

'therefore… I am an exception to the next host.'

But just in case, I didn't bring the big moon.

Strictly speaking, the system never entered Ryu Gun-woo's body.

'I just took my mind off it.'

So, the big moon decided to share my view with me and examine the situation remotely.

Then why did Cheong-Ri, who is an exception like me, try to exclude it?

Isn't it obvious Look at that kid's personality right now.

'He's a guy who doesn't know where he'll bounce.'

I was thinking of excluding it to not create a variable.

'… I'll have to keep an eye on it.'

I finally sighed and answered.

“do whatever you want.”

“As expected, juniors are logical, so it’s nice.”

I will correct it. This kid scratches people well today too.

I leaned against the backrest roughly.

“Brothers! Where was our destination?”

“Pacific ocean.”

“oh my god.”

The place where the plan was executed was on top of the deep sea where no one lives.

The plane continued to move.

And it was not until afternoon after lunch that we arrived at the location.

“How does it feel to be floating in the middle of the Pacific Ocean?”

“Not once or twice, but again.”

“haha.”

I watch it every time I go to the US for work, so how can I be inspired by that?

Calculate at that time.

‘If we miss this timing, we will get too close to the American continent.’

It should be done within 30 minutes.

And I looked at the cockpit. It was a position where there would be a captain and a copilot who would firmly believe that LA Airport was their destination.

And I remembered the questions and answers I had with the person who hired the pilot.

About the possibility that the system will ever get in there.

-What are the odds of those people being suitable?

– That's a gamble. If you look at the propensity, the probability is extremely low.

Cheong-Ryeo smiled and suggested.

-Alternatively, there is a way to use a helicopter and place it on an uninhabited island or in an uninhabited desert. Well, that might be a bit difficult. Wouldn't it be better to do that though?

-done.

There is a reason for all the uninhabited land masses. I don't have it because I can't buy it.

Can't we tell Kwon Hee-seung to risk his life in order not to give him even the slightest possibility?

'Let's restrain ourselves.'

I decided to draw the best number from the realistically possible line, and this is the result.

Kwon Hee-seung must have noticed the atmosphere, and his expression became a little nervous.

"Then, shall we click on it later?"

"okay. for a moment."

I called my status window. A pop-up that pops out of course.

[Hyung, no way… ?]

Okay, that's it.

'Reopen the abnormal status clear window to Kwon Hee-seung.'

The popup didn't answer. It just shook subtly.

Still, the hologram appeared in front of Kwon Hee-seung.

"Oh hey! I am amazed every time!"

That bastard writes strange exclamations.

Cheongryeo murmurs with slightly disinterested eyes.

"There is nothing special about it."

"It will only be visible to the person concerned."

"hmm."

Cheong-ryeo crossed her arms. And nodded.

"Then in this state?"

"okay."

I closed my mouth and corrected my posture as well.

It was then.

[Hyung.]

The big moon pop-up pops up again.

'If it's not a serious problem, I'll do it like this. If you're going to tell me now… .'

[No, that’s not it!]

Isn’t it?

As if the pop-up is embarrassing, the text is shrunk.

[actually… It gives me a little hope.]

“… … .”

okay. In fact, this guy must have wanted to continue living as a human being.

I know I pretended to have no regrets because I just couldn’t help it and didn’t want to burden myself.

The pop-up trembled again and spat out carefully, letter by letter.

[Hyung, thank you so much… . You did this for me.]

‘It’s done.’

In fact, it’s not just for this guy. In the first place, it was embarrassing to leave such a time bomb, so I tried to get rid of it whenever I had the chance.

On the contrary, this guy is the same as helping me.

‘Proceed.’

[…] Yes!]

“Then… I’ll press it!”

Kwon Hee-seung stretched out his hand with a tense expression.

and press

amazingly.

“… … .”

“Is this… the end?”

It is my case that reflexively comes to mind in response to Kwon Hee-seung’s question.

‘There was a congratulatory window.’

But since it was launched by the big moon, it has nothing to do with the system…

“Uh huh?”

“… !!”

A hologram popped up in front of Kwon Hee-seung again.

But Molgol is different from before.

[??? ?]

[? ?? ???? ? ??]

[: ?? ? ? ?????]

Full of question marks… grotesque condition.

‘X feet.’

I got up from my seat.

And a low voice is heard from the other side.

Cheongrye.

“hmm… I see this.”

“… !”

what?

“Tongue brother.”

There is no time to look back at Cheongnyeol. I fix my eyes on the status window that appears in front of Kwon Hee-seung.

Kwon Hee-seung’s face is stained with bewilderment.

‘… Big moon!’

There was no answer to my calls.

Instead, the status window… .

Kwon Hee-seung turns his head and opens his mouth.

I got up. And I looked down at my body.

He is wearing a black training suit.

I barely opened my mouth.

“Where are you… .”

“This is the LeTi practice room. My agency!”

Chapter 368

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 368

'… So this is it.'

I came to my senses in the practice room of Cheongryeo and Nam's agency, who seemed to be around 20 years old.

It was a crazy situation.

I turned my head. Only then do we meet eyes in the huge full-length mirror that occupies the entire wall.

"… … !"

"Your junior is the same as before. Yes?"

Yes.

The one reflected in the full-length mirror was Ryu Gun-woo. The one who used to be my body. However, they are not in their late 20s who are tired of public announcements.

The appearance that seems to be the same age as Chungryeo now, who looks like she just graduated from high school.

I swallowed and raised my hand. Young Ryu Gun-woo in the mirror follows.

'… Gunwoo Ryu.'

But somewhere… My impression at the time was a little different.

Things like the eyes, the mood, and the skeleton.

“It seems that the appearance of Moondae Park is still there. like mixed? Haha, that’s unique.”

It gives me goosebumps.

‘No, don’t be so damn tidy.’

It might have been because of his facial expression.

Around this time, I didn’t look very good due to entrance exams and life problems, but the guy in the mirror seemed to have managed quite a bit.

‘… … .’

why did you manage it?

“The starting point is different this time. Well, they are different ages.”

I turned my head. Cheong-rye is looking for her smartphone and checking the date and situation.

I put my hand in the pocket of my sweatshirt. An old smartphone is caught.

“They are different ages.”

“is it so. The original restart was always 18 years old. But at the age of 20, the date is a few years later… hmm not right Is it because someone restarted it together?”

I took out my smartphone from my pocket and checked the date on the lock screen.

[201X / 01 / 08]

“… !”

The date was definitely odd.

If I’m about 20 now, it should be a few years earlier than now.

In the first place, Ryu Gun-woo should be older than Cheong-ryeo, but now they seem to be of a similar age.

‘Neither this nor that makes sense.’

Only then will your head be clear. The path is clear.

Isn’t it different from ‘Daydream’?

“This is a dream.”

“yes?”

“I can’t be sure, but I’ve experienced something similar.”

I briefly described a daydream I had while in a coma following a car accident. Cheong-ryeo listened without any change in expression.

“… And you don’t match your age and year. I also don’t like the way I look or the place I’m in.”

I concluded

“So it seems like this isn’t the past, it’s a mismatched dream.”

“ah.”

Cheongryeo smiled.

“Isn’t that what you want to believe?”

“… … .”

I clasped my hand.

“Then, is there a better guess than that in the current situation?”

“The surreal situation of returning to the past has already occurred, but other elements are contradictory, so do you think it is a dream? Isn’t that an overly arbitrary judgment?”

“… … .”

“Of course, you have to think of it as reality and act, junior. no um… Can you call me Geonwoo hyung?”

“stop.”

This bastard is way too far ahead.

But after taking a deep breath, I regained my composure.

Because there was nothing wrong.

“first… You’re right. We have to respond realistically.”

“yes.”

It’s stupid to see things the way you want to believe them. It makes sense to assume the worst and act.

and one more.

‘This bastard… My eyes are gone.’

It may have been because he voluntarily caught up with him, but he got caught up in this madness anyway… Now that it’s in a state where it looks like it’s restarted.

It’s a face that doesn’t know if he’s excited or who he wants to kill.

‘I’ll have to come to my senses.’

I don’t know what kind of sudden action will happen. I closed my mouth.

and… determine the cause.

‘Where did the error come from?’

Let’s look back at the situation on the plane at the time.

The error status window around us pops up like crazy, and that guy… .

-hmm… I see this.

“… !”

I saw the status window of Cheongryeodo!

It feels like a blow to the head.

‘No way’

this bastard… Could it be that the system went into this guy and the disabled status ailments worked again?

condition of this guy.

infinitely return to the starting point.

[Correction (Disabled)]

: Try again

– Go back to the beginning in case of failure.

As already confirmed in the case of Seon Ah-hyun, there is a possibility that status ailments that have been inactive can be re-activated.

‘Even if the system didn’t enter directly, if it became a kind of catalyst.’

I immediately checked the condition of Cheongryeol.

‘Status window.’

No, I was trying to check.

however… The window didn’t open.

Chi Chi Chi!

Instead, something like a strange glitch popped up and then disappeared.

One meaning was certain.

‘… The big moon.’

It means that it is in a state where it cannot appear in the status window.

I clenched my fist.

‘X feet.’

It seems to have failed properly, but I am not sure where it came from.

It was then.

A cautious voice is heard from behind.

“Those brothers.”

At the door of the practice room that was open before I knew it, a lanky guy poked his head out.

It was a familiar face.

“Oh, hello… !”

Ohda Shin, a member of VTIC.

Of course, he looked much younger than he did in real life. He opened his mouth again with a slightly nervous face.

“The head of the department called me, but he didn’t gather yet, so he sent me… .”

“okay? for a moment.”

Cheong-rye softly listened to him and spoke to me.

“Shall we go?”

“… yes.”

Once you follow the situation. Cheong-Ri and I moved along with Shin-Oh.

Walking down the hallway of an unfamiliar agency.

The place we arrived was the office.

And the head of the office, who looked like a janitor, called a lot of young people and put them in a row.

Maybe they’re all trainees.

‘About 20 people.’

Considering the size of this company, of course, it didn’t seem like the entire staff.

“I called you to encourage you now because I have a special eye on you. okay?”

“yes!”

Among those who were called, I saw a few familiar faces. A couple of faces debuting at a small agency after a few years.

And I can see the faces of the VTIC members I know.

‘Shin-oh, the guy who called us. next to it… Is that cast iron?’

No matter how you look at it, both of them are standing at the back of the line, as if they are not in the debut group.

It’s obvious.

‘Cheongnyeo cut them out.’

Chae-yul, who is not here, seems to have even been picked up separately.

I suddenly realized that the guy next to me was someone with experience who had combined reality through various attempts.

In the meantime, the head of the department is picking and encouraging and asking questions as if looking at each one.

“Shin Jaehyun, you take good care of the children.”

“yes.”

Shin Jae-hyun, who has not yet been given the stage name of Cheong-ryeo, nodded his head at the chief’s words with a plain face.

… How many times has this guy gone through this moment?

It was then.

“And Ryu Gun-woo.”

“… ! yes.”

why are you calling me all of a sudden

The head of the office wiggles his fingers and makes fun of his mouth.

“Geon-wu is also a good age and has a good academic background, so he has merit. Stop worrying unnecessarily and practice harder.”

“… … yes.”

Ryu Gun-woo is meeting all kinds of bullshit situations to listen to advice on his debut at LeTi.

‘hmm.’

I checked the attitudes and expressions of the people around me and where I was standing.

Those who forced a smile, in the first row next to Cheongryeol.

And if you combine the director’s words… .

‘I’m in the first team.’

Looks like I could be a trainee for LeTi. It is also a debut group.

Anyway, the person called the head of the department added a few words that sounded like he was going through a bit and dismissed the trainees.

“Do you stay and practice Jaehyun?”

“Um, see.”

“yes.”

I frowned after seeing the debut group trainees disappear across the hallway.

‘The chief seemed to be searching for something.’

First of all, let’s put aside the priority since it’s not a conspiracy by the head of this company.

‘I have to get out of this dream right away.’

ASAP.

I have no idea how time flows in real life or what kind of shit it is.

‘From a hint.’

I decided to check my position here.

‘This is unconditionally starting with the smartphone.’

It’s a bunch of personal information.

I walked down the hallway, took out my old smartphone, and manipulated the screen… .

“… … .”

I don’t know the lock pattern. Fuck.

I tried a few times, but they all got stuck. And I don’t know what he did, but… Then turn around and you’re done.

“Shin Jae-hyun.”

“hmm?”

“Do you have any records of conversations with Ryu Gun-woo on a smartphone?”

Considering the situation where we practiced together earlier and stretched out, it must be that we know each other.

“There was. here.”

also.

I saw the smartphone screen that Cheong-rye obediently held out.

[LeTi 16th class Shin Jae-hyun: Hyung, tell me the address of the place where you moved ^^]

[Let me know what to do]

… But after doing this, why bother sending a reply with the address written down there?

‘Are you crazy?’

I hear the sound of the cheongryeo being split.

“Hmm, I guess we were friends. It is a convenient structure.”

“Ah, you asked because you didn’t know the lock pattern. It’s a rhombus. Now is the time for the company to unify the debut group smartphone pattern for management reasons.”

That means you’re working with crazy assholes with no privacy.

It runs very well. it was shit

“After.”

11 p.m.

I am on my way to the place called Kun-Woo Ryu’s room, as recorded in Cheong-Ryeo’s message.

How about locking your phone? Surprisingly, the diamond pattern for the company also failed, so I left it just in case.

-is it so? It seems that Mr. Ryu Gun-woo has just joined the company.

‘Damn it.’

The reasoning ended there. I’m going to take it to the service center tomorrow and have it fixed. I sighed and moved my feet.

Cheongryeo also agreed to go back to his house first.

– Let’s talk again after each figure out the situation.

-is it so.

It was a reasonable decision.

The problem is.. and the arrival of my self-made building looks better than I thought.

‘It’s an officetel.’

How much money did you do this for?

Looking at the building, which seemed to be quite large and out of balance from the outside, I moved on.

It was a dream, not a reality. And fortunately

, I passed through the building entrance with the card key sticker on my smartphone.

I was thinking of going back to the company’s practice room if I had to, but I was fortunate enough.

‘Then it will be the gate of the house.’

I went up to the lake and unlocked the door as well, then reached out and pulled the doorknob.

The door opens softly.

But the lights were on in the house where there was no one there.

And a voice was heard.

“Is your brother here?”

“… !”

“You practiced for a long time today.”

Sitting on the living room sofa in comfortable clothes…

It was Ryu Cheng-wu.

Like me, he looks about 20 years old.

‘what’s this.’

“brother?”

Gunwoo Ryu here… He was living alone with his relative Ryu Cheng-wu.

“Hyung, have you ever heard of this culture?”

“… The professor doesn’t give good grades.”

“Um, that’s right.”

I don’t know what I’m doing. I rolled my eyes, reflexively appraising the 3 credits of liberal arts shown by 20-year-old Ryu Cheng-wu.

And saw.

In the living room, it is useless to give at a college entrance ceremony… Teddy bears are on display.

Two points too.

‘I’m going crazy.’

It is completely certain.

It was clear that Ryu Cheng-wu here had entered the same university as me.

Even those two teddy bears look the same.

‘It means I entered the school in the same year.’

But why is he calling me brother? There was no way I would have taken the exam again to go to the same university as when I was active duty.

“… … .”

Let’s ask in a natural way.

“Why do you keep using honorifics when you’re the same age?”

At worst, you can excuse yourself for drinking.

“Ah, I thought you were my older brother when I was little… It’s already stuck in your mouth. It’s really inconvenient, so don’t worry.”

Liu Chengwu smiles a little shyly. is it? The settings are unnecessarily meticulous.

I suppressed my drool and reflexively came up with a valid question.

‘… How about archery?’

At that age, I’m sure he would still be doing archery, but now that I think about it, it was strange that I entered college right now.

However, I saw the moment when a relative who even lived with him was about to do something suspicious by asking about it.

A blue, transparent line that suddenly appeared.

“… … .”

At first I thought it was a hallucination. But as if it’s creeping up… A long line is drawn in the air and finally becomes a square.

And the letters floating on the plane between the lines.

[&!5 hyung!]

Status window. big moon.

“… !”

I got up from my seat. And immediately went into the bathroom and shut the door.

thud.

‘What condition are you in?’

[I’m not sure either. It looked like it could be eaten, but I avoided it. It’s fine now.]

Sparse letters pop out as if trying to squeeze through a narrow gap.

It doesn’t look okay. But the text doesn’t stop.

[And there is a status window #^]

A crackling pop-up appears.

familiar phrase.

[Enjoy your]

That’s right.

This is a sentence that starts with the words you saw in your daydream. I clenched my fists.

… It was a hasty feeling.

Because the endings of the sentences are different.

[Enjoy your reality :D]

Not a dream, but reality.

‘reality.’

My brain cooled as if I had been hit with cold water.

The popup shook again.

[It’s not something I wrote. Hyung, I’ll try this somehow

.

“Wait, you are in danger… … .”

The status window disappeared before I could even tell him to wait.

‘Damn it!’

Why don’t these bastards listen to me like this? I nervously banged my fist on the bathroom wall.

It was then.

Lights flash like a neon sign.

Chapter 369

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 369

Once, after doing something he called 'rebooting', Keundal started talking actively again.

[Hyung, I think I'm fine!]

Certainly, the pop-up he displayed was stable and not anxious anymore.

But my head is more complicated than ever. I wonder if it's going to explode like this.

'Is there a new game system here?'

I was silent for a moment, then slowly opened my mouth.

"therefore… This game status window was created by the system itself, not you."

[yes… . I just modified it a bit.]

Apparently, in the process of mixing, the system can interfere with the status window, just like the big moon interferes with the system.

'No, it's a completely new application.'

Either way, it's not a pleasant thing. … But there is a curious point.

I touched my chin.

"Why does this look like Section 127?"

Yes. No matter where you saw this ‘colleague gathering’, the items overlap strangely, starting with the interface.

The game we collaborated on.

[That’s me! I wanted him to be familiar with me, at least in the form of a game… I followed it.]

“Really? … thanks.”

If so, it means that the structure and content itself were originally intended to be provided by the system.

‘It’s embarrassing.’

I looked through the holograms one by one, frowning.

First of all, the notation of the status window is similar to the previous one.

[Player: Ryu Gun-woo (Park Moon-dae)]

Attribute: Infinite potential

Until the next awakening opportunity / Exp 1000

Attributes disappeared and all stats went down in rank, but they are still ignored if age is considered It was a report card that was ignored.

‘It’s an all-rounder with nothing to throw away.’

Perhaps this is my original ability without any system corrections that I have received so far? The situation seems like garbage to be proud of, so let's pass it on.

The problem comes after that.

[Recruited colleague: Shin Jae-hyun]

Until the next recruitment opportunity / Exp 1000

Why is this bastard listed here?

Before that, what was the meaning of recruiting substitute colleagues? What else is Awakening?

I asked Keundal a few more questions, but I'm not sure if he's confused too.

'It can't be helped.'

I can't even guess what happened to this guy in reality right now. I couldn't expect more help from this guy.

What I don't have, I fill it with my head.

I lay in my embarrassingly good bed and thought.

A combination of clues once there.

'… Think of it as < 127 Section >.'

There, leveling up was called awakening.

Until the next awakening opportunity / Exp 1000

This must be the one displayed at the bottom of my status window.

Whenever you awaken, you get a random ability or skill. I heard that the choice actions I've made so far are accumulated probabilities.

If Daedal had properly implemented that mechanism, it would be similar here. And here, the experience used for awakening… 〈Prestige Exp〉.

‘It’s obvious.’

If you become famous, get awards, and get good grades, you will be kicked. It is no different from reorganizing the system when I was in Bakmundae to make it easier and easier to understand.

In a word, the number of targets is visible.

‘I’m asking you to debut.’

What this system wants is my debut in this world, no matter who sees it.

It means to debut, build up a reputation, and go out comfortably than last time.

‘It’s like I’m just going to stick with it and live here.’

It was an offensively blatant suggestion.

‘Did I turn?’

You know what you’re going to do and live like this here. and… … .

‘… There are so many of them in reality.’

I couldn’t throw it all away. never.

I closed my eyes.

It was rather nice to have plans for what to do tomorrow. Because there was no time to waste energy with useless worries and thoughts.

* * *

The next morning.

I had a meal with young Liu Cheng-wu.

“… … .”

no… Originally, this is what I do at the dorm, but since I eat like this without people around, it really feels like a corner of the house.

Ryu Cheong-wu has a comfortable and casual expression, as if he is used to silence.

‘The big moon is said to be resting.’

It seemed to be some kind of sleep from exerting too much force. it’s quieter thanks

“I’m going.”

“Goodbye, see you in the evening.”

Instead of persistently asking him questions to get information, I easily left the house, but this one was good value for money.

It was because I was thinking of going to the service center on this road and unlocking the smartphone.

‘There must be information in it.’

Data don’t lie.

And the service center canceled the lock pattern in 15 minutes. That’s neat.

‘This is the correct answer.’

If this bastard were me, I would have set up a security option that evaporates data if the pattern is incorrect, so I didn’t even try several times recklessly.

I opened my smartphone with a cool feeling.

“hmm.”

First of all, there is nothing special in the KakaoTalk history. There are only traces of a group message room mainly for motivation for group assignments.

‘… … Cheong-rye is the latest contact.’

How did this kid’s interpersonal relationship turn out? Even the photography club was temporarily withdrawn.

[Speaker Lee Yu-jin: Mr. Ryu Gun-woo?? Did you quit the photo club? Why didn’t you come?]

[Because something I wanted to do]

[Speaker Lee Yu-jin: ??? ㅇㅋ ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ]

Judging from the conversation with the guy who introduced me to the data arm job, what I want to do here must be an idol.

And maybe… The method is street casting during direct camera shooting.

[LeTi 16th class Shin Jae-hyun: I am Shin Jae-hyun who went to the Dream Concert with Lee Yong-jae. will you remember? Please take good care of me in the future hyung ^^]

This is the first message with Cheongryeo. Perhaps it was from this time.

‘… It’s only three months ago.’

Then it is said that he was put in the debut group as soon as he was picked up.

‘It’s hard to find a usable vocalist.’

Even Cheong Ryeo compromised on the main vocal, so he didn’t have an accident.

‘I understand the causal relationship, next.’

… … Ryu Chung-woo.

I went through the history of messages exchanged with him.

[Ryu Chung-woo: Soft tofu stew in the Engineering Building?]

[ㅇㅇ]

He was 21 years old, not 20.

‘I guess so.’

There are traces of knowing Ryu Gun-woo’s college life for a year, so this guy of the same age is the same.

and… Just like in real life, Ryu Cheng-wu here had also given up archery.

However, the aftermath of the injury did not occur, and it was a case of simply choosing to go to college with his own will.

‘I won the gold medal.’

[Ryu Chung-woo: I thought it would be fun to do more academic research.]

Ryu Chung-woo just chose what he wanted to do from among the open options.

‘then.’

… Isn’t this a happier world for him?

I stood still for a while holding my smartphone.

I guess I was confused. too… Isn’t that a good option for everyone?

‘no.’

That’s because it’s a dream.

Every time the status window pops up, the English sentence at the top says it’s real, but I can’t believe it.

‘Still, it’s better than being in a trashy situation.’

During daydreaming, wasn’t every bastard he met mentally out of his mind? I threw away my thoughts and looked at KakaoTalk again.

And scroll bar down.

get off… come over

I saw.

[My family]

‘Ah.’

… … A family chat room.

I didn’t delete my parents’ contacts from my phone until I graduated college.

After confirming that the number had been passed on to someone else, I deleted it.

And at this point… It seems that I was doing something meaningless by digging up a message room like this and writing a message.

‘X-foot’

But somewhere in the corner of my head someone is talking.

In a world where everything goes well, maybe… .

“… … .”

I entered the room with the last message, ‘Okay’.

And saw.

[Mom: Don’t skip meals, eat well, right?]

The messages we exchanged last month.

“… !”

I hurriedly clicked on the profile. An introductory note was written, “The reply is very slow because I am abroad.” see a picture of a flower

And the number below it.

I pressed call.

Tiririk.

Strange basic notes are connected and time passes, and no logic is connected in the head.

And the moment the connection sound is cut off.

-Are you Gunwoo?

My throat is blocked.

From one day, I couldn’t remember exactly, but a familiar voice gently flows through the phone.

-Gunwu, what’s wrong?

“that… .”

I swallowed.

My smartphone vibrates and my ears are pressed.

“I just want to hear your voice.”

– What’s wrong with our son!

The voice grew. And, as if pleased, the end rises.

And the memories come later.

You originally said it in this tone.

– I’m glad I got a call right now. Every time I used a walkie-talkie in Antarctica, the timing was perfect.

This time the voice lowers again.

-I’m sorry, I miss you so much, Mom and Dad.

damn damn

“Yes, me too.”

What am I talking about?

– Oh, really, what’s the matter? Puberty is over! our son Mommy has to go now.

My eyes hurt.

-Then, I’ll definitely see you at Christmas this year. Understand?

“yes.”

The call was cut off like a mirage. However, the call history is clear.

[01:04]

Like this is real.

“… … .”

My hands are shaking.

Thoughts expand like crazy.

where did you say Antarctica?

Go back to the message room. There are traces of parents who went to the Antarctic base for 2 years for research purposes and kept in touch for 1 year… .

And since I became a member of the wintering crew this year, I even said that it is difficult to contact them often.

"… … ."

Antarctica.

Ideas are stamped into the brain like an awl.

'Wouldn't it be all right if I went?'

There is no coercion like status ailments anymore. It was okay for me not to debut here.

If you go on a leave of absence like this and make an excuse somehow and visit me saying you wanted to see me… … Even if you go there, you won't come out to see your face.

"… … ."

I turned off my smartphone.

And I took a deep breath.

'no.'

It felt like my brain was going to burst… … .

But discernment comes first. this is handcrafted

Even if you are a researcher, why are your parents suddenly going to Antarctica? it's all made up

"It is a dream. It's a dream… … ."

So, since it's a dream, can't I do whatever I want? So you can beat them all up and do whatever you want… … .

"shut up."

Shut up your mouth or your brain.

'I have to go back.'

I stumbled.

This… I can't. We need to get out of here as soon as possible.

I can't stand it.

I turned off my smartphone. Then he put it in his pocket and started walking again.

LeTi Ryu Gun-woo's agency.

"… … ."

My hands were wet with sweat.

* * *

"You look bad."

"Okay."

I replied briefly. Cheongryeo shrugged.

LeTi's practice was as intense as its name, but today it was a state of practice that was spread out and practiced independently, with almost no training being caught.

“It’s a good time to come back when it rains. Aren’t you practicing as a team?”

“… okay.”

You have to have productive conversations.

And I think it’s true that this guy is insane, but… Even in this crazy situation, the natural equanimity strangely calms people down.

‘Let’s work.’

think only of work Nothing else.

I raised my composure.

“There was nothing special about my house, but what about my junior?”

“A new status window has popped up.”

“Hmm.”

I explained the current situation in as much detail as possible. Because there is no element here that this bastard can turn his back on.

And I thought I would listen to an example to help you understand.

“Have you tried < 127 Section >?”

“I am not very interested in games.”

I thought so.

In any case, Cheong-Ryeo nodded her head rather obediently, as if she had understood the context.

“In the end, you have to gain fame to fully restore your junior’s vocal ability. Hmm.”

“… … .”

that’s the most important thing to you this is it I get it.

Besides, this kid has a sudden rash.

“Do you want to debut right away?”

are you the boss Why is a trainee asking such a question naturally?

‘Is this because he’s a deceased person?’

If the goals match each other, there was no such efficiency.

However, I do not intend to do the careless thing of going straight down the route this system wants.

“for a moment.”

I brought up the quest tab.

[Quest: Fellow Awakening 1/?]

– Recruit and awaken allies.

Allies that can be awakened: ?

Required Reputation: 1000 Exp

Companion Awakening Quest.

And I recall the conversation I had with the big moon yesterday before falling asleep.

-What does it mean to be an awakening companion?

– I don’t know either… Perhaps, as your brother reasoned, it is related to ability level? Because it was like that in Section 127… .

– I guess so.

I thought it might mean that I would have my colleagues level up as a group to make it easier to adapt to this world unconditionally.

Even without coercion.

‘If so, isn’t there a bit of a gap to dig into?’

There is as much space as afterthought.

-Then could you possibly add a little bit here? Just one line of descriptive text at the right level of context.

-… … ! hey a little bit

So I added this explanatory text.

[Awakened comrades remember the previous timeline and grow.]

This is what was in Section 127.

In that game, every time you awaken an ally, you remember the contents of the previous round and become stronger… has a setting.

“… … .”

I clenched my fist.

‘I have to try it.’

Just slightly increase the reputation value to see if it works properly.

I explained the matter to Cheong Ryeo.

And the response is this.

“is it so? all right.”

“… … .”

You say it comes out so smoothly?

“Ugh, the reaction isn’t great. Was it just something you said?”

“No way.”

When this guy cooperates, let’s get the most out of it. I crossed my arms.

“first… I know that a few group 1 trainees are leaked before their debut if they are pardoned by a large company.”

“It is. I do it on purpose.”

I did a search before coming here. For example, Shin Jae-hyun is already well-known among idol fans of the LeTi genealogy.

Just get that level of fame once.

“I should be able to get information similarly.”

“Ah, I’ll post something on the Internet myself?”

I looked at it in disbelief.

“Can you do just that?”

“haha!”

Even knowing this bastard, he is doing this for no reason. In other words, it is difficult to control the attention of Internet writing because it must be accompanied by controversy.

The official route was better than that.

“This company also gives trainees a job.”

There is something that large agencies often do with those who haven't debuted yet.

For stage experience, it is to set up a senior idol as a dancer or to appear in a music video for recognition.

Mainly seniors of different genders, as long as their fan bases do not overlap.

And, as far as I know, LeTi did quite a bit of that before the mystic line VTIC debuted and overhauled the guidelines.

'It's the awards ceremony season.'

At this point in the past, who is the most popular female idol in LeTi? A group with the 'soft and sweet'

hit song 〈POP☆CON〉.

So, debutant Ryu Kun-woo is a soft and sweet dancer.

"I want you to push that."

I looked back at the late Shin Jae-hyeon, who must have mastered everything in this agency.

The guy nodded his head calmly, quite confidently.

"Well, I don't think you need that kind of experience for the main vocal position… Yes. He said he wanted to do that."

"… … ."

Chapter 370

. The backstage scene of the award ceremony is going crazy ahead of the live broadcast of

episode 370 .

“Sister this!”

“Sohyun has arrived!”

This year, Malangdalkom has been insanely busy. It was to the extent that it was a daily routine for the members to arrive late due to personal schedules and prepare in a hurry.

The staff who was preparing for the performance just nodded once.

‘They’re all really pretty.’

They looked tired, but like an idol group that has already reached the top, Soft and Sweet had a special atmosphere unique to a person who was well taken care of.

‘Even if they picked pretty girls in the first place.’

One of the reasons that led to this speculation was right next to it.

“Let’s do it right.”

“yes!”

It was because the faces of the trainee dancers who came along were also gorgeous.

‘Although Letty said that she risked her life and death in this male group.’

You can’t believe all the sneaky celebrity gossip, but maybe half of it is true.

There were about seven of them, and most of them were handsome to anyone.

‘hmm.’

Taking advantage of the moment when his hand was empty, the staff sneakily examined the face. Maybe you can see it on a music program next year.

And because these one-sided observations and speculations are fun!

Then, I found a particularly calm person.

‘… ! He’s the real Lety-san.’

A boy with a slightly dark impression wearing black slacks and a shirt. It had a neat impression, but it was a beautiful shape with refined lines.

And there was also a delicate plainness that seemed somewhat cold.

‘oh.’

It was a moment when the step was slightly admiring. Suddenly, as if he had something to say, the trainee turned to the staff.

“… !”

And our eyes met.

‘oh my.’

The moment I was about to avert my eyes as if I hadn’t observed it in a hurry.

‘Ah, he laughs.’

The trainee gently lowered her head and listened.

His natural smile oozes softness, as if he’s done this a hundred times over.

Should I say that there is no pretense that is burdensome?

Steph quickly nodded his head in unison, but admired him inwardly.

‘and… Looks like you’ve been properly educated.’

It wasn’t.

Ryu Gun-woo, who was originally a 5-year grand prize idol tester, was breathing a sigh of relief in his heart.

‘I almost asked for my microphone.’

It was because I was so used to this atmosphere that my subconscious felt comfortable.

In addition, the thin glasses on his face were a bit flimsy, so he was more concerned about them.

‘I put on lenses, but on top of them, fake glasses… … .’

It’s because you don’t know what point you’re trying to sell. How are you going to criticize the trainee dancer for being more stylish than the idol herself?

‘Haven’t I already been criticized for such a thing at this time?’

If I ate more primary colors, I would have eaten, but not less.

However, the moment I saw the soft and sweet outfit, that value judgment was blown away.

‘… To what extent.’

Layers of chiffon and sparkling artificial crystals abound. It looked like something for a film festival red carpet.

He wondered if he would be able to dance while wearing that, but anyway, after comparing it with his own costume, Ryu agreed.

‘It must be something like a butler or servant concept.’

It was cheesy, but I didn’t want to because it was a time when excessive concepts were rampant.

‘It’s enough once the existence is known.’

His part was just a short dance in the intro.

“Thank you~”

“Thank you, senior.”

After shaking heads with Sohyeon, whom he matched only once during the in-house rehearsal, he moved along with the other trainees.

I could hear whispers and whispers nearby.

“Ah, I’m pretty.”

“Ugh. Hey, but my personality is a bit… .”

‘Yeah.’

Thanks to this, Ryu Gun-woo wholeheartedly agreed with Chung-ryeo’s VTIC member pickup.

It wasn’t for no reason that Shin-oh and Ju-dan, who were in the back row of the line-up, were brought in.

‘It’s full of unexploded bombs.’

Maybe it's because the agency's eyes are turned upside down and they only look at their faces and talents, so they can't tell the difference between what they can't say in an empty seat.

"hmm?"

"no."

Cheong-Ryeo, who happened to be standing next to her, noticed Ryu Kun-Woo's gaze and even explained further.

"Ah that. I've taken it as a test before… In the third year since debut, GFriend posted a post revealing her personality."

"… … ."

"Haha, people really don't change, right?"

Ryu Gun-woo didn't seem to be surprised if he was buried in cement and thrown into the Han River at some point in time.

Anyway, that was the end of the rubbish.

"I don't think I will do anything too hard for the first stage."

"uh. take care of it."

The trainees went on stage with Melancholy, thinking about their own circumstances.

and that night.

An article was posted on an Internet community that only talked about celebrities, especially idols.

_____==

[Added line-up of candidates for the next male idol debut group Letty]

It is an established theory in the academic world that the girls in Goldie's soft and sweet intro are the debut group. Lim

_____==

And the article explained the trainee dancers who were briefly caught on the outskirts by combining GIF files and their previously leaked selfies.

Most of them were people who had already been rumored to know among the deceased fans of the agency, but there was one new face.

It is Ryu Gun-woo, who dances briefly paired with soft and sweet Sohyeon.

_____==

They say they were originally private trainees, but it seems like they joined the debut group this time?

_____==

This year as well, Soft Sweet performed the so-called 'byeongmat' concept stage, but the intro itself implemented the dazzling princess concept excessively well. .

Thanks to that, the stage was dominated by that atmosphere, so trainee dancers didn't have to be talked about for their skills or looks, but there was something special about them.

-Wow, look at the nostril trainee's eyes hahahaha

-He makes eye contact like a ghost.

It's because Ryu Gun-woo inadvertently found the camera too accurately.

I tried not to overdo it, but it was force majeure due to jjambab.

She chose to eat mustard while crying because it would have seemed more awkward to look away from the camera.

However, the effect exploded there.

-What is turning your face to the camera with Sohyeon, a non-gong trainee

? Only Lee and the non-gong trainee hold the camera firmly. At a glance, it seems that the two will be the main axis of the debut group hahaha -What should I do?

Based on decades of experience, Ryu Gun-woo was mentioned quite a lot in the comments, along with Chung-ryeo, who appropriately adjusted his concentration.

-Letty is a real pine tree hahaha

– Wow, the genealogy of her face is clear hahahaha -Please benevolent Letty, well-informed people, give me an answer

. It’s a non-coincidence student

ㄴAs any sasaeng would know, of course, that was the end of the reaction.

In the first place, she only appeared once as a dancer, so idol fans who are deeply interested in Letty simply glance at her. However, for the person concerned, it was quite new.

Gunwoo Ryu lowered the screen of the smartphone he was looking at.

It was fortunate that I somehow managed to control it and did not use facial expressions. He didn’t stand out too much.

However, the very fact of being newly known strangely reminded me of the day of the first stage release of < Azusa >.

“… … .”

That state of feeling strangely better after seeing a few cheering comments.

A strange perfume came over me.

[♪♪♫♪♬♪~]

Gold disc reruns are in full swing on TV.

Liu Cheng-wu, who was making a PPT on his laptop in the living room without thinking, was quite surprised when he looked up.

“… ! Is the person behind you your brother?”

“uh.”

Suddenly, I wanted to become an idol trainee, but I had already made my screen debut.

‘Wow’

However, even though it would be the first time to appear on a TV screen like this, there was no great excitement or tension from his relatives.

instead…

‘… Satisfied?’

Yes. It seemed closer to it.

Is there anyone who can feel that kind of emotion when they see their first performance?

Since he is such a calm person, he was not even mistaken for an older brother when he was younger.

‘Because I’m not weird.’

He shrugged. And after a while, he lowered the PPT and looked at the TV screen that Ryu Gun-woo was watching.

“Oh, there you go again.”

“okay.”

I thought I wouldn’t make fun of him, but I didn’t.

Ryu Gun-woo, who is sometimes caught on the screen, looked surprisingly natural.

Liu Qingyu was genuinely impressed.

“Hyung, I didn’t mean to become an idol for nothing. Well done.”

“what.”

But I hadn’t noticed that the older brother was clenching his fists.

* * *

Came in!

I opened the status window pop-up that finally appeared after the awards ceremony was rebroadcast.

[Prestige is increasing… .]

+Exp 10000

The settled reputation exp is a whopping 10000.

‘It’s really good.’

Even though it’s in the early stages, it’s only been revealed as a trainee so far? If it was a real game, it would be ruined.

‘What do I know?’

I was willing to spend all my reputation points while watching it.

Just then, something else popped up in a row.

[Condition fulfillment]

: 〈Recruitment of colleagues〉 has been unlocked!

– > Go

‘Finally.’

A new feature came out. I even made a tab with a grandiose image banner. It is a picture of dark shadow figures shaking hands.

[Recruiting Colleagues]

Find allies with ties.

also.

I guessed from the time they said it was taken from < 127 Section >, but this format is that.

‘Draw a character.’

It means that who will come out as a companion is random.

It’s more like a real mobile game than when drawing characteristics, but in fact, there’s not much difference in content.

However, if you look at the words, you will find someone with a relationship… … .

I glanced at Ryu Cheng-wu, who was sitting next to me.

“hmm? why?”

“no.”

Park Moon-dae, a guy who knew everything about my situation, was probably close to me.

‘Let’s go back anyway.’

I got up from the living room and went into the room where my bed was. and closed the door

[brother! Are you going to do it now? Fighting!]

“Yes.”

I moved my finger while watching the big moon chatter.

’10 consecutive draws… It’s done.’

Recruit only one at a time.

When you press the button, a shining star flies in from the black universe along with the motion of the screen spinning… .

… off?

[Failure!]

What.

[Do you want to try again?]

-Exp 1000 used

I was speechless and looked at the status window before realizing the reality.

1000 reputation points just flew away.

“… … .”

this… X Damn real game.

[sorry! sorry! I didn't do this! Really!]

"… … know."

Come to think of it, in Section 127… With a low probability, there was a dog-like joke like this.

And it was BM that set this trashy exchange fee. So it's because of the game companies who developed the game revenue model like this.

T1!

'… When I said it, it's my company.'

How is it? I, who signed the contract myself, guarantees that those children are money-mad bastards.

'for a moment.'

When I think about it, my eyes open. I immediately turned over the status window and looked at the past pop-ups.

And found.

[-Recruit and awaken allies.]

Recruitment and awakening are separate.

I hope this… .

"… The experience points used for recruiting and the experience points used for awakening have been set separately."

So, after recruiting allies, it takes another reputation point to awaken separately… .

[Ahhhh 1!]

That's right.

Awakening is leveling up, recruitment is drawing… Of course, it costs extra money to pick it up and level it up.

natural… Isn't that game common sense?

"… Whoa."

I took a deep breath.

[Are you okay?]

"Uh."

very good very.

After pressing my eyes, I pressed the 'Recruit 1 time' button again.

Then, roughly brass and silver colors swirl through the black universe without impact, and a picture emerges.

It seems to have worked fine this time… … .

[★★ Kim Ik-je / Sub-vocalist]

[Lee Ha-ram / Sub-dancer]

[Do you want to greet me like this?]

Who are you?

No exclamation needed.

'Why do bastards I don't know come out?'

It's obvious.

One or two stars? It is a dummy character that fills the draw pool unconditionally.

I held back my sleep and covered my face with my hands.

‘But where did the stars come from?’

〈Section 127〉 has no concept, you bastard, where did you get the mass-produced lottery game system from?

[J; ╢ Zeze didn’t do it.]

“I know.”

would be the system

I must have misunderstood something. I guess this bastard didn’t want me to settle down here. Do you do shit like this?

… or not.

‘Am I interfering?’

Seeing that you added a description to Awakening, are you doing this shit to somehow make me give up?

‘That’s funny.’

Anyone can gamble their money.

You don’t even need willpower. Just press your finger!

I didn’t greet the ally I picked and sent them to the reserve inventory.

Then, out of the remaining 7000 EXP, I spent 5000 EXP and hit the button 5 times.

Catch up!

[Ugh!]

Don’t be frightened, because I was going to fuck you like this anyway!

And again, the light flashes without sincerity.

[Choi Dong-ho / Sub-rapper]

[Failure!]

[★★ Jin Yun-tae / Visual]

[Kim Seok-won / Sub-dancer]

Again, unknown people pass by. In the meantime, one failure.

‘X feet!’

but last.

Aurora light flashes.

[~♪♬♪~]

Notes passing over the stars.

“… !!”

I swallowed.

‘no way.’

Who knew the situation this time? A dazzling light burst from the status window across the universe.

And the next phrase… .

[WOW!]

[★★★★★ Cha Yujin / Center]

Chapter 371

Episode 371 Cha

Yoo-jin.

A center with ‘Attribute: Black Hole (S)’.

With a crazy combination of conditions optimized for idols from skill to mentality, he has Triple A as his stat at a young age. I will not even go to the army and there will be no hiatus.

No wonder the system gave this guy five stars.

but… other conditions.

[Cha Cha Yujin doesn’t know anything?]

“I don’t know.”

This guy… My body changes, I return to the past, the status window opens, and I am Nabal and I do not know anything.

And that’s the most difficult kind of human being to properly explain.

-OK. So you and I used to know each other, but you came back to the past and became a different person?

-Call 911?

‘ruined.’

I moaned and rubbed my face.

However, the status bar flashes merrily.

[Would you like to welcome it like this?]

“… uh.”

X-shot Yes, I can’t take it.

[First Fellow Recruitment]

: < Fellow Awakening > has been unlocked!

– > Move

Another new tab is opened.

I got that popup right away. This time instead of a banner, something like a list of friends from the game pops up… … .

[Awakenable colleague]

Jaehyun Shin: During today’s workout (^^)

Yujin Cha: Sleeping soundly (—p—)zZ

“… … .”

You see a dot image of each gnome that looks like an emoticon. this too… It seems that 〈Section 127〉 was implemented as a deteriorated version.

It’s a bit ridiculous, but it might not be bad for information seeking purposes. lame though.

… It’s been a while since I’ve seen Cha Yoo-jin’s name, so it’s nice to see you. Anyway, it looks like everyone else is here too.

“after.”

I sighed and checked the remaining exp. It’s 2000.

‘I’m sure there won’t be failures in leveling up.’

Isn’t that a step beyond the line in the ‘127 Section’ game? Of course, at the point of introducing the star rating system, I ate it.

‘If you think of it as a reinforcement concept, there is a possibility of failure.’

And if it fails, it’s just evaporation.

“Are there any probability tables here?”

What percentage of failures are what percentages of five stars?

Shouldn’t we at least know the expected value and calculate it?

[Wait a minute!]

The pop-up of the large moon that disappeared in a hurry reappeared after a while as if crawling in.

[Something like that… I don’t have it.]

“… … .”

Minimum expectations… Smashed.

Well, in the first place, there was nothing in the colleague recruitment banner.

I don’t even get mad anymore I, the X-God, expected morality from this crazy system. I looked at the ceiling of the room and held my breath.

Then I realized that there is a postal symbol in the top corner of the status window.

‘for a moment.’

What do you notice about that?

clicked

[The money for failure came… .]

+ 10G

+10G

“… … .”

For reference, there is no gold tab in this status window.

That is, it is a fake product. It must have happened in the process of overwriting the existing 127 section skin.

‘I’m stuffing the text with gold, you damn bastard… .’

I took my eyes off because I thought my blood vessels would explode if I continued. And back to the point.

Fellow Awakening!

[Colleague: Do you want to awaken Cha Yu-jin?] -Use

Exp 1000

I pressed OK.

Then, in Cha Yoo-jin’s dot image, an unusual light is lingering.

[Leap towards the emergency… .]

and seconds later.

Fanfare explodes from Cha Yu-jin’s handwriting.

[First awakening success!]

That’s it.

I clenched my fist. Not because of the thrill of success.

‘So what’s going to happen.’

I have to check how valid the explanation I pasted is, but I summoned them as colleagues and have no realistic words other than these emoticons.

‘What do you want me to do as a colleague?’

It was then.

Another pop-up pops up.

[< Communication > has been unlocked!]

“… !”

I don’t think it’s possible to have a conversation with a colleague through the status window like a big moon… … .

[I got a contact… .]

Cha Yujin: 858-XXX-XXXX

“… … .”

They give me the real number.

No, look closely… This even has an area code of the United States.

San Diego, California, USA.

‘Damn it.’

I punched the bed.

Are you in the US?

Is that why Sang-tae was sleeping?!

* * *

Cha Yoo-jin had a dream.

In the dream, he left his hometown and took up a job in a foreign country where his bloodline came from.

-Take your STAR. Hello Testa!

He was a KPOP idol!

It was a job he never imagined would appear in his life.

From the moment I impulsively accepted the scouting offer that suddenly came in after the semester ended, everything was decided in an instant.

There was only one reason.

It was fun!

And gearco he made his debut with a good team… .

– Eugene is the best at this kind of thing.

They were good members.

It wasn't always good things, but every moment that ended up with good results.

spicy… A more dynamic life!

At that moment he realized.

'This isn't a dream.'

Cha Yu-jin opened her eyes.

And at that moment, he realized that he remembered the past, not a dream.

“Whoa.”

6 am.

He reached out and dismissed the alarm that hadn’t gone off yet.

Then I walked out to the kitchen, drank some water, and reflected on what had happened.

‘ah.’

The hair that wasn’t dyed was somehow awkward. therefore… .

Who are you?

’23-year-old Cha Yoo-jin belonging to the KPOP group Testa.’

However, now Cha Yoo-jin’s body is living in a completely different situation. He went to the local high school and was on the football team… .

I didn’t know much about KPOP. until just yesterday.

‘Wait, was it really yesterday?’

I couldn’t figure out what the situation was. Apparently, he had been on vacation for a long time and went to a friend’s house to play together… .

Actually, is this a dream?

He brought his hand to his face without hesitation.

puck.

“cadet.”

It hurt terribly.

He reproached his judgment for hitting him in the face and realized why.

It's because I'm going to go on stage, but I don't want my face to be scarred.

"hmm."

He put down his glass of water and shrugged.

'I'm an idol.'

It was right to start from there.

All that knowledge and information tips that I remember are by no means fake. An elaborate, real experience that no lunatic can make up.

'On the contrary, this side is more suspicious.'

he rubbed his chin. Isn't the life of this local high school too plain compared to one's own life?

It's no different than when I was in middle school.

'Whatever.'

First of all, he texts the numbers of other members of Testa… .

'… … I don't know?'

Well, who in the world memorizes other people's numbers these days?

He shrugged and tried to think of what to do next. But before that, an alarm popped up on my smartphone.

Ding-dong.

It was a message from the Face Look account.

It's all in Korean.

-Apple: Hello.

-Apple: I am Park Moondae. If you remember, please reply.

The typeface uses a familiar tone.

“oh my god.”

Cha Yoo-jin laughed.

How can you show up at the perfect timing every time?

He tapped the screen with one hand.

-I’m from America lol

-I’m going to Korea tomorrow!

It seemed that the same thing would happen if I lost my savings on the plane ticket anyway. Cha Yoo-jin giggled.

* * *

“… So, are you waiting for the former member to enter the country now from the United States?”

“okay.”

I nodded.

I wasn’t too happy with the expression “former member”, but there’s no need to be blunt with the guy who followed me all the way to the airport.

“It is an unusual variable that past memories can come back randomly. I really want to write it.”

Cheong-rye is manipulating something with her smartphone with a sad face.

That bastard seems to be acting completely assuming that this is real.

‘… I understand.’

It wouldn’t have been once or twice.

I’ve been to this guy for a while… I was about to bring up a story about dogs, but I stopped.

‘I have to bring up the story only when I can see a solution to go back.’

Even if I try now, wouldn’t it just make me turn around more? I held my breath and listened to the placard.

[Welcome Testa Yoojin Cha]

… It’s embarrassing, but I can’t help it because my face is different from before.

‘It was fortunate that I was able to find the FaceLook account with my phone number.’

And fortunately, not long after holding this, a guy ran through the gate and came out excitedly.

A guy wearing a jumper that looks like a ski suit and dragging a suitcase with one hand.

“brother!”

Cha Yoo-jin, a common man.

I was speechless for a moment and felt a strange feeling… Wait, how old is that kid?

Cha Yoo-jin, who is young and blue, stops in the middle and frowns.

“Moondae hyung?”

“uh. grow.”

Calm down.

No matter how old this pup is, you need to explain why the body is different before proceeding.

But before I could open my mouth, he did.

“He looks like Moondae hyung, but he’s a different person. Have you ever had plastic surgery?”

“… similar.”

“Oh… .”

“greatness.”

I heard the sound of a baby cleaving. I pressed my forehead and muttered.’

“anyway… I’ll even give you the password for our dorm, so try anything first.”

“I don’t need it. You are right!”

“… … okay?”

“yes. [Of us, only Moondae hyung says that.]”

Cha Yoo-jin smiled.

“I know. So please explain!”

“… … okay.”

I got out of the airport with a guy who used to mix written expressions from < Azusa > on the road because he was a bit young.

And a game room in Seoul.

“… That’s how it happened.”

I managed to finish the nonsensical explanation of the situation in a long hour.

I break out in a cold sweat.

‘It’s getting more and more embarrassing even in summary… .’

I covered my twitching mouth with coffee. I couldn’t even guess what Cha Yu-jin would say.

However, the boy nodded his head obediently.

[It’s kind of like a parallel dimension multiverse. Right?]

“… … ??”

Cha Yoo-jin… do you understand this

Even in that term?

The guy shrugged.

[In addition, the alien mental parasite… Limestone movies like that. I know that much, too.]

At the same time, he seemed to think that he liked stupid things like this, but I’m just grateful that he agreed. To see Limestone Duck like this.

Of course, it is possible because the evidence is felt on the skin now.

Because life has changed

[Anyway, for some reason, this place didn’t feel like my reality.]

Saying, ‘I’ve found all my memories,’ Cha Yu-jin shook her head as she took a shot of hot chocolate.

[Because I’m so bored. It’s kind of like playing a tape over and over again?]

That’s right.

[And I can’t be a quarterback candidate this easily. It’s a world taller than 6 feet 3 inches.]

Cha Yu-jin grumbled, saying that her 6-foot-tall self had to have more adversity and mountains to overcome in order to succeed.

I agreed.

“I feel like I’ve set the right conditions. It’s not even the right age.”

“that’s right. that senior? Seniors who are not seniors now, were originally older.”

Cha Yoo-jin pointed to Cheongnyeo quite politely.

“… … .”

He… You’ve lived a lot longer than you think.

Anyway, the designated Cheong-rye is processing something with her smartphone without much agitation.

“Are you busy?”

“We have to adjust our debut schedule little by little.”

You reschedule… ?

Then Cha Yu-jin suddenly intervened.

“debut?”

“It looks like I can only get my kids’ memories back if I become famous. I guess it’s like game experience.”

“Um… .”

Cha Yoo-jin's face was momentarily confused, but he soon understood.

"Okay, okay."

what.

"I'm debuting too!"

Cha Yoo-jin grinned.

"With me, the group becomes famous faster."

"… !"

It was a confident statement to the point of being arrogant, but I couldn't refute it.

"And we'll be testa again soon! Everyone, find out and do something!"

"… what?"

Cha Yoo-jin smiled.

[anything! We have to find our way back. As a testa!]

You bastard… .

It was to the point where the 17-year-old now felt quite trustworthy.

But it seems that the other guy wasn't.

"hmm."

Cheong-Ryeo looked up and down Cha Yu-Jin, as if estimating livestock, and was silent for a moment, then came to a brief conclusion.

"I can't."

"… !"

However, Cha Yu-jin had no sense of hitting.

“Everyone has a chance to challenge. The group hasn’t debuted yet. So it’s not yours.”

I’m trying to lose with facts.

However, Cheongryeo also has no sense of hitting.

“There seems to be a misunderstanding.”

Cheong-rye smiled.

“The company won’t accept Yujin, not me.”

“… !?”

And it speaks like a death sentence.

“Because that’s not the look LeTi prefers.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

I now thought of the debut group and Shin-O Judan Cheong-Ryeo. And finally, I thought of my current appearance.

… Doesn’t everything feel dark and cold somewhere?

And finally, I saw 17-year-old Cha Yoo-jin sitting in front of me.

He’s a guy whose eyes are about to explode.

hmm.

surely… When one of these guys comes in, I feel a little out of place.

“I am really good at it. Is that so?”

“well. Even if you ask me… Because I am not the owner of the company.”

Cheongryeo smiled brightly.

“Like you said.”

Oh, this baby is crazy.

Honestly, with Cha Yoo-jin’s ability, even if they don’t debut right away, if the agency has eyes, they’ll keep it somehow.

‘LeTi must be like that too.’

But seeing a guy I know do that, I’m going to kick him out of my own line.

Cha Yu-jin stared at Cheong-ryeo and immediately nodded without regret.

“OK. Then brother, come over here. Find a new agency with me!”

“for a moment.”

It’s not like the agency shoots a rookie every quarter, so if it goes that way, there’s no telling when they’ll be able to debut again.

‘driving me crazy.’

I pressed my forehead. Cheong-rye said without erasing her smile.

“I say so.”

Cha Yu-ji stared at Cheong-ryeo in silence for a while, then opened his mouth quite seriously.

[I don’t know why they appear so hostile, but don’t you want to go back? Your group already exists. Don’t you miss them?]

“… … .”

Did one of them have to keep his mouth shut?

[We can find a way back together, but I don't know why not.]

Cheong-rye looked at Cha Yu-jin without expression. I was prepared to move if the need arises.

'now… Didn't he pick up the unexploded ordnance with an iron skewer?'

But after a while. The words that came out of his mouth were refreshing.

"is it so?"

"… !"

"That's right. thinking about it… I wonder if I was too complacent."

Cheong-rye twisted her mouth.

"It doesn't even have a mission haha!"

Ah X feet… … .

The moment I was about to get up, Cheong-ryo stopped laughing.

"So let's go with the survival of the fittest logic."

what?

Cheongryeo laughed.

"Come to think of it, this is the first time I've said this… Do you know how many people were in my original group?"

five people.

But that didn't seem to be what this guy meant.

This guy didn't touch… First VTIC.

"Nine."

“… !”

“Quite a lot, right? haha. It’s a composition that now includes two more members in the seven debut groups… Where do you think those two suddenly appeared?”

“… … .”

Why at the end… Have there been any team changes?

‘Let’s make a decision considering the timing.’

I reflexively spit out the answer.

“Survival Program.”

“that’s right.”

Cheongryeo picked up her smartphone again.

“LeTi collaborated with Tnet… There was originally an in-house survival program at the agency.”

In the beginning, it helped to form a fandom, but more stimulating idol survival was rampant, and when Testa was active, it was a form of dead momentum.

But at this point, it’s still in vogue.

“But people’s minds are really difficult to control. Yes? The more unspecified the majority, the more variables you see.”

Cheongryeo’s eyes narrowed.

“So, from some point on, I just canceled it… .”

The guy put down his smartphone and said lightly.

“I’ll leave it alone this time.”

“… … !”

“Whoever survives there will debut.”

“that.”

“Reasonable, right? efficient.”

I swallowed. it’s X

– Let the winner of the in-house survival program debut.

At first glance, Cheong-ryeo’s words sound like freedom to give up influence over the group. Because we want to debut with whoever survives.

But it’s not true.

‘The influence this guy exerts on the agency is ridiculous.’

I don’t know if I caught a weakness, I remember all the butterfly effects, or I do both. It was certain nonetheless.

But could this guy just let the survival flow go by?

‘In the first place, that’s crazy.’

This guy must have seen a lot of what would happen if he left that survival alone.

‘I’ll definitely have a nominee.’

And this time, this guy will make up all the nominees. The VTIC selected by this guy as the best… To the extent of me replacing the main vocalist.

in short… That’s just a declaration of ‘I’ll make you X before debut’.

‘X feet.’

I hurriedly opened my mouth.

Chapter 372

Episode 372

“As you said, there are too many variables in survival. There’s no need to do that.”

“is it so? My juniors also debuted in survival shows, so I thought they would rather prefer it.”

Cheong-ryeo came out and looked at Cha Yu-jin in turn and spoke softly.

“Don’t worry too much. Wouldn’t you be the one to be? haha!”

“… … .”

It gives me goosebumps. This bastard has come to a conclusion.

I can’t.

“wait for a sec.”

I grabbed Cha Yoo-jin’s arm and stood up.

“I know you’re upset, but let’s cool down and talk again.”

“Well, I wasn’t particularly angry. That’s right, right?”

Don’t pretend you’re not when you’re really upset.

“Why are you overreacting when you say you’ll give everyone the same equal opportunity?”

“I like that… Ugh!”

You stay still and say, “Okay, let’s meet again tomorrow and talk.”

I hurriedly took Cha Yu-jin and got up and looked back at Cheong-ryeol.

oh i don’t know tell me

“… Thank you for coming to the airport today and good luck.”

“… … .”

Cheongryeo seemed to be a little agitated, but now the first thing to do is to catch this guy who is rampaging like a colt.

“You watch your mouth.”

“iced coffee! Moondae hyung is sick!”

As soon as I left the game room, I slapped Cha Yu-jin on the back.

“The situation is shit right now, but I have to say the right words while watching the atmosphere.”

“I didn’t even see that senior! There is no reason to see only me!”

“… … .”

that… Anyway, this bastard is just saying the right thing.

‘Chungryeo was more openly aggressive than I thought.’

It was kind of unexpected. I thought I’d rather be gently coaxed into leaving him as a trainee at his agency and say things like eliminating competitors.

Instead of using calculations, it starts with sorting out the ranks… la.

I clicked my tongue. My mouth wasn't very sweet.

'… That bastard must have gone mental too.'

I barely raised a dog while being beaten like that, and after adapting to a single reality, I suddenly restarted again?

It was forgivable not to go crazy.

I took my hand away from Cha Yu-jin and held back a sigh.

"… okay. You didn't do anything wrong. But he also has his own circumstances."

Cha Yu-jin shrugs.

[We all have our own circumstances, but that doesn't mean you can act like twins.]

"… … ."

You just say the right things, so you have nothing to answer.

"okay. Anyway, you will have to adjust to jet lag today, so go to sleep. Where did you find your lodging?"

"no!"

"… … ."

"Flight tickets were expensive. Are you going to the motel?"

He says it very plainly.

"just… Follow me."

I'm already at a loss as to what to explain to Ryu Cheong-wu, but that doesn't mean I can't put a guy who has no money to sleep on the street because he's back in Korea.

‘If only this bastard wasn’t 17… .’

I took Cha Yoo-jin and returned to the officetel where I had not spent a few nights.

Ding-Dong.

As a courtesy, I also rang the doorbell once and asked

“Hyung?”

And Cha Yoo-jin is delighted when she sees Ryu Cheong-wu at the entrance.

“Do you have Chungwoo hyung? Did you come first?”

“Because they’re relatives, they’re sleeping together.”

“OK… .”

Cha Yoo-jin said to Ryu Cheng-wu with a slightly fresh face.

“I don’t know?”

“huh?”

Ryu Cheng-wu seemed to ponder for a moment what the situation was, but soon burst into laughter.

Since the child looks young, there seems to be no doubt about it.

“Did your brother introduce me?”

“okay. This is Cha Yoo-jin.”

He explained that he was an international pen pal as part of a school program, but he came to Korea without hesitation.

Liu Cheng-wu was amazed.

“You are a courageous friend.”

“What is courage?”

If that were the case, I wouldn’t have anything to say if I was beaten with a broom and dragged home.

In fact, it seems that there was a lot of talk at that guy’s house, but he said that he got permission after escaping.

I pressed my eyes.

‘… They’ll pay for the living expenses.’

It’s not the worst. Because the guardian continues to care.

“Can I just wait a few days until I can find a house for this guy?”

“of course. My friend also went to sleep, so what?”

“thank you! I will leave it up to you!”

Cha Yoo-jin took over the guest room and utility room as it was, and I entered my room and began to worry in earnest.

How the hell should I handle this situation?

Just in case, I checked the status window… let’s not talk

[Colleague]

[Shin Jae-hyeon: Working hard (//-^)]

[Cha Yu-jin: Adjusting to a new room (>ㅅ< =☆)] It's a problem because I can guess what the first guy is working hard on. . And what is the shade mark of that emoticon? A sign that you're pissed off? 'Hu' goal pulls. At that time, a pop-up appeared in the status window. It's a big month. [Are you okay?] “Yes.” It wasn't that the two of them said they would kill each other, and this kind of shit was fully expected... no, you have to deal with it

[Brother me... What would you do if you could debut in the same group as only one of the two of you?] I thought about it for a while, but there is a neat answer here anyway. “Somehow, I should do it with someone who will become more famous in a short period of time.” [Simple like that?] “Simple.” I sat down on the bed. “If return is the goal, efficiency is the first consideration.” The sooner you deal with it, the sooner you can return to Testa's reality. Here, the emotional fight is entwined as it goes. 'It seems to be secretly hoping for that and doing this shit.' that's the system I have no desire to be dragged along. And when considering the current complex, the more advantageous side is, of course, Cheongnyeol. No matter how different the year and situation are, the information and experience he knows about these years must be at an inhuman level. “… … .” Still, it's nice to have both because it covers a wide range of consumers. 'What kind of beans are there?' There is an advantage to Cheongryeo, so he is a person who can be tempted. Relax your mind a little. I frowned. It was then. smart. A rather polite knock was heard, and soon the door opened. who would it be It's Cha Yoo-jin. "brother! We made plans for tomorrow.” "what?" Cha Yoo-jin... Are you making plans? “I’m going to find Kim Rae-bin..” “… !” “It’s okay even if Rabin Kim doesn’t know about Testa! You can make an idol.” me really okay. It might be Kim Rae-bin. I grinned. "good." "Hi-Hi!" Cha Yoo-jin sat down on the bed in street clothes, but closed her eyes. Because you gave a productive opinion. And if this guy is looking for Kim Raebin... Since we've been trainees together before, it must be easier to predict the radius of action. “Do you have a place to guess where you are going?” " there is! Raebin Kim’s house in Gangwon-do!” “… … .” I guess I should book KTX tickets first. and one more. “What are you doing?” “Find Rabin Kim.” I turned on the internet and entered Witube and Sound Mist. If this is really an environment where everyone can live in moderation... Isn't it obvious what Rabin Kim is doing? is a composition * * * Rabin Kim, 17, who is scheduled to enter high school this year, was working hard to prepare for a more dense future during the winter vacation. 'Passed... !' It's a career as a composer. He had just started his first job, exchanging e-mails with an agency in Seoul. Considering his young age and lack of connections, it was a remarkable achievement, but unfortunately, neither he nor his guardian had any professional knowledge. Thanks to this, Kim Rae-bin was scheduled to have a uniform for a nearby high school next week. Instead of risking everything to fully demonstrate his amazing talent, a peaceful life continues. “Come on, let’s go before Rabin is over me~” “It’s already that time! Then I will get up.” I was on my way home after helping out at my grandparents' strawberry house in the afternoon when the sun went down. Kim Rae-bin, who came out of the greenhouse, heard someone shouting while locking the door. “Kim Raebin!” "yes!" All around here were seniors. He turned his head away in response to the voice that spoke so naturally of him. But there... There were people I didn't know. “… … ??” Those people... who do you mean “Kim Raebin is right!” "okay." The person wearing the long padding calmly listens to the words that the person wearing the jacket shouts excitedly, casually to the point of being wild. both… Somehow, he didn't look younger than himself. then! 'I can't believe this is bullying by a high school student... !' When I was receiving school violence education, I saw students who came to my house and disciplined students who had not yet entered school... ! He had never been harassed by anyone in his life until now, but maybe he is going to do it now! Kim Rae-bin, who made everyone his age feel intimidated by his impression, hardened his face and body with unreasonable expectations. "for a moment." But those who came closer... It was just a happy face. And it was intense. “… !” One had the most intense eyesight of any person he had ever met in his life. With her almost yellow-looking eyes shining, she held out a hand to herself... I was pointing “I found Raebin Kim!” “… … ?” what… Is there a dragon? No, before that, shouldn't you point a finger at someone's face! However, before Rabin Kim could even ask a question, the other side spoke first. “Yes you found it.” and look at yourself "nice to meet. Rabin.” A clear and solid voice that is pleasant to listen to. It looked cold and delicate, but when I looked at it again, the eyes seemed warm. And I felt like I was crying somewhere. It was heartbreaking for some reason. somewhere... I thought the two of them were familiar. '… ?' Why? Kim Rae-bin thought deeply and soon found the answer like a thunderbolt. It was a very probable guess. Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth with a very sorry expression. "sorry! I can't remember specifically, but the two of you must be familiar with me!” “… !” Surprise and... Kim Rae-bin was unable to capture in detail the passage of something like thrill for no reason. So I asked plainly. “Are you a relative on your mother’s side?” Relatives I met when I was a preschooler and I don't remember! “… … .” “… … .” There was silence for a moment. "no." "then… .” "I'm here to make an offer." A person with a delicate impression smiled faintly. “It’s Scout Jane.”

“Scout??” The strong-looking side shouted like a cheerleader. “Idol with me!” "yes… ?” Kim Rae-bin was confused. A person with a delicate impression takes out a smartphone and turns the screen without hesitation. It was your own account. “This is yours.” “… !” Without time to think, a delicate person continues to talk calmly. As if Kim Rae-bin was discussing a problem that came to a conclusion. “I must have thought of wanting to show this song on stage myself.” Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth instead of shaking his head as if possessed... And five hours later, he makes an appointment to go to Seoul as if he were being scammed. '… ??' Kim Rae-bin's small dream of becoming a producer was kidnapped as an idol. * * * [Cha Yoo-jin: During the victory ceremony (>ㅅ〈/)] As soon as he returned to Seoul after exchanging contact information with Kim Rae-bin, Cha Yu-jin is intermittently displaying that status.

‘It went well.’

I shook my head even though I smiled.

With that personality and that talent, it wouldn’t be strange to get a fraudulent contract in an instant, but a bloody look seemed to balance it out.

Of course, the persuasion method was also unique.

‘Remember that later.’

first… what am i supposed to do with this guy I moved my gaze over Cha Yu-jin’s explanation.

[Jaehyun Shin: Thinking of a puppy (//~^)]

“… … .”

I’m going crazy. Really.

I shook my head and stood up. I had to leave the officetel this late at night.

As expected, he was in the company’s practice room.

Alone in the practice room.

I went inside The guy doesn't even have a slight movement.

"It's past midnight. Why are you still here?"

"… well."

Cheong-rye was staring at the mirror on the wall without an expression.

"There is no particular reason."

Didn't you try to practice because you had too many thoughts?

Instead of saying that, I went and sat next to him.

"There's something I didn't want to say before."

Then choose a word and slowly say it out of your mouth.

"before… Thank you Kong for sending me the picture."

"… … ."

"I couldn't raise a dog because I wasn't in the right condition to raise a dog, but looking at the photos was fine.

Cheong-rye looked at the sky for a while without saying a word, then asked briefly.

"Shall we get along?"

bean.

"I believe in being able to verify it myself."

"well."

Cheong-rye wasn't excited or angry. I just murmured slowly.

“Belief is not a matter of probability. Yes?”

“yes.”

It means that whatever you believe in, don’t expect it to come true.

However, I also have a few thoughts on my own these days.

“But I have a heart attack.”

“which?”

I folded my arms and took a deep breath.

“The system is too friendly.”

Cheongryeo only turns her eyes to meet their gaze.

“Would you be friendly to the guy who tried to kill you? Try to get rid of it.”

If the system were truly omnipotent and could implement the entire world, this kind of trouble would be taken care of and put to an end.

“however… Instead, only good conditions were filled. Age, environment, ability, economic conditions… .”

I suppressed a choking sound.

“To my parents.”

“… … .”

Cheongryeo flinched for a moment.

“There is no unreasonable favor with the enemy. There is something I regret. A reason to soothe and please.”

“option.”

“… !”

Cheongryeo continued talking while covering her chin with one hand.

“You mean you want to make them choose this side?”

“okay.”

I calmly continued my reasoning.

“If there is no way out, people’s choices don’t have to matter. I can get out of here, so I’m just tempting you to stay.”

“… … .”

“And the structure with the highest probability… It will be the last.”

“last.”

“okay. game clear. If I succeed as an idol again, I wonder if there is something wrong.”

At the point where the quest is finished and the ending is seen.

Isn’t it a choice between ending and going to reality or staying in the world after the ending?

I lay down with my head in the practice room.

It felt like I was lying in my company’s practice room.

“Of course, this is just an assumption, but I think the sim-jeung itself is persuasive anyway. how is it.”

“… … .”

Cheong-ryeo released her hand that was covering her chin.

“I have a question.”

“what.”

“Is there any reason why you shouldn’t just stay here?”

“Because I want to go back to reality.”

I answered without hesitation.

“And you really want to do that too.”

“… … .”

“That’s why you didn’t even mention the dog before I brought it up.”

Rather than suffer unnecessary mental damage, it was the unconscious mind that wanted to make it something that never happened.

“… … Cheongryeo

leaned against the wall.

It’s a similar composition to when I first woke up in this body.

And slowly open your mouth

“I don’t know.”

That bastard’s defense mechanism is real.

But instead of choking, he closed his mouth. There must have been one or two times when he thought he wanted to go back but was frustrated. Fuck, I have to tolerate this much.

And it was worth it.

“but… Because Kongi hasn’t been born yet.”

“… !”

“I need to meet you before then.”

“I have to make it like that.”

I got up.

“That’s why we want to create such a group.”

It’s not VTIC or Testa, it’s just a group that can get the highest efficiency in the shortest period of time.

A risk-tolerant group that prioritizes gains over stability without considering future variables.

“A group that can win the Rookie of the Year award and Daesang together as soon as they debut.”

I declared

“And let’s watch the ending right away and go back.”

It was a short-term project group proposal.

Chapter 373

Episode 373

A short-term project group aiming for maximum efficiency in a short period of time to escape from this place.

In order for this to be accepted, it must be acknowledged that reality exists separately and can return.

‘The question is whether this bastard can go there.’

I closed my mouth. And then, she slowly opened her mouth.

“is it so.”

it is eaten

‘done.’

I clenched my fists and held back a sigh. There is no need to show signs of relief.

“Then now, survival… .”

I was about to tell them to cancel. If it wasn’t for the next words.

“hmm? That’s already going on.”

“… !!”

This bastard has been talking so far…

“Cancel.”

“hmm? I’m not the president of a broadcasting station… It’s hard now. haha.”

I want to grind one piece.

As if he had noticed that, he finally came up with a useful reason.

“Isn’t there nothing like survival because of the buzz in the beginning?”

“… … … ”

I touched my chin.

“It doesn’t.”

Isn’t there a living witness here?

There is no better way to gather firepower in a short period of time than survival if you can properly appeal to the consumer.

The problem is that he is the one holding the hilt.

“As long as you don’t do anything stupid.”

“What nonsense?”

As long as they don’t smash Cha Yoo-jin on the air just because he’s being bullied. It’s a baby.

She didn’t say it, but she probably guessed it from the nuance, and Cheong-ryeo shrugged her shoulders.

“Hmm, I think there’s a misunderstanding here.”

and split again

It makes me feel dirty in that it looks like a child looking at a child with pity.

“Do you really think that as long as there is no dishonest intervention, the members of your junior group will be able to debut?”

“uh.”

This bastard must have seen that crazy version of < Azusa >, but he’s saying obvious things.

Is there any way that a guy who made his debut after breaking through that crazy game couldn’t do the agency survival in the 2010s?

‘As long as the coaching is done properly, it is not a job to push the chaff.’

“hmm… … .”

Cheongryeo stroked her chin.

“Then shall we bet…

“What?”

“Who debuts here more, VTIC or Testa?”

sounds like a dog

“Is this a bet? And I only have two of them yet.”

“I also have two right now.”

“… … .”

In the first place, isn’t the VTIC garden half of Testa?

“Hmm, have you lost your confidence?”

this kid is real

I chinned.

“I’d rather do it in proportion. fair.”

“is it so. I am full of confidence.”

he laughs haha

“is it so. Junior. then… Let’s make a plan.”

and put your hand out

“… … .”

I shook his hand with his outstretched hand.

It was a temporary alliance.

But then the power comes into your hands.

“However, if you go all the way to the end and there is nothing.”

The guy’s expression disappeared.

“If your reasoning is wrong, junior.”

“… !”

Cheongryeo narrows her eyes and splits them apart.

“From then on, I will always do as I planned.”

“… … “

Anyway, what are you digging?

‘That wouldn’t happen.’

I nodded without speaking. And I also gave strength to the grip.

“Haha, if this were real, it would have been a real mess.”

In reality, a mix-and-match survival that anyone in the fandom would be proud of was established.

And after several days of preliminary work.

The article was reported from the end of February, and a preview teaser started to upload on WeTube.

* * *

Notice Teaser is a typical large entertainment company survival style.

First of all, LeTi’s new building is illuminated like a palace with great camera work.

[LeTil, the cradle of global idols representing Korea

[Producer: Never before.]

[Artist Team Leader: It’s the best ever. It’s amazing how we gathered like this.]

[Sweet and sweet Sohyeon: But in the end, can you win the public’s heart?]

[Soft and sweet Sohyeon: I think that’s a different problem.]

The people involved throw out meaningful words.

And a huge title will come out. The initials of [Who is Superior?]

are nicely wrapped in 3D graphics.

[WiS]

[Survival show to select LeTi's next generation]

[〈Wise〉]

Wise.

The meaning of 'wise' was mixed with the pronunciation of 'Who is' and 'Why', and it captured both meanings of 'why should I debut' and 'who is that member'.

-After all, it's called Letty Survival.

I thought so. I warmed up while recalling Cheongryeo's words.

There are already cameras in the waiting room under the stage.

"face!"

"yes."

Maybe it's because they're all guys who haven't debuted yet, so the makeup staff's tone doesn't feel like a service job. However, it is less mechanical than Azusa.

'Is it because there are few people?'

I looked all over the rest of the page.

A total of 14 people are sitting on the floor of this building right now.

The number is 7 members of the debut group plus 7 other trainees.

'There are many faces I saw then.'

I realized that many of the people the director had called on the first day I came here were included.

Were you instructed to float this?

‘I can also see the Shinno silk fabric.’

I don’t know if the existing VTIC members were originally like that or if Cheong-ryeo stabbed them, but they are in here anyway.

I crossed my arms.

‘Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin are also scheduled to appear on time.’

The problem is the other guys.

The remaining testa members… I mean.

Of course, I saw all the guys I could find on the internet to see where they were scattered before the start of the survival, but… .

“… … .”

In many ways, the two youngest are the ones that are in the right condition. Let’s start off like this ‘Because there is another chance.’

I briefed Cheongryeo on the structure of this survival once more in my brain.

-When viewed from the outside… It will seem like everything revolves around the president’s eyes.

Soon the main camera will turn and lights and people will appear on the stage.

14 people enter side by side.

The president with a thin face sitting in the judges’ seat right in front of the stage started the briefing.

He was the face of a popular singer-songwriter group in the 90s.

“Everyone will now listen to me with respect as a fellow singer, not as a trainee. Did you know?”

“yes.”

“great. Then, I will explain the rules of this program to you who will be the gods of LeTi.”

After intentionally cutting off a beat, the explanation continues.

“This is survival.”

“… … !”

“yes?”

Everyone heard that it was money in the company, but he does a lot of acting. There were 14 of them in the first place, but it was natural to expect that there would be dropouts.

I just stood there with a hard expression on my face.

“Who will be eliminated and how many will be eliminated, who will debut and how long… All unknowns.”

Don’t the words before and after mean the same thing?

Anyway, everyone swallows saliva with a disciplined face.

“You run towards your dream, but you have to overcome countless competitions for that dream.”

“… … .”

“So from now on, whoever wins the competition survives.”

– Honor class inferior class. At first, we start by dividing like that.

It was literally.

Task No. 1, which everyone was notified of in advance.

[Show a solo performance.]

It was the main content of the first episode.

“You have to do well, but being a star is just as important as doing well. I will use that as a criterion for evaluating attractiveness, which cannot be converted into numbers.”

Even if the judgment is X, it means that it is because you are not attractive.

“yes!”

The guys who answered vigorously come out one by one and show off their dancing or singing skills before entering.

‘The meaning of performance was broadly interpreted.’

It’s not going to happen, but I watch the stage while managing my expression so that I don’t get caught.

Quality is… It’s pretty good for a trainee. but.

‘There’s a bit of a difference from the debut group.’

I laughed heartily.

‘I informed you late on purpose.’

In episode 1, the other 7 were added as food to get the 7 debutants up and running.

In those early days, there is a huge gap between practicing for a week and practicing for a month.

I probably wouldn’t have said it openly. It must have encouraged a difference to the extent of secretly spilling words like rumors to the debut team.

Like this

– have you heard about the solo performance? Oh not yet? No, guys, practice

!

Anyway, that's why the superior and inferior classes are divided almost the same.

The debut group is in the honor class. The rest are inferior. I watched as Shinoh and Judan went to the inferior class. Chung-Ryeo doesn't even change her expression.

'hmm.'

Are you trying to create a hit-and-run image?

It was then.

"Next performance… . Ryu Gun-woo."

"yes."

It was my turn. I got up and moved.

9th. ambiguous location.

first stage.

'actually… It's not that important.'

In a survival game where a large number of people fall in half in an instant like < Azusa >, one stroke is important, but this should be looked at longer than that.

First of all, all stages will be broadcasted.

'Here, only images are stably taken.'

I grabbed the head mic and waited quietly.

A song came out.

* * *

The president of LeTi, who was sitting in front of the stage for the survival show, was actually not very interested in the individual trainees.

I am interested in the company's growth and greater success.

Fame and wealth from there!

'That's business.'

The former singer and current entrepreneur, who has already gone more than 10 years without releasing an album, has his fingers crossed.

Still, he had his own eyes. Because these good seeds were well picked and selected.

The boss quickly skipped through the rehearsal and practice videos, and glanced at the guys he identified mainly through the reports he received.

[Organization of the candidate list]

The types refined through various experts do not misalign. And he had no time to waste on each one.

Besides, this guy in particular was just as described. The guy in front now.

-21-year-old Ryu Kun-woo.

After passing the personal details, this is the description written in the first line of the feature.

-The visual award that the project pursues

'He's handsome with a very atmosphere.'

Even among the good guys, he was a strikingly handsome guy.

I would say that the lines are straight and the atmosphere is intelligent.

It seemed that if he showed a slight disapproval of himself, the public would bite into crab foam and pull it out.

‘okay.’

set a stance It would be fun to be a bit harsh first.

The boss crossed his arms.

“Get started.”

The lighting for filming outside the stage disappears and a spotlight falls like light on Ryu Gun-woo.

And the elegant, heavy music you hear.

“hmm.”

It’s jazz pop.

Under slightly dim lighting, the white face puts its mouth to the standing microphone.

There are things necessary for a sweet life.

Music, Dance, Wine, Maybe Roses]

Recently, pop songs have been the type of performance that aspiring idols often choose.

Tone rather than treble. Because there are many songs with a structure that is good for a suitable lead vocalist to show.

And it would have been the best if it was a selection to show the maximum according to the level of skill, but this time was an exception.

[Life in the clouds,

twinkling stars]

There is no nervousness, awkward tone, or clumsy vocalization.

What makes the microphone ring is a sound that is as perfect as the original song and without regret.

"… !"

Not a single word of amateurishness. The tone flows like deep wine. [Jazz that blooms in the white smoke

when the piano sounds

… .]

The president reflexively went through the evaluation of Ryu Gun-woo's next paper.

-High quality vocal skills

… Isn't it rather underestimating to evaluate this simply as high quality?

– Ranked 3rd overall at the end of this month

, but is it okay to dance here?

and… .

– Disadvantages: /

blank. A shudder passed.

[Hmm umumm Lalala-la… .]

So far, a flawless image of a perfect gemstone, a good product that has not been consumed shines on stage.

And the stage was still full of voices. Until the end of the first verse with a soft and weighty technique.

[Shining Stars]

After that high-pitched unaccompanied voice, the sound that filled my ears in an instant disappeared.

All that is left is a handsome face talking on a standing mic.

"… … ."

For a moment, the silence felt terribly empty… … .

The boss was really speechless, not intentionally.

'how… … .'

Where did this guy come out at the age of 20?

It was then.

A low voice rings out.

"thank you."

"… !"

"ah."

clap clap… !!

A little later, applause bursts out here and there at Ryu Gun-woo's thanks.

This atmosphere of being overwhelmed.

'… just now!'

And the president took the microphone.

Detailed comments can be edited later and included in the interview. I had to say this now.

That feeling came. The sense of broadcasters and entrepreneurs!

"Our Mr. Geon-woo… Your trainee life has only been completed for 3 months, right? Originally, I was a college student."

"yes."

"Which university are you a student at?"

The young man in front of me answered calmly without changing his expression.

"I go to Yonhee University."

This is where the cutscenes go. And the boss laughed inwardly.

'Thank you.'

for giving this amount.

"Then why do you want to be a singer?"

I didn't deliberately attach an idol. It was to prevent dance from interfering with thoughts.

'If I sing well like this and go through the corrections, I'm sure there will be a great picture.'

Then everyone would want this guy to become a singer… .

“Even if I graduate from college, I think I will be able to take on other good jobs.”

It’s exploding here.

‘Come to bed!’

Ryu Gun-woo looked at himself without a big change in expression.

He seemed oblivious to the camera. Words come out naturally.

“Living… I’ve never been this happy before.”

And a faint smile spreads.

“So I think this is the correct answer. And you can’t just leave the right answer and choose something else. This is all.”

“… … .”

Simple taste without decorations like a student without any sense of entertainment.

A valuable item for trainee survival.

This… done!

The president lifted the microphone with a thrill.

“Have you seen it, everyone? The period isn’t important. What matters is that mindset.”

Raise your hand and point to the trainee on stage.

“That clear sign that I will debut! That’s number one.”

And it’s nice to say.

“congratulations. Mr. Ryu Gun-woo There’s nothing more to talk about. It’s an honors class.”

This was the highlight.

“… thank you.”

Ryu Gun-wu replied a little late, probably feeling choked up, and bowed his head.

‘He’s a good guy to use.’

He smiled inwardly.

But it was the same for opponents.

‘How come the superiors, big or small, all have the same idea?’

It’s the effort and mindset.

Ryu Gun-woo, who had adjusted his answer so that the president could freely say the words, was nodding his head inwardly.

* * *

[Hyung, really congratulations! The first shoot was the best!]

“Yes.”

After the filming was over, the agency sent it back to the house, not the survival dorm, saying that the amount had not come out until that point.

‘Thanks to that, I now have time to think.’

Coincidentally, Ryu Chung-woo went to MT. Seeing that he took pictures of the mountains and sent them, it seems that his hobby is still the same here.

And I sat in my room and thought.

… However, I never thought that the big moon would say ‘that remark’.

[Do you think the debut will go smoothly at this rate? Brother!]

I held back my sleep. And chin chin.

“It should be.”

[yes… ?]

You should do well.

Otherwise, it’s because you’re going to be fucking embarrassed.

I recalled my previous conversation with Cheongryeo.

– But in the end, whoever debuts with is the junior who has to debut.

-That’s right.

After all, it’s me who has to gather experience points because the system specter is attached again.

Then he rested his chin and pretended to be serious.

– Shall I let you debut unconditionally?

-what?

– Well no. You said it wrong. This isn’t a recommendation. Of course it should.

-… … .

-Haha, can you take care of your pride here?

And I’m fucking I realized that if I stopped this bastard because I was offended here, I would be an idiot who couldn’t stand it.

-Can it be?

So it happened.

[Are you manipulating Joe?]

"… In the worst case, yes."

If I think I'm going to be eliminated, that bastard will eventually use his hand and enter the group through the back door.

I resisted the impression of being crushed.

'That doesn't work.'

People have face, so should we see them embarrassed that they can't even debut after receiving the grand prize?

"I will never go like that, and I will plan well and attack, so don't worry."

[Sure! I believe in you too!]

Come on.

Just like in < Azusa >, I had to properly plan every moment. I slowly predicted my image and drew a future composition.

'I'm probably going to focus my image on a prestigious university student and go to a special position. That's what the question was like.'

Then some… I should mainly show my mature side. And it would be better to quietly cooperate with group assignments.

A little naive look would be fine. The president has a strong right to speak, so I have to appeal to that side.

"hmm."

[I think it will work out!]

“Yes.”

I even made some alternative plans and went to sleep that day.

And that very week.

In < Wise >, unlike < Azusa >, the agency that already knew all of the participants’ tendencies, attitudes and characters handed over the participants’ data to the broadcast production team.

So, without sufficient observation time and no storyline, the footage filmed that day was quickly edited and the second trailer was released right away.

And the moment the profiles of 14 people were released… .

-Mimi ｜ A boyfriend with glasses has appeared

“… ??”

I am… I realized the reality. Didn’t I experience it through Data Palyi and < Azusa >?

An idol’s first eye stamp was unconditionally his appearance.

Chapter 374

If you can’t debut, you’ll die.

Let’s think about episode 374 of < Azusa >.

Even though I came out on stage as platinum, I didn’t get enough attention in the beginning to end up with a few comments.

but now?

Even though only the profile has been released, new posts are also appearing.

[Letty Survival Wise has a soft and sweet man with glasses]

[Letty Survival trainee lineup that looks like it’s gone properly] [Where did

Letty get these guys?

“… … .”

I lowered my smartphone while scrolling down and held back my drool.

The real appearance stats… was it all

Of course, standing as a soft and sweet dancer right before appealed as ‘looking natural on stage’ and seems to have served as a catalyst… .

‘Still, the difference in buzz volume is this far.’

He caressed my face. Then I went to the sink and looked in the mirror.

“hmm.”

I thought about it from the beginning, but it definitely seems to be better than me, who was a civil servant before.

I don’t know if it’s because of the stats that naturally increased at Bakmundae, or because Ryu Gun-woo here ate well.

‘It’s probably both.’

It seems that there will be a difference of about one alphabet in the stat level. But is it like this?

-It’s a fucking Letty award. ㅅㅅseonggolㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠ

-Shin Jae-hyeon and Ryu Gun-woo, starting today, put them in my net and hold on to them Letty 1 Letty! Letty!

-This is the original planning history of male idols

‘… There seems to be a taste problem.’

During Testa, my appearance seems to have been mixed and neutralized a little softly, but Ryu Gun-woo has a rather bleak impression.

And that seems to be the so-called ‘Letisang’.

LeTi’s company survival program is yet to air. Of course, only those who were originally interested in the agency clicked on the article, so that factor seemed to have worked.

‘All of the trainees this time are like that, so I think there’s more synergy.’

As if they were deliberately chosen, all 14 people feel similarly gloomy.

As a result, not only Ryu Gun-woo, but about four or five people are posting quite a bit just with their profile pictures.

‘The VTIC guys are also mentioned quite a bit.’

The mention of cast iron or Shin-oh is also quite noticeable. One guy seemed to have suffered a loss because his profile picture was far worse than the real thing.

Anyway, the program received quite a large amount of attention for an in-house survival program and was steadily increasing the number of mentions.

thanks i got this too

[Prestige is increasing… .]

This time, your reputation has increased generously.

‘Is it 15 times to recruit colleagues?’

I cleared the popup and looked at the status bar default list below it.

[Colleague list]

Shin Jae-hyeon: Planning (*^^~♪)

Cha Yu-jin: Fierce training (+ㅅ+=3)

Both of you were excited.

Cha Yoo-jin is probably taking Kim Rae-bin for special training. Raebin Kim is the type to dance well if you teach him how to dance, so he must be running a routine.

“hmm.”

Still, it would be nice if Kim Rae-bin was also listed here.

I decided after thinking about it for a while while watching the pop-up of Chan Sung-myeong this time.

[Hyung, would you like to recruit a colleague?]

Yes.

If Kim Rae-bin appears, it would be the best situation, but I can't tell from the point of Cha Yoo-jin's first Taro. Still, if you look at the odds… .

'Cha Yoo-jin came out after 8 episodes.'

So far, statistically, the odds of someone I know seem good. good.

I increased the 10-straight draw button.

In the meantime, even more annoying notifications pop up.

Using Exp 2000

1 2 stars, the inventory is already full. Is this? I’m also trying to tear it apart.

[I let go of the relationship with my colleague.]

The farewell money has come… .

+20G

I decided not to spend the remaining 5000. It was like X. The large moon opens a large pop-up.

[Far Fighting! Coming next time! (ง _)ง]

This guy is also using an emoticon from where he got it.

“… okay.”

I rubbed my face and came to my senses. And I asked a question I had been thinking about before.

To hear an answer that could possibly be a hint for the current situation.

“But what exactly are you in right now?”

The current state of the big moon.

It’s talking to me, but it’s just print. I don’t even have a body, so I need to know what the hell is going on.

[Mmm… I do not know. Consciousness is definitely there… .]

It was an ambiguous answer.

I had a few questions.

Is the system not trying to interfere? Are there any changes in the ability to write things that are uncomfortable or questionable?

Most of the answers were vague negatives.

‘It’s ambiguous, but it’s not bad.’

Same for the last question.

“I can’t get close to your body or anything like that.”

[Yes ㅜㅜ]

I guessed this answer. The problem is next.

“… Do you feel like your body has disappeared?”

[no. Rather… I feel like I’m stuck on something! It’s like the Internet connection was cut off because there was no Wi-Fi.]

It was a very unique metaphor, but I understood it. And it was a pretty reassuring statement.

[Joe is good, but how can I be relieved… ?]

I smiled faintly.

“Because I am Testa, and the world you lived in as a civil servant did not disappear. If it is blocked, it means there is beyond it.”

[Ah!]

The pop-up grows hopefully. I nodded.

“If the condition is too uncomfortable, speak up. I can still listen.”

It can’t be that it’s refreshing to be connected to a guy who doesn’t have a body but has a mind.

[Oh, I’m not sick or anything like that! a little… It feels like being on the internet in a dream. That’s how it feels!]

“Yes.”

Still, I’m glad it seems to be in a fairly peaceful state.

I nodded and got away from the sink. And I got dressed.

[Where are you going?]

“To see the kids.”

Since the draw failed, I’ll have to see if the plan is working well.

I dealt with the bitterness and joined Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin for a half-day routine practice.

“Good job Kim Raebin! Let’s do it one more time!”

“Ah Okay!”

It was a rare sight to see two guys not yelling at each other for idiots, but by the end of that night, both of them had returned looking no different than when they were Testa.

And the real 17-year-old Kim Rae-bin seemed a little taken aback.

“Originally, I’m not a rude person who casually talks to people I’m meeting for the first time like this, but I didn’t realize this situation… !”

“If you feel comfortable, that’s fine. I will have to keep seeing your face in the future.”

“yes… .”

“That’s right, Raebin Kim, just do it!”

“You are so… !

Kim Rae-bin tried to respond reflexively, but he made a face that made him want to regret it.

He was the most consistent guy in any situation, even when his memory was blown away. I chuckled.

“Let’s try our best.”

“yes!”

Kim Rae-bin was able to sleep in an officetel because Ryu Chung-woo went to MT and the room was empty.

And the very next day, a new shoot began.

* * *

The start of the second survival shoot was nothing special.

“Introducing your accommodation!”

“Whoa!”

Entering the accommodation.

Of course, it was sadistically differentiated as a survival game.

What is it? The good and bad rooms were divided into superior and inferior classes.

“Ah, this is the honor class… .

“By the way, all the names of the kids in their inferior class are on it, right?”

“You have to go up to the honor class to be able to write. This must be it!”

In the two areas divided with the living room in the center, 14 name tags were attached to each other in duplicate.

‘Well, even an inferior class isn’t that bad.’

I looked better than my own room when I was in college. It’s just a motel. It’s a problem compared to the honor class that doesn’t have a hotel.

“… … .”

Still, it was like a broadcasting station to show the inferior class their place in the honor class and then take them to another dorm without letting them unpack their luggage.

Isn’t it ambiguous that the honor class guys like it coolly when they see the guys with gloomy faces?

-Do you use editing to highlight your personality?

-If you are a trainee that is not preferred by the company.

I managed my expression while recalling the prior dialogue with Cheongryeo.

There was also a guy next to him.

“Please take care of me, brother.”

“yes.”

In case of emergency, I decided to use the same room as Cheongryeo. As planned, the name tags were attached side by side.

‘good.’

It is clean. I deliberately didn’t talk too much with the rest of the honor class, who would be drifting away anyway.

‘I will send that baby unconditionally.’

No matter how much he cuts according to his ability, is there any way he can take those who exploded within 3 years?

I’ll send it off somehow, so there’s no need to be friendly now, which will be toxic in the second half.

Anyway, the shooting after that went smoothly.

“I will go one more time.”

“yes!”

It was to the extent that they set up a special stage between the honor class and the inferior class.

that’s the theme song

-Yes I am

There are so many things I can do, pull the gear up and go up there

(Who can be a star?)

Yes I am

〈Yes I am〉

It’s a title like a title for learning English in the first year of middle school, but it’s like the opening of a reality show in its own way. .

Besides, unlike < Azusa > where you have to throw it all over and memorize it, everyone has practiced it anyway, so you just have to match the movements for the day and you're done.

'It's calm.'

It pretends to be a little spicy, but do you think it's less vicious like the in-house survival show from a few years ago?

I'm sorry, but it's a misunderstanding.

The real capsaicin is poured into the heads of the kids this evening, the moment they finish their stage and make up their minds.

"You worked hard!"

"Wow!"

When the guys who finished filming the theme song run amok among the pouring pin lights and pollen.

A new episode begins.

"Good job. everyone. Let's continue like this."

"yes!"

The president sitting in front of the stage nodded and grabbed the microphone.

"During this program, difficulties will constantly come to you."

The artist holds a sketchbook called 'Location Arrangement'. The participants who grasped the atmosphere move slowly and stand at an angle.

It's just a meaningful BGM atmosphere.

“Even if you debut and are loved for a long time and work well, in the end new rookies will come out and you will have to keep competing.”

I catch guys nodding their heads here and there with hard faces.

Gradually, the main idea will emerge.

“‘Wise’ is a microcosm of the entertainment industry, the last gateway to debut, and we will apply a realistic evaluation method to you.”

The boss raised his hand.

“So I prepared. Your first competitor.”

Papang!

“Ugh!”

A huge stage set covered with dry ice opens next to them, who flinch in surprise, and seven people walk out.

“Your quota is currently 14 students, seven in the < higher class > and seven in the < inferior class >.”

The boss pretends to be cool.

“These people are the ‘replenishment class’ outside of that quota.”

“… !”

“If the supplementary class points out one of you and wins, you will participate as a participant in < Wise >.”

A gasp was heard from the side.

This is because no trainees have been informed of this until now.

“And whoever doesn’t beat the make-up class is at risk of elimination.”

The dry ice clears and seven people appear.

And I see a familiar face.

Cha Yoo-jin, who has a confident smile on her face.

And Kim Rae-bin, whose expression flew off, gave the impression of a mid-boss.

Yes.

Among the 14 participants in the last shoot, none of them were present. Those guys aren't LeTi trainees.

The timing for those guys to join was right now.

At this filming site, which becomes a mess due to the introduction of the supplementary class.

"Win and survive."

A supplementary squad walks in and lines up across the stage.

Participants who can't control their facial expressions with their eyes trembling confront the supplementary class. tense atmosphere.

And I thought deeply.

'Well, most of them are discarded patches to create tension.'

The fiercer it is, the better it is for attracting aggro and the better it is for the winner to stand out. Of course, most of them are unsuitable candidates because they are intended to be used.

So, except for Cha Yu-jin and Kim Rae-bin, the rest must be faces I don't know… . for a moment.

[Uh oh! That person!]

There is one more familiar face.

“… !”

[V-tic, right?]

Chae-yul.

A VTIC member who hadn’t appeared before.

A brown-haired young fellow with twinkling eyes, who looked to be in his late teens… stood at the far end.

“… … .”

You said that was the guy who was put in here?

Is that why Chungryeo didn’t find it? Does it come out like this? Or did you do it on purpose only this time?

No matter how I roll my head, the filming is progressing steadily.

“Okay, supplementary class members, please find a contestant you want to compete with and stand in front of him.”

Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin move their feet. We even talked about who to point out… … .

why are you going over there

The reason why Cha Yu-jin stopped… It was in front of Cheongnyeol.

“ah.”

“i look forward to!

[Kuaaaaa!!]

“… … .”

This madman… !

I bit my tongue and caught the expression that was about to change.

But the unexpected situation did not end there.

[Why is that person coming here?]

… There was a guy who walked in front of me during the supplementary class.

He moved his steps with a face flushed with tension, and soon stood in front of me with an excited face and bowed his head.

“i look forward to!”

“… … yes.”

Chae rate.

This guy singled me out.

“… … .”

I averted my eyes. Cheong-ryeo was smiling with Cha Yu-jin in front of her.

Chapter 375

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 375

Being put in the middle of a survival competition and pointing out that you're going to face the best contestant in a death match?

I'll be honest.

'It's a good idea.'

This is a very good strategy if you are trying to get the rolled stone out and if you are confident in your skills.

It's not a public vote survival anyway, it's an agency survival. It means that the public knows that it is up to the boss and tolerates it to some extent.

It means that if a really good guy comes out, even if he loses, he prefers to change the rules and let him pass.

By the way.

'Is that why you point out Chungryeo?'

Cha Yoo-jin You decided to point this bastard at me!

– I think that would be the best if you don't overlap positions and you don't feel awkward even if you look like you're friends later.

-okay. I'm on stage with Moondae hyung!

That's exactly what I said last night.

‘I’ve written all the scenarios, but this guy escapes at will?’

Looking at Cha Yoo-jin, I controlled the area around my eyes that were about to twitch.

Even if I show off, I become an X.

“great. Those who stand in front now become your rivals and competitors.”

The president reads the script pretending to be meaningful, but he’s pissed off and doesn’t respond well.

I pretended to be nervous and took a deep breath.

“Of course, competition has to be rewarded. Those who won against the < Supplemental Class > are unconditionally ranked as the < Excellence Class > in the next evaluation.”

“… !!”

The flustered trainees’ faces get better with a carrot. they are easy guys

“In addition, evaluation tasks are given to trainees who have not been singled out. It is the ‘completion of teamwork’. Lead two people who check each other to complete a three-member stage.”

I nodded.

In a word, it means to perform the bursting shrimp of the group task one by one on the stage in a one-on-one death match. You take the words well.

But do you know who came to my group?

VTIC Shin Oda.

“… … .”

The luck of the draw is awesome.

“i look forward to!”

“I will do my best.”

I was assigned a vocal practice room with the two of them. Then I went in and looked at the randomly assigned songs.

‘There’s no such thing as stealing a song.’

It was a song that was designated as suitable for the three of us by the person who wrote it as the president and read it as the company.

-Blue Jack’s 〈Icy Eyes〉

This is the exciting EDM debut song of a male idol group that hit the music industry dominated by autotune in the late 2000s.

Roughly speaking, the eyes of the person you have a crush on seem too cold, but the lyrics are obvious.

It’s a bonus that your limbs will shrivel when you listen to it now.

[Oh ohoh Icy Eyes is cold~] A typical hook song with short phrases repeated as a chorus. The only part that shows his vocal ability is the ad-libbed treble in the second half.

“… … .”

hmm.

“Oh, I like this song!”

The Supplementary Class VTIC is actively reacting.

‘… Chae rate.’

I paused analyzing the song for a moment and remembered the conversation with Cheongryeo.

It was time to come off the stage and change the tape and microphone for a while.

– Junior. I have never contacted Chae-yul here. I've never brought him, and – I wouldn't say it was a coincidence.

– Rather than a coincidence… Of course it was going to happen.

The guy smiled.

-When the survival program is in progress, Chae-yul always participates as a supplementary class.

I got the meaning.

-… always.

-that's right. Chae-yul was in the group from the beginning. I didn't choose

I remembered the status window of Chae-yul.

[Jin Chae-yul]

Singing: C+ (B+)

Dancing: B (A)

Appearance: A- (A+)

Talent: S- (S+)

Characteristics: Circus (A)

He has the highest potential of an all-rounder type.

It's true that he's a group 1 idol, but for now, he's just a decent lead dancer.

It just turned around.

‘I was promoted to the second position during < Azusa >.’

Besides, the traits help with that.

[Circus (A)]

: Acrobatics should be fun.

– Stage adaptability +150%

– There is no personal deviation, and there has never been a problem with other members. The public always likes it.

What if this guy stands out in survival?

‘Even if I’m the president, I’ll pick one.’

It was a convincing explanation.

The problem is from

-And it’s interesting, but whenever you appear naturally in a survival program, you always point to the same position.

– Main vocalist.

And this time, the main vocal is me.

‘I didn’t know you would choose me because the person I was originally pointing out remains,’ Cheong-Ryeo Bu explained, but I can’t believe it.

The important thing is that the rate sticks with me anyway.

‘Besides, look at the song selection.’

I laughed inwardly while listening to the song.

The only part to show your vocal skills is an EDM hook song that only has a 5-second ad-lib?

‘I obviously only sang on stage before coming down.’

No matter which kid gets the pick, I think I want to put this matchup at a disadvantage by blocking my strengths.

‘It’s good.’

welcome

[No~ Nonono… .]

The song just ended. Being conscious of the camera coming in to get a reaction, I hit my palm moderately.

And a slightly excited voice asks.

“What kind of arrangement would you like me to do?”

is the rate Let’s take one step out.

I smiled faintly.

“I like all genres as long as I can perform.”

“wow… … .”

It meant to start with your hand, so what are you admiring?

The following is even more spectacle.

“me too!”

“me too… Well, I will think of anything as an experience and work hard.”

“… … .”

I realized.

These guys… They are yes-mans who have no self-assertion.

It was an In-seon that seemed to know why Cheong-rye picked it up. I spoke as calmly as possible.

“Then, since it’s a contest, how about making it intense?”

There is no refutation.

“Intense is really cool and good!”

“Yes then… Fighting our team!”

suddenly?

Anyone who sees it will know it’s a team fight. It suddenly became like a high school student doing group assignments with two freshmen.

‘Ryu Gun-woo is also in his 3rd month as a trainee, what the heck is it?’

If I take this part well, I’ll become greedy, and if I can’t digest it for giving it to him, it’s a drawing that gets criticized for doing it on purpose

.

This absurdity should be appealed in a way that will not be edited in an interview in a moment. I nodded.

I need to change the way I communicate.

“Then tell me which part looks cool.”

Instead of expressions such as ‘wanting’ and ‘desiring’, you have to put in more objective words to get specific answers.

Sure enough, now we have some useful answers.

“I think the intro looks great!”

“Um, here on the bridge.”

“Then I think it would be better to arrange it in a way that can bring out those two feelings well.”

“yes!”

I completed the direction of the arrangement by attaching words and modifiers as if I was fully considering their opinions.

The parts were also properly distributed what they thought was ‘cool’, and

“… … .”

Doing something like this while being conscious of the camera is quite a chore.

Thanks to that, I remembered the guy I used to do this with all the time… .

-Moondaemundae!

‘stop.’

What are you doing because you feel sorry for the person who is not there now? let’s do things right

I quickly outlined the next stage. At least, the fact that the other two were unconditionally cooperative was better than Azusa.

And a short break that came late at night.

‘I’ll have to go on like this.’

I walked down the hallway in the corner, carrying a notebook with the arrangement direction and part distribution written on it. It was to get away from the wind.

It was close to dawn, so I couldn't see the other guys very well.

"Has everyone gone back to their dorms?"

It was then.

On the other side of the hallway, striding along, a guy turned the corner and appeared.

Yoojin Cha!

He raises his hand and quickly approaches.

"brother! Wow!"

It's just the two of us. Great. Don't say anything else, follow me.

I took him to a blind spot where there were no cameras.

"I… ."

Cha Yoo-jin, who was about to open her mouth, understood my gesture of placing her hand on her mouth and shut it. Yes, audio is captured.

Instead, I held out the notebook and pen I was holding.

– Why did you choose Cheong-Ri?

write this

-Now is not the time to act impulsively. Maybe it's because I want to continue to be in this multiverson or something.

I crossed my arms and looked at him.

Cha Yu-jin closed her mouth tightly, then picked up a pen and wrote strongly.

-I'm not impulsive. I was contacted right before that shoot. [He said he wanted to stick with me. They said the viewers would enjoy it, but it sounded quite plausible.]

As if it was frustrating, the guy scribbled in English has quite a logical structure. I read the guy's text slowly without stopping.

-And someone else chose hyung first – > Another VTIC senior!

"… … !"

'Right.'

Of course, to avoid overlapping who to choose, the supplementary group must have been coordinated with the production team in advance.

However, Chae-yul, who was in the order before, chose me first.

'That's why I thought of Cheongryeo horse, so I guess I chose him instead.'

That bastard, Chae-yul, said he didn't do it, but Cha Yu-jin didn't shake his mouth because he was right. I twitched my eyebrows.

Cha Yoo-jin did not stop the pen.

-And I am confident that I will win. 100%

– Do you think Moondae hyung is losing?

I was immediately handed a pen and wrote down the answer.

-no.

To be honest, I can't imagine a picture of Cha Yoo-jin losing just by looking at the stage.

-But that's a story when it's limited to just watching the stage.

-This is that guy's company.

You don’t know, but that guy is an oil-level person who has gone through this process dozens, maybe hundreds of times.

I hear Cha Yoo-jin snoring. is this kid?

-are you okay. ☺

-Do you feel like you’re going to lose? Can’t beat VTIC people? U_U

What.

I moved the pen

– Remember this too. Winning or losing isn’t important right now. What matters is the amount of buzz.

It means we have to debut together anyway.

-lol OK!

Cha Yoo-jin exhilaratingly wrote and grinded letters three times larger, then shrugged.

“We are good. I’m looking forward to it!”

“okay.”

Now that this has happened, somehow pull out the buzz and eat it.

‘Because I will too.’

After I broke up with Cha Yoo-jin in the hallway, I immediately returned to the practice room.

Shin-oh crouches in a corner and listens to his part over and over again, then seems to have fallen asleep, and Chae-yul responds.

“Here you are!”

“yes.”

Then he will say this.

“Take it easy on my brother. I’m nineteen!”

“… um yes.”

Anyway, you’re trying to talk nonsense to a guy who is originally a senior with a distant year. I nodded.

“If you want to talk comfortably, that’s fine.”

“yes!”

Seeing how he didn’t even ask me, it seems that his brain is just a bit bright.

I sat down. still watching I just want to ask you something.

“Come to think of it… May I ask why you chose me?”

“Ah, that’s it.”

They could ask why I looked like the most X bop out of all of them, but this guy just touches the back of his head as if he couldn’t calculate that far.

“Actually, I’m not even a LeTi trainee… In fact, I think it would be difficult to become a participant in this program.”

A surprisingly realistic answer emerges.

“That’s why I wanted to perform on stage with the person with the best skills! Then I think there will be something to be gained.”

He muttered with a flushed face that he had seen my first solo performance stage.

“If you’re going to fall, that’s good.”

hmm. For a guy who has never failed to say this, he must have heard back saying that if he had been a trainee, he would cheat unintentionally.

I chuckled.

“I don’t think you will fall.”

“really??”

“huh.”

“thank you!”

The guy with his head bowed has a face full of anticipation and excitement.

‘… no.’

I tried to make a moderately heartwarming picture by replying that both of them are good and somehow let’s go up… .

It’s just good that I forgot for a moment that the structure that I fall when I stick is just good.

I was silent for a while watching it.

Replace that… .

‘… Shin Jae-hyun will take care of it.’

I don’t know. I haven’t had any problems for 10 years, so there must be a way to control it. I take care of my group.

“Shall we practice a little longer and then go to the dorm?”

“yes!”

A week passed like that and the day before the first deathmatch dawned.

[〈Supplemental Class〉 Raebin Kim – Win!]

[Participants confirmed!]

3rd stage.

Kim Rae-bin pointed out a rap position with a similar impression to himself and smashed it.

‘It’s awesome.’

[Park Jeong-woong – Expelled from honor class]

[Danger of dropping out!]

If I had known he was a former producer, he should have been dancing. Why did he take the center stage of rap? stupid guy

When I saw the fallen guy, I clicked my tongue inwardly.

Kim Rae-bin nodded and walked back to his seat in a very polite manner.

The team member I was on stage with seemed a bit embarrassed, but what about that? There is no place to catch fire.

-Rabin. Just from the moment you leave the program, everyone you meet there. Think of it as your grandparents’ age.

I guess that was good advice for editing. I nodded.

“Now, the next stage… .”

And the stage that I think will probably come out edited in the last order on the broadcast continues.

“Excellence class Shin Jae-hyeon.”

It was a deathmatch between Chungryeo and Cha Yoojin.

Chapter 376

Episode 376:

Two people on stage.

To be precise, three people, but one trainee was almost invisible due to the momentum.

Actually, it wasn't the trainee's problem. It was a problem because the other two had already tasted the essence of all the professions that had reached the target.

Cha Yoo-jin and Shin Jae-hyeon.

'Hehe.'

Even the president, who did not know the fact, could see the intense contrast in his eyes.

The difference between the two people standing in the same style of black school uniform from the way they were dressed to the way they stood stood out.

Even so, he has a natural attitude that doesn't show any tension.

'That one, that one.'

The boss pursed his lips.

In fact, most of the supplementary classes had to be dropped to form a correct composition, and even if all of them were eliminated, it was okay.

It’s because we can appeal to ‘Look, our trainees are so good’.

In other words, even if you can see the number of supplementary groups standing over there, they will be sent here if possible.

He was a bit selfish and said,

‘He’s a guy who looks too different.’

The president, who hated the public’s prejudice, grumbled, but anyway, he did not object to Cha Yu-jin’s addition to the supplementary class.

His skills and looks made me doubt why he wasn’t a trainee yet. He nodded his head only after seeing the explanation that he was an American.

‘I have to be good at one or two to get the balance.’

There was no regret in adding a good-looking friend who made rap amazing earlier. Because I plan to drop it in the final anyway and leave it for the next one.

However, the recall ends there.

The lights are now off on stage.

“… … .”

hook.

Dry ice is spread underneath, and red and blue lights shine down.

Humming like falling.

[Um Umumum uum um]

A pop song by a solo female singer famous for her gloomy and cool tone and bass line.

The three of them kneel to the beat of drums accompanied by a guitar riff in a kung minor key.

And then the choreography begins.

[His growling howling raise me up]

It seems that the movement of using the limbs to the extent of extreme is entering with difficulty, and then the body stands straight with a movement as if someone has pulled it.

Shin Jae-hyun of the center looks at the camera and turns his hand.

The movement that started with the joints of the hands continues throughout the body, cleverly using the upper body and raising the head.

And the lights bouncing with a grim smile.

[To the darkness absence…

No]

The sound of singing and silence.

After bending the upper body and bouncing the waist, it goes backwards and jumps over the acrobatics with the floor as it is.

The music explodes.

[Tonight

Scratching goes in with precise intensity, with vocals deftly controlled even in the intense action.

Bizarre and intense tones and movements create a very strange atmosphere with school uniforms.

and chorus.

[Watch out!]

Cha Yoo-jin appears from the middle.

For a moment, the gaze is drawn straight up.

[Watch out!

for wolves]

Cha Yoo-jin moved her feet and came forward, deliberately grabbing the camera with a sense of speed, then released her hand.

Eyes sparkle.

“… !”

Directing becomes part of the stage leaving only impact.

But the influence doesn’t go away.

The stage catches the eye.

[Wo wowo woof

Wolf]

A motion in place that moves the shoulders and neck.

and a dance break. Using the person standing in the middle as a kind of buoy, a more difficult performance unfolds on both sides.

The angle is exactly right.

However, the feeling of movement is different.

The intense side that seems to be eaten and the exquisite side that looks like it has concentration.

[Your guest who-oo

Kung.

The song ends with only a dissonant piano note.

Participants staring into the air and falling to the floor.

“… … .”

Only the sound of gasping for breath spread through the hall.

and a bit late.

pair pair… !

Sparse applause fills the venue.

The stage at the filming site has not yet been called, but the applause of the production team and participants for the atmosphere is staggering.

The boss was a little perplexed.

‘what.’

It was because the stage was not of the trainee’s quality that was expected. Rather, it was like a year-end stage of a broadcasting company.

It’s to the point where you don’t even know if the quality is bothered by the other because of the two people.

It was a perfect crush.

‘No, I don’t think it was intended and composed… … .’

… No, if that was the case, those guys would be the boss!

The president gave up his thoughts and looked at the two people on stage with admiration.

It was sincere. I didn’t expect it to do so well.

‘It must be a matter of luck and synergy.’

Anyway, I was very satisfied with getting the stage right.

-Good practice atmosphere

-Light friction with the selection of songs

After reading the summary of the practice process handed over by the production team, the president made up his mind.

And after pouring out great compliments to each person, I picked up the mic again.

“Who made the selection?”

“We did it all together.”

Shin Jae-hyeon, who got up and straightened his clothes, answered softly.

“It could have been a favorable condition for Cha Yu-jin if it was a pop song.”

Shin Jae-hyun only smiled faintly as if he understood, but did not respond.

Because no matter what you say, it’s ambiguous.

‘Smart guy.’

The president proudly continued the following words.

A sincere feeling.

“however… Why does Jaehyun look like the original in my eyes?”

“… !”

Yes.

At first glance, this intense stage looks exactly like the style Cha Yu-jin prefers.

colorful and challenging.

But in fact, the message of this song is more multi-layered.

‘depression.’

Shin Jae-hyun thought lightly.

This song was talking about the fear and resignation of the narrator’s deep depression.

And Shin Jae-hyeon was able to express it as if breathing.

It’s not like you’ve performed the same song multiple times. In this time-warped bizarre world, the selection of songs has also changed.

only… .

Even if it’s not the same song, it’s because I’ve done similar things too many times.

This dark concept has been a steady seller since VTIC entered its 4th year, once a year.

And crucially…

‘Because that’s what LeTi’s president likes.’

He didn’t even bother to turn his head to check his competitor’s face.

Yoojin Cha.

Overwhelming power and dazzling talent that makes you feel like you’re going to eat the song yourself.

However, that was not the only evaluation item.

“Why is that, Jaehyun-ah?”

Shin Jae-hyun picked up the microphone.

“If you really want to find an answer… Maybe it’s just a matter of atmosphere. I’ve been practicing this kind of atmosphere for a long time.”

right answer

right answer

“that’s right.”

the boss laughs

“I think Jaehyun’s performance on stage today was the most LeTi-like performance.”

“thank you.”

Shin Jae-hyun deliberately lowered his head slightly. to show emotion.

And the boss shook his head.

Cha Yu-jin just stood still. Nevertheless, the afterimage of the contrasting feeling I saw on stage remains.

‘hmm.’

He slightly changed his mind.

this becomes a picture

“I announce it.”

The lights on the stage go out and a light comes on in the background.

And the result pops up as if it were natural.

[< Honour Class > Shin Jae-hyeon – Win!]

[Honour class confirmed!]

“Congratulations.”

It was Shin Jae-hyun’s victory.

however.

The boss picked up the microphone again.

“However, I have only one authority given to me by the production team.”

Even if I drop it at the end, I’ll stick it once and see more of this contrast effect!

“During this program, only one trainee can be nullified without any conditions at the risk of being eliminated.”

“… !”

The boss decided.

‘Let’s try to catch it and try to fix it.’

If you attach it here, you will surely be thrilled with the feeling of being ‘recognized’ and try to develop yourself to suit the taste of the person who acknowledged you.

What if you still can’t?

‘I have to keep them out of the market.’

It’s enough to connect small and medium-sized enterprises that can’t go anywhere. The president finished the calculation with a serious expression.

“Cha Yoo-jin lost, but I can clearly see the potential within him. The potential to be a great artist for LeTi.”

“… … .”

“So, with my authority, I accept Cha Yu-jin as an out-of-capacity participant.”

bang.

Letters appear behind the screen.

[Boss Pass!]

[< Supplemental Class > Cha Yoo-jin – Participants Confirmed]

“Can you help me not to regret my choice?”

“Of course! thank you!”

However, Cha Yoo-jin, who knew how to be thrilled, just grinned and said that

. It was refreshing.

There is no sense of debt or emotion.

‘… That one, that one.’

The president managed his expression while watching Cha Yoo-jin shaking hands with his other team members and patting him on the back.

‘Anyway, those who ate American water are like that.’

The staff seemed to have a hard time getting the habit. However, since I couldn’t withdraw the pass I had already written, the president just nodded nicely.

‘It will help bring Shin Jae-hyun up.’

Because there is synergy, such a high-quality stage would have been possible at least with luck. he thought so

Soon the stage is cleared and by the time he has made up his mind, the next team comes up.

The name of the participant appears on the screen.

[Honour class Ryu Gun-woo]

‘Hmm.’

This time, the atmosphere is quite different from before. The three of them, wearing white jumpers, seemed nervous, but they didn’t seem to keep each other in check.

Rather, he keeps looking at the trainee in the middle and following his gestures, he aligns with the line of movement.

‘Ohh.’

The guy who sang that atmospheric jazz… ?

The president recalled the summary of the singularity of each team's practice process he had received in advance, and he looked at their outfits.

When an idol debuts, it is said that they go through it at least once when they are rookies.

It was a marine look with a combination of a blue collar and white clothes.

Even one guy is wearing shorts. The boss almost burst into laughter.

"Looking at the outfit, it seems like a cute concept, is that right?"

"We tried to compose with a new feeling."

Ryu Gun-woo, who naturally took the microphone, glanced at his competitors and just smiled lightly and continued talking.

"Including cuteness."

Then the people around me laughed hihi. It was so heartwarming that anyone would believe it was a team match.

'Hmm.'

-No potential for conflict

-Ryu Gun-woo took the initiative and skimmed through the summary, and once the president nodded.

"Let's begin."

I felt like the storyline would come out only when I watched the stage.

"yes!"

Soon, the nodding trainees form around the sofa in the center of the stage.

Sitting in the supplementary class, standing in the inferior class.

And Ryu Gun-woo, who is sitting on the floor.

[Mmm!]

The moment the accompaniment comes out.

In line with the refreshing beat, the people around the sofa bounce like cushions.

[Oh Ohoh Icy eyes

are cold, but I like it!]

I changed the tempo strangely and changed the pitch of ‘Ohoh’ Choo Im-sae.

Thanks to this, instead of the burdensome pulling feeling of the original, the pronunciation is cut off like a pop.

[The way of speaking that is like carbonation,

the eyes that are hard like ice]

I sit down on the sofa, get up, get up, take a motion as if I’m flying, climb over it, and get up to match the choreography.

[Oh, it’s so pretty!]

Unlike the original song, the high notes explode, but the jump is high at the right angle.

The song and choreography flow with a pleasant beat that is not heavy.

[I see the butterflies, a complex feeling like a bee flying in my heart

‘Oh.’

Chae-yul was included in every killing part that could be used for close-ups using gestures.

And it digests the part perfectly enough to be embarrassing.

[I’m still fine

, but I’m still cold, so please stop melting]

These lyrics don’t make me cringe.

‘what?’

And the refrain that came back.

[Oh Ohoh Icy eyes,

it’s cold, but I like it]

Surprisingly, Gunwoo Ryu sang the chorus amazingly naturally and made a face.

It was strange to receive a round hat so well.

[Oh Ohoh Icy Ice,

your eyes are cold]

The treble was neat as expected, but the refreshing freshness that I thought would be a little awkward sticks well.

‘… ??’

Only the boss, who did not know that he was a person who survived in the idol industry for 5 years under the nickname of puppy, was embarrassed.

[When you approach and extend your hand, look at each other with warm eyes]

The tempo accelerates and they sit back on the sofa and perform a more complex choreography in front of the stage.

The dance break center was another trainee.

And the next chorus is sung by this trainee and supplementary class.

‘Hmm.’

The boss nodded inwardly.

and last.

[So cool!]

The part where Park Moon-dae cheated by saying that this part was ‘intense’ covered the stage brightly and cheerfully like a firecracker.

[Oh Ohoh Icy Eyes]

Jumps and high pitches The clear original sound of the appropriate height is balanced with harmony and fills the stage without disturbing places.

A refreshing stage that makes you feel good just by looking at it.

The two of them, who had short trainee periods at this agency, and the non-trainees felt like one stage.

‘I don’t feel like LeTi.’

To be sure, it wasn’t LeTi’s taste, but it wasn’t bad.

A good stage is because it is good regardless of taste.

[But I like it!]

The stage ended with a smile on their face, with a lot of melodies and even the last movements matching neatly.

‘oh.’

Clap clap clap clap!

This time, cheery applause erupts from all over the place.

It wasn’t as overwhelming as the previous stage. However, it was because it was a good stage with good quality and density in a pleasant direction where the heart goes.

The president happily took up the microphone.

“I felt very good. The three divisions fit well… I love it.”

He gave a few words of praise to each individual, especially the supplementary class, and then got to the point.

“How was your practice?”

The trainees, whose faces brightened, answered quickly.

“I had a lot of fun and worked hard!”

“yes. Because my brother guided me well… We all had fun practicing.”

Ryu Gun-woo had a slightly embarrassed face, but he did not deny it and nodded his head. The boss laughed haha.

“I thought so.”

The faces of the trainees brighten.

This is the moment.

“It’s ironic, but… Is that a problem too?”

“… !”

The boss looked back at Ryu Kun-woo.

“Why can’t I see the urgency?”

“… !”

“Geon-wu, I don’t think this is what Gern-wu is best at… This is our second stage, right?”

“… yes.”

“Then, isn’t now the time to work hard to appeal and show what you do best? I gave up all parts now.”

The boss made serious eye contact and said.

“I should have been greedy to show more, rather than unilaterally adapting to my younger siblings. It was a deathmatch.”

On the contrary, the eyes of the two participants standing around seemed to be frightened and worried, but Ryu Kun-wu only swallowed his saliva once.

I liked that guts too!

“This is not something that can be called fun. It requires sincerity.”

So, just as a lion drops its cub off a cliff, he thought of raising one.

“I did well, but today I just did well. This is a compliment from a student, not a pro.”

Ryu Gun-woo had an expressionless face, but his shoulders trembled.

‘Yes, that’s it.’

You need to be stimulated.

You and the viewers too!

The president held back a smile of repentance and pressed the button with an anguished face.

“We announce the winner.”

[< Supplementary Class > Jin Chae-yul – Win!]

[Participant confirmed!]

Chae-yul.

“congratulations. You are now a participant.”

“… ! thank you… … .”

To say thank you is staggering as if in shock.

“And Mr. Ryu Gun-woo is in danger of being eliminated.”

The boss smiled condescendingly.

That was the moment.

‘uh?’

He passed by right away, but for some reason, it seemed that Ryu Gun-woo smiled at first glance.

‘… Is it because of dejection?’

But looking at it again, I think it was just because of my mood. The president shrugged and took the microphone seriously.

“Go in. I saw you.”

So the evaluation is over.

and behind the scenes.

Cha Yoo-jin found Moon-dae Park, who soothed Jin Chae-yul, who was shedding tears, to make it look good on camera.

The camera is already gone. So I went over and patted him.

“brother!”

“okay.”

Park Mun-dae had a face that was not particularly inspired. Even though her face had changed, her strange expression, as if peaceful, was still the same.

And even subtle kindness.

“Are you sorry you lost?”

“no.”

Cha Yu-jin shrugged. Then he looked up at the stage and smiled.

[It’s not just that old man who really decides the winner.]

“… !”

His brother seemed momentarily taken aback, but probably soon understood the situation.

‘This guy… I did it on purpose.’

as such

And that was the answer!

[Coming soon. That I won.]

“Is that so?”

Cha Yoo-jin deliberately tapped her shoulder. As usual, she slipped away.

“Are you sorry bro?”

“no.”

‘It can’t be.’

Park Moon-dae laughed a little.

“Same thing.”

The filming that day ended just like that.

And not long after, LeTi’s in-house survival show 〈Wise〉 finally got on the air.

Chapter 377

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 377

"Isn't Lavin eating?"

"I went home after dinner, thank you!"

Kim Rae-bin answered vigorously as he came out after washing his face.

After coming to Seoul suddenly, I stayed at Ryu Kun-woo's officetel for a few days, but soon after I agreed with my parents, I ended up staying at my uncle's house in Seoul.

However, after practicing all day, he went to Eolgyeol with Cha Yoo-jin at Ryu Gun-woo's officetel and talked about strategies and had a meal. So, in fact, it seemed that the degree of being indebted to them was similar.

'Why would you be so nice to me?'

Kim Rae-bin still questioned that, but separately, the body diligently carried out the corresponding life.

Yes. The changed daily life permeated into his life surprisingly naturally. As if you've lived like this before… ..

Kim Rae-bin thought deeply and came to a conclusion.

'If you think about it, there's nothing much different from school!'

As if taking a class, the systematic daily life was similar!

Speaking of school, as soon as Kim Rae-bin signed a contract with LeTi, he was scheduled to be transferred as a notice from Seoul, where the number of days he attended was partially supplemented by activities in arts and sports… .

‘The agency is a great place.’

Come to think of it, there was also a strange coincidence.

Coincidentally, the agency the two belonged to was the same company that signed the contract for the first song.

-… You signed a song contract with Letty?

-… ? yes!

You don’t know how much LeTi’s rookie manager liked him when he took Rabin Kim that day.

And why did Kim Rae-bin come to Seoul so easily following the two he had never seen before and live the life of an aspiring idol?

It was because he was persuaded by what he heard on the way home from Strawberry House.

(For some reason, the other side called him by the name ‘Mundae’), but it was a word that the older brother named Ryu Gun-woo calmly brought out.

-I’ve listened to some of the songs you’ve composed so far, but there are a lot of songs that go well with Choreo.

– What is Choreo?

-dance. And the majority of the teams that do the latest trend music with choreography are idol groups.

The older brother continued as if asking a question.

– So I think experiencing their stage directly will help me in composing in the future.

Kim Rae-bin has never tried it, but… That was a persuasive statement!

Even after that, Ryu Gun-woo continued to talk like water flowing.

About the way he wants to solicit.

In-house survival.

-Survival is the essence of an idol stage that can be experienced in the shortest period of time. It's easy to just feel the experience and get out of it.

Kim Rae-bin was amazed.

-… ! okay. If so, do I drop out naturally after a high-density experience that will help me compose?

-Things like that happen, too.

no. This is Kim Rae-bin's misunderstanding. Park Moon-dae assumed that if he was eliminated, he never said that it would happen.

And Kim Rae-bin was going to attach it even if it was manipulated.

Raebin Kim was going to debut like this without knowing why, but he believed in his elimination like Cheol-seok.

'But I never thought I would win by decision on my first stage… .'

It was also survival. No matter how much I think about it, the two of them who showed a great stage are in danger of being eliminated.

Nonetheless, the boldness of both made it even more reliable!

He nodded again.

– It’s okay, don’t worry, let’s practice.

-Kim Rae-bin, you’re doing great!

That’s why Kim Rae-bin is waiting for the shooter of episode 1 of < Wise > with excitement for no reason even though he is not appearing.

It was because he wanted to see the stage of his older brother who helped him.

“hmm.”

The broadcast started at 10:50 p.m. without delay.

[Yes I am~]

A series of silhouettes turning their heads, posing, and raising their arms pass by in sync with the beat of the theme song.

[Who can be a star?]

The stage where the 14 people turned around and stood was the last scene of the opening. It was a typical reality survival opening.

And the focus gathers on the empty stage past the grandiose agency boast in the trailer.

A rather expensive looking dark set, lighting and music that create tension.

[President Kim Tae-in: Let’s start.]

On top of that, the stage of the trainees who climbed the stairs one by one unfolds.

It is different from < Azusa >. Since we started with trainees who have already been identified at the company level, all 14 people have already been assigned characters. In particular, this explanation attached to

[Ace Leader]

Shin Jae-hyun,

centered on a few people who really want to appeal to the public .

[He’s a hyung I really respect.]

[Ranked first in almost every monthly evaluation.]

[Is there anyone who can’t do anything?]

It’s a clear highlight in the editing where testimonies and everyday practice stages intersect.

Keywords like ‘competent, trustworthy, calm, competent’.

Of course, there were also keywords that were formed just by appearance.

-Wow, he’s really handsome.

Rabin Kim, who was watching on TV, did not know, but the Internet was crowded with people chatting while watching, albeit on a small scale.

Mainly existing idol fans were interested in being a new male rookie from ‘that’ LeTi and came to visit.

– Shin Jae-hyun came out.

-ㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠ I waited for you to debut

. This bankbook belongs to Jaehyun. Shin Jae -hyun, who was originally known to be the group’s signboard, boasted an overwhelming response, almost as if they were attached.

And Shin Jae-hyeon’s stage on the stage lit up was elegant and flawless, perfect for a professional.

[The pain must be stinging]

The order was edited to contrast with the previous stage, which was unnaturally burdensome because it gave a lot of energy, but it was a very appropriate stage.

As Shin Jae-hyun intended.

– Decided Shin Jae-hyeon ballot box;;;;

-Is he the leader? ㅇㅋㅇㅋ You have to become a leader

.

Survival is important to hit once more in the second half and go up.

So, even though he hid his abilities moderately, Shin Jae-hyun got the exact image he wanted as always.

‘indeed… !’

And Kim Rae-bin, who was purely watching, is nodding his head.

‘You’re as talented as your personality’

– Welcome.

Recalling Shin Jae-hyun, who even shook hands with a friendly attitude, he took notes. It was because I was taking notes on each stage in my own way.

But it didn’t last long.

“ah!”

Finally, the person I was waiting for got on the airwaves.

What appeared on the screen was a neatly dressed Ryu Gun-woo with his hair set calmly.

And the internet was agitated again.

-Glasses man 1!! I didn’t wear glasses

– Ah, the coldness is so preciousㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠ Thank you Letty!!

-Because he was one of the trainees who became a hot topic because he was good-looking.

At that time, Ryu Gun-woo’s modifier passes through the screen subtitles.

[Singing Genius]

It was intuitive enough to shrink.

And it was also a nickname that no one expected.

-???? singing ability?

-What a genius…

It’s because there was no modifier for his appearance.

-What is it? -No, he must be doing that to boost a different visual, don’t expect it b but I’m looking forward to it

ㄴhahahah

Ryu Kun-woo puts his mouth into a clunky huge standing microphone and sings a surprisingly rich and atmospheric song jazz.

The power to watch TV again in an instant even if you look at it while maintaining the emotional line while properly saving the technical parts of the treble and bass.

-Oh

-?

– Huh

– He’s good at it,

but the reaction that barely produced an exclamation sweeps the window.

And Kim Rae-bin, who was watching TV, clenched his fists.

That amazing ability is also a competency, but somehow… Because there was something like a strange satisfaction.

It feels like the puzzle fits perfectly.

‘I thought the ideal guide vocalist… Is it because it feels like that?’

It was strange.

However, the evaluation stage was only about 2 minutes long and the song ended quickly.

And the ending that allows you to enjoy the afterglow from various angles and the president’s pouring praise continue on the screen.

Ryu Kun-woo was just standing neatly and listening to the evaluation, but the Internet has now started a proper evaluation.

– Mebo is correct.

-He sings

. He sings perfectly.

┗Is it real? Is it possible that there is nothing you cannot do;

-I caught it after seeing your face, but it's the first time I've been good at a stage.

In addition, the more the interview with the president continued, the more new information came out, and the viewers were pleasantly surprised.

-3 months old

-????? -No, where is the main character of the drama??

[President Kim Tae-in: Which university are you a student at?]

[Ryu Gun-woo: Yonhee University]

[Ryu Gun-woo: Attends.]

'You're good at studying!'

Rabin Kim nodded. Somehow, he was very knowledgeable and his words were trustworthy like flowing water!

Of course, not everyone passed it over peacefully like Kim Rae-bin.

-????

– Yeonhee University? The Yeonhee university I know?

– These days, even cartoons don’t have this kind of setting

.

-No, with that face, you should have already become famous in Yeondae?
Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

we already have a lot of fluttering excitement as we see it.

ㄴThis is crazy

– I love it so much Ana this is my first time with an idol like thisㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠ Let’s debut soon Geonwoo!!!

In the meantime, Ryu Gun-woo’s heartfelt impressions did a good job of appealing to the innocent look somewhere.

The amount of comments soared as if to explode, but at the same time, the concentration of subtle antipathy also increased.

Appearing to have no weaknesses. Seeing that there are no trials in life is because it arouses admiration and resistance at the same time.

However, thanks to that, Ryu Kun-woo’s buzz began to burn more vigorously as if he had met a catalyst.

[The identity of the handsome man with glasses who came out as a soft and sweet year-end dancer.jpg] [Letty survival trainees who are about to hit the jackpot]

And the flames even reached Ryu Gun-woo's surroundings.

* * *

I picked up my smartphone.

24 missed calls.

When I enter the messenger app, chat windows with new number alarms appear.

It comes in real time too.

[Speaker Lee Yu-jin: What is it and why are you debuting?]

[Speaker Lee Yu-jin: I wonder if what you wanted to do was become an idol? no… .]

This kind of contact piled up.

'… I didn't think of this.'

But it's an understandable development.

In the end, since Ryu Gun-woo here suddenly appeared on TV as an idol trainee while living in college, it was worth contacting people who knew him out of curiosity.

'It must have been quiet.'

Looking at the list, most of the guys who did group assignments seem to have no sense of danger. Still, I'll have to monitor the school community once.

Liu Chengwu opened his mouth as if he had heard my phone ringing in the kitchen.

“Today, the kids asked me if I was a cousin.

is it?

“What did you say?”

“You said you didn’t know we were twins, not cousins?”

“… … .”

Are you serious?

Liu Qingyu looked at my face and burst into laughter.

“I was joking, and of course I said that he was a cool and good friend.”

He sat down next to him and held out a can of iced beer.

“… … !”

“what’s the matter? Oh, didn’t you drink that?”

“no.”

I gladly grabbed a beer and tore open the opening. And I inhaled it at once.

Tutu tu tu tuk!

It has been a very long time since the taste came up cheaply and coolly.

This… It’s not real, so you can think of it as having some fun.

“Is filming fun?

“fairly.”

I lowered the can and replied. In fact, I didn’t inform this guy of the participation until after his profile picture appeared on the Internet.

I checked first and asked.

-Hyung, you didn’t tell me you were appearing in a place like this.

-… uh hmm

After making an excuse to Ryu Chung-woo, ‘I didn’t know what was going to happen because it wasn’t confirmed’, I was able to cover the situation roughly.

After it aired, my attitude changed a bit.

“I see. surely… Looking at this, it looks like he’s having fun.”

This guy watched the idol program quite favorably. Even now, I am watching the TV screen naturally and concentrating

.

[New contestants appearing… ?]

Episode 2 ends stimulatingly with the appearance of supplementary classes.

Existing contestants with hardened expressions pass by all the time…

‘It’s fine.’

Due to the unpredictable setting of the spicy food, I thought this survival would go well.

‘Of course, it can’t just end well.’

I laughed while anticipating what kind of reaction would come out in episodes 3 and 4.

I had to draw the picture as well as possible until the second half.

It will go in a direction that people watching the early episodes can’t easily predict.

* * *

[New competitor < Supplementary Class > appeared!]

“What are you looking at?”

“Ah~ the new Letty Survival.”

An idol group traveling by car.

The member who was sitting in the back seat and watching the program seriously was briefly interrupted.

〈Wise〉 The member next to us saw the screen with the LeTi logo on it and booed lightly.

“Ah, are you a rookie in the formation again?”

“eww. “

One or two other people reacted that way, but most of them are busy with their own business.

friendship game romance.

“… … ”

MS Enter’s Zyrop has settled down smoothly in the music industry as he was from a famous entertainment company. That’s already 3 years.

After winning the main prize at most awards ceremonies and starting to make money through the tour, everyone showed signs of mannerism.

‘Ah~’

This bastard doesn’t even know the schedule.

The member who was looking at the screen turned his head with a sigh and a smile.

“Ah hyung, since we’re appearing here as mentors, we’re watching it with both sides~ I’ll keep an eye on it!”

“Oh um, yes.”

To say I didn’t know Lee Se-jin of ‘Living Only Mouth’

naturally overcame the thought of twisting the corner of her mouth and resumed watching with a light smile.

‘… you’re good.’

On the screen that has been turned back to episode 1, you can see a participant singing elegant jazz.

Perhaps it was because there was no awkward part anywhere on the stage, so it was uniquely memorable.

“… … .”

Sejin Lee leaned on his chin and looked at it.

Even though he made his long-awaited debut and everything is going more smoothly than he thought.

For some reason, I couldn’t get rid of this strange feeling of incongruity, as if I had been given something that didn’t belong to me.

‘Why are you doing this?’

It was still a cold winter.

Chapter 378

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 378

It was right after the first episode aired that articles about Ryu Kun-woo started appearing on the university community.

_____==

[Alumni just appeared on TV]

But, did our school have such a handsome guy?

_____==

-? This article should be given legally

ㄴㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

Let’s look at what is it

? (Captured)

ㄴHuh

ㄴHuh

. It is the power of appearance stats and corrections.

-What’s your name? I’m nervous.. -It’s floating in the subtitles

, but why the hell are you processing consonants

?

Comments on the post that was about to disappear from the latest page increased, and then a guy who claimed to know Ryu Gun-woo appeared.

-Ah, this is the person I worked with for the group assignment.

ㄴHurry review

ㄴHow?

ㄴHe was just quiet and worked hard, but he was smart.

He was wearing glasses

ㄴ

He had everything. .

‘There’s no such thing as a free ride.’

I haven’t become a name enough to manipulate authentication yet, so that’s it.

I shook my head when I saw the comments where the guy who leaked my personal information and the guy who told me not to do that started fighting.

Of course, maybe Ryu Chung-woo is more famous than me, and there is a story about him as well.

– Aren’t they twins?

… Liu Cheng-wu's bullshit almost spread, but fortunately it was corrected.

-?? No, the two of them are related lol They often go together

. -What kind of cartoon is this? A gold medalist and an idol are brothers and students at prestigious universities

┗ Ah hahaha It's a light novel.

And these articles are captured and uploaded to other communities and then uploaded to social media.

It was a great viral course.

'It's spread quite a bit.'

I don't know if it's true or not, but anyway, the fact that it was posted on a certified school community was enough for viewers to trust it.

'It's fun because there's so much unsolved information.'

Actually, this tendency is a double-edged sword, but it's not stuck in my flesh now, so it's useful.

-Somehow, he was wearing glasses. Jo Won, who is quiet and good at work, is really

nerdy. (Comparison image)

However, it is a little uncomfortable that Ryu Cheong-woo is mentioned a little too much.

Treating a guy who quit the national team to find a new career path and become an ordinary college student is a celebrity.

I asked openly.

“There are rumors that you and I are related. Will it be okay?”

“Hyung didn’t do anything strange, so why would I care about that? Of course it’s okay.”

Ryu Cheng-wu lightly passed it on, saying that it was not the first time that his current situation was posted on the Internet.

‘hmm.’

If so.

I continued browsing the internet.

Once the demand layer.

In a situation where nothing has come out yet, Ryu Gun-woo seems to have been stably caught in the flow he likes by grouping people with similar so-called ‘picture styles’.

So, the early fan base was a success.

-For those who like Kunwoo, Jaehyun, and Taejun #Wise_Chinso

-I really like Genius Jazz ㅠㅠ

And the details that aren’t on stage… .

-I never shake my posture throughout the review (video)

-Geonwoo’s bed and blankets are all set. This feeling of having been well educated at home…(Captured)

Looking at similar posts, I roughly adjusted my angle.

About my selling point here.

‘Genius, calm, smart, pure, elite gold spoon.’

A model student who grew up unpredictable.

It's a keyword that works, but it's also a very solid keyword for those who dislike it.

'Likes and dislikes will be dirty… … .'

I ran a few more searches.

It seems that there is no name for search prevention yet. After all, it's a program that's a bit different from its competitor, Azusa.

Still, if you go over the middle, the guys who dig in earnest will stick.

'I'm guessing they'll probably call it something like 'Jack' as a twist on the first stage jazz.'

Anyway, now, if you just search, you'll get good reviews.

For example, if you click on the article that says 'feeling of trainees so far' and look at the Ryu Kun-woo item… .

– ㄱㅇ : It's okay. I feel like I grew up without anything lacking, but my training period is too short? Right after debut, when the schedule becomes hard, there will be a controversy over attitude

. This is what it feels like.

I chuckled.

I prepared a room for this, so I don't think much of it when I read this article.

I just want to make sure things are going well.

'When are you coming?'

I straightened my shoulders.

And a few days later, the official trailer for episode 3 was released.

[Honour Class VS Supplementary Class?]

[Results that no one expected]

[?? : Ah!]

[President Kim Tae-in: No matter what the affiliation is, I will judge it coldly.]

As long as it doesn't become a spoiler, the stages are shown in close-up and full cam.

[The talented people of < Supplementary Class >]

[Trainer: If you go like this, (Beep) wins. Do you know?]

Kim Rae-bin also shined for a while, and Cha Yu-jin gave quite a bit. This is because a few seconds of highlights from the stage with Cheongryeo were broadcast.

'This was just a pre-release, and I was told who I'd play with.'

The splendid movements are impressively captured, and then cut short.

[Unexpected classic]

[Shin Jae-hyeon: That's why we can't lose.]

Cheong-ryeo's bitter smile passes by briefly.

In addition to that, the trainees who were pointed out seemed to be confused about who they were. .

Soon, the face with a hard expression and breathing is slowly close-up.

grow.

[President Kim Tae-in: Why can’t you see the urgency?]

[Ryu Gun-woo: … … .]

After the sound of deep breathing, the title logo goes up and the trailer ends.

Oh, I did hold onto the light board.

That’s it.

[< Supplementary Class > ■■■ – Win!]

[The shocking result will be revealed this week.]

It means that someone in the supplementary class won. I nodded in satisfaction.

‘It’s good.’

I gave you the last one, but it doesn’t have a lot of screen time, so I don’t think there will be a needless controversy about the nominee.

‘In the first place, the editing wasn’t friendly from anyone’s point of view.’

Isn’t it the fact that I ruined the stage like X? It’s a tasteful aggro for a good guy to go bankrupt.

As if no one thought that I would be in danger, the SNS that had been waiting for the Haha Ho-Ho trailer also turned upside down.

It’s like this. -Geonwoo

Marine look What is

it???

Of course, it's not just about Ryu Gun-woo. Overall, there are many viewers who were surprised by the pre-bread trailer that said that the supplementary class was attached.

Everyone is not an idiot, so in the preview at the end of episode 2 last time, I guessed that the 'replenishment class' was just for obstacles.

-President Kim can never let go of Letty Award

At this point, even the fans of the deceased person in the entertainment company are all perplexed.

– Preliminary fishing, right?

-Ah, where did you bring the rubbish-like rules to the supplementary class

? (Captured)

This is so crazy that even the entertainment community is starting to post about it.

[Righty Letty Survival Trailer (participant replaced)]

Excellent.

At this level, it can be evaluated that it is not spicy for an in-house survival contest, but just spicy.

I headed back to the filming set, leaving behind the internet situation where Aggro was properly attracted and Won Ki-ok was gathering.

* * *

"Whew."

One contestant of 〈Wise〉 sighed deeply.

I knew there was a camera, but I couldn't help it.

Because it was so frustrating and cruel.

Such was the new treatment he received in the new shoot.

"You are now 'outside'."

〈Supplemental Class〉 is eliminated if it does not win the first one-on-one deathmatch.

But what about the existing contestants?

Literally 'outside'.

It is to become an underprivileged class excluded from all main events.

And in the fear of being eliminated, I have to pack my things and leave the dorm bedroom.

And you have to watch your seat be taken by a participant in the < Supplementary Class > and unpacked.

This is what he experienced when he was in danger of being eliminated after losing to Kim Rae-bin in 〈Supplemental Class〉.

"sorry. I will write carefully. sorry!"

"no. it's okay… ."

It was also upsetting that I had to put up with the medicine-sweetened tea from the < Supplement Team > who sincerely apologized. Because the camera is rolling.

'There's no such thing as this… .'

Although it is all in the world of show business, it was a shock in its own way to a young man who had not yet been a trainee for a long time.

He trudged and moved his feet according to the instructions of the production team.

He kept putting it off in his head that he had secretly ignored the trainees who hadn't been chosen as participants in this survival until a few days ago.

And I saw reality again.

"Ugh."

'Outside' didn't even have a bed. The place that I thought was a warehouse until now was the place where the 'outside' would live.

Treated like a farmhand.

It was embarrassing.

'Annoying fuck.'

But he wasn't alone. Ryu Gun-woo The elder who received insanely good reviews during his short trainee period.

The contestant was right next to him.

It was a little bit of a complaint, but it was also a relief.

Being on the verge of being eliminated after performing so well on the first stage must be due to the influence of luck.

-brother… .

-Don't worry, see you later.

He seemed to still have plenty of room, though, as he had said this to the replacements taking his place.

-I'll see you again soon bro.

-… thanks.

Besides, I saw him leaving the room while shaking hands with his roommate Shin Jae-hyeon, but wouldn't he look a bit discouraged now?

'where.'

The participant secretly raised his face to check Ryu Gun-woo's expression.

"… ??"

It was amazingly calm.

My mouth opened automatically.

"that… Are you okay bro?"

"It's not okay, but… I can't help it."

With a calm face, Ryu Gun-woo replied.

"I fell because I didn't do well, but there is nothing to be unfair about."

"… … ."

I was kind of pissed off. Can you afford this situation?

'There is a place to return. This is it.'

Aren't you a college student? The participant was somehow moved and almost looked at Ryu Kun-woo with rebellious eyes.

However, Ryu's words did not end there.

"But I won't drop out like this."

"!"

"I have to go up somehow. Even crawling."

And the participant realized.

It looks calm, but it only seemed that way because it made up its mind.

“… me too.”

“is it so. Let’s do our best.”

The participant willingly bumped into Ryu Kun-woo. And I thought with my mouth shut.

Now that I look at it, it looks like I’m holding back my thoughts, as if I’ve realized something…

‘ah.’

It had to be.

Because he wanted to look like that.

‘good. It goes out unconditionally.’

After talking meaningfully with the participant, Ryu Kun-woo took a blanket while singing joy in his heart.

‘The two trainees who are in danger of being eliminated. Since there are only two of us, we will definitely leave.’

One cut was properly pulled out.

* * *

By the time I finished roughly organizing my luggage in the warehouse of the lodging where I was kicked out, the full-scale shooting schedule started again.

Of course, there is no such thing as an outsider.

“During the main event, you just need to organize your accommodation.”

“yes… ?”

“yes.”

It was like this.

‘Rather good.’

The main event this time was singing a campaign song for a public service announcement, and it’s not a shame that I couldn’t participate. There is nothing to appeal to.

Even if it appears on the air, it will end in a 20-minute cut and most of the more stimulating team fights will be held.

‘One campaign song with 14 people? It’s better this way.’

I’d rather do less obvious housework, so it’s obvious that people will enjoy it. I worked hard to organize the lodging and cook.

It’s important to be serious and work hard so that it doesn’t look like you’re joking around. Just don’t look so miserable as to be unpleasant.

“It’s much nicer because it’s clean.”

“yes… .”

The guy I work with is less cooperative, but that’s it… It’s up to you to use it well.

‘The more I do, the better.’

I think I should take this opportunity to shed the image I grew up in without suffering. I made up my mind to wear rubber gloves.

“I’m going to clean up the bathroom.”

After spending the day with the certification of ‘not a gold spoon in the greenhouse’, the event finally ends and the real exhaust comes.

Time to prepare for the third performance.

“Prior to announcing this theme, the exclusions will be moved separately.”

And here too, the exceptions are those outside the quota.

Quarantined and waiting in another practice room, an hour or two later the trainer finally arrives and explains how things work.

“You don’t have a team choice.” First of all, they do not give any other information. They just wait for the team to select them as a team member .

But if no one comes… .

However, if anyone comes, they are accepted as radish kimchi… la.

‘Considering the part loss, the correct answer is not to come to a team with skills.’

never go back like that. Isn’t this an in-house survival game?

I stood still and waited with a serious expression.

As expected, when about 10 minutes passed after receiving the notification.

The practice room door opens softly.

And what you see is…

“Excuse me.”

It is Shin Jae-hyeon of Cheongryeo.

He came into the practice room and casually stood next to the trainer with the camera in front of him.

I was silently keeping my mouth shut.

“Are there any outliers that the team has decided to accept?”

“yes.”

He looked at me openly and opened his mouth as if he had nothing to hide.

“The participant our team wants to be with is Ryu Gun-woo… .”

It was then.

smart.

The door opens once more with a knock.

A little more hastily than before.

“I… .”

“… !”

What came in… is the rate

A VTIC member from the original world of the supplementary class that climbed alongside me.

“Did you decide to accept an out-of-place participant in that team as well?”

“yes.”

He seemed a little taken aback when he saw the others already there, but he answered right away.

“… This is Ryu Gun-woo.”

I guess so. In fact, I thought you would come if you just persuaded your teammates.

So what about the trainer's verdict?

"If both teams nominate an out-of-competitor together, that participant can choose."

oh this is surprising

'I thought it was first-come-first-served basis or they would even play rock-paper-scissors among themselves.'

But really, it's not very pleasant. I don't want my ranking here to look high.

Right now, it works well for me to be in a position that goes up from the bottom.

'hmm.'

I blinked a few times as if I was embarrassed. Then I quickly scanned them.

It is a situation where you can't tell what happened to the team and choose only by looking at the face signs.

Looking at the facts revealed, it seems uncertain whether Cha Yu-jin and Kim Rae-bin will be among these two teams.

'Hmm.'

I finished the calculation pretending to stare at the floor for a moment.

And decided.

"The team I want to be on is… ."

It's here.

Chapter 379

Episode 379

“The team I want to join is Shin Jae-hyun’s team.”

I chose Cheongryeo’s team.

Even the trainer widens his eyes. The attitude as if I knew how to choose Jin Chae-yul’s team.

[Uh huh? Hyung?]

Even this quiet guy who said ‘I won’t disturb the filming’ came out.

‘why.’

[Uh, that Chae-yul was a competitor right before, but the atmosphere was good… Because we were together, I thought we would hit the jackpot this time as a team… … .]

Yes, you also drew the board in your own way, right?

I laughed heartily.

‘no.’

[omg! Why?]

‘It’s a good idea, but there are a lot of pitfalls.’

Because my position is ambiguous.

First of all, if I stick with Chae-yul, my opinion becomes stronger than this guy's unconditionally. He already has a track record, and his skills are superior to those of seniors, so there's nothing special about him.

If I try to take it out like 'I've lost, so I'll be quiet', it'll look weird, so if there's no one better than me in that guy's team, I'll have to take up the arms again.

'no.'

Then the problem arises from the song selection. If you keep the light and refreshing concept like last time, there will be a problem in the president's evaluation.

'There's a story about me repeating without thinking.'

Or you'll think we're fighting.

But what if you change the route with a gloomy concept in line with the president's evaluation? It goes like this.

-Well, I don't think I expected a picture like this

. Sik-ne

When episode 3 airs, there will surely be quite a bit of public opinion defending me against the harsh criticism of the president, but I am disappointed that I have betrayed the expectations of the people there.

No matter what I choose, I lose the strength I appealed to in the previous team fight.

Whether it's caring or pure perseverance.

[I could not have imagined this kind of answer… … .]

But there is nothing to be heartbroken about.

‘It’s just that this time, I thought it would be best to have someone who could be the leader, not me.’

And didn’t a leader with decades or hundreds of years of experience who were proven to be good at work come?

I made a facial structure to say thank you sincerely.

“… thanks.”

“I am truly grateful. Please take good care of me.”

Cheong-ryeol.

‘This edition is positioning as the hardest-working team member 1.’

that’s the best

I shook hands with Chung Ryeo. The guy was smiling faintly.

‘I knew it would be like this.’

Did you say that you came after the same calculation?

I clicked my tongue in my heart and sent a look of gratitude to him on the outside.

Of course, follow-up is essential.

“Still, do you have anything to say to the other team that came to see you?”

okay. At this point, I knew I would catch the wind.

I immediately approached Jin Chae-yul before the trainer finished talking. He nodded his head as if he understood.

“Thank you so much for coming.”

“no… .”

Here I change the point of why I declined Chayul.

“But you don’t have to feel guilty or responsible because I lost. really.”

“… !”

Jin Chae-yul raised his head.

“Because you did well. I’ll do well this time as well. Let’s do it again on the next stage.”

It’s a consideration that I didn’t make an unreasonable choice because of guilt.

‘Actually, it’s not surprising.’

Since this guy was from the supplementary class, there must have been very few people on the team who knew him, but he must have had a hard time persuading him to bring me.

‘Actually, if I go in, there’s a high chance that people will talk about the part again.’

It would be more convenient for this guy to go separately. Because my skills are fine.

“We had fun.”

“! yes!”

He sniffed, but then smiled and nodded. I patted him on the back moderately and set a good mood.

… In reality, I was quite grateful, and even if my brain is a bit bright, there is no malice.

‘Seeing that bastard doesn’t make any noise, it means that this guy can easily attach himself.’

I don’t think you need to do anything else.

Another team soon came and picked up the other contestant who had been with Kim Rae-bin, and the distribution of diced radish kimchi ended.

But the camera still follows.

Well, it would be better to ask one question like this.

As I walked down the hallway, I asked Cheong Ryeo.

“Why did you choose me?”

“When we practice, we get along best. I want to show you once.”

I don’t even spit on my mouth and I lie… Hey, this bastard also tried to make a big deal out of it.

“And because my brother is so good at it… .”

Indeed, he is a man who knows how to brush his teeth like a deceased person. I returned my words as if I had promised.

“You have to do better. It won’t be a nuisance to the team.”

“I have no doubts. Oh, and there is one more reason.”

“… ?”

Cheong-rye laughed.

“I think you will like our team too.”

“… … hmm. I guess so.”

I suddenly have a bad feeling, but let’s laugh for now.

And after a while, I see the side of the team members gathered by Cheong-ryeo.

Click.

“Damn, Geon-wu hyung is here.”

“thank you. I will leave it up to you.”

I knew it would be like this, but the first thing I see when I open the door is… This is Rabin Kim.

“It’s an honor to team up like this! I really wish you well!”

Producer Rapper Cheerful. He didn’t overlap anything with himself, but he was a good guy to use, so I thought he’d drop it and bring him in.

‘It’s good so far.’

Because I thought I should take care of it once in this round.

When the team members turn their heads while hearing the explanation that they met through a mini game… Yes, there is one VTIC member.

“hello.”

“Yes yes.”

hmm it’s cast iron It seems that the real name was a different name, but let’s omit it and nod our heads.

Surprisingly, the last guy who jumps out like a bullet from behind is also a guy I know.

“brother! Welcome~ Sit down!”

… You brought me to Cha Yu-jin.

“I love our team! Do well!”

“Oh yeah.”

I didn’t expect this. I thought I would throw it away because of overlapping positions, but it is a very challenging choice.

I sat around and checked the final sum.

Two main dancers, main rapper, and lead vocalist… .

‘And is it complete with me, the main vocalist?’

Half VTIC and half Testa.

In fact, there are no flaws in terms of skills and positioning. If there are no problems, this round should go smoothly and without too much trouble.

I don’t have to fight… I don’t plan on dragging it, so I guess I can do a coordinator.

‘good.’

The roles are clearly defined. I nodded.

“First of all, I’ll briefly explain the rules on how we compose the performance, hyung.”

This round has a simple structure in which two teams with the same concept keywords stick together to compete. And the superiority and inferiority are concluded on a team basis.

Except for me.

I was told that I would receive a separate evaluation of ‘drop out or remain’.

And the keywords we received are… .

“hmm… Sexy.”

“… … .”

I chose something really avant-garde.

Cheongryeo smiles as if she is sorry.

“Isn’t it a bit embarrassing? sorry. Because I’m not good at the game.”

I guess it was.

“no! You did well enough, but the environment at the end was just not good. Concept too… Exciting!”

“that’s right. I’m fine.”

“Yes? thank you for saying it like that.”

Putting aside this heinous performance for show, the concept itself is not bad.

It’s intense in itself and doesn’t overlap with the previous stages.

‘good.’

In the arrangement discussion, I did not lead public opinion, naturally supporting the opinion of Cheong-ryeo, who served as the leader.

Sometimes it’s enough to gently put Cha Yujin’s or Kim Raebin’s opinions into the flow.

So, the direction of the arrangement was quickly outlined as Cheong Ryeo had envisioned. Thanks to that, the guy spit out this line faster than expected.

“Then let’s talk about the part from now on.”

Here is the main point.

“Does anyone want the high notes for the bridge here?”

Raise your hand immediately.

“I want to.”

“ah.”

I applied for every difficult treble part after that.

I’m the only one in the main vocal position, so there’s no negative effect even if I’m greedy.

‘The correct answer is to show a little bit of a combative look.’

The trick here is to actively challenge only the parts that are difficult enough for others to avoid. It’s hard to go in the way that you come in later and eat up the amount.

I only save the image that I will show you all to the limit of what I can do.

“Wouldn’t it be too hard for you, Geonwoo?”

“I’ll try to digest it.”

And I won’t deny it Cheong-Ri came in at the right place so that I could revive my image.

“Then, shall we end the distribution of parts like this?”

“yes!”

He even prepared a pretty good part for Cha Yoo-jin. Until I gave up quite a bit of myself.

‘hmm.’

I asked Cheong-rye in a small voice without a microphone by the time the production crew was checking the filming equipment.

“It’s up to you.”

To put Cha Yu-jin in the team and take care of it properly like this.

Without even asking what he was up to, he answered right away.

“It’s nice to see. Because the two who showed a good stage as competitors will become a team this time. isn’t it?”

“… … .”

Soon, when the death match between the two is aired, tickets will pour out to Cha Yoo-jin.

The intention is to block those viewers before they have a backlash against themselves.

‘A careful bastard.’

It’s a great choice.

“It must have seemed like a good choice to my juniors as well. Um, would you like to share these details right now?”

“done.”

I held back a sigh.

Of course, I had been briefed on how this survival would go.

However, no further detailed joint plans were made. I recalled the conversation at the time.

-I don’t need more details.

-hmm?

– Even if you discuss and plan everything based on your prior knowledge, variables may appear. Because the time zone is different and the participants are different.

-Yes.

The guy noticed right away and smiled and continued the next words.

-And at that moment, if we each have a different opinion… Hmm, you don’t want to give up?

It was a natural story. You’ll think that your thoughts are more effective.

-So you know how to go. If you stick, do your best

. -Yes. Good luck. Juniors are going to debut anyway, so don’t be burdened, but it’s a bit annoying to think that this bastard is all in your hands.

‘done.’

Well done. Then take a look at this natural disaster.

After I broke up with him, I called the next batter and went out into the hallway.

“Cha Yoo-jin.”

“Umm?”

“for a moment.”

I took the bastard and had a short written conversation.

-This time on the main stage… .

It was a small operation that started like this.

Cha Yu-jin looked at the notebook for a moment, then shrugged.

And I wrote it like a reply.

– I can’t.

-[But only for the sake of the team.]

Tim.

‘I guess he’s talking about Testa.’

I chuckled.

Got it baby

“good. Then follow along here.”

“why?”

Why is it fabricated evidence to be submitted later when the production team asks about the hallway cam?

And two days later came midterm day.

The preparations had already been completed. Originally, my plan was to make a proper impression from here and create an edit point and a story.

‘like that… It was meant to be.’

An emergency has occurred.

Active idols came as special judges for the midterm inspection.

“We gathered the active KPOP stars of this era.”

“Huh.”

A lineup that is good enough to make a fuss about trainees.

in those… there was.

“Hello, I’m Sejin Lee from Zyrop!”

a familiar face.

To be precise, a guy with a familiar face and a stranger in styling is sitting in the seat.

Big Sejin.

“… … .”

yes. I found out that they had already debuted by searching the Internet in advance. And, of course, I expected to meet you if I did broadcasting activities.

But I didn’t expect to see his face already… .

Cha Yoo-jin lightly slapped his side.

‘careful.’

“… … .”

yes. is filming

I focused on performance. It’s been a long time since I earned my living from this for the unexpected situation to have an impact.

“Hoo-wook.”

“This is it!”

The performance of the first verse ended well.

And Lee Se-jin of Zyrop left this review.

“Wow, you seem to be doing better than me~? It was impressive.”

“thank you!”

“By the way, Mr. Geon-woo.”

why.

“It’s okay to be a little less nervous~ I think you are a little nervous before and after the stage. I don’t think there’s any need for that!”

“… yes. thank you.”

X feet.

I immediately went out into the hallway during break time.

It’s a bit like that to do in a place where there are people.

[Are you okay??]

Of course it’s okay. therefore… .

‘Recruitment of fellow colleagues.’

Episode 1 2 aired, let’s spend that fucking reputation exp that got 50000 points.

[Colleague Recruitment]

[1st / 10th]

I hit 10 times without hesitation.

Insincerely, the lights go off and the list goes by.

One star, two stars, one star, two stars..

The names I know don’t appear. Just an unfamiliar name is a colleague and this situation fills the window… .

‘X feet.’

I gritted my teeth and turned again.

[ ]

Stars rain endlessly, but no one is looking for them. This time, it disappears leaving only useless gold.

“… … .”

I chewed my tongue.

Let’s roll the head with a little common sense. After all, there’s nothing you can do about choosing that guy as a colleague.

‘I already debuted with another team.’

That means he’s the one with the least chance of joining.

‘… Is that why I feel more reluctance?’

Lee Se-jin, who debuted as a completely different group? There is no certification mark that says that this is not reality.

“Whoa.”

I sighed. Now that my head has cooled down, I can see the principles of my actions.

“under.”

Laughs come out.

okay.

It would be nice if there were more guys who are efficient, nabal, and know the reality.

‘… I don’t think it will come out.’

Still, I smiled and raised my hand and pressed 10 times again. Couldn’t have been that funny.

It was then.

[~♪♬♪~]

“… !”

The aurora light bursts from the image of the pop-up window like the night sky, and then swirls and oscillates as if it is about to escape from the pop-up…

‘This.’

It’s a visual effect you’ve seen before.

… When I picked 5-star Cha Yoo-jin.

“ah.”

However, 4 stars flash on the screen.

[★★★]

That too for a while.

Soon, a star of a different color flies in and sticks to it. five in total.

And finally… Images and descriptions appear.

[Ah!]

[★★★★☆ Sejin Lee / Sub Vocalist]

“… … .”

[※ Colleagues with different colored stars have special abilities!]

Special abilities.

In the < 127 Section > game, it meant skills such as exploration and production, not combat. In other words, abilities in other fields that are not the game’s main stats.

Then here… .

I moved my hand

A small pop-up that appears when you pass over the name of ‘Lee Se-jin’.

[Special ability: Actor]

This… Before changing his name, he was Bae Se-jin.

Chapter 380

If you can’t debut, you get a fatal disease Episode 380

“… …”

I immediately confirmed the addition of a colleague. And after swallowing saliva, I checked the list.

The current status of the colleagues selected so far was displayed.

[Colleague list]

[Shin Jae-hyeon: On the way to find a colleague (//-^ ┣)]

[Cha Yu-jin: Calm conversation with the crew (ㅇㅅㅇ)]

Originally, it should have ended here, but one more line was added.

The guy you just picked.

[Lee Se-jin: Reading the scenario (`ㅅ´9)]

Scenario.

Anyone can see that this portrayal is an actor. therefore… Bae Sejin is right.

“after.”

A pop-up pops out like a big moon scrawled.

[Huh, wake up right now, hyung!]

Yes.

[Colleague: Do you want to awaken Lee Se-jin?]

-Exp 1000

I reached out and tried to press the accept button… .

Stopped.

[?? Brother?]

No, this is not it.

I then turned my head to see the blood return.

‘I’m filming right now.’

A smartphone was also presented. Anyway, even if I awaken this guy now, he will be unable to contact me for at least four days.

Then, we can’t let this guy, who has recovered his memories alone, be left in confusion.

[ah… That’s right.]

Let’s finish the stage and proceed with awakening.

[yes! Go for it!]

I returned the colleague list popup. But I wasn’t as nervous as before.

on the contrary… I get motivated

‘I’ll have to call you after awakening as soon as it’s over. I’ll have to inform Cha Yu-jin as well.’

Of course, persuading him didn’t seem like a normal thing… Just that alone made me feel very good.

My head clears up.

[Lee Se-jin: Reviewing the scenario (` ㅅ//)]

… I don't know why all of a sudden, the emoticon has a slash again, but anyway, this is it for now.

I chuckled, turned off the colleague list, and prepared to return to the practice room.

It was then.

"excuse me… ."

"… !"

it's a familiar voice but… .

'Why can I hear this here?'

When I turn my head immediately, I see the guy as expected.

It is Lee Se-jin with an embarrassed expression.

"Where is the sink by any chance?"

"… … ."

yes. It's break time, so this guy can wander around here as he pleases.

I raised my hand.

"It is over there."

"Ah~"

Go quickly.

But instead of going, he started wandering.

“thank you. Oh, is it okay if I call you like this, Mr. Geon-woo?”

“yes.”

“Oh~ You look cool!”

And grinning.

“Today’s stage was so good that I had a lot of fun thanks to that. Thank you~”

“Me”

Let’s choose some words.

“Thank you for your kind words.”

“Ah, it’s not empty talk. I saw Gunwoo’s first stage, and everything was really good. I think you’re going to debut, really!”

Is this bastard thinking about it because he remembers it?

‘It can’t be.’

It seems that he is just trying to make a string for networking. Isn’t it obvious

‘That hasn’t changed.’

I untied my arm.

Yes, after the famous work is over, you will be picked and awakened, so do as you like.

Let me do some gold plating too.

It’s not that I’m not saying anything.

“thank you. I also learned a lot while watching seniors stage. I learned a lot from watching him implement each movement to suit the song.”

“ah.”

The boy suddenly closed his mouth.

‘Didn’t I expect that?’

But soon, without hesitation, he opened his mouth.

“thank you. I’m also cheered up~ Well then, this is also meant to be, so shall we exchange contact information?”

It’s the same as < Azusa >.

It is said that a strange nostalgia came up rather than bitterness. I shrugged.

“I don’t have a phone right now… If it’s okay, I’ll contact you.”

“Yeah, that’s good!”

I put the number in his smartphone. I felt strange.

“I’ll text you, so say hi later. We~”

“Yes. Then I’ll go in and get ready. thank you.”

“Um yes.”

I just turned away, as if not noticing that he wanted to talk more.

‘Clean up my brain.’

He’s a guy who usually does a lot of things. I felt like I was going to make a mistake the moment I relaxed.

Anyway, it was a polite response, so the other side wouldn’t be offended either… .

‘It seems to develop similarly here as well.’

For networking, so for interpersonal relationships based on mutual benefits.

I smiled and hurried my steps around the corner of the hallway.

And just before I bumped into the guy on the other side of the corner, I stopped right in front of me. it’s clean

“Here you are. You have come a long way.”

“Somehow.”

“I don’t think it’s ‘somehow’… Oh, also.”

He glanced around the corner to see Lee Se-jin’s back. And muttered with a sad face.

“He wasn’t there. As I said beforehand, it’s hard to take that one. A member of an established group in their 3rd year.”

don’t i know that

“I just opened some contacts for networking.”

“Hmm, are you trying to explain the situation and call it persuasion?”

“… … .”

“You did that to me before.”

All over the ground?

I thought for a moment that there was nothing I couldn’t do… .

“No, the stage comes first.”

It’s not crazy because I can’t do it. You can do it, but it’s crazy to do something that everyone else doesn’t.

I have no intention of saying useless things to that guy until he wakes up.

“is it so. Good idea.”

You sound obvious.

I returned to the practice room. for the completion of the stage.

and after a few days.

Finally, for the first time in this program, the stage shooting with audience members began.

* * *

“Thank you~”

Lee Se-jin of Gyrop, who came to the seat once again as a special judge, greeted them kindly and sat down.

Among the idols who came to the midterm evaluation, I called back those who were less busy now, but it wasn’t very pleasant to have a seat confidently.

Nevertheless, the stage is interesting.

Monitoring those who are likely to become competitors is bound to benefit. Besides, there are people I just made friends with.

Gunwoo Ryu.

The trainee who did that jazz stage.

Sejin Lee frowned slightly, pretending to wrinkle his nose.

‘It was a bit strange.’

Originally, I wanted to be the type that was especially good and attracted attention. So I thought there was nothing to lose by knowing.

But when I got to talking… .

‘Should I just say that I felt like I wanted to get to know you?’

The feeling of wanting to become friendly again with a friend who has been estranged because I couldn’t see why he wasn’t here.

‘Have you ever known me before?’

Like a friend I used to play with in the neighborhood when I was young.

No, you’re an elder, so you know the neighborhood hyung?

‘Oh, I don’t know.’

Lee Se-jin just killed the unanswered question.

‘Anyway, there is no reply yet.’

After this stage is over, you should try to get in touch and find out.

Even if people look a little blunt, I don’t regret saying that I’m like a guy.
Sejin Lee straightened his posture.

Because filming will start soon.

“The third stage of < Wise > begins.”

The set is prepared in perfect order according to the president’s splendid words.

And what unfolds is a stage worthy of a debut group of a large entertainment company.

‘… It’s annoying.’

Lee Se-jin suppressed his boiling emotions.

A sense of crisis.

and rank it

This side is worse than Gyrob, and the other side is similar to Gyrob level… .

‘Well, just because you’re good at the stage doesn’t mean you’ll be on stage.’

Right now, even if it was the last female idol of that agency, even if it was soft and sweet, it couldn’t rise to fame even with decent skills, so it turned to a bad concept.

But when I think of making my debut after sifting halfway through a sieve again… .

‘ah… Damn it.’

Lee Se-jin made up his mind that he had to come up with a way to whip up the group somehow.

Dealing with people was the field he was most confident in. I feel exhausted that idols seem to think about such things more often than on stage, but his eyes darkened, but the lighting moderately offset them.

“We will reveal the keywords for the next match.”

And time passed, and finally, the most awaited Daejeon came.

Keywords appear on the display board.

[Sexy]

Yay!

Moaning and cheering come from among the spectators, whether it be sighs or expectations.

‘Ah~ The moment I saw this, I thought I had made up my mind.’

Lee Se-jin held back a bitter smile and gave an appropriately pleasant reaction, befitting an idol with a younger age on the outside. And the stage of the first team unfolded.

– Get down on your knees. Ooh!

It was a stage that screamed that the tight angles of autotune and waves were fatal.

‘Mmm.’

what is the demand… there will be

Lee Se-jin prepared a moderately appreciative review in preparation for the time Mike returned, and wrote down the refined keywords in an appropriate way.

And I roughly predicted the reaction of the next and final stage.

‘… the team.’

I already knew it from the midterm evaluation. A team that includes many of the best-outputing people in this survival program right now.

The team that Ryu Gun-woo, who exchanged numbers with him, belongs to.

‘It’s not like I gave you the last order for nothing.’

When I looked it up, spoilers were circulating on the Internet, and everyone was looking forward to it.

Most of the spectators sitting there right now will guess the members of this team, thinking about the participants who are ‘not yet out’, whether it’s SNS or KakaoTalk.

And the moment it appeared on the display board.

[Shin Jae-hyeon, Kim Rae-bin, Jeong Woo-dan, Cha Yu-jin]

[+Ryu Gun-woo (excluded)]

Aaaa

and the moment when an elegant accompaniment is laid with a low voice.

“… !”

The lighting turns purple and the members move their bodies gently.

A large size that connects to the wave that uses the upper body large.

Sejin Lee realized right away.

‘I changed the arrangement a bit.’

A few instrumental elements are missing. The electric sound was removed and the bass and string sounds were raised.

and action.

Instead of being full of power, it is slow and relaxed. A velvet shirt and black pants follow the action.

-Cut off and leave,

this is your way

(So sick)

When Kim Rae-bin, who swept his hair, finished the intro, Shin Jae-hyun, who received it smoothly, performed his part with a gesture.

without military service. Just with facial expressions and movements.

Still, the audience is watching it with a piercing eye.

‘It’s difficult.’

A blank stage with no set choreography. It is difficult even on a professional stage to make the stage look full while doing such a thing.

Besides, it’s not just filled with it.

-Don’t look back,

because

it’s painful, because it’s meaningless

You lost your game

. The high-level choreography that they show off creates synergy by interlocking like gears.

stroke.

According to the person standing in the center, the arms and legs around them move like an effect and become a pole or a stand.

In this way, the members interact like props and save the center.

It is to flexibly go back and forth between tight choreography parts and loose parts to maximize the satisfaction of each.

By the time the 2nd verse of the story had already ended, Lee Se-jin came to a conclusion.

‘Clever.’

It is a choice that can only be made if you have skills with ridiculous quality, but if you were in this team condition, you would have accepted this choice willingly.

“… … .”

the stage lives

He shook off his thoughts and focused again on the stage, which had a completely different texture from the midterm evaluation.

Then another question arises.

Is the arrangement really the only reason?

"… !"

And I realized

Yoojin Cha.

It was the main factor that made that stage look more wild like the original song until the midterm evaluation. Rush energy and explosive excitement.

However, here, it feels like the flashing saturation and lightness were pressed down on oneself.

'It's not that it's out of sight.'

For example, the last verse 2 chorus that is coming out now.

-Love is a kind of disease

A belated realization comes

So- Yoo-

jin Cha's gaze at the camera is half-closed as she is holding her neck.

It killed the eye light and saved the atmosphere.

shady charm.

It's very plausible that it's so melted in that you can believe that he's actually the original trainee of this agency.

Being able to control that was both surprising and a very strategic choice.

It must have seemed attractive to viewers in a different way. It was obvious that President LeTi, who was in charge of the decision right away, was also undergoing a re-evaluation.

In addition, there is a solid backing for the structure of this stage.

-So oh oh oh

It was Ryu Gun-woo.

He was putting difficult high-pitched parts live at the right timing.

‘Sometimes I feel the audience is surprised.’

However, if it ended there, you might have thought that it was useless because it ended up being used like a part on stage.

But he got out in just one cut.

‘excuse me.’

The so-called saint part.

That part that suddenly catches the stillness and draws attention when singing while standing.

It’s not super high pitched. Moderately high vocal range.

In other words, that section that is filthy difficult for anyone to sing reliably.

-It’s done

It’s over

Cut it off

Ryu Gun-woo dreamily digested it with a breathy tone as if reciting it.

It is hard to believe that he is someone who has been ad-libbing and harmonizing with high notes like crazy.

It would have been easier to just hit the high note.

Can you sing that long breath softly without swallowing a single breath in between? Without AR?

-Cut and leave,

this is your way

(So sick)

Ryu Gun-woo saved the killing point with just one cut like that very well.

And the agent who raises the quality of the stage by several notches with that vocal.

His presence as if shouting that the group doesn't need a main vocalist for nothing.

"… … ."

I felt a strange sense of deja vu.

'Why'

But the stage just runs towards the end after the bridge.

All members fully perform their roles in their positions. And appeal to the audience as much as possible.

and ending.

-Cut off

Aaaaaaaaa!!

Tremendous cheers and shaking of applause shining light sticks.

Lee Se-jin did not take his eyes off until the end and watched the stage with sincerity.

The exhilaration was still a sense of triumph, but there is no longer a sense of crisis.

What took its place was… .

'… ah.'

It was a loss that I couldn't even notice.

That strange feeling of being helplessly replaced with one's place… .

'What is he saying now.'

What did I eat wrong today? Sejin Lee chewed his mouth and managed his expression.

And when the order of the judges returned, he opened his mouth with a smile.

"I really liked it!"

That same day, episode 3 of 〈Wise〉 was aired. Right away, without any spoilers about the people outside of the audience who were shown to 〈The Supplementary Class〉.

Chapter 381

If you can't debut, you'll die of a disease Episode 381

The agency's survival program 〈Wise〉 is expanding its audience from frogs in a well to fish in a reservoir.

Using the aggro of Episode 3 as a tide.

[Letty Survival where a real dropout was made due to losing seats (spoiler)]

[Wise's current situation.jpg]

[Ryu Gun-woo's elimination crisis]

Unlike the early days of the airing, the comments were also fueled by fights and questions.

-It's not a dropout, it's a dropout crisis. Fix the title

. -Hey, Jim with glasses?

-Can someone please explain

┗ Skills A top tier trainee and a middle-involved regular person had a one-on-one death match, and the latter won

┗ Jackpot

┗ What's the jackpot? Anyone can see that the former did well.

Viewers' opinions are mixed: Ryu Gun-woo did well, Jin Chae-yul did well, the president turned around, he was really eliminated or not.

It was worth it.

‘They edited better than I thought on the air.’

First of all, unlike other deathmatch teams with tension, they openly edited it like a kindergarten.

[Ryu Gun-woo: Let’s do our best.]

[Jin Chae-yul: Wow!]

[Oh Yun-shin: (Enthusiastic applause)]

[Three chicks]

The BGM was also very naive.

The role of Ryu Gun-woo is also the same.

The part where I rolled my head and drew out the opinions of yes-men was cut. They come out as if they just took care of their team members and put on the stage with one mind and one mind.

[Harmony itself]

[Jin Chae-yul: I really like it!]

[Oh Yun-shin: Me too.

[Ryu Gun-woo: Then I’ll write it like that.]

[Continuation of unanimous agreement]

It’s a little clumsy and blunt, but he was caught with an impression of being accepting.

[Q: How was the leader?]

[Ryu Gun-woo: Everyone is new to this… I'm an elder, so I have to pay more attention.]

My appeal interview, which was like 'Leader had no choice but to do it', went along with the flow. "Hmm.

It was exciting, so I had a can of beer at this timing.

'Even if I did the same thing, I was a 4th dimension idiot in Azusa.'

Either way, the editing power is amazing.

Anyway, this team goes through a sweet practice period and finally finishes their performance well.

But here, the president's evaluation is quite brutally beaten.

[President Kim Tae-in: This is not something that can be called fun.]

[!!]

[Producer with a firm expression]

I'm saying don't play house.

The funny thing is that this team didn't edit it as if it was unfairly evaluated.

[President Kim Tae-in: Now is not the time to work hard to appeal and show what you do best?]

[President Kim Tae-in: (Geon-woo) gave up all parts.]

[Ryu Gun-woo: … … .]

[President Kim Tae-in's prickly advice]

[Silence lingers on set]

Instead, it feels like the president gave a proper blow to the amateur team who couldn't keep their heads up.

'That's obviously editing with the president's breath.'

So, if the participants were just following the flow, they would say, 'Yeah, these are too flowery fields… ?' It was embarrassing.

A close-up of the nervous Ryu Kun-woo even dripping sweat like a cold sweat.

There, the president shook his head slightly as if this was not the case, and shouted out firmly.

[President Kim Tae-in: Announcing the winner.]

And 'Jin Chae-yul wins' on the billboard.

'Exquisite.'

Looking at this, do you think that public opinion might be bigger in the direction of 'yes, it's a survival show, but they were a little less desperate'? Not like that. Another element enters.

– You did a good job, what kind of bullshit.

You did a good job on the stage.

'I can't deny it.' -The cute stage at Letty was so fresh, what is

it ?

The chemistry with the kids is crazy…

When I woke up after hearing that I had been unfairly evaluated, a fight broke out between people with different tastes.

-It’s because you spoke a little stronger. I think the concept that Chae-yul gets better at is correct?

-Yeah, in the first place, the leader is Ryu Kun-woo haha Jin Chae-yul was on the bus, right? ㄴ?? We were on stage together, what did they say; And it also means that it was a bit of an easy choice as a leader

. -Is it true that the team was criticized for portraying the refreshing cutie concept well with the marine look?

-Honestly, the supplement class was far worse than ㄱㅇ, but I dropped it because President Kim was offended that he didn’t like X germination

.

And since the audience is so upset, people from Byeonggyeong snoop around and see the stage once.

And the new arrivals also start to put on the words gently.

By being immersed in the position of a cool and objective evaluator.

-I did well, but… I guess it’s not the president’s taste, isn’t it inevitable because it’s a survival program for an agency?

– This is better than Ryu Gun-woo’s first stage, but I don’t know what the president is talking about.

“All right.”

I put down my smartphone. There was nothing more to see.

I have no regrets that it was used as firewood for topicality. Because the plate itself is getting bigger thanks to that.

‘I’ll flip it in the next team match anyway’

Whether it’s not a misunderstanding, it’s nice to have people like or dislike my attitude on this stage.

‘That’s how I feel better when the dislike is resolved.’

Besides, in the meantime, the other guys on my mate list are cruising and

I’m like, “Mmm.”

I put my arms on the sofa and leaned against it. Let’s wrap it up a bit more.

First of all, Kim Rae-bin’s death match was broadcasted as the first stage and immediately caused a reaction.

– Kim Rae-bin is not really Letty’s trainee, right? Hahaha It’s totally like Letty – Producer?? You are unconditionally a debut, to run away to a place where there are no cameras

– I thought that winning and losing to Ryu Kun-woo

‘s supplementary team was a fishing game beforehand. did.

The swearing I ate during < Azusa > is as smooth as a lie. I’ve heard that the attitude is odd.

– Why is Rabin acting like that? Why is he acting like a second class soldier?

In addition, ‘Shin Jae-hyeon VS Cha Yu-jin’, which has been moved to the preview for episode 4, is already expected with only the practice process and midterm evaluation.

Would it look like this if sorted in chronological order?

-Ah, that supplementary class is completely at odds with Letty hahahahaha. It's funny

. Why did you come here? -Why are you so good at it?

-No, but Shin Jae-hyun is really good at it… Ah, but because you fucked Ryu Kun-woo, the boss bastard… Oh yeah, but

it's fun.

Originally, in company survival, it is common to see the flow. It's because there are many cases where you decide who to push and start.

However, with this < Wise >, viewers began to immerse themselves in the next unpredictable story full of variables.

A fresh situation in which the victory of the replacement team is unexpected.

This is what makes the program itself fun.

-It's very unexpected, the board is completely overturned;

– People who just watch it have a lot of fun

– I don't know much about idols, but would it be fun to watch?

ㄴㅇㅇ I think it would be okay to watch it with the feeling of watching a drama?

The fire meets the firewood and burns.

In addition, the broadcast even put a wedge in the last minute.

I posted this openly after the trailer.

[Recruitment of applicants]

[We are accepting applications for new challengers who will challenge the debut with < Supplementary Class >.]

[Connect to < Wise > homepage and press the button at the bottom. Thank you for your support.]

A poster was posted in front of the viewer to increase the number of variables again. even on a larger scale.

‘The picture is fine.’

In fact, this is the wind that I proposed and Cheong Ryeo blew into.

-That’s a good idea. There is little risk and I will push you.

‘There’s nothing bad about the company.’

Noise marketing is possible, but it can be cut off if necessary. Besides, if a person with good skills applies, he might be able to hold it for the next round.

Here is not the end.

The huge announcement that should have been here in the first place follows right after.

[!Global Voting Starts!]

[Please send cheers to the contestants you are cheering for. Your opinion can determine survival.]

Viewer voting begins immediately.

However, it makes people go crazy by not specifying the power of voting.

How much will the agency’s survival show reflect the viewers’ words?

‘To see a dropout notice and a new entrant hit the notice at the same time, these idiots are hitting it too.’

Anyway, thanks to this chaos, the benefits to be gained from survival are being sucked up.

Advance awareness and fan base.

And even the characters of the participants.

Of course, my character is also very specific.

– A completely calm and affectionate large dog itself… It’s the first time I’ve ever been like this

… Just a big nerd dog.

‘why.’

It’s kind of funny that a dog appears as an animal even though the initial image is so different from the time of ‘Park Moon-dae’… Anyway, awareness is steadily skyrocketing.

Now, when I go outside, there are people who recognize me and there are people sitting in front of the officetel.

This point is a bit problematic.

I got up from the sofa and peeked out the veranda.

“hmm.”

Here, too, there are a few suspicious people who are running around in taxis.

‘I think Ryu Chung-woo will avoid this.’

In the first place, it seems that he got an officetel with good security because he graduated from a former national university, but isn’t there a level?

“We need to talk.”

[With those people?]

“No, with Ryu Cheng-wu.”

The time is just right. This guy has just returned from a club meeting and is here.

As soon as he washed up and came out, I immediately asked.

“Cheongwoo.”

“huh?”

“Aren’t you uncomfortable with those people? There are still seats at the agency’s dorm, so if I go out for a while, I think I’ll miss it.”

However, the guy frowned slightly and immediately replied:

“No, that’s fine. than that. Is your brother okay?”

“hmm.”

what are you talking about

“… It doesn’t feel good to be misunderstood by people you don’t know.”

Oh is that the story

It seems that this guy also watched episode 3 alone. And I think I looked at the reaction of the comments as I came.

‘I am.’

I’m a little curious about how you’ll react if you find out that you’ve appeared on such a program yourself.

I just laughed.

“A broadcast comes out through the hands of many people, and in the process, there is no choice but to be misunderstood. You may be criticized more excessively than if you made a mistake.”

“… … .”

“But you get more recognition. Proof can be done better.”

Ryu Cheng-wu’s eyes met. I nodded.

“I like this job. Especially when I’m on stage.”

“… I see.”

He let out a sigh that he didn’t know what it meant, and soon returned to his smile.

“Then it’s time to celebrate. You’ve found something to be passionate about.”

I feel like I’m talking to my real family.

I put off the subtle feeling and sat down.

“thanks.”

“What are you doing, hyung?”

I bumped my fist into the guy. Ryu Cheng-wu asked as if he had just remembered.

“Hyung, do you have plans for tomorrow? Or would you like a drink?”

“hmm. I guess I should go out.”

“Are you working again?”

“yes.”

In a sense, they are similar.

[Ahhh finally??]

‘Yes.’

I waved at Liu Cheng-wu, who entered his room, and finally called the window.

You won’t have to procrastinate any longer.

[Coworker: Do you want to awaken Lee Se-jin?]

-Use Exp 1000 to awaken Se-jin Bae.

This time I pressed the button without hesitation.

The light bursts.

[Leap towards the emergency… .]

“After.”

It’s okay to fail. The reputation level is enough, so even if you push it until you reach it… .

[First awakening success!]

That’s right!

Still, it’s cool that it doesn’t explode and eats well.

With my fist clenched, I tried to check Bae Se-jin’s status on the list of colleagues.

… Even if this didn’t open.

[Colleague: Lee Se-jin event occurred!!]

[Lee Se-jin realized… Σ(ㅇ □ ㅇ)]

What?

Soon, the pop-up shook, and a golden fireworks-like effect shook the fang..

[Colleague name change event completed!]

[Lee Se-jin → Bae Se-jin]

“… … .”

Don’t think about anything else, I’ll pick up a contact right away and contact you.

“Actor here… .”

“thank you.”

Lee Se-jin gladly accepted the water bottle offered by the staff.

The manager also disappeared somewhere in the middle and has not been seen for several hours.

Thanks to this, he was delayed returning home, but he calmly accepted the situation.

‘I’m not even expecting it.’

It’s enough if you can work. And the work was enough.

He reviewed the contents of the filming tomorrow again and took the time… .

What's this.

"Wook!"

"… Mr. Sejin?"

Sejin Lee lowered his head.

My head throbs and my vision returns with tingling goosebumps… .

And it turns out.

'what.'

It's not that something unfamiliar has been pushed into my head.

Just as if a veil was lifted or glasses were put on, a lot of information was clearly revealed in the brain.

Monologues and conversations and thoughts.

events.

– Why did < Azusa > come out?

-I want to continue, but… no.

– My older brother is changing his mother's last name.

-This is Testa's Bae Se-jin. Good luck with today's shoot!

For a while, it's overwhelming.

However, as time goes by, the sharpness truly and firmly settles in my head.

"… … ."

Lee Se-jin, no, now Bae Se-jin, who has recovered his ego, stumbled and rose from his seat.

“Are you okay?”

“yes.”

There is no pain.

He sat down without making any excuses to the staff.

No, to be precise, I can’t afford to explain. I couldn’t figure out what the hell this was.

‘Why am I not here, in fact, it’s more strange that I’m not here… . but.’

In the end, it was after the manager returned that the ego, which did not match reality, organized its head and established its identity.

And at this point, Moondae Park was receiving absurd news.

From the Communications tab of the Status window.

[Bae Se-jin doesn’t have a contact yet… .]

“Ha.”

He made a clear decision after looking at the empty contact information column of colleague Bae Se-jin.

‘No? Then I can make it.’

Chapter 382

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 382

Let's find out Bae Se-jin's current situation… Surprisingly, just one Internet search is enough.

'Lee Se-jin.'

Your profile is already at the top.

-Lee Se-jin (movie actor)

Latest filmography: Seahorse (December 15, 20XX)

This guy is a movie star with a high stock price right now.

If you check the entire filmography, it leads to an outstanding line-up with no less than 2 million.

If this is enough, if you are a movie watcher, you must have heard this name at least once.

[Oh, but you didn't film the drama?]

It must be on purpose. It seems that since I was a child actor, I have thoroughly managed my productions.

Of course, the name value is high. Considering the current situation where actors are valued more than idols, they are almost like testers.

It seems like a situation where there is nothing to regret… Filmography The following items are problematic.

– Agency: Dream K Company

This guy is the same as his old agency. Those who lower the ransom by rolling child actors and bursting rumors during the contract renewal season.

‘It must be like X.’

Instead of taking a break protesting against the agency here, it seems that he got the job right away after briefly reorganizing after a child role.

Instead of a long hiatus, a solidly built career.

And although the actor is a mystic, the agency sells the name ‘Lee Se-jin’ diligently in the media and social media.

I touched my chin.

‘It’s easy.’

[Yes?]

So, it means that schedule security is poor.

There are few types of idols who sit in front of their lodgings or agencies like idols, so information barriers are low.

‘It’s rice.’

I browsed Dream K’s official SNS.

Then, with the keywords extracted from them, the employee’s personal in-heart account was found, compared and explored in chronological order, and a conclusion was drawn.

‘Currently, Bae Se-jin is filming some kind of next project.’

And although it was anonymized, looking at the frequency of indirect mention of a person presumed to be Bae Se-jin on employee SNS… .

[Ah, you must be at work often.]

That's right. Especially when Bae Se-jin is active, the tuk-tuk mention pops out. Almost at the level of going to work after finishing my schedule.

So even now, when I'm not filming, there's a very high chance that I'll be at the company.

"hmm."

So, the very next morning after awakening Bae Se-jin, I simply washed up, put on a hat and mask, and left the officetel.

Of course, it's not just probabilities.

[Bae Se-jin: Staring at the pointing boss (`ㅅ´+)]

I checked the status once.

Then, roughly, the line will look like this.

'Did you go into the building after finishing filming at dawn and move to the car to meet the president?'

where is the boss It must be in the company building.

Even looking at this, the probability of being in the company is quite high.

[then… Do you want to go?]

"Yes."

Let's check it out for ourselves.

The guy's company was in the corner of Gangnam.

It is not a luxurious office building like large idol companies. There is no signboard in the four-story old building.

So, the security on the first floor is not that tight.

I think the back door that the people who manage the building come in and out of will just leave a sign saying ‘no entry except for those involved’.

‘That’s it.’

I’m waiting in the right spot, and the truck stops and people in uniform come in and out the back door.

I looked at the timing and naturally moved my feet there. It was a movement that could be misunderstood as a service job carrying luggage, and then the big moon pop-up slightly swayed and floated.

[That brother. If this is caught trespassing… Won’t there be a problem?]

‘It’s okay if it goes into Sejin Bae’s ear, but it doesn’t matter because it goes in unconditionally.’

This is for fear that the entrance will be cut or that LeTi’s newcomer visiting this agency will be treated as an official visit.

It’s not another company’s building, it’s the agency’s building. It’s okay to take it.

‘Because I’m a half public figure too.’

This is where you can see the virtue of becoming famous through idol survival broadcasting.

Staff only? It’s enough to say that you are related.

Since he is a known person with a similar job, he is an acquaintance of ‘Lee Se-jin’, so if you say that he made an appointment and came to meet you quietly, he will most likely believe it.

‘No, believe it or not, you only need to be able to enter the ears of the ungrateful.’

The fact that he woke up and changed his name to Bae Se-jin definitely means that he found his memories of Testa.

Then, even if you are embarrassed by this strange situation, you will try to meet a stranger who pops out of nowhere.

‘But the worst… The agency is going to cut it off without saying anything.’

The problem is that when I guessed that there was no contact information for Bae Se-jin, it was not without possibility.

Took.

I walked through the emergency door on the outside of the first floor and entered the bathroom and hid myself in a compartment.

I was thinking of checking if Bae Se-jin had left the company in the meantime and then drawing the movement… .

bang!

In the meantime, the bathroom door opens violently, and I hear the sound of someone walking in shoes.

‘There’s no way the security team came out already.’

As expected, I just hear the sound of using the sink. I shrugged and checked the road status window… .

[Bae Se-jin: Washing face with cold water (#ㅅ#)=3]

“… … .”

no way.

I carefully opened the door.

Sigh.

Then I see a man standing at the sink.

The guy in the suit is putting cold water on his face with his head down.

And the moment you look up, your face is reflected in the mirror.

“… !”

It’s Bae Se-jin.

Anyone can see that the style of a guy wearing a suit without dye or lenses was for an actor.

‘This is like this again.’

I have a memory that immediately comes to mind.

Somehow, with Ryu Gun-woo, I see him in front of the washbasin every time.

-You are Sejin Lee, right? sorry. I’m surprised that I’m a fan.

It was a rare thing. But there is no time to delay with sentimentality.

After confirming that there was no one else in the bathroom, I spoke to Bae Se-jin.

“hello.”

“yes.”

From the moment I step out of the compartment, the guy who used to have subtle eyes manages his expression in an instant. really learn

“I am a fan.”

“Um, thank you. Are you a new employee?”

I struck the final blow when I saw the guy whose tension went down.

“It’s not like that. I am a fan of Testa Bae Se-jin.”

“… !”

A response came immediately.

“Who are you.”

Bae Se-jin immediately sharpened his momentum.

It looks like they’re going to grab me by the collar at any moment, or quickly seal the bathroom.

Also, is straight-ahead the answer?

I immediately opened my mouth.

“I’m Park Moon-dae. brother.”

“… !?”

Took.

Something falls behind Bae Se-jin’s back.

When I look down, it looks like a ballpoint pen.

Perhaps it was a tape recorder.

“Bar Park Moon… … .”

“yes. It happened like this.”

I need to get to the point before this guy goes crazy.

* * *

Unfortunately, it was impossible to take him to a suitable restaurant or cafe.

Both of them have sold their faces too much, and this guy is in the current situation.

“What is your situation?”

I don’t know if he really believes it or if he pretends to believe it, but first of all, Bae Se-jin also has the attitude to pry me.

“actually.”

“actually?”

“I was originally born with this body. Moondae Park is a new body.”

It was bullshit, but because of the situation, Bae Se-jin’s shaken face turned pale.

“You are a ghost… ?”

“no.”

wait for a sec.

There is no particular difference in the proposition at the point of being attached to someone else’s body after death.

[Because it’s different! It’s completely different!]

“No. Come to think of it, maybe it’s similar… … .”

“Turn it off.”

If you do well, I’ll grab your back and move on. I corrected my words.

“Anyway, right before I participated in < Azusa >, I was living in Bakmundae. It was not a voluntary choice.”

“… … Were you in the same situation as you are now? The world is changing just like this… … .”

“It might be similar. Anyway, Park Moon-dae, who my brother knew, was me from the beginning. … Even if you don’t believe it, there’s nothing you can do about it.”

However, Bae Se-jin, whose face changed color, gave a surprising reaction to these words.

He opened his mouth and sighed four or five times before replying like this.

“… know. You never changed.”

“… … thank you.” “

Even the acting didn’t feel too bad.

“Still, don’t get over this! Even the current situation makes no sense, even you… . Explain in detail!”

Even if you want to explain in more detail.

“… In the company bathroom?”

“… … .”

He sighed and gestured to me.

“Follow me.”

And the place where Bae Se-jin took me was the company warehouse near the emergency exit on the 3rd floor.

‘It’s like a place I often come to when I want to be alone.’

The movement seemed familiar.

Click.

The guy who closed the door hardened his expression and spoke seriously.

"… No one will come for a while. Now tell me."

"yes."

After nodding my head, I began to explain the situation so far in a concise way.

"therefore… .

'I don't get used to it.'

Still, the story is quite smooth because it was done to Cha Yoo-jin once.

Bae Se-jin's face turned blue, then white, then yellow.

But in the end it turned red.

I understand the first one, but why the last one?

"Well then… Are you that person?"

"yes?"

"that… Mr. Ryu Gun-woo I cheered you on!"

Oh that.

'This guy didn't have a mysterious expression for nothing.'

It was a little mixed with Park Moon-dae, but it seems that this guy also recognized Ryu Kun-woo from this face. I stroked the back of my neck and opened my mouth.

“… That’s true, but I didn’t mean to cheat on purpose. It really meant cheering me on.”

Bae Se-jin hurriedly waved his hand.

“ “No no thank you… . … … for a moment. But you were at Bakmundae at the time, so the time wasn’t right… ??”

“That too is complicatedly twisted.”

I didn’t know you were going to say this. I briefly explained the story with the real Bakmundae Keundal.

Keundal unexpectedly meddled with excitement

[So, tell me that thanks to him I passed that civil service exam!]

And Bae Sejin was surprisingly not overwhelmed by this unrealistic situation. However, like Cha Yu-jin, he did not adequately understand the situation.

On the contrary, it became more and more serious and came up with various analyses.

Your humanities skills are outstanding.

“You know what time paradox is? I think your situation is similar to that… .”

“Then, isn’t this situation a kind of mock exam? Similar to reality, but with a less difficult feeling.”

“Maybe something like virtual reality. there’s a movie like the matrix… .”

I answered all these questions with the utmost sincerity.

But the bottom line is this.

“I don’t know. I’m guessing too.”

unknown.

“Anyway, I’m betting that I can go back due to the structure so far… We are working on it.”

“… As an idol, even the target.”

“yes.”

“… okay. That makes sense.”

Bae Se-jin took a short deep breath. It seems that the capacity is not enough because I heard a lot of crazy sounds.

And perhaps because of that, Bae Se-jin also says something similar.

“Then, since we’re going back to reality anyway, this place is like that dream.”

“yes.”

“good.”

“… ?”

what.

“wait. I will come back with a crushing blow.”

“yes?”

“This agency!”

Bae Se-jin said with burning eyes.

“It’s not even real anyway, but it’s fine. It’s sparks, it’s nabal, and I need to see a very proper legal solution.”

“uh… … .”

Of course, I have no intention of drying it.

“Still, if acting here is fun, wouldn’t it be okay to enjoy it?”

When he was a testa, his personal activities were constantly put on hold and he hardly built up his acting career.

I thought it would be quite beneficial to check my personal activity plan in the future while experiencing the environment as a practice before I go back.

But Bae Se-jin is unstoppable.

“The acting is good! But this is not it.”

“why.”

The boy clenched his fists.

“These bastards always force the same character… !”

“… … .”

“Here I’ve been playing a similar psychopath for four years now. Even when I look at it, there is no such thing as a beef bone!”

“hmm.”

yes, i might be pissed

‘Lee Se-jin’ is a well-known actor now, but it doesn’t make sense that he can’t choose one scenario at will.

‘Shouldn’t it be normal to be able to throw a scenario and play with power?’

Isn’t this pure unfair treatment?

So it suddenly comes to mind.

“Hyung, I can’t believe you don’t have contact information… .”

“… ! how did you know… … . that’s right. These bastards talk like mental management and don’t even let them use their personal smartphones.”

Bae Se-jin muttered with a cold face.

“They treat me as someone with limited abilities.”

Civil law terms come out, but even after becoming a testa, it must have been defined while reflecting on the past.

“… It must have been difficult.”

“Actually, as long as I could act, it didn’t matter much. Notice public opinion, it’s not a murderous schedule like when I was young, and the settlement is enough for my mother to live well… .”

His face darkened, and soon his eyes lit up.

and clenching a fist.

“But as long as I am myself, no matter how unrealistic it is, I don’t have to put up with this any longer.”

“Yes.”

The guy declares cool.

“I’ll throw it all over and come out! Are you preparing to become an idol right now?”

“It is, but it is.”

I talked about LeTi’s survival in moderation. Bae Se-jin nodded and shouted as if he had made up his mind.

“I’ll go there too!”

hmm.

“Wouldn’t it be difficult?”

“why!”

“Your brother is 25 years old.”

“… … .”

Yes.

25-year-old Bae Se-jin, who was the unrivaled oldest among the guys checked so far, lowered her head with her face flushed.

‘I couldn’t help it because I had to reach a certain age to succeed as an actor rather than a child actor.’

By the time the short speculation has passed.

“… … Am I too old to be that idol? When we were doing < Azusa >, there were participants of similar age…”

“Yes. It’s not that kind of problem.”

I explained slowly.

“Seeing that you have accumulated as an actor at that age, it means that the public will have a needlessly repulsive reaction to you who appeared on an idol program.”

It means that it is a problem because he is a 25-year-old actor who has achieved a lot.

At its peak. Unless Bae Se-jin is overwhelmingly better at idols than acting, it will only be painful.

If you’re going to return to the original reality, you don’t have to endure that kind of pain.

Bae Se-jin, who grunted, finally admitted it with a sigh.

“… You’re right.”

“Um..”

But it seems that he has given up on supporting fire.

The guy clenched his fists.

“Then I’ll push you properly.”

“yes?”

An ambitious smile spreads across his face and then disappears.

“Anyway, according to your hypothesis, there is no need to worry about the long-term future or my influence here.”

“That’s right.”

he laughs low

“I… In reality, there are more than one or two corruptions of this agency that I have seen so far.”

no way.

“I’m going to hire a lawyer and drive it. Let’s see if you can be shameless even when you’re caught with a weakness. Instead of not leaving, I’ll fix it properly!”

A man full of desire for cider flashes his eyes. okay… I’m not an idol or an actor, I’m not fighting public opinion, I’m just fixing the president’s habit.

“I will support that.”

“okay!”

He has become a proud face, but now he even proposes with an excited face.

“When that is over… I will have a say in activities. Then, shall we open an SNS and ask you to vote?”

“no.”

you say scary

After a lengthy discussion on the issue of fairness, he postponed it until after his debut.

‘There is no runaway locomotive.’

Bae Se-jin, who doesn’t worry about the future, has become a style like the main character of a cider.

“Then you… .”

And the moment when the story about the current situation is about to continue.

drooling-.

My smartphone rang.

“Oh, I need to buy one too.”

“I’ll give you my number first.”

And that was when I opened my smartphone.

A text came.

-hello. This is Gyrob Lee Se-jin! Are you Wise Ryu Gun-woo? (smiling emoticon)

“… … .”

okay.

This is the guy I decided to contact after filming.

Bae Se-jin, who was watching from the side, was delighted.

“… ! Did you find Sejin Lee too? Does he even remember that?”

I opened my mouth slowly.

“no.”

“We met by chance, but there is no way to return the memories yet.”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin lost his momentum. And quietly stood beside him as if comforting.

“I was best friends with you. With Lee Se-jin and Seon Ah-hyun… .”

And he carefully asks if he realized it while he was talking.

“Did you see the news about Seon Ah-hyun?”

I nodded slowly. Bae Se-jin seemed to be restless, but soon patted my back with a big motion like a big crowd.

Tuk-tuk!

“no… You can get on the target and go back soon! You are good at making plans like this. … We can do well!”

“… yes.”

Sejin Bae and I quietly sat in the warehouse for a while. It’s funny, but it puts me at ease.

and after some time

“I think I’ll come looking for you soon… I’ll call you as soon as I get a number. I will make it today.”

“Are you okay?”

Bae Se-jin snorted.

“I will make it first, but what will they do?”

and that afternoon.

A new group message room has been opened.

[Testa / 3 people]

It was Cha Yu-jin, not me, who posted the first post.

-Cha Yoo-jin: Do you have Bae Se-jin hyung? WOOOOW

-Bae Sejin: (Hamster greeting emoticon)

-Bae Sejin:

You seem to be doing well

.

-Cha Yujin: Let’s increase the number of members quickly!

The guy even posted a notice.

[Take your 7 STAR! Cheer up!]

I typed slowly while looking at the phrase that seemed like I hadn’t seen it in a while.

-Then (dog raising both arms emoji)

It wasn’t a bad feeling to have a shape even though it was less than half of the number.

Soon after, the 4th episode of < Wise > was successfully aired, and a new shoot was just around the corner.

“Hyung, are you filming from today?”

“okay.”

“Goodbye, take care of yourself… See you soon.”

I left the officetel again and headed to the set.

Chapter 383

If you can't debut, you'll die. Episode 383

LeTi's in-house survival program 〈Wise〉 filming day.

The mood has changed a bit.

'Suddenly, the outline of the list of debutants is coming out.'

Even just looking at the greetings the president gives before filming, you can almost see the angle.

"You're doing great. Let's be more challenging."

"yes!"

The criterion is not how positive it is.

"Jaehyun, be especially careful not to over-pace your vocal practice."

"I will take note."

how specific

how much do you care

A level that those who started their social life early while living as trainees can naturally smell it.

"excuse me… Your piercing looks great today."

"… ? Thank you for your kind words!"

Thanks to this, the contestants secretly start talking to Kim Rae-bin, who was actually given the president's pick saying 'I think he will adapt well to this agency in all aspects'.

'It's kind of interesting that the composition and the time of < Azusa > are so different.'

and me.

"Have you prepared your heart? See you on the podium."

"yes."

This is another compliment.

The camera was also turned off for the preliminary dropout, but I can't say that cruelly. Thanks for letting me know in advance that I passed.

"Recording starts~"

This shooting started with announcing that in the last evaluation, the winners and the losers were divided into superior and inferior classes.

"Whoa… ."

"thank you!"

Cross of Joy.

However, the most bloody content is scheduled for the next order.

Announcement of dropouts.

He called me and the other guy who was 'outside' to the podium.

"Only those who have done better than the 14 people standing there, who are already out of line, can survive. And that person… "

The boss skillfully takes the time and then speaks with a firm face.

“Ryu Gun-woo.”

“That’s it.”

The contestant who lost to Kim Rae-bin got off as it was.

The atmosphere has cooled, but the boss is kind and seems to have no intention of solving it.

He said this to me too.

“The moment I come back to the outside, I won’t be able to avoid being eliminated. Do it with all your might.”

It also means that if you go outside, you will just die.

“I will keep that in mind.”

welcome

Then they won’t make a bad game again and induce me to be left out. No matter how you look at it, the boss doesn’t seem to want to drop me.

‘It’s a certification that the production team won’t make alterations in the next performance mission.’

Thank you so much.

I bowed my head. And I checked the current number of people.

Except for one guy who was taken off the stage by the boss because of his poor attitude on the previous stage… .

’15 people.’

Rather, the number of people has increased compared to the first time, so I think there will be another dropout in this performance. I’ll have to sift out some people to build tension.

It was the moment I thought so.

“However, every event and performance has a maximum capacity. … No more than 14 people.”

What?

“Therefore, when an outlier is resurrected, one of the existing members with the lowest achievement thus far is eliminated.”

now?

And the president called a few members of the inferior class and lined up the strengths and weaknesses, and said this.

“< Inferior Class > Park Jong-hoon is eliminated.”

“… … .”

Sudden announcement of additional dropouts.

The one who was called staggered at the shocking result, and the participants standing around shut their mouths.

Gives me a lot of tension

“Please leave now. Participants Kun-Woo Ryu can return to their seats.”

“… … yes.”

It seems that this is why he did not create a warm atmosphere and sent the outsider away at once.

To drive the atmosphere so dangerously.

‘I had some fun with topicality.’

Since he gained popularity because he was cruel, he must have been greedy to become even more brutal. It wasn’t a very good thing.

‘In the end, even if it’s not ‘Azusa’, is survival going this way?’

Towards the diagram that cruel enough to go out of children’s mentality is exciting and fierce.

‘It’s a bit bitter, but… There’s nothing bad about me, though.’

I waited for someone to step out of my seat and then carefully entered the empty seat in the inferior class.

The guys standing next to me are frozen and stiff with faces that are neither welcoming nor sad. Let’s keep our mouths shut with similar faces.

‘It’s blocking the pod.’

And when I turn my head, all the guys who were on the team before are all in the debut group. Chae-yul and Shin-oh team also won.

I nodded inwardly.

‘The composition is fine too.’

In an interview, it was roughly ‘Wasn’t it bothering you that you were the only one in the inferior class?’ It seems that such a question will come. The additional amount is sweet with one aggro.

“You worked hard.”

After the bloody rankings and the announcement of the dropouts, the lights go out on the stage. The microphone recording is also cut off.

“I’m glad bro.”

But the camera is still running, and the quick-witted bastard immediately sets out to manage the image.

Cheong-ryeol.

“brother!”

“You worked hard!”

I asked Chung-ryeo in a low voice, dealing with the other guys who came running with me as if I was glad to see them.

‘The proceedings are pretty brutal. He said it wasn’t like this before.’

‘Iknow, right. A little more than before… My expression has become vulgar. The level is also high.’

And he smiled and put his arms around me as if encouraging me.

‘People will like it. Yes?’

‘… … .’

Anyway, there is an excellent skill at talking about similar ideas like garbage.

Anyway, the production team seemed to have tightened the participants up too much, so they relaxed the atmosphere a bit in the next content.

The program is changed to a slightly softer and more exciting tone, followed by an event to adjust the tempo.

That’s the time I did housework because I was excluded last time because I was ‘outside’.

‘Last time it was a public service announcement… this time?’

It was a pictorial for the album concept photo.

Seven concepts.

“Now, discuss and choose the concept you want!”

The argument for concession and the fight to notice are mixed. Since there are a lot of people who already know each other, passing them off under the guise of recommendations is happening here and there.

me?

“I’m fine with anything. I didn’t take pictures, so I don’t have any likes or dislikes. Everything is interesting and looks good.”

“Oh oh! If your brother… .”

How many photo concepts have Testa Park Moon-dae taken so far?

no matter what you get It’s enough to coolly concede and take a good picture.

however… .

“yes! Press to reveal a little more of your mouth~” me too… I didn’t know that the concept with the keyword ‘Tooth’ was a vampire.

“… … .”

Who the hell is this idiot who put this kind of irrational concept into a survival game that hasn’t even debuted yet? I can see why VTIC was dismantled in the first edition.

Still, I don’t think I didn’t shoot because I had time, and the reviews were very good.

The interview was also well done.

“I was just taking pictures. It feels different when you become a full-fledged subject like this. Still, I remember the experience when I was filming… I tried hard.”

‘I’m a college student at the photography club’ Meta.

Well, isn’t this a fresh and good story?

It may seem a bit hateful, but that doesn't mean I can't say something crazy like 'Haha, I've filmed this kind of stuff so many times', so I chose the next best thing.

"Do you think the photos will all come out great? Thank you all for your hard work. I had a lot of fun filming today!"

"Wow!"

Anyway, when the event ended with a handful of warmth restored… That very night the performance mission hits with a hook.

'He's merciless.'

"< Wise >. This is already the 4th performance. Your theme this time, where you have to show a more developed image… … ."

Now, the president announced with the participants who were nervous as if they were going to pretend every time they were called to the stage.

"It's the 'battle for position'."

"… !"

"scramble… ?"

The big picture is still the same. The main process I heard from Cheong-rye hasn't gone astray yet.

Now, for example, the meaning of the position battle is this.

-The next content is a group performance of a new song, and we compete in advance to see what part we will take on.

And the positions to be occupied are revealed on the electronic display board.

[Vocal A Vocal B]

[Dance A Dance B Dance C]

[Rap A Rap B]

A part divided into a total of seven categories.

And the boss calls the honor class.

“After seeing the pictorial you took, a closed evaluation team conducted a vote. The honors class has the right to choose the parts first in the order in which they received the most votes.”

“iced coffee… .”

The first name is called between the one who becomes contemplative and the one whose expression brightens.

It’s an obvious line.

“Shin Jae-hyun.”

He humbly lowers his head once, stands up, and moves right away.

[Dance A]

Next is Yujin Cha.

The members called out one by one take the remaining seats one by one after thinking about it.

Then, looking at the positions that were filled, the president nodded and said:

“Now, each of you in the honors class has full authority to set the stage for this position fight.”

“… !”

“Which songs to choose and which performances to perform are all personal choices.”

In a word, ‘try a stage the way you want to do it’.

And at this timing, the 7 inferior class members are put into the stage created by the honor class as challengers.

“Take the stage once.”

Then, since the total number of people is still 14, don’t you think we should stick together one by one?

no.

“You can apply for any number of applicants for any part you want. but… .”

No matter how many people join and what happens… There is only one winner.

-Only one winner can perform the new song.

Nervous participants look at each other while watching their parts.

‘Anyway, I haven’t even told you the specific parts of the new song.’

In the end, who you hang out with is the most important thing.

Of course, here, too, there is an order according to the pictorial voting.

“The first contestant to choose a position in the inferior class… I am Ryu Gun-woo.”

And number 1 is me.

‘oh.’

Head, what are you admiring? It’s even more strange if you can’t beat young guys who debuted 5 years ago and haven’t even debuted.

‘If I couldn’t, I would have had to hit the head.’

Instead, I nodded once and looked at the boss.

“Please come out and choose your part.”

okay. i get it.

I quickly shook my head.

‘If you usually put it in alphabetical order, the standard is… .’

Is the amount of difficulty and the order of appearance?

‘But Cheongryeo chose Dance A… la.’

If that’s the case, there’s a slightly higher chance that the vocals will also have more impactful parts on the A side.

‘Even so.’

I moved without hesitation.

and stood

“… … !!”

[Vocal B]

There is no other reason.

Isn’t there a specific factor to consider right in front of you right now?

‘competitor.’

It’s because the honor class guy who sings the best here except for me picked this one.

“Inferior class Ryu Gun-woo competes with Honors class Choi Tae-joon for < Vocal B >.”

Taejun Choi. When he debuted, his stage name was Bihan.

How do you know?

‘Because I’m the one who sold data.’

That’s because he’s the former main vocalist of VTIC, who was blown away by the club situation.

After renewing the contract, he went out due to an incident, but he was the main vocalist of a group 1 idol for 7 years, so he is not an ordinary guy.

But if I point this guy out… .

‘It will look defiantly challenging.’

And if he even wins, that’s where the narrative of this survival contestant Ryu Gun-woo gains momentum once more.

‘It’s time to move on to the middle of the program. I have to catch the flow again.’

I politely bowed my head to the former main vocalist of VTIC.

“i look forward to.”

“… … Um yes.”

The one who shakes his head… Well, I guess I should roughly call it a club memo or a telegram. Anyway, he tries to smile.

I stood next to him

And I watched the situation go slowly. The inferior class selecting parts one by one.

“I’ll do vocal A… !”

It may be obvious, but most of them point to the remaining team with only one “honor class”, even though it is possible to enter any part without a quota.

‘Because everyone calculates the probability.’

But even so, there is a team that can’t point out even though there’s only one person who thinks it’s a suicidal act.

“‘Dance A’ currently has no challengers.”

It is ‘Dance A’ with Shin Jae-hyun.

‘I know my skills too well.’

Since they are trainees at the same agency, they know each other well, so they have enough information, so they are good at taking care of themselves by looking at them blindly.

‘Hmm.’

I saw Shin Jae-hyeon standing in front of the billboard with no competitors.

And this point is the difference from the flow that Cheongryeo informed in advance.

The original format is ok. One in < High Class > and one in < Inferior Class >. One-on-one match.

Originally, this was a one-on-one composition with no byes.

And in my opinion, even if you can give up one-on-one, there’s no way they’ll put a bye win on the survival stage.

If so, there must be other factors.

-There are some variables this time, right?

what would it be

“Of course not like this. We have another competitor.”

“iced coffee… .”

“no way.”

“as soon as… This is the supplementary class for viewers.”

“… !!”

okay. Recruitment of new contestants who hit the advertisement at the very end of the program.

Looking at the participants who react small without knowing themselves, the president speaks as if he is sentenced.

“Please come out.”

phut!

A meaningful BGM flows along with a small firework, and another electronic display board opens.

‘I use it quickly.’

Well, if it’s too late, the fan base of the contestants will be fixed, and the feeling that the supplementary class is too much for obstacles will be too strong.

I nodded inwardly and clasped my hands behind my back pretending to listen to the president.

“Don’t think about the last make-up class. These contestants are talents selected from a larger pool of citizens after fully confirming the rigor of this program.”

He puts a cool word on the number of people he hired in a week.

Even if you say it like that, the probability that a really great guy came is infinitely low.

‘I should just check the stats and pass it on.’

Without inspiration, I watched the figures appearing from beyond the dry ice.

There are 7 of them, and no one really stands out… . for a moment.

“… !”

As the smoke clears, there is a familiar face that has been seen for years in the center of the human figure.

Recently, they even share their traces… .

[Lyu Ryu Cheng-wu!]

Why are you there?

I tried not to open my mouth… For a second, the camera takes a close-up of me. Everyone knows that these bastards are related to me.

‘No fucking foot.’

What the hell is this?

Ryu Cheng-wu smiles a little as if he is embarrassed. It seems awkward because it is his first time performing on a stage like this.

“The supplementary class is holding a sign for the part they chose.”

I reflexively lowered my head.

The sign he picked out beforehand was… .

[Vocal B]

“… … .”

This is my position stage.

[Damned… … .]

Chapter 384

384 Episode 384,

30 minutes after Ryu Cheng-wu suddenly appeared as 〈Viewer Supplement Class〉 from Beyond the Dry Ice.

“Then, in this performance, we look forward to a more developed version of you.”

“yes!”

The replacement class was put in and the team was organized. And a short movement and break before moving on to the practice part naturally.

Of course, the camera is relentlessly following me and Ryu Cheng-wu as if they would never miss the conversation.

Earlier, even when Ryu Cheng-wu was on < Vocal B >, he was greedy as he followed the conversation cuts to his heart’s content.

-… Are you surprised bro?

-huh.

-many?

-huh.

Even if you don’t watch it, it’s obvious how stupid it will appear on the main broadcast.

And what’s in between.

‘I’m going to hit the interview hard… .’

As expected, the order of interviews with the production team is also set first, so they dig out answers for a long time as ever.

“Did you know in advance that Mr. Chung-woo was participating? even a signal? Oh, you didn’t know at all?” “

I heard that you

two are living together .”

“On the contrary, there must be some things that say that this part is in check and that we need to be careful. You have become a competitor.”

I’m excited.

After expressing my embarrassment in a non-serious manner, I continued with a moderately benign answer.

“Since we both have to do well, I also think that we need to prepare harder for this stage.”

There is no need to draw more aggro or exaggerate.

[Is that so?]

Uh.

‘Because I’m going to be damned the moment it airs anyway… .’

A gold medalist relative who goes to the same school suddenly appears? I’ll see the X-footed country too.

I returned to the practice room from the interview location while holding back my sleep. And he designated the next hitter.

Ryu Chung-woo.

“The writer is calling you.”

“brother.”

I shook my hand at him, then put down the notebook and showed him the sentence in the camera’s angle.

I should tell you this much.

– Turn around unconditionally and answer softly.

“… !”

Ryu Cheng-wu nodded slightly and left the practice room.

‘It’s not like I was blinded when I saw that.’

What the hell is this all about? Why did a guy who went to college do well suddenly appear on a survival program?

‘… I didn’t even recommend it on purpose.’

He seems to be getting along so well, and he didn’t seem to have the impression that this agency would like, so I tried to leave it as is.

But why did you come out yourself? without saying.

“… … .”

[Hmmm] Asking directly… .]

No, you can’t do that kind of fastball when the camera is spinning. If you put in the BGM, it is immediately used for editing the conflict section.

‘Later as gently as possible before going to bed.’

I concluded that And the strategy began to change.

What to do in an individual team with a variable named Ryu Chung-woo?

* * *

Practice started one night late because the interview was long.

And Ryu Chung-woo, who returned from the interview, voluntarily paid his taxes softly and shallowly, probably noticing the broadcast atmosphere appropriately.

“I was going to tell you in advance, but I was suddenly notified of my acceptance that morning… . I didn’t say it because I was afraid it would interfere with hyung’s condition.”

pass this lightly

I hit him on the back and laughed.

“OK got it.”

“… !”

“I’m not the type to recklessly try anything just because you look fun. Of course, I believe you will do it seriously.”

“… huh. of course. I will.”

Liu Chengyu nodded with a faint smile.

If this is enough, you can combine it with the interview and go with a warm feeling good. With this, you don’t have to worry about the camera.

“Don’t look.”

“Haha okay.”

And when the situation was sorted out, one of the other team members, who had been looking at us a little embarrassed, opened his mouth.

In fact, he is the owner of this team's performance. VTIC former main vocalist.

"hmm… Now I want to tell you a little bit about the song. Are you okay?"

"Ah yes. thank you."

He seemed a bit annoyed, as if he could see that he was about to lose his portion, but as soon as the camera started rolling, he straightened up.

hmm.

'It's not that he doesn't have a head.'

And I never seek opinions on song selection, and start with 'something that has already been decided'.

'He's trying to seize the initiative.'

This guy is two years younger than me. Usually, it's normal to tell people to relax and talk comfortably before a team, but they keep dragging each other with respect.

'He's got a good head and has a strong sense of pride.'

Then, there is only one type of stage that this guy will push forward with.

"Anyway, this team had a lot of aspirations for the vocal position, so we organized the stage mainly with vocals."

"Ah yes."

I thought so.

'I don't have much confidence in this bastard's dance.'

Even though I'm in my third year of training, Srat is at most a C+. It means my level during < Azusa >.

Do you want to show only your good skills? It's right to choose a stage that only maximizes vocals.

'Because that guy's vocal is an A-.'

And he seems to believe that his vocal skills are similar to mine.

'Then they'd think it would be judged on the song selection.'

good. Feel free to do it. Coincidentally, Ryu Cheong-woo has similar dance stats to that guy, so the standards must be right.

'Ryu Cheng-wu can't keep up with the dance, and there won't be much of a bone-head.'

I called up Ryu Cheng-wu's status window in front of me.

[Name: Ryu Chung-woo]

Singing: B (S-)

Dance: C+ (A)

Appearance: A- (A+)

Talent: B (A)

Character: Full draw (B)

Not bad. No, to be honest, it's a flagship thing for a college student to get a report card like this.

'If I were a member of the agency, I'd somehow catch him and make him write a contract.'

… But that's it.

The problem is that I know Ryu Chung-woo's abilities in the 5-year-old first-team idol testa.

let's compare

[Name: Ryu Chung-woo]

Singing: A (S-)

Dance: B+ (A)

Appearance: A- (A+)

Talent: A- (A)

Characteristics: Full draw (S)

He is a perfect vocalist.

If you go to other groups, he has a lead vocal that would be enough to be placed in the main position, and the completeness of the choreography and talent that would not be lacking even if he was placed in the center.

However, Ryu Chung-wu here now would have been the day he did not even practice basic skills. Aside from his appearance, his abilities have fallen by one or two levels compared to < Azusa >.

'And the characteristics are also strange.'

I remembered the characteristics of the original Ryu Cheng-wu.

[Full draw (S)] -You will be in the correct position when you draw the string.

: Performance composure +150%

This is a correction that allows you to express exactly what you want on stage and act naturally.

In a word, the image of a professional.

This was definitely the overwhelming S from the time I appeared in < Azusa >.

‘Why is this guy here grade B?’

I thought this was a trait I must have had since I was archery… .

But there was no time to think further.

Because we are filming.

Club Mebo, who was looking through the lyrics, speaks in a coy voice.

“Then the part… Once the rules are set.”

“yes.”

First, deal with this bastard.

I smiled and opened my mouth.

“Because there are rules.”

I’m afraid that if I say it with my own mouth, it will look selfish.

I remembered the president’s remarks.

– The song’s owner, the < Honour Class > member, is leading this song. Think of the rest of the members as featuring.

“The rules must be followed. Mr. Taejun, please do half of the main song. You are the owner of this song. We are challengers.”

“ah… no. It’s a stage that everyone makes together, but the rules are like that.”

Yes, work hard and show off your humble side. I know what image you want to create, but… .

Then the initiative would pass.

If you let others speak, they will have a say.

At best, if you select a song well and do this in the part, you can use it. rather do the opposite.

I'm fine.

"As expected, it would be nice to be able to sing the entire song. Because you have to hold on to the performance."

"yes… hmm. thank you."

I moderately got him to the climax in all parts of the section except for the bridge. The guy takes care of it.

[Ugh, I didn't give too much… … . Aaa~ no! Got it!]

Yes, it is appropriate.

After reading my thoughts and seeing the admiring pop-up, I smiled inside and waved the remaining half of the part to Liu Cheng-wu.

"Is there a part you want to do?"

"Oh, I want to call this place once."

The guy who only nodded without interfering in my conversation with Club Mebo didn't take it off when a question came in.

'It's just active in the necessary section.'

After hearing all of his opinions, I immediately called Club Mebo.

“We’re thinking of taking just half of the remaining parts, but would that be okay?”

“yes? Oh, of course it’s fine.”

I was happy to answer, but I know you’re not interested. No matter who takes which part, he has an advantage anyway.

‘I’m not very interested in admonishing others and raising the overall quality.’

If you look good to others and don’t lose money, it’s the mindset that the rest doesn’t care. I can see how Cheongryeok controlled it over the years.

“yes. I will leave it up to you.”

After that, I continued to practice by gently launching the Club Mebo, and I did not deliberately make time to talk with Ryu Chung-woo alone.

‘Because the frame of two guys being friendly and alienating that bastard is difficult.’

It means that I am taking the picture that takes good care of this club mebo without missing it.

And Ryu Cheng-wu faithfully followed the practice without any opposition… That was all.

[yes? Are you good?]

It’s okay.

However, it means that the impact is weak because he is a normal person and is following the situation of a team where others have full authority.

‘hmm.’

… Since Ryu Cheng-wu participated, it would be a lie if he said he had no desire to lead him.

But right now, it's practically difficult unless you somehow select this guy as a colleague and awaken him. because the period is too short.

'Besides, I don't even know what this guy is thinking.'

"… … "

I can't help it.

First of all, I need to come up with a composition so that Ryu Cheng-wu can go back without cursing and having a fresh experience.

[ah… … .]

I slowly adjusted the strategy by touching the club memo and inducing myself to correct the stage myself.

Three days flew by like that.

If you shut yourself up in a secluded place like this and just practice, time flies by like it always does.

And Ryu Chung-woo… Surprisingly, his skills are improving at an inhuman speed.

[Cheongwoo's dance stat is B-… ?]

Does this make sense?

If I didn't know this guy, I would have doubted his past, treating him as bullshit for not having lived as a trainee.

[…] Wait, that's what hyung heard in < Azusa >… … .]

That's a status window. It's not Ryu Cheng-wu.

'however… Even so, I don't think it's enough to push everything and debut here.'

This is because the guy who was put into the mid-to-late game needs to be overwhelming to push him away.

If you hear the story that you came up on the bus with the gold medalist awareness and kinship vaguely… I don't know if a guy who doesn't wake up and doesn't have trauma will be okay.

[TT]

I can't help it.

I ate my mouth and started walking again.

To organize my thoughts, I woke up this morning and walked down the hallway.

Now that I'm doing this, I think I'm reminded of the days when I worked hard while writing 'Sleep is to die and sleep'… .

[Hey there!]

Hmm?

I can see the practice room with the lights still on. And that's the practice room I used until just now.

'… no way.'

I grabbed the doorknob and opened the sliding door.

drooling.

"… !"

You can see the faces of your teammates right away.

Liu Qingyu covered in sweat.

"Aren't you sleeping?"

“Ah, I thought I’d do a little more.”

It’s 3:00 am when the unmanned camera doesn’t work because the battery is out. This guy was still in the practice room.

“Your brother?”

“I have something to think about.”

For reference, Club Mebo disappeared just in time for the camera to turn off. Seeing that they aren’t even in the dorm, I’m going to do something with the other trainees.

“… … “

Wait, I can’t believe this guy’s skills improved so quickly… Were you doing this shit every morning? Do you believe in your own stamina?

“Did you keep doing this?”

“hmm… I’m sorry about that.”

“Get your stamina. Then, if you can’t perform on stage, you won’t be able to do it.”

“huh. It should be.”

Ryu Cheng-wu answered softly and lay down on the floor of the practice room. Even if you say that, it seems to mean that you have no intention of returning to the dorm.

‘I am.’

I closed the door once.

Then, the guy who was lying down looking at the ceiling suddenly opened his mouth again.

“I’m sorry bro. I didn’t apply to disrupt hyung’s stage.”

“… !”

“< Vocal B > was recommended by a writer. … I should have thought more then. It’s a broadcast.”

And I realized

‘The tone has changed.’

I must have been paying attention and only using half words. The reason why people of the same age use honorifics is that Ryu Gun-woo will be criticized for nothing if he gets on the air.

“… … I know that, so there is no need to apologize.”

I quietly sat down next to him and asked.

“So, really, how did you get here?”

Did the production team pay the tuition instead?

“that… .”

Liu Qingyu replied slowly.

“Your brother looks a bit different.”

I silently froze.

But the guy didn’t notice, and then continued.

“Do you remember making a sobriety calendar for the new year?”

“… … .”

what.

“Hyung didn’t tell me, but seeing the calendar on the fridge, I knew it.”

I wouldn’t have a reason to stop drinking here, but why would I do that… Anyway, so let’s do this guy.

‘Do you doubt me?’

Liu Cheng-wu’s explanation was not over, and I ran several possibilities in my head.

“But my brother was willing to drink, so… .”

so.

“I don’t think he refuses to drink because it’s too hard, but seeing that he continues to do this job, I wonder if it’s that much fun.”

“… … !”

I recalled several conversation patterns with him.

A question about idols.

-how is it?

-fun. It’s one of the most rewarding things I’ve ever done in my life.

that… did you interpret it that way?

“And I think hyung has changed a lot this year as he took on a new field… .”

The guy hesitated a bit, but then continued.

“a little… I think it felt strange.”

“… … ”

“I’m envious”

What?

Liu Qingyu murmured lowly.

“actually… I don’t know why I quit archery.”

“… … “

Originally, I thought I was going to die. I think it felt like it wouldn’t matter if I couldn’t do it all of a sudden. maybe.”

I completed my reasoning reflexively from his words.

Originally, Liu Cheng-wu was forced to quit archery, crying and breaking his bow due to an injury.

‘But instead of the injury… .’

there is a gap

And the most suitable and safe reason went in.

“So just… I felt like I couldn’t do it.”

“… … .”

I thought you were doing well in college, but was it?

‘after.’

And now, the guy who impulsively jumped into the business of his relative is speaking in a firm voice.

“So, it’s been a while since I stayed up all night like this. this… I feel like I’m not good enough right now, but I like the feeling that I feel better every time I do it. It’s been a while.”

“… … ”

“My brother must have said he liked it like this. I get it now.”

Liu Qingyu let out a small laugh. I couldn't answer for a while and stayed still, and finally asked this.

"Do you want to win here?"

"huh?"

do you want to continue

Liu Qingyu was a little embarrassed, but soon burst into laughter.

"of course! No one wants to be older."

And he adds in a rather firm voice.

"So do i."

I got up.

In fact, I intended to give Ryu Chung-woo a suitable kkakdugi position so that he would not be compared to anyone else, and to cut the club's head in the decisive part… .

I changed my mind a bit.

"okay."

I need to revise my plan.

I handed out the lyrics to Club Mebo before going to the trainer the next day.

The paper has a new notation.

"Hey, if this performance had this composition anyway… I would like to supplement it in the direction of raising the stage perfection."

"yes?"

He glanced at the new lyrics as if he was annoyed, but his concentration revived the moment he checked the markings.

And what comes out of the eyes unbearably… It is greed.

‘yes.’

“and… I think it would be more emphasized that it is Taejun’s stage. Because that fits the performance theme. What do you think?”

“Ah”

This guy knows it too. This means that it is good for the picture to specify a few times.

However, I am only presenting an opinion, not an argument.

An atmosphere where the moment you reject it, you will turn away without any regrets.

And he couldn’t stand it.

“Um… yes yes. For perfection.”

good. You asked.

[Heo eo ok then, can Chung Woo-nim win this person unconditionally?]

No, that’s not true.

I calculated coldly.

Due to the nature of survival in this company… .

‘I guess I’ll have to open the lid to find out.’

[ㅠㅠㅠ But I want to have hope… … .]

That’s what personal freedom.

However, I decided not to view the situation too optimistically.

‘Even if it’s the worst, I won’t be criticized.’

At this time, I didn’t know that Myung-je, who I had already felt from < Azusa >, would work again this time.

as soon as… .

It is said that Ryu Chung-woo has never lost money in a survival pro.

Dress rehearsal right before the stage.

Talk like a boss sentenced.

“Among the people who can’t perform the new song, there will always be people who drop out. And it may not be just one person.”

“… !”

It is a story that the garden reduction will begin in earnest.

And this time, all the members of the team are mentally shattered, telling them not to even dream of survival… I think.

The following words follow.

“And I am not the judge of the performance.”

no way.

“It is the vote of the most dispassionate critics, the public and the audience.”

“… … ”

I clenched my fists briefly.

Chapter 385

Episode 385

LeTi's survival program 〈Wise〉 invited 500 audience members to this performance.

It wasn't a lottery among the applicants like regular entertainment audiences. We have invited people from a university high school hospital of a certain corporation.

The president arrogantly said that it was to ensure the objectivity of the evaluation team, but there were also people who benefited from it.

'oh my god!'

High school students who like watching idols clenched their hands pretending not to be teachers.

'Ah, I couldn't come to see something like this because I was worried that my face might be sold… What is it?'

I passionately liked an idol when I was in school, but until now, a few years after I fell in love with an idol, that passion was alive and still burning.

'It's a joke, but… .'

Yes. She liked all kinds of idols!

Thanks to this, LeTi's survival program was also enjoying moderate interest and not excessive immersion.

Right now, after watching all 5 episodes that aired yesterday, I am even guessing about today's stage.

'Since the team match came out right before, I wonder if the individual match will happen again.'

At the same time, it is natural to think of the most intense solo exhibition stage.

The deathmatch between Shin Jae-hyeon and Cha Yu-jin in Episode 4 that aired last week.

-I tore it

-Wow, I understand that the real boss of these guys is such a jerk. -Honestly, if it was a normal server, look at

Cha Yujin's promoted

character haha Letty's discernment is still the same

. VS Jin Chae-yul' successfully inherited the aggro of the stage and once again poured firewood.

A peculiar phenomenon also occurred here.

Originally, in-company survival works differently from general survival, in which everyone fights against everyone.

It is said that there is a group of demanders who want to start with the group that will be completed through this survival.

-I think it would be perfect if it debuted like this ㅠㅠ

However, with the disparate 〈Supplemental Classes〉 in particular, Cha Yoo-jin, who stands out like a comet, hit hard, and a new general audience that tended to focus on the individual rather than the team came in.

'It was a mess.'

Sudden confusion continued for several days, influx of existing viewers into corruption and driving viewers into binge.

In addition, it had the effect of reigniting the controversy over the phone call.

-It was a shame to send Jin Chae-yul, so come out and say that Gern-wu lost. He had a pass. Treating a kid so cruelly when you could have used a pass?

-Yes, all of his friends have a strong sense of victimization. When Wise debuts, the group's fans will be tired, but all these conflicts were dramatically resolved with the airing of episode 5 yesterday.

'Keyword sexy!'

The stage that already made heavy viewers excited with only 5 seconds of pre-release and spoilers from the audience.

Shin Jae-hyeon and Cha Yu-jin also performed together, and Ryu Gun-woo also joined them. It's not even an individual match, it's a complete team play.

In addition, the pre-release cut was the solo cut of Cha Yu-jin, who killed An-gwang.

It's like asking, "I'm a good fit for this agency, how is it?"

-Wow,

that's awesome. What is this guy really

reminded people

‘They’re going to be a formal group soon!’

Since the number of people is small, the idea that all the guys who do this well should debut together.

Even those who were stressed felt relieved when the warm-hearted outside member recruitment and awakening of Ryu Kun-woo were added as toppings.

-The two of them seem to be really close

. Ah, I’m very satisfied. Is this what Kisanga of the ruined country is doing?

– I’m already imagining how good it would be if I debuted and made it myself ㅠㅠ

If Ryu Gun-woo’s life outside of the world seemed too painful, it would have been a little different. Fortunately, the water level was adjusted to an appropriate level according to the person’s intention.

Of course, there were elements that had nothing to do with my intentions.

Just like the teacher who came as an audience thinks.

‘He… He was really crazy about housekeeping.’

It’s like this.

[Ryu Gun-woo: I like it because it makes my thoughts go away when I’m cleaning.]

[Ryu Gun-woo: So I’ll clean the bathroom.]

[… … ?]

[Things that no one has ever ordered]

Ryu Kun-woo’s three-piece housework set did not build a meticulous and strong image.

Instead, it aired at 10x speed.

The image of them sweeping and wiping the dorm like crazy contrasted with the other members who were flustered, making it a very interesting picture, and the production team didn’t miss it.

[Stubborn ♨]

[I can’t bear to touch it… .]

Thinking about the performance, the burning passion poured into the rice was accepted by people like a cute meme.

-Characteristics of a kid who is good at studying: First of all, there is nothing else to see < - Isn't this completely? -It looks like he got a really good home education lol -Being a house elf is Geon-wu's way to manage stress...? -Ah, it's cute and cute, but it's really funny. Surprisingly, everything was rationalized, and the image of the golden spoon in the greenhouse didn't even look gold. It would have been a flagship if Park Mun-dae, wearing the mask of Ryu Kun-woo, was known, but the gag image was effective in relieving tension anyway. The scene of one action two gains, taking care of Jin Chae-yul while going to Shin Jae-hyun's team, also showed power, and the sharpness of public opinion related to Ryu Kun-woo softened. -ㅠㅠㅠReally sweet, he must be having a hard time even taking care of his brother's mentality in the midst of this... -The child has poison . Something is nice to see. . “The first stage begins!” The teacher, who had fallen into flashbacks at the moment of 'Uwak', came to his senses. And he fixed his gaze on the stage. 'Who is going to come out first?' Casually choosing a popular contestant, she watched the black figures come on stage. And a splendid stage mixed with familiar faces. Wow! Still, most of the audience, who had not had much experience seeing such a stage in person, enjoyed watching and voted with excitement. Because the boss deliberately did not tell the audience that they had the hilt. Thanks to that, the evaluation was brutally honest. [The winner is… This is Jin Chae-yul from < Honour Class > who received 371 votes!]

Usually there were overwhelming victories, but sometimes there were cases where performers performed similarly well.

Interestingly, in that case, existing contestants tended to get a better vote. It was the effect of preoccupying awareness.

‘Oh, it’s Yunshin!’

The teacher likewise voted for the person he was attracted to with a comfortable mind.

And the contestants to present the next stage watched it through the monitor and moved to the waiting area after setting the mood.

The stage he will show is a famous American male solo dance pop song.

It is a stage where the groove and rhythm of the song was arranged around the vocals.

But there is a secret.

‘Oh, actually, it’s a stage I’ve already done.’

It was a song he practiced a few months ago as a candidate song for his agency’s end-of-month evaluation, and then dropped it right before.

But he didn’t.

‘I didn’t really show it, so the company said they didn’t know.’

Even if other contestants remembered it, I wouldn’t bother scratching it to make a bruise, so I thought it would be okay to smoke this kind of trick.

You can accidentally play a song you practiced.

‘It’s not a fucking scam just because I saved some stamina.’

Isn’t it normal to lead the stage by yourself? Considering that he handled everything from song selection to stage, it is only right to see these benefits.

The former main vocalist of VTIC, who was called ‘Club Mebo’ by Ryu Gun-woo, finished rationalization.

And I stood up straight, complaining about the tight pants.

Next to him, two people who closely resembled each other, Ryu Gun-woo and Ryu Cheong-woo, stood side by side and calmly waited.

He even smiles and talks about the movement as if he is not nervous.

‘Am I going to go that far?’

Isn’t it a disease when the camera consciousness is at that level?

‘Where is the person without a medal for the national archery team? And what about a retired bastard who got exempted from military service?’

In the meantime, the guy next to me, who thought he was smart, even started talking to himself like this while practicing.

-The contestants all appear together only at the end, and until then, how about only one person in charge of the part appearing on stage? The featuring stage is usually like that.

It seemed as if he was bowing down, but that couldn’t be the case in survival, and there must have been a ulterior motive.

Originally, I didn’t even have my own authority, but I had to go through true education at one point in time, saying this and that about the stage… passed over

They said they would reduce the amount on their own, but isn’t there anything they don’t like?

‘I think I’m thinking of conserving my stamina and definitely raising the live quality… .’

His trainee period was short and he only studied, so his mind was clear.

Unfortunately, however, he originally had good lung capacity. That number was of no avail.

‘That bastard would think he was a great strategist.’

Since I became a character because I was handsome, it seemed like I had quite an affair.

Guys like that became self-conscious trolls even in games. It was a personal exhibition, so I was welcomed honestly.

“< Vocal B > Move!”

“yes!”

And finally comes the time of the stage.

Anyway, since we can debut together, the honor class participants joined in giving each other words of encouragement.

“Regardless of winning or losing, let’s show it properly, hyungs.”

Ryu Gun-woo smiled and nodded.

“Yes, I did my best. … Why don’t we go after a fight?”

“yes yes.”

Even after debuting, the participants in the honor class participated in the cheering slogan while drawing a picture saying that they would not be able to live without it.

“Show me everything! < Vocal B > Fighting!”

And after a while, on stage.

At first, there is only one In-Young who appeared in the background.

Like a solo stage.

‘uh?’

Bambam bambam bam-!

The moment the pinpoint lights were inserted, it was the honor class participant who turned around to the music that exploded.

The song starts with a gesture, riding a light rhythm like a choreography.

Funky Rhythm and Blues.

[I’m gonna show you something-]

Cheers explode at the stable high-pitched sound.

[especially Good- and remarkable]

This is it!

The honor class participants sang familiar lyrics coolly.

Accumulated amount of practice allows me to sing without thinking.

[Come on it’s not late!]

It’s enough just to hold the stand mic and turn it slightly. Everyone can’t help but admire the choreography when they sing so well!

The honor class finished the final note with a triumphant performance.

‘It’s as if it’s already over!’

But the moment the first verse ends like that.

One more light comes on on the stage and a new member shines

[You’re gonna show you something]

The same melody as the first bar.

However, the arrangement has changed.

The accompaniment almost disappears and a husky note drops from the smooth piano.

[Too bad- and unforgettable]

“… !”

Instant concentration increases.

And the honor class has goose bumps on its back.

sense of crisis.

‘uh… ??’

Because Ryu Gun-woo did not show his best skills in practice on purpose.

[Come on I’m waiting!]

The honor class participants are trainees.

What that means is that you are not used to unexpected situations in real combat.

For example, the feeling of pressure when you suddenly feel that your competitor’s skills have improved dramatically.

‘… !’

The honor class participant almost missed the timing, but reflexively grabbed the microphone and entered the chorus.

[Break this dance hall!]

The moment you feel relieved by its neatness. As promised, an ad-lib that sticks upwards.

[Break this dance hall!]

It’s just a slightly higher treble.

However, there is a clear difference in technique and volume.

Like the difference in resolution.

Like choruses and sign singers.

It chases like a catch.

and!!

The cheers sound like comparisons.

‘X-X-X-X!’

The beat of the honor class, which has become impatient, speeds up slightly. The boss raises his eyebrows.

[Ohh- yeah yeah!]

Just like that, Gunwoo Ryu’s part ended.

Gunwoo Ryu disappears from the stage with a slightly flashy farewell gesture. Even that, people respond.

But all that’s left is an empty microphone and lights.

‘it’s okay!’

Around the time when the honor class, who does light choreography in the accompaniment, finally finds a sense of calm.

I haven’t even started singing, but suddenly I hear cheers again.

Aww! wow!

‘uh… ?’

This time, Ryu Chung-woo enters the empty standing mic seat of Ryu Gun-woo.

People react in bewilderment and irritation to the unexpected appearance, but Ryu Cheng-wu just softly enters the second verse in a low tone.

[I'm gonna show you something-]

A good voice leads to shouts.

However, it is a skill that is not very different from practice. Obviously he sings better.

The honor class entered the next verse with their nerves on edge.

but… .

'why… Do you think I have less shouts?'

Originally, it is correct that the person with the most acting on stage stands out.

The problem was change.

Audiences get bored quickly.

As soon as something new appears to attract attention, something that always exists becomes old.

Plain with a boring taste.

And the toppings that keep changing their appearance actually become the main character's seat.

'ah… … .'

The one who keeps his seat is just a chorus.

Unless you're overwhelmingly good at the main level.

pop.

As soon as I instinctively felt it, a cold sweat fell on the back of the honor class.

The tension starts to push the pace.

‘ah.’

Habits that were called inertia break down and become distracted.

And it is visible to the audience as well.

‘hmm… .’

‘Aren’t you a little nervous?’

The impression that was pushed by Ryu Gun-woo in the first half collapses in the second half and is completed as a single image.

‘I’m not as good as I thought… ‘as.

However, regardless of whether the person next to him practiced worse or better, Ryu Cheng-wu is natural and unconcerned.

There is nothing to be afraid of or expect because you know that you are not as good as your opponent anyway.

Then, a third microphone appears from the back, and Ryu Gun-woo appears on stage again, dragging his part even as the audience cheers.

[Ohh- yeah yeah!]

And even the ending with exquisite harmony.

Wow!

Cheers poured in again and the stage ended like that. And the person everyone predicted soon appears on the billboard.

[The winner is… This is Kun-Woo Ryu from < Inferior Class > with 320 votes!]

The winner. Gunwoo Ryu.

And who among the losers was eliminated was practically decided.

* * *

The stage is over.

A short backstage break before the real loser emerges.

As soon as he took off the microphone, Ryu Chung-wu forgot to catch his breath and rushed over to say these words.

And without answering, he pours out his words.

“I didn’t know it would feel like this. This… Even if you don’t score and even if you lose… I feel like I just won the game. curiously.”

It’s an excited voice unlike a guy who handled it like an adult every time.

And with eyes shining, he says

“It’s hard to expect results because he’s better than me, but… I want to stay and do more. Even if you curse.”

I smiled faintly.

“You shouldn’t have to worry about that. Because I don’t think I’ll be cursing.”

“… okay?”

Ryu Cheng-wu’s face is filled with hope and aspiration.

At that moment, I saw this guy's status window light up and spit out a new word with a flash.

[The state of the attribute is… ?]

No way.

[B – > A!]

[Full draw (A)]

-When you pull the string, it will be in the correct position.

: Performance composure +120%

"… !"

Right. It seems that Ryu Cheng-wu has regained his passion for something and even influenced his character.

really… That's a good thing.

"hmm… … ."

Concern spreads across Liu Cheng-wu's face, whose excitement has disappeared for a moment.

"… brother. Are there any problems?"

"No, not that."

Not a problem.

however… In fact, the moment I came down the stage, I did something in a fit of rage.

[Prestige is increasing… .]

+50000 Exp

At that time, reputation was settled.

[Heh heh heh heh heh heh heh heh heh heh heh heh heh he can spin it 50 times!!]

I feel good because it seems like the club boy has been sent away as well.

So I thought it was extra and turned it around because of adrenaline… .

it’s up

[Haha!]

Chapter 386

If You Can't Debut, You'll Get a Deadly Disease Episode 386 Is

Ryu Cheng-wu coming out of the lottery at this timing?

In fact, isn't this companion draw system also willing to spit out what I need at that time, like the talent draw system operated by Keundal?

'… Come to think of it, I turned around after seeing Lee Se-jin, and the real Lee Se-jin appeared.'

Of course, it was a different guy with the same name.

I opened my mouth just in case.

'Could you have done your best here?'

[Oh no. I guess I can't do that anymore… Actually, I tried to do it a couple of times.]

A small pop-up pops up like it's dead.

'No, that's fine. It's better to be clean than to mix with the system and cause problems.'

OK.

[Oh yeah… !]

Yes.

Anyway, there is only one option I will consider now.

[Coworker: Do you want to awaken Ryu Cheong-wu?]

-Use Exp 1000

to awaken Ryu Cheong-wu.

I looked up. I can see the party whose eyes are shining with the immersion and rewarding feeling after a long time.

‘hmm.’

I opened my mouth looking at Ryu Cheng-wu, who was waiting for an answer.

“No, I think it would be better to prepare an opinion statement.”

It’s best to enjoy it without knowing these things, so should I press the awakening button after a while?

That is after the announcement of the dropouts.

“Reports?”

“Because the moment you join us, the production team will ask for your impressions unconditionally.”

A look of embarrassment crossed Liu Qingyu’s face. He must have thought that you were encouraged to win, of course.

That was really good advice.

“hmm… Then why not just say thank you?”

“Rather than that, it would be better to honestly reveal that I was a little more thrilled. Dramatically.”

“… ?”

Any thoughtful production team would handle this as a great twist.

and after a while

When the finalists were finally revealed one by one on the stage where all the audience had left.

“Reveal now!”

[< Supplemental Class > Ryu Cheng-wu]

[Participant confirmed!]

Liu Cheng-wu really became the final winner of all these rounds.

And that is the only remaining member of the supplementary class.

Even if the skills were similar, it became the only exception in the production team’s calculation that they would film familiar participants instead of unfamiliar faces.

“Thank you um… … .”

The guy who finally grabbed the microphone seemed to be trying to speak as calmly as possible even with a trembling voice.

It’s the first time I’ve been shaken like that since passing < Azusa >.

“It’s been a long time since I’ve done something so passionately… I feel a bit overwhelmed. Thank you for the next opportunity. We will never miss it and show you a better image. thank you!”

It’s plain, but there’s enough nuance that you’re genuinely interested in this job. excellent.

In addition, no matter who heard it, people misunderstood it as saying that there was a reason why they quit archery. No, please, I hope so. It’s good to have a narrative.

“This concludes the announcement of the dropouts.”

And Club Mebo disappeared as one of the nine dropouts, with two added by the president himself.

12 people left.

– Do you know how many people were in my original group?

– Nine people.

It gets closer and closer to that number. I don’t know how many people will end up this time, but.

How many people does Chung-rye think are appropriate for this short-term project group, not her own group?

‘This… Maybe we should discuss it.’

what are you talking about

Now let’s do our thing.

“Thank you bro.”

“You did what I did.”

As soon as the camera was turned off and he came downstairs, Chengwu Ryu thanked him and then spoke in a more energetic tone.

“I have to practice hard. to follow.”

“hmm.”

It seems that he has already come to a conclusion after looking at the atmosphere, so it sounds like he will be stuck in the practice room until the next shoot and practice all night.

No matter how much you are, your stamina will be destroyed, so that would be rather counterproductive.

“When my older brother said he would do it at first, I should have done it too. It’s a bit of a waste.”

“why. Do you feel like you’re running out of time?”

“… … .”

Ryu Cheng-wu slightly nodded his head uncharacteristically, perhaps regretting that time was running out to improve his skills.

‘I don’t have to regret it anymore.’

I can give you back your practice time.

“ruler.”

“huh?”

have it I pressed the awakening button for Liu Chengyu.

[Leap towards the emergency… .]

And for the first time, I personally checked the awakening scene of my ‘colleague’.

Immediately, Liu Chengyu stumbled. bigger than expected.

“what… . ah.”

“… !”

this… Was the reaction originally this strong?

“Are you okay there?”

“who is this?”

Even the staff reacted to it. But Liu Chengwu leaned against the wall and said nothing.

‘X feet.’

Is this response correct?

Whether it’s the status window or calling 119, the moment I was about to act, fortunately, he immediately raised his head.

calm voice.

“… … Oh well, that’s fine.”

gentle expression.

“sorry. I guess it was because I was relaxed.”

“Ah~”

The staff saw Ryu Cheng-wu smiling and backed away.

And Ryu Cheong-woo still doesn’t lose his smile even after all the staff have disappeared.

But slowly, the face opens up.

“… … .”

“… … .”

“… … Is that door?”

“yes.”

And after a short, thick silence.

“Whoa… … .”

Liu Qingyu lowered his head and let out a long groan.

[Oh, that person… … .]

Yes.

Embarrassment Fear Confusion Prior to relief… .

'… It came from embarrassment.'

I quietly pretended not to know the leader, who recalled all the 21-year-old-like aspects of me.

"therefore… Well, it's kind of an accident situation."

"yes."

After a while, I finished a quick briefing on the current situation to Ryu Chung-woo, who came to his senses while organizing his luggage.

It's so unrealistic that other people have to listen to it, so they would have thought it was a movie or game story, so there's nothing to worry about.

And, like a guy who knew that I had changed my body, he was quick to grasp the situation.

"It was a bit strange. I can see it like this I think the parts that were different from reality were awkward."

Instead of talking about parallel dimensions or something, Ryu Chung-woo seemed to have interpreted this situation as a lucid dream or fantasy.

"Should I say that I made a different choice at an unlikely point?"

He seemed to think of a few more examples besides archery, but Ryu Cheng-wu didn't bother to elaborate.

I had to say this.

“Then, the timing was just right, so I came up with a way to come to my senses.”

“yes.”

“Then you deliberately waited until after the dropouts were announced. I want to make you feel the worth of winning with the audience’s vote on the first stage.”

“… … .”

“thank you.”

“… … It’s because it’s filming, so you’re not going to be thankful.”

“haha!”

Liu Qingyu laughed and added:

“Speak comfortably. Hyung, actually, you’re really right.”

“… !”

“Somehow, even though we are the same age, I thought I should call him hyung.”

Ryu Cheng-wu smiled shyly, saying that this was also a strange part.

“It’s okay to go back and talk. We’ve been seeing each other for over five years, and it’s time to talk.”

“… Like that.”

Ryu Cheng-wu smiled coolly and passed it over.

‘I knew he was like this, but… .’

It’s strange. Suddenly I was waiting for the others to come.

Fortunately, as I tipped off, the honor class guys who had changed their clothes in the other waiting room soon ran out to the back of the lobby.

“Moondae hyung! Do you remember Chungwoo hyung now?”

“Yujin.”

“Wooow!”

Cha Yoo-jin runs up and gives them a high-five.

Even though Kim Rae-bin is there, that guy calls me Bak Mun-dae very comfortably.

However, Kim Rae-bin did not react much, probably because he had automatically processed ‘Mundae = Geon-woo’s nickname’ in his brain.

I just do my best to say hello.

“Hello brothers! I was really impressed with today’s performance.”

“Ah, now Rabin too… .”

“hmm.”

Upon realizing that Rabin Kim had no memory of my reaction, Chungwoo Ryu changed his tone.

“I’m so sorry. Did I carelessly say something?”

“yes? no! As long as you are the elder and the same participant, you have the right to do so.”

Liu Qingyu laughed.

“It’s the same, it’s the same.”

“… … ?”

“that’s right. Kim Rae-bin is the same person.”

“… ! I wonder if you mean that there is no progress compared to what I saw in the program in the past… … ”

“No, stupid!”

“… ?!”

I let the three guys chatter and looked at the guy coming behind them.

The guy was slowly joining after being greeted by the others.

“congratulation. Next time, I’ll take an honors class.”

Cheongrye.

“I don’t know because the number of people has decreased.”

“hmm? It’s difficult if you can’t come up now. Do you really think so?”

“… … .”

“just joke. I trust you.”

Goosebumps keep coming up.

“You beat the main vocalist who always had a solid place in the debut group. Of course, you will come to the honor class from the next shoot.”

“… … .”

After confirming that the rest of the participants were leaving the lobby and the other three were engaged in conversation, I lowered my voice and asked.

“How the hell did that bastard last 7 years?”

“Because it’s easy to handle.”

The boy licked his lips slightly.

“But people do change. They become more self-conscious and show different patterns with unreasonable confidence in themselves.”

“… … .”

“hmm… Missing it was my mistake, so I won’t make excuses.”

I recalled what happened after the former main vocalist of VTIC left the club due to controversy.

It was easy.

because there is nothing

It was quiet without opening any common SNS and without any recent news or sightings.

who would have done

“But those with obvious weaknesses are easy to deal with. Aren’t you sorry? I was able to deal with it without a big variable this time.”

“Then let’s have a loser’s revival match.”

“haha!”

The guy laughed out loud.

“are you okay. I’m not sorry”

“… … .”

“I asked in case my brother would regret it.”

Thinking that the title had changed, I turned around, and before I knew it, the other three finished the conversation and turned around.

And Cheong-rye also looks that way.

Ryu Cheng-wu to be exact.

“This one too?”

It must mean that the memory has returned.

“okay.”

“Hmm.”

As if appraised, he briefly glanced at Ryu Cheng-wu.

No, it’s not ‘like’.

And then he smiles and holds out his hand.

“I will leave it up to you.”

“yes. thank you.”

The two shook hands.

First of all, it’s not like when Cheong-ryeo met Cha Yu-jin.

‘It’s okay if we don’t fight.’

I don’t think anything will explode right away, so I decided to take advantage of the free time and check the status window first.

Because the main quest has just been broken.

[Quest: Fellow Awakening] – > Done!

The ones I have awakened so far are Cha Yoo-jin, Bae Se-jin, and Ryu Cheong-woo.

It seems that the condition was to awaken a total of three people.

‘Then, Cheong-Ryo is an exception.’

What kind of guy is being treated as a starter?

Anyway, if you’ve succeeded in gathering enough friends, what’s the next step?

‘What is the stage progress?’

This is the main content.

"… … ."

What the hell are you doing?

I picked up my smartphone with the intention of calling him right away.

And you will see the message popped up at the top.

-Lee Se-jin senior: Hello, Mr. Geon-woo! I watched episode 5. (Laughing emoticon) I think the stage would be really cool??

It was a message Lee Se-jin sent two days ago.

* * *

Accommodation in Zyrop.

Jiying.

"Mmm."

It's been a long time since I've been lying in bed before midnight, but Lee Se-jin picked up his smartphone right away like a habit.

And I saw the late reply.

-Wise Ryu Gun-Woo: Now I'm back home, so I'm late to reply. sorry.

-Wise Ryu Gun-woo: Thank you for the compliment. I really hope the stage turns out well.

"Ah."

Looks like filming is finally over.

Obviously, I just sent a message because I remembered it while managing my personal connections on a regular basis, but Lee Se-jin was glad for some reason and quickly replied.

– Sorry! It's my fault for texting during filming. What? (crying emoticon ) I'm not a great senior, so I'm embarrassed to hear respectful words from you!

After a while, '1' disappears and a new reply comes.

-Wise Ryu Gun-Woo: Thank you

-Wise Ryu Gun-Woo: Make it easy for you too.

"That's right~"

After all, it's still before debut, so the hurdles are low. Lee Se-jin replied a little faster this time.

– Haha I don't say no! thanks brother!

-Change the save name too, to a cool Sejin younger brother haha

And I only realized after sending it.

'… What kind of over is this?'

It was a sudden rash that anyone could see as a con artist or a guy who couldn't measure distance because he had no friends.

'Ah, what's wrong!'

The moment he tries to recover, a reply comes right away.

-Wise Ryu Gun-woo: Okay

"… ??"

through this?

‘Are you courting me for being a senior?’

It was a mistake, but strangely, I didn’t feel bad.

But the reply didn’t end there.

-Wise Ryu Gun-woo: This is the first time for Sejin’s younger brother

. Is it Smalltalk?

-Oh, right, I tend to have a few people with the same name!

Lee Se-jin quickly thought of an appropriate answer and sent it. The feeling that I should finish it properly and go to sleep disappeared before I knew it.

And the reply came… It was unexpected.

-Wise Ryu Gun-woo: I think you know him too. Even the last name is the same.

“… … .”

do i know?

‘for a moment.’

A person with the same name as Lee Se-jin knows.

There was only one thing that came to mind as being older than Ryu Gun-woo and both of them well-known.

And one after another, Ryu Gun-woo’s reply arrived.

-Wise Ryu Gun-woo: He’s an actor, so we decided to meet and play once in a few days.

-Wise Ryu Gun-woo: I think it would be fun to see you too

Chapter 387

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 387

"Hmm."

The message I sent just before has not yet been answered.

But let's see.

The idol group that Lee Se-jin is currently a member of, Zyrop, was scheduled to enjoy a short break right after the tour.

I don't think I would have known that and contacted you, but anyway, it means that I can make time for at least one day out of those days.

But this is where the bait falls.

Actor Lee Se-jin with the same name.

There is also a story that they are doing well as actors and have the same name. It is a choice without criticism for networking.

It deserves a higher management priority.

'Wouldn't it be okay if I went home and spent half a day the next day?'

… Wouldn't you have thought of something like that?

Lee Se-jin, who found out the MC number in a solo variety show he appeared for the first time.

just as expected.

The screen of the smartphone, which had been turned off, soon vibrated again.

[Cool younger brother Sejin: Hahaha hyung, how did you contact me at the right time, my schedule is empty!] [

Cool younger brother Sejin: When do you think the date is?]

That's right.

Ryu Cheng-wu looks at the screen and speaks with a wry smile.

"You keep in touch with Sejin too. You must have suffered."

"… yes. What is that?"

It was the moment I was about to answer that there was no such thing as suffering.

"Moondae hyung! My name is also a cool brother! I'm a cool tiger, Cha Yujin… ."

"Be quiet, fool… omg?"

… No, this was just for bait… … what happened

"Oh!! Raebin Kim, did you call me an idiot?"

"A mistake!"

Thanks to Kim Rae-bin, who is the center of the topic on his own, I avoided the phone book becoming more messy.

And a few days later, a single room at a restaurant in Seoul.

"So you mean Lee Se-jin is coming soon? No memory?"

"yes."

Bae Se-jin appeared wearing sunglasses, a hat, and even gloves, and then sat down and was drinking water with a slightly nervous expression.

I don't know what they're doing since we shared a dorm together until recently.

'Well, it wasn't quite right in the beginning.'

I don't know if it's because of the stressful memories at that time.

Anyway, I'll have to wait another 30 minutes for him to come, so my tension will be relieved.

It's because I met this guy a little earlier on purpose.

"By the way, how is your company job?"

… I was going to ask what the hell did you do to get the president's crime of plastering?

And Bae Se-jin's face came alive as soon as he heard the question.

"what… not bad."

"is that so."

"Just what… The contract was renewed according to the industry standard, the manager was changed, and the script was not skipped."

"… ?"

"And since I received a recording and a memorandum not to do this to anyone else… Not bad. Great."

"… … ."

Rather boast openly.

Bae Se-jin, no matter who sees it, ‘I burst cider like this!’ It is a face that cries out

OK. I quietly opened my mouth.

“That’s great. Articles didn’t even appear, but it’s not easy to do things quietly like that.”

“Hmmmm, it wasn’t difficult. just… It was handled according to common sense and reason.”

“oh.”

Now is the time to tell you how to do it.

“Because the president stole company money and gambled away.”

“… !!”

“And I have proof. video!”

He said he didn’t know it was evidence before, but only found out when it was exposed to the media a few years later.

‘I must have run the simulation that he exploded several times with this guy’s personality… .’

Even so, it seems that he did not meet the lawyer in vain to receive the crime of plaster.

“Of course, it’s socially good to report it to the police and deal with it properly… Then I won’t be able to work for a while.”

“ah.”

Bae Se-jin fiddled with the water glass.

“that… I have to help you get on the target.”

“… !”

“For that to happen, it is advantageous for me to continue to be active. still! I think the president made it so that I can’t do that again in the future.”

“… … .”

me really

It’s like a guy who came up with a realistic compromise after thinking that this wasn’t the reality and then there was nothing to hold back.

“Thank you.”

“Hmm what? We want to go back together!”

After that, Bae Se-jin was completely speechless, and even talked about how he sent the manager and the vicious employee away.

It’s not without its clumsy corners, but it has good momentum and seems to have tried to handle it meticulously, so I don’t think I need to touch it.

‘It’s fine.’

And originally, I was going to change my name to ‘Bae Se-jin’, but there was even a story that I put up with it for the sake of popularity.

Oh, I see… .

“Is your older brother’s real father okay?”

That drug villain.

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin opened his mouth with a slightly embarrassed face.

“… Are you missing?”

“… ??”

No, how the hell is this world made up?

“Anyway, I divorced my mom and it’s all over! are you okay.”

“Um yes.”

If so.

The topic goes back to the current situation and future plans.

“… okay! The movie will be released soon. Hmm, match your survival debut… … .”

smart.

“ah.”

A knock is heard from the room.

‘I’m not an employee.’

When I look at my watch, I know who it is.

“Come on in.”

4 minutes before the appointed time.

Lee Se-jin opened the door and came in.

“Hyung, I’m here. Bye~ Hello!”

The guy who hid his dyed hair in a hood took off his mask and said hello.

“Welcome.”

“Oh, it’s close to my house, so I came just right! Everyone has come early.”

It’s near the house. He must have waited nearby and arrived just in time.

I sat down and gestured across from him.

“This is Sejin Lee. Learn.”

“Ah~ I really enjoyed watching the movie!”

“Ah yes.”

Bae Se-jin nodded. This reminds me of < Azusa >.

“I was also impressed by the ‘Seahorse’ filmed this time.”

Lee Se-jin seems to have done a thorough preliminary investigation like a bastard.

“I got goosebumps because he looked like a really scary medical student. I’m surprised every time you capture that sensibility really well!”

Bae Se-jin, who only had 4 consecutive psychopaths, answered this while nervous.

“Because we always do the same thing… Um yes.”

“… … .”

For a moment, even Lee Se-jin of the world almost shut up, but soon smiles and replies.

“Ay, you do well every time, so you feel the same way!”

“It’s not… Thank you anyway.”

“Ahaha yes!”

And Lee Se-jin seems to have discarded all career-related small talk topics right away.

However, even after that, all of Lee Se-jin’s personal questions bounced back.

“Oh, that coat suits you! Do you often wear a coat?”

“hmm… It was given to me by the manager.”

“Your manager has a good eye.”

Then Bae Se-jin, who heard the praise of the manager who cut him this morning, answers like this.

“… … well.”

“… … .”

I’m a guy who can’t crush public facts and respond with lies, so I keep keeping my mouth shut… … .

‘It’s ruined.’

I plainly admitted.

These chicks are just… they’re the ones that don’t fit

‘In the end, I’m going to carry my arms here too.’

“Let’s talk more over dinner. You must be hungry.”

“… ! oh~ good What did you do?”

The Korean food course came out and I started creating topics for small talk that I hadn’t even heard of before.

* * *

‘Oh, it’s open.’

While eating, Sejin Lee evaluated the seat in his heart.

It was wrong to form a bond with that actor sitting across from him.

‘You didn’t want to come out? Why are you like that?’

In fact, I think we can become friends somehow by persistently talking to each other… Somehow I didn’t even want to.

‘It’s not necessary to have an actor network.’

I needed at least a few more years to pursue personal activities through acting. Lee Se-jin did not need to be impatient. … maybe.

‘… No, I should be more alert.’

Looking at the team, it seemed like it would be difficult to renew the contract. The thought of having to find a way to live within a few years was somehow bitter.

‘Only with something like this.’

It was funny to do this. Still, the team is doing well right now… .

“The ribs here are delicious.”

“… ! Oh yes, I didn’t know about a restaurant like this!”

“I heard that fans post a lot of hashtags like that.”

“That’s right~ Please upload a lot.”

When the conversation between Lee Se-jin and Lee Se-jin did not go well, Ryu Gun-woo led the conversation gently.

He seemed active without replying.

‘… Isn’t that the answer?’

I don’t know how many times I’ve seen it on just the second meeting, but I don’t know if I feel like this.

Well, just looking at it, it doesn't look like an extroverted style. Lee Se-jin just moved his thoughts to the next context.

Anyway, rather than bring someone like that, I'd rather just see the two of them, so what's the point… .

'… Or maybe I didn't come out then?'

right. He took the time to say that he would introduce him to new people… looks like

I don't know. Strangely, the flow of thoughts itself felt like a mess.

Lee Se-jin didn't express himself, but he was a little taken aback.

'It's strange.'

Still, the conversation continued. It's also strangely funny… because it was comfortable.

"How was the tour?"

And when we moved on to the topic of idols and active survival programs, a more in-depth conversation started to emerge automatically.

"The tour is fun~ hyung will do it soon too. You are so good at it! The < Wise > program is also popular."

"But when you debut, the song and the situation are important. I can't say it's going to be good, but… … In fact, the listing of Chochi is similar to that actor, but Ryu Gun-woo ends his speech with a smile

"I hope it goes well, though. I think it will be very rewarding."

"… hmm. yes. The stage is difficult, but it is really fun work."

"okay."

He asked questions like a survival contestant with an uncertain future, but he didn't feel particularly desperate or persistent.

What should I say? people are pale

"… Hyung's agency is famous for being good at tours. It will be fine."

Maybe that's why Lee Se-jin unknowingly began to give a slightly more honest answer below that, instead of a well-coordinated relationship answer.

Naturally, the topic becomes more serious.

And then comes this question.

"Come to think of it… I wanted to ask you how it feels to debut. How is it?"

When did you debut?

"It's amazing, but it goes back so crazy? I was busy, so I didn't have time to reflect on my inspiration, that's it~"

It's true.

But there are facts below that that need not be said.

"… It might not be what you thought it would be."

I would advise you to throw it away if you were expecting overwhelming enthusiasm, a sense of challenge, and a sense of security when you are in the right position.

Ryu Gun-woo asked quietly.

"Do you have any regrets?"

regret?

“Still, I don’t think I have any particular regrets. Of course some… There are also unexpected difficulties.”

It’s like a member who can’t do anything since they’ve already debuted together.

“which?”

“Oh what… .”

Sejin Lee inadvertently opened his mouth and only then realized.

That you are being very unnecessarily honest.

‘Why are you saying this… … .’

And barely spoke naturally.

“… There’s no easy way to make money. It’s like that!”

“… okay. I think that’s what I think.”

“… … .”

Ryu Gun-woo did not ask further. It seemed like he felt a strange sign, but it seems like a kind of consideration.

‘ah.’

Lee Se-jin was a little disappointed but relieved.

‘… ?? What do you miss?’

Then, instead, the actor who had been eating hard throws out a sharp word.

“that’s right. There is no easy way to make money.”

“… ?”

“People have to pay for their food.”

suddenly?

I don’t know when he stopped talking, but I’m sure he’s older than himself, so Lee Se-jin just answered softly.

“that… That’s right. yes yes.”

The actor held the chopsticks with veins.

“I just kept my seat and acted indolently, and ended up doing something I shouldn’t have done… People like that don’t deserve money.”

“Oh, you can’t do that. really.”

Lee Se-jin was genuinely serious at the moment that he was arguing.

It was because I was furious because of the melee examples that came to mind at the moment.

Lee Se-jin said calmly, recalling the face of a child who failed to manage his condition while drinking the day before the tour.

“There is such a thing as work ethic. And in group life, if there is such a person, the team will lose money.”

“okay! No matter how good you are, a good person who works hard is better than that kind of person!”

However, despite shouting energetically, the actor suddenly flinched and added his words.

“you… Although you may prefer a person who is a bit bad or lazy to a person who is not good at it.”

And it will be hurriedly rectified.

“Usually so!”

“… … .”

Lee Se-jin roughly thought of the answer, ‘There are many people like that~’, but discarded it.

I was kind of pissed off.

No, I responded like this… Do you know that I’m like that when you say you’re choking?

“No, even if I’m not good at it, I think someone who works hard is better.”

“… okay?”

“I see~ If we continue to work together, thinking about the future, won’t the former do well in the end?”

“… !”

Lee Se-jin came to a conclusion without knowing it.

“If you’re going with someone, that’s better.”

It was cool.

“… … .”

The moment I learned, I almost dropped my chopsticks.

why are you like that

However, he soon corrects it and mumbles in a much brighter tone.

“… Not really. You’re right.”

“Yes~?”

For the first time today, the conversation between the two ended appropriately.

And Lee Se-jin slightly changed his mind.

what… He seems to have a bit of an eccentric personality, but when he works in his own way, he seems to be the type with a vision.

‘that… Not bad.

And Ryu Gun-woo, who had been eating without intervening in their conversation, started talking again only then.

“Speaking of work, then how much practice should be appropriate? Actors and idols have slightly different fields.”

“Umm~ isn’t persistence important?”

“… okay. After all, there is such a thing as habit.”

And naturally, the conversation proceeds with all three participating… .

“… !”

for a moment.

‘… Is that why you deliberately dragged the conversation this way?’

Does that actor open his mouth in a serious conversation? And even though he gave up small talk because he was annoyed, he’ll have a serious conversation… .

So that the atmosphere between himself and the actor does not become more strange.

“… … .”

Lee Se-jin was somehow embarrassed and looked down at the bowl.

Even though he is young, he is a senior, so it was a bit like being considered in a position like this.

But at the same time… I felt a bit at ease. I have to say it's a solid feeling.

'Wow~ They say a lot.'

he eventually gave up.

Apparently, he wanted to make his new network a friend.

'… Idol friends are good.'

Lee Se-jin held back a sigh and popped the soybean paste noodles into his mouth.

It was delicious.

* * *

The meal with the same name ended well in the end.

Although Bae Se-jin made this evaluation as soon as Lee Se-jin left.

– Even though he's young, he's completely human!

Of course, it doesn't end here.

-… It wasn't bad though.

Seeing them in different situations and positions, it seems that they have ruminated on the things that made them cringe during their debut.

He seemed to think that if the circumstances were different, he would have fought and solved it faster.

[I think you two will get along better from now on… .]

It could be.

Anyway, I saw off Bae Se-jin, who was going to grab the president again.

And I joined three other guys who said they had gone out to pick out Kim Rae-bin's piercing.

"Have you met Sejin hyungs? Call me next time!"

Cha Yoo-jin left these words and ran to buy pizza with Kim Rae-bin.

Liu Cheng-wu evaluated it like this.

"Se-jin, so meeting Lee Se-jin… Are you trying to make it a little less sad when your memories come back later?"

"… … ."

I put down my smartphone.

"It is not. It's convenient to have connections with senior idols who have a name."

I know all the information, but there is nothing I do not use. … He's also a good fit.

Liu Qingyu was dazed for a moment, then burst into laughter.

"okay! The door is still there. Like Lavigne."

"… !"

"Oh, the kids are coming. I'll bring you some pizza."

"no… ."

This bastard won't listen again

Anyway, I ended up spending that day at an officetel with these three guys while eating pizza for dinner.

'What kind of meeting day is it?'

And I said, ‘Is it more convenient for me to call you Moondae hyung?’ When he was making up a suitable excuse for Kim Rae-bin, who asked,

On the Internet, new rumors and opinions about LeTi survival were emerging.

Chapter 388

If you can't debut, you'll die. Episode 388,

< Wise > filming day.

This time, I went right into the content as soon as the president announced the honors and inferior classes at the dorm, without any shooting cuts from the stage.

'It's not a stage performance for those who got eliminated, but an event for idols before that.'

Following the public service advertisement photo shoot, the next hitter is… .

"This event is a street guerilla concert."

"and!"

"omg… ."

I think there was some kind of deal with the local government, but it means that we ended up performing at a temporary stage facility in the middle of Myeong-dong.

[Oh, that must be fun!]

Viewers can do that. But from a participant's point of view… well

[yes… ? Uh uh, weren't you doing it all over again?]

That's right.

‘But the number of people has changed.’

There must have been a lot of changes to the movement and parts because there were people who dropped out and new people who came in.

“Coming Friday at 6pm!”

Look, I’ll give you two days due to the shooting schedule.

‘It’s all night.’

[…] … . extreme job… .]

Now that it’s like that, this time overtime is confirmed.

No matter how much I or those who have memories, I can’t go in early and sleep even if I pick them quickly. All lines must fit together.

‘Of course there are people who will work more than me.’

This is the guy talking to me as I unpack my things in bed. In fact, the guy who leads the choreography practice in the debut group of this agency.

“Come on bro. I knew you would be here soon, really.”

“Oh thank you.”

Shin Jae-hyeon, warmly welcoming Ryu Kun-woo, who returned to the honors class for today’s shooting, extends his hand without turning his back to the camera.

‘As expected, I don’t miss the opportunity.’

I pulled out a cutscene while shaking hands with Cheong-ryeok, who had never unloaded her luggage in the bedroom of the honor class.

‘Is this guy going to keep going with this image?’

With a perfect leader position that has never fallen out of an honor class.

If there is that much consistency, it will become a narrative and the character will be solid.

“The class set by the program is just a random moment. Regardless of that, let’s work hard thinking that we are all debuting together.”

“yes… !”

I wonder how many times I’ve used that touching line.

I spent two days watching him roll to the limit pretending to take care of other trainees.

and on the day.

[Oh oh… ! A lot of people are already gathered?]

That’s natural, since it’s written as a guerrilla and announced 3 hours in advance.

It seems that as soon as it spread on the Internet, viewers ran to it.

‘Even if it wasn’t like that, there were quite a few tourists.’

Since it is Myeongdong, there were many foreigners interested in KPOP.

It was a time when there was still a trend of preferring to select paintings that foreigners cheered for. There must have been something aiming for it.

In any case, whether it’s been a while or the first time, the participants are a bit excited in front of the outdoor stage.

“Let’s shout our slogan once and go up.”

“Yes I am! Wise fighting!”

And it is to go up to the small stage where the violin concert of a certain university was held until just before.

Wow!

The shout of the raw. Unorganized peripheral reactions from cheering phrases to screams.

smell of sunlight.

The performance held outdoors after a long time had a different taste.

‘It feels like running an event.’

Of course, it’s a strange feeling that the set list is filled with all other people’s songs, not familiar songs.

And it seems I’m not the only one who felt that way.

Out of the backstage camera.

“I miss you a bit.”

Ryu Chung-woo, a 5-year-old idol who performed the theme song and filled a vacancy on the team stage at the same time, murmurs.

Cha Yoo-jin grumbled.

“I want to sing our song.”

Both of them are excellent at speaking without subjects in case they get caught in the microphone. I nodded slowly.

“Geonwoo hyung!”

“hmm?”

Kim Rae-bin, who was warming up next to me, whispered to me with a serious face.

Now that I think about it, he doesn’t even have any memories, so he might have given the impression that he was suspicious… .

“Could the theme song be suddenly removed from the setlist?”

“… ?”

“If the ‘our song’ that Yujin Cha refers to is a song for a common performance, it would be a theme song, but the expression ‘I want to’ presupposes that I can’t currently do it.”

“… … .”

“Then the conclusion that it was excluded from the set list… .”

I barely opened my mouth.

“It must mean you want to do it quickly. They do the theme song at the very end.”

“… ! okay! Thank you for your kind explanation.”

He’s a really unique guy. It’s a pity that the camera couldn’t catch that.

‘If I had a memory, I’m sure I would have been tormented by the pain of my conscience that it wasn’t fair by myself.’

Even if Kim Rae-bin comes out of the mate selection right away, I will have to wake him up after this program ends.

Even after that, the mini-concert continued to fill up 50 minutes.

The deathmatch stage with Jin Chae-yul, who was wearing a marine look, was also reproduced quite later.

Of course, it wasn’t a marine look, but he wore a baseball jumper appropriately, but in the end, it seems that the president, who compromised with the public’s evaluation, couldn’t take the song off the list and included it.

Indeed, it is a capitalist judgment worthy of the CEO of an entertainment company.

I think Chae-yul is a little excited, perhaps because he thinks he has simply been recognized.

“President Kim Tae-in must have recognized our true value after seeing our stage several times! You might like this stage as soon as you see it… .”

“that’s right!”

His giggling with Shin-Oh is the same as when he was very VTIC.

Every time this guy’s bright-headed side is revealed on air, fans seem to attach. Doesn’t it look wrinkled?

Even when it was VTIC, it seems that the data that captured this behavior well was expensive… Well, he’s definitely in demand anyway.

‘I’ll stick with it.’

After a brief conclusion, I waved at people and walked off the stage.

and at the end of the performance.

“thank you!”

Kyaaaaaagh! Aww!

After the performance of the theme song was finished, the number of people increased to the point where it became a hindrance to the passage. It is a crowd mentality where the crowd calls the crowd.

‘I think it’s fun to just cheer… .’

Geonwoo! oh wow handsome!

yes… thank you

Anyway, I reacted as soon as my name was called. No one feels bad when receiving praise.

After that, the camera won enough people's response.

Finally, a surprise event that was not notified to the participants in advance breaks out.

"We will bring the passionate viewers who came to today's guerrilla concert up on the podium~"

"Ouch!"

"Now?"

It is a surprise fan meeting.

'It seemed like this.'

Before I went up on the stage, I saw that they were sorting out a few people and sending them to the front.

"Hmmmm."

"welcome… . Just since."

I shook my head inwardly as I looked at the faces of the participants who were starting to get more excited and nervous.

'long time no see.'

Since I was hit with a plastic bottle during my debut showcase, I was afraid that I might have an accident, so I rarely did an instant lottery for an unspecified number of people.

Then two or three people come upstairs. And each of them goes towards the participant they are rooting for.

"Wow! oh my god!"

"You can come over here and say hi to me."

“Ahh!”

I walked up the stage and shook hands with a few people who came in front of me and gave me a light hug.

Most of them were trembling, not knowing whether they were excited or nervous. It must be a public place. This… There is no big difference from when I was Park Moon-dae.

So what’s the difference?

“Uhhhhhh, he’s so handsome… ”

“Thank you. … … I’ll take good care of it… ?”

“Ah so good… .”

The frequency of ‘handsome’ is overwhelmingly higher than ‘cute’.

and… They don’t even ask for a ball cock.

‘… Maybe it’s an instant lottery.’

Or is it because it’s a broadcast, not just idol fans? I don’t know, but it feels like I’m treating them more carefully.

In other words, less comfortable.

‘… But because Ryu Gun-woo doesn’t have a good impression.’

No, it’s not that I’m sorry.

In any case, the production team seemed to have chosen it appropriately, and there was no unfortunate incident where only one participant did not go.

People also went to Ryu Chung-woo, whose appearance was barely aired just before.

[This is… … It’s the kind of thing where you look back years later and think it was a really ridiculously lucky experience, isn’t it?]

Hey, you shouldn’t be here until a few years later.

[Ah.]

Whenever there was no one in front of me, I chatted with him and waited for the next batter.

“I will serve the last people~”

And when the three or four people who had been waiting the longest came on stage.

“… !!”

Among them, I immediately recognized the first person to step onto the stage.

That person… .

[uh? Hyung fans!]

Yes.

me so… He was a fan of Testa Park Moon-dae. How do you find out?

‘… Because it was the first cannon.’

At the < Azusa > production presentation, it was the first home run that strongly asked me to cock the ball.

We also met when I wore a dog mask and went to the billboard certification. It’s hard to forget this much, but I watched it steadily after that.

[Wow~ I can see it here too!]

… I know.

I gave my strength back to the posture that I almost loosened at the moment. And he kept his face.

‘He’s a madman when he finds out.’

be quiet let’s be quiet

[Because I’m glad to see you all! You only did it when it was the status window!]

This guy is making a fuss instead, so there’s no need for me to do it anymore.

And the fan came towards the contestants standing on the stage with quite brave steps and came right in front of me.

and passed by

“hello!”

… Towards Jin Chae-yul’s seat next to me.

“I am really, really rooting for you. Absolutely cute, cool and the best. Do whatever Chae-yul wants to do.”

“Ugh! thank you!”

“… … .”

I quietly corrected my standing posture.

Ryu Gun-woo’s guerrilla fan meeting ended like that.

* * *

Knew.

Ryu Gun-woo and Park Moon-dae have quite different impressions, and no matter how much they are mixed, there is a difference in appearance.

Is it only outside? There are also differences in public image.

‘Demand is bound to be different.’

So there is no law that people who like Park Moon-dae will necessarily like Ryu Kun-woo.

[brother… … .]

OK.

Coincidentally, after the guerrilla concert ended, there was a gap for a few hours of filming preparation before the performance content started.

just… Now that I have time, I organize my thoughts.

To be aware of reality.

‘This isn’t pure stupidity.’

This place is not reality, so why did you naturally believe that it would flow the same way?

And even if it is real, isn’t it up to you whether or not each individual will continue to support idols?

There is nothing more to think about.

… As an idol, Gunwoo Ryu is not Moondae Park. let’s not forget

[I think hyung is cool no matter what he looks like! Really!]

It’s because this guy is altruistic and has no greed to the point of seeming heartless.

Even if you know they're actually the same person, you might prefer one or the other. It's not a real interpersonal relationship, isn't it natural from the point of view of one-sided support?

[Not necessarily! There must be that feeling of being an idol that only hyung has, and even if your appearance changes, don't… … .]

"… … ."

I was reading the pop-up that I wrote down the words of consolation, and I suddenly had such a thought.

No matter how altruistic this guy is, this… Isn't that a bit excessive?

Especially considering this guy's position.

'you… Don't you hate the fact that I'm sitting in the same body you put on the civil service exam?'

[…] … .]

Even if you don't hate me, shouldn't you at least feel repulsive about this situation?

I used up both of my bodies while he was floating without a body.

The pop-up shakes.

[but… I'm really okay.]

I felt a strange sense of incongruity as I watched the pop-up pop up quietly one by one.

This wasn't trying to comfort me, it was really sincere.

And I myself felt uncomfortable with it.

[Is this strange? I do not know. I'm not a person anymore… … .]

‘You’re a person.’

I said cut right away.

‘What if someone who worries about others isn’t human?’

[Oh no, we… Because it’s not the rest ㅠㅠ Heuk heuk Thank you anyway… … .]

The pop-up returned to the usual atmosphere as if relieved, but in my head it became more complicated, although I did not express it.

‘The phenomenon of losing humanity has intensified… Is it a situation that can be sorted out?’

Maybe I’m the only one to talk to in this situation, but even with me, I don’t have much conversation about myself, so I don’t know if it’s accelerated.

‘… I need to talk properly.’

But damn, my head is complicated right now, so I don’t know what to do first.

‘It’s pitiful.’

I sat quietly in the hallway without cameras, lowered my head and closed my eyes. I intended to do so until my head understood the current situation.

how much time has passed like that

“I… Are you okay?”

A low voice was heard. Not a participant, but a step.

Some guy was lost in the hallway, so he must have talked to him just in case.

“yes.”

I nodded my head slightly, meaning that I will go in when I come to my senses.

I don’t think it looks bad, so I took the camera and came… No, if it’s the broadcasting station guys, they’ll stay like that.

And sure enough, I heard the sound of footsteps running lightly down the hallway, and soon came back.

Did you bring your camera?

“here.”

But the one that gets hit in the face… warm water vapor

Smoke rising from steam.

I opened my eyes.

“I like to drink a warm drink when I’m not feeling well or have no energy.”

I can see a hand holding a white paper cup from nowhere.

A black drink can be seen in a steaming paper cup.

“Of course, each person is different, but… Because the warm temperature is the same. Try some.”

I took it and drank it.

… It was hot chocolate.

I raised my head.

“how is it?”

black hair.

“Even people who don’t like sweet things say it’s okay at times like this. Would you like to try some more?”

Seon Ah-hyun, in her mid-twenties, was there.

Chapter 389

Episode 389

I already knew how Sun Ah-hyun lived here.

‘Because it’s coming out.’

article.

Interview magazine Witube… .

It is no different from the reality that you can see Sun Ah-hyun’s name through auto-completion even if you just enter ‘Seon’ in the search box.

But the keywords are different.

… Because Seon Ah-hyun here did not stop ballet.

[Seon Ah-hyun wins the Prix de Lausanne… The future of Korean ballet is bright]

[Is ballet also a K-syndrome? Seon Ah-hyun “Worked diligently”]

After starting with a prize in an international competition where only teenagers participate, she excelled in various competitions and joined an overseas ballet troupe.

Because he is such a good person, he became famous in Korea as soon as he got on the algorithm on WeTube, and after appearing on a talk show, he said that he shot several commercials.

So, I thought that I wouldn't be able to meet Ryu Gun-woo until he debuted.

The person in question suddenly jumped out and started talking.

Without stuttering, with a much more refined tone than the voice of a guy I know.

"Would you like me to serve you again with coffee?"

"… no."

It feels like being beaten in the head. X feet.

I poured the remaining drink into my mouth and murmured.

"thank you. You drank well."

So go for it.

"yes."

However, Seon Ah-hyun does not leave and sits quietly next to her.

'What are you doing?'

I reflexively checked him. She was wearing a black necktie like everyday wear and had her hair unset.

If you came to the set as an idol, you wouldn't bother.

"… … ."

I didn't even question why Sun Ah-hyun was in that state and not an idol.

Because I know for sure at what point in my life there is a difference between Sun Ah-hyun, who became an idol, and this guy.

[Sehwa Arts Middle School Graduation List]

‘I didn’t have Chae Seo-dam among my classmates.’

Shen Ah-hyeon did not meet Chae Seo-dam in Yezhong because they were of different ages.

So, after graduating without a hitch, he continued to major in ballet and walked the same path.

With no room for deviation.

-Factually… There was also a body shape problem to continue ballet.

This guy had previously said that he quit talking about things like feet and pelvis, but it seems that there was also a psychological cause.

Even if the physique condition has not changed, if you look at the fact that you are continuing ballet here and now.

‘… That’s why I didn’t bother to contact her.’

In fact, there is no way to meet other than filthy unnatural, and even if you do, what invitation will you make?

To a guy who has already achieved professional achievements in a completely different field at a similar age to reality.

… Wouldn’t it just be confusing if I tried to awaken it?

‘just… I was thinking of leaving it to live on its own and clearing it.’

I silently folded the paper cup and put it down.

Then, suddenly, a voice breaks in.

“I’m sorry if I interrupted you during your break.”

“It’s not like that.”

Let’s make an excuse.

“I was a bit surprised. In a place like this, Seon Ah-hyun suddenly… I didn’t expect to see you.”

I’m not an athlete, so I said it as if I was calling the national team, but I guess it doesn’t matter.

“Thank you for your concern.”

“ah… . yes.”

He smiled faintly and opened his mouth as if to say something, but his smartphone started ringing in his pocket.

drooling.

Then the guy’s complexion changed as if he was a little embarrassed.

“If you don’t mind, could you keep the fact that you met here a secret? I made a mistake.”

“sure.”

“thank you. Ah”

Seon Ah-hyun dared to retrieve the paper cup I had put on the floor, and quickly ran down the hallway while answering the ringing phone.

Even in the midst of that, it seems that the inside of the tree is still the same.

[Why is Seon Ah-hyun here… .]

I held back a sigh.

‘It’s obvious.’

We met in the middle of the hallway on the set of a program we were preparing for, and asked me to pretend I didn’t see you?

It means appearing on the program.

Not as an undisclosed consultant role like choreography advice, but as a real special appearance.

for example… okay. judges.

“The theme of this performance is ‘art’.”

Shooting started again.

On stage, the president is excitedly holding the microphone and speaking again.

‘Singers can perform special stages in various collaborations and commemorative stages. Therefore, a meaningful stage must be properly expressed,’ and this is the summary of the long explanation that begins.

– We’ve recruited a special performer related to our art! Must use!

‘That must include Seon Ah-hyun.’

And as expected, the president introduced them under the name of ‘special judges’ even before announcing the randomly formed team.

After starting with some kind of pop art master and ending with an orchestra conductor.

“This is ballerino Seon Ah-hyun.”

“wow!”

I don’t know if it’s okay to recruit a guy like that to compare in a male idol group making program, but the president seemed excited anyway.

Cha Yoo-jin hit me on the back.

“Did you see my brother?”

“okay.”

I have eyes, of course I saw them.

Fortunately, Cha Yoo-jin's level of fuss seems to be just a reaction for broadcasting. Anyway, the lineup was gorgeous to use for an in-house agency survival.

'Is it because the broadcast went well that more investment than before?'

The only one who knows

I looked back at Cheongryeo, but of course it is a calm and weak broadcasting face.

And when our eyes met, they grinned as if sending a signal to appreciate the special judges.

'Do you even take the reaction cut?'

He was really a bad guy in many ways.

'Of course, it can be read in other ways, too.'

I called up < Companion List > from the status window.

Now, if you look at this, you can get a rough idea of what he is thinking… .

[Shin Jae-hyeon: Filming hard (^-^)]

"… … ."

Can you elaborate more on this?

[Hyung privacy! We have to protect the privacy of our colleagues!]

Oh, yes.

I licked my lips and turned off the status window.

Separately, it was felt that Daedal was deliberately making a fuss with the pop-up. I must have said the damn thing of getting stuck in the hallway before filming.

‘I’m fine right now.’

okay. Shooting is something where time and space are set aside for work, so it was good to be able to exclude miscellaneous thoughts as much as possible.

The sense of work is dominant, so you can only roll your head in a goal-oriented way.

Thanks to that, my head is less noisy.

‘Useless thoughts are prohibited from now on.’

It’s just that I’m glad to see him after a long time, and my first home run… Well, it seems like living a fun life is okay.

Let’s end it like that.

I just waited for my team to be announced by the boss.

“The judges will also give you feedback as mentors, so we will form a team under each judge.”

Got it baby

And the participants are called one by one.

They were organized into a total of 4 groups with 3 members in 1 group, but there was nothing special except that Ryu Cheong-woo and Cheong-ryeo were in the same group.

until I am called.

“Ryu Gun-woo, Jeong Woo-dan and… Condensation rate.”

“… !”

“My mentor artist is Seon Ah-hyun, a ballerina.”

“… … .”

From Sun Ah-hyun to Jin Chae-yul.

‘I said it was okay because it was filming, and they raised the level of difficulty.’

This team fight is going to test my patience.

* * *

“Brother, we are finally on the same team!”

“I know. I’m counting on you.”

“yes! I will do my best!”

Jin Chae-yul seemed to be in very good condition. And he tells the reason why.

“We really… I think the boss changed his mind. It’s like the guerrilla stage and the fact that you made us perform together again!”

thoughts are free And what if your condition improved with that?

Of course, it’s not like the real president went beyond his taste and came to like the marine look stage.

I came to a conclusion after checking the team members and mentors once again.

‘I gave it like this on purpose to destroy the image of the marine look.’

Since I was paired with a ballerino, I wouldn’t be able to perform a stage with a light concept like that time, and I even put in a curtain to set the mood.

In other words, I think I'm thinking of covering up the image of me and Jin Chae-yul by picking something more impressive than the previous marine look stage.

'It's a big dream.'

If there is anyone in the world who sees the virtue of Cheongryeo, that bastard would be the best. What kind of CEO could an agency succeed with such useless stubbornness?

'anyway… Am I the leader again?'

Since the other two are VTIC members, it doesn't matter. Both would be yes-men.

Also, wouldn't it be nice to be a leader again and receive praise from the president once more?

"Then let's do our best."

"yes yes!"

"yes."

I naturally took up the practice sheet and proceeded with the planning.

First of all, the song selection is to choose among the artist songs of LeTi's agency, and collaborating… dancing.

… I guess so. Because my mentor is Sun Ah-hyun. Fortunately, the choreography and specific arrangements are handled by the agency experts and Seon Ah-hyun, and it seems that all we have to do is come up with the concept.

I politely opened my mouth.

"Is there a concept you want to do that matches the keyword 'art'?"

I didn’t expect an answer, but to my surprise, Chae-yul raised his hand with a very determined expression.

“Ah me… I’ve been thinking about your opinion… !”

“… !”

VTIC bastard… do you have an opinion?

Let’s listen.

“Speak comfortably.”

“yes! I… You know the concept hyung used when we did our last pictorial! That vampire concept.”

“… … Um yes.”

It’s a problem because my limbs shriveled to the point of being smashed.

I refrained from drool thinking about the pictorial on the Internet, which received a surprisingly good response.

“How about doing something like that? Vampires somehow feel elegant… Because dancing is also elegant… !”

“I sound fine.”

“… yes that’s fine.”

no, it wasn’t really good.

‘Why?’

I found the answer in a strange sense of deja vu.

Dance and vampires.

And a selection of LeTi artists.

‘ah.’

This… It overlaps so much with what we did in the first team match of < Azusa >.

-come to me

come to me The dazzling

Paradise by your side is the stage where Soft Sweet’s 〈To a New World〉 was arranged for fear.

‘Should I change the flow?’

But now, the two VTICs lead the conversation by arguing with each other.

Given the stipulated guidelines of ‘what to do’ and ‘what not to do’, these guys also started to open their mouths.

“Have you thought of a song?”

“I don’t know… Ah, should we find a song from our agency that goes well with the ballet?”

“Is this a song suitable for ballet? If that’s the case, you should first write down the songs that used dance in the choreography.”

“okay! bro, is this… How are you? Do you look okay?”

Hitting the chord here requires both precise timing and a solid rationale.

The problem is that you yourself know that you don’t need to be very dry from a rational point of view.

‘I don’t know.’

Everyone doesn’t know anyway.

Isn’t this the world where Park Moon-dae appeared in Azusa?

I know. Anyway, that stage doesn’t exist in this world. There is no problem with writing but… .

‘shut up.’

I don’t know what you’re whining about. There is an answer sheet, just write it.

Now that it’s too late and the silence can be seen as a careful consideration before the strange editing begins.

I opened my mouth.

“It seems like a good approach. I’ll look for the song too.”

“Yeah!!”

Jin Chae-yul’s face brightened.

He said, ‘This time, I thought I had to help. Didn’t hyung go through a hard time last time?’ After saying something like that, he excitedly browsed YouTube.

However, even if I searched all of LeTi’s songs, there was no song that borrowed dance for choreography as much as 〈To a New World〉.

It will. It’s a song that connects with a soft dance without strong phrases that would make it strange to call it ‘poisonous’.

“… … .”

But… this should be fine.

“I’ll find a song that seems to go well with the dance if it’s arranged. Then it might look like a new charm different from before, so I’m a candidate.”

“and… yes yes!”

I found four or five more songs to list and finished the selection process.

But after an hour.

Seon Ah-hyun came as a mentor and gave this advice.

“Since there is a difference in rhythm for each dance, I would like to recommend writing a song using an existing dance choreography for the final quality.”

“Oh then… With this song?”

Chae Yul carefully touched the song with her hand.

[Sweet and sweet – To a new world]

Sun Ah-hyun smiles and nods.

“yes.”

ah.

If so.

“How is Gern-wu?”

“okay.”

Let’s do it.

“I think it will be a great stage. I will tell you so that the choreography can come out well according to the tempo as much as possible.”

“yes!”

“thank you.”

The guy picked out the amount of kindly and detailed instructions on a few moves.

And before going back, when I was going through the camera data, Sun Ah-hyun suddenly approached me and started talking to me.

“I’m sorry I just pretended not to know. He told me not to talk to the contestants until the first shoot… .”

“no. We were filming, of course.”

I reflexively took out a reply from the front pocket of my sweatpants.

“Thank you for the hot chocolate. You drank well.”

“yes.”

Seon Ah-hyun, who received the glucose candy, did not move her feet even though she was in the mood to leave.

I don’t know why.

“excuse me… .”

Then a loud voice came from behind.

“Miss Ahyeon! Ahyeon?”

“… ! Oh, I am here.”

She must be an employee of Seon Ah-hyun’s agency.

I nodded.

“Then let’s go practice.”

“… yes. See you again.”

The guy walked after the employee.

“… … .”

I turned my steps and headed to the practice room. To practice Soft Sweet's song once again.

I had no idea.

And I saw Seon Ah-hyun again two days later on the midterm evaluation day.

Chapter 390

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 390

If all elements and keywords overlap, the stage will of course lead to similar results.

It might have been natural since Seon Ah-hyun took on the choreography and I even took over as the leader.

The performance this time is becoming more and more similar to the stage of the first team match of < Azusa >.

"You worked hard."

"Brother here!"

"thanks."

I wiped the sweat from my chin with a towel.

"Hyung, this kind of dance choreography seems to suit you well! It's really fast and the perfection is already amazing… ."

"Is that so? Lucky for you."

already know

I didn't have to learn anything about the revision of the choreography currently being practiced. because it's almost the same

And that's not all.

A similar phenomenon occurs in arrangement composition.

‘… I didn’t expect it to prove how good it was.’

It means that the expert chooses a similar option to me in the first team match at the time.

As we had to complete the ‘art’ collaboration within a week, more in-house experts were attached than before to ensure the quality of the stage.

And this is the feedback I received right before the midterm evaluation.

“I think it would be nice to save the bridge a little more… .”

“… yes.”

“Anyway, the other two friends did a lot of dance parts, so let’s deal with the requirement in the form of a collaboration. you solo.”

my solo.

I did the same with < Azusa >. In order to appeal to the vocal stats, I organized it in a high-pitched range.

In fact, words that are tantamount to a sentence that the composition of the arrangement is almost identical.

“how is it?”

“I am completely in favor… !”

But no one protests.

“… … .”

I relaxed my hand and opened my mouth.

“all right.”

However, the arranger taps his shoulder with a somewhat dissatisfied expression and then spat out words.

“Are you in pain somewhere? The young child has no malaria.”

“… !”

No way.

What seems to be lacking in survival is a landmine that can lead to controversy over attitude.

Voluntary tax payment is best.

I immediately raised my voice.

“no! I had some body aches… I’m sorry if my bad condition was exposed.”

“No, there is nothing to be sorry about… You should take good care of your body. Now, the debut is just around the corner. know?”

“yes.”

And on the contrary, the guys on both sides are bells and whistles.

“I’m sorry bro. I didn’t know you were sick… .”

“Drink some water.”

“no. What did I not say?”

I passed the situation by receiving water from Judan. The arranger asks again.

“Then the bridge goes like that? Gunwoo To emphasize vocals.”

“yes.”

Resistance is forbidden. From now on, I have to show myself on camera with a more dedicated image so there is no variable.

‘Is this right.’

But this useless refusal was the problem. The unpleasant feeling that your skills don’t come out right throughout practice.

‘Damn it.’

“Let’s rest well and come back tomorrow… .”

“If you work harder now, you will taste better at night.”

“… … yep.”

I finished practicing that afternoon, refraining from the crazy voices of the team members who were concerned about my physical condition, saying, ‘Let’s finish early and rest’.

I couldn’t help but sigh.

‘Am I insane?’

If the camera is running and your skills are at a level that depends on your mood, isn’t it right to beat them up?

Are you not doing it right? I’m going to pick a colleague, and I might have to awaken my stats with that reputation.

“Brother’s meal… ?”

“I’ll go after this. Eat first.”

After stretching for quite some time, I headed to the restaurant after finishing.

After washing and receiving midterm evaluations, I plan to come back at night to refine it. I felt like shit.

drooling.

Because it was not dinner time, there was no one in the restaurant. Except for one guy who uses it like a reading room.

“Hello brother. Sit here.”

it’s clean

I immediately checked the corner of the wall and the dining table. the guy laughs

“There are no cameras. Can we still talk?”

“… … .”

I put the appropriate amount of food on the tray and sat across from him. The guy who was checking the notebook with the choreography movement asked.

“You are not sick, are you?”

Since we share the practice room, I guess there are some things that came to my ears this way too.

“You know what to check.”

“hmm? No, I’ll check it.”

He closed the note and asked in a light tone.

“This is the first time I’ve written something in a different situation since I haven’t had a work that received a good response, right?”

“… … .”

“You seem to care a lot.”

how the hell did you do this

This word came up to my throat, but of course I didn’t do it. I must have done it because I couldn’t do it.

“Is that stage right? 〈Idol Co., Ltd.〉 The stage we did in the first team match.”

“okay.”

“The first stage is very exciting. I still remember.”

This guy’s first stage?

“Come to think of it… I did it in survival too. here.”

“… … .”

“We have quite a few interesting things in common. Yes?”

He stared into space for a moment and was silent, but then smiled.

“are you okay. Once you try this, you realize that it’s nothing. Are you saying this isn’t even real anyway? Rather futile.”

“… Things like that happen, too.”

I insincerely lowered the tong I had inserted into the food tray to the side.

Why am I talking to this guy?

“But the problem is that the feeling of rejection affects the physical condition.”

“Oops.”

He covered the note he was writing. and speak quietly

“Don’t practice more today and go to bed early. And eat well.”

“… … .”

“People’s ability to think is surprisingly governed by their physical condition. Do you have any plans to manage it?”

I nodded slowly. The guy shrugs.

“okay… If you think you can’t make it, did you think of an alternative?”

“Why are you doing that?”

chin!

I roughly put down the glass of water.

“There is an answer and I can do it.”

“I know.”

The boy smiled and rose from his seat. Then he pointed at my plate with his chin.

“Empty that and go to sleep.”

“… … .”

I nodded. the guy is out

“after.”

I feel like I’ve lost my appetite, which I never had before.

[You really have to eat rice… .]

Wouldn’t it be better to just shove glucose or something in your mouth rather than try out the possibility of eating and ingesting it?

[Can’t that be!?]

I laughed at the frightened pop-up. I was a little organized about what to do in the future, but my condition was more subdued.

‘Once you do it, you’ll be fine… la.’

The problem is that the expectation is also unpleasant. Damn.

After a few minutes, I put all the food on the plate on top. It wasn’t a very pleasant feeling.

And by the time I got up after cleaning the table.

drooling.

I hear the restaurant door open. I didn’t bother looking, but I heard a sound.

voice is.

“ah.”

“… !”

I turned my head.

The guy I saw two days ago is standing there.

Sun Ah-hyun with black hair.

“hello. Nice to meet you again.”

“… … .”

I lowered my head and then raised it. But he waved his hand.

“It’s okay if you don’t do that… ! I want you to be comfortable talking to me.”

“You appeared as a mentor, but you can’t.”

“But I’m not filming right now.”

He smiled faintly, carefully closed the restaurant door, and entered.

Why?

“I came here after wandering around thanks to the good traffic conditions and arriving early.”

I see

“Can I sit here too?”

I bet you don’t think there will be participants who will say no to the mentor.

“yes.”

“thank you… !”

I don’t know what to be grateful for. It was difficult to even get up. I looked at the plate I had eaten and was worried.

Then a soft voice is heard.

“I ate the candy you gave me. It’s because I sometimes eat candy. Well, to replenish stamina during intermission.”

“yes.”

okay. I remember spitting it out when it was time to eat in the middle of the concert.

Here… It’s about the ballet performance intermission.

Intermissions have a break time, so there was no need to spit in the middle.

“… … .”

“… … .”

The conversation ends with a single answer, and silence continues. Even so, this guy opens his mouth again, as if he has no intention of stopping.

“Actually, when I saw it from the hallway… I was familiar with it, so I wondered if it was someone I knew.”

what?

“But when I got closer, it didn’t seem like I was in a situation to ask such a question. You look in pain.”

“Pain.”

Sun Ah-hyun flinched slightly, but nodded.

“yes. You look in pain. Even now.”

“… … .”

very… It seems that this guy and that guy went around in a state of shit so that everyone could read it.

‘On the camera?’

No, I made an excuse that I was in a bad condition, so it should be fine. I didn’t skip practice and rolled properly, and I’ve never spoken abusively to anyone, so that’s about it… .

“You have no obligation to confide in me, but… Still, I hope you find someone to talk to. This is my counselor’s number… .”

“it’s okay.”

Stop it.

“… yes. sorry. I was too presumptuous.”

Seon Ah-hyun’s face blurs. I held back a sigh. And as I was about to exhale, I blurted out an answer without even realizing it.

“It’s not over-the-top.”

“yes.”

“just… I already made a stage with the same concept for the same song.”

“… This stage?”

“yes.”

I lowered my gaze.

“… It’s the first stage I did with close people I can’t see now, so I’m not reluctant to appear on the air first with what I’m doing now.”

That’s why I want to be sane even if I say it.

Sun Ah-hyun’s face blurred. Did you see a similar idea?

“then… It’s so hard, why didn’t you tell me?”

Why?

“Because the result will be better that way.”

“… !”

“The stage was well received. I’m not stupid enough not to use something that has been proven.”

This reaction could be misunderstood as the end-of-month evaluation of other agencies. It doesn’t matter anyway.

“… … .”

Seon Ah-hyun looked at the table for a while and said nothing.

However, he spoke in a firm voice.

“Good results are not always the answer. A choice that doesn’t hurt your heart is also the answer.”

“… !”

It was an unprofessional comment. However, Seon Ah-hyun was not soft.

“Victory is not achieved only when you fight against your unwillingness and win head-on.”

He hesitated, then added in a muffled voice.

“I am… It was also painful because I lived with too much disregard for my heart.”

“… … .”

“And Geon-woo can definitely show a good stage even if he changes his route. Because there is no correct answer to the stage and interpretation.”

and smoothed it out.

“therefore. It’s okay if you don’t insist on suffering with the mindset that you must overcome it. Alternatives can also be the correct answer.”

I couldn’t find the answer.

I will not deny that the content was shocking and momentarily captivating.

But one more.

‘… I thought they lived well without any difficulties.’

Refined speech without stuttering, active communication in unfamiliar situations, and success close to achievement.

He is the one who already has all the things Seon Ah-hyun was trying to get back in the original world.

Doesn’t anyone look at this guy who lives well?

But why is this guy talking like that… No, are you talking about the heartbeat to someone you've never met?

please… … .

[Hyung?]

'Ah.'

The silence was too long.

I barely answered.

"… thank you I will refer to it."

It was not an answer that he would do so, but Seon Ah-hyun nodded quite happily.

"no. You must have been surprised when a stranger suddenly said this, but thank you for accepting me like an adult."

"no. I am… Your advice has comforted me."

"I'm glad then."

The atmosphere barely warmed up. It was just fortunate that the camera wasn't rolling.

Seon Ah-hyun invited me with a slightly brighter face.

"and… The age difference between us isn't that great either. You can call me comfortably."

"Then, start talking with your mentor."

"Oh um… If you put it first."

The guy laughed awkwardly. I thought so.

And before I could say anything more here, the guy's staff called me like last time.

"Shouldn't you go?"

"ah. yes."

Then the guy got up.

"Even if the song changes, don't worry, I'll say it was something I discussed."

And after saying these absurd things, he left the restaurant.

Still, it's a bit comforting because it's what a mentor said.

'You don't have to… la.'

[brother… I think Ahyeon is right. If you don't like it, can't you do it??]

That's different from shock. You should do it if you need to.

Deed deed!

The pop-up trembles like a boo.

'stop.'

don't change that

Then, this time, it diminishes like a full dead.

[TT… Then you think of it as just a cover stage collaboration? No, it's not like we're doing Azusa, who came out, one more time! Think of it as being with a junior!]

It sounds like nonsense, but it was a surprisingly persuasive remark.

Yes, it is definitely a different time and a completely different program. I'd rather be aware that the two are separate situations… .

"… !"

for a moment.

[Brother?]

Yes.

'You're right.'

[Yes?]

I was mistaken.

< Azusa > and < Wise > are not the same program. Not only are the years different, but the methods of progress and appeal to the audience are also different.

'In other words, the evaluation criteria are different.'

Besides, aren't the number of members together and the theme and composition of the performance different?

Just because it was the perfect answer in the first team match of < Azusa >, there is no guarantee that it will be the same here.

And taking that difference into account and recalculating the situation… Azusa's first team fight isn't the perfect answer here.

'ah… Stupid bastard.'

Do you realize this now

[I… Then?]

I came to a clear conclusion.

‘… I think I need to make some changes.’

[Ohhh!]

I smiled and returned the tray.

The place where everything was cleaned was clean.

And before entering the midterm evaluation, the team gathered in the living room.

“Oh brother!”

“You said you were washing.”

“I have something to tell you.”

I said without hesitation.

“I wondered why it was so awkward, but there was one factor we hadn’t considered.”

“yes?”

“mentor.”

okay.

This time, the mentor not only participated in and advised on stage composition, but also briefly participated in the stage.

Like drawing a pop art in the intro, exiting, tearing up the picture and appearing, or having an orchestra play live accompaniment.

“Our mentor is a ballerina.”

“that… Right?”

“We need to make sure he doesn’t eat us.”

There is no camera in the living room yet. I said without hesitation.

“So you can’t do the same choreography. The correct answer is that the two of them create synergy with a different feeling and the stage becomes newer.”

“oh… … .”

They look at each other once, and Chae-yul speaks first.

“then… Are you making amends?”

“There are some elements to delete and add.”

I kept my mouth shut for a moment, then quietly opened my mouth.

“Of course, to do this, it seems that it will be a bit of a forced march until the end… .”

The guy’s face brightened.

“are you okay. great!”

“Let’s try. what.”

Indeed, it is VTIC. I can’t be this happy that the yes men are not going anywhere.

“good.”

I opened the notebook I was carrying.

And after the mid-term evaluation, which was filled with embarrassment and anticipation worries at the sound of ‘I will change it halfway’… .

A few days later.

The day of the performance has come.

Chapter 391

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 391 The day LeTi Survival implements an ambitious performance stage with the theme of 'art'.

stage backstage.

"Shall we shout our slogan and go?"

"yes!"

Liu Qingyu also held out a hand, following the team member who gave a big answer and stretched out his hand.

"Let's do well with the D team that is good at everything!"

It was contestant Shin Jae-hyeon who smiled and asked for a slogan. as far as he knows.

Although he is the leader of VTIC, he was also the one who fell into this strange situation.

'I didn't know we'd be performing together like this.'

It was unexpected for Ryu Cheng-wu. It's like the situation itself, where you go back to the past and go to college with Ryu Kun-woo in the first place.

'It's like a fancy fantasy.'

I never dreamed that I would face such a surreal situation. But I was just accepting it like some kind of other life experience.

The preparation for the stage with this VTIC leader was extremely smooth.

‘greatly… Everything is put to good use in the right place.’

From contestants to trainers.

It was astonishing. The process of putting together the pictures that were already in my head one by one was so solid that it gave me goosebumps.

It was a bit mechanical, but… It seemed that a leader who was more capable in commanding the stage than himself was right.

‘I’ll have to train my skills more.’

Ryu Cheng-wu decided to do so instead of smiling bitterly at the victory.

“Now you can wait.”

“yes!”

The manned camera that filmed the slogan disappears in search of the next batter, and only the installed camera remains on the backstage.

Since their stage was the last, Ryu Cheng-wu watched the stage from the waiting room below.

‘Everything was good.’

Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin were ripped apart and went into different groups one by one, each showing great contributions.

-Yeah!

He recalled Cha Yoo-jin, who was the center of the action paint performance, and Kim Rae-bin, who led the arrangement almost alone while talking excitedly with the orchestra conductor.

‘Especially, Lavin is really amazing.’

The growth was palpable.

I felt like that even when I had no memory, even during Azusa, but I felt like I was a genius.

“hmm.”

And right before them, the third stage was now scheduled to unfold in front of their eyes.

The stage of Moondae Park and VTIC members.

It was a combination that would have made people faint in real life, but that wasn’t the problem now.

‘… It’ll be fine.’

As soon as he saw the team’s first choreography in the practice room, he remembered what Cha Yoo-jin whispered.

-That’s the stage! ‘October 31’!

The stage of the first team of < Azusa > was so impressive that Cha Yu-jin even remembered the team name.

‘I was smashed without mercy.’

If they were lucky enough to be matched against Ryu Chung-woo’s team, they could have been on the same team, but the team split with the click of a button.

‘I pretended not to be at the time, but in reality it was quite disappointing.’

Liu Cheng-wu almost smiled faintly as he recalled the memory of that time, which now felt like a memory, but stopped.

It’s because I remembered Park Moon-dae’s condition while practicing this stage, which is exactly like that stage.

To put it bluntly, it looked completely dead.

-are you okay?

-okay. are you okay.

-Are you sick?? where does it hurt?

-no. not sick

There was no color at all.

Even though it was a different team, he and other testa members snooped on him a few times.

However, since everyone (except for Kim Rae-bin) guessed the reason, it was difficult to say anything.

Because I can’t just say ‘don’t do it’ about a stage that is not my own.

This is especially true for those who promise to ‘get on the target and get out of here’ while appearing on a survival program.

‘Still, if it had been like that for a few more days, I’d have talked more somehow.’

The situation changed a bit after the midterm evaluation.

Park Moon-dae changed the stage composition.

– There will be no time… .

– Still, we think it’s worth the challenge.

Saying that, the light returned to Park Moon-dae’s eyes, and it seemed that he had regained his usual firmness.

It didn’t shake.

Cha Yu-jin neatly organized her position.

-I think about Moondae hyung too much. I need to practice less this time. we’re watching

Cha Yujin was one of the youngest members, but unexpectedly, she was also a member who knew how to stab the core.

So, Ryu Chung-wu decided not to interfere with Park Mun-dae this time.

And the result was to be unfolded on that stage now.

He intended to take a closer look at the stage where the entire set was installed, slightly removing his upper body, but… .

“Hyung is always good on stage.”

“… ! yes. Yes.”

The VTIC leader spoke to me from the side.

The opponent, who was younger than him now, but couldn’t stop talking, was looking at the stage with quite pleasant eyes.

“You prepared this.”

“… … .”

Liu Qingyu turned his head.

The stage that started was projecting a snowy birch forest.

-… … .

A bell rings and a yellow moon rises on the slowly darkened stage.

and a ringing female chorus.

-Ah- ha ha Ah- ha ha

Beautiful minor harmony.

And in line with that disturbing chord, a human figure is revealed through the trees.

Three lofty silhouettes wearing black hoodies.

Between them, the limbs come out. A short and intense intro performance with overlapping white arms covered in linen.

-Woo! oooo oo oo

And to the tune of the final chorus, the three stand tall again. Hoods that are turned over in turn while matching formation.

Vocals in harmony with the exposed white face echo the stage like a stream of water.

-It’s cold outside come here come in!

Let’s drink with us tonight

“… !”

It was Carol.

The English title of last year’s LeTi agency’s joint winter special album.

The retro carol that reminds me of the 19th century did not achieve great results in public, but it also created a cult-like mania group on the Internet.

The classical and warm melody met with an exaggerated orchestral accompaniment and turned into an elegant and secret feeling.

The reason it’s possible… .

‘The accompaniment is < To a New World >.’

Yes.

There was no restriction that only one song should be selected.

Moondae Park borrowed the accompaniment of the original song instead of completely distorting and arranging ‘To a New World’ as in 〈Azusa〉.

The dark melody, which has been changed to a minor key, meets the melody of an elegant orchestra representing a flower fairy to liven up the atmosphere.

And the song changes to a rhythm suitable for dancing.

-The

sound of a bell outside the window tonight

Ding-dong Ding-dong

Verse of the first verse like a ballad.

The two members perform a performance where they hold Chae-yul’s waist and lift her while lying on her back. Big action that catches the eye.

Ryu Kun-woo’s low-pitched chords, which supported Chae-yul’s vocals, are round and solid like water droplets.

-Ding-dong Ding-dong

The first verse that starts like that mixes storytelling with idol-like choreography.

The contestants did not laugh for the atmosphere, as if they were playing vampires, but they did a great job with all other facial expressions and gestures.

Instead of shouting ‘I’m a vampire’ with fangs or blood makeup, it’s an indirect way to make people infer it through costume style and choreography gestures.

The hooded robe flutters like a cape, revealing a gorgeous chained outfit inside.

-Beautiful sound of winter

Ding-dong Ding-dong

The voice of winter

The red lining inside the robe ripples.

After the choreography of the pre-chorus, in which both hands grab one’s neck and turn the upper body, the group dance with dynamics is exquisitely unfolded, until the chorus.

The dark and dense orchestra becomes grand again as it passes through the chorus.

-Tonight!

In the middle of winter

Lal lalalalala!

The moment the first verse ends with three people distributing their movements in all directions with impressive poses that tilt their bodies. On top of the faded semicircle.

A piano melody slides into the center of the empty stage.

-♬♩ ♪♪♩ – ♬♬♪- ♩

And the beginning is… This is the verse melody of 〈To a New World〉.

Here a new character appears on the stage.

A white hand appears from behind a tree to the music.

And soon, his arms are stretched out and his whole body is revealed on the stage.

-♩♫

Mentor is a dark-haired ballerino wearing a silhouette-revealing white costume.

light turns. And with him.

The action of jumping in the air is moderately controlled, and it balances the background like a doll in a snowball.

And a voice like a music box.

-Can’t you feel me.

From the left side of the stage, In-young again wearing a hood turns around.

“… !”

Gunwoo Ryu.

He held the head microphone with both hands and sang the lyrics softly and quietly.

-Your warm touch lifts me up. It’s beautiful. The lights in the spring garden become warm with a beige light, and the winter mood disappears for a while.

The movement of a perfect ballerino that looks beautiful with power continues.

Arabesque.

-Umuum Umuum… .

But it’s a moment.

The moment the orchestra rushes into the song again at the end of the bridge bar.

The ballerino leaves the stage as if running away.

And in an instant, the three figures snatched it up again.

Performers in flashy outfits rushing in throwing hoodies.

The cold light fills the stage as if it explodes again.

-Woo! oooo oo oo

And the choreography of the chorus begins again. However, this time, a new movement was mixed in the movement.

Turns and jumps like the ballerino did right before.

Just cleverly constructed.

‘It feels different.’

It seems to imitate it, but it is a dance-pop movement in a genre that is distinctly different from ballet.

So that you can feel the quality of the stage as one without comparing the quality directly.

-In the snowy garden

in a teacup in a sugar bowl

The stimulating group dance and close-up gestures of idols fill the scene.

And a powerful ending.

-The bell rings

ring ri-ring

ring-ring-ring

The end of a static composition that flexibly turns the head in a different direction.

All the notes come together with the high-pitched ad-lib vocals mixed with the tear-jerking arrangements.

And finally, the figures looking at the front with a smile raise their arms.

-The winter is… in!!

the music is over

And on the stage where all action has stopped.

Wow!!!

Applause and cheers pour in without any hesitation. Even screaming cheers.

good job!

Figures in robes adjust their postures, nodded, and smiled.

A dizzying, violent and dark stage.

It was a bit difficult, as if on purpose.

If it was a different stage, there would have been a risk of being criticized for being too experimental by ignoring the popularity.

However, for this keyword, ‘art’ audiences and judges will expect something different.

“hmm.”

Liu Qingyu turned his head slightly and looked directly in front of the audience.

Sure enough, the president twitching the corners of his mouth and slightly raising his thumb is glimpsed here as well.

like it was very good.

‘and.’

It’s fun!

Ryu Cheng-wu smiled and applauded loudly in the end, even though he knew that it was his turn next.

* * *

The stage is over.

“Hoo-wook.”

I took off the hood and held it in my hand.

It was fucking cool.

‘what.’

The feeling of liberation is incredible. Anyone who sees it will know that it has already hit the target.

I folded the hood and sent it to the staff.

‘Passed it.’

I can tell without even looking at the score. It worked. The head, which had been sloppy and sloppy as if it had fallen into a swamp, turned tight like a lie.

‘It’s direct.’

As long as the stage adrenaline works, there is nothing like it.

I brushed my forehead.

“brother!”

At that moment, a guy who took off his paint-stained costume runs up and crosses his arm.

Yoojin Cha.

“Your brother is great. It’s so cool!”

“100 million.”

no wait… Put your arms around this bastard’s neck and give him strength?

This football-playing lunatic is trying to rip my head off. I managed to mend my neck, which was about to break, and managed to get out.

Then a quiet voice was heard.

“Brother, I will tell you in advance.”

what.

“You can use the stage you did with me as you like. Never mind!”

“… !”

And he points at his head and chest alternately with the arm that almost broke my neck earlier.

“Our stage is here. And it’s in reality. Even if you use it in the multiverse, it will not disappear!”

“… … .”

“We cannot forget that. OK?”

If I had heard this a few days ago, I would have understood it with the words ‘So do it right’ and would have clenched my teeth and hammered my head into the wall.

But when I listened to it after clearing my head after it was over… There’s no sound like this.

‘Was it me who was buried?’

I never thought I’d be the first to get a taste of this bizarre situation. I laughed and tapped him on the shoulder.

“okay.”

“That’s it!”

The guy grinned.

“And I use it as I like. Get ready to watch!”

“Oh yes.”

I even changed my clothes as I watched him being taken away for an interview.

And after a while, the guy who came down from his stage started talking to me as soon as he arrived in the waiting room.

Ryu Chung-woo.

Chapter 392

Episode 392,

Ryu Chung-woo, who was walking past the microphone, sat down next to the sofa in the waiting room and started talking.

“I saw a good stage.”

“yes.”

And after a while, I ask briefly.

“Are you okay?”

I chuckled. Also this guy noticed.

“uh. It’s fine.”

Looking back now with my more rational head, it was funny. To think that overwriting the first stage is such a shame.

‘Even though I thought it was a bit awkward, I could have just used it roughly because I was going to escape anyway.’

[No! It was a shocking enough situation!]

Is that so?

Let’s be honest.

I’m not the kind of person who gets hit by small emotional fights. But now I know why I was acting so stupid.

[what… .]

Simple.

‘It was sad.’

Starting with the first home run, and continuing with proof shots like ‘You are no longer a Testa Park Mundae’, my mentality was irrationally destroyed.

that much… It must mean that I have attached myself to that reality.

… No, not ‘some’, but ‘a lot’.

I crossed my arms.

‘… It’s my first time.’

[Yes?]

And I admitted it.

‘It’s the first time I’ve ever had a bad condition like this.’

[Ugh!]

I didn’t expect to feel helpless even though no one died, and it wasn’t that the landlord was fraudulent and couldn’t get the deposit.

I opened my mouth and added.

“There won’t be anything like this in the future.”

It was the first time, so the response was insufficient. there is no such thing in the future Because I know how to control it.

[Ohh~ What kind of method?]

Why is this guy writing so loudly?

I calmly declared.

There is no other solution right away, but there is something emotionally unwilling to do?

‘Then I don’t have to think about it anymore.’

[Ah.]

‘Don’t think about it, just do it if you have to, and if you feel bad enough that you can’t be efficient, hit me up.’

this is the fastest

I can’t believe I didn’t practice this simple truth. I nodded inwardly.

[Hyung, that’s… that’s a really healthy way, right? I think] It’s my opinion, so I do it my way. okay?

[yes… .]

The popup shook. And Liu Cheng-wu’s answer was heard at the same time.

“You really could, but it’s okay to confide when things are complicated.”

When he turned his head, Liu Cheng-wu made a small hand gesture.

… It’s the Testa logo.

“Because we can understand each other. got it?”

“… … .”

[Did you hear it?]

I nodded. Liu Cheng-wu just laughed without saying anything else.

I didn’t feel bad.

After that, we went up to the empty stage where the audience had returned and took the finale cut for this shoot.

Judging from the faces of the presidents, it seemed that everyone liked this performance.

In addition, the participants were also a little excited, and the filming ended in a rare atmosphere.

“Geonwoo hyung! I heard you got sick!”

And I got ready to return home with Grandma’s Sujeonggwa, which Rabin Kim said was ‘good for body aches’.

“… ??”

By the way, I thought I had taken care of this guy so I was going to refuse it, but when I refused, I came up with a list of various misunderstandings that this guy would do.

– The shape is shabby!

-Because I do not eat food made by others!

-Because it’s late in the filming, I think it’s past the deadline for eating the sujeonggwa!

… I clearly agreed. To have no problems with that old lady, I’ll have to invite her to eat before the next shoot.

That’s why it is said that even this water bottle is put in the bag when packing.

You can hear the excitement of the guys who share the waiting room around you.

“Hey, aren’t we all debuting together like this?”

“Ah, there are a lot… I guess that would be better than dropping out.”

“Oh, he is a guy who knows how to make some profit.”

By the way, since Cheongryeo is a lost child, there is nothing to go with.

‘What did you do in the next year?’

I looked at the two guys who looked fine so far, then packed my things and went out into the hallway. The others will be waiting in the lobby.

And this time was the moment I was about to leave the set.

The voice I heard from across the hallway echoed.

“Ahyeon-ssi, please wait a moment!”

“yes.”

… Seon Ah-hyun and an employee.

The sound of an employee running somewhere is heard, and Seon Ah-hyun turns around the corner and comes out.

‘hmm.’

And the moment our eyes met, he walked right away.

“I was going to say hello, but this is how I see you!”

“Ah yes.”

First of all, I bowed my head like a participant who met a mentor who finished the performance well.

For reference, I thought this guy would spread the score to the performance of other teams, but thanks to his cool-headedness, he was able to keep the top class smoothly.

As a mentor, he was the best.

“thank you. Thanks to that, I finished the stage well.”

“no! Thanks to you, I had a really fun performance.”

Seon Ah-hyun waved her hand and blushed.

“I rarely have a chance to perform on stage using songs like this… It was fresh. thank you.”

“… … .”

Now, stop thinking, say hello, and part ways. Let’s go like that.

However, Seon Ah-hyun speaks again.

“and… I really wanted to say this, but I liked the revised draft better than before.”

“… … .”

“I think you found a better answer. and.”

Seon Ah-hyun softly and carefully added the following words.

“Introduction of the teacher who consults… I’m fine now.”

ah.

I’ll have to ask you about this.

Why the hell is he seeing a counselor here?

“May I ask how you met the counselor?”

This is enough to feel moderately interesting and reliability verification.

I even planned ahead to withdraw the question if he hesitated.

However, Seon Ah-hyun answered like this.

“He was listed in my agency contract.”

hmm?

“Anyway, arts and sports are always a battle against oneself. Counseling is also included in the basic curriculum.”

“… … ah.”

therefore… It was the welfare of the artist.

‘Then, what context did the statement that he was also in pain come from?’

I checked him to see if he was lying. He was a guy who showed off to a level that he couldn’t do in real life, but he could hide it quite well here.

but there is no sign

And Seon Ah-hyun added a comment, as if she thought I was in trouble.

“As a performer, you have to adjust your mental condition as well as your body.”

“Um yes.”

“So, if you want, I will contact you in advance. that… You can probably get 5 episodes for free.”

“… … .”

It was only when I got there that I realized when I saw Seon Ah-hyun’s smiling face.

this.… I see.

‘I meant to say something like pain.’

By lowering the hurdles by forming a consensus, it is said that the depressed guy will say something difficult and become comfortable.

‘To not notice this.’

I looked at the guy with a little bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of.

Wait a minute then… Doesn’t this just mean that he’s in an extremely healthy state?

It means that you are building your career while receiving as much care as possible.

[that… Is that so?]

Yes.

I have enough room to talk to and show favors to strangers who look complicated.

The tension melts away.

‘I am.’

“… it’s okay. In fact, there was someone who was recommended in advance by a friend.”

“ah… okay.”

I just overestimated for no reason. My condition was not good, so it seems that the accident rolled over there. I clicked my tongue and withdrew all my guesses.

Seon Ah-hyun asked again with a smile on her face.

“then… Shall we exchange our regards from time to time?”

“Good.”

I put the number on his smartphone without any problem. Isn’t it funny to refuse here? It’s not like throwing a glove in the face.

‘If I leave for ballet anyway, I won’t be able to see you here again.’

Wouldn’t it be nice to go back to reality? … I honestly don’t know if this guy who lives here will welcome it.

‘I don’t think about this until after coming out of the lottery.’

If you can’t even pull it out, it’s kimchi soup. I immediately stopped thinking.

‘It means to control it this way.’

That’s good.

I shook hands with him out of habit, as I did with people in the industry with whom I exchanged contact information. He nodded.

“Then I’ll just go in. Good luck with your mentor.”

“I’m not a mentor anymore, so it’s okay to call me really comfortably.”

tenacious guy. I didn’t know that I had to call you by this title.

“… Well then, come on in.”

Sun Ah-hyun smiles brightly and nods her head.

“yes. … If you have any concerns, feel free to contact me at any time.”

“You’re too generous with someone you just became an acquaintance of.”

Seon Ah-hyun’s face became blank, then she smiled a little.

“I just want to.”

Yeah, it's still a hogu, but nothing has changed.

That's how I got a contact with ballerino Seon Ah-hyun that I can communicate with without having to select a colleague.

[Seon Ah-hyun hyung]

… Although the save name was like this.

[Oh brother! Lobby!]

"Ah."

yes.

After breaking up with Seon Ah-hyun, I came out to the lobby right away.

And before I could even go to the front door, I was caught once again.

"Geonwoo hyung! Do you want to go in?"

Two people who were teammates in this team match.

It is the cast and the fill rate.

"okay. I'm going in."

I was tired from talking to so many guys today. However, I couldn't treat the guys with whom I just performed, so I stopped.

'I'm going to talk about the stage.'

Then, the two of them bowed their heads.

And Jin Chae-yul says:

"Thank you for leading us well every time even though you are not feeling well! Next time, I will become a more trustworthy team member."

Joo Dan adds:

“More when you debut.”

“That’s right, more when we debut!”

“… … .”

I’m sure you weren’t very happy with my condition, but on the contrary, do you say thank you?

In addition, the composition I requested while editing was so important that it was difficult for those who had already debuted.

It would have been difficult for those whose stats hadn’t fully improved yet to follow them, but they kept their mouths shut and followed hard.

‘… They have good guts.’

I opened my mouth.

“… A lot of trouble. I will take good care of myself and come back healthy from now on.”

“… ! yes!”

I’ll admit it. They were good people to work with.

I looked at Jin Chae-yul, who was laughing like his cheeks would explode.

Maybe this stage will be watched because of him, but… Well, wouldn’t it be better to like someone on my team?

Rather than not seeing my stage at all.

“The stage was really good. it was fun thanks thank you.”

“haha… .”

“me too.”

Even though I didn’t have to consciously stop my thoughts, my mind was surprisingly comfortable.

“I hope our stage will be broadcast soon! Oh, shall we see it together?”

“No, that’s a bit.”

“ah… I’m sorry.”

“It’s not like that, it airs after we start filming.”

“Huh.”

I just laughed and passed it on. Anyway, I have to debut with these guys right now, but… It didn’t seem like it would be that hard to live.

And when I finally started returning home, < Wise > had already been completely aired outside, including the Guerrilla Concert episode.

‘I’ll have to check public opinion.’

In the meantime, it was essential to check as much as I had distanced myself from my smartphone. I immediately went online.

And I was bewildered.

– Brother Ryu, are you crazy? Brother Ryu Are you crazy? Brother Ryu Are you crazy? Brother Ryu Are you crazy? Brother Ryu Are you crazy? Brother Ryu Are you crazy? Brother Ryu Are you crazy? Brother Ryu Are you crazy?

-I found the perfect combination. When I included Ryu, Gun-woo, Cheong-woo-dan, and Jung-woo-dan, faces turned around.

-Wolf Ryu Cheong-woo Husky Ryu Gun-woo Arctic fox Chae-yul… We decided to call this the Rat Spectrum

– Thank you for being an idol really… i love you

“… … .”

I thought you would be swearing at the peak for a long time because of the club mebo.

Even all the participants had accounts with their faces as their profile pictures.

All of the viewers, regardless of you, are trying to put up a placard for Ryu Cheng-wu.

‘what.’

I immediately hit the search engine.

Chapter 393

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 393

The reactions of the aired episodes are piled up on the Internet. Let’s sort them in chronological order.

First of all, it starts with episode 7, but before that, let’s look at basic public opinion.

The ecology after episode 6, when the sexy keyword concept stage was completed by Cheongryeo picking up Ryu Kun-woo, an outsider, was aired.

-This is the essence of Letty.

-This is the first time in my life that I’ve been envious of the stage floor…

-If I just debut like this, I’ll take my savings. Why are you doing survival? Let them all debut ㅕㅕ

– The most surprising thing is that there are two new trainees from the Bojung class on this stage. [More]

To be honest, I thought there would be more peripheral reactions because I used keywords like sexy, but at this point, comments about the stage analysis occupied the top ranks.

‘That means there are a lot of people who come back and keep watching.’

And it means that there are many people who give narratives. It also means that the image of the group is gradually being formed.

‘Cha Yu-jin is also completely accepted.’

Even Cha Yoo-jin, who was heterogeneous, completely accepted Letty Sack, creating synergy and influx into the stage itself.

Yes, viewers were already predicting the debut member lineup around this time.

-Kim Tae-in pick debut group of 9 people I expected (photo)

-The key is who will be added. Will the public notice whether the president will stick with his stubbornness ?

A state in which there are many people following the outline of the group. The announcement of the appearance of the public support supplementary group at the end of episode 6 was to the point where the aggro didn't work very well.

It was just a flow that everyone thought of as passing obstacles and focused on the existing participants.

By the way, episode 7.

Ryu Cheng-wu appeared.

– Huh

– That's a spoiler.

– Are you a relative of crazy Gunwoo? what did you all know? am i the only one who doesn't know?

At first, everyone was frightened and very excited by the unexpected new face of a heavyweight in another field.

… I think my reaction also played a part.

[From now on, let's see the reaction of the person in charge when a relative who was living alone suddenly appeared as a participant on the filming set.]

A cut of my interview appears above the subtitles in red letters.

[Ryu Gun-woo: … So.]

[Ryu Gun-woo: (Cannot speak)]

[It took a day for Gun-wu to regain his fluent speaking skills.]

‘Damn it.’

I knew it would be like this, broadcasters… The exquisite close-up of the stupid-looking face is different from the interview cut with a similar appearance, and it has lived well with the entertainment cut in a tense atmosphere.

-ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ I’m so shocked

-I’m so cute, but I’m so cute

.

And sincere interviews with Ryu Cheong-woo and sincere and cooperative preparations came out, and the on-air response was favorable in its own way.

That is, until spoilers spread far and wide.

[Have you seen Letis Bar?]

Ryu Chung-woo and Choi Tae-joon are falling, is it true

? _____ _____-

-??

-It’s not like that unless the president

goes crazy

└ Huh

– Oh no way.. This is not real.

However, until this point, there was a lot of public opinion about fake spoilers and buntang, so it seems that I was under water amidst tension.

And the public opinion of the viewers who had no idea exploded only after the 8th episode was aired.

-Spoilers

were all right,

crazy

. Look at what he says to the dropout You know this is a bad comment?

Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha hahaha seizures transparent~

– What do you mean Ryu Chung-wu did well on stage

└Think about whether he would have said this even if he was not on the same team as

Ryu Kun-wu that it was ridden

Ryu Kun-woo’s spirit of challenge, which jumped into the main vocal vs. main vocal battle, was an appealing character in survival.

However, it is also suspicious that Ryu Chung-woo chose that team… la.

‘I thought there would be side effects.’

In fact, it was an atmosphere that came out beyond the line of manipulation and corruption stories, but even the public, not viewers, are overturned again as they bite this aggro.

-Hey Ryu Chung-woo is trying to become an idol? Ha ha ha ha

– When did the maknae grow up like this, he's still great;

Because Ryu Chung-woo is a gold medalist.

'The public's favorability is unconditionally high overall.'

To say that < Wise > is doing very well is just an idol survival variety show. It creates a gap with the general public.

-So, are you swearing at me for winning the vote?;;; Wow bizarre

– Ah haha this is beyond the line

– Idol dads, especially letty dads, this is a problem

. It was obvious, but the midnight action worked to some extent, so the people who were swearing were suppressed.

Still, under the surface, resentment was seething…

This is what happened before the guerrilla concert.

[Wise Choi Tae-joon's video moxibustion]

Club Mebo's drinking and smoking video capture.

A few seconds were caught at the end of a video posted on social media by someone who had a birthday party at a certain bar, and it was pulled up.

Compared to the guy's impression at the time, I couldn't even take it off and the authentication was over.

-and… .

_

Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

-Foresight has come

-Kim Tae-in 1st win

-The eyes of the audience are 1% in the Republic of Korea.

-Wow, I avoided this.

Now, if it exploded in the middle, it would have been so painful that the fans' heads would explode.

Choi Tae-joon has good skills and has quite a few fans, and since he is the president's pick, he is unlikely to be eliminated.

Fearing that the boss will try to take her away, she will suffer through the night with her eyes open.

In addition, if a contestant issue arises, it has a negative effect on the image of the program as it is an in-house survival program.

'But it ended up being cut by Ryu Cheng-wu sniping right before.'

Thanks to you, what kind of heroism is this? -Brother Ryu..

How

far have you all seen it

Since the re-evaluation was fun again, all the fans of all the contestants were excited and added a word amicably.

‘Somehow, there are many fans of guys who are not involved in the club mebo and the program at all.’

It seems that I was playing with the most excitement in the camp that did not add anything to this situation.

In addition, the game ended with Ryu Chung-woo, who regained his testa skills at the guerrilla concert, uploading a flying fancam.

-I am improving my skills like this… is it possible?

-Yes, let’s both become idols

‘It is clean.’

As if someone drew a picture.

“… … I am.”

And who the hell can draw a picture here?

[Shin Jae-hyeon: I’m delighted with the smooth progress (^-^)]

This guy is so good.

I called as soon as I checked my colleague list.

[Shin Jae-hyeon: Receiving a call from a colleague (^▽^)]

After a while, the call was connected and the result of asking directly.

– Well, did you ever think that it would have exploded around this time?

“well. If the timing is too exquisite, someone must have made it exquisitely.”

A laugh is heard over the phone.

– I can see it that way.

In fact, he was like a poet.

“How did this not happen in the first place?”

-Originally… well. Didn’t the person who posted the video quietly disappear because their account was hacked for some reason?

Come on, I see how you got back.

It seems that this bastard managed VTIC properly, even one by one of the real controversies. To say the least, I must have been in the first group for 10 years.

‘That’s acceptable.’

I pondered for a while and asked amicably.

“It’s the program final soon, is there anyone else to send?”

– Oh, you want to try it yourself?

“There’s nothing I can’t do.”

The guy laughs and replies.

-There is one, but… I think this will be balanced by dropping out of the program naturally.

“who.”

-well.

what?

-Because what I do is neat. I'll leave the fun of guessing to my juniors.

He was really a bastard who always made people look like him. If I had been in front of my eyes, my fist would have gone out.

-Then, rest well and see you in the practice room.

"Be prepared to speak."

-haha.

And the phone hung up.

'I'll have to make it blow before we start filming.'

Grinding my teeth, I closed the call page.

Then, on the screen, you will see message pop-ups that you have not checked before.

-Bae Se-jin hyung: You worked hard, I still remember the choreography

.

Here is the message that just came.

-Cool little brother Sejin: Hyung, are you done filming? How was the guerrilla concert? Haha

Sejin Lee.

It seems that they contacted us just in time for the filming to end.

I asked you a few times about the tour last time, and this question came up.

I replied appropriately.

-It was a bit short, but it

was fun.

Do you want to paint each other's faces?

I replied with a smile.

-You are flying around on tour, but replies are pouring in right away.

-Cool little brother Sejin: Oh, the correct answer (firecracker emoticon) Sejin does it a little haha

-Cool little brother Sejin: Oh, is our tour video coming out? tomorrow!

-Cool younger brother Sejin: Do you want to watch it together at night? Hahaha I want to hear your impressions of the guerrilla concert,

hmm?

Isn't it good enough that I haven't seen this guy's management term yet. I thought the promise story would come out only after the finals.

'what… The filming is over right away, so there's no need to refuse.'

He also reads public opinion well, so while watching < Wise >, I can catch some parts that I haven't figured out yet.

I responded kindly.

-If you can find the time.

And the promise was made quickly.

The time is ambiguous to go out and see it like last time, and the sightings are also nerve-wracking, so the place is either his house or my house.

Well, except for the guy who lives in the dorm… In fact, a conclusion emerges.

Ding-dong.

“Hello~”

9pm. Lee Se-jin came to the officetel with a gift set.

Of course, I wasn’t the only one at home.

“hello. Oh~ I heard that you are living together! I am watching the program.”

“Welcome!”

“hmm.”

“… ?”

Beyond Cha Yu-jin, who is waving excitedly, Ryu Cheong-wu looks at the team member he hasn’t seen in a while and smiles.

“Have a good time. Ah, since you’re a senior, is it a little harsh to say this?”

“Ah~ take it easy! I know you’re my brother.”

“Haha is that so? thank you.”

Lee Se-jin handed over the gift set and entered the officetel. And when he came to the sofa in the living room, bringing out a social comment, ‘The house is really cool’.

“If you do this, the back of the sofa goes up.”

“Remove the cushion.”

“… Ah yes! okay.”

As he reflectively matched his preferred style, an expression almost flashed across his face asking, “How the hell did you know?”

Still, Lee Se-jin successfully dealt with the cave and continued chatting in a friendly manner, but soon after, Ryu Cheong-wu and Cha Yu-jin rose from their seats.

“Then we’ll go shopping.”

“If I find something delicious, eat it!”

Since I’m in charge of making late-night snacks, they decided to supply the ingredients.

“Hey, if you don’t mind, can I order some for delivery?”

“It’s totally OK~ Enjoy!”

Cha Yoo-jin simply answered Lee Se-jin and the two left.

Tiririk.

Lee Se-jin looked at the closed front door and reacted in a moderately polite manner.

“oh my… I’m sorry.”

“Don’t worry about it because you’re the way you are rather than the way you came.”

I chuckled.

“Let’s see you on tour.”

“Umm, is that so?”

Lee Se-jin changed his stance and actively manipulated the device.

The Blu-ray disc he brought is played, and the video appears on the TV screen successfully.

[GY-ROP – FIRST DROP : THE OPENING CONCERT]

“Oh, you put the letters in big letters!

And the first song to be played in a fairly large concert hall.

“oh.”

After the opening of a hip-hop bass song with a fierce beat, a light reggaeton dance song follows.

I chined up.

It is a typical style that adds a sharp group dance to a rebel. Still, the quality of the song and choreography was good, so I thought there would be many fans.

“Well done.”

“Ahaha… thank you.”

While speaking naturally and brightly, Lee Se-jin looks at the screen with rather sunken eyes.

He didn’t look like a guy who brought a video of himself excitedly.

I can see why.

‘I must have heard that you jump alone.”

It was funny. This guy tends to stick to the overall balance in group songs. Thanks to that, every choreography practice, holding Cha Yujin and raising Bae Sejin was his daily routine.

It means… .

‘Those bastards are visibly blowing them off.’

In the name of doing a live performance, they are less choreographed. So, if Lee Se-jin dances according to the standard, it will bounce. Because the action looks great alone.

Since he’s already a big guy, I could see that he was conscious and careful, but as the song progressed, his movements grew bigger again as he became immersed.

Moreover, in the unit song performed by the three… You can even feel the difference in quality.

[Yes forward forward! Just further forward~]

After confirming that the guy was skipping over the choreography of pretending to gesture and almost bowing down, I asked openly.

“Wasn’t it worth it?”

Of course I’d say no, but it’s cool to say shit, so the guy listening will be like that too… … .

“Such a waste.”

“… !”

It was a dry voice.

But one after another he became cheerful again.

“… At that time, that older brother was a bit sick~ So it was a stage where we felt sorry for each other!”

I nodded.

“… okay.”

“… … .”

A brief silence passed.

“Ah~ but it’s embarrassing to keep showing my stage like this to hyung. wanna drink My brother is non-alcoholic… ah.”

The guy stopped talking. The moment I stopped moving.

“is not it? Oh, I thought I heard that last time. I’m sorry~”

“… … .”

I moved again.

“No, non-alcoholic is good.”

“Oh yeah? Shall I bring it?”

“But I am not at home.”

The guy bursts into bread.

“Ah~ hyung, what is that!”

I brought out a drink Lee Se-jin receives it quite politely.

“Ah thank you~”

“What?”

The atmosphere was relaxed again. I sat down and looked at the Zyrop tour video again.

And I remembered.

The guys who originally worked together but now work in different places.

Bae Se-jin and Sun Ah-hyun.

And the person on the screen… Big Sejin.

“… … .”

In fact, haven’t we already come to a reasonable conclusion?

‘It doesn’t make any sense to draw any more.’

Unless Kim Rae-bin appears, it would be better to try cheat-level tricks by driving the awakening points to me and turning all my stats into EX.

But that’s it.

‘It’s pissing me off.’

It’s because I saw a kid from the same group feeling the lungs and limits there and groaning.

Wouldn’t it be more convenient for you to know your true situation?

‘I have plenty of time.’

Because fame is constantly coming in.

After a moment of conflict, I turned on the status window. Then, with a barely noticeable movement, he hit the pop-up’s < Party Draw > button 10 times in a row.

light light light.

But what if Seon Ah-hyun comes out?

‘I don’t know, fuck!’

then go and think

Starlight continuously bounces around the Zyrop tour screen.

[I think we spent about 100,000 points… ?! 100 times!]

Really? I kept pressing

And did you press it like that twelve times?

[Huh?]

A strong light finally bursts out of the pop-up.

The light was strong enough to block the gyrob's tour screen.

And the stars displayed on the status window.

[Whoa]

[★★★★★ Sejin Lee / Main Dancer]

"… … ."

pulled out

[Would you like to welcome it like this?]

The status window asks.

I opened my mouth while keeping my eyes on the drink.

to Sejin Lee.

"I'm just saying."

"huh?"

"If there's more of your success somewhere you haven't noticed."

"… … ."

"therefore… There are other fruits of your efforts, if you haven't noticed them."

I asked.

“If there was a way to know that, would you want to use it?”

“uh.”

“… !”

The answer comes back without a gap.

I looked back at him. Lee Se-jin looked at me without an expression.

“try.”

“… … .”

“what is that?”

I reached out.

Chapter 394

Episode 394

Lee Se-jin knew that he was living a successful life.

After breaking through the competition rate of hundreds to one, he became a trainee at a large agency and fiercely survived and eventually debuted.

And out of the dozens of idol teams that debuted that year, they received the best grades and received the rookie award, and are cruising along.

‘objectively… It’s a success.’

Of course I thought I would be happy. A prime period full of achievement.

However, it is said that if the position you are standing in changes, the scenery you see will also change.

‘That’s funny.’

It’s amazing how you can feel anxious and frustrated at the same time every day.

Opinions that are blocked by team members in mannerisms and the company’s new plan that is vain.

Being unable to use your hands even though you can see something to fix makes a person helpless.

– Hey Sejin Lee, should we do it in moderation? Don’t you understand the mood? X I’m tired.

-… Uh huh, that’s right, I’m really tired… . But if you do it now, tomorrow will be a little more comfortable. Let’s go just once~

I know that reality and dreams are different. The hair that had been blown off has now cooled down.

Even so, sometimes I felt unfair for no reason.

When moving between schedules, when preparing an album, when getting up early in the morning.

‘… … .’

The feeling of being cheated comes suddenly and subsides with irritation.

That may have been the case. The words of this survival contestant, who had just met, stabbed the lungs.

-You didn’t notice, but your efforts made valuable results elsewhere.

effort and achievement. recovery of that cycle. It wouldn’t have been exactly that word. But that’s what it sounded like.

‘What are you expecting.’

It could have just been a trivial psychological test floating around somewhere on social media. no it will

It must have been a word that was brought up to ventilate the atmosphere suddenly after watching the concert.

Nonetheless, he was determined and ran. I can’t stand it.

-try.

Like pressing a button or something.

‘Why are you doing this, really.’

Still, I have no intention of withdrawing. Lee Se-jin shut his mouth and looked at Ryu Gun-woo in front of him.

"… … ."

Ryu Gun-woo did not open his mouth to answer or laugh as if embarrassed by the sudden silence.

Instead, he raised his hand.

'… ?'

And a strange motion like touching something in the air continues… .

-… !!

"ah."

In an instant, the senses explode like firecrackers in your head.

It feels like the water flow that was blocked by the dam has been pierced.

What was originally there comes rushing in as if finding its place.

-Thank you again for stopping me from getting off.

-Ah, our group is so good?

-We are going to renew the contract with Testa. Do you believe everyone?

Memories and emotions fill your head. Emotions that were taken for granted at one time Numerous memories made at the turning point of life Pain, excitement, inferiority complex, rewarding victory.

achievement.

own place.

– I wish we had one more day at Seoul Concert.

-that’s right! Let’s do it

– Stop talking about impossible things and start with luggage… … .

-Yes… . Isn’t it a pity that it’s a mumundae?

-… I’m not sorry

-Is everyone like that? The company made a mistake~ It was too short~

At that moment, Sejin Keun realized the cause of his helplessness.

‘Because I’ve lived a dream.’

Yes.

He has already lived a life in which efforts are rewarded with achievements.

Realizing that even if you hit bottom, you can recover and try again, and realize that the last challenge may be successful… .

A life where you know what it feels like to live and work passionately with people you trust and respect.

“… … .”

The pouring that seemed dizzy was over. Sejin Lee raised his head. I saw the face of my friend who was quietly examining her condition as if worried.

A real team member I haven’t seen in a long time.

‘The results of my efforts are different.’

To say it in a way that doesn’t suit you, as if you’re subtly enticing people.

“Yes.”

It was as it was said.

The achievement Lee Se-jin made with all his might was elsewhere.

“separately… There was.”

And it was like that from the beginning.

“Ah~ How can Moondaemundae always say the right thing?”

“… !”

Sejin Lee laughed out loud.

The feeling of seeing Ryu Gun-woo, or Park Moon-dae, whose eyes widened as if surprised that he had recognized him, was not so pleasant.

What precedes the confusion and curiosity about an incomprehensible surreal situation… .

It was a cool relief.

Lee Se-jin came back as a big Se-jin in an instant.

Since he already debuted with another group, I thought I might have to convince him who has been experiencing identity confusion for quite some time… .

“I was surprised to find out right away!”

[Huh.]

You just came back as if you pressed a switch.

Didn’t even stumble. I just kept my head down and listened.

And he immediately inferred the Park Moon-dae he knew from Ryu Gun-woo’s appearance, and now he is leaning on the sofa and laughing.

“Ah~ how did you do this? what just… Are you returning memories with nanomachines or something?”

“Where did you see that?”

“Web toon?”

I was silent for a while when I saw the guy laughing as if he had mania.

what… Did you touch it wrong?

[I guess he does it because he likes it!]

Really?

then… I guess Zyrob’s life was more X-like than expected. then… .

… … It might not have been such a bad choice to have ruined all of my reputation points.

I slowly opened my mouth to see him regain his composure.

“I’ll explain what’s going on right now, so listen up.”

“Ah, I have to listen.”

Since he already knows everything about the situation, he put it all aside and started talking about the system runaway.

He would resent me for doing something stupid or make a fuss about me shriveling, but he just listened intently to the explanation.

Still, he’s a bit of a gamer, so he seems to understand the concept of fame experience used here quite well.

Thanks to you, I was able to finish the story.

No, I was thinking of ending it.

“so… I just picked you with the fame I gathered… !”

That is, if he hadn’t jumped up and tried to hug the moment he told me that he had chosen him.

It’s something you would only do at emotional moments like winning first place or a concert, but coming out here… .

“thank you.”

“… !”

“Actually, you didn’t even have to wake me up. I already debuted with another group… We can’t work together.”

“… … .”

It seems that the problem was bigger than I thought.

Anyway, I’m sorry, but what I did wasn’t philanthropy.

I patted him on the back.

“No, I will use it as a spy.”

“… ??”

“Let’s listen to the current situation in the music industry as solved by a guy who has already debuted.”

Big Sejin had a dazed expression, but soon burst into laughter.

hey.

“Hahaha! is that what you came up with? Ah~ How can you not be that honest~”

What are you saying? In this strange world, the years are mixed, and the knowledge that Cheong-ryeo knows is not perfect, so the more information you collect, the better.

“okay okay. Sejin gives me a lot of information~ He promotes me and sings variety shows!”

The guy smiled.

“All right? Isn’t Mundaemun University very comfortable?”

“Oh, do it right.”

stop laughing kid

The moment I thought about making him scream by playing a wake-up call video at the beginning of Zyrop’s debut.

Tiriririk.

“We are here!”

The door opens and the guys who went out to buy groceries return home.

Big Sejin suddenly woke up.

“Oh~ our members!”

“… ! Is Sejin back?”

“Ohhhh! Welcome!”

At the returning cheers, the big sejin explodes.

“No, say good-bye to the person at home! Welcome to you too, Eugene!”

“Hi-Hi! brother!”

Ryu Cheng-wu, who passed by the two, walked in and spoke with a happy face as he put his luggage on the table.

“Sejin said as if he couldn’t return his memory. Is that why you called today?”

“No, it’s a matter of probability… And even if you pull it out, you can’t tell them to disband the guy who stays active.”

Then, the big Sejin started to shout exaggeratedly.

“Heheh… If you know how much Sejin at Moondaemun University has suffered, you really can’t say that? really… Aren’t you talking about normal activities?”

“why.”

He forgets even pretending to cry and gets serious.

“Hey, it’s painful to work with cheap guys even if they fail.”

“… ? It’s a bit cheap even if it’s ruined… .”

“no. These guys really need to perish!”

“… … .”

What do you mean you’re going to die together?

Anyway, he didn’t bother persuading me, as he didn’t seem willing to compromise on that. It’s good to know whether Zyrob is criticized or not.

Instead, the conversation flowed on what the other testers and I had been doing up until now.

Conversation piles up while eating pork belly grilled in a frying pan.

“Wow~ In the meantime, did you even exchange numbers with Ahyeon? Isn’t Mundaemun University discriminating too much? Didn’t you ask Ahyeon first?”

“Is that so?”

Ahyeon Seon asked me first, you idiot.

I wanted to stop thinking about it, but Keun Se-jin didn't think so.

"The three of us will be able to go play again soon~ They said it would be all right if we just got on the Mundae Daesang."

dreams are wild

"What's the name of the dog's dog? I'll get on soon."

The guy grins.

"You can aim for the music destination."

"… !"

"Why does Rabin exist? Isn't it just a matter of patching together a target song? Anyway, if this is like a dream, you don't have to think about plagiarism or anything like that."

Cha Yu-jin confidently replied with a slightly downcast face.

"I don't remember Kim Rae-bin."

"Eh? But how did you participate in survival… . … … You just brought it."

"… … ."

"really… Oh, my Rabin shouldn't be scammed somewhere. I caught something~"

It's kind of annoying to hear the guy who would have cheated first if he was in a similar situation click his tongue.

"Then, now Rabin and Ahyeon are left. What is this, am I the type to take it late? How could you be so angry at leaving your best friend in another group… ."

“Because it’s random.”

I can’t do what I can do.

I deliberately ate a late-night snack while dealing with the scratcher.

The conversation was non-stop and nothing special. … To the point where it feels like you’ve already gone back.

Of course, I couldn’t really go back, so I went to this conversation.

“So, Sejin, do you plan to continue preparing for a comeback with Gyrop?”

At Ryu Cheong-wu’s question, Se-jin changed his color.

“I am… There are so many things to do.”

“… ?”

“Oh, I must have been 20 when I was 20. He really has a very tender heart and is kind~ I was honestly moved by his college degree because he was so kind, right?”

“what?”

“really. You suffered a lot.”

The fact that these words came out of the mouth of this efficiency obsessed… .

“What are your plans?”

The guy grinned.

“uh. I’m going to stop by the shop first.”

“… ?”

“why?”

“huh. I will dye it.”

and the next morning.

The guy who was talking and playing almost all night said that he went to the shop in charge early in the morning and turned his dyed hair black.

-Big Sejin: If you bleach your hair again, no matter how strong Sejin is, all of your hair will melt. Yo Nene, it’s absolutely impossible haha It’s absolutely not something that a rookie idol in 3 years ahead of a comeback can do on their own. But he did a great job. That guy who developed his social skills to the limit. And after returning to the inn on that road… It seems that you did something.

[Lee Se-jin: I’m doing whatever I want (U▽U~♪)]

I’ll just say that this sign popped up more than half of the time every time I checked for half a day.

and dinner.

– Big Sejin: Oh, thank you for the invitation. These are names everyone knows.

And as soon as I found my memory, a person with the same name who had done something similar to this guy reacted like this.

-Bae Se-jin hyung: (Welcome hamster emoticon)

It’s surprising that they seem to be getting along quite well.

And to be honest, I thought I would embarrass myself with the remarks I made when I met Bae Se-jin when I had no memory.

-Keun Se-jin: Oh brother, didn’t you tease me with Moondae in a natural way last time? ㅋㅋㅋㅋ

I didn’t know that he was going to mention it at all. I was a bastard. -Keun Se-jin:

Hahaha

You were surprised that he still had no mercy in his tone. A young 20-year-old I was so flustered that the ribs almost went into my nose .

Big Sejin sent a laughing bear emoticon.

I pressed the key

-Did you use the dye well?

-Keun Se-jin: Yes, please look forward to Gyrop’s next activity

.

After enjoying the cheers of Cha Yoo-jin and Bae Se-jin, Big Se-jin turned on the topic.

-Keun Sejin: Anyway, you have to become famous so that the other members will remember…? is that right?

Do I really have to leave it in text form? ?

-Keun Se-jin: Get famous by inviting them to group chat quickly

.

– Big Sejin: No, not me.

This time, Yoojin Cha sent a basic laughing emoticon. there is no gag

[Your expression has improved. You must be in a good mood!]

Is that so?

Nothing bad. I smiled and looked at the group message room where useless chatter passed by.

‘Shall I leave it for a bit?’

The main topic barely came out of Bae Se-jin’s mouth after a while.

– Bae Se-jin hyung: Hey… I’m talking about your survival show.

-Bae Se-jin hyung: Now it’s the final live broadcast, right?

right. < Wise > LeTi’s survival, which escaped the typhoon in a teacup with various aggro and stage sales, was soon to be the last broadcast.

‘Although I heard that there will be one more announcement of the dropouts in the middle of practice.’

I plainly affirmed.

-yes. There are only a few days left

. … ?”

Are you sincere?

‘no… Shouldn’t it be nice to show a friendly relationship from now on?’

No matter how you say you’ve been on the path of mysticism until now, is it okay? The psychopath image will definitely go away.

-Wouldn’t hyung’s agency or officials stop him?

And this reply came back immediately.

-Bae Se-jin hyung: Say yes

-Keun Se-jin: (surprised bear emoticon)

-Cha Yu-jin: That's cool! it's awesome!

They play very well.

-Chungwoo Ryu: (Emoji laughing while sweating)

-Chungwoo Ryu: Anyway, let's do our best in the finals and work hard. It reminds me of

'Azusa?'

I laughed out loud. Even so, nothing as crazy as that crazy program could happen in the finals.

"under."

Then a voice is heard from beyond the wall.

"Hyung, did you laugh at my KakaoTalk?"

"… No, look big."

Come to think of it, Liu Cheng-wu was in the next room.

I kept my mouth shut and focused on the message.

-Yes (Dog emoji) Let's do our best

Chapter 395

If you can’t debut, you’ll die from the disease Episode 395 A story of aggro and survival.

From the introduction of a new contestant with a unique color that is not typical of an in-house survival show, to the colorful stage where the phrase ‘It’s really like LeTi’ comes out.

Ahead of the final of < Wise >, which was not a < Azusa >-level finale, but went viral as a fun survival game, the attitude of the viewers was as follows. -Alternatively, why did you receive the viewer’s vote

? I have n’t written it even once until now

.

-If you don’t use it until the final, it’s a legend

-If the boss scores, there’s a correction?? I think it’s a role that gives the same thing haha

– The boss checks the rank and makes me aware.

Please save Cha Yoo-jin.

At first, everyone thought it was a show that only showed the small behind-the-scenes stories and trainees practicing for the final stage.

Aka taking a break.

-Did Chae-yul come to give Gern-wu a blanket and a pillow? ㅠㅠ How can he be an angel like this

? You've gathered those personalities on your face, Mr. Kim -Wow,

Ryu Cheong-woo

does n't sleep.

Did you make a mistake? What do you do when you rest?

The questions that the viewers were talking about were well mixed and arranged in a fun way.

Naturally, the tension unique to survival was lowered, but there were many people who responded quite favorably, saying that the production team really knows the viewers well.

– Specialized? I can't help it due to time constraints, it's okay because I made it well lol

-Still, I'm looking forward to the stage because it seems like I've been preparing for the final for a long time.

Passing through various behind-the-scenes scenes that will make you laugh and cuts from the practice room of passionate participants who are sweating hard to prepare… .

The camera goes to the stage.

-???

What is even displayed at the top of the corner is 〈Live Broadcast〉.

-What is it

? -Is it live now?

-The 10th episode of the last episode…? Shouldn’t it come out next week?

It was a moment when viewers who were accustomed to trivial trends such as side stories were taken aback by the live broadcast screen out of the blue.

[Participants, there is an urgent notice ahead of the finals.]

President Kim Tae-in, sitting in the judges’ seat, takes the microphone again.

The president’s voice continues as the camera captures the puzzled yet nervous participants.

[The results of the viewer’s vote are out.]

[!]

[The public’s choice is the absolute evaluation scale that you will face in your future choices. Who doesn’t fit that evaluation… .]

The president deliberately took a deep breath before ending his speech.

what everyone expected.

[Eliminated.]

Viewers howled as they saw the contestants on the stage shaking their eyes or lowering their eyes.

-suddenly??

-Ahhhh

-I really didn’t know how to write like this

, what should I do -The kids’ expressions are so heartbreaking.

It was the power of survival.

The president, unable to see real-time comments full of crying emoticons and exclamations, slowly announced the results.

[First of all, it's stability.]

The president announced four people all the time. Kim Rae-bin, Oh Yoon-shin, Jung Woo-dan, Han Kyung-mo… .

'Lower than expected' 'The fans weren't desperate because it was the president's pick' 'The crazy orchestra suffered a loss from the previous episode'… .

Various reactions and evaluations were rampant, but everyone seemed to be relieved anyway thanks to the word stability.

However, when I saw the remaining 8 people, I fell into confusion.

-Are you saying half-half, high-ranking, and low-ranking?

-Hey, I really don't know

-I can only see the top 6 in my eyes?;;

With a small number of 12 people, it was not easy to determine the number of people because the results of the viewer announcements had never been made public.

[Announcing the lower ranks.]

The president announces the number of people one by one amidst the tense BGM.

[Park Nam-ho]

-God

-ㅜㅜㅜㅜ You worked hard, Namho!

– No,

the participants who didn’t stand out that much, so to some extent, people started with the expected member, and then more and more unexpected members were called.

-ㅠㅠㅠ Ahh

-I just debuted, and the crazy guys were sad and sad, but the atmosphere seemed to be convinced.

[and… Chungwoo Ryu.]

[…] …]

The person in charge pushed forward with a calm expression, but the comment did not.

– Huh

– That’s ridiculous

-????

– Is it Jujak or a new face with a crazy presence who has a lucky totem and skills that instantly increased from a national university graduate, pushed out of the vote?

There was a reaction that seemed to explode for a few seconds, saying that it was nonsense, but soon people understood the situation.

It was pushed back because it was a new face.

-Is it because they are latecomers

? -It is because the votes are cumulative

. Yes, they entered late by a few weeks. It’s a joke

, but while the bewildered viewers poured out the text, of course, I didn’t think that the president would eliminate all the people who were called now.

-I called 4 people, but it seems like only one or two participants who didn’t get the president’s pick would be

[Bottom 4, which you decided by voting, was originally scheduled to be eliminated immediately.]

If so, it means that it is not immediately eliminated. [However, in order for an idol group to be complete, one more factor is needed, not just the fans.]

[The idol itself.] -What are you talking about, crazy

?

Regardless of the clamor of the president, the president continues his presentation with a serious expression of excellence.

[Therefore, I will listen to their opinions.]

The members raising their heads in embarrassment pass behind the screen.

[< Wise > contestants will vote for the two contestants they want to go with.]

[!!!]

The cut of the non-bottom contestants looking at each other with puzzled expressions intersects with the serious face of the president.

< Wise >, befitting an in-company survival show, was another selling point for the previously accumulated sticky relationship between trainees and the collective consciousness.

And the last aggro that used it in reverse has now broken out.

[Depending on your vote, the two people with the most votes will survive until the finals.]

[The result is… It will be released before the final stage of < Wise > next week.]

The camera moved further away and caught the entire frozen stage.

and fade out.

Colorful advertisements began to appear, but viewers could not stop commenting.

-Wow

-Crew devils

-Give this to the kids? I'd rather you decide, X-Balnom, at a time when < Azusa > season 1 hasn't aired yet.

〈Wise〉 began to burn the last flame right before the final with its unique spicy aggro.

* * *

I thought as I got off the stage.

'oh.'

The production team does some work.

To be honest, if I went over to the behind-the-scenes, the topic would have gone down, but what came out stimulatingly was a choice.

‘The word choice was also very good.’

Isn’t it about voting for the person who will be eliminated, rather than voting for the person who will be saved? This is good. It does not mean that the level of abandonment of humanity is not.

However, if the guy who survived by voting after his debut gets into an accident, there will be a problem… I don’t need to take that into consideration here.

Because they are aiming for the group that will achieve the highest efficiency in the shortest period of time.

‘The problem is that Ryu Chung-wu’s location has become a bit ambiguous.’

A cartel has already been formed among the existing trainees, so there is a limit to receiving votes.

‘I’ll have to take care of this.’

So as soon as I took off the mic, I went to the guy who didn’t say who he was going to send until today’s live broadcast.

That’s a young man.

“Was this the way you spent it naturally?”

The guy responded with a smile, not even embarrassed.

“sure. It’s so easy, so I have to write it.”

“… … .”

“Since the final result is right around the corner, it is easily shaken by a small shock, and it is so easy to plant a choice in his head.”

To never vote for anyone.

‘It’s a reasonable decision, but.’

I frowned.

“Why didn’t you tell me.”

“If I let you know in advance, I think the juniors who are trying to work in advance will get their hands tangled. You’re not the kind of person who just waits, junior.”

“… … .”

I can’t refute the X.

“Can you understand? So from now on, I will do this. I will remove the elements to be removed, so juniors, attach the elements you want to attach.”

About Liu Cheng-wu.

And he added, pretending to be friendly.

“If you still can’t make it up, tell me. I will do it for you.”

I looked at him in bewilderment.

“I don’t do it, I have to. Is there a better hand than Ryu Chung-woo in the bottom ranks right now?”

The goal is the same, but I don’t know what nonsense.

Then Cheongryeo laughs.

“is it so? all right. Then, if your junior can’t do it, I’ll fix it with what I do.”

“… … .”

I chuckled.

“Okay, I’ll try it first.”

Do you think I’m going to get mad here? If that doesn’t work, you’ll have to use at least a cat’s hand. I’m going to have to extract that bastard bone marrow somehow.

“great.”

And the laughing man walked leisurely down the hallway and disappeared. It was like going to see other trainees.

A pop-up floats above the back.

[then… Will you convince the other trainees too?]

Before that, there is one thing to check.

I called up the pop-up window that appeared earlier on the stage.

[Quest: Reputation Collection Activity 2/N]

▏■■■■—〉▕

-50% achieved!

Reward: Received the parcel… .

After gaining 500,000 EXP in the cumulative reputation, it was an intermediate settlement, and this popped up.

Of course, all but one of the 100,000 points were put into the companion draw.

‘It’s a function that was in < 127 Section >.’

I saw it during test play.

-It's a game with a lot of options and various endings, so the main quest is comprehensive and long-term to cover all of them.

-aha… yes yes

At this time, did you say that a clear intermediate reward was prepared to encourage and entice players to continue playing?

'Perhaps the items are random.'

I went to the mail and checked the image of the parcel that said 'progress compensation'.

[Package containing numerous possibilities]

-It is the sound of a star encouraging you.

If you substitute it, something very good may come out, but with your luck, it means that you will end up receiving a moderate amount of gold.

'I must have accumulated 4000 gold already.'

Recalling the useless pieces of text, I pressed accept the package with a blank expression.

however.

[Package Contents – Invitation]

[A colleague (★★★★) is coming… .]

What?

Starlight bursts from the parcel. It seems to be giving away not gold, but comrades.

You don't need to.

‘Four stars… .’

I remembered a 4-star colleague I saw before the last big draw.

[★★★★ Sohyeon Jang / Lead Dancer]

‘He was a soft and sweet member.”

I was almost excited to see it while cleaning it up. I didn’t receive it as a colleague in case it was awakened, but I put it in my inventory.

Anyway, if you look at that experience.

‘Some of my colleagues with more than 3 stars seem to be familiar with me.’

I’ve never seen it in the 1st and 2nd stars, but from the 3rd star, a familiar name sometimes comes up.

[Ah, in that explanation, there was something about finding a colleague with a ‘relationship’. Isn’t that a bit reflected?]

I made a similar guess.

‘Then maybe this time too?’

Anyway, the light on the parcel quickly went out and the explanation was finally revealed… .

A name you really know pops up.

[★★★★ Jeong Woodan / Lead Vocalist]

“… ??”

He’s a VTIC guy.

[Isn’t that Ju-dan?]

Yes, that's Ju-dan.

'what.'

I moved my hand with the intention of putting it in my inventory, but… There is no reject button for this?

[OK]

Only this is floating. Is this automatic registration?

[I guess so..?]

It doesn't matter. If it's necessary, I'll just accept it and delete it from the colleague list.

So, it was the moment I pressed the 'Confirm' button.

Chijik!

… The star effect bounces off the button again.

"… ??"

[Fortune Chance]

A bizarre phrase embossed in copper appears, and the word spins in a vintage pipe.

'this… .'

Lucky events coming out of the game. And at some point, as if a cogwheel is meshing, it stops and puts words together.

[Additional effect – awakening!]

And 3 seconds later.

[Colleague: Jung Woo-dan succeeds in awakening!]

“What.”

what?

* * *

This crazy system bastard gave bonuses in the most X-like way.

As soon as he confirmed the situation, he immediately ran through the corridors and searched the practice rooms.

‘I have to find it.’

If you do it wrong, it becomes a real X… !

When I opened three or four different types of practice rooms according to my priorities with my head spinning like that.

In the end, I faced the guy who was banging his head against the wall of the choreography practice room.

Jung Woo-dan.

therefore… Casting of VTIC.

“… … .”

“… … .”

He doesn’t talk and doesn’t take his head off the wall. I slowly approached him, trying not to attract attention.

‘Be careful.’

My head was spinning tight.

At that time, Cha Yu-jin, who was warming up in the corner, saw me and raised his hand.

Wait, can you… .

“Moondae hyung!”

Also

“… Mundae?”

Hearing the name he knew, the guy who was banging his head flinched in surprise and raised his head hastily.

“Park Moon-dae junior?”

ruined.

The guy who raised his head looked around with a confused face, and when he saw Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin behind him, he became even paler.

“Testa… for a moment.”

“Here, senior.”

“No, so… … .”

Cold sweat runs down his expressionless face as he mumbles to himself.

But soon it seemed to mumble something in its mouth to soothe itself.

‘I’ll have to take him out first.’

I’m just thankful that I don’t have a camera yet.

However, before he could gesture to Cha Yu-jin to drag him by the arm one by one, Ju-dan opened his mouth.

in a much calmer voice.

“Where is the crew here?”

“Why did the production team… .”

“I will get off.”

“… ?!”

The mind becomes confused.

Chapter 396

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 396

It took quite a long time to subdue the VTIC guy who said he would get off.

Maybe they misunderstood it as meaning that they were going to get off without being able to overcome the pressure, but the production team almost came running with the camera, but it was fortunate that they calmed them down before that.

'I almost screwed up.'

And here, Cha Yoo-jin, Ryu Cheong-woo, and… it's clean okay. It's awkward, it's nabal, and if there's a head in this unexpected situation, it's a person who needs to be called.

"… … ."

"… … ."

And inside the narrow vocal practice room, 5 adults are tightly packed and silence flows.

'X foot… … .'

It is absurd to see even Ryu Cheng-wu, who is supposed to set up a strategy to catch votes, standing there laughing.

'In the future, if the intermediate reward is a random parcel, ignore it.'

This goddamn mass-produced mobile game-like system bastard.

I pressed my forehead and opened my mouth.

“therefore… Senior, we are all in a similar situation now.”

I calmly opened my mouth to see Zhu Dan, who was now staring at the empty space with a distraught face.

Take off the tea and take off the pot and say only the core.

-I’ve been dragged into a strange parallel world and I’m trying to escape.

I wonder if anyone will believe this without any detailed circumstances, but I can’t help it.

To a guy who doesn’t know anything at all, ‘I’m actually not at Park Moon-dae… Think of it as starting with ‘. That’s like crazy.

‘First of all, I will proceed by carefully explaining whatever refutation comes in here.’

There was no other way.

It was around the time when Cheong-ryeo was doing a one-man show without any choice because she was laughing without interfering.

“for a moment.”

Finally, Ju Dan raised his hand.

“Let me ask you a question.”

“yes.”

“What is 32 times 6?”

“… … 192.”

“yes.”

And the guys took turns giving math problems one by one. It's about multiplication, so it's not difficult, so everyone thinks about it and gives an answer.

'What the hell is this guy doing?'

And after turning around and answering Cheongryeo, the guy nodded.

"It is not a dream. hmm."

"… … ."

"I know roughly what the situation is."

"… ??"

"If you are familiar with subcultures, this grammar is easy to come across. I never thought I would experience it myself."

He muttered that expressionlessly and touched his chin.

"No, there's still a chance it's a dream… Anyway, I'm going to wash my face for a while. You should check if the cold water is cold."

After saying that, he got up and went to the bathroom.

Druruk- Tak.

The door opens and closes.

It happened 10 seconds after Judan started talking alone.

"… … ."

[what… What did you know?]

I struggled to answer. I guess now.

'… by number.'

[???]

‘In dreams, logic is poor, so it’s usually difficult to calculate quickly and accurately.’

[ah… ..]

But usually, I would pinch myself, and I wouldn’t use this method unnecessarily.

this bastard… Were you originally like this?

“Originally, I was the type who was interested in unique concepts, but I am still the same. I am trying to adapt to this situation.”

Aware of the camera being installed on the other side of the corner outside the door, Chung-rye lowered her voice and whispered.

“What are you talking about like someone else’s group? To your members.”

“Hmm, it’s been a while since I’ve used it.”

the guy laughs And lower your voice so that only the other person can hear it.

“It seems obedient, but sometimes it’s a quiet uncooperative kind… It was cumbersome to have to calculate it once more when handling it.”

The word choice is fantastic.

“Anyway, it’s not impossible to deal with, so it won’t become a big variable.”

“… … .”

The guy came to a conclusion casually, but that’s why it’s all the more strange.

‘Is this guy okay?’

Still, if the memory of the person in my group came back, I thought there would be some kind of reaction even if he tried to kill me, who was having fun, but it's very strategic.

The guy who tapped his chin with his finger immediately raises his voice and goes to the next level.

"I will have to work on a more detailed coordination with the casting, but before that, I need to send the other side back."

"… !"

Cheong-Ryeo smiled and turned her head. She was implicitly pointing to Yoo-Jin Cha and Chung-Woo Ryu, and the people themselves must have known. However, Cha Yu-jin did not blink an eye.

"I am where I want to be."

"Then we can go out. Let's go to the practice room next door."

"for a moment."

These guys do this every time they talk.

But before I could intervene, Liu Chengyu interrupted with an embarrassed laugh.

"Yujin. once we get out Since they are in the same group, they probably want to talk separately."

Cha Yoo-jin

shrugged his shoulders without objection to that explanation.

"OK. Talk to the two seniors."

There was just an afterword.

"Moondae hyung go with me!"

that’s kinda

“… It’s better if the guy who explained it did it.”

“Mundae hyung, are you a VTIC fan?”

So will you do it?

“You will receive an explanation fee.”

“Oh!”

go now

I let Liu Cheng-wu drag Cha Yu-jin out. However, Liu Qingyu stopped walking and looked back.

“ah. It’s Moondae.”

“yes.”

“Don’t worry too much about my ticket. Being eliminated here means that you are not helping the team.”

“… !”

“And I have no intention of being judged that way.”

The guy finished softly and decisively.

“I’ll take care of the ticket.”

“… … .”

I even went so far as to call him Park Moon-dae, so this is what I am saying as a group leader.

If so.

“yes.”

I nodded meekly. After showing a smile, Ryu Cheong-woo left the vocal practice room with Cha Yu-jin, who had a sour face.

Druruk- Tak.

“… … .”

“Do you take an explanation fee?”

“Are you sure?”

“haha.”

I resisted the urge to punch myself in the face.

Fortunately, Zhu Dan returned before I ran out of the room.

With water dripping from your head.

“It looks real.”

“… … .”

muttered the guy.

“Crazy or dream… In the worst case, I thought that I might have gotten caught up in some kind of ghost story phenomenon, but the last one was the closest to the correct answer.”

for a moment.

“Is that why you wanted to get off?”

“Yes, people should assume the worst and act.”

“… … Ah yes.”

this… Nope. In any case, it will be easier for me to say the next thing once I understand that it is real.

I got to the point.

“We are working hard to return to reality as much as possible, and we hope that seniors will cooperate as well.”

The difficulty starts here.

If this guy is thinking of this situation as another chance, it will be quite painful… .

“of course.”

“… ?”

An immediate answer came.

“I dreamed of going through such a fantasy-like development when I was young, but now I want to go back as soon as I grow up as an adult with no dreams or hopes.”

The guy spoke with an expressionless expression.

“I can’t give up on the life of a 10-year-old idol with a building, a bank account, and honor.”

“… … .”

I barely opened my mouth.

“Senior, you are going to the army.”

“You’re going from here too.”

that… yes.

“However, having to go through high school all over again from the beginning without money or position is to the point where it is rude to compare.”

The guy nodded.

“It would be a lie for adults to say they want to go back to the past. Once you have the foundation, there is no way you want to go through that high school again. It is a convenient setting.”

I almost looked back at Cheongryeo.

“Anyway, this is a kind of game format, and the Mundae junior is the key player.”

“It seems to have happened that way.”

“yes. You are suffering.

The boy nodded his head expressionlessly.

“Then I… It appears in the second half, so it doesn’t have much, but it seems to be a supporting role that can be quite useful.”

What is this madman saying?

“Should I say it’s fortunate that I’m not an antagonist… oh sorry I haven’t had anything to do lately, so I read a lot of novels and videos.”

What an excuse.

However, the situation was the situation, so I gave a cheer for the stability of the guy.

“It’s a hobby that idols can enjoy without any burden.”

“yes.”

He nodded in satisfaction, then mumbled as if he wanted to say something more, but soon returned to his businesslike tone.

“Then now I should call you Ryu Cheong-woo junior, no, Ryu Cheong-woo hyung. Anyway, if I just vote for him, I won’t have to do anything else.”

As soon as he was about to say yes, another voice cut off instead.

soft and cold

“Not really.”

“… !”

There was a bit of politeness in Ju Dan’s flinching voice.

“brother.”

“Your skills won’t be the same as before. yes?”

The VTIC guy seemed to notice Chung-ryeo and nodded quietly.

“yes.”

“Then you have to recover your skills first. No matter how good our plans are, if the quality of the stage is insufficient, it will be impossible.”

The guy with a faint smile stares at the cast iron and continues talking.

“… … !”

“I hope that people who willingly give you wealth and honor will show you a side that will not be regretted. Understand?”

“… … yes.”

The guy who was brazen enough to say grotesque things gets caught up in discipline. He doesn't seem to be able to resist or even talk back.

'It seems to have been rolled so much that the frame was set.'

It's very tight. Even if I squeezed it tight, I gently released it.

"okay. Still, it's reassuring because you are there. know?"

"… thank you."

Ju Dan was able to leave the vocal practice room only after receiving a training ticket disguised as advice on a practice routine from Cheong Ryeo.

"… … ."

'I'm a bastard.'

Dealing with people seems like a bone.

same.

I crossed my arms and looked at the smiling young lady.

"I went in the direction of taking care of efficiency. I'm fine."

"I think it would have been better for the mentality to calm down a little more."

"are you okay. It's the type that needs to be pressed a bit to move. On the contrary, if you release it, you will use tricks."

The guy answered calmly.

"If you poke well, you sometimes come up with good ideas for an album. You will be a good member."

"… okay."

Those who have seen it for a long time will know better. I didn't bother to object.

The guy raised his chin.

"I need to revise my plan a bit more after my debut. Well, there is no time to be bored."

for a moment.

"Voting for the guy you're going to send away."

I wouldn't forget that it's a priority.

But the guy puts his head to the side.

"hmm? It's already over. That will get you out of the finals."

what?

"This kind of junior hasn't even started yet. Or will you believe me and pass it on like I said before?"

"Do it yourself."

"haha."

He didn't scratch any more. I untied my arms and opened my mouth.

There was something I was originally going to say.

Regarding the situation in which Zhu Dan found his memory.

"… This was an unexpected situation."

"yes."

what?

“But if I continue to look for companions as I become more famous as an idol, I might be able to return my memories to other VTICs.”

“hmm.”

Cheong-ryeo narrowed her eyes.

“Let’s watch that. It seems that the number of hands has increased, but I cannot conclude that it is necessarily a good hand.”

“okay.”

If so.

I decided not to ask more.

It was then.

“It’s still the first time.”

“… !”

The guy lowered his gaze and muttered. It was a grave voice.

“Was it like this?”

“… … .”

I asked.

“Are you in a bad mood?”

“It’s not like that in particular… It’s been a while since I haven’t thought about this situation. It’s unfamiliar.”

The guy lost focus with no expression. As if he vaguely recalled a time when he expected or imagined ‘a situation like this’.

‘… okay.’ I must have been impressed, but

I sat on the floor for a while without bothering to inquire into his condition.

And only after hearing the voice of the staff announcing the start of filming, I slowly got up and left the practice room.

He didn't bring up the topic again, but I put the conclusion that I thought I would not unconditionally click on the next game package on hold.

And time passes again.

As if the sudden incident of cast iron is a lie, the set is in a state of strange tension. The camera is already turned on.

'waiting.'

I waited until after midnight when the shooting for the day was over and the battery ran out again and there was a gap.

And just before the finals, I found a guy who was in conflict with whether to go to bed among guys who were busy practicing until dawn.

"Seniors."

Ju Dan stood up on the floor of the practice room and muttered quietly.

"I avoid anything that might raise suspicion. Let's go comfortably like before."

what if you are

I leaned over and asked.

"Udanah. Which of the contestants are you close with?"

"… Well, no one is really close. The trainees I went with couldn't participate."

Got it.

So let’s change the question.

“I know roughly who is close to or dislikes whom.”

“I know as much as everyone else knows.”

That’s it.

I needed information from the previous trainees.

And naturally,

“Can I get some help?”

The guy didn’t answer for a while, then he answered abruptly.

“I am not good at persuading others.”

It seems that he meant to join Ryu Chung-woo’s election campaign.

I smiled and sat comfortably.

“I’m not asking for that.”

“then?”

“All you have to do is talk to me. In front of others.”

Tickets for Liu Cheng-wu are limited.

If I had to choose anonymously between the trainees I already have a close relationship with and the new faces who are strong competitors, I would of course choose the former.

I probably wouldn’t vote for Ryu Cheng-wu unless there was some kind of incentive.

Then what should I do?

‘All you have to do is distribute the votes.’

It touches on who to vote for among the rest of the participants, except for Ryu Cheng-wu.

“I’m not cursing, I’m just going to compliment you.”

As Liu Cheng-wu said, he will take care of his own ticket and respect it.

I’m not trying to make you film Ryu Chung-woo, I’m just trying to make you not film other guys.

Chapter 397

If you can't debut, you'll die. The 〈Wise〉 filming site where episode 397 practice is in full swing.

The trainees seemed to be extremely serious and only focused on the finals, but it wasn't that there were no conversations going on behind the scenes.

Who among the lower ranked participants will survive?

– Who are you going to take?

-I don't know. See you then.

It is called an anonymous vote, but even in interviews, it is secretly floated.

-Have you already made up your mind?

Here, a participant in the inferior class also gave an appropriate answer, such as 'I'm thinking hard', but in fact, I thought it was almost decided.

'I'm asking for two people to film, but there must be something to worry about.'

Usually, it is difficult when there is only one person to drop out and one person to stick. What's the point of being able to vote for the best and second best?

'All I have to do is leave out the ones who won't film.'

First of all, one guy has already become implicitly unqualified.

-What this dog XX!

Ugh.

‘Are you going to work with a bastard who suddenly rushes in while eating and tries to beat people?’

The participant nodded his head even though he was completely unaware that Shin Jae-hyun, who knew that an assault case would break out three years later, guided him from action to news spread.

So naturally, after excluding one person, there were three people left in the end.

And it was simpler to exclude one more person from it.

someone less close. someone you don’t know A person who has never had a trainee life.

This is the most recent addition to the squad.

Ryu Chung-woo.

‘He’ll take care of himself.’

I had no acquaintance with the former national team member who received a pension, and there was nothing that I felt close to.

‘Then it’s over if I take the remaining two.’

Originally, the existing trainees had already made up their minds to choose the two that they knew each other well and felt uncomfortable dropping.

Those receiving votes can also vote, but since the two of them are already close, the atmosphere has been created among themselves.

‘I’ll go like that.’

It was the time when the participant was enjoying a moment of idleness again like honey after making such a conclusion.

Click.

The door to the practice room opens and you hear words.

"… That's why I'm worried about voting."

"It is."

Voices of familiar participants.

'uh.'

For a moment, the participant, who was lying down behind the sound system in the practice room, realized that he was invisible.

The voices of Ryu Gun-woo and Jung Woo-dan continue the conversation.

"Did you think of anyone?"

"what… Are you going to take pictures of Ryu Chung-woo?"

"For now, you?"

Feel free to talk to people even if you don't know they are there. The inferior class participant quietly overheard the conversation without realizing it.

"I'm thinking of Da-hwan hyung."

"ah."

Da-hwan Kim was one of the two people he was trying to film.

Because the topic they were thinking about just came up, the participants held their breath and focused on the momentary conversation.

“I am good. Although the dance positions seem a bit oversaturated.”

Ryu Gun-woo hesitated a little, but soon realized again that there was no camera, so he spoke comfortably.

“We don’t care. Because I am a vocalist.”

position?

“yes. It’s a benefit if a good person comes in and the average competency improves.”

“okay. The boss will take care of this.”

ah.

Then, the two of them asked to take a picture of each other and left the practice room that looked empty.

“Everyone hasn’t come yet.”

“It was too early. Then wait another… ”

Kung.

“… … .”

The door is closed. However, the participant was somewhat disturbed.

Are dance positions oversaturated?

“… That’s right.”

That’s right. Of the people left now, there are at most four people in the vocal position, including those two.

The rap position was oversaturated with 7 people, considering that only the impressively bloody guys from the supplementary class were left.

But at the top, there is Shin Jae-hyeon, who has no monsters, and Cha Yoo-jin, who doesn't know where he came from… .

'… … There are no seats.'

Almost double the difference. Immediately, the participant who was also in a dance position swallowed his saliva.

-The boss will take care of this.

Members are not chosen by individual viewer votes, but by the president.

Of course, given the president's inclination, he will be selected considering the balance of positions, so then… It was really dangerous.

"… … ."

The participant bit his mouth at the sudden sense of crisis.

In a situation where options are free, people will eventually rationalize the choices that benefit them.

Especially at the time when the huge prey called debut is dangling towards the goal.

So the conclusion was quick.

'… It is right to eliminate competitors as much as possible. I'm not even a hodgepodge.'

– Candidates for elimination, which is a dance position, should be sent here.

After hesitating for a while, he made up his mind and quietly left the practice room and ran down the hallway.

And Ryu Gun-woo and Jung Woo-dan, who were sitting in the opposite vocal practice room, confirmed it.

“It really came out.”

“okay.”

“Are you sure this worked?”

“uh.”

Ryu Gun-woo laughed. There was one thing he was sure of.

own position.

Among the participants, the highest level of public awareness, topical skills, and even the president’s high evaluation.

‘It’s hard to ignore the same performer.’

It was not intimacy, but the power of rank and authority.

It’s different from human crush, so if you persuade it directly, you may have a reaction, but it’s enough to bypass it.

‘Because I believe more if I think I’ve found out something on my own by analyzing the other person’s words.’

In fact, depending on the group’s tendency to oversaturate positions, it is possible to push one side as the main focus, but it is not safe to think that way.

Of course, he had no intention of going that far, so Gun-Woo Ryu said this neatly.

“You can bet that the mood will change tomorrow.”

“I don’t fall for such an uncertain gamble, but I respect it as a courtesy to the key player.”

"… … ."

Ryu Gun-woo closed his mouth. After a short exclamation anyway, Zhu Dan put his hand on his chin.

"How many times do I have to do this?"

"Just change the record one more time."

"Would that work?"

"I have to talk anyway. The rest of the trainees are all in the same situation, so they must be trying to unite. Did you see him run away?"

As long as Testa and VTIC preoccupied the vocal position, the situation of the remaining trainees in the dance position is similar.

Then they will share this strategy among themselves. Meaningful figures should come out, but as long as they are all in similar circumstances, the language will communicate well.

'Then, roughly how the votes are distributed, even if Ryu Cheng-wu eats only 1/3 of it, it's a stable pass.'

Only the number of VTICs and testers who have already returned from memory are six.

Half of the garden has already been secured, so this should be enough.

Ryu Gun-woo shrugged his shoulders, and Ju-dan was quite serious… I sympathized.

"You seem to think a lot about human psychology. I do sometimes too. It's a pretty interesting habit."

"… … ."

Ryu Gun-woo decided to continue the explanation of the next target quietly without bothering to reply.

In the meantime, beyond the corridor where they had their eyes off, something that Ryu Gun-woo had not predicted was happening.

“omg.”

1. The participant fell while running down the hallway.

“evil!”

2. I felt pain in my ankle.

“Are you okay?”

3. Liu Cheng-wu, who was returning from the interview, witnessed it.

And it moved right away.

“for a moment. Don’t move.”

Ryu Cheng-wu reacted reflexively to the situation as he was taught in training.

“Are you sick here?”

After checking the pain in each part.

“Your muscles look a bit surprised, but you don’t have to worry about injuries.”

Reassure yourself based on your own experience. He even went so far as to find a spray-type patch in a nearby rest room and hand it over.

“use it.”

“ah… yes. thank you.”

And they leave without particularly trying to comment or give advice.

Perhaps it was a light favor that could be treated as a daily routine. What Liu Cheng-wu would always do.

However, the situation was a bit special.

"… … hmm."

The participant who woke up after spraying the paste thought as if evaluating.

He is calm and has a big body and responds quickly. It was not for nothing that I came from a national university.

'If it's a team, I can be a little dependable.'

and… This is the vocal position. There is no need to compete for positions.

If you think about it, if you don't take Kim Da-hwan, who is in the dance position, the only remaining candidates are Ryu Cheong-woo and the rash kid.

If this is the case, a fairly common sense feeling will come up.

'… Wouldn't it be better to be someone who has played well in a team rather than take that bad guy with anger dysregulation disorder?'

The contestant surreptitiously corrected the sentence he was trying to rant about voting to others. Then I walked slowly down the hallway and headed towards the inn.

And a few days later, the long-awaited final broadcast.

-Wow, finally

-Ah, I want to see you, but I don't want to see you either ㅠㅠ Are the kids okay

?

In a situation where viewers are defending the main broadcast without winning their curiosity, the president directly announces the survivors in the lower ranks.

in the order in which they received the most votes.

[I am a survivor who received a total of 11 votes and joined the final stage.]

-Wow, overwhelming

-votes.

-Dahwan?

Amid light speculation, the voting screen passes through the VCR, and the party is finally confirmed.

[This is Ryu Cheong-woo.]

[…] !!]

With 11 out of 12 votes, Ryu Chung-woo became the first passer.

Except for one vote in the lower ranks, which is virtually in danger of being eliminated, the results are no different from sweeping.

-????

Ryu Chung-woo with -10 votes?

-Is this possible?

Viewers were taken aback, but they were convinced when they saw the participants smiling and clapping their hands without much agitation.

-Ryu Chung-woo must have a good personality

-I think the insider is different -Are these guys not very close

at the agency?

‘What.’

He didn’t know that Ryu Cheng-wu would sweep it this far.

‘I saw about 8 or 9 votes.’

And I realized

‘He doesn’t speak empty words.’

– I’ll take care of the ticket.

Liu Qingyu was really confident in his popularity.

Even if he didn’t do that, he proves that the vote that he would have generously earned at least second place is not groundless confidence.

‘… Because he’s a sensible guy.’

Didn’t you act as a leader right away in < Azusa > as if you were eating a meal?

‘It must have been similar this time.’

Park Moon-dae happily accepted his mistake.

Ryu Cheng-wu went in after announcing his acceptance speech with a slight blush on his face.

[As much as my colleagues trusted me, I will show you a good performance befitting the team on the final stage today.]

Testa’s Mundae Park, who took on the appearance of Gunwoo Ryu, applauded the leader with pleasure.

And another vocal position trainee is called, and the two eliminated are confirmed.

It’s a cool thing, but it didn’t have a huge repercussions because it was in the bottom of the vote anyway.

-Aigo ㅠㅠ

-The stage is cruel

. -Everyone is still young, so please debut somewhere else!

After a short period of time so that viewers can be moderately sad.

[Yes I am!]

The final stage unfolds.

The stage of 10 people continues smoothly thanks to the 4 people in the bottom ranks taking on the same part and practicing two different movements.

And naturally, viewers poured out emotional expressions worthy of viewers of the last broadcast of survival.

-ㅠㅠㅠㅠ -Please

all debut

-Taein-ah, it’s not too late, no, K-pop’s leader Shin Eui-son, boss please

-Taein-ah, please use

common sense judgment .

It was because there seemed to be no other line.

However, I couldn’t read the face of president Kim Tae-in, who was sitting in the judges’ seat.

Thanks to that, around the time viewers poured out curses, resentment, and drips.

Suddenly, the screen grabs the back. and see… Wearing a mask, but a familiar face.

-???

-Hey

, just now

.

A handsome man with his arms crossed was standing in front of the standing seat, not in the audience seat for officials.

-My 1st friend

-Hey ,

why is

Sejin Lee

open

?

Here, it was Bae Se-jin, an actor who had not yet changed his name.

An actor who is famous for filming only movies like a cow with very little media exposure appeared out of nowhere in the audience for the final episode of male idol survival.

Of course, the reaction to him poured out like crazy in an instant.

And from the moment the camera director and PD recognized Lee Se-jin, he started appearing on the screen quite often.

[Who can be a STAR?]

Passionate support for the trainees and stories about Lee Se-jin appear in the comments every time it crosses the stage and is caught every 1 or 2 seconds.

Because the reaction was visible.

[Talent crossing the stage, that's mine]

When someone is caught on the screen, you either open your eyes nervously or swallow.

-I'm rooting for Ryu Gun

-woo

-That's right -Cha Yoo-jin seems to like it too

-Lee Se-jin likes skillful people, so do I.

– It seems too transparent who is rooting for. -ㅅㅅ Why are you so good at acting in real life

?

It had quite an eye-catching effect.

-Do you consider a male idol, Seoba, who even sees Lee Se-jin?

-Who can I cheer for? -Tell me quickly

-What are you doing?

And there was one more element that was indispensable to the original climax.

It’s empathy and tears.

And the easiest way to derive this element was already standardized.

[A surprise letter to the trainees]

A warm middle-aged voice resounds from the billboard on the quiet stage.

[?? : Is our Yunshin doing well?]

That is, family.

“… !”

Bae Se-jin, in the audience, almost bit his teeth.

‘… no way.’

Shortly edited video calls and friendly recordings pass by to see if they are all taken from trainees.

‘no way.’

Bae Se-jin did not know very much about the ‘real’ family history of Park Moon-dae, that is, the current Ryu Kun-woo.

However, if you look at the honest reaction when the story of your parents comes out, you can’t know if you don’t know. That Ryu Kun-woo is not very different from Park Moon-dae’s circumstances.

‘… How about here?’

Since he had never talked about that topic before, Bae Se-jin alternately looked at the billboard and Ryu Gun-woo on the stage in a cold sweat.

And when he confirmed that Ryu Gun-woo was standing still without an expression.

[Geon-wu, how are you?]

The electronic signboard screen turns black and Ryu Gun-wu's name begins to appear.

[These people sent e-mails all the way here, so we had a phone call.]

[Letter from the Antarctic base]

Comments pour in.

-And Ryu Kun-woo's parents are both researchers?

-Look at the Antarctic base;

-Your head hasn't gone anywhere, you're from an elite family

.

At first glance, it seemed that he was listening to his parents' voices with emotion, but Bae Se-jin, who had shared his joys and sorrows for years, caught the emotion of the gesture in his eyes.

'Remember.'

Bae Se-jin clenched his fists.

Episode 398 Ryu

Kun-woo did not look back at the display board. However, words continued to flow from the display board.

[He said he wanted to be an idol, but mom and dad didn't know that he was showing off his cool appearance on a program like this.]

'Really… !'

Why do some generations of broadcasting stations prefer unchanging, peripheral, low-level stimuli?

Bae Se-jin gnashed his teeth under the mask. And whether he did it or not, speculations such as 'Ryu Gun-woo must have been impressed' spread well through the comments.

[Make sure to debut and see your face. Fighting, my son!]

Ryu Gun-woo did not raise his head with his hands clenched tightly. And the billboard passed slowly enough to be cruel to Bae Se-jin.

'under… .'

A short message from Shin Jae-hyeon's mother passes by, and the director's comment appears as the moving BGM softly wets the filming set.

[Please tell us what you think about checking the messages from your family members on stage like this.]

The camera took a close-up of some of the participants accepting the microphones in order.

Kim Rae-bin, who swallowed his nose with tears in his eyes, was quite sad and cute, but the problem was the moment when the microphone went over and finally reached Ryu Gun-woo.

Ryu Gun-woo held the microphone with both hands and was silent for a long time to the extent that it was barely allowed in the live broadcast.

And then he opened his mouth.

[…] Thank you.]

After bowing his head deeply, he raised his head quite courageously.

But there is agitation in his voice.

[I will make sure to debut and show a good image.]

The reaction was good because I felt like I was trembling at the greeting or emotion that I couldn't tell whether it was from my parents or the public.

Aaaa!

Exclamations

of pity and cuteness .

However, Bae Se-jin, who knew the truth, was confused.

'It looks tough.'

It looks like he's biting his lips in excitement, but in reality, he must be holding back from sadness or shock… .

… uh?

'Wait a minute'

Bae Se-jin regained the self he almost fell into sentimentality for a moment and looked at that expression objectively again.

Moondae Park is chewing on the inside of his lips.

That's just pure grit.

In vulgar terms, an expression of dog rage.

"… ??"

'His head… I think I'm pissed… ?'

Gunwoo Ryu on stage stood upright with blazing eyes.

It was an incomprehensible eye that was seething with desire.

-I guess I got excited after seeing my parents for the first time in a while

. Yes, model student likes

this

taste . is steadily advancing.

The president thought the decision was made after careful consideration with the officials, but in fact, someone who knows the future decides the direction and announces the list of successful applicants.

The number of people announced one by one with appropriate moxibustion.

[Shin Jae-hyun.]

People cheer each time they are called one by one and trainees express their feelings.

Ryu Gun-woo, Jin Chae-yul, Jeong Woo-dan, Cha Yu-jin, Oh Yoon-shin… .

[This friend had a lot of worries, but it was great to see that he gained a lot of trust from his colleagues in such a short period of time.]

Even Ryu Chung-woo.

It was when the odd number of 7 people was just right, and people were anxious about whether it would end here, and expectations died on the faces of the participants.

‘It was an extremely valuable experience!’

No, to be precise, when the faces of the rest of the participants except Kim Rae-bin, who was already engulfed in lingering feelings, were like that.

The president pretends not to be very dramatic, and then announces the final additional successful candidates.

I was thinking of keeping them together for the next round, but after going through ‘Orchestra Collaboration’, I couldn’t stand the greed for the perfection of the group and made the choice.

[Raebin Kim.]

[…] !?]

[The last member of the group.]

Kim Rae-bin, who almost jumped from his seat, almost got the microphone upside down. It was a redhead in the middle of the night, not alone.

[That low price? … … … Yes!]

-ㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

-Why is Labin’s

face

Half VTIC, half Testa.

‘It’s a tie.’

The leader of VTIC, who was called for the first time, felt a brief emotion while recalling the bet with Park Moon-dae.

So, to come to a comprehensive conclusion, the < Wise > final was a success.

The two additional dropouts brought regret and regret, but the dominant opinion was that the president selected them fairly well anyway.

In fact, to put it bluntly, it’s to the point where people say that even those who were eliminated were well cut.

I didn’t know if it was normal. Because it was a combination of idol members who had already been verified once.

[Idol Survival, which is said to be the best combination ever] [List of finalists who passed Letty Serva]

[The name of Wise’s new group has appeared]

However, Testa’s Park Moon-dae finally got off to a good start on the stage where flowers fluttered and firecrackers exploded… .

It was still cold in my head.

‘You fucking bastard.’

Because I was certain of some kind.

* * *

-Keun Sejin: You worked hard at Moondaemun University, and you were cool (Thumbs up emoji) Rest well today!

I checked the chicken gifticon he attached. And when you send an answer that says ‘yes’.

Suddenly a pop-up appears.

[brother… Are you okay?]

I replied calmly.

“I’m not okay.”

The pop-up stops as if I couldn’t bear to type any words. I know what you’re guessing, but that’s not why I’m not okay.

It’s because of the madness of being caught by a dog.

“It is a lie.”

[…] Yes?]

“It’s a lie that my parents are alive.”

To be caught in such a prank.

I continued muttering, ignoring pop-ups that vibrated like crazy and poured out typos.

“The back and forth don’t match.”

There are too many logical loopholes.

“I don’t know if you can’t make calls in the first place, but if you can receive mail, it means you have the Internet.”

then.

“There is no need to connect via voice call. Better to get it on video or ask for a video call.”

No matter how slow the internet, there is no way you can’t send a picture at all.

The response comes very carefully with a time term.

[Maybe your parents refused to reveal your face… ?]

“The excuse will come out with that. But that’s not all I suspect.”

I turned off my smartphone.

At first, I couldn’t reason because of the shock, but I had a thought the moment I saw the details on the electronic board that said, ‘Letter from the Antarctic base’ earlier.

“Were my parents right to be researchers?”

[!??]

“In my head, of course, I passed it as correct, but other than that, I don’t have any memories related to my parents’ work.”

I wouldn’t have suddenly become a researcher as soon as I entered the house.

“At least, there might be some impressions about the place of work, but it’s just that you went to work and left work.”

It’s like a setting that was added only at the end.

“It is not normal. never.”

The pop-up didn’t answer for a while, but soon it poured out small texts.

[actually… I also had a similar curiosity. Being a researcher is a stable job. Still, I don’t think my older brother inherited the money… … .]

“Yes.”

I actually doubted that too. If you are a researcher, it is a high-paying job, but I don’t remember stealing or losing stocks, but the fact that I inherited little wealth.

To the point that I don’t even remember having any doubts about it.

“therefore… The parents of the Antarctic base researcher here are most likely lying.”

[…] .]

“I made it up.”

I don’t know what I did while the system was running out of control, but wasn’t it that I planted the proposition of ‘researcher’ in me and made it naturally understandable?

I also blew my memory of the time I met the real Park Moon-dae, so I thought I could hint at that much.

“But it doesn’t seem so natural that there is no sense of incongruity.”

[…] Because hyung voluntarily noticed right now?]

“Yes. Perhaps meeting them in person would make them feel uncomfortable, so they sent them to Antarctica so they wouldn’t be able to see them.”

Also, I thought I would feel a greater sense of incongruity when I came across photos of my parents who became researchers, so I blocked visual information altogether.

Pop-up is distorted.

[It’s so despicable.]

It’s not once or twice that the system has messed with it, and it’s not like it’s happening again. It’s just that being caught like this is like X.

‘It’s even more upsetting to touch someone else’s memory.’

That too… It’s a memory that doesn’t last long.

No, let’s not fall into sentimentality. There is no time for that.

I continued my reasoning, and the big moon also kept busy talking about my own reasoning.

[then… So this is definitely not the past, right? Is it like a dream? Like that daydream I made up.]

“I don’t know the latter, but I’m sure of the former.”

I muttered quietly.

“Seeing that people who don’t already exist in reality can’t come out, I don’t think they’ve returned to the past at all.”

It’s because all the settings were messed up from the beginning.

[…] … .]

“It could be a good thing.”

That’s sure to motivate you.

[Brother.]

I made a decision.

I did not bother to hide the matter from Cheongryeo and shared it.

About the imperfections of this place.

The guy who was sitting in the waiting room of the soon-to-be-demolished filming set listened to me and commented without much agitation.

“Ultimately, there is no change in our goals. Right?”

“… That said, you may need to be a little more careful about what you choose.”

I frowned.

“Because if there is an error in memory, you may make the wrong choice at a crucial moment.”

no matter how small it is

A trivial point that seems insignificant changes and the butterfly effect may occur.

‘I need to check once in a while to make sure I don’t feel any discomfort.’

However, Chung-rye had a sad face.

“Brother. It’s okay as long as you properly memorize the information necessary for the process. The more memories are originally piled up, the more they are distorted.”

“… … .”

“You have to be vigilant… It is a side effect caused by memory.”

what.

“emotion.”

“… !”

“If you have information value, reason judgment, there is nothing to make a mistake. There is nothing particularly wrong with choosing. In the end, you only have to choose one.”

The guy declared.

“Only the goal.”

“… … .”

“Yes?”

“okay.”

I didn’t expect to say something like this, but talking to him seemed to clear my head a bit.

Grinding my teeth, I declared.

“Unconditionally, I get the target quickly and leave here. That is the goal.”

“It seems that juniors have a habit of saying obvious things one more time.”

noisy.

I straightened up and sat down.

Let’s quickly get to the point.

“first… About our debut concept.”

The grin faded slightly from the guy’s face. I crossed my arms.

“The concept of VTIC’s 1st album was for building a worldview.”

“Testa would be no different.”

“well. Because we have high music rankings.”

“Haha, it seems like a survival program with double-digit ratings at the moment.”

I guess you want to say that you never dreamed of being a survival or even that rank.

“… Anyway, since yours is for the mid- to long-term, I’m assuming it’s too minor for the short-term.”

“well. Overseas, the response was definitely good.”

… did you? I filmed male idols, but I didn’t have to watch the music video for their debut song or analyze their outfits.

“Exactly what concept is it?”

“The afterlife.”

“Big.”

I was about to be caught off guard.

I barely responded.

“too much.”

“Haha, did you say that to Testa?”

“… … .”

“There is nothing too much if the investment is sufficient. The important thing is perfection.”

“… … .”

[That’s what my brother said… .]

Uh, I know, be quiet.

“Anyway, aiming for popularity at this time isn’t a very good strategy either.”

Cheongryeo patted her chin and continued talking.

“LeTi has traditionally had good support in overseas KPOP fandoms, so we should go with it.”

“Overseas.”

“yes. The English subtitle version of < Wise > uploaded on Witube got quite a lot of views. It’s also the best report card I’ve ever received for survival.”

the guy laughs

“Let’s go overseas and go based on album sales.”

“for a moment.”

Where do you set your mind?

“If you select the sound source well, you can achieve good grades in Korea. Isn’t it still a good time for male idol popularity?”

It’s hard to expect good performances from music sources unless you’re a solid first-team player after a few years, but isn’t this a time when there are still quite a few guys who are making good grades?

“That’s why it’s not possible.”

what?

The smile disappears from Cheong-ryeo’s face, and boredom rises again.

“Efficiency is the worst.”

“… … .”

“There are groups that are already enjoying all the fun to see with the public.”

And I realized who this guy was talking about.

“… T-holic.”

In reality, they are just senior idols who maintain their group through entertainment.

We also appeared on their variety shows. An old group that doesn’t have high expectations for music performance and fills the topic with a sense of entertainment.

But not now…

here… It’s time for T-Holic to be active.

“yes.”

Cheongryeo nodded.

“Our opponent is a T-Holic in his prime.”

Chapter 399

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 399

Of course, neither VTIC nor Testa were in the first group, but in the past, there were other group 1 idols.

‘And now that’s T-Holic.’

I was silent for a while, thinking of the people who collapsed under the sophistry of ‘distress is better than 1 billion’ in our entertainment show.

Thanks to that, as a voluntary penalty, the theme song of the magical girl was aggro.

At that time, they behaved like pure X-pop, but that was all for entertainment purposes, and in fact, they were the ones who enjoyed the ridiculous heyday.

After them, the male group that was properly evaluated as ‘popular’ only managed to maintain its existence when Testa rose.

“Now is the prime base before they enlist.”

“With this title song released on March 22nd, it is scheduled to rank 8th on the music charts for the year.”

Cheong-rye predicted a terrible future without blinking an eye. Judging by the look on his face, he must have restarted a lot because of the T-Holic guys.

But that’s it.

“Let’s make sure of this.”

It was not a situation where he had to constantly clear status ailments over several years.

“What we’re trying to do is a single shot. It’s not that I’m trying to consistently receive the Daesang in the mid- to long-term.”

“What do you mean by that?”

“There is nothing to think about the complicated future.”

Image consumption management Consistency Fandom maintenance Sustainable concept… You don’t need all of this.

Just for this year, you just need to flip the T-Holic.

“Let’s see the quantity game.”

Because I’m going to make a decision this year.

Qing Li stared at me.

“I didn’t expect to believe that a rookie would succeed just by pouring in the amount.”

“If you can’t digest it, you can’t succeed.”

I grinned through my teeth.

“But all the members have been successful. Half of them remember how to succeed.”

“… … .

These are guys who have been in the first group in the entertainment industry for at least five years and at most several decades. Products that have already been sold.

“You just need to strategize well.”

“Tell me.”

I delivered the way I thought according to the timeline.

two albums.

and fraudulent methods.

“The composition is fine.”

Cheong-ryeo stroked her chin and smiled lightly.

“Assuming you have a good song.”

It was the words of a guy with a brain that accumulated a compressed and accumulated song database for the next 8 years.

I laughed too.

“I think this far will be useful.”

next day. As soon as he entered the recording studio, he instantly recorded seven songs as he remembered them and turned them into a tentative sound source.

It was a feat that made me want to be human, but now I want to.

I turned and listened to the song.

Some songs I know, some I don’t know.

And what I chose… .

“this.”

“ah.”

It is an R&B song by a certain rapper who ate properly for one season but ends up drunk driving.

“You made a good choice.”

The guy nods his head in agreement. Well, if the reviews are good even though the ‘grabbing ears’ I originally had are gone… .

“I bet you haven’t even thought of this top note yet. I’m going to think about it while drinking in the fall after three years.”

“… … .”

Was it appropriate in that sense?

It doesn’t matter anyway.

“good. Then arrange this.”

And the one who will entrust this… .

“Are you composing?”

“I know the theory. But creation is the realm of the senses.”

“The b-side songs are good.”

“You don’t have to explain the difference between the title and the track, right?”

OK. I should just give it to the company and let them make it.

‘Still, it would be nice to include a member’s name in the composition and lyrics… .’

And I had to choose one more song. It was when I was shaking my head furiously.

“There’s a member over there who handles songs, right?”

ah.

Anyone can see that this is the story of Kim Rae-bin.

The guy smiles and says,

“Awake it.”

“Because it doesn’t work out on my own.”

“It must be your junior’s heart to try.”

I’m bored to death Shall we spin it 10 times and spit out a list of failures in this guy’s face?

I pressed the ‘Draw 10’ button with a confused face.

“Don’t float. Getting picked so easily… .”

[Leap towards the emergency… .]

“… ??”

[Hut!]

[★★★★★ Kim Raebin / Main Rapper]

“… … .”

“… … .”

“You picked it.”

“… … .”

Is it real?

Isn’t this system bastard manipulating the probability while looking at the truth?

‘Are you doing this because you were caught bluffing the pad with your parents?’

If you think that’s going to work, you’re really stupid. anyway… .

‘I won’t refuse.’

I immediately accepted Kim Rae-bin as a colleague. I had no intention of delaying.

and after a while

Kim Rae-bin, who was scheduled to return to Gangwon-do tonight and rest for two days, was still at the office building because of a meeting with a company person.

“hello!”

“Oh yes.”

And when I found him and pressed the awakening button, Kim Rae-bin’s reaction can be summarized like this.

1. Confusion.

“… ! So you’re saying this is a fake world? In that case, Grandma, Grandpa, and older sister, too… Is it fake?”

2. Convince.

“Considering that the act of awakening is possible, there is a high possibility that a person is real!”

And with feedback comes questions, and this cycle repeats itself forever.

“What exactly is the starting point for this phenomenon?”

"… ?? If you were flying over the Pacific in a private jet, whose private jet is it?"

don't hesitate to ask questions

When I came to my senses, I was even robbed of being able to do some kind of telepathy with the 'real Bakmundae' for the first time.

'Really?'

I can't believe it, but he even delivered a pop-up message from the big moon.

And this guy again… Ask questions.

"Then, between Ryu Gun-woo and Park Moon-dae, which title do you think is more appropriate?"

"… Do what is comfortable for you."

"… ! As expected, even if the period is short, you prefer the title of the period when you have a relationship with many people."

yeah, think about it as you like.

After a long time, Kim Rae-bin, who adapted to the situation in his own way, seemed to set up complicated theories, reasoning, and formulas in his head.

And the conclusion drawn through the process of understanding again is… .

"If you need even my biased abilities, I will do my best!"

Fortunately, it is productive.

Of course, check once.

I grabbed him by the shoulder.

“Even if you feel like you’re a little infringing on someone else’s rights?”

“… I believe in your explanation that there will be a part that everyone implicitly understands in order to restore the tongue to reality… .”

“okay.”

well thought out

I had a lot of questions, but it’s comfortable to start by putting it right in the beginning.

I tapped him on the shoulder.

“I’m counting on you.”

“I really appreciate you!”

I took the awakened guy and returned to the officetel.

Of course, it is not without side effects.

“Cha Yoo-jin! you!”

“I told Kim Rae-bin to talk plainly! Kim Rae-bin was late!”

“It’s because I was late in registering my birth, but I’m actually older than me, and I can’t excuse the act of asking if that’s not important in Korea!”

“… … .”

It seemed like I was having a touching reunion with Cha Yoo-jin in my officetel, but at the end it was like this.

I don’t know, but it seems that Cha Yoo-jin made fun of the 17-year-old guy with no memory.

Anyway, Kim Rae-bin regained his composure through Ryu Chung-woo after a while and accepted the melody I offered.

This is a song by the drunk driving rapper.

“I wish I could arrange this with just the melody, but the melody is so kitschy.”

“Yeah, with that top note and riff… What genre are you considering?”

“I wish it was a house.”

Raebin Kim nods his head as before and listens earnestly to the story.

I then threw the bait one more time.

“Rabin. And I’m sorry, but I have to do one more.”

“yes?”

I passed the play to the next file.

“This is it. I hope both songs use similar instruments and go with a serial feel.”

When he played the melody he had chosen, Kim Rae-bin’s face lit up.

Yes, trying to arrange the original song as if it were my own, I suffered from a pang of conscience, but this is not the case.

‘… In fact, this is also true.’

-I adjusted the VTIC comeback schedule, but it didn’t come out this time because of the butterfly effect. Did the composer give up?

what is that

“Well sir.”

Kim Rae-bin, who did not know the additional information that it was a hit melody that someone else would come up with in the future, just nodded passionately.

“Shall we work fast?”

“If possible, start with the latter.”

I smiled.

“Because I’ll pay for that.”

It was the beginning of a series of presentation scenarios.

LeTi’s rookie boy group who will debut through an in-house survival program.

[Countdown to Wishze’s debut… Does the music industry change?

-The president gave a tea to the in-heart as if he was proud of himself. All the kids have been wearing hats lately, do you dye your hair?

After the survival show, the public temporarily took interest in it, but even after nearly two months, the fan base that was formed did not disperse.

This is because the two deceased figures did not miss the timing.

“Even if I let the public rest, I have to hold on to the fan base.”

“It’s just about live communication and a practice camera.”

In an instant, Wishz’s behind-the-scenes WiTube series was opened.

Even after debuting, I was planning to treat this as a prequel to reality and take care of continuity.

So far so good, but the problem is:

The concept of the debut song.

“The afterlife is too maniac.”

“YES! I am so depressed!”

“Isn’t that kind of atmosphere expected by the existing fan base of this agency? And the magical boy… Well, it must be hard to pass the boss.”

Even though VTIC is behind in the number of awakened people, the situation is tense because Jjambab is the official.

“Wait a moment, we are not the only members, so we should listen to other people’s thoughts.”

So I even asked for an objective evaluation of the two guys who hadn’t awakened from Ryu Cheong-woo’s intervention.

Chae Yul and Shin Oh.

The reaction of the two, whom Park Moon-dae calls “yes man,” was this.

“and… Can’t we do both?”

“I know!”

“… … .”

It was their fault for expecting something from a rookie who hadn’t even debuted yet.

Park Mun-dae held back his sleep, but Ju-dan broke his jaw.

“Indeed, both the magic academy and the afterlife are settings that are in demand. In addition, the better you use symbols, the more in-depth your work will be.”

“… ??”

“Moondae, not Geonwoo hyung. Have you ever thought of something like this?”

And Park Moon-dae realizes the use of the idea of ‘sometimes jackpot’ that Cheong-ryeo said.

50 days after this meeting.

-Are you up?

– It’s out there, it’s awesome.

– Play it right away.

While fans at home and abroad, formed through < Wise >, are counting their hands and waiting, finally, time passes and the music video is finally released.

– What the Hull

people saw was the camera work being sucked into a dark school flooded with meteors and the members standing in various facilities inside the school.

There, there are choreography and close-up scenes going on against the backdrop of strange phenomena.

[One two three

, now grant my wish]

That’s right. VTIC and Testa created new keywords by weaving together the concepts of their debut songs.

< School ghost story. >

It was the subject of their debut song ‘Wish’.

-I thought it would be like this, but it’s even better

-I thought the world view would be stunned

, but surprisingly it’s not too bad.

A dance song with strong nuances of thrill, horror, mystery, and hunting. By putting a little bit between the camera work, the overall tone was raised more intensely.

Besides, the background is school.

It may be that likes or dislikes may differ, but there was one certain demand for those who wanted a strong debut.

It wasn’t a popular choice, but that wasn’t the target of this album.

“What we are aiming for is overseas.”

It was the existing KPOP listeners.

When the three beats perfectly fit, from the sharp choreography, strong music, and strong concept, the needs of the consumers were satisfied and the fandom naturally grew.

When added to the start-up advantage of being a large entertainment company, the overseas momentum was growing at a terrifying pace.

“It seems that the company is trying to focus on that side of the schedule, isn’t that what you wanted?”

“okay. nice.”

Thanks to that, they organized their debut activities in a way that thoroughly appealed to the fandom.

There were some fans who were a bit disappointed with the public awareness created by the survival show, but the fandom steadily grew domestically and internationally anyway.

In addition, it was still far from the steamy summer at the end of May, but it was hot enough due to global warming.

Thanks to this, the ghost story concept did not stand out too much and was moderately buried as a seasonal special element.

The initial release of the album stopped at around 100,000 copies, but considering that it was still before album inflation, it was very good.

It’s even more so when you consider that it’s a debut album.

‘It’s only with the next album that the foreign fandom attracted here starts to buy albums in earnest.’

With songs and concepts that can madly appeal to the global fandom, the group successfully appealed.

Now it was time to move on to the next step.

Park Moon-dae, who came down from the stage at the end of his debut song activity, so Ryu Gun-woo declared to Cheong-ryeo.

“As planned, the next activity is to do it again within a month or two, at the level of a repackage. Don’t say anything else.”

“and?”

Ryu Gun-wu answered while staring blankly at the guy who clearly knew the question.

A strategy close to fraud.

“and… It’s going to change the route. A completely popular song.”

In a slang word, it’s the back of the head.

I gave foreign fans a nuance as if the next album would have a similarly deep world view and intense dance song, and I kept pulling up the album reservation sales… .

‘It’s just throwing out a popular song for domestic use that can go well on the music chart.’

That’s how they aim to maximize album sales and save music charts.

Of course, we were going to minimize the feeling of betrayal with sub songs, but still, if it was a group, we would never have done it as a rookie.

Besides, it doesn’t end here.

“Before that, let’s pull out individual activities as well.”

What is the best way to get the public to listen to a song at least once?

It was to make a mark in the program that the public sees. That is the biggest reason for appearing on variety shows during the comeback season.

promotion.

By the way.

‘That publicity activity… Why don’t we build up about 10 cases per member and drop them all the way like simultaneous bombing?’

All of the members are showing a deep impression through individual activities, and if you promote a new song there.

“I’m sure it will be aggro.”

Park Moon-dae was planning to use the advantage of being a group of eight 1st-tier idol members who knew exactly what their appeal was.

Episode 400

Idol’s individual activities.

It is mainly done with a certain amount of annual leave, and there are even those who do not even have a full annual leave.

An example is right in front of you. Cheong-ryeol.

“You must be right that VTIC didn’t have individual activities until the contract renewal.”

“I express that I helped the president in his decision-making.”

The boss must have helped you to exercise your opinion.

Anyway, it is common sense that it is done in a line that will not stimulate or divide the fandom too much.

Especially at the beginning of debut, it’s all the more so because strengthening the group is the priority.

but… If you want just one decisive hit, it’s a personal fan sewup after that, unless it’s a part-time job.

it can be erased

“Let’s distribute the work right away.”

“There is no need to delay.”

All connections that can be attracted are attracted. Being a large entertainment company, it is also an advantage that there are many programs that can be plugged in… .

‘I can use the fact that there are already successful guys out there.’

Actor Bae Se-jin, Gyrop Lee Se-jin.

The help of two people with the same name was already promised.

-Bae Se-jin hyung: It’s already been talked about

-Bae Se-jin hyung: I’ll contact you in the afternoon

Originally, it is possible to participate as a group, but since we have to focus on the title of the next album coming out in a short period of time, only some of the members participate for promotional purposes.

and a big one.

-Keun Se-jin: I have a fixed entertainment program, but I think we can come out together? Haha PD-nim asked me if there was any recommendation for a colleague. -What kind of entertainment ?

Like the program, it’s a hit. I immediately recommended the right person who has raised dogs since childhood.

“I took care of Kkim, but… All I did was cut my hair.”

“Normally, I don’t even cut my hair myself.”

So Liu Cheng-wu was put in immediately.

and… .

“… … .”

“I’ve never lost money on this kind of program.”

“do whatever you want.”

Cheong Ryeo also made an appearance. I don’t think it’s impossible, but somehow the feeling of being cheated has become stronger.

Other than that, all the guys who can go by using their characteristics have been put into programs that are popular or will become popular soon.

“I’m not a very active type in entertainment… .”

“Udan, you were famous for having the best sense of humor among VTIC.”

“It is a rumor.”

I pushed Ju Dan and Yes Men into disaster simulation observation entertainment. It’s a clean decision, so don’t think about saying anything to me.

“What am I doing?? I’m good at everything!”

“You are going to the army.”

“… !?”

And he put Cha Yu-jin into military entertainment. I’m a guy who doesn’t go there, so I’m sure he’ll endure this much.

After all that, there is only one person left… what is this guy

I sent Kim Rae-bin to a designated variety show, but he even called me before filming on the day.

-brother… No matter how you think about it, this doesn’t seem like it.

“why.”

Raebin Kim shouted in a low voice.

-This… Isn’t it illegal participation!

Yes. I made this guy participate in the student rapper survival 〈School Wrapping〉.

It seems that this situation is burdensome when an article is published as ‘a 17-year-old rookie idol student rapper survival contest at a large entertainment company’.

-I am neither a student nor a rookie, but it seems to be no different from some kind of academic manipulation… !

It seems that this has not yet been convinced.

I opened my mouth.

“Whether you’ve been an idol for five years or a day, you’re still an idol there. It’s because I think idols are other fields than rappers.”

-… !!

“And student is not originally a title tied to age. No matter what age you are in school, you are a student.”

-that… !

And actually, Kim Rae-bin here has transferred to high school.

The sound over the smartphone was quiet for a while, but soon the answer came back.

-that… You’re right, though.

“uh. So don’t worry and do your best. It’s rather rude to do it roughly. You seem to be underestimating.”

-… ! okay. Well sir!

It means that Kim Rae-bin became a conglomerate who got involved in children's fights and smashed the board.

'I'm already expecting a reaction.'

I chewed the cud of my choices quite satisfactorily.

Just then, I get a call from the guy who asked for the OST.

-Bae Se-jin: I'll see you soon at the filming set. He said that he was filming something with you, and when he heard about the OST, he said that he remembered < Cosmic Gunner >. And it also means that I will accompany the OST singers for a short time during the promotion schedule.

But that's it.

-I don't sing the movie OST -Bae

Se-jin: ???

-Bae Se-jin: Why are you memoing

? -I don't have time.

Yes.

Considering efficiency, I fell into other activities. For OST, lead vocals with good timbre are also suitable.

If so, what should the main vocal do to make it worthwhile?

'Kim Rae-bin goes to rapper survival… noodle.'

And if it's a meta that uses proven abilities once more.

In fact, it’s not clear where I’m going.

I remembered an article I checked a few days ago.

[Only ideas and songs… 〈The Singer I Made〉 Special Program]

This special program.

I was scheduled to appear one more time in < The Singer I Made >, which is still a prototype.

Of course, I have no intention of carrying the unconventional flower head ‘Groom in May’ again.

‘… rather than that.’

more… I plan to create a character that I can immerse myself in.

I turned on my laptop in the car and started making documents for the company. Tomorrow is an afternoon schedule, so I should be able to complete it even if I stay up all night.

* * *

< Singer I Made > was not a cutting-edge program using holograms from the beginning.

The beginning was makeup.

People who created ‘singer’s avatars’, like characters in an amusement park, appeared directly with masks and special makeup that covered the whole body.

And now is the time to start.

[Singer I made]

“Oh.”

An idol fan who happened to be sitting in front of the TV was looking at the screen without thinking.

Having only picked the main vocalist, she lost her passion after entering college.

‘I don’t have any kids on my mind.’

The fort was not particularly thrilled when I saw the real thing. It was clear that this was a stone thrower.

‘Now that I’m an adult, is this… .’

The college student watched the explanation passing by on the screen without inspiration.

[Singer recreated with an idea!]

‘… It’s bizarre.’

It’s only standardized after a few years, but since it’s in its infancy, there are so many characters passing by that you might want to turn off aggro.

‘ and the spider is the real Eva.

[Dancing Spider Queen]

[The 8 legs come out with poison that freezes people with emotion!]

Medusa?

To be honest, seeing eight black feet wide open under a white spider web costume was something I had only seen in nightmares.

It was all the more so because the quality of undressing the doll was not good.

“Ugh.”

Still, the channel was fixed because he sang well and had a strange cult appeal. (And this was also the reason why this special program became a regular.)

About 7 or 8 teams of all sorts of weird singers passed by in an instant. There were many cases where only 1 minute of singing was sung and only the winner emerged.

“Eww.”

Now it’s time for her to get a little fed up with this weirdness.

The sweeping program finally stops and slowly introduces the next participant.

Like an important person.

[This participating singer is… … Dog?]

And waddled up on stage, really holding a picket… It’s a Welsh corgi.

Yellow puppy full-body doll clothes.

‘omg.’

It’s so normal that I feel a sense of alienation on the contrary.

‘Isn’t it too rough?’

The singer, dressed in an openly ordinary cheap doll mask that can be seen anywhere, struggled up onto the stage.

The picket then closes up.

[Looking for a strong human companion]

“Big!”

Viewers who thought of comments such as ‘Please love me’ almost heard it.

Somehow, the character explanation comes out with a flashing effect that is a B-class sensibility.

[Your Welsh Corgi]

[Desperate job seeker dog who has mastered all sorts of jokes and skills]

[Declaration: Raise (yes?) Raise]

‘What is that!’

Somehow, it was a comment that made the glittering eyes of the doll mask feel shameless.

“I must be crazy.”

Even as he said that, the college student raised his head and looked at the screen.

‘Is he a comedian? I don’t think I’m good at singing.’

But the music started playing and the song he finally started singing was… .

– Over the clouds, up there!

“… !”

It was a cool band song with a bright voice and strong high notes.

‘Uh.’

A song that boasts vocal skills that are so explicit that it completely changes the B-grade atmosphere.

“Who are you? Good job~”

“Uh uh.”

He responded reflexively to what his mother was saying as he passed by the living room, but he was also sincere.

Are you really good at it?

At that moment, the college student changed his mental attitude slightly to kill time without thinking.

I was curious about the next stage of that Welsh Corgi.

[The winner is… Your family's Welsh Corgi!]

The Welsh Corgi advanced to the second round impressively with tremendous cheers. The back of his face looked somewhat courageous.

And it didn't break down in the next round either. No, it shows a more diverse look.

In the second round, they sing a heartfelt trot with another concept-chung contestant, and in the third round, they sing an emotional ballad.

The tone changes quickly and sings like a stunt.

'Looking handsome in a dog mask… .'

The college student narrowed his eyes when he saw the Welsh corgi playing tricks, saying that he would understand why he bothered to create a character.

And finally, the final one-on-one match to determine the winner.

There is nothing to call tension, and the editing flows smoothly.

[All participating singers will sing the same song that was notified in advance!]

If the selection is the same, the difference in skill becomes more noticeable.

And the Welsh Corgi was really good at it.

-Be my light

Even if this time passes,

you will be forever

Welsh Corgi, who sang a female singer's song in one key, won the final victory by mentally knocking out the spider.

It was overwhelming.

Wow!!

"Wow."

What is this? She was briefly thrilled with the vicarious satisfaction she felt from the overwhelming victory.

On the screen, a Welsh corgi is doing a pretty cute victory dance. It's a performance like a job at an amusement park.

At the same time, I was curious.

'Who is it? Who is it?'

In this case, collective intelligence!

As soon as the broadcast ended, she accessed the Internet and checked real-time search terms.

As expected, 'the singer I made' and 'your house' were already on the search terms.

– Wow, it's fun.

-I think I'm looking at what this is, but I'm a legend

ㄴㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ But I am too.

ㄴTheir voices are indeed similar.

ㄴIt’s been a while since you used up your vocal cordsㅠ Absolutely not!

However, a sharp figure is not selected.

‘uh?’

There are all kinds of speculations such as ‘I am an established singer’ and ‘I am a vocalist in an indie band’. The atmosphere where famous idol main vocals come out out of the ordinary.

If there are a lot of people who talk like this, it’s possible that the target will be culled.

And the college student thought seriously.

‘I’m an idol.’

It’s because these people don’t accept idol fans’ claims because of their prejudice, but their flair and dancing skills were nothing out of the ordinary.

It was clear that the product of training was the product of time!

The main vocalist of an unknown idol who sings well! There are already similar cases, so bet here!

‘Wow, this is crazy.’

Suddenly, a feeling of tension surged through the college student’s body.

‘Ah, I don’t even know your face, so why be nervous!’

It was a good sign.

In the end, she waits for the next week’s broadcast with excitement even though she goes through a strange irregular period.

I looked at all the unknown idol stages to try to reason, and my eyes were bloodshot, but in the end I couldn’t pick out just one.

‘please!’

Today is the end of this special program, but I will show you my face! Then it will be concluded that it will definitely cool down or burn!

She swallowed and watched the program.

[Singer I made!]

[A head-to-head match between a burning idea and singing ability]

[The second half starts right now.]

Also, grotesque characters are rampant, and sometimes ordinary characters appear as if they have been matched.

But there is no wit like ‘your family corgi’.

Saying that it has to be admitted, she waited impatiently for the program to end, beating the Welsh Corgi by decision eight times.

And after a little over an hour, when the winner of this episode was finally revealed.

[The last opponent the ‘cauldron ship’ will meet is… ?]

A puppy grabbing a picket rises onto the stage.

[Appearance of the singer who won the first half]

[< Your Welsh Corgi >]

“Hoo-wook.”

The college student took a deep breath and watched TV.

In the meantime, the Welsh Corgi changed the picket.

[Looking for a strong human companion]

“Aspiration.”

You lowered your standards… !

‘There is a narrative… There is a narrative.’

In an era of intensifying job search difficulties, Welsh corgis preempted the laughter of the audience and started the final stage with great style.

Darkness slowly falls over the stage.

widely.

A spotlight turns on.

In the mask of a dog holding a normal one-handed microphone, there is no change in the face. However, a pleasant voice emerges from it.

[I’m looking for someone]

Welsh Corgi started singing the last song as if telling a story.

Chapter 401

If you can’t debut, you’ll die of a disease Episode 401

A song flows on the stage. You can hear the singer’s voice under the dog mask.

College students listened to it. –

My confession to you

with the most beautiful heart

The soft and gentle lyrics follow.

-My love that I will give you with the most kind heart.

It was a love song famous as a marriage proposal song.

‘ah.’

But here it didn’t sound like ‘that kind of love’.

I don’t know if it’s because of the dog’s shape or the voice.

-When you hear love,

think of me.

A dog that saves a family.

What was written on the picket was obviously a joke, but somehow the joke and the lyrics were connected… The humor disappears.

-Today and tomorrow,

I love you,

a mixed song sung by both men and women, resonated plainly with the voice of a singer in a puppy doll.

I chose this song even though I could have made a more unconventional or more intense choice.

On the contrary, it amplifies the delivery power of the stage. strangely.

– I love you.

Welsh Corgi finished his final song with a very deep and rich tone.

The applause from the audience lingered for a long time.

"… … ."

The college student was engrossed in emotion and stood in front of the TV.

A strange longing seemed to call her nostalgia. She stopped thinking for a moment and was still… .

[The impressive stage of 'Your Welsh Corgi'!]

"… ! after."

The MC's loud voice and subtitles echo the audio. The college student barely shaved his head to find a sense of reality.

'anyway… That's good.'

Unless it went through an enormous correction process in broadcasting, the winner was as if it had been decided.

It’s because I made a beautiful song with the right sound in the right place without showing off tremendous volume or high-pitched technique.

[The winner is… ‘Your Welsh Corgi’!]

As expected, the winner came out with a good score difference.

[With this, the singer to be created in < My Singer > has become ‘Your Welsh Corgi’!]

Welsh Corgi presses the ball with both front paws as if thrilled.

It was quite cute and there was a feeling of congratulations on winning, but the main point is next.

‘Identity!’

The flow finally returned to the Welsh corgi after the loser who lost on the verge of winning left a regretful greeting and left.

[Now it’s finally time to meet our winner!]

Pollen explodes.

The MC finally opens his mouth in the midst of laughter and cheers pouring out to the Welsh Corgi, who shows a performance hugging the picket.

[The creator of < Your Welsh Corgi > is… .]

Welsh corgi lowers the picket in line with the signal, lifts both front legs again, and takes off the mask.

And what comes out of it… Sweaty black hair and a cold handsome face.

“… … !!”

[This is Ryu Gun-woo, the main vocalist of Wishz, a newcomer!]

… Idol was right.

However, astonishment took over her body without feeling the thrill of the right reasoning.

It's not nameless, it's already… Because it's a familiar face!

'Ryu Gun-woo??'

The main vocalist from a company survival program who had been contemplating taking a dip in it was smiling faintly.

'No, I thought I was good at the server, but… !'

I didn't know it would be like this. No, first of all, the face was not to my taste, so I looked at it in moderation.

In the first place, I never thought that I would be a rookie.

I thought that he must be an idol who has been around for 5 years, with a character who walks a tightrope between a gwanjong and wit, and aegyo or song spectrum… new man?

'That's also from a three-month trainee… !'

With that face, wearing a Welsh corgi mask, acting casually?

While watching TV with his mouth open, Ryu Gun-woo laughs and puts a doll mask on his side.

Then I picked up the mic again.

[hello. This is Wishz's Gunwoo Ryu. Thank you so much for voting for 'Your Welsh Corgi'.]

The audience's moaning and grotesque screams mixed with a strange response, and laughter broke out again.

[Can I hear your impressions of winning?]

[Actually, I didn't dare to think of winning, and I set my goal to show you what I like by working hard, but really… I can't believe it.]

[What about it?]

[Everyone has the same taste in comedy as me.]

Applause erupts. The MC also asked back, barely holding back his smirk.

[Do you like Welsh corgis??]

[Because I like yellow puppies.]

Saying that, Ryu Kun-wu hugged the yellow dog's head mask and laughed.

The impression that seemed cold and delicate suddenly softened and looked somehow cute… .

[One more round of applause for the winning creator!]

[The 'Your Welsh Corgi' created by Ryu Gun-woo will be active as the station's mascot this month.]

Tadadan!

Along with magnificent BGM, the Welsh corgi, once again wearing a mask, raises one leg and waves a placard cutely. The college student almost reflexively waved his hand at the screen.

So the broadcast ended.

But the heartache that had begun did not end.

"… … ."

The college student eventually picked up a smartphone.

This was the situation until 30 seconds before a new Ryu Gun-woo fan account was created.

* * *

I ate it raw.

It's a special programming program, so the cast lineup isn't great, but the best condition was that the reaction was going to be good once the lid was opened.

'The editing came out well.'

I was already satisfied with seeing 'Wishz Ryu Gun-woo' appearing on real-time search terms.

I had a lot of time because I had an interview scheduled at night and I was sitting in a shop.

You can also check congratulatory messages coming into your smartphone.

It was time to check the group message room where emoticons were running.

A personal message has arrived.

-Keunsejin: Hahahaha

-Keunsejin: Did you see this at Moondaemundae (link)

"Hmm?"

I checked the link address.

'It's SNS.'

Did the Welsh corgi create another meme?

I haven't been able to properly monitor it yet, so I clicked because I thought it would be okay to watch it.

A new post posted just a few minutes ago pops up.

-Geonwoo is so cute I think I'm going crazy I haven't been able to sleep for over a week and I'm just waiting for rice cakes

… are you my fan

Seeing that there is a mention of entertainment, it seems that he is interested in the dog this time.

'Are you really asking me to monitor it?'

If your intention is to cheer up, you can't say it's a failure. I smiled and scrolled down.

After the blinking Welsh corgi fan art, masking and undressing videos pass by, and photos from my debut activities pass by, chatter comes up again.

-Actually, I've seen Gunwoo in person because he held a hug event with other members during Wise Guerrilla Con…

uh.

┗Ahㅠㅠㅠ

┗Why didn't you pick Gunwoo ㅠㅠ

┗My friend asked me to cheer for another member.. But that member was also cute.

And as the reaction grew, this person, who was having fun talking, even attached a proof shot.

-The participation bracelet I received at that time and… It was the fabric I remember.

The light blue knitwear and bracelet worn by the person receiving a hug from Jin Chae-yul.

This is the attire that Park Mun-dae's first hommage wore then.

"… … ."

no way.

-I thought it was modified to my taste, but it sounds like a cold cow. It doesn't work for me.

The post posted by the account ended there.

"… … ."

I quietly put down my smartphone.

"Geon-woo, are you doing well?"

"yes. little."

"Oh~ Ah, that Welsh Corgi is that!"

It was similar.

Nothing has changed with this, but somehow I felt like I was back in my place.

I finished the interview that day with more effort than planned.

And in the meantime, the ripple effect caused by entertainment was growing more and more uncontrollably.

* * *

Let's go back in time a little more.

A flow started to form from the time the article appeared before < The Singer I Made > aired.

-Kids' entertainment is coming out (Link)

-Hey Escape from Disaster Hahahahahaha What can I

do?

It was quite common for a group to select a member for entertainment and push them to the program, so people reacted like that.

And it is a program that shows various coping methods through a disaster simulation starring the three VTICs, which were aired for the first time.

Let me tell you first.

… Cheongryeo's appointment was correct.

-ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

-I wanted to have shamanism like this -I mean how to see in the cartoon (Jungwoodan capture) I am incapable of being a friend (Jin Chae -ryul Oh Yun -shin Capture)

Yesman, the two of them are frightened by the sudden alarm or earthquake The appearance of trying to do it brought about a unique reaction.

And Joo Dan talked bullshit there too, but it really worked, so he appealed as a mental support for the two.

That's when the three of them are appealing to the young fan base who mainly use social media.

Variety programs targeting other target groups were also aired.

-All three male idols who came out with four-legged friends are crazy. Please come out again next season. -Shin Jae-hyun, four

-legged friends are here. The two, who made a regular appearance in the new season of the problem dog guidance program called , took good care of the dog.

I focused on warmth rather than laughter, but it seems that there is more to gain from that.

It has built a good image with a strong and mature appearance.

-Anyone is good. Let’s get married

. -I have to see Gangerjwi, but I see Shin Jae-hyun next to him. So why are you so calm and friendly

?

In this way, it succeeded in appealing to a wider range of middle-aged and older people.

Up to this point, fans were anxious about his solo activities like octopus feet, but they didn’t explode completely. Because it felt appropriate and the effect of success was obvious.

However, huge aggro arrived as the next hitter.

-Kim Rae-bin < School Wrapping > Appearance Cha Yu-jin < Enlistment Standard > Appearance…

-????

Cha Yoo-jin’s military variety show and Kim Rae-bin’s rapper survival show.

Fans blew fire at the gem-like lineup.

-Kim Tae

-in is over the line lol Are you kidding me? A kid who didn't even want to become an idol, but he was crazy when he finally made him an idol?

-Hey, no matter how much variety is, sending an army of high school students is a bit too much for the baby

Cha Yoo-jin's military entertainment.

-ㅅㅅ

And the situation seemed to be going as the fans were worried about.

-ㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ Oh, the assistant

, the assistant is clogged

Early broadcasting.

Like any other foreign character, Cha Yoo-jin came out as a licorice role that shows a four-dimensional charm due to communication problems or as an outsider to get a reaction.

Because of his young age, the viewers also laughed, but it was inevitable that the image of 'the youngest foreigner's kkakdugi' was attached.

-I know that Eugene would be frustrated too, but he's so funny hahahaha -But he's strong and cute too

.

However, this evaluation is completely overturned starting with the second episode.

It was because Cha Yoo-jin had a slang word.

[Cha Yu-jin: I'll take it!] – Eugene

Cha,

why didn't I fall behind in the military march

? I laughed while laughing ㅅㅂㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

Since it is an entertainment, the life in the real army has only borrowed patterns and frameworks, but the training schedule itself was consistently stimulating.

Thanks to that, there were many parts where courage or stamina were squeezed, but Cha Yu-jin played a prominent role in those places.

In addition, there were even people who were embarrassed when they couldn't get rid of it.

-You only talk about guerrillaism, but don't you mumble? Is n't it edited

-He must have been working out, somehow

-It's good that he doesn't have unnecessary over-reactions. Being in the military, he came to the camp, and he hated the entertainment type reaction.

Originally, it was a popular variety show, and thanks to this, Cha Yoo-jin's popularity rose to the level of a meme after this 10-day episode aired for 2 months.

“Congratulations.”

On the day he returned from filming, Cha Yoo-jin, who left a great impression saying, “Everyone except me thought I was a football coach,” shrugged his shoulders.

“I hate you. I will not forget.”

OK.

“What about other impressions?”

“The rice over there is tasteless. And everyone uses Kim Rae-bin’s accent.”

After three days, Cha Yoo-jin, who regained her tone, pointed to the TV and spoke out.

Just then, the mastermind comes out.

[Raebin Kim: I will do my best.]

[Sunjoong Lee: I’m afraid of that word now.]

It’s < School Wrapping > that is preparing for the semi-finals.

By this point, Kim Rae-bin had become almost like a grim reaper in the program.

Of course, there were absurd twists and turns, but I’ll explain that later and just to say the conclusion, this side is also a rice cake.

Jin Chae-yul smiles and sits in the living room.

“Wow, there are many people who think that Rabin is a rapper, right?”

“He goes out and talks about Wishes every time he greets you.”

“oh my god.”

And today, as my identity was revealed, all the members were in a state where they made eye contact with the public once in a popular variety show.

Of course, the voice that had been building up burst out.

-What kind of group is Wishz doing

Chapter 402

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 402

The new song to be released was already prepared at the same time as the debut song.

It was necessary to prepare like a double title and leave out one at the last minute, but the important thing is that the performance has already been completed.

Then, when is the best time to explode this Wonki-ok?

“Rabin already has his finals this week.”

“That’s right!”

Right after Kim Rae-bin’s < School Wrapping > final stage.

When Kim Rae-bin wins and the topic is at its peak, it’s the best to say that he makes a comeback with this song.

But do you think it’s too hasty to be sure of winning already?

‘no.’

Unless Kim Rae-bin sings and blows the first verse in the final stage, this is a game that this guy can’t lose.

Sitting in front of the sofa, I watched Raebin Kim banging on his laptop furiously and recalled his < School Wrapping > life.

First appearance.

[Uh uh.]

[A participant with a strong impression]

When a bloody-looking guy in full piercings enters, the eyes of vigilance, admiration, and exploration go up.

However, the mood changes in the next sentence.

[Hello.. I am Raebin Kim of Wishz, a group that debuted 35 days ago. Thank you!]

[!]

Kim Rae-bin answered without a doubt about the order to emphasize ‘rookie’ and ‘idol group’.

Of course, the editing came out like this.

[Do you dare to come here?]

[Honestly, since you’re a large agency, there must be another way.]

[He’s handsome. (Laughter)]

It’s obvious. It is an expression that cannot be accepted.

But again, like an obvious but well-selling cliché, the evaluation is overturned.

[Hmm?]

Kim Rae-bin said to the ambiguous beat that all participants declared a pass, ‘Why aren’t you coming in…?’ He came in with a puzzled face and rapped.

And he did damn well.

[!!!]

In conclusion, when the first episode of < School Wrapping > ended, Kim Rae-bin's Cypher was posted as an unofficial clip in the WeTube popular video rankings.

Of course, there was a lot of backlash.

-A 17-year-old like this? Yes, Jujak hahaha

– The company must have informed you in advance hahaha Do you believe this?

-Even if you knew the beat in advance, wouldn't it be worth acknowledging the punchline

?

-??

And then the team match and then the collaboration match.

The process of making the song himself was recorded for three days straight, and there was nothing more to talk about when it was broadcasted with fast playback.

[I work like this, but it's still difficult to buy more professional equipment, so I often borrow the company's studio!] [I have time left today, so I'm thinking of materializing a new beat. And as a guide vocalist… No, I served Kun-Woo Ryu.]

And that song was filthy good too.

Every time the program ends, they prove their skills by popping up on the real-time music chart.

-Originally, he was a forgetful producer, but he said that he wanted to become an idol after seeing his face

. -The world is so unfair, it’s like a dog

. It feels like a product unique to an idol agency. If the repertoire runs out, it will fail.

That didn’t happen.

From episode 2 to episode 9, Kim Rae-bin rose to the top as an overwhelming candidate for the championship, winning all missions like breaking a seal.

In addition, the fact that he is the grandson of a strawberry farming family in Gangwon-do and his natural respectful appearance harmonized with him, and he became quite popular as a character.

Stable twin carriage.

At this point, some of the people who were looking at it crookedly change their attitude slightly.

-Hahaha I think I’d like to shoot a little bastard for being a

Kim rap idol. I can’t stand it

. Let’s all the groupies stick to him. You win anyway, so why are you giving up on idols? It means that you admit one skill.

I had no choice but to do that. Kim Rae-bin was agitated almost like an ecosystem disruptor.

On the contrary, even if the production team staged Kim Rae-bin’s crisis situation for fun, it was revealed in the next episode that it was a fraud, and viewers’ perception was further strengthened.

And now, only the ending is left as the finale.

Ryu Cheong-woo sits next to Kim Rae-bin.

“How is your relationship with the cast? Is everyone still doing well?”

“yes. It seems that he thinks that he is younger and is more considerate of him.”

The guy who understood that he was tired of feeling pressured by a 17-year-old and bowed down as an expression of consideration, nodded his head.

However, it seems that this guy also had something on his mind.

“I… But would it really be okay if someone else did the last featuring? I thought that the publicity effect would occur as the viewership ratings were decent, but… .”

That is why the featuring for the last stage was not chosen from within the Wishz group.

This is because Kim Rae-bin’s last song featuring was chosen as the lead vocalist, a popular member of Soft Sweet.

I chuckled.

“Because featuring is originally a collaboration with the outside world. The meaning of performing on that stage will be more alive when it is done with someone other than us.”

“indeed… ! It is.”

Of course, this is not the real reason.

It is to control the level of acceptance by people.

‘Group awareness shouldn’t feel like coercion.’

Such blatant tie-in selling rather invites antipathy.

Delicate control is needed in order not to turn off the now swollen topicality or turn into antipathy.

Of course, that doesn't mean it's completely irrelevant.

"Still, I'm going to watch the finals, is it okay?"

Even if it's just a group cheer, it'll be warm.

"… ! I, of course, can only thank you!"

"I'll go and cheer for you!"

"Thank you, senior!"

"Ugh, Rabin, we debuted together, so call me hyung!"

"oh."

I took my eyes off Kim Rae-bin, who was exchanging stories with Oh Yun-shin, and checked the schedule again.

and three days later

Pollen bursts on the stage in the middle of the set of < School Wrapping > where all the members skipped their schedules.

pop.

[< School Wrapping > Season 2 The long-awaited winner is… Raebin Kim!]

Wow!!!

There were no twists or turns.

Kim Rae-bin won with an overwhelming ability-oriented performance that pushed through technique on the final stage.

‘It was useful to give advice in this direction so that there would be no disagreement.’

Besides, he was the only one who pushed with a violent level of competence.

The feature soft and sweet is the best choice in that it slightly arouses the atmosphere and enhances the perfection of the sound source by pushing it with tone and induction of response.

Attempts to discredit Kim Rae-bin will not work.

‘good.’

[persimmon… thank you! I will repay you with a more developed image!]

I applauded Kim Rae-bin, who, while receiving the congratulations from the cast, raised his golden ID card.

The preparations are over.

A few days later.

[The slap winner came out]

[Rabin Kim, who was an idol from the beginning to the end]

[Honestly, it’s a waste of Raebin Kim]

Raebin Kim won and, like a popular survival show, spent three days with articles and reactions, and then the weekend.

Suddenly, articles began to appear.

[LeTi monster rookie Wishze “Self-produced album coming soon”] This is the news of the comeback with the title of Wishz's self-composed song. It was already announced from the time of pre-sale, but deliberately instigated the media once more.

Catch the keyword as 'self-producing'.

Of course, the title of an article that is inevitably reminiscent of Kim Rae-bin is a hot topic that has not cooled down yet.

-You should listen to this once.

-Is Kim Rae-bin in this group? It would be nice to have more songs

ㄴNot only Kim Rae-bin, but also Eugene Cha and Ryu Gun-woo are in this group

ㄴ?

ㄴFour-legged friend Jaehyun and Chungwoo are also in this group~

ㄴThe three funny lunches that worshiped the newspaper in The King of Escape are also the kids here

ㄴWhat the hell is going on

? I applauded it as a desirable phenomenon.

There was nothing more to hold on to.

"It would be better not to share the teaser separately. There is no need to consume this topicality with a teaser."

"okay."

So, after filling up the anticipation with a teaser containing only Bridge's addictive whistling sound, the song and music video were released the very next week.

“… … .”

Inside an international flight.

A man sitting in first class accessed the Internet through the in-flight WIFI, which recently started service.

It was something that didn’t suit him because of his tendency to read books, but now there was something he wanted to see.

‘Ah, it’s out.’

As soon as you access WiTube without having to search, the video you are looking for appears.

[Wishze ‘Timer’ Official Music Video]

It was a new song by the rookie group Wishz.

Maybe it’s because the debut activity was great, but the number of views is already impressive.

The man recalled their debut for a while, then nodded inwardly.

‘Yeah, it was good.’

Wishz’s debut mini-album met the demand of KPOP fandom with a minor yet artistic sensibility that advocated a ghost story of a modern European boarding school.

The stage was great too. The dance performance using long props that seemed to have been taken from a pointer rod was also very unique and attractive.

To the extent that I almost accidentally sent a long commentary to the person concerned.

‘I’m glad I didn’t send it.’

The man let out a small sigh of relief.

Such a commercial and wildly driven sensibility would not have been familiar to a man originally… Somehow, I kept looking back.

"… … ."

The man erased the sinking feeling for no reason.

It's not a feeling that's helpful to work. Instead, I clicked on the video I wanted to watch.

Wishz's new song.

'Should I give it a similar feeling this time?'

In fact, Wishz fans had similar expectations. An intense and stimulating dance song.

But when the man clicked on their new title… It wasn't.

[Um h-hm~]

As before, the band sound is added, but it is relaxed.

[Let's turn on the timer and go back to the time when we were still together]

The voice suddenly became lighter.

And the singing method is also groovy and simple.

[Smile on your shy face,

I still remember the meteor that rained down on us. Today, too

, Thinking about U]

The song develops as it meets two types of melodies captured by the sounds of high-quality musical instruments.

There is no avant-garde story or grandiose narrative in the music video.

Just like the choreography cuts on the rooftop of a cool night school with meteors pouring down, individual cuts lined with cool objects are just different.

A song that sings about the childhood memories that have passed in the midst of youth.

A song that can be listened to by everyone, regardless of the speaker.

There was nothing to cringe about, so to speak. So, there is no particular difference between likes and dislikes.

Just extremely popular and sophisticated.

A song everyone will enjoy listening to.

The melody was already attached to the man’s ears right now.

[When I move the timer and the picture of you in the cam flashes

, it flashes in my mind]

I like this one too.

It wasn’t the same feeling as before, but this popular song with less energy somehow made my heart ache.

[Sparkling!]

He even watched the ending of the music video where the members looked back and laughed.

good but… It groaned strangely.

“… … .”

However, he pondered and turned on the message app.

‘… He doesn’t seem to like me very much.’

I still wanted to contact you. So he texted with slightly trembling hands.

[I really like the song.]

[I’m on my way to Korea, and I think I’ll be listening to it a lot on the street.]

The recipient was ‘Ryu Gun-woo’. And just as the man Sun Ah-hyun thought, when he arrived and was carrying out his schedule, the street was filled with Wishz’ music.

* * *

“What rank are you on?”

At the nervous question, Chung-rye smiled and lifted her smartphone. Floating on the screen is the daily music chart.

“1st.”

“… !!”

“Very awesome!!”

Career workers smirk and laugh among the screaming and falling-out guys.

No matter how hard it is, it would be a lie if I said I wasn’t impressed because it wasn’t until I did something crazy like this.

‘It’s actually our first time, too.’

It’s probably not something VTIC has experienced often either. I took a fresh look at the daily #1 song.

“Thank you Ravin!”

“thank you so much!”

“all. To receive such undeserved thanks for the achievements we have made together, I… .”

“Good job Rabin Kim!”

“Oops.”

I laughed as I watched Kim Rae-bin collapse in a pile of countless hugs.

Cheongryeo smiles and approaches and speaks softly.

“The most difficult thing remains. maintain.”

“uh.”

yes.

If you are aiming for a sound source, retention is a must.

‘I have to go in and run for a long time to get a good score.’

The song and strategy are all good, so honestly, I’m not without confidence in defending my ranking, but that doesn’t mean I’m going to put my hands on it from now on.

So, you have to constantly make your songs heard in entertainment programs and Internet contents.

“You can’t be pushed by T-Holic.”

“I must be busy.”

Various tours and overseas activities aimed at the global are all-stop this time.

I put all my energy into the publicity appearance schedule.

… And then, things like this happen.

“… !hello.”

… … It means appearing on a variety show like Seon Ah-hyun while wearing a cheong-ryeo.

I barely responded.

“… … yes.”

“I didn’t know what to do with this.”

oh me too

‘I’ll turn around.’

Chapter 403

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 403

The filming location of the public TV variety show 〈Only Those Who Win Chicken〉.

'Ah, he's an idol again.'

The regular cast members were not very impressed with the guest lineup they received in advance.

This program is a typical family-oriented weekend entertainment that invites guests to play games and talk together, so there is no burden of appearance.

In addition, all sorts of publicity appearances were prevalent thanks to exports abroad.

'But this week, these kids are worth their name.'

These were the kids from large entertainment companies who sang the most popular songs these days. It's not that I stabbed my side to come out, but I think it will be a public relations level.

What is surprising is the sudden addition of special guests.

'Wow, great'

ballerino Sun Ah-hyun!

I suddenly entered the country as if I was filming an Oprah commercial for the season, but it seems that the production team managed to ask.

Originally, he would not be awkward even if he had a solo feature, but he was scheduled to appear as a special guest due to planning problems because time was running out.

Shall we seize this opportunity?

After accepting the greetings of the Wishz members who came to the waiting room like a rookie, the guest quietly stood up.

“older brother?”

“Yaya, follow me.”

Since Seon Ah-hyeon couldn’t come up with a greeting, he thought of going and pioneering the face himself.

‘If you’re lucky, you can use it as a story somewhere… .’

But when I arrived at Sun Ah-hyun’s waiting room.

It was empty.

“… ??”

The staff hints.

“I… I went to see them.”

“who?”

“Wishes Wishes.”

You’re not an MC, but you’re in the waiting room for those rookies? No matter how unusual his momentum is, he’s a rookie who just debuted… .

“Why did they do a survival show and they appeared as mentors there?”

“ah.”

If that’s the case, it’s understandable.

‘It’s just that I’m acquainted with myself.’

Of course, I don’t expect the filming to go smoothly.

Selling points of similar age groups, similar arts and sports people?

‘The story of a fight is a fight.’

The cast nodded.

I thought that I might have to watch it again when the camera turned around and the atmosphere was X when it was over.

As expected, as soon as the shooting started and some time passed, as soon as the special guest appeared, everyone was preoccupied with the evaluation.

Use existing guests to create special guests!

“You’re so very handsome, really~”

“Ahyeon, you’re a complete idol, right?”

“Looking at it this way… Hey, it looks like the same group?”

It was a common comment, but it was also true. Even the writers like the sight of three beautiful men side by side.

‘Women must really like it.’

While watching the obvious situation, the cast members moved busily to react.

Anyone can see the situation where the special guest benefits from the existing guest.

Surprisingly, however, the existing guests accepted the situation softly and pleasantly without any awkward pretentious nuances.

They even tried to move away and give Seon Ah-hyun a seat between them, saying,

“If you stand like this… A salty center.”

“ha ha ha!”

‘What?’

Aren’t you good with guts for a rookie? Besides, there are things I learned the more I filmed.

What kind of blessing these guys are, there are countless episodes to write for talk or content.

“You don’t know? The one who escaped with a piece of newspaper from an exploded building! The members must have heard of this method as well. unique.”

“Jaehyun-sshi can do some rope too~ Do you have any plans to enlist after Eugene Cha?”

“if! Mr. Rabin, can you imitate your vocal chords?”

Every time we play a game, all the members are mentioned in turn, and the MC knows them all and agrees.

In addition, each of them has their own characters and episodes, so conversations are carried out mainly by themselves.

Only then did the regular performer perceive it sharply.

‘Hey… It’s ridiculously well-planned, isn’t it?’

The feeling that it won’t be a one-hit wonder with just one good song comes up.

It was the first group since T-Holic that each member had their own recognition. But how did the song hit the jackpot?

This group, which exquisitely rode out of T-Holic's hiatus of more than a few months, smelled of it.

The smell of great success.

'It's great.'

Looking at it like that, the guys who appeared now also look new and better.

First of all, I work hard, have enough guts, and have a good sense.

'They seem to be on good terms.'

When it's time for a break, the younger brother smiles and keeps talking to him, and the older brother accepts it, but it doesn't look like he's ignoring it or that it's for show.

'Hasn't he been presumptuous?'

I nodded my head and thought about how to make a friendship, but I felt a similar gaze from somewhere.

Let's take a glance… I see Seon Ah-hyun.

Silently watching the rookies.

"… ?"

huh?

Like herself, Seon Ah-hyun seems to be looking at her every break… all?

The gaze quickly disappeared, but the performer had a feeling.

'What is it?'

Do you really want to become friends?

However, there is a way to say one more time to a celebrity like that, but the two rookies don't talk to Sun Ah-hyun first, as if they are very careful.

And for some reason, the cast had a guess in their hearts.

Because he had heard rumors about Seon Ah-hyun.

'Still, I don't notice. I don't notice.'

Will this owe me some money?

He happily clicked his tongue and took advantage of the data card replacement time to quickly talk to the rookie.

To be precise, when the one who was a year older was left alone.

"oh… how is it? Are you okay with filming?"

"I am filming hard because you are considerate. thank you."

He creates an atmosphere by chatting with a decent guy.

Then, after sneaking up on the topic of Seon Ah-hyun… .

It will hit the core!

"Isn't he a bit chilly?"

"… ?"

Newcomer Ryu Gun-woo's eyes widen slightly and then returns.

Pretending to be suspicious and trying to give a good response was quite fresh like a rookie, so the regular cast members laughed inwardly.

"Some people who do art are like that. I guess it's because he's so handsome. It's a bit different from entertainers like us."

Yes.

Sun Ah-hyun was well-known for her reputation as ‘drawing a line’ in the broadcasting industry.

People are polite, but that’s all. There are also stories that say that the world we live in is different.

‘There are some people who sarcastically say that he devoted his life to the noble ballet.’

It was an attitude that could make young children feel savage or unpleasant. The cast also fully understood that.

Of course, this was the opinion of the person listening to this.

‘What kind of bullshit is this bastard?’

Ryu Gun-woo barely answered.

“… hmm. You were kind.”

“yes. But now I don’t want to make friends anymore… That’s how you feel.”

“… … .”

“But actually, it seems like he wants to get to know you a little bit, doesn’t he? keep us… He was looking at Wishes.”

“ah… .”

Ryu Gun-woo was speechless for a moment. The performer intended to continue giving his advice with a gentle smile, but… .

“hello.”

“Ugh.”

Shin Jae-hyun, a member one year younger, returns and talks to the performer.

“No, I came to ask if there was anything uncomfortable about filming.”

“also. I heard that the seniors take care of the newcomers at every year-end awards ceremony… … .”

“Oh hmm you know that?”

“sure. It is a very famous story.”

During this time, there was no entertainer that Shin Jae-hyun did not grasp the details of.

Ryu Gun-woo thought while he was sending the performers who had been quickly drawn in at his own pace.

‘Seon Ah-hyun cuts off people in a hurry… ?’

It didn’t seem like there was such an odd title.

‘What the hell happened?’

Ryu Gun-woo almost looked back at Seon Ah-hyun for a moment, but stopped.

Is there no need to do that?

“Do you want to write?”

In response to Shin Jae-hyun’s question, who returned the performer, Ryu Gun-woo exhaled.

“no.”

There was no time to indulge in useless sentiment, and the target, the target, was in front of my eyes.

‘I only look forward and go.’

So, he continued filming without hesitation.

What continued after the break was a blatant special guest promotion part.

A corner to learn simple ballet moves.

Of course, it also gives existing guests a chance to promote. slightly at the end of the corner.

“I’ve even tried ballet, so shall we try an idol dance?”

“Oh~”

Shin Jae-hyeon and Ryu Gun-woo came forward according to the script.

“You can dance like this. By moving your shoulders like this.”

“Ohh!”

When Shin Jae-hyun demonstrates a choreography that deliberately makes the hand movements kitsch, the cast members put on body jokes.

And even try to throw it away.

“Ah~ maybe Ahyeon?”

The movement of special guests.

However, what surprised the cast members was that Sun Ah-hyun, whom they thought would be reluctant to do, came out right away.

As if you were waiting.

“If you do this… .”

“yes.”

And they digest it without even knowing it.

"… !"

It is not possible simply by doing similar body movements, but it is a feeling unique to those who have been trained repeatedly.

Shin Jae-hyun narrowed his eyes.

'Does it remain?'

Of course, that look passed in an instant and the cast members were in awe.

"You're good~ You could have been a real idol, right?"

"I know. What do you two think?"

'Are you sure you couldn't do it?'

Ryu Gun-woo nodded and followed the general trend even though he thought he was asking an obvious question.

"I think so too."

"Oh too! Ahyeon-ssi, are you thinking of officially trying out an idol dance?"

Seon Ah-hyun seemed to hesitate for a moment, but that sign disappeared in an instant.

"I really appreciate the compliment, but… But I am a ballerina."

"Ah, be firm."

"This is the craftsmanship!"

Sun Ah-hyun smiled and nodded. So Kun-Woo Ryu casually asked.

"You seem to like ballet very much. Are you always focused on that?"

“… … .”

Seon Ah-hyun slightly lowers her gaze and speaks calmly.

“It is my everything. I never thought of anything else.”

“… … .”

Park Moon-dae agreed with the answer.

‘Did such bizarre rumors circulate because of such a single-minded voice?’

And the performer who watched it shrugged his shoulders at the thought that his advice had worked.

‘This is how you make connections. after.’

And the shooting entered the final main corner.

* * *

I held back a sigh.

‘It’s almost over.’

Now, this kind of entertainment is easy enough to pretend to be sincere even with your eyes closed. Besides, the final main corner is easier.

– Right away~ Treasure hunt~!

Well, isn’t there such a thing as hiding mines and treasure in an abandoned building and finding the treasure, but ruining it if you have more than a few mines?

It seems like every time a program like this comes out.

‘I can do it even without the brain.’

Of course, that really shouldn’t be the case.

I waved three or four gift boxes in front of the camera.

“Are these all real treasures? It seems likely that they are all mines… .”

“We don’t even know~~”

“… … yes.”

I know it’s a treasure I’ve calculated all of your routes.

I deliberately even asked the cameraman once and created an alibi, so I pretended to be nervous and moved on to my next move.

It would be funny if you went to the side of exchanging moderately, exploding, and later knowing that it was all treasure and feeling unfair.

‘Should I find an MC?’

So it was time to go down the stairs in search of someone who would accept the exchange scene.

“… Mr. Geon-woo?”

”… !”

I see a guy coming up the stairs.

Seon Ah-hyun, who was running around.

In his hand is a brown box.

‘… hmm.’

… It wouldn’t hurt to let him win. Special guest and… It’s because he’s the one who promotes national prestige to the elders.

I ran and held out the gift box I had.

“You are welcome. Bro, can we change this? For some reason, I thought it would be good to find you… .”

“yes?”

[Ding-dong!]

[There are 10 minutes until the end~]

The atmosphere was good.

I pretended to be in a hurry and shook the presents.

“I… How about a 2-for-1 exchange? I’ll give you two.”

“… … .”

“If you give me one thing… .”

Seon Ah-hyun was suddenly speechless.

‘what.’

Still, don’t you have the awareness that it’s broadcasting?

When I look at him, puzzled by the tension I’m falling into.

The guy opens his mouth again.

“To me… … ”

“… … ?”

“I gave it to you.”

He grips his box so hard that he cringes and mumbles softly.

“Golden ball.”

“… !”

“Just before the bell rings… I got it.”

what.

The guy who talked like he was almost in a trance kept his mouth shut. But suddenly, he raised his head.

“… Oh sorry! I suddenly remembered something… I said it without even knowing.”

“… … .”

“Thank you for giving me a lot if you need an exchange, but… As expected, we do it one-on-one.”

[brother. now… ?]

I noticed even if I didn’t call.

The golden ball that Sun Ah-hyun just talked about.

‘I… That’s what you gave him in < Azusa >.’

A treasure hunt corner to find a ball with a personal broadcasting keyword.

Just like now… Random with unknown contents.

That’s where I exchanged ‘frozen food’ for his bronze ball.

And, of course, there is no way that ballerino Seon Ah-hyun could have such a memory.

[But you just said it!]

Uh.

So what is the situation

Chapter 404

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 404

… Seon Ah-hyun remembers the events at the time of < Azusa >.

After he threw a bombshell and disappeared, I checked my status window with a tear.

However, there is no mention of Seon Ah-hyun anywhere.

Whether it's a colleague draw or mail.

'Isn't this the effect of this system?'

[Have you ever had a similar experience in this world…?]

It's not that I didn't doubt that… .

'The timing is too exquisite to think so.'

Request for random box exchange at a ratio of 1:2 with the deadline approaching. Isn't that a very similar situation?

Besides, this ballerino Seon Ah-hyun dares to think of the unique experience of 'receiving the golden ball before the bell rings' in such a meaningful way?

'… No matter how much I think about it, that's less likely

. ' ?]

Yes.

As soon as the shooting was over that day, I posted a message in the testa group message room.

-Have you ever had an afterimage about the reality before you regained your memory?

Answers pour in as you push back the previous record of pouring out jokes to Kim Rae-bin, a newcomer.

-Cha Yujin: I'm not that person! -!

-Ryu Chung-woo hyung: There was nothing special like that, but I think I felt a sense of incongruity

And even a belated reply, as if I had thought about it quite carefully.

-Kim Rae-bin: Come to think of it, when I first saw it in front of Strawberry House, I thought it looked familiar! However, since no specific image came to mind, it does not seem to apply.

In conclusion, there are people who have a vague impression, but no one has come up with specific scenes or information.

'hmm.'

I pressed my chin.

It was then. A phone call came in suddenly.

[Bae Se-jin hyung]

He's the one who didn't answer.

"… ?"

Could there be a case grandiose enough to be done over the phone?

I hit the receive button.

However, as soon as he picks up the phone, instead of talking about his experiences, he gets to the point.

-Are you talking about Seon Ah-hyun?

"… !"

– The only one left among us is Seon Ah-hyun, so that's her. … no?

I lived with books all the time, and I also read some mystery novels.

"That's right."

-… !!

It's not even funny to deny it. Then, a slight breathing sound is heard from the speaker.

-What did Seon Ah-hyun remember?

"It's just nothing."

I briefly explained the situation at the time. Bae Se-jin listened quite well, but in the end reacted like this.

-… okay. But I don't know why this is important. Anyway, you can ask me directly after I return your memory.

"Because it doesn't happen at will."

-You've made all the other kids come to their senses. Isn't there a chance for Sun Ah-hyun?

He speaks in a low, calm voice.

– It seems to me that he gave up without even trying.

Why did this bastard suddenly become so sharp?

I reluctantly answered.

“Rather than giving up, I just don’t need it. It seems like Seon Ah-hyun is living a good life even now. I also had success as a ballerino.”

-what? Just because you’re socially successful doesn’t necessarily mean you’re living well.

He spoke firmly, but hesitated a little in the next sentence.

-… If it’s because of that trauma or something like that… Me too… The year goes by.

But again, the voice becomes firm.

-Still, just because it looks like that on the outside doesn’t mean it will be the same on the inside.

“… … .”

… Because I didn’t just talk about it when I was in a difficult situation.

I remembered his appearance in < Azusa >.

The one who was aggressive and uncooperative to a level that he couldn’t even compete with now. So I thought he was just a guy with a disposition that I couldn’t use, but after living with him, he was a guy with his own circumstances and strengths.

‘I am.’

I held back a sigh.

“… It is. Then I will withdraw my previous words… I’ll just leave it as doubtful if this guy has any memories.”

-Kuhm yes.

The guy who seemed to be proud without knowing the reason is silent for a while, and then suddenly expresses himself.

what else

-… ! Then, why don't you take a look at Seon Ah-hyun one more time? I'll make a place for you!

"… ??"

what way do you mean

"Your brother?"

-okay. Then you… I'll give it some time.

"What time is it?"

– Practice time.

* * *

A few weeks later.

Wishz's latest song 'Timer' has completely succeeded in hitting the top spot.

The crazy staying power that still persists in the top 3 on the daily chart is stronger than the original song of the drunk driving guy.

Kim Rae-bin's arrangement and perfect exposure strategy create perfect synergy and balance.

'good.'

And time passed, and it was already October.

Now, people are starting to talk about the possibility of Wishz winning the award.

Fame and popularity are still incomparable to T-Holic.

However, if you look at the music score coldly and consider the value of the name of the agency, it is because these people gradually showed their angles.

[Is there a possibility that Wishes will win the prize?]

[Wishes should receive it if they cut grades]

[It's a pity that T-Holic is being pushed behind like this ㅠ The fans must be worried]

[Wishes' next album seems to be well-prepared, so it's showing signs of division…]

This much in a moderately fighting place.

-Kkkkk I'm addicted to it. Actually, there are young and kind Gadgiz, but why are you sucking at them? Letido's music hoarding is the 1st place chajaegi ㅋ

Park Moon-dae thought that this noise controversy would follow a step too late because it was rising too rapidly.

And although it has nothing to do with the music industry, there is one event that is quite noteworthy this month in the entertainment industry.

awards ceremony.

Korean popular culture and arts festival.

A fairly prestigious awards ceremony that awards artists hosted by the country.

Broadcast live on both the Internet and TV, the event attracted a moderate audience.

-Chkkkkkk

-Lee

came out?

It wasn’t noisy because it was a lineup of a few famous actors among older artists rather than young celebrities who have recently been hot.

Until one corner came out at the end of part 1.

[Celebration stage]

-Ah, a commemorative performance

is coming. ?

When viewers who thought it was a regular performance at an awards ceremony thought of a moderately formal lineup.

A close-up of the performers on the stage appears on the screen.

And the comment section was filled with screams.

-????

– Huh

– What is it?

– Is it true?

– Is that what I saw?????

There were three tall men standing on the stage.

However, the aspect is a completely unexpected combination.

Rookie idol Ryu Gun-woo and ballerino Sun Ah-hyun.

and… Actor Lee Se-jin.

-??? Why is Lee Se-jin there?

-Who is

Sun Ah-hyun and

Lee Se-jin next to?

-Wow, what is this?

-What are the three of you doing

‘Hoo.’

Standing on stage, Gunwoo Ryu recalled Sejin Bae’s slightly excited voice.

It was time to talk about this plan a few months ago.

– I’m going to this awards ceremony too? From what I hear, Seon Ah-hyun is also coming to receive a special award.

-yes.

-Then let’s perform here.

-… ??

-Let’s do a commemorative performance with Sun Ah-hyun! Then observe!

… Let’s think about it from the beginning.

The possibility of becoming a reality… Surprisingly, there was

In fact, this award ceremony is because there were many senior awardees who were full of age and stature to the level of icons of the era.

‘No matter how much Gukppong Named Ballerino is, it’s a little pushed.’

Even if the special stage itself went to Seon Ah-hyun, it wasn’t that far-fetched.

‘The problem was persuasion.’

That’s because the winner doesn’t have to perform on stage. Wouldn’t it be better to call a performance team with a moderately high stature?

Park Mun-dae thought that would be the key, but surprisingly he was easily persuaded without having to do anything.

-Seon Ah-hyun… He said that he became interested in this type of music performance.

… It was rare.

‘It’s not some kind of entertainment destination, but it’s okay to perform a song cover stage without worrying about a name from another field.’

However, that rare event went smoothly and eventually people saw these three people on stage.

“… … .”

Seon Ah-hyun is standing at the place where I turned my head while holding the starting formation.

And Ryu Gun-woo remembered the last request.

-But I heard that his agency asked him to avoid an idol stage that was too direct.

that was rather good

It was because there was a stage that came to mind.

‘If only this number.’

this is it Right after

[Mmm~!],

the stage is filled with bright guitar sounds and classic drum sounds.

A familiar and familiar melody.

Standing on stage, Ryu Kun-woo and Park Moon-dae knew.

‘Seon Ah-hyun has experienced situations that overlap with reality a few times.’

Things like the cover of the vampire version of the soft and sweet song, and the replacement of the random box.

And Park Moon-dae intentionally gave a similar experience this time.

Music plays on the stage and the spotlight shines on three people wearing blue jeans and a white tee.

-Hul

– Daedaedaejonja well

the subtitles are floating.

[You’re amazing

by Seonahyeon Lee, Sejin Ryu (Wishes)]

Testa’s first concert reenactment of the unit stage full of jokes.

An arrangement similar to the original song, which is more formal than that time and more suitable for the awards ceremony, flows onto the stage with a slight sense of stability.

[I can hear your heart

tremble in my shy heart]

The parts were divided exactly the same as then.

The difference is that Ryu Kun-woo is no longer Park Moon-dae’s body… .

people’s expectations.

– Crazy

– Why are you good at it??

-What’s wrong with Lee Se-jin’s dancing?

Why is the actor so good at the stage… ?

People were overwhelmed with confusion when they saw actor Lee Se-jin, who naturally choreographed and performed vocal expressions on stage.

And soon it started to become extremely pleasant.

-ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ It is obvious that Lee Se -jin said that this is a good match for Sejin’s

.

This is because Bae Se-jin's active public relations behavior for Park Moon-dae's target has become a kind of virtuous meme.

People excitedly watched the reaction of the three people happily digesting classic songs by female singers and the artists laughing and applauding.

Thinking of it as a very pleasant twist.

[Wow wow amazing!

Everything about you]

-Wow, Seon Ah-hyun must be crazy. He's really handsome.

-Take your passport, hurry up

-Vocal dance visual Why can't the three balance come like a professional stage… ? It's not a joke, debut;

And I missed one because I was pushed by the impact of actor Lee Se-jin's amazing hobbies.

[I'm excited every day!

I can't sleep today]

Even if a ballerino performs on stage, it's a completely different kind of performance from a pop song or an idol stage.

However, it melts so naturally that it shows a stage with a perfect rhythm so that it doesn't feel awkward at all.

[You are so amazing]

Seon Ah-hyun smiled and turned around.

* * *

After an eventful special performance.

“I think I did pretty well… !”

“yes.”

Bae Se-jin couldn’t hide his smile even as he jumped down the stage.

For the past few weeks, he seems proud of how well he implemented it after aligning his movements by skipping early morning hours or even making video calls.

And he breathes in and says this.

“… fun. This is it!”

“… … .”

I think it’s the first time I’ve seen a guy with such a stage presence. After all, giving and taking away is the most tantalizing thing. Even Bae Se-jin openly asked Sun Ah-hyun.

“Kuhm, do you think you’re having fun too?”

“… ! ah.”

The guy nodded slightly blankly.

“yes. … It’s new. therefore… It’s a feeling.”

“yes. It’s been a long time since I’ve done it, so I’m even more impressed!”

At that time, the staff who was moving their feet next to me spoke up.

“I… Sejin, our time.”

“… ! Ah yes.”

Bae Se-jin quickly calmed down the reddening of his face and quickly moved to return to his seat. Because there are still nominations left.

However, I can hear the muttering next to me, as if the words he left were bothering me.

“Long time no see… ?”

“… … .”

It wasn’t intentional, but it was a time of choice.

I looked back over the last few months of practice.

Except for occasional payments due to her schedule, Sun Ah-hyun participated faithfully and did not show any special behavior.

So, in fact, Bae Se-jin and I almost gave up on reading and just observed..

‘… The stage was definitely fun.’

I confirmed that this guy also came down with Bae Se-jin, his face red.

It is said that he devoted his whole life to ballet, but it seems that he is inspired only by ballet.

‘then.’

… If this is enough.

I received the smartphone from the staff and waited for a while until the person walked away.

And after confirming that no one cared about us in the empty hallway, I opened my mouth.

“I did it at a concert.”

“yes?”

“You did this stage at a concert.”

I kept making eye contact with him and muttering like I was talking to Seon Ah-hyun, whom I knew before.

“Our first unit performance. The reaction was fine. You enjoyed it too.”

“… … .”

after silence.

A trembling voice is heard.

“It’s a nose concert.”

“okay.”

I waited a few seconds. Seon Ah-hyun lowered her head, and there was no other reaction.

‘… It’s ruined.’

It was impossible to explain other than being embarrassed by the sudden talk and bullshit.

I licked my bitter taste and turned around.

Thinking about making an excuse with something like, ‘I’m sorry.

That was the moment.

“… Then”

the arm was caught.

“You did it with a balloon… .”

I turned my head.

“… It’s Moondae.”

The guy laughed.

I dropped the smartphone I was holding.

Chapter 405

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 405

Ballerina Seon Ah-hyun has never walked a different path.

It was his duty to carefully walk the single path to the destination.

The road was sometimes steep or rough, but he could see his destination and the sense of responsibility that he should not stop walking kept his feet moving.

only responsibility.

'When I first started… It was fun.'

How enjoyable was the new challenge and expression. Dancing was such a fascinating activity.

However, everything changed after he suddenly won an international competition with overwhelming results beyond his imagination.

'ah.'

-Ahyeon, you were born to do this!

options are gone.

Agencies are attached, articles are rushing, fame is created, and tremendous titles and affiliations are created.

As long as the perfect best path was revealed, he could not try anything else.

There was no reason or reason to rebel against all expectations and advice. There is only life left to aim for greater success through ballet.

… Something seemed wrong.

‘I… I haven’t experienced enough of this to dedicate my life to.’

Still, it wasn’t unbearable. Because dancing is fun.

‘I can’t choose by trying everything I want.’

I heard the same thing in counseling.

It wasn’t hard enough to give up everything, so the counselor assigned by the agency did not recommend an impossible long break or career change.

But the resignation doesn’t go away.

Buried confidence in the future .

‘I am… I won’t be able to do anything else in the future.’

He had already spent half of his childhood and youth.

No friends or social experience. I didn’t even study properly.

Escape from this orbit was impossible.

So now I couldn’t say anything else. It could not plague the company, parents, and stakeholders with uncertainty and worry.

I couldn’t ruin this life without failure.

‘How nice it would be if I had no doubts or worries.’

Seon Ah-hyun worked hard to become that way.

I don’t have other hobbies and I don’t think about other connections and life. It is to narrow the radius of life.

I didn’t want to be lingering or curious.

It was such a win-win.

-The principal ballerino this time will be Ahyeon. also!

-Then I’ll do three more commercials like this. Are you okay, Mr. Ahyeon?

position is getting stronger.

can never break this You must not fail.

‘okay.’

So it was when Seon Ah-hyeon’s path was completely solidified.

We met without notice.

A survival program contestant sitting in the hallway as if he had lost his mind.

-I… Are you okay?

The words he poured out, saying that he would try to cheer him up somehow, were unfamiliar.

– Only good results are not the answer.

– The answer is to make a choice that does not hurt your heart.

‘I am… .’

I don’t know why I said it so confidently when I never thought of letting go so easily.

It was as if someone other than himself was speaking.

‘Strange.’

But the words comforted him as well.

-Alternatives can also be the correct answer.

Even if you think it's impossible to do it yourself.

And surprisingly, the opponent eventually picks up his energy and produces great results in the other direction.

– Wow, it's really well made.

– It was the best.

He was only a one-time mentor, but that gave him a strange feeling of excitement and emotion. The whole situation and that person.

-… thank you Thanks to you, I finished the stage well.

So when he heard that from Ryu Gun-woo, he actually wanted to say more seriously that he was grateful.

But talking like that seemed like a burden.

'… If there is a chance."

I wanted to get to know you better and talk to you.

I really wanted to have my own mindset that even felt unfamiliar to this participant.

So it was the moment when we exchanged numbers and made a promise.

In the hallway where the participants suddenly turned around and disappeared… saw.

'uh?'

-… … sun?

Someone with blond hair wearing in-ears was looking at him from what appeared to be backstage and opening his mouth.

A stage costume and an outstretched hand.

"… !"

However, the strange afterimage quickly disappeared before I even touched it.

It was an unusually clear image to call it a fantasy.

'ah.'

Strangely, however, Seon Ah-hyun was not anxious.

just… It seemed right. As if fixing a wrong thing, a strange promise is engraved in my head.

'are you okay.'

Rather, I wanted to see more. Seon Ah-hyun began to reflect on the afterimage in order not to forget it.

After that, the afterimage suddenly reappeared.

When looking at the audience seats, when preparing in the waiting room, when going to the broadcasting station.

When you carefully contact the idol who was depressed.

– Wow!

Noisier, busier, more hardships and twists and turns.

However, there are more shining images of heart-throbbing life.

At such times, Seon Ah-hyeon was confused, but still, the anxiety of going in the wrong direction did not sound strange.

And as the afterimages get darker, a connection is created and a story is created.

Images connected by dotted lines.

‘What is it?’

Seon Ah-hyun carefully adjusted them to her inner self and kept them.

and at this moment.

“You did this stage at a concert.”

As if the shackles were lifted by those words, sound and movement dwell between all the images.

And the afterimages that were kept have meaning and become memories.

real life.

“… … at that time.”

Eventually, Seon Ah-hyun realized.

‘ah.’

He was not a ballerino.

It was Seon Ah-hyun who failed to become a ballerino and quit dancing as if running away.

however… .

‘I was happy.’

Sun Ah-hyun became an idol.

“You did it with a balloon… .”

He recalled the enjoyable unit stage of the first concert. After that, let's have a group stage.

The self who was stuttering, the self who was giving up, the self who was forcing himself, the self who doubted his friends

"… It's Moondae."

It was okay to fail.

Quitting ballet did not mean that the self who had learned it would lose its value.

The daily life collapsed due to ruthless bullying and abandoned school days could one day be restored.

Life doesn't end broken.

If only I could walk with my mind set on walking again.

'that's right.'

And, conversely, living a seemingly perfect life without any terrible failures did not make the inner anxiety and fear go away.

On the contrary, it erases the trauma that Testa's Seon Ah-hyun had.

A sense of shame that I might have made a weak choice at the crossroads of life.

'me too… You made the best choice every time. Like the other members.'

All doubts and doubts buried in oneself are offset.

the very first.

Reminds me of the words that helped me to run on a new path without giving up.

– Just think ‘I’m going to do this’.

And now I was facing the person who gave me that opportunity.

* * *

“… That means it wasn’t that I had a memory from the beginning.”

“Yes.”

I fell into the waiting room with Sun Ah-hyun.

It was okay for Seon Ah-hyun, who was already suspicious in part 1, to return to the audience a bit late, and I wasn’t even nominated in the first place.

That’s why I can sit face to face with him now.

Sun Ah-hyun nodded and smiled.

“… I completely remembered it now.”

There was no difference in appearance, but it was revealed in the expression and movement. This was the Seon Ah-hyun I knew.

I was speechless and couldn’t speak for a while before finally answering.

“okay.”

And he held out his hand.

“Good come back.”

“Yes… !”

The guy held out both hands and shook hands. He’s a really cool guy

‘… a little.’

Calm down and let's move on. It's been a long time since I've seen it, so it's because understanding the situation comes first before solving what's going on.

thesis.

-How did Seon Ah-hyun come to his senses?

I took a deep breath and got to the point.

After several afterimages, he said he had just 'awakened' from my question and established his ego.

"Because of the concert talk."

"that's right… ."

If that was the trigger, it means that it kept piling up.

"I think I can understand Moondae's words… I thought that I wanted to understand. So all of a sudden."

It seems that Seon Ah-hyun remembers the afterimage well whenever it comes to mind and connects the characters.

Still, I don't think I knew in the middle that I was Moondae Park, who appeared in my afterimage…

"How did you find out that I am Moondae Park?"

Sun Ah-hyun's eyes widen.

It's as if he didn't know how to ask such an obvious question.

"… ! Even if the appearance is slightly different… It's too much like an open door."

"ah."

“and… Because we talked.”

The guy blushed and spoke seriously.

“Mun-dae was originally a person named Ryu Gun-woo.”

“… !”

“I remember… . of course.”

ah.

I remembered that time.

My dark history that I managed to regain my pace at the end of the nuisance and convince Sun Ah-hyun after doing all the stupid things that I was talking about.

‘… … .’

But I guess it wasn’t useless.

I decided to revise my evaluation a bit.

Maybe the decision itself to speak wasn’t a mistake.

“thanks.”

“… ! Oh no! Because we are friends, that is what we should do.”

Sun Ah-hyun smiled brightly. I couldn’t do anything else, so I laughed too.

‘I thought I would be needlessly confused when my memories came back.’

Seon Ah-hyun did not appear to suffer from pain or internal conflict at all.

On the contrary, it seemed more comfortable than before.

‘Bae Se-jin was right.’

– Just because it looks like that on the outside doesn’t mean it’ll be the same on the inside,

I’ll admit it. He’s 1st win.

After that, I quickly informed him about the current situation.

More specifically, the burden of having to somehow reinforce the logic to convince them… There were no more.

“For more details, let’s talk over the phone after the awards ceremony.”

“huh!”

Instead, they quickly returned to their seats at the awards ceremony before it was too late.

I got a temporary seat thanks to performing with the two nominated people and took a seat in the corner of their table.

Bae Se-jin, who was looking at us with an expression that seemed to say ‘why are you so late’, changed her complexion as soon as she checked Sun Ah-hyun’s expression.

Then, taking advantage of the VCR’s entry, he quickly whispered to me.

‘Couldn’t it be now… .’

I nodded slowly. A big smile began to spread across Bae Se-jin’s face.

Then, he stabs Seon Ah-hyun, who was sitting next to him.

‘you!’

‘Hello Sejin-hyung… !’

I let Bae Se-jin and Seon Ah-hyun, who were excited, gesticulate. The two of you will publish an article as a friendship. I chuckled and watched the VCR turn off.

The awards ceremony was resuming.

and that night.

[Ahyeon Seon has entered]

The testa group message room was filled with all 7 people.

[Seon Ah-hyun: Hello..!]

[Big Se-jin: Ah, crazy]

[Big Se-jin: No, I'm sorry, but Ah-hyun is finally here

. emoticon)]

[Cheongwoo Ryu: I heard you Ah Hyun-ah, it's really good (smile emoticon) Should I call you Ah-hyun?] [Ahsun Sun: It's really okay, you don't have to do that!]

Even though I almost fell into chaos, I lay down on the bed and went down the message room that returned to the conversation with excitement.

Half of it is actually in this lodging, but it felt a bit different.

'Shall I contact Seon Ah-hyun in a few minutes?'

Let's talk a little more, I'll tell you the details later.

Before that, clear up some doubts in your head.

'hmm.'

Well, as a result, I came to the conclusion that good is good, but… Even so, we have to deduce why only Seon Ah-hyun was able to regain his memory on his own.

'There is still no Seon Ah-hyun in the status window.'

[Yes!]

First of all, it means that the system was not involved.

If so.

'… Is there any difference from the previous awakening?'

As a result of thinking about it, one thing came to my mind.

Seon Ah-hyun did not complain of headaches or dizziness, which was common when other guys woke up, and naturally regained their real self.

'… how?'

As if he could have been…

like self-sufficiency.

"… !"

yes.

I got up from bed

It feels like being punched in the head.

[Ohhhh, what did you think of??]

Yes.

It is the ability that Seon Ah-hyun has that is different from others.

'characteristic.'

I remembered Sun Ah-hyun's characteristics.

[Guts (S)]

: Make your own mindset. That's why I can afford it alone.

-When activated, mental abnormalities are offset. (Duplicate application possible)

This.

Now, Seonahyeon was a B grade, but anyway, the effect of canceling the abnormal status was basically there.

‘So if this brings back even a little bit of memory… .’

The moment the S-class characteristics of the real Sun Ah-hyun return, all status abnormalities are caught.

So the result.

‘… That this guy came back on his own… ??’

It was an absurdly fraudulent act.

[Wow Ahyeon-nim is really cool!!1 Crazy!]

No, that’s… .

‘It’s not a situation that ends with being cool.’

[Yes?]

This… It was a hint.

I squeezed the edge of the bed.

There is a premise of this logic.

‘It means that this situation is abnormal.’

[!!!]

Yes.

Sun Ah-hyun's characteristic is to offset status abnormalities, so as long as they are offset, all of these situations are 'status abnormalities'.

Like my 'Debut or Death' or Cheongryeo's 'Correction'.

"… … ."

[That makes sense! Since we got into this situation while trying to catch the system in the first place, if you think the system caused a status abnormality… .]

Wait.

'… I was trying to catch the system. la.'

Oddly enough, that sentence lingered in my mouth.

'If I were going to destroy the system… .'

And I noticed a sense of incongruity.

[Tongue hyung?]

Such a fucking thing.

I immediately kicked the door and ran out to find another room.

"hmm? You came just fine."

A room with Cheongryeol.

Because his roommate, Judan, went out on a personal schedule, he is now in a room alone.

He sits at his desk writing something, then turns his head leisurely and continues talking.

"About the first awards ceremony next month, the score calculation for the Music Awards… "

“We.”

“hmm?”

I said it with the feeling of wanting to bite my tongue.

“There is something we misunderstood.”

“… … .”

Let’s think.

I got on a plane with him and drove him to the middle of the Pacific Ocean and tried to destroy the system.

in what way?

By making it so that there are no hosts around for the system to enter. That basically means you have to have a system in place.

“After all, you need a guy with a system now to do the damn thing about getting rid of it.”

“… … .”

“Then he must have been on the plane at the time.”

I swallowed.

“Who is that?”

I completely forgot.

Still, I didn’t feel any discomfort.

The guy in front opens his mouth.

“Um, well.”

Cheong-rye, who was still sitting at the desk, put her hand on her chin and frowned as if she was worried… .

for a moment.

I looked at the guy in front of me feeling my blood run cold.

You look fine.

This crazy control freak doesn't show any displeasure at the situation getting out of control right now.

that.

"you… I remembered."

"… … ."

That there was one more guy on the plane.

and.

"I knew I forgot."

Cheong-Ri covers the notes she was organizing on her desk.

Then he smiled and opened his mouth.

"I still have a good brain, junior."

this… X feet.

Chapter 406

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 406

The system owner who should have been on the plane with me evaporated in my head.

like it wasn’t

But if the young lady in front of me had remembered.

‘There’s no way this bastard didn’t notice that I didn’t know.’

Could it be that you haven’t felt a sense of incongruity while you’ve been talking about it for over half a year?

This is intentionally left unsaid. Right now, this guy’s reaction is saying the same.

I said between my teeth.

“Why didn’t you tell me?”

Cheong-ryeo smiled and replied.

“I thought my junior would react that way.”

“… … .”

what?

“You may have many thoughts now, but… Well, except for the anger or irritation towards me, there must be only one thing left.”

Chung-rye speaks casually.

“Does it bother you?”

“… … !”

“You worry about people who don’t know who they are, where they are, or what their situation is. no?”

“Can you not care?”

The X-footed person evaporated, but of course… .

no wait

I remembered this guy’s reaction the last time I brought up the story of a memory error about my parents.

‘Memory is inherently error-prone, so it’s okay as long as you properly remember the information you need to proceed… .’

Because

-you have to be vigilant… It is an additional effect caused by memory.

-emotion.

And I realized

“… Whether or not he disappears has nothing to do with achieving the goal, right?”

“is it so.”

The guy narrows his eyes.

“Your junior is the type to rationalize efficiency when something bothers you.”

what.

“Can I give you an example? Even when the group has already been formed, juniors are still trying to find testa members because it’s not helpful to the target.”

“… !”

Cheongryeo looks at me.

“Today, at an awards ceremony that wasn’t much of a topic, we did a meaningless commemorative stage.”

“… … .”

“Even now, I pay a lot of attention to side things, but how much do you care about the safety of the person your junior brought in?”

I closed my mouth. He gets up from his seat and smiles.

“I think the explanation is enough, but I’m angry with myself even now… .”

“Do you think the guy who had the system is in a bad state right now?”

“… !”

This is it.

I looked at him.

“If I couldn’t remember and you did, there was no need to come to this situation.”

Since you just can’t remember, I’ll be able to convince you that I’ll be in charge of looking for it. Like I said, I can’t remember anyway.

By the way.

Here’s an exaggerated answer at the level of ‘If you knew the truth, you would not be able to work because you care’?

“You have no explanation other than to know what happened to that bastard.”

And that’s quite… on the bad side.

enough to upset me

I crossed my arms and glared at him.

“… … .”

Chung-rye did not waver.

“Is there a need for juniors to be so persistent about a person they don’t even know? I wasn’t too familiar with it at first. two.”

“Do you know? The problem is that you are trying to fool people right now.”

“I didn’t cheat.”

The guy clicked his tongue. this kid

“Your juniors, your juniors also have information that you didn’t bother to tell me. isn’t it? I thought it would be difficult for the other person to understand.”

“… … .”

I reflexively recalled the list of emoticons in the status window that informed my colleague’s current status, then shut up.

the guy laughed

“It is the same. I also wanted my juniors not to waste time and resources on someone they don’t even know.”

Sophistry speaks well like X once.

“It sounds like you’d blow it if I knew who he was, but I just can’t remember, but we know each other.”

“hmm?”

The guy tilts his head to the side.

“You don’t know now.”

I gritted my teeth.

Getting angry or hitting is stupid. This asshole is my group now, like it or not, and the moment the violence gets caught in the press, it’s a scandal.

‘Then let’s approach it rationally.’

I also have a head. roll it

The worst thing that can happen to a system owner who disappears while the system is in a state of congestion?

It was then.

[Hey, why are you so shameless? Hyung, if I only had a body, I would have beaten you!]

Status window.

While watching the big moon pop-up, I inadvertently gave the correct answer out of my mouth.

“It’s been eaten by that system.”

“… … .”

As if the big moon had become that way.

“Right?”

Cheong-ryeo did not respond. It was a de facto affirmation. I clenched my fist.

then.

‘There is definitely a clue.’

I desperately shake my head.

If GNOME was really absorbed into the system, I might notice it while using the system now.

A passage that feels out of place somewhere.

Just as the big moon caused an error and gave the coin, it was unexpected and had a different regularity than before.

Anything that is exceptional or does not flow naturally within the system.

“… … .”

that.

-This is useless, so why is it coming out?

Round golden shape like a coin… but only displayed in text.

[The money for failure came… .]

+ 10G

+ 10G

Gold.

I didn’t know why this was there, so I thought it was dummy data sticking out with the < 127 section > format applied.

But if this… If it's some kind of signal.

If it's a barely tolerated trick or bug that can be given in the system.

'Who comes to mind when I think of gold?'

Something immediately comes to mind.

-Roughly… Shall we call them Gold 1 and Gold 2?

Title given in < Azusa >.

The two that I had a relationship with until recently.

'Golden Age's Ha Il-jun and Spacer's Kwon Hee-seung.'

"… !"

I put up with interjections mixed with profanity.

Let's stay calm.

Which of the two would be more suitable for knowing the future?

'This is too obvious.'

I opened my mouth.

"It's Kwon Hee-seung."

"… … ."

The guy who suddenly won the new season of < Azusa > and the guy who has more time to interact with me because we are from the same agency is him after all.

Cheong-ryo was still expressionless, but I saw her eyes narrowing and widening.

‘Right.’

I clenched my fists and walked to the desk where he was standing.

“Now that you know, answer me.”

“… … .”

“Exactly what happened to that bastard.”

And how the hell do you know that?

The expression on her face disappeared, and she slowly opened her mouth.

“Are you willing to wait until the goal is achieved?”

“doesn’t exist.”

“hmm.”

The guy lowered his eyes.

And when he raised his head again.

_____ –

Suddenly the world stopped.

‘Ah’

I looked around.

I thought it was already a quiet enough, motionless room, but in fact there are moving things.

The sound of the TV from the living room outside the room, the sound of the clock's second hand moving, and the fine contrast.

But everything stopped moving and hardened as if flattened. A world where motion has disappeared and stopped.

and in between

"Are you surprised? They said that we had to pause for a while to fully visualize this."

Only one guy moves with liveliness.

Cheongrye.

"… to stop."

"yes. Well, it seems to be a common thing in normal games."

The guy raises his hand.

"I heard that play stops when the settings window is called up."

And numerous holograms begin to appear in front of you.

Geeeeing-

A hard world filled with small and big boxes.

However, the direction of the text is the opposite.

therefore… It's not for me to see it, it's for the person standing in the opposite direction to see it.

Cheongrye.

[Duty: Let's help the character's smooth game activities!]

[▶Quest in progress]

[Environment settings]

Beyond those hologram windows, I checked the text I hadn't even imagined. UI similar to what I have.

[List of characters]

[Ryu Gun-woo (Park Moon-dae): I'm shocked by you (∑// □ P;)]

X-bar.

I barely opened my mouth.

"what's this."

"Well, where should I begin?"

He bumps his finger on his chin. And as if lost in thought, the focus is blurred.

* * *

A few months ago.

Inside Cheongryeo's private jet that crossed the Pacific Ocean.

[Hyung, this is more… .]

Shin Jae-hyeon saw it before he fell unconscious on the plane.

The actual thing called the 'status window'.

'Did he look like that?'

There wasn't much excitement, but what I saw next was a bit problematic.

It was because I saw Kwon Hee-seung being absorbed through the windows as if the graphics were disintegrating while the numerous holograms floated as if they had been broken.

‘hmm.’

That could be a bit difficult.

When the accident came back to the end of that thought, I was already in the practice room with Ryu Gun-woo.

– damn it!

-haha.

And for a while, thinking that this might be a ‘restart’ that eventually came back, I diversified my plans while contemplating various possibilities.

But in the end, he was persuaded by Ryu Gun-woo, or Park Moon-dae.

-okay.

-Let’s go back to your dog Kongi.

It was an opponent who had nothing to blame as an ally. It is not that there was no dissatisfaction with Park Mun-dae’s selection of colleagues, but that level was taken into account.

But there was one incident before that.

When he returned home to accurately grasp the situation here.

Because one of the many restarts happened something that never happened.

[Task has arrived!]

“… ?”

A status window will pop up.

But he’s not a player.

[GM: Welcome to Shin Jae-hyeon.]

Server: Kwon Hee-seung (Stable)

GM: Shin Jae-hyeon

Player: ■■■

“Oh.”

Shin Jae-hyun smiled faintly.

‘It’s a variable.’

And the number of cards increased.

* * *

“Yes. Kwon Hee-seung is currently displayed on the server.”

“… … .”

“There was no particular benefit to me. I can just keep track of my junior’s progress… degree.”

I pressed my forehead.

As if reminiscing, Cheong-rye lowered her head to the side and smiled.

“and… A bit of an auxiliary ability?”

“you.”

I opened my mouth at the passing memory.

“I can’t believe that Kim Rae-bin came out of the teammate selection.”

“Well, as experience points accumulate, the probability can be adjusted for a short time.”

Damn.

I bit my tongue.

‘I could have been suspicious.’

Isn’t the first friend given in the game tutorial a real live account?

Usually GM.

This is the game master account.

“This… hide?”

I grabbed him by the collar. The clothes are gripped as if they are about to be ripped off.

“I have no choice but to give you the same answer.”

“what?”

But the guy didn’t even move and looked down.

“I should have already told you that I didn’t tell you because I was afraid you would do this.”

“… !”

“With this hologram, things like server replacement were impossible.”

“Then”

“Then the remaining effects are obvious. You’re inefficient because you care about the meaning of the server… .”

Cheong-ryeo muttered calmly.

“I was anxious and doubtful about what I was going to do throughout the process.”

“… … .”

“That’s why it’s better to keep your mouth shut and wait until you get the target. It won’t be too late to go back and say it.”

“So I followed your words.”

“Rather than that, they say they were persuaded by the junior’s words.”

The guy laughed.

“I heard that if you ride the target, you will have the option to go back after seeing the ending.”

“… … .”

“Oh, I told you to tell me everything.”

I looked at Cheongryeo. He laughs like he’s frowning.

“that’s right. there was something more They said this would give me something in the form of a salary.”

He sends a hologram forward to colonel me in front of me.

[GM Ending Reward: Companion Choice]

“… !”

Wait, if this happens… .

“So I’ve been thinking about it all along.”

I had a hunch what the next word was.

“If I could wait here until Kongi was born and choose this option… .”

The guy narrows his eyes.

“I have nothing to regret. It’s a bit of a turnaround.”

Damn.

“Think of your juniors too. If you can inherit everything of value, isn’t this place better?”

He gently removed my hand from his neck.

“Originally, I was going to just follow your opinion, but now that it has turned out like this, I want to hear more about your story.”

He sits down and rests his chin on his chin and asks seriously.

“What do you think of this possibility?”

“… You”

“Ah, the schedule is fine. You can just keep stopping. I’m almost using it for the first time… There is no specific time limit.”

He laughed and looked away from the status window.

“So tell me. Continue until we both fully agree to a conclusion.”

“… … .”

“Because the remaining time is infinite, haha!”

X feet.

There is a sense of tension as if stepping on a landmine. As a biological reaction, a cold sweat runs down your spine.

‘still.’

I opened my mouth.

* * *

‘What?!’

The large moon, which became the status window of the main body of Park Moon-dae, screamed and spun around in the world of consciousness. The place where the madman stopped completely lost its liveliness.

And it was right before Season 2 of Kidnapping was aired!

‘Ahhhh what’s wrong… ??’

Then I realized.

what?

The fact that he, who shared his vision with Ryu Gun-woo, came out as if he was out of body before he knew it.

‘Uh uh uh?’

He broke through the ceiling of Suuk Wishes’ dorm and soared over Seoul.

‘What is this?’

Why is this happening? No, I had to go back! I couldn’t leave my brother alone.

It was the moment when he made up his mind and tried to crumple his consciousness again somehow.

glitter was seen.

‘… uh?’

gold circles.

Like Dorothy’s yellow road, glittering things were making a path in the air.

And at the end of it… The status window, he knew instinctively.

is an error indication

‘and.’

You can see this because it is in the ‘Progress Pause’ state.

For a moment he was almost taken aback by the intense flash of error, but he soon noticed something.

What can be called an error here is an anomalous recovery of memory so that the system does not catch it… .

‘Seonahyeon!’

Realizing that, another possibility pops into his head.

Could it be that he is an error while his abilities have been expanded?

‘I don’t know! Let’s do it!’

With a free consciousness, he ran to Seon Ah-hyun.

And once tried!

[Please help my brother!]

“Uh uh uh… ?!”

On the way to Incheon International Airport.

Seon Ah-hyun gets out of the car in a panic at the world that suddenly stopped, and is frightened by the sudden appearance of a hologram.

Chapter 407

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 407 The sun still doesn’t rise in the dorm room.

Sitting on a cushion, I spoke the thirtieth analysis in a low voice.

Why is reality better?

“VTIC doesn’t do a lot of individual activities, so image consumption is still not high. It will be much more advantageous in the long run. That’s already consumed here.”

“well. Conversely, doesn’t this mean that we have proven our awareness and competence through our individual activities?”

“… The group’s fandom has been destroyed.”

This baby. I held back a sigh and he smiled.

“That’s it, we can focus on group activities next year and stabilize. I just need to refine the image consumption and concept from then on.”

“… So why are you doing that? If you go back, there is a group with a well-established fandom and concept.”

“I guess so.”

The guy readily agreed. But I wasn’t fooled.

“But considering the development potential, this side could be bigger. Because there are members and songs that have already been verified.”

X feet really.

I pressed my forehead. My conversation with this guy went like this from before.

This bastard is extremely male here and not crazy.

I just keep refusing in my logic that I have to go back, and I go back to refuting it again.

Group's potential market distribution Individual achievement image Grade… .

Literally the end of the discussion.

Damn.

I don't know how many hours I spent biting the horse's tail. My head is itchy.

It gives goosebumps because neither hunger nor menstruation occurs.

"Would you like to drink some water? I don't know if I can drink it or not."

"done."

I touched my forehead.

And suddenly, a fundamental question came to mind.

'… Why are you doing this?'

In fact, it is a problem that cannot be rationally concluded.

Let's both agree to one conclusion?

Logically, even an absolute branch that is completely flawless should come out, but isn't it impossible?

If the comparison goes into the arts and sports career, everything is just a realm of possibility. On the contrary, this world… slightly superior

'… This is not it.'

You were stupid.

Being dragged by this bastard's momentum, I did useless things to avoid being pushed back. I looked up. Cheong-Ryeo was sitting on the chair in front of the desk in the same posture as before.

I changed my stance.

"As you know, this is not a matter of conclusion. In the first place, I didn't say let's go back to see which one can be more successful as an idol."

"… … ."

In the first place, this asshole knowingly took an active part in my future-less disposable target group plan.

It means that you bet on the return side.

What I'm doing now is… . I remembered what he said earlier.

-Originally, I was going to just follow your opinion, but now that it's like this, I want to hear more about your story.

And after a few hours, the cooled head draws conclusions.

"you… Do you want to say that you have been unilaterally cooperating with me until now?"

They asked me if I was angry because I was being questioned for hiding something when I cooperated even though I had other options.

'So there's no reason to cooperate.'

It’s ridiculous even to say It’s not usually a secret that you’re a GM handed down by the system.

‘Well, there are all these bastards.’

But the guy didn’t deny it.

“well. My junior seemed more interested in taking care of people than his goal, so I thought about it.”

The guy tilted his head to the side.

“Then… you said There is no reason to go back.”

“Looking at it from that point of view, it wouldn’t be.”

I caught my breath. My head cleared up a bit.

What was this guy misunderstanding?

Until recently, I almost did too.

“I said it wrong.”

“hmm?”

“Think about it outside of your career.”

It’s impossible to compare, and I wasn’t trying to say that since my career as a first-team idol was perfect, I had to go back to that reality.

I recalled what I had said when I was being urged to commit suicide by this bastard before.

– Shouldn’t VTIC be on a downtrend?

So that’s it.

I had to talk about a different value than social success that can be simply expressed in numbers.

chamberlain.

“Even if something like X happens to you, you decide to live in reality… The albums and experiences that were released after one member left.”

“… … .”

“Isn’t that a waste?”

Does nothing in real life really mean anything to you but your dog?

The experiences I had after deciding not to change my life the moment I failed and to just keep living.

An album filled with new songs that have never been used. A group that eventually rises from failure. Achievement.

New Award Testimonials.

“You actually made up your mind to return to reality, including that. It’s not like you were unilaterally cooperating with me. Wasn’t that a waste and missed?”

Cheong-rye was agitated for the first time. I saw him clasping his hands and putting them on his lap.

However, the answer is distorted.

“Come to think of it, maybe we can do that again here.”

X feet.

I shook my head.

“It’s meaningful because I can’t do it again… !”

“No, in the first place… Hey, I heard that this place was literally created by the system.”

Today, I delivered to him the results of the reasoning that Seon Ah-hyeon had in the process of recovering his memory.

That this world is just a kind of abnormal status distortion.

As we first assumed, the reality is highly likely to be separate.

“… So this is a real System X world.”

I hit the bed roughly.

“Are you really planning to live with the system here? Because you can suck at being a GM?”

“… … .”

“Isn’t that bastard who worked so hard because of the fucking system?”

“… … .”

The request did not answer for a long time. I took a deep breath.

And the voice that came out slowly… .

“A high school student?”

I was puzzled.

I got goosebumps.

“that… It’s hard to agree.”

“… !”

“After all, I was able to restart, so I got a chance to succeed, right?”

oh shit

“Getting rid of the system was to prevent this benefit from going to someone else you couldn’t control. Because it is impossible to instrument the system.”

“… … .”

“Of course, discomfort is one of the reasons, but… I don’t think it just moved.”

I drool. This kid was a problem from here on out.

‘He’s a mentally remodeled guy who thinks restarting is an advantage.’

How do you convince this

“… … .”

Silence began to flow again. I leaned my head on the bed feeling disillusioned.

As you said, time is infinite, so I should keep my mouth shut.

But the surprising thing is after a while.

This kid was the first to open his mouth.

In a slightly subdued voice,

“But if it’s just for emotional reasons, I know you want to go back.”

“… !”

“okay. Because there was a problem with my junior’s parents.”

I gritted my teeth.

“And you didn’t even say that.”

Even though I pointed out that I think I had a memory error.

“that… … .”

His tone becomes less dry. I shivered a little.

“… sorry.”

“… … .”

I sighed and closed my eyes.

“you… If you said you had a status window, you must think I would have doubted you unconditionally and ruined your efficiency.”

funny kid

“I would have just believed.”

“… !”

“Of course, I would have done more monitoring if I didn’t do anything useless. However, I think he must have spent a lot of time researching to find a corner that could be used differently than that.”

You son of a bitch.

“… is it so?”

“uh.”

I was tossing and turning.

“From the beginning to the appearance of the status window, you are all honest. The only thing I didn’t say was about privacy issues.”

“… … .”

It’s you who’s stabbing me in the back

Soon, a low voice was heard.

“all right.”

after.

I rubbed my face.

That kid died in one piece.

‘There are other problems with Gold 2, but… .’

I know.

Things like Kwon Hee-seung feel sorry for this bastard don’t work. I’m not the kind of person who moves with that in mind. Because he sees people as a resource.

But if you ask me if I haven’t changed at all since that Reset Syndrome, Mad Ohamma… .

– I brought it. (Photo)

– Kongi is sick.

it won’t be again

But it was a dead end. If this bastard doesn’t properly understand why he wants to go back… .

‘Can I disturb you again?’

That’s because it’s unacceptable.

‘I’m going to fix my head and go out.’

I drew conclusions and opened my eyes.

And suddenly I saw pop up.

[Error: Moondae… ?]

“… !!”

I was about to jump

[Error: !]

[Error: I think Moondae confirmed it!]

The pop-up happily updates.

It was a big month up to that point.

until these pop up.

[RAB: You finally confirmed. I was very concerned that there might be an emergency situation.]

[Sejini: Moondae Park, are you okay? Do you know how to call Mundaemundae like this?]

[BaeSJ: Please answer me]

What is this?

* * *

Keundal put on all sorts of shows in front of Seon Ah-hyun.

It means that time stopped and Moon Dae-hyung poured out words that he was being threatened (?), and at the same time he talked hard about who he was to Sun Ah-hyun.

Of course, Seon Ah-hyun’s embarrassment didn’t make him an idiot.

he asked calmly.

“… Show me the evidence to believe it.”

[That!]

Keundal rolled his head hard, but in fact he knew it too.

There was no evidence… .

‘Ughhh… .’

I couldn’t be so sorry that I didn’t have a body.

As the progress of the game stopped, Keundal, completely unaware that he was slowly regaining his human senses, shook his head.

And I remembered one.

[Rabin-nim knows about me!]

Ryu Kun-woo, tired of the cycle of questions from hell, even certified the existence of the big moon with a detailed explanation.

“But I… Can I meet Lavin right now?”

[ah… .]

The problem is that Kim Rae-bin is also stopped… .

‘Is there anything?’

Big Moon vigorously shook his head. He eagerly turned the status window and rummaged through the UI window.

And after that, the mental world like detailed codes of complex algorithms… .

‘what?’

Then, since I'm currently 'setting up the environment', I found something I can touch.

A function that seems to have been added hastily at the bottom.

[Gold Shop]

Gold?

'… connect!'

Big Moon, who had already seen Ryu Gun-woo's mystery show, immediately turned it on.

Then a short list pops up.

[Open chat room – 5000G]

[Invite – 1000G]

He realized right away.

It was this.

'I'm sorry for being mean to you, but I'm still trying to help you… !'

He immediately bought both.

New features are opened.

He manipulated the pop-up.

[Would you like to enter the chat room?]

"… !"

[I'll call Rabin!]

And the moment Sun Ah-hyun accepted the position at the pop-up after thinking about it, she flew like crazy and went to Seoul.

Then, at the Gearco photo shoot, he contacted Kim Rae-bin, who was receiving a modified makeup.

Of course, Kim Rae-bin is not an error, but a state of being stopped.

‘but!’

He already knew who was in the chat window.

A person who offsets the system’s status ailments.

[Would you like to enter the chat room?]

The gold circle is absorbed into Kim Rae-bin’s connection system, and the error spreads.

‘do!’

It is connected to Seon Ah-hyun and the chat window, that is, the status window, which is the spirit of the big moon, and errors are shared.

and new chat.

[RAB: … ??]

[RAB: Is this a dream?]

Keundal held back the cheers.

* * *

[Error: That’s how I was able to send a message to Moondae]

‘… okay.’

I nodded my head as I watched the frantic conversations in the chat room.

I roughly understood. Kwon Hee-seung is sending an SOS of tears, so Keun-dal was good at it.

By the way.

'… Is this what you need?'

Honestly, I don't know what kind of help I can get from these guys just by chatting.

'No, even if it's not a chat, there's no point in beating this bastard right away.'

No matter how much I think about it, it seems that I was surprised to see Keun-dal acting like a Cheong-ryeo man. I skimmed the chat window somewhat hesitantly.

[Tiger: What's the situation? Do you fight?]

[BaesJ]: Could it be that you met the guy who dumped us here?]

Besides, these guys seem to just know that I'm in trouble.

It comes to mind.

[Apple: It's not like that, I have to convince someone]

[BaeSJ: Who!]

At that moment, a pop-up window pops up at the top.

[Number of people 8]

[※! Remaining Gold: 5000G※]

Hmm?

[Leader: Guys. It seems like every time I chat, energy is consumed. Let's just talk to Moondae and let us just give advice

“… … .”

I thought about it for a while and hit the chat.

I don’t know what this means.

[Apple: When do you all feel like going back to reality?]

Maybe you’ll get a hint. Better than not doing it.

After a while, the chat window is updated with full text.

[Tiger: When we want to perform!]

[RAB: There have been various cases, but the most frequent is the moment when you really want to listen to the album we released.] [

Error: I’m going to the airport alone today, so we spent time together. come up with this I think it’s such a time.]

Various answers are filled with performances, albums, activities, and accommodations.

Ryu Cheong-woo, who says Testa slogans come to mind when shouting slogans.

And the last answer.

[Sejini: When I miss myself back then]

What we have in common is… .

It is a moment that evokes strong longing and nostalgia.

emotional memory.

“… … .”

I entered the chat.

[Apple: That was helpful. Thank you.]

The moment the gold drop notification window pops up again.

Hear voices.

“What are you looking at?”

It wasn’t surprising. I even did it on purpose.

I opened my mouth to him.

“A chat window filled with colleagues pops up for me.”

“hmm?”

“If you don’t know, don’t try to check. Because it seems like an expedient.”

GM can’t see it. Could the system be blocking it?

Then the guy laughs.

“Thorough.”

“okay.”

After a moment of silence, I asked him.

“Can I use my status window function here?”

“With administrator permission.”

“I want to try.”

“… … .”

The request did not refuse.

I brought up the colleague list again.

[Shin Jae-hyeon: Thinking of his colleague's words (//~^)]

I slowly opened my mouth.

"You've been on my list of companions since the beginning."

"Yes. Because you are the GM."

"And I had a memory from the beginning."

I raised my head. Cheongryeo was standing.

"I never woke up."

"… … ."

Let's consider its function.

In the first place, the function of returning memories to Awakening was a shortcut function that Keundal and I extracted from the explanation of < 127 Section >.

It's not that the system wasn't officially installed.

'then.'

It's understandable that it's such a wild way. Because it's a feature that wasn't supposed to in the first place.

'It's like a wave of emotions and memories rushing in…' Did you say that?'

I opened my mouth.

"Don't you want to try it?"

"The reason is?"

“Because it might give you new information.”

He seemed lost in thought for a moment.

However, he soon nodded his head with strange eyes.

‘okay.’

I pressed the awakening button for my colleague Shin Jae-hyeon.

Chapter 408

Episode 408

Shin Jae-hyeon's memory is made up of very deep layers.

At the end of long iterations and numerous lives, new reproduction is necessary on the seabed like strata. I never bothered to touch the missing part.

So there is no end in sight.

not moving.

His first attempt was too deep in the deep sea to be swayed by a disposable shock derived from the expedient interpretation of 'awakening'.

But there was a place where it touched one layer.

Top.

most recent memory.

reality.

Took.

wave rises

And, unfortunately, the most recent life has had a very peculiar style, unlike the average.

The life you believed you couldn't start over.

– Even if something like X happens to you, you decide to live in reality… .

Although somewhat vulgar, the expression he heard just before would be correct.

Cheong-rye lived through the time after the failure.

Took.

Like ripples, the memories of that time ripple.

The beginning was an opportunity created by the same person.

-You can’t restart now.

The words Park Mun-dae, who overpowered him, said as he left the villa in a state of disrepair.

And perhaps more importantly, what came next.

– What you have is that it won’t disappear anymore.

Those words floated in his mind like a buoy during the strangely long period of self-reflection at VTIC.

It wasn’t that I was thrilled with what it meant specifically.

However, it became an ambiguous indicator.

What options do you have if restarting is not possible?

what can you have

He brought the dog first. This is because there is no need to confuse your dog anymore.

wrote a new song This is because they can no longer preoccupy songs that were successful in the future.

had a solo career. This is because the group's performance was no longer the criterion for all indicators of success.

Still, VTIC did not sink.

Failure did not go away. However, a life in which the things built on failure do not disappear.

But in all of that, there are questions.

'Why are you doing this.'

It's a pure question rather than a void.

It was because it felt like there was no driving force called a goal in all actions.

A life without a mission.

An unfamiliar landscape that has to be created with an ignorant head without an answer.

Shin Jae-hyeon slowly confirms that it is slowly becoming a daily routine.

Took.

Waves overlap.

Then, the wave inadvertently recalls a memory that looks very similar to it. The end of the deep sea that can't be seen below.

This is the very first restart.

-What is this… .

I believed it was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

That's why there was a life that I believed I couldn't restart anymore. young and ignorant self. I don't know exactly what those memories look like not worth reading Shin Jae-hyun was appraised.

‘okay.’

It should have ended there.

But the unconscious moves again from there.

Instantaneous waves, like roots, make fine cracks in the stratum of memory and go up.

And it echoes faintly throughout the deep sea. A trembling without any stimulation.

However, similar shapes can be seen between the layers of numerous trials and repetitions.

performance during injury.

It is not revealed in detail what kind of situation, what kind of emotion, what kind of pain.

Because the deep sea of experience is already far deep and multi-layered.

It’s all just a vague taste.

But sometimes a trace is enough.

Because it proves that it was there.

The feeling that no matter how much you start over, that unique and brilliant moment will never come again.

-please.

Took.

It’s not the life you believed you couldn’t restart. I just didn’t want to.

He also had moments when he thought it was a loss rather than an opportunity.

‘I knew.’

The afterimages that suddenly came to my mind while watching Park Moon-dae, who was struggling not to restart.

-… I guess I was too.

However, those that have already been crushed by being pushed down the strata as they pass by have no value.

Because it is a useless feeling.

Because no matter how that moment felt, if I failed, I would restart.

Just because I thought it was an ineffective impulse that slowed down the progress to the next step.

-… … .

The wave soon disappeared. Sleep became calm again.

His strata are still solid and no deep sea is visible.

Jaehyun Shin thought.

Nothing has changed.

There is still no absolute advantage to be gained by returning to the previous reality.

VTIC won’t be able to maintain its prime as much as it did.

The unstained reputation of the group has an inseparable label attached to it.

The blanks for positions will have to be left blank forever.

nevertheless.

Even so.

He didn’t want to throw it away.

Like long ago, when I wanted to stay even though I knew it would all be gone when I restarted anyway.

just because i want to do that

Is that irrational impulse the original driving force of life?

Cheong-rye opened her eyes.

Face the gaze as if observing or worrying.

“ah.”

He reflexively ran a finger under his chin.

Of course, there was no bite.

The waves of a few seconds did not pass as huge waves or shocks, but passed as waves passing by.

However, it did leave a mark.

"… … ."

Cheong-rye acknowledged.

One's own urge to return to reality.

Whether we can do it again here or not, as Park Moon-dae said, it didn't matter if it was meaningful because it was only once.

So he opened his mouth.

"There was no new information."

"… … ."

"There is something I want to ask you."

And in fact, I asked a question that I had been thinking about all along but could not materialize.

"Why do I want to go back to reality?"

Park Moon-dae did not threaten, saying, 'Where did you hear what I said so far?'

I just held my breath and opened my mouth.

"Your reality is originally yours, so of course you don't want to throw it away. Who wants to just throw away their own?"

"… !"

Life is originally one's own, so it's natural to want to keep it intact and own it.

Shin Jae-hyeon was slowly recovering from that urge and desire.

So Park Moon-dae roughly opened his mouth again.

“Let’s go back, bitch.”

“… … .”

I still can’t give a reasonable reason why. But not knowing may be the nature of the impulse.

And now he was fine with being impulsive.

Chung-rye opened her mouth.

“is it so.”

“… … .”

“and… I need to change my plans.”

He brought the hologram back up.

There are countless windows, but no one blinks an eye.

“If you’re never going to stay here, I think there’s another way to do it.”

“… … .”

“how is it.”

The opponent in front of him did not refuse. Instead, he shook his head.

* * *

“Tell me.”

Tick.

The clock starts ticking again.

“after.”

The < Pause > state ended about an hour or two after the dramatic agreement with Cheongryeo.

‘I’m terribly tired.’

I pressed my temples and returned to my room.

Fortunately, after the agreement, during the paused time, we talked quite productively.

‘and… It’s not that I don’t know why that bastard became like that.’

But that doesn’t mean that bastard’s back-to-back thing will go away. This puts you in debt unconditionally and makes you pay it off somehow.

-how is it?

Of course, it was good to see what this bastard could do even now.

I reflected on my strategy based on a few things I learned from analyzing its UI window.

As the bastard said, the GM’s status window had some useful features. From my point of view, it’s an extreme direction, so I’ll have to stick to supplementary measures.

‘I guess I’ll have to add a bit of the process.’

I brain-rolled.

Meanwhile, the pop-up is ringing.

[Hyung, I’m so glad I really… .]

[No, you said it wasn’t that dangerous, but still!]

[I’ll keep an eye on him! Must!]

I know.

The guy who seemed like he would shed tears just by writing for an hour, talked like that for a long time, and then disappeared after a while, saying, ‘I seem to be extremely tired.’

‘I am.’

It was only because he ran so wildly. I clicked my tongue as I recalled the remaining amount of gold and the existence of the naturally deactivated ‘Gold Shop’.

‘You’re trying.’

Anyway, Gold 2 So, seeing Kwon Hee-seung sending a signal like this, it seems that he has a good direction.

“after.”

I lay down on the bed. Then the tension was relieved.

And instead of the quiet pop-up, I looked at the noisy smartphone.

The cause is the group message room guys.

-Bae Se-jin hyung:

As soon as the world started passing time again, I properly explained this systemic situation to those who poured out all kinds of impressions and questions starting with these words.

And to the extent that Cheong Ryeo was involved and persuaded him.

All kinds of voices were poured out, from ‘You worked hard’ to ‘Solving such a supernatural situation, as expected, Moon Dae-hyung has outstanding capabilities’… .

I’ve come to this situation.

-Cha Yoo-jin: We can do telepathy! LIIIIIIITTTT (emoticon wearing sunglasses)

-Keun Sejin: Was this what Moondae was talking about?

It is an analysis of the chat window ability.

Surprisingly, the chat window function is still intact and can be recalled.

However, since the moderator is Seon Ah-hyun, it seems that only him can open a chat room.

-Seon Ah-hyun: I was a little surprised, but I'm glad that it was helpful.

-Seon Ah-hyun: (Smiling emoticon)

-Ryu Cheong-woo hyung: Even if it's not necessary, it could be used for a rescue request in an emergency. I think it would be useful if it could be used in real life

-Raebin Kim: Yes. Although gold is a structure that consumes an energy source, being able to communicate in a crisis situation is a great advantage and should be used without hesitation!

You must have cried when you heard that Gold 2.

I fell asleep after midnight while answering the guys who asked me how to use the chat room and where the gold came from.

Instead of beating a guy he worked with until he became a piece of cake, he got information and skills, so he thought that it wasn't so much of a loss.

and the next day.

"Actually, I was there too."

"… ??"

"A chat room."

Ju Dan muttered expressionlessly. I almost spit out water.

‘… Somehow, the number of people was listed as 8.’

It wasn’t a big moon, but there was that guy. It seems that he called all his colleagues.

At the table, Liu Chengyu asked with a slightly embarrassed face.

“Are you saying you couldn’t tell us because we were uncomfortable?”

“Rather than that, it is terrorism for an outsider to break the flow and enter a touching climax scene.”

“… … ?”

let’s drink water

But one fish is caught.

“… ! Could it be that you thought that because the group was different?”

“Rather, it is that there is no shared narrative. It is not simply a division of groups. Context matters.”

“oh… … .”

That… I can’t.

I opened my mouth while watching Rabin Kim fall into complicated thoughts.

“So I’m thinking of making it so that you’re not an outsider..”

“Is there a past I can’t remember yet? Second awakening?”

no that’s not it I pointed my finger at the baby girl coming out of the room.

“I’ll make him do it.”

“… ??”

We have to pay for making people work like dogs for hours.

A few days later.

While going through the main quest, I checked the parcel in the mail tab of the received status window.

“This is the only way to get a teammate draw ticket anyway.”

“is it so.”

The guy has now handed over the information obediently. I nodded and checked the information inside the post.

[4-Star Confirmation Ticket]

[5-Star Confirmation Ticket]

This is the confirmation ticket for someone who manipulated the probability.

I can already guess who the monstrous guy who got 5 stars even though I have no relationship with him is, but anyway, all I have to do is set it up.

“How about creating a more welcoming atmosphere that is less shocking?”

“Yeah Party~” is a good suggestion.

I hit the cheongnyeo

“hey.”

“hmm?”

“You do it.”

Do it if you have a conscience.

Of course, this bastard doesn't have a conscience.

and after a while

"What happen?"

"uh… ?"

Jin Chae-yul and Oh Yoon-shin, who returned after filming a variety show for 2 days and 1 night, face an unexpected sight.

"Tongue brother?"

"… … ."

Cheong-Ri, wearing a cone-shaped hat and holding a huge piece of paper with 〈Welcome VTIC〉 written on it with both hands, is smiling.

I put a party elephant trumpet in its mouth. Cheongryeo's smile deepens.

It seemed to mean that he would kill me if I asked him a question, but luckily the two saw them from the living room.

Candles and balloon pollen.

It is a set of 3 parties.

Jin Chae-yul's face turns red.

"surprise party… ? It's not my birthday!"

"I know."

"no."

I applauded expressionlessly.

mate.

Other guys follow suit.

“… ??”

“It may shock you a little, but it is not harmful to your body, so don’t worry.”

And I broke the two confirmation tickets I received in the mail.

[★★★★ Oh Yunshin / Lead Rapper]

[★★★★ Jin Chae-yul / Center]

After a while adjusting time.

“welcome. Welcome, senior.”

“… ??”

“Welcome to Wishz.”

Ju-dan waves his hand. Chae-yul, who stumbles and gets up, has a face full of question marks, and Shin-o is about to pass out.

I said solemnly:

“I’m sorry, but you have to go to work right away.

“yes?”

“We are right in front of the high ground.”

“yes… ??”

That’s how the K-Pop Inferno Joint Camp was opened.

Chapter 409

If you can’t debut, you’ll get sick to death Episode 409

Wishes So, this pattern-only rookie career group that debuted with a mixture of Testa and VTIC is almost at the end.

That is, the target is the goal.

‘The sound source is smooth. Awareness is great.’

In fact, if you look at the grades alone, it’s not strange.

The closer the end of the year approaches, the less likely it is that the forecast will be wrong. Unless an emergency happens… No, I’m blocking it like this, can it be?

There is only one thing left.

It is a matter of so-called ‘class’.

-If Wishz wasn’t Letty, they wouldn’t be able to sing Daesang right now haha

-If a rookie male idol suddenly comes out well but the charts are also suspicious, what do you think is the possibility of manipulation? (Given no guess X)

– New male idols who come out of the target story To be honest, it feels awkward because it feels like a project group that is an entertainment show

It was also a problem that occurred because individual awareness was higher than group awareness.

‘Well, actually, I think I’ll really get that, so I’m doing that more.’

It’s a rule that X Bob has no checks.

Anyway, because the music score is good, I can’t stop receiving it, so even if I receive it, there are bastards who will not be recognized.

Nothing has changed from when I received the Testa Rookie Award… No, to be precise, nothing has changed since then to Testa.

‘Maybe it’s harder to catch because each anti is attached separately.’

It’s good to have raised personal awareness to the limit through variety shows, but it’s a problem because the character is exposed so strongly that people like and dislike it. -ㅅㅅㅅㅅ A naive foreigner and an ace quarterback who came up with this kind of crap-like concept

?

I’ve never been wrong about the combination of appearance contemplation + obsession fantasy.

As far as I know, there are many times more people who hate it so much that they can’t stand it.

‘It can’t be helped.’

It’s a bit disappointing though.

‘If it had exploded from the debut song, I would have eaten half of it before going in.’

If the image was set as ‘a crazy debut at the grand prize level’ from the beginning, this kind of dispute would be less likely.

As an example, I can cite the fact that even though Kim Rae-bin has that personality, thanks to his impression, no one tried to catch a hukou when he was in school.

I had no choice but to give up this in order to maximize album sales in order to strike a minimum balance, but there are also side effects. I tasted it.

Anyway, that's why some corrections are needed.

I solemnly declared in front of a large table in the living room, which had been slashed with candles and pollen.

"You only need to do it once."

"Whatever… ?"

"An intense group activity that will appeal to as many people as possible."

"… !"

"I will soften the internet backlash a bit when we win the grand prize."

Until now, all status-related abnormalities were based on 'public recognition'.

'I didn't awaken those two for no reason.'

"I wish it was a stage."

First of all, it is to raise the stage quality to the level of that time, which was one of the top tiers.

Of course, it's a different matter if the VTIC guys who took the quick lecture on 'Why We Became Lee Ji-kyung' in an hour can catch up.

"Uh… … It's good."

Jin Chae-yul barely answered. You still don't know if this is reality or a dream.

Cheong-ryeo opened her mouth without any change in her expression.

“It’s too grand an idea to overturn it with just one stage. Wouldn’t it be better to make a quick comeback with a preliminary song?”

“Iconic once is better. Multiple times will only diffuse the impact.”

“That is an optimistic idea.”

“What we need is not long-term reputation, but public opinion at the end of the year.”

“hmm.”

Cheong-rye smiled slightly.

“great. If so.”

It’s a little bit of a fight, but it’s not that pissed off. It’s because the guy who was wearing fluorescent pink until just now can set the mood.

For reference, the cone hat was already in the trash as soon as work was over. As a man with a lot of money, he doesn’t know how to save money.

“Then Geonwoo hyung… So, do you have any other opinions besides Moon University?”

Anyway, since the unanimous vote is over, now we have to do what we normally do.

It’s brainstorming.

“Our BOOM! and make the audience scream! for a moment… I got it! Motorcycle! Ride our motorcycle!”

“Morocicol… ?”

“Motorcycle. motorcycle.”

“… ! Preparing a dangerous device in a short time is a reckless opinion. More than anything, it doesn’t fit with Wishz songs!”

“Rabin Kim can arrange it!”

“I have my own opinion too! … I think the time travel concept would be great! A related movie was released around this time, so I think a unique arrangement will come out if we pay homage to it.”

“Rabin is good at talking, but the OST is so famous that I think it might be dangerous. How are you?”

“I should also listen to the next one, to some extent.”

“yes!”

“… … .”

Arranged concept costume appearance program.

The testers who are now accustomed to it are slowing down without hesitation.

And the two VTICs, who have just awakened from the conversation and content passing by in an instant, blink their eyes.

The guy talking here… It’s just cast iron.

“Costumes that appeal to sex without being too excessive… .”

“They are underage.”

“Cancel.”

Anyway, opinions are raging like that, and the plan is gradually materialized. I tossed words and patted the direction.

‘It will take some time, but this is better.’

If you think you have agreed, you will work harder and more actively. New opinions may emerge.

However, even Cheongryeo, who obviously would not prefer this form, is smiling. It means not interfering.

‘Is it my own declaration of surrender?’

It’s okay if you don’t want to interfere.

“Shall we go and rest?”

“yes.”

Cut off the discussion before it drifts in an unproductive direction.

‘I’m cleaning up while doing it.’

“Coke?”

“Okay.”

I got up one by one and went back to my room, mingling with the guys going to the kitchen or to their electronics.

I thought I’d summarize what I’ve come up with so far.

And when I picked up a pen while sitting at my desk.

smart.

someone knocks on the door

“Come on in.”

Then, through the carefully opened door, a roommate enters.

darkening rate.

“Hello me.”

The guy with an awkward smile sneaked around the room and went inside.

The guy who opened the door hesitantly while singing a hum song until just yesterday morning seems to have lost his room a little when he found his memory.

“This is your room, please sit comfortably.”

“Umm, yes.”

But soon, he quietly sits down on his bed and starts talking with a smile.

“I’ve talked to Jaehyun hyung!”

Come to think of it, I was so mad that I talked to that bastard too confidently.

“… … yes. What happened?”

“good night!”

Chaeyoung smiled. And he let out a small sigh.

“I have calmed down now. We want to go back to normal, so we will participate diligently.”

“ah.”

Was that not enough consideration?

“sorry. You must have been shocked, but we proceeded too hastily.”

“no! It’s a bit rare from the beginning. We usually do it like this… We don’t proceed by sharing the basics.”

The man hastily waved his hand. And nodded with a serious face.

“Should I just say that the roles are divided and it feels like each of us is doing our best to do our part.”

“hmm.”

“Maybe that’s why, even though it was a dream, it was fun to be active here. You give a lot of opinions.”

The guy muttered in a slightly childish tone.

“Why did I like the fact that I chose the gesture for this sub song!”

“Yes, the response was actually good.”

“Hmmm, was it? Geonwoo. No junior!”

I’m going to explode

Chae-yul, who had been laughing, asks with a smile remaining.

“Until you go back, can I just mix and match Gernwoo hyung? Ah, I know in my head that he is Mr. Mundae, but it is the face of Geonwoo hyung that I have seen for half a year!”

“I don’t care.”

The possibility of going back and creating controversy should be avoided.

“Wouldn’t it be okay if you just talk and relax? No matter what, you are a senior.”

“Oh I will!”

In fact, he accepted so quickly that I wondered if he was aiming for a half horse.

Chae-yul pats me on the back like a cham-chan senior.

“Then Moondae too, go back and talk to me and make it comfortable! Anyway, if I have a little bit, I will go to the army and not be active… .”

“… … .”

“… … .”

“Fighting.”

“yes… … .”

I’ve been to the store twice. endure it too Anyway, from the start of the next meeting

, I’m going to give it some time until the two of them come up with useful opinions .

and after a few hours.

“Then, I’ll draw a list from the ones that have been decided.”

“yes!”

I picked up a scrap of paper with ‘Welcome VTIC’ written on the back and wrote it down.

“no. 1. appearance program.”

– It must be a contest program.

– Among the candidates, how would you like to select the viewer rating and the number of views on Wetube?

I wrote the corresponding program.

‘It’s a win-win since the 100th episode is also featured.’

and next.

“Association with number 2.”

-I wish we could save some of the characters we caught through individual activities.

-If done incorrectly, it may backfire, but… .

– I’m good. Everyone is good. Then no problem!

I can’t argue

So, it was time to write down the 3rd point about the decided direction and concept.

“I have an opinion.”

“… !”

Jin Chae-yul raised his hand.

“Is it about the concept?”

“That too, but um… It’s about the show.”

“Ah, senior found another good option, so would you like to change it?”

“It’s not like that.”

He hesitated a little before opening his mouth.

“I was wondering what it would be like if we delayed our appearance for one more week!”

“… !”

Why bother with a 100 episode special?

“I was a big fan of this program, but at that time, great people came out the week after the special.”

The guy stroked the back of his head.

“Rather, I think the ratings were better at that time… .”

“Who is that?”

“T-Holic sunbaenim.”

“… !!”

That’s for sure, though.

‘Because there’s someone who should have known this better than that guy.’

I turned my head and looked at Cheong-ryeol. The guy says without looking away.

“well.”

“… … .”

“I deliberately left it a week early. This has a preemptive effect. It’s also difficult to control the recruitment of programs.”

It means shut up.

Chae-yul swallowed slightly.

The moment Shin-oh looked at Chae-yul with pitying eyes, and then opened his mouth, perhaps because he was trying to make a backup.

“Eh, but I think the effect would be greater if compared directly! We also have a sense of competition.”

“… !”

Chae-yul opened her mouth first. This guy had a slightly embarrassed face, probably because this situation was awkward, but he didn’t withdraw his words.

Chung-Ryung doesn't have a special expression.

'hmm.'

Can you help me out a bit?

I put down the pen and opened my mouth.

"I don't think I'll lose even if it's a bit risky if it's successful. Look at the number of people in our group now."

The guy looks away. I grinned.

"Isn't it worth trying to win revenge in a situation where you're not being pushed back by your senior year?"

"… … ."

"It raises the stakes."

Silence passed.

And after a while, Chung-rye, who had touched her chin, nodded.

"Not bad."

"… !"

For a moment, the three VTICs witnessed a winged dog descending from the sky, but their expressions became different.

"I'm in! I like it. Competition drives people!"

The atmosphere is set thanks to Cha Yoo-jin, who came in with a quick bite.

"Are you against it?"

“It doesn’t seem like anything.”

Listening to Liu Cheng-wu’s slightly laughing voice, I wrote the last list.

[4. Comparison target]

The more guys who put words on it, the better the viral match will be.

That’s a good idea. It’s modern, and I nodded my head inwardly when I saw Chae-yul giving a high-five to Shin-oh and not.

Still, to say that he would win after taking off his rank insignia and being compared to him, isn’t he a guy who knows how to be tough against a big senior like T-Holic?

‘It’s not like I’m in the 10th year for no reason.’

It was fortunate that there was enough poison. I immediately opened my mouth without expression.

“Now I just need to take a break when I sleep and put all my time into practice.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

“Is that testa normally like this?”

“yes. Isn’t it VTIC?”

“… … .”

I can’t bear to deny it. After all, arts and sports that make a lot of money are premised on labor that destroys the work-life balance.

< Jinsung Match >.

It is the original program with the longest lifespan among many programs in which singers compete for ranking and victory on stage.

In particular, this season 7 has grown by recovering viewership ratings well with the original PD returning to the composition that has been sharpened. However, if there is a problem, it is the sadness of the longevity program.

Lack of cast pool.

As a result, even those who originally only sang singers famous for their singing skills or crazy performances had no choice but to slightly change their route… .

It's an idol's appearance.

– The original intention of showing talented singers.

-Even if you turn on a music show, only idols you don't know who are appearing, but that's it? Please stop~~

So, quietly.

It was the stage of carefully recruiting a very popular or talented group and lowering the hurdles to entice viewers… .

Suddenly, in the preview for this episode, he betrayed, not betrayed.

-What two groups of idols…

-T-Holic and Wishz? Who are Wishz?

But the good thing is that both of them have familiar faces and know songs.

That's why viewers are sitting in front of their TVs and computer screens to watch this episode anyway, grumbling and swearing.

– I'll think of it as guaranteeing bathroom time PD-nim and Wishes were scheduled to appear on the opening stage like rookies.

Chapter 410

If you can’t debut, you’ll get sick to death Episode 410

The contest program < True Match >, which Wishes will appear in this time, will reduce the amount of talk, but it doesn’t show a long narrative of preparing for the stage.

This is in order to keep the concept of a talented match that ‘everything is said on stage’.

So, on the contrary, he was more than happy with Ryu Gun-woo.

‘If the preparation process is shown too much, the impact will be lost.’

It’s because they are all career workers, so they will come out with a skillful drawing that is not like a newcomer.

I don’t want a character like that.

‘I have to give it a taste that betrays expectations.’

Thanks to this, Wishz received the editing that a typical ‘big hit newcomer with one song’ deserves, with almost no preparation.

[< What is the fifth team? >]

[The idol you want~ Hello. This is Wishes.]

A cool look. And it’s about the amount of introducing the currently popular song ‘Timer’ as if it were an advertisement.

Originally, I would have received more. Because each and every one of them is a crazy monster rookie who is hot.

However, the rest of the early portion is taken by the team whose position and image are upwardly compatible.

It’s barreu tea holic.

[Ah~ welcome!]

[< Here comes the national idol! >]

Because it is a group with a high public awareness and a lot of hit songs, viewers’ reactions are focused on that side, whether good or bad.

However, a few people who like to show off their sharp analysis have left comments.

– It seems to overlap a bit.

-This is a public relations failure

. The two of them have very similar images.

Listing those facts alone, Wishz was a latecomer to the T-Holic line.

Besides, even the subject of this episode 101 performance is not helping the Wishes.

[Topic: Beginners]

[Theme for singers who have challenged themselves in < Jinsung Match >, which marks the first episode beyond 100 episodes] Beginnings for rookies?

In addition, I couldn’t help but feel bored when I recalled the 100th episode special like a festival with fancy stage settings and famous songs by famous composers.

The last word before the stage, when leader Shin Jae-hyun gave the requested ‘word of resolution’, people were confused.

[Thankfully, we made our name known through various individual activities, but in fact, the essence is that we are people who do group performances.] [

I want to show you.]

-That’s like a death flag

-Someone would think that variety shows only came out for about 5 years.

-You must have done a lot with the timer, didn’t you?

When viewers react in a somewhat elated way to the remarks of a promising rookie who already has a hit song.

A fan who was leaving a cheering message could not stand it and knocked on the keyboard.

-LOL Everyone doesn’t know that. I’m from the Wishz survival program

. -The group contest itself is the kids’ first intention

[Live broadcast]

Real-time transmission appears in the top corner, and the moment the texture of the screen changes, the camera moves to illuminate the stage.

Opening stage ready.

A huge cursive font floats brightly on the electronic signboard at the top.

[Yesterday]

Yellow lights like sunlight fall on the stage.

The stage set in front of the billboard like the blue sky is a wonderful entrance to the school built with bricks.

And performers appear between the panel structures.

The members of Wishz are wearing neat private school uniforms.

Gathering along the movement line, they form a formation, and blonde-haired Chae-yul laughs in the center.

[Shall we turn on the timer and go to the past]

It was the appearance of a song everyone knows.

The stage with a brass accompaniment by changing the movement and singing method in a somewhat musical way is somewhat retro and pleasant.

An overwhelming and enjoyable feeling.

In addition, for each part, he mixed the characters he had built up in variety shows in a slightly humorous way.

Liu Cheng-wu wears glasses and reads a book. A cast iron that does the magic of lighting newspapers on fire. Cha Yoo-jin winks as she ends her rap with ‘yes’.

Mix buzzwords or reproduce situations.

And Ryu Gun-woo, who was holding the campaign sign as if protesting, hugged the sign tightly and laughed and sang the chorus.

[When I was running, I still remember

the meteor that fell on us today]

The members waving their hands and dancing.

All those moments… It was very natural and gave a pleasant feeling of support. From the successful arrangement to the relaxed appearance of the members who don’t even look nervous.

-Okay.

-You’re good, the pure function of an idol~~ It feels like you’re being supported^^ -I think I got some tickets .

The vocals are also flawless.

The moment I thought it was worth going over without cursing.

-uh? Where is

Kim Rae-bin?

There is a human figure climbing up the railing behind the stage setting.

The belatedly following camera illuminates a hand raised on the school clock… Kim Rae-bin with white hair.

The moment when the eyes looking downwards met the camera.

[D——ing——]

The camera work moves backwards.

The blue sky of the electronic display board wriggles, and a new sound comes in after biting the bell.

Forged recorder.

And the tempo of the accompaniment changes.

-????

While Kim Rae-bin comes down the railing one step at a time, the remaining seven gather and perform a choreography.

The choreography looks a bit like a dance break interlude, but it’s off-beat and somewhat slow, giving you a bit of a strange feeling.

And when Kim Rae-bin came down and joined, the sound of the bell and the original accompaniment had already died down.

in white noise.

Kim Rae-bin, who walked to the center and stood there, nodded.

And a low voice that sounds hoarse.

[Move the timer]

[Listen to my wish]

The song unfolds again as the unfamiliar rap catches on to the melody that doesn’t fit.

A strong riff melody. [

Memorize

a spell you’ll never forget, teach me about your world]

The display board turns dark after the time dyed red before you know it, and the crescent moon rises.

night time.

[Yesterday]

The moment the letters at the top change, the real choreography begins.

And every time a member comes out looking for their part in ‘Timer’.

[Turn on the timer]

[Stay here, I don’t change]

Blocked.

A new melody in a minor key that bites the melody of the timer.

Classical arrangements are pushed out and modern MIDI notes naturally take their place.

Viewers were perplexed because they could not know this much.

-What song is this

? -Isn’t “Timer” your debut song?

no.

There are all of their debut songs that have kicked off the popularity of domestic music sources that are perfect for the taste of KPOP fandom.

[I won’t get tired of memorizing it forever,

so hold on to me and leave me here]

‘Wish’

The story of a ghost story that is forever trapped in a school at night eats away at the timer.

like a catch

Every time Timer’s riff melody comes out, Wish’s beat presses down as if tearing it apart.

And the choreography changes as if blocking it.

[The picture sparkles]

[The sound of the prey’s breath on the night of hunting,

I’m the one who grants wishes]

As if pushing back and blocking Jin Chae-yul’s movement in the timer refrain, Cha Yoo-jin catches the dance center with her eyes shining.

In the timer part, the members who intentionally had fewer parts come to the fore.

The beat gradually gets faster and more intense, and the movements of the choreography become more violent, as if the movement lines are pushing them roughly.

night of the hunt.

A gloomy high-pitched sound roars.

[Ohohohoh-]

The dark and intense voice that supports it

[Make me enhanced

The moment the outstretched hand and stop motion are captured.

the song is over

Inyoung lowered her raised hand into the air and came forward from the middle.

[One,

Dress neatly.

After arranging the fabric with his fingers, Shin Jae-hyeon turns around with a smile, and the line of movement hardens into a pyramid shape.

However, his rear row, turned back, is still looking ahead. and open your mouth

[right… right… .]

A cappella that sounds like a booing.

The bell rings at the red midnight school.

The opening stage ended with only the ringing of the remaining bells on the dark stage.

Soon, the MC’s comment through the VCR sounds for the next stage… .

-???

-What song is this now?? Someone please answer

– It was thrilling

– What did I just see

?

-? I went to the bathroom, but why is the atmosphere like

this?

Wishes vomited their flagship to finish the final score from the bottom to 2nd place.

* * *

Before work, I stopped by the bathroom and turned my smartphone screen in the hallway on my way back.

The story of this group pops up every time you turn the page.

The main keyword is embarrassing.

-Is Wishz’s original stage like this?

The stage of ‘Timer’, which aimed at the sound source, was deliberately designed to be easy to follow and easy to see.

It means that it was not the main thing that made people stunned by the insanely high difficulty level, or the strong momentum that opened their mouths and the feeling of attracting attention to the point of embarrassment.

A stage that just makes you feel good.

That’s why the public recognized Wishz’s organs and routes as ‘public-friendly tea holic lines’.

But I realized it through this stage.

the aspirations of this group.

-They were really sidelined in entertainment.

Surprisingly, it’s the truth. I nodded while looking at the best comment.

-Isn’t it a scam? Doing this live >?? Hahahahaha -Wow, how did you get the timing right? You do everything well wow crazy live…

-I didn’t expect it to be this far with minor sensibility But it’s charming Was your debut like this?

In the midst of such a reaction from the entertainment community that was interested in idols, general viewers added more.

It’s so good that it’s a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of

Besides, this is no ordinary program.

– It was a cool stage. Maybe it’s because they’re young, so they know how to take on challenges. I’ve seen geniuses.

-I never thought the opening would be like this~~ It was cool!

– You must have had a hard time because of a ruthless company that only released entertainment shows with these skills. I can sing and dance well.

A long standing contest program.

Viewers who have already become deceased were hoping for a more intense and stimulating contest stage.

This must have been a good stimulus to the eyes of these people who watched more than 100 episodes and saw most of them as clichés.

both stagely and narratively.

‘It’s because a good guy is a good guy.’

Thanks to that, it’s good to see that the majority of people have changed their attitude.

‘good.’

I nodded and turned off the internet. I thought that if I spread the article all the way tomorrow, I would be able to upload the group image without any problems.

Now go in, stretch your feet, and sleep for more than six hours in a long time… .

“Hey there.”

“yes?”

When I turn my head, I see a familiar face… .

‘hmm.’

this bastard… who was it

‘Ah, that’s T-holic.’

However, the cause of the withdrawal is unknown.

I’m sorry, but in reality it’s been a while since you left. I should have had something to see.

I bowed my head like a fresh newcomer and greeted him. The guy nodded.

“I saw the stage well. I prepared very hard, but it deserves second place!”

“thank you.”

I politely grabbed the hand that he extended. Then, a look somewhere between ignorance and borderline passes in his eyes.

“I think it would be cool to release the next comeback song with that kind of stage feeling. Wishz seemed to do that the best.”

Fucking popularity?

Well, this guy probably doesn’t know that the rookie doesn’t have the authority to decide that.

He must have wandered around our waiting room on purpose to be treated like a big senior because he was just feeling dirty.

‘oh.’

Are you a guy who knows how to cheat?

how about it anyway He’ll be retired in a few years anyway.

I smiled inwardly and nodded my head.

“Oh, thank you.”

“is it so. okay. I hope we can see your face again in our next variety show.”

“Ah yes.”

Still, I have to kill it a bit.

The door to my waiting room is right in front of me, but I’m not in a good mood because I can’t get off work. Would you mind shutting your mouth and going out?

But suddenly the door opens.

Click.

And then a man dressed in plain clothes comes out.

Cheongrye.

“hello. Seniors.”

“Oh Jaehyun. Welcome. okay.”

He’s the leader and he seems to know more about it than the other guys.

‘Should I skip it and go in?’

I rarely looked at the walking guy happily.

Those who quit T-Holic muttered.

“You always have a good attitude. Uh, if you want to go on for a long time, you have to keep doing that.”

“I will always respect you.”

“Yes, yes.”

Meaning and confidence that you will never leave this position. and pride.

‘Maybe it’s a little bitter.’

It was the moment I opened my mouth.

First, the old man slowly opened his mouth.

“Still, it can’t be in its prime forever. Both groups and people.”

“… !”

Shin Jae-hyeon immediately smiled and looked at the T-Holic guy.

It means you won’t outlast me.

‘… … That guy.’

it was mac

But he… I didn't expect to see him say such a thing openly.

-It's the heyday because the heyday is over.

I remembered what I said to him earlier.

And the resigned person's face gradually turned red and began to look straight.

"You now… ."

"Oh my brother, you're here!"

At that moment, a bright voice interrupted again.

The guy who rushed in from across the corner was another member of T-Holic.

"The manager hyung found it. Oh Wishz."

The youngest of T-Holic, the owner of "Party in me," which I did during my first evaluation of < Azusa >, squinted his eyes.

"I saw the stage very well. Let's compete with each other in good faith so that we can be seen on the broadcasting station for a long time!"

"no. We dare not compete… ."

"You are even humble."

No, if you go back to reality, it means that you can't compete because of the generation gap. At that point, it's an old man attack.

Anyway, he seemed to be laughing a little bit, but he quickly corrected his expression.

"Thank you~ Come on bro let's go!"

The youngest member of T-Holic disappeared with the guy who was about to leave.

"… … ."

I looked at Cheongnyeo. He shrugged and smiled thinly.

"Hmm, how do you feel about being quoted?"

"I just need to know."

"haha!"

I left the laughing guy behind and opened the door to the waiting room.

So, all the conditions are met.

Now comes the target season.

"Hello viewers~"

Sejin Lee of the group Zyrop, who held the microphone from the MC side of the awards ceremony, greeted with a smile.

Received great acclaim for his dyed black hair, he stood here this year thanks to solid group activities and outstanding individual performances.

Of course, one of the reasons was that he was one of the few qualified people who could well watch the live broadcast society, but there are circumstances that the company does not know.

'… … I think it will work out.'

Lee Se-jin is here for an unexpected situation.

for planning and operations.

‘Ah, I try everything like this.’

He secretly swallowed his saliva in nervousness, but smiled casually and raised his head.

“< Lemon Music Awards > curtain rises!”

The year-end awards ceremony has begun.

Chapter 411

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 411

"I'm happy to deliver meaningful news here today."

Lee Se-jin's awards ceremony was flawless. Even those who used to talk about their age and seniority became quiet once the award ceremony was in progress.

In addition, the group he belongs to also won an award and a good picture came out.

"Performance Award… This is Zyrop!"

-Ohhhh

-Lee Se-jin is crazy to walk out of the MC seat. He's cool.

-Hahaha. It's cute when the kids join in and say

hello.

The 'Hyungs' laugh at each other as soon as their eyes meet. It was a sincere response that clearly showed that he was paying close attention.

'Yes, well~.'

It was worth it.

This is because Lee Se-jin showed the members a true taste of reality as soon as he regained his real testa self.

The first day I dyed my hair and went back.

-Hey~ What are you?

-Lee Se-jin X, I do whatever I want~

Finally, Lee Se-jin said with a grin at the guys who put their noses in their smartphones without giggling or at least saying that this guy is like this.

-oh… Smile?

-… ?!

– But the answer is correct. Wow, I'm going to do it my way, just as you said!

Then, I went to the company and informed them of the dyeing.

This is what I proposed as a trade option to a company that was frightened by an unexpected situation and was torn between being an adult and being punished.

– Huh? Everyone was comfortable, so I thought it was okay for me too. I had to report it~

The members' deviant behavior.

From octopus foot love tricks to networking lines for secret account clubs.

Originally, Gyrop's Lee Se-jin exploded with a bomb intact what he had been grasping as much as possible with this grin to deal with.

-no… !

-You can see the conversation history here, right?

No matter how good your grades are, it's your third year. Of course, the company was freaked out and started to deal with it.

Cell phone supervision, every move, surveillance strengthened The emergency bell rang and the tight management system right before the debut kicked the members' butts back in!

And, of course, the members were furious with Lee Se-jin.

It is basic to silently look at the team and keep quiet, but to dare to come out like this was an unacceptable act of betrayal.

How dare you be the youngest in a group life?

-Have you turned?

-hey.

However, Lee Se-jin smiled without blinking an eye.

– Is this a threat? Oh!

-… ?!

And I really turn on my SNS account and start writing without hesitation.

Even the details of selecting and attaching emotional photos quoting melancholy poems such as 'Lonely Others'.

It's scary at this point.

-Are you crazy?

-I don't know~ I guess so!

It is all the more frightening when a guy who was originally the youngest and had a good social life quickly turned into a psycho who couldn't communicate with his eyes.

It was the madman meta.

– Wait a minute.

-Oh please… . no.

It took less than a day for the members, overwhelmed by the unpredictable situation, to declare surrender.

-Wow~ Club! Actually, you dance in the practice room or at the club, right? I'll upload a proof shot saying that I practice really hard at my brother's club on social media!

-Ah Okay. wait for a sec.

'Oh'

was the answer. It was a low-level cider that Lee Se-jin, who had been adapting well to society all his life and spent as little face as possible with people, felt for the first time in his life.

'This is how it works.'

Lee Se-jin almost fainted for a moment at the thrill of the future-less act of being rammed into him, but he soon smiled and shrugged his shoulders.

'It's cool, but it's not my type.'

So, the ending unfolded the way he was originally good at.

After that, I worked on it for 15 days whenever I was alone with the members.

-brother.

-Uh… . I'm just going to the bathroom for a minute.

-Yes, yes. Actually, hyung-nim isn't such a strange person. I'm like this because I'm so disappointed with the other members.

And specifically, as if lamenting an example of deviation that absolutely does not apply to that member.

-Honestly, dating with octopus feet… No, on the day I make a mistake, the blow is too big. does that make sense?

-… Yeah, that kid was a bit over the line.

-yes. I don't want to disappoint you, but let's do our best. You have to stay popular.

-… … ah uh

Trainees in their early 20s didn't last long, and it wasn't even a job to make the good guys who just debuted change their stance.

'He's a scary madman, but he's okay with me. I'm an aide.'

Everyone made this mistake.

After that, it was a breeze.

Crazy whipping that doesn't seem to distinguish between friends and family, and carrots that only seem to be given to me. Isn't that the result of that combination?

A balanced situation in which each other watches each other and tries to win Lee Se-jin's favor.

"thank you. I will continue to work hard!"

In the end, this year, they didn't get caught in the rush of fans leaving, and they moved quite passionately to get the prize.

'Ah~ I worked properly.'

Lee Se-jin looked back on her past activities and felt refreshed. And I checked the faces of the members.

'really… Where did these guys make their debut?'

There was a time when I thought that I couldn't debut because I lacked this positioning or charm as an idol compared to these guys.

Now that I look at it, I wonder if I was too young to be so mistaken, but… .

'If you debuted by beating me, do it right.'

I thought it was an undeserved award and wanted to devote myself to it.

'I'm going back anyway!'

he concluded eloquently. On the way there, of course… I didn't know I'd be backing up something like this.

'under.'

Keun Se-jin got a little dizzy thinking about what would happen in a while, but his face was still smiling and he finished his testimony and returned to the MC seat.

"thank you!"

"Congratulations, Mr. Sejin~"

The other two hosts applauded. Lee Se-jin lowered his head sadly and showed a happy expression.

"Come to think of it, the next presenter is someone Sejin knows well."

"ah."

it's coming out slowly

Big Sejin pretended not to know and smiled curiously.

"Who are you? Can I see you now?"

"sure."

“This award is the Rookie of the Year Award.”

The display board behind opens and an acquaintance walks out.

“This is Lee Se-jin, the actor of < Seahorse > and < Dialing >.”

It was Bae Se-jin who would present the award alone.

The well-dressed members looked like actors to anyone.

However, Sejin knew that if that person did idol styling, he would look like an idol again.

“hello. As a listener who enjoys listening to KPOP, I am very excited and honored to be here.”

The obvious awards ceremony script continues. However, his vocalization is good and it sounds natural due to the nature of his job.

“From a certain moment, KPOP seems to have become a hobby and daily life that I feel very close to.”

And he glanced back at the progress seat and even threw out these words.

“Among the idols, there are also people with the same name as me, so it seems more like that.”

Big Sejin smiled and shook his head. Laughter and applause erupted from the crowd.

Also, acting with a script is really good. Even if it’s not… He is also a hard-working person.

‘hmm.’

Big Sejin admitted. Bae Se-jin is not a person who has no passion for work or is insincere.

It’s a problem because it doesn’t suit you, but what?

‘That’s it… It might get better if I do it.’

Rarely, Big Sejin gave a generous evaluation of interpersonal relationships that had already been ruined once.

I wouldn’t say there was no gyro effect.

“I will announce it.”

And the rookie award winner Bae Se-jin called out with a faint smile was Wishz.

-Escape from Deokgye Pond!

-Congratulations, Lee Se-jin
hahahah

Because there are only verified people in that group, the stage is so good.

I didn't want to feel like my place was unclear again.

[Shall we go back to the past by turning on the timer]

Watching the stage of Wishz right after winning the Rookie of the Year award, he endured a strange feeling of anticipation or anxiety.

And after some time has passed.

After commercials and several stages, the announcer next to her reads her long-awaited cue card.

* * *

[This award is the Song of the Year award.]

"Whoa."

It's almost the end of part 2. I sat in the singer's seat and checked my surroundings.

From testas to VTIC bastards.

Fortunately, there's no one with a clear face.

[Hyung, I'm so nervous.]

You… I can't see your face for now, so it's okay to be nervous.

In any case, the object is finally called.

The Song of the Year award is called first, perhaps because it was intended to be given to singers with the lowest name value.

'It's obvious.'

It's Wishes.

[If you would like to help with the awards… .]

And the presenter opens the door and enters… .

Isn't that Seon Ah-hyun?

[This is Kim Nan-joo, director of the Korea Music Foundation, and Seon Ah-hyun, a ballerina.]

What is it?

I saw a guy in a suit walking in, and suddenly I realized that I had already heard the story from him.

– I was invited to the awards ceremony… Maybe you can see… !

No, I thought it would be ToneA. It's usually T1 guys who try to raise the value of their name at an awards ceremony by recruiting names from other art fields.

So, naturally, I said, 'Let's see if I go there then' and passed it on.

'… It's rather okay that the person in charge came to the seat.'

Because you don't know what's going to happen.

I caught Cha Yoo-jin, who was about to wave at Seon Ah-hyun, and put my eyes on the podium.

[Hello.]

Seon Ah-hyun, who entered with an elderly lady named Issa, smiled and listened to Issa's words, before finally opening her mouth.

It seems that he gave away all the amount of comments such as publicity.

announcement of the winners.

[Lemon Music Awards Song of the Year Award. The winner… .]

As soon as our eyes met, he smiled brightly.

[Congratulations. Wishes… !]

Wow!!

Cheers and screams of celebration fill the venue.

The members exchange hugs and shoulder pats with each other once in a while.

At first glance, it seems like an expression of emotion, but in fact, it is more an expression of determination than that.

“Let’s go, Moondae hyung.”

“okay.”

Cha Yoo-jin pats my back. I headed straight for the podium.

‘I shouldn’t be late.’

When I go up to the stage, Sun Ah-hyun smiles and hands me a bouquet.

Taking it and leaving the trophy to someone else,

I stood right in front of the microphone. And I looked back at Cheongnyeol.

“… … .”

right after.

The guy nods slightly.

It was a signal.

I immediately opened my mouth in front of a standing microphone.

“hello everyone.”

I can feel the other guys standing in formation right behind my back.

A moment of tension.

“I’ll get right to the point.”

Without taking a deep breath, I opened my mouth as clearly as possible.

“I am retiring.”

“…?!”

“Without repetition. completely.”

I continued talking.

“We will rule out all cases of gaining recognition or fame through all entertainment activities.”

There is no rebuttal behind his back.

tacit consent of all.

VTIC was awakened for this purpose. If you become the party without knowing anything, you will go black.

uh uh uh uh huh

But beneath the stage, chaos and fear rage.

“This is a declaration of retirement.”

Audience seats filled with screams and confusion. The production crew rushing around in front of it or hastily giving their autographs to the stage and staff.

I looked down at it blankly.

One person hurriedly kneels in search of a sketchbook or something and scribbles out the writing.

-What is this?

But before the sentence was even completed.

I gritted my teeth and saw an infinitely repetitive pattern that was reproduced endlessly.

Cheong-rye showed one of her skills.

-There is an error reporting function.

And the meaning premised there… .

– that errors may occur.

Wouldn’t it be nice to have a function to report something that doesn’t exist?

I made a plan from there.

A plan to make errors that would make progress completely impossible.

-Can you tell exactly when the quest will be completed?

-Yes.

-Then give me a sign.

At the point of clearing the game, the essential elements for progress are removed at the same time.

‘Invalidate activity.’

If you do it before clearing, it will just fail clearing. And it doesn’t matter much if you do it after clearing. because it has already been cleared.

But at the same time… .

‘It’s a contradiction.’

it will collide

-So if there is an error in the algorithm… .

– It bounces.

right error.

A huge bug occurs.

[Error: Undefined.]

[※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※]

[※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※ ※]

[Remaining until program auto-stop Hours: @#$!.]

I twisted my mouth as I watched the changing letters on all the holograms.

auto stop.

‘It bounces in the program.’

Even the GM, Chung-ryeo, does not have the authority to recover from this situation.

‘If that’s the case, there’s a chance that the game world will collapse and return to reality… high.’

I’m ready.

And it really starts to cloud my mind.

As if waking up, a vague sense of floating surrounds the brain… .

That moment.

[——.]

Something hits the brain.

very huge

Woo-woo-!

“… !!”

I bit my tongue in an excruciating shock. Vibration sounds instead of floating feeling.

The problem is that… that it is something meaningful.

Power without language to express one’s intentions.

It means

– is it a mistake?

And immediately after that, the stage is erased.

The podium is erased and the stage structure disappears like a graphic.

Next is the audience seats for the production team.

Even the light of the light stick.

Everything has disappeared, leaving only a vague and abstract frame of the world.

and the voice heard again.

[I often use this expression.]

A voice like I’ve heard it somewhere.

It expresses its intentions with a sound that sounds like a hum in a dream.

[System.]

[Do you use that title?]

I clenched my fist.

It was a system.

Chapter 412

If I can’t debut,

I’ll get a fatal disease Episode 412 My head gets cold.

This one knows I call myself a system.

How far do you know no before… .

‘… Can you talk?’

Does this mean that communication is possible?

[You have doubts about my existence.]

The world where only outlines remain is distorted whenever a sound is heard.

A colossal presence fills the space and exerts an unbearable pressure on a small creature… .

‘shut up.’

What are you saying X-foot.

A baby parasite that takes on a human host must be pretty amazing. Don’t get involved unnecessarily and get your mind right.

I chewed my mouth. The pain seemed to bring me back a bit.

A soft voice hums in the air.

[Don’t you like this?]

[I thought it was well made.]

It’s a very human vocabulary. That’s why it’s even more creepy.

“Did you make it?”

[Yes.]

[Such an act… Express that you get feedback.]

Kung.

The space is turbulent.

The frame emerges, and eventually, even the ambiguous shape and traces disappear and become discolored.

All that remains is a colorless space.

[What is lacking?]

But here I am.

I bit my tongue and opened my mouth.

“The guy who is lacking, nabal, and scammers with other people’s parents talks a lot.”

The will fluctuates. I don’t know if it’s agitation or laughter, but it’s the same thing that makes me feel dirty.

I stretched out and stood looking straight ahead.

My legs are shaking.

However, it does not move with strength.

“It can’t be good. … and me.”

I said calmly.

“I don’t want to look into the air and talk about it anymore.”

silence for a while.

A slow, languid will rings out.

[That’s the procedure.]

And I know where the sentimental comment ‘I think I’ve heard it somewhere’ came from.

“… !”

it appeared suddenly

It neither fell from the sky nor soared from the ground.

It just popped up like it always did.

in front of my eyes.

[Hello.]

You look familiar.

A full body man in his early to mid 20s who managed to reach the limit of his height.

Cheongrye.

The guy is wearing a black uniform. The outfit VTIC wore on the first stage of their famous Horn comeback six years ago.

The system smiles and nods, looking like something out of my days selling data.

Shin Jae-hyun of VTIC's heyday was standing there.

Just as creepy as it is.

'X feet.'

[I chose an appearance that is close to yours.]

The only difference is the coloring.

It is white without pigment, as if belonging to a colorless space.

"… … ."

Feeling the cold sweat running down my spine, I raised my head again.

[Let's talk now.]

A sound echoes. The larger presence fills the invisible void without leaving a single gap.

[This is an offer only for you.]

But soft. As if making a really good suggestion.

system declared.

[I will accept your feedback into the world.]

"… !"

what.

[Shall I adjust the age and situation to your preference? Should I change my affiliation? or not… Shall I return it to Park Moon-dae's body?]

"… !"

[Almost anything is theoretically possible in the environment settings, as long as you give your opinion. With Pip Jin-seong's permission.]

I shut my mouth.

The voice ripples more subtly.

[There are also people close to you here. you woke up There is nothing lacking.]

[Still, if there is something lacking, I'll let you buy it.]

If it's a purchase.

[In reputation level (Exp).]

Renown level.

Goods that serve as experience points in this game system.

[In the meantime, there were limited uses, but from now on, I'll release a lot. It's a new chapter.]

The system talks about an update.

[Let's implement the parents more perfectly. It's a prototype, so it wasn't good enough this time.]

You crazy bastard.

[You're denying it. Even so… It's the same condition as before. right?]

… I didn't have parents in the first place, is that so?

I definitely noticed

This kid isn't human. It's not simply a matter of appearance, but they don't understand emotion at all.

At least, he doesn’t recognize the problem at all that he understood.

‘Do not get involved.’

I took a short deep breath.

‘Calm down.’

what i have to do

to find out information.

“Why are you making this offer?”

Ask questions that are neither positive nor negative.

“Are you trying to please me in case I go out and try to get rid of you again? What do you want?”

[—]

The world shakes again. I knew the meaning.

ridicule

A high-pressure vibration descends like a needle from a high place and turns into a voice.

[I only ask for one thing.]

The system raises a finger.

[Idol.]

The incarnation of that job moves his mouth.

[Don’t retire, just continue as an idol. Until you get tired of it.]

I deliberately smiled.

“You are laughing.”

[…] … .]

“Recommendation? If it was me, I would have killed it right away. There are so many people who want to become idols.”

Ever since this bastard started talking, I deliberately raised the intensity and scratched, but he still didn’t say that he would kill me.

how about this

“Aren’t you doing this because you couldn’t kill me?”

I declared

The system stands still.

“I… .”

[You can’t kill it?]

A plain voice rang out.

And suddenly.

the world pours

Ooh

ooh

ooh-

The pressure of the deep sea presses the person as if the whole body is being squeezed, as if the pressure is extremely heavy and suddenly presses down on the head and brain.

The system is the world.

The world created by him asks.

[You can’t kill it?]

Damn you bastard.

My body seems to burn with cold sweat and heat. But I asked and answered. Rather, I knew for sure.

“okay!”

You can’t kill me, so you’re overreacting.

‘I was agitated.’

poke here

“and you. … What it looks like now.”

I remembered the big moon that was assimilated into the status window.

It seemed that he was almost unilaterally affected and absorbed into the system. But at the same time it exerted influence on the system.

If so,

“I didn’t choose.”

This cub has been clean for a very long time and has gone through countless lives.

Raw without status window.

If so,

“Isn’t that the only thing you can do?”

I exclaimed.

“Isn’t that because you were also influenced by people?”

The world has stopped.

and.

[That’s right.]

The vibration in his voice disappeared.

I caught my breath.

The system mumbles in an almost human-sounding sound.

[Something that gets buried if you get involved in one spirit for a long time. A big side effect… .]

[But what I got was a bigger and more successful direction.]

For a moment, it seemed like I read joy in the voice of the system.

‘X feet.’

I straightened up and asked again.

“What are you?”

[I’ve been here for a long time.]

[In the minds of the intelligent beings.]

It’s a parasite. Fuck.

[It fulfills the aspirations of an intelligent body, and the intense emotions and chaos produced in the process are resources. Mental energy.]

[That energy sustains and grows my intellect.]

The words are polished. I swallowed.

“Then why are you an idol?”

why are you emphasizing that?

Moreover, it is not a coincidence that the three of them, from Cheongryeo to Heeseung Kwon, have jobs as idols in a row.

“What criteria did you choose us for?”

The system smiles like a photograph.

[Because there has never been anything so efficient.]

Efficiency?

The guy with his hand up speaks like a polite salesperson.

[I’ve been looking for energy like that for a very long time… . Then I met a new object.]

Cheongryeol.

Desire and obsession towards a successful idol group.

[To think that such a direct and vast torrent of living emotions are gathered in one intelligent body.]

[Overwhelming envy and the burden of being crushed to death Happiness Pain The king and the clown. A myriad of emotions that the leader of the church should receive.]

[Harvested so much energy.]

“… … .”

There was heat in his voice as if he was drunk.

But not in a human way. The system speaks plainly.

[How much worship, affection, hatred, and loathing your identity, which means idol, receives at the same time.] [

Really… It's a great object.]

[Very good. But it's over.]

It's because Cheongryeo eventually succeeded in ending the status ailment.

[So I found a similar intelligence.]

B.

[You.]

[You were great too.]

"… … ."

The guy held out his hand.

[You were happy. I know.]

[We'll do it here forever. Live as the most famous idol in this country until you get tired of it. And if you make a mistake and you feel like you'll fall again, if you can see the end again, do it again.]

[Eternal star!]

Click.

A shining light shines in a world where there was nothing.

[Until that day when you are tired and exhausted, you can live a successful life.]

Then he whispers again.

[However, if you feel like quitting everything at the end, it's okay to quit.]

If you can find the next host,

[You just have to enjoy this right until then. As much as you want.]

The world shines.

If I accept this, I feel a strange, overwhelming feeling that everything will be fine.

Just as a perfect world will be created that only accepts the strengths of reality.

I looked at the system that had returned to color before I knew it and asked.

"What about Kwon Hee-seung?"

[…] …]

"What about him?"

The light of the world goes out.

And a soft voice is heard.

[The server plays the role of a server.]

[That's someone else's business that has nothing to do with you. There are countless deaths and sufferings in the world. It's not a matter for you personally.]

Yes?

[Still, you can make it here if you want… .]

"Just like my parents."

I said in a low voice.

“Actually, you’re using it as a server.”

[—.]

Yes.

I interpreted vibrations that were not even voiced.

and ask again

“Is this Kwon Hee-seung’s dream?”

The voice returns.

[However, it becomes solid only when it is based on the medium’s mental structure. A server is all you need to make it a reality, not a dream.]

[That’s all.]

[No matter what choice you make, it won’t change, so it’s just the circumstances of others who won’t affect your decision.] The system reached out again.

The white hand with clear joints feels powerful and overwhelming. As if everything will come true. I opened my mouth.

“refuse.”

[…] … .]

“I don’t deal with the unreliable.”

Vibration stopped.

White noise as if it were doing calculations.

worry.

result.

[In that case.]

[We should switch roles.]

The system speaks quietly.

“… !!”

I felt myself melting

‘X feet.’

The body that had the form gradually disappears, and the sense of touch slowly disappears.

In a bizarre situation where only sight and hearing remain, a sound hums.

[I’ll have to make you my server.]

[And… .]

In a world where everything is blurred, one outline becomes clearer.

In-young appears again.

“… … .”

real cool.

The guy, whose outline is much clearer than the system, stares straight ahead without being shaken by sudden situations.

The two figures with the same appearance face each other in the same posture as if looking in a mirror.

[Were you watching? I'll suggest it right away.]

[It would be more efficient for you to play directly instead of GMing. Ryu Gun-woo is uncooperative to play the role of a character.]

The system of the same tone and voice speaks.

[If you use the server well, the side effects won't progress further. Let's live the perfect idol life you want forever.]

[It's your most core desire.]

Cheong-ryeo lowered her head to the side.

And answered.

"no."

At that moment, he activates the authority of the GM.

A window will open for me.

'… Plan B'

– There must be an alternative.

Yes.

Another error-producing method I envisioned in case things go wrong.

-What if I get back all the memories the system distorted?

– At the very beginning… From the memory of being cut while entering Park Moon-dae's body.

Awakening returns forgotten memories of previous lives.

[Awakened comrades remember the entire timeline and grow.]

And there are two types.

Awakening the first mate.

It’s the method I’ve been using so far, returning memories to other guys.

‘And the second.’

awakening myself.

[Would you like to awaken?]

I poured all my reputation points into it.

Chapter 413

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 413

There was a phenomenon that happens every time a colleague wakes up.

it's the pain

Holding your head, staggering, dizziness, or experiencing a sharp pain in your temples, it is to retrieve memories pouring out.

A similar thing happened to me too.

The only problem is that it overlaps more than 20 times.

'Damn it.'

I felt a burning headache as I recalled the last time I saw an almost empty reputation item.

Seeing pain even after the body melted, I thought that the bizarre world where only the skeleton was left was just a show.

And the memories are all at once like a broken dam… poured out

-… … !

Parents Accident Fire Advancement Camera Puppy Studio Grades Heating Relatives School Trip Debut Data Workbook… … .

Over and over again, the past beats in my head like an echo.

'X feet.'

My stomach groaned as if I was about to vomit.

But it is not that there was no harvest.

‘ah.’

also.

I smiled bitterly as I checked on my father, an office worker, and my mother, an academy instructor.

… It was nice to be clear.

And the next thing that pops into my head is the memory of Gold 2.

Kwon Hee-seung.

-ah… really my life!

He was a positive guy who worked hard.

Of course, it didn’t stop there. The shock of awakening is overlapping and overlapping… go even further

‘Wook.’

His intestines seemed to be twisting, but his mind was clear, as if he were in a state of literal awakening.

And around the time Park Moon-dae dizzyly recalled the picture of waking up in an old motel where he collapsed after taking sleeping pills.

click.

Finally, the overflowing flow of memories rewinds to the time before the film was cut.

The life I forgot right before I entered Park Moon-dae’s body.

When I met Park Moon-dae sitting in front of a certain motel on my way back from the reading room.

-thank you… . brother.

Still, there hasn't been much change so far. The scene I saw in the last 'Truth Verification' was just a rumination that became my memory.

The problem is that a few years have completely evaporated from me.

It is the time after the civil service exam.

-i look forward to.

I lost my exam preparation and got a job, and I was grounded without much vision at a suitable mid-sized company.

I think I did a good job, but that's all. There were so many dirty things to do, and every day I dealt with inefficient work until night.

A life that does not allow any way to relieve, afford, or financial situation.

Then I developed a quick and simple habit to distract from headaches.

A field I know well because it can be visited in a short amount of time, costs no extra money, and is closely related to my previous money-making business.

'Idol.'

Before going to bed, I just watched whatever video site caught me and passed by. It was useful because I didn't have to use a handful of energy.

I wasn't inspired by the content itself. It is no longer a data arm, so there is nothing to analyze.

It wasn't bad to just feel like doing something else.

Then I saw this group too.

〈Re-listing! A group that originally debuted in Idol Inc.

Steer, not Testa.

[STier – ‘Launch’ Official MV]

I only made a comeback after a hiatus around the time I got a job because of the disorganized member’s drug trial and rumors of discord with my individual fandom.

Still, there was no reverse.

This group had already stopped growing.

[STier’s Yujin Cha, Raebin Kim, Chungwoo Ryu started unit activities]

Eventually, more than half of the members stopped their activities.

So the remaining three were doing unit activities, but the atmosphere was not very good. The album sold quite well and the songs were good, but that’s it.

Due to the endless controversy, the image has been burned and the public favorability has been gnawed away.

There is no more topicality and growth than that.

It is just a huge cruise ship that is slowly sinking while holding the weight class raised through < Azusa >.

– The song is fine.

-You’re still doing well, fighting.

The reaction ended with a few moderate comments.

Compared to the time of debut, the bubble has already burst.

but.

I unconsciously reduced the wide viewing range that I had passed without purpose to these guys.

instead… A little deeper.

It wasn't that I was interested in individuals or had a special fan feeling. I just casually looked up about the group.

Maybe it was because it looked similar to my situation.

The problem of the total situation.

Now, no matter what you do, there is no pointless answer or number that cannot rebound.

A life that just runs to maintain the status quo.

'The environment itself is not good.'

Investment is reduced and the planning ability and care of a new agency that has been rushed is poor.

Nevertheless, it was strange that he continued to come out and perform on stage with a clenched fist.

And suddenly it felt like a waste.

'I?'

Soon my nose grew to three and I forgot about it. Even so, it was the first time I checked an idol group so intensively for quite a long time.

Of course it didn't continue.

After a while.

[End of STEER activities… "I want to express my gratitude and love"]

Of course, STEER disbanded like a knife when the 5-year contract period ended.

There was no other news from the few guys who worked particularly hard, probably because they didn't look very good from the beginning through the process to the end.

That was the conclusion.

"… … ."

After that, my short hobby of watching idols came to an end.

'There's nothing to see.'

It's because at that time I didn't feel the same excitement when I saw other idols anyway.

It was funny. Even that sense of relief disappeared thanks to a group that was not even a fan who hadn't even gone to take a picture at all.

And that life ended as planned by me, who felt tired and bothered by everything to the extent of questioning it.

The brief reprieve disappeared from memory just like that.

Because I entered Moondae Park's body in the state of the past when I was confused about who was debuting.

'But maybe there are traces left.'

I suddenly remembered

The thoughts I had as soon as I woke up in Moondae Park's body.

-At one point, I even unnecessarily immersed myself in this field.

‘… Was it?’

Was it a remnant of this time that I felt that way even though I had no specific memories?

I looked up.

The reason this memory was not shown in the truth check was probably because the system arbitrarily omitted it.

It probably wasn’t even a big deal. I would have thought it had nothing to do with my trauma.

I cut it because I thought it was ‘not necessary for the host’s continued survival’.

Maybe the big moon couldn’t have predicted this.

‘therefore.’

It seems that the system still doesn’t know that there are memories that affect the human psyche even if it’s not trauma.

‘Those things are usually called memories.’

I burst into laughter at the unfamiliar sentence.

The pain in his head also subsided. It was proof that the memory had fully settled.

My head is clear.

Originally, there was an expectation that if the system wiped out all the bullshit that had been placed on my mind, I would get out of control at all, but it wasn’t to that extent.

‘I couldn’t come to my senses right away and avoided serverization.’

That’s it. Preparations for plan B are over.

‘The big moon.’

gave a signal

The chat started as if they had been waiting.

[Apple was invited to ‘Error”s gold chat room.]

[Error: Mundae, are you okay?]

An error that is not affected by the system. Ah-Hyun Sun responds immediately.

I entered the chat.

[Apple: Yes. I’ll do it now.]

Recalling the meeting we had in the chat room in case of any leak.

-Apple: As everyone knows, unnecessary reactions are prohibited.

And this idea started with the opinion given by Sun Ah-hyun.

-Error: I… Are you saying that because I’m an error, I’m contagious like a virus to anyone who enters this chat room?

-Error: So, wouldn’t it be possible to use this to restore everyone to their original state?

-RAB: It’s a really altruistic and wonderful idea, but I’m worried that it might be difficult to contact everyone due to the constraints of time and space.

-Sejini: I don’t think it would be difficult because even invitation costs gold

.

-Tiger: Can’t it spread to the whole world, not just one person? like a virus!

This guy's random expression hit the mark.

'Originally, I was going to get out of the system for a while and hand it over to the GM myself and insert it into the game.'

I don't think I need to go there. Isn't the guy who is the whole world here just right there.

system.

[Character: Gun-Woo Ryu (Mun-Dae Park) leaves!]

Just like Ah-Hyeon Sun did in the time line where the GM stopped, I was able to move my body with the effect connected to the chat room.

"… !"

Then, he fixed his eyes on the exterior of the two figures and the two cheongryeo in confrontation.

'Toward the colorless.'

Last action.

Invite him to a chat window full of errors.

'Can you specify?'

Soon, the big moon in the chat room crackles and responds.

[Keundal: Yes!]

Okay.

Soon, text will appear in the chat window.

['Error"s gold chat room has invited ■■■]

'Yes!'

I clenched my fist. If it stays like this… .

‘ah.’

At that moment, the system turned its eyes towards me.

A new post appeared in the chat room.

[■■■: You prepared something like this]

“… !”

Chijik.

The chat room is cracked.

The spear trembled as if it was enduring a huge pressure… .

puck!

just got smashed

Translucent holographic powder scatters and then disappears with a glitch.

The voice of the system rings out.

[You spent another reputation point for this.]

[Thank you right before becoming a server.]

In this situation, that statement… no way.

I opened my trembling mouth.

“Reputation experience is… Is it the energy you gather?”

The system smiles kindly and nods.

[That’s right.]

[You pay me energy by using your reputation points and become stronger in the game.]

The voice of the system gets louder.

[And this world becomes stronger. Attacks from the outside don't work.]

The chat room disappeared.

In a world where errors are resolved, the system smiles and stares at me instead of Cheongryeol.

[You were a character, not a player. There is no autonomy to escape the game.]

"… … ."

The identity of the player displayed as '■■■' in the GM status window of Cheongryeol.

[The player is me.]

[I am the creator and the player, and you are the composition of my game.]

[There is no game where the character can directly harm the player.]

The system nodded after explaining.

[And now that the system has been proven to be stable, there's no need for auxiliary tools.]

[Let's go as planned.]

At that time, for the first time, a human look is revealed in his eyes.

What the system that assimilated with Cheongryeo and learned his most core desire at the time had… .

Obsession with development and perfection.

[Now.]

He casually takes my status window.

and tear something Even though it’s a soft touch, it’s powerful enough to look rugged.

no, not exactly… it ripped itself out.

The whole pop-up that the big moon floats.

[for a moment… .]

And swallowed it with a grip.

“… … !”

Big Moon’s pop-up disappears near his finger, crumpled.

[Retrieved.]

The system laughs softly.

And I… .

laughed along

“hey.”

I gasped for the breath I had been holding back.

The reason why he pushed and pushed the situation to this point by stimulating his sense of superiority and victory.

“He is also an error.”

It’s to make sure you don’t pay close attention.

Keundal accesses the chat window so that he does not notice that he has been infected with an error.

Let’s think about it.

‘This bastard was originally parasitized by one person.’

And Keundal guaranteed that those who have already used it once will not be able to use it again.

But this time around, there was no one in the right place to cling to, so they had no choice but to recycle it.

So I captured 3 people at the same time and turned them into brains in a vat, creating something like a whole new virtual world.

Server manager character.

So it seems to have been operating stably, but thanks to that, the days when he could solve everything by himself are over.

Because it is structured, it can collapse even if one foundation stone is missing. like now.

“You’re making a mistake yourself now.”

[…] … !]

The appearance of the system shakes.

The anomaly, which started as a small glitch, gradually grows in size, engulfs the human form and spreads to the surroundings.

The world is collapsing from within.

thud!

“hmm.”

The real Cheongryeo, who had been standing still, turned her head and opened a status window.

“Interesting.”

[Player: Park Moon-dae (Ryu Gun-woo)]

Among them, the appearance of the system changes.

[…] Hyung.]

It’s a familiar figure.

At some point, he returned to Moondae Park’s body and talked with him in his mind.

Noise popped out of the mysterious hologram where Ryu Gun-woo and Park Moon-dae were mixed.

rules.

The large moon raised both hands and shouted.

[my… I think I can really move this thing??]

Chapter 414

If you can't debut, you'll die if you don't debut Episode 414 Keundal who was swallowed up by the system took the initiative by suppressing the ego of the system.

[Wow!]

I grinned, wiping the cold sweat on my chin.

"good job."

[yes! This works!?]

'I thought it would be a success even if I just paralyzed the system with an error.'

In fact, the moment you fail, it's over, so this is no different from gambling. However, he had expressed his opinion that he would do it himself.

-[Brother that… Plan B.]

-[If the time comes to write that down… Why don't I transfer the error myself?]

And I also admitted to some extent.

Anyway, if this guy returns to reality with the system remaining, all that remains is the absorption ending.

'It just becomes a status window.'

In the first place, the crazy idea of blowing up the system on the plane also played a part in predicting the future that this guy would lose his body and become a status window. I won't deny it.

Back in reality, he needed something else to live as Ryu Gun-woo.

For example, completely disconnected from the system.

'Or else.'

– Did the system self-destruct?

Remove it this time.

I swallowed and asked quietly.

"How are you?"

[Uh… .]

The guy who looked at his body in bewilderment and made the surroundings wriggle as if the surroundings were distorted raised his head as if to confirm.

And those holographic eyes suddenly glowed darkly.

[I think I can do anything.]

"… !"

As his body thickens, the ambiguous world suddenly becomes clear.

[If it's in here… Nothing is unknown, nothing is impossible, and if you can compose properly, all your wishes will flow naturally… .]

muttered. The background swirls around him as if sucked in.

A star rises.

[…] … Hyung, hey, hyung can do whatever he wants.] I can’t do this.

“If you’re here, you know it’s Testa’s dissolution, right? Even if the roads from ‘Magical Boy’ to ‘Savior’ are left the same, it won’t be as impressive as when you first saw them.”

[…] ! Of course I know! no what the… … .]

The hologram sparks and the expression returns to Daedal’s face.

‘I never thought I’d spit out a sound like the first impression I’ve ever seen with my mouth.’

It’s funny that I had to come to my senses with something like this, but it worked, so it’s okay.

If I can’t stick with that guy, I’ll die. Seeing Testa’s comeback was my only pleasure in public life.

‘… I just remembered doing something similar.’

I almost inadvertently recalled my office worker days watching Steer, so the situation was more urgent than that.

[Ah, this is strange! I feel like I just can’t control myself. Wow, such power… .]

Anyway, it could be stained, so I had to finish it quickly. Maybe the system will recover from errors and come up.

“Okay, let’s do it quickly. Do you remember what I said?”

[Yes!]

The final plan is simple.

‘Self-destruct sequence.’

Blow up the system like this.

Of course, if you leave it in that state, the big moon may be affected, so we will put some procedures in between.

[I sent it, hyung!]

T-ring.

A status window pops up in front of me.

[Player: Park Moon-dae (Ryu Gun-woo)]

[Are you sure you want to delete the game?]

[OK]

The self-destruct launch button that you just press OK without making any other options on purpose.

‘after.’

To be honest, it’s cool.

And there is one more status window that pops up at the same time. I turned my gaze to what floated in front of me.

[GM: Shin Jae-hyeon]

[Are you sure you want to disconnect from the server?]

[Confirm]

“It’s you.”

“hmm.”

Cheong-rye glances at the hologram big moon and says.

“Do you need to prepare your mind?”

“no.”

You’ve already done enough, so just press it.

As soon as he hears my answer, he puts his hand on the confirmation button without hesitation.

Took.

Then the light flickers on the world and cracks.

rattle.

‘Looks like it’s about to collapse.’

A crack appears in the background without a sound, and the moment when it seems that the view is shaking and collapsing dangerously as if it will collapse at any moment.

[Are you sure you want to designate a new Server?]

“Don’t touch that.”

“I am overly suspicious.”

Anyway, the guy quietly put his hands down.

‘All that’s left is… .’

one.

I raised my hand above my status window floating on a mirror-like background just before I was about to be destroyed.

It was then.

[Pause.]

“… ?”

A pop-up appeared.

‘A big moon?’

But he’s over there… … .

[Hyung??]

Oh, that’s right.

this is a system

It seems that the situation of the two selves has changed as the big moon took over the system and bounced off.

In the form of the system ego parasitic on the status window.

‘uh. bye.’

I ignore it and try to press the button, but it persistently pops up on top of the button.

[The system saved you from dying. You know that. You originally gave up the rest of your life on your own.]

[Everything you have now comes from the opportunity the system gave you. Think of the opportunities you’ve had and the achievements you’ve achieved thanks to your not dying.]

Look at this bastard.

In the face of the elimination crisis, he appealed for empathy very plausibly as if his mouth was exploding, and he said,

“Hey.”

I said with a smile.

“The one who gave me a chance was originally a good person, and you’re talking about how you only used X-balls.”

If you don’t do it, you’ll end up saying that the guy who sucked energy sweetly for several years is talking as if he did some charity work.

It’s a status ailment and killing it once.

[Tongue hyung?] I didn’t tell you so stay still.

I sent a gesture to the big moon. The popup is updated.

[Irrational idea. Foolish.]

Do you introduce yourself?

‘Did this bastard change his strategy?’

I’m wondering if he’s trying to kill time by making me pissed off. If so.

I opened my mouth as if to respond to the pop-up.

and shouted

“Big moon. now!”

[Yes!]

At that moment, the hologram of the big moon overflowed with more glitches, and soon the shape collapsed and disappeared.

[Wow!]

Giving up control of the system created by error, escaping, and returning to my status window. [

What

now?

“bye.”

I broke through the popup and hit the button.

puck!

Delete game.

The pop-up shakes.

[I’m Gyeol■ Sa■ Ji ■■ …]

But that’s all.

pop!

A humanoid in a system full of glitches explodes.

And the cracked world also exploded.

A transcendent sight where tens of thousands of pieces break into the air and soar.

Even an enormous after-storm that blows a step late.

“Whoops.”

The system that makes up this world has been shattered. A tremendous torrent of energy overflowed in all directions as if to shatter everything.

Pieces shattered. All that remains is emptiness.

I looked back at Cheongnyeol. His status window crackled and fried.

Same with mine.

“success.”

When I said that, all my senses disappeared.

and.

“… basin?”

Slowly and bluntly, I heard a sound as if my hearing was paralyzed by an intense impact.

“Mundae!”

“… !”

I opened my eyes.

And the first thing I saw… … .

“I broke the gate!”

“brother!”

“Go, you’ve had a lot of trouble, Moondae-ya… !”

They’re the guys around.

The members who were talking hard about plan B and materializing it were looking into my face as if they were watching something.

me really

“uh. Calm down.”

“Yeah!!”

“You really thought it would be a big deal because the chat window burst in the middle!”

“Still, I am very fortunate. really… .”

If you stay like this, your ears will burst or your shoulders will fall, or one of the two will rise. I smiled and stood up shaking my head,

“Thank you for your concern.”

If it was real, it would have to be an awards ceremony if airplanes were still a system world… It was neither.

“Here… … .”

… Ryu Kun-woo’s officetel.

To be precise, it is the officetel where Keun-dal, who won the lottery with Ryu Kun-woo’s body, lives.

And outside the living room window… The place where the sunset of the fantastic ‘Magical Boy’ sets.

where I was last time.

[It’s an image world I created!]

It was the world of images that Ryu passed through when he went back to Park Moon-dae.

The appearance of the big moon protruding with a smile is also the same.

It’s the same with a bit of a glitch.

‘then.’

me too… It must be an ambiguous figure that looks like both Park Moon-dae and Ryu Gun-woo.

As expected, Sejin made a fuss as usual.

“Hey, you two look like brothers, sure~”

It seems like it’s to keep calm in a crazy situation, but I like people who listen to it anyway.

[Hehe, thank you!]

I don’t know why.

In any case, the guy who was laughing and laughing soon changed his expression, probably realizing that this wasn’t the time.

[I brought you all here for the purpose of minimizing the shock. Did I bring some system power… Anyway, it worked!]

“Shock?”

[yes. Well, you can choose when you leave.]

The large moon stepped aside.

Then I saw the entrance of the officetel.

-See you later!

The nameplate flashes. It seems that if I go out there, I will return to reality.

[Will you remember what happened here, or will you just forget it or vaguely remember it like a dream?]

“… !”

that… Great service, though.

‘Is there anyone who bothers to forget?’

I thought about it for a while, but I realized once again that this was an overwhelmingly strange situation because I had been living with a status ailment for several years.

If I said something wrong, wouldn’t it be misunderstood that I was taking medicine?

‘It would be easier to forget.’

I will correct it. If it were me, I’d suggest that we all just forget about it… … .

“Of course I want to remember.”

“… … .”

“you’re right. This unique fantasy experience is sure to be a new inspiration.”

“It’s okay not to watch the Limestone movie now. I did it myself.”

Do you just spit it out without worrying?

I was a bit taken aback, but no one hesitated.

“… There is something I really want to remember from what I did here!”

“Oh, that’s amazing. me too.”

Until the last Sun Ah-hyun.

“I think I was able to realize a lot of new things and grow… me too… !”

[All right! Then you can open the door and leave!]

Then, cheers poured out.

“Ah finally!”

“Park Moon-dae, you… When you return, immediately return to the plane and return to your accommodation!”

It’s not my plane, and I honestly don’t know what it would have been like outside… I get it anyway

Ryu Cheng-wu smiles and pats the members on the shoulders.

“Good job. our group.”

“Hi-Hi!”

“Don’t skip Mundaemundae and come here~”

We hugged for a while as if we had won a grand prize or finished the last stage of the tour.

These kids are suffocating.

‘Not even a penguin.’

It must have been funny, but I wonder what it is.

“Let’s go then!”

“Nenep!”

It was the moment when everything seemed ready. However, Kim Rae-bin raised his hand.

“Wait a minute, shouldn’t I be inviting the seniors first?”

“omg.”

His gaze turned back as if he had almost forgotten.

‘Come to think of it, where are the VTIC guys?’

It was strange that I didn’t see it.

So, when I turn my head, I see them from somewhere other than the living room.

VTIC bastards… He was sitting at the kitchen table and looking this way with a smile on his face.

‘what.’

“The testers always get along so it’s really nice to see them, right?”

“that’s right. It’s hard to do that with multiple people.”

Even the way they spoke in real life had changed slightly, as if their real selves had become much stronger than when they debuted as Wishes without any memories.

Still, the guy I’ve been seeing for a year hasn’t disappeared.

Chae-yul walks out of the kitchen and smiles shyly.

“Well, it might be difficult to call you Geonwoo hyung when you go back, but… Would it be okay if I let go? It’s not Mr. Moondae, it’s Moondae!”

“yes.”

“good! You can also speak comfortably. got it?”

That would be difficult because of the age difference.

Still, he smiled brightly, probably taking the silence as an affirmation, and naturally headed to the front door, receiving Testa’s goodbye.

And at the end, he said it out loud.

“Everyone come to play! We had a small number of people so we got bored sometimes. I don’t think I’ll ever forget it during Wishz.”

“It feels like we’ve done a bit of a project group.”

“Wow that’s it. Exactly!”

And the two of them asked Keundal if he could come in here, waved his hand, and naturally disappeared through the front door one by one.

“… … .”

If we go back, we won’t be in the same group, so naturally, we won’t see each other often… Well, since I knew they were useful, it would be okay to contact them.

I leaned against the wall waiting for the rest of the VTIC guys to enter… .

“… … ?”

But why didn’t he come in?

I saw the silk altar standing in front of the porch.

He turned his head and saw Testa and Big Moon, who ran to stop Cha Yu-jin from opening the living room window.

“Eugene, let me ask you a question… .”

“you stupid!”

Perhaps it was because he had already greeted VTIC, but his concentration was completely dispersed.

Judan, who saw this, muttered in a serious tone.

“This timing is just around the corner. I have something to tell you two.”

“hmm?”

The guy said without expression.

“It is true that you both went back to the past. The order seems to be Jaehyun-hyung, followed by juniors.”

“… !!”

What is that baby?

“Why do you think so?”

However, the cast iron shrugged his shoulders as if he was absurd.

“Since you speak so openly from the chat window to daily conversation, anyone with background knowledge can easily guess.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

No, only you knew it yourself.

“Looking at Moondae’s reflexive reaction, it’s true. If so, structurally… Hmm, to avoid being on the same axis as the antagonist by a single difference… … . oh my god.”

The guy who was talking about something to himself listened to say something more with a light sigh.

“that… … .”

But soon, her eyes met with Chung-ryeo, who was staring at her without expression.

And immediately crack.

“I will shut up and enlist.”

“okay.”

“Enough then.”

As if the main stage is running away, he crosses the front door without hesitation. I asked Cheong-ryeo, who was watching it with her arms crossed and leaning against the wall.

I chinned.

“Then you… Go see the dog.”

“It should be.”

He seemed to answer casually, but soon he touched his chin and added a small word.

“… After 10 months?”

And a faint smile seemed to pass by, and he immediately left the front door.

“See you soon.”

leave these words

“… … .”

“Is everyone gone?”

“yes.”

When I turn my head, I see Ryu Cheong-wu and the guys who have taken Cha Yu-jin away.

Liu Chengwu smiled and stood beside him.

“You were supposed to let go.”

“ah.”

It did.

“okay.”

I immediately corrected myself.

Liu Cheng-yu looked surprised for a moment, but then smiled.

“Yes, Moondae. Let us go now.”

The front door opens again.

“As soon as you return, don’t forget to contact us in any situation and return to your accommodation!”

“I will keep that in mind!”

and move your feet

Nothing could be seen outside the door, only light pouring in and stinging my eyes.

But no one hesitated and spurred the door.

and after a while

Whiiying-

“… … !”

I woke up to the sound of engines ringing in my ears.

Cheongryeo’s private plane.

‘ah.’

I turned my eyes. leather seats. ivory walls. glossy kit.

Everything remains the same as before leaving.

And even Gold 2 Hee-seung Kwon, who was asleep in his seat.

I am breathing.

I immediately opened my smartphone and checked the date.

“… … .”

[Saturday, July 9th]

It was the same.

Nothing has changed.

“after.”

I sighed and leaned back in my seat.

Then the guy who had already opened his eyes and was sitting in his seat handed him a glass.

Non-alcoholic Champagne.

“It arrived well.”

“… … okay.”

I snatched the cup that Cheongryeo held out.

So I came back to reality.

Chapter 415

Episode 415 Kwon

Hee-seung had a rather terrifying dream.

It was a strange configuration that made him work like an AI housekeeper by making himself into a virtual reality like an alien.

In addition, even the bizarre development of all kinds of senior idols!

In the end, he woke up screaming at the place where the world was collapsing spectacularly at the end.

“Whoa!!”

But I didn’t expect it to be this loud.

Kwon Hee-seung opened his eyes in a cold sweat until the plane seat was drenched.

“Heh heh heh… … .”

“Are you okay?”

A hand holding an ionic beverage appeared in front of me. Kwon Hee-seung didn’t even have time to think about it before he grabbed it and brought it to his mouth.

gulp gulp.

As the cool, soft, sweet drink went down my throat, the thrill soared to the top of my head.

It felt like being hydrated for the first time in a few hundred days.

‘and.’

He shook his head and barely came to his senses after emptying the liter of his drink.

It was Testa’s Moondae Park who was sitting across from him who handed over the ionic beverage. Kwon Hee-seung stuck out his tongue.

“Wow really… Oh, maybe it’s because I had that strange dream, I feel like drinking for the first time in a long time?”

“… … okay?”

“yes! It must have been suppressed by the scissors. We have something to do from now on… … .”

for a moment. Come to think of it, why am I on this plane?

And the moment our eyes met the VTIC leader, the owner of the chartered plane, he remembered everything right before falling asleep as if he were seeing a kaleidoscope.

Status window burst.

Moondae hyung who was vomiting blood.

and… … .

“… … over there.”

Kwon Hee-seung asked, sweating profusely.

“if… Wasn’t it a dream?”

“… … .”

Park Mun-dae rarely avoided his gaze and made a subtle expression, but soon replied with a blank expression.

“I think it’s better to think of it as a dream.”

“That means it’s real… !?”

Kwon Hee-seung held his face and screamed, but Park Mun-dae just kept his mouth shut.

It was because I understood the situation roughly.

‘I chose not to remember the specifics myself.’

It was the choice the big moon gave.

-Will you remember what happened here, or will you just forget it or remember it vaguely like a dream?

Hee-seung Kwon must have chosen to treat it as a dream there. Park Moon-dae made a clear guess and frowned inwardly.

‘… It must have been quite difficult.’

If so, you will need compensation. Gold 2… So, he was the one who called Kwon Hee-seung to the plane.

So, the moment he opened his mouth, Kwon Hee-seung, who had finished his thoughts, screamed in fright.

“… ! Wait, if that’s all real… Is this the situation where we just escaped by plane after Korea was destroyed?!”

“… There is no such thing, and this is the LA airport that was our destination.”

“phew.”

It must have been a dream come true!

Kwon Hee-seung let out a long sigh of relief. And Park Mun-dae held back a sigh in a different way and continued.

“Anyway, since you’ve had a hard time getting caught up in this… Get some reward.”

“yes?”

“… !”

“One wish.”

Park Moon-dae continued without agitation.

“I will listen to whatever your request is, to the best of my ability. How about it?”

oh oh

Kwon Hee-seung reflexively rewinded Park Mun-dae’s activities so far and thought about it.

〈Azusa〉 From chicken feet to label makers that eat up the company.

and concluded

“I will write well.”

“okay.”

Oh yea.

The words ‘Genie listens to it three times, can’t you change it to three times?’ came to my throat, but I held it in.

He was a person who knew how to put on when to put on and get off when to take off.

Kwon Hee-seung, who won an all-round wish ticket, finally relaxed while looking outside and checking out LA Airport.

‘Wow’

The day was clear. The sunset sky was foreign, but familiar and beautiful enough to bring tears to my eyes.

“… … .”

“Good job.”

“Ah, what are you dreaming about?”

Park Mun-dae didn’t reply, but he smiled a bit bitter and looked at the sunset sky like himself.

It was quiet.

Kwon Hee-seung, soaked in the quiet rest, casually asked.

“Those brothers. Then the system… ?”

“I got rid of it.”

“okay.”

It was kind of cool. Even though it was a dream, it seems that he went through hardships.

‘Oh, that’s sweet.’

He ate the chocolate cheese and salt biscuits from the cart and sat back down.

“Huh? When did you eat this?”

“When you sleep.”

“Wow, is this expensive?”

“I don’t know.”

Kwon Hee-seung opened a new bottle of champagne and enjoyed his leisure time.

The owner of the chartered plane, who was reading a book, did not bother to comment or look at himself.

‘Then what can I eat?’

Around the time I was optimistic, the sound began to return to the chartered plane.

The sound of doors opening and people moving.

“I am ready.”

Cheongryeo was the first to open her mouth. When Kwon Hee-seung turned his head, he saw the workers returning to their seats.

‘uh?’

Kwon Hee-seung cautiously opened his mouth.

“Brothers, can we get off now?”

“no.”

“… ?”

“We refueled at the airport, too.”

Park Moon-dae laughed.

“I have to go back now.”

“… !!”

No, come all the way to LA and just go back like this? You can go back after playing for a while!

Kwon Hee-seung immediately thought of a thousand things to refute, but he kept his mouth shut without even realizing it.

Somehow… Because he realized that he couldn't stand it and wanted to go back.

home on a daily basis.

"depart."

The three idols fastened their seat belts. The plane began to return to the departure point.

* * *

It was already dawn when we arrived at Incheon International Airport.

It took quite a while to go back to Seoul, but I wasn't too nervous. Since before that, the smartphone was constantly ringing.

-Kim Rae-bin: As soon as I arrived, I heard that I was going back to the dorm abruptly. Grandma was very worried, so it took quite a while to talk. sorry!

-Seon Ah-hyun: No, be careful, Lavin. I also told my parents and left, and now

I'm back at the dorm -Cha Yu-jin: I've had a dorm since the beginning

. All kinds of episodes seem to happen.

'I think it would have been fine if I just stayed home for a few nights.'

In fact, I even brought up the story once, but… … .

-For those who have already gone home, wouldn't it be okay to take a break?

An immediate answer came alone at a bloody speed.

And after a moment of silence in the group chat room.

-Seon Ah-hyun: I didn't mean that the members would stay at home longer and stop coming back. I meant that I would go back to the dorm right away since my house is close and I tend to go there often. Absolutely no compulsion!

It's still a long message.

-Ryu Chung-woo: I know, Ah-hyeon-ah, come comfortably (broad smile emoticon)

-Kim Rae-bin: I completely understand! But I'm fine too. Is there an opportunity to make a return visit within the fortnight?

Anyway, so the news of the members arriving at the dorm was constantly coming through KakaoTalk.

-Keun Se-jin: Do you know what members I love? Haha I've been going to the market alone… Because on a day like this, we have to toast (bear holding a glass of wine emoji) -Cheung-Woo Ryu: Haha, that's cool Oh, the other Sejins have arrived now too -Bae Se jin : (Hamster waving hand emoticon)

And finally, everyone arrived.

-Cha Yoo-jin: I want to eat chicken. Why isn't

Dae

-hyung Moon

?

I went to LA from the Pacific Ocean, but these guys really don't care.

I got into a taxi and looked at the time. 30 minutes left.

When I flipped the screen of my smartphone, I saw a regular KakaoTalk message, not a group message room.

This is the message history that Gold 2 immediately checked while sleeping.

-Keundal: Hyung, I arrived safely! bro are you okay?

It is said that Keun-dal came to his senses safely with Ryu Gun-woo's body.

There is no sick place, healthy and no uncomfortable corner.

'Is it a success?'

But there are some peculiarities left.

[Hyung, the message in the status window is still working… ? Huh?]

I don't really feel like I'm being swallowed up by the system, but this add-on seems to continue to work. I still see the status window.

'Is it because of the permanent status window compensation?'

I guessed that it was because of the reward I received after clearing the status ailment. That system seems strangely bound by contracts and promises.

'Will is also mental energy.'

Anyway, it's good that he's already gone.

I lightly put down my smartphone.

and after a while

“It has arrived. The front door of the apartment!”

“thank you.”

I quickly paid the taxi fare and got off.

Past the almost unfamiliar flower bed, past the created playground, past the 1st floor entrance, and past the elevator.

I saw a familiar front door.

Tti Tidi Di Ttt.

Press the button and open the door.

Click.

“omg!”

“Wow, Park Moon-dae is here!”

“Isn’t there a chicken restaurant open at 4 in the morning?”

The cool air of the air conditioner blows.

Beyond the familiar design of the entrance, you can hear familiar people talking and footsteps running.

‘What are you doing when you’re not sleeping?’

I smiled and entered the hallway. Conscious that it was dawn, praises and hands were pouring in moderately breathless.

Members who haven’t changed It was that dorm where nothing has changed.

Surprisingly, however, it wasn’t just people in the dorm.

“Moondae, look at this!”

“king!”

There is something like a lump of white fur in the dorm. It was a bunch of hair, you know.

Bae Se-jin did not return to the dorm alone.

“I also brought Munge. I thought it would be nice to go together when we go on a trip. It’s been a while… Nice to meet you too.”

“… … .”

Beyond Cha Yoo-jin, who was desperately looking for a 24-hour chicken restaurant, Se-jin Bae held out a small dog in her hand to me.

I accepted the tail wagging guy.

It was soft and warm.

“Let’s get some sleep then… Wake up tomorrow, get ready right away, and let’s go play.”

“Agreed.”

“Eat chicken first.”

“I’m really curious about how our Yujin doesn’t gain weight.”

I touched the dog and quietly opened my mouth.

“Before that, there is something I want to do.”

“… !”

“What?”

“It doesn’t take long. I’ll be there while you’re sleeping.”

I made a phone call to the place that is open from this time.

“Mr. Moondae, what’s going on in a hurry~ Nice to meet you!”

“me too. i look forward to.”

I sat down on a chair. The hair stylist smiled and held my hair.

Yes.

I came to the shop at the first hour of the morning.

“Aren’t the members doing it?”

“yes.”

And I’m not the only one here.

While I was doing my hair, these guys dared to follow me and sat in the waiting room, making a fuss about choosing a destination.

“Here. Here we go!”

“Don’t make hasty decisions just by looking at the directing pictures, Cha Yoo-jin!”

‘Because I’m growing up.’

I’m not listening

It’s a shop where dogs are allowed, so I dragged them all out without anyone guarding the accommodation.

“Testa is always good~ Do you guys take selfies or something?”

“It’s not like that.”

I looked in the mirror in response to the director’s words.

Through the mirror, I could see Sejin holding Munge's front paw lightly and shaking it.

'I am.'

"Then let's do this color~?"

"yes."

The hair is covered with the drug.

and after a few hours.

"Is it the same as the picture? It turned out well."

"yes. thank you."

I sat in the shop chair and took the picture myself, feeling a bit awkward.

It's not that I can't take self-compositions now because I've had some free time for a few years, but it's been a while since I've taken a picture with this face, so I went through trial and error a few times.

"… … ."

And it's been a while since I logged on to Testa's official SNS… I pressed the upload button.

Hello Lover

I'm Mundae (dog emoji)

I got my hair color back. Actually, I kind of missed it.

(Photo)

In the attached photo, I have golden brown hair.

Just like the first color I did when I was in Azusa.

And, as if waiting, a notification rings.

-Heo Eo-eok Azusa Geummun

-daeng -I love you, I love you first

-Park Moon University attendance rate Is it true

Familiar reactions and profile pictures fill the screen. ‘It doesn’t feel like that time’ ‘What kind of plan is this.’ Even the usual verbal abuse.

It was Testa Park Moon-dae.

“… … ..”

“Huh? Did you post at Moondaemundae? In a dark world, our members are left alone in the waiting room… .”

“Put your face on.”

“oh?”

I took a group shot of the guys sitting in the waiting room of the shop and banging their laptops and smartphones furiously.

Came to see the yellow door (Emoji looking away)

———————— ————-

Since that morning, fans have received notifications from Testa’s official SNS account several times.

* * *

And a few hours ago dawn.

Silence flowed in a spacious and clean house in an apartment in Seoul.

The large puppy lying on the soft beige blanket in front of the large porch was half asleep.

Because it’s been a long time waiting.

But I didn’t forget the happy sound.

Tilik!

the sound of a door opening.

footsteps.

A sign of seeing loved ones.

“… !”

In an instant, the puppy raised its head, wagged its tail, and looked at the great gray door.

Soon the door will open… As always, a large family strides in on their own two feet.

“Bean.”

“Wow!”

The puppy jumped up and greeted its family furiously.

He has learned to wait dignifiedly whenever his family is away for a few days, but he still can't stand the moment the wait is over.

Kongi warmly and enthusiastically welcomed his family by stamping his hind legs and sticking out his front paws and snout.

"ah… … ."

So Kongi's family, Shin Jae-hyeon, hugged the yellow dog and lifted it up.

And without moving, I quietly listen to the unfamiliar sound.

Every moment I moved on to the next beginning, I always abandoned and cut off what disappeared before I knew it.

"Kong, I'm back."

It was the first word of return he had ever spoken after becoming a young woman.

He held the dog on the porch and quietly enjoyed the strange aftertaste.

for a while, not for a long time.

and after some time

"Turn it off."

"There is only one."

The smartphone rang in the back pocket of Cheong-ryeo, who gave her dog a snack in the morning before exercise, which she had never given before.

'hmm?'

Unless he was insane, no one contacted him at dawn for non-emergency purposes.

So let’s check the smartphone right away… .

You see something unexpected.

-Park Moon-dae: (Photo)

What he sent without saying was a picture of a white dog. As if he were copying someone.

“haha!”

Cheong-rye tolerated the dog on her lap and laughed quite long.

Chapter 416

Episode 416

The glamping site next to a certain hot spring located in Gapyeong was gradually getting quieter as the weekend came to an end.

Before lunchtime, people who stayed for 2 nights and 3 days from Friday left all the time, and there were not many newcomers. It's early summer, so it's hot, and it's an ambiguous time, not a full-fledged holiday season. Besides, it's already evening.

"I hope you have a good time~"

The part-timer, who was watching the counter from the outskirts, was leisurely dealing with the occasional customers.

until the next guest arrives.

'uh?'

belt ring.

You open the door and suddenly someone rushes in.

The seven tall men wearing hoodies and colorful masks were awkward to see at a summer campsite.

It's even more so when an avant-garde character wearing a baseball cap or sunglasses appears.

'… SNS aggro?'

The climax of the fire is a small white puppy held by the person behind him who has a good physique.

‘Physical student MT?’

That’s why most of them were skinny. Besides, isn’t this a place where there are far more family-unit guests than college students?

‘Hmm?’

Just as my curiosity was about to rise, a man with a good physique in a gray hoodie wearing a mask came to the counter and asked me politely.

“Hello~ We made a reservation.”

“Please tell me your name!”

The employee thought while quickly checking the program. He had a good voice, was tall, and had good looking eyes.

‘… Yeonyoung Department?’

But I didn’t do anything useless to ask such a thing. The part-timer completed the check-in procedure appropriately and quickly, as befits a creed that works as much as he gets paid.

“Are you getting a Royal Caravan or a Sunset Ondol?”

“Nenep!

At that time, a black hood wearing sunglasses tips his party from behind.

“Make sure dogs are checked.”

“Oh right.”

“Your dog is an option.”

The part-timer, who quickly and sensibly answered the question before it came back to him, felt a strange sense of incongruity at the same time.

Despite his funny appearance, he has a surprisingly good voice… all?

Where do you think you heard that voice?

“here… .”

“Ah thank you~ Can we go over there?”

“yes! You can check it right away if you look to the left from here.”

“Okay~ Thank you for being so kind in explaining it.”

I don’t think I’ve ever heard of this cheerful tone of voice… .

However, the two have already turned around and are on their way back to their party.

‘Mmm.’

A small voice is heard from the party in the ears of the part-timer who licks his lips.

“Mung… Can you take the puppy?”

“yes… !”

A white coat wearing a baseball cap picked up a white puppy and carefully put it on his shoulder… .

“… !”

The part-timer woke up like a thunderbolt.

That’s the dog I saw on variety shows! The composition is the same.

And that entertainment!

‘The grandson of that house!’

And the cast from there… .

‘oh my god.’

The staff covered their mouths.

It’s a testa!

Considering the 7 members and their physiques, they matched exactly to the point where I wondered why I didn’t know.

‘No fashion item… .’

No matter how much it is, I would think of hiding my face at the same time, but that is a funny outfit that stands out as if I was aiming for that psychology… .

‘Wait a minute, that’s Cha Yujin!’

When I heard that there was one more eccentric person wearing sunglasses, it was just Cha Yoo-jin who broke his neck.

I’ve also seen a video of just that on Witube Shorts.

‘Huh… .’

As a group with high individual recognition, the scan was over in an instant.

Sejin Bae stands guard over the carrier. It is Kim Rae-bin who is perusing the pamphlet. And the man with the familiar voice, wearing sunglasses, was holding Park Mun-dae’s puppy, Seon Ah-hyun, the man who was handed Ryu Chung-woo… .

The one who talked to himself was Lee Se-jin!

The Albanian clenched his fists.

‘Somehow, he seemed handsome!’

It was just a nice atmosphere!!

And finally, a productive thought occurred to me.

‘Four signatures’

, but the mindset of a member of society that calling it here is a no-brainer caught the part-timer. Besides, there were more opportunities.

‘I’m not going to check out.’

Never miss it… .

‘Oh really!’

I wanted to tell anyone! Even my sister!

‘Wow, I’d be really surprised to hear… .’

So when the employee turned on his Kakao Talk with his excited hand.

“excuse me.”

“… … ?!”

When I look up, I see eyes smiling shyly above the mask.

‘Ryu Chung-woo! Ryu Cheng-wu!’

Part-timer’s brain screams, but Ryu Cheng-wu speaks softly.

“Because we really came here to rest. Is it possible to keep it secret even for a few days here?”

“yes? of course… yes yes.”

It’s possible. carrot!

“thank you. Oh, even this.”

Queue.

Accepting an expensive set of bath salts offered as a bribe in the name of a gift with trembling hands, the part-timer looked at Testa (presumably) walking away with a bewildered expression.

“Mungeya, let’s go!”

“Kiyang Ang!”

“Don’t encourage the child… .”

… Are you here to rest?

‘Looks like they’re really close.’

Albasaeng put down his smartphone. Without the slightest hesitation, I thought of my older sister who lost her hand.

And in the middle of their activities, they nodded to the closeness of the idol group who came to family healing glamping without a camera.

‘Isn’t it boring seeing it every day?’

Of course, I couldn’t imagine how crazy they went through twists and turns in the past 10 months and finally got together.

* * *

I conceded.

‘Actually, it’s as if I’ve been on vacation for 10 months.’

If you add up the things you couldn’t rest before, it’s over a year.

Thanks to this, the travel destination was plagued by long searches and discussions that seemed to never end.

And just came to a conclusion.

“As expected, the place where Ahyeon’s went is the best.”

“yes?”

“… … .”

If it’s going to be like this, I want to ask why you’ve been banging on your laptop while not sleeping in the shop waiting room.

I did find the answer in Bae Se-jin’s words.

“It looked the best from the start. But since it’s a place I’ve been to once, it might be a bit boring to him.”

“Oh no… ! Absolutely not. It’s definitely a good place, so I want to go with the members… !”

“brother… … .”

The atmosphere quickly warmed up. It was soon forgotten that I had spent several hours fussing around aimlessly for this conclusion.

Liu Qingyu laughed softly.

“good. So, can you introduce a lot of activities that Ahyeon liked?”

“yes… !”

“Okay, then our destination is Gapyeong Healing Glamping!”

And on the same day, he caught the headbutting rotent at the regular price.

‘I don’t know if I can call this a tent.’

“Ohh~ good!”

I looked around our reserved spot on the outskirts of the campsite surrounded by thick trees.

The emotionally-enclosed tent nominally takes care of the tent image, but inside is an ondol floor with hot water and pine wood.

Plus an outdoor bath.

The comfort of camping. Indeed, it deserves to be healed.

"… ! They say this is hot spring water."

"Would you like to come in? Uh-oh, do you want to go see our munge? … Wait a minute."

"Don't bully the dog."

Even if you are accompanied by a dog, this is a pool for large dogs, but you have to put on a life jacket to put something the size of this fist in.

Fortunately, a magical conclusion came to the excited guys who looked inside.

"Well, shall we have dinner first? It's setting me down too."

"I will~"

After all, being hungry is the first priority.

"that's right! We have been starving for a long time."

It wasn't something a guy who ate a potato at a rest area would say, but from then on, it was time for barbecues and campfires.

A fire was made with firewood in front of the caravan.

"Oh oh."

It was rare to do this in the absence of staff, but the meat was grilled well without any particular problems.

‘It’s delicious.’

I fixed the fire In the meantime, Kim Rae-bin quickly flips the meat on the grill with a reverent face.

“That’s Moondae. Shall I bake too… ?”

“Hahaha Ahyeon, can you wash the mushrooms here?”

“Ah yes..!”

And time passes peacefully.

No one comes to see if the bribe given to the counter worked. Occasionally, a child who was running in front of another caravan in the distance snooped around.

“Oh, my baby, would you like some meat too?”

“Hey, you might be allergic to it.”

“oh. Sorry.”

After spending time talking nonsense, I took a bath and roughly shared the accommodation and slept soundly.

“Let’s sleep as much as we want without setting the alarm.”

“Isn’t that a great idea? You are also a leader.”

I slept on the ondol floor on the first day. Mosquito incense rose and grass bugs were heard.

It’s been a long time since I didn’t have to think about the amount or the next goal.

The next day, after lunch, I got up and tried horseback riding nearby.

“Yippee-ki-yay~!!”

Cha Yu-jin did all horseback riding. It seems that even Ryu Cheong-woo, who smiled and chased after him, surprised the staff.

I shouldn’t have called those who were originally exercising as beginners.

‘It would have been okay to isolate those two in the advanced course.’

“What the hell is Moondaemundae Yujin talking about?”

“I don’t know.”

“… If you have to search for a problem word or not… Ahh!”

“Oh my brother.”

At that time, Bae Se-jin, who almost lost her balance on the horse, regained her balance according to the staff’s instructions, and saw a guy whispering slightly to her.

“Hyung, that’s a cowboy sound… .”

In the distance, I heard a voice like Cha Yoo-jin shouting, “Hey, hey!”

“It’s okay if it doesn’t matter.”

Bae Se-jin rode quite skillfully after that, but I will only say that it was somehow like acting.

And Seon Ah-hyun, who whispered… .

“Did you ride a horse too?”

“Yes! Not a lot, sometimes.”

I’ll just say that I took on the third ‘one who used to exercise’.

‘This guy seems to be good at horseback riding too.’

It seems to have been adjusted while planning the course.

“Oh did you? I didn’t know~ Okay, Sejin accepted.”

So the next day, I went to a wool ranch that he hadn’t been to before.

“I think I can go buy some wool… ! I’m thinking of making a sweater.”

“Ohhh!”

“I hope Ahyeon wears it this Christmas and leaves a picture on her official account.”

That way, I don’t care about efficiency and spend time.

There is no filming, no authentication shots, and nothing to use for broadcasting episodes or build-up.

Time to just relax and play.

“S’mores are delicious. Brother, let’s eat our s’mores! Buy marshmallow!”

“okay.”

Cha Yoo-jin has a straight face.

“… ! bro are you serious? sick?”

“I can’t be this healthy.”

It’s crazy even if you want to buy it. Anyway, that day, I bought chocolate and biscuits and baked marshmallows over a direct fire to make something called s’mores. And ate while looking at the stars.

“Moondaemun University, we have to double jogging tomorrow.”

“I know.”

It was almost the first time that the seven of them gathered together to spend time just to play without thinking.

The beach pension was in trouble when Kim Rae-bin's grandmother collapsed.

'… … It's fine.'

The hot springs were also well written.

Taking an open-air hot spring bath every evening was a good way to end the day before going to bed.

"We buy this. Leave it at home! I'll pay for that."

"There is nowhere."

The hot water lowered the tension.

Then, what you experienced in that bizarre system world comes out of your mouth.

"You know what? Raebin Kim I grilled a lot of meat while making strawberries. I heard from Raebin Kim there."

"Huh?"

"Somehow, it was cooked well. It's a learned ability."

"As a minor, I couldn't harvest strawberries delicately, so I helped prepare the newcomers. But I really appreciate the compliment. I will continue to work hard!"

The guys who sit in the outdoor hot spring one by one throw their words without caring about the context of the conversation.

"Have you contacted VTIC senior?"

"uh. You seemed to be doing well."

“It’s nice~”

“I didn’t expect that we would become friends with that senior in this way.”

I twitched my eyebrows as I recalled the list of recommended works I had received from Joo Dan yesterday.

The other two also contacted quite often.

‘Is it natural that I have memories of being active as a group for over half a year?’

Ryu Cheong-wu speaks softly, probably recalling the ‘Wishes’ activities similarly to me.

“Come to think of it, we haven’t had a proper tour there. It feels like a long time ago.”

“that’s right. I look forward to it.”

Not only Cha Yu-jin, but also people nodding their heads here and there. Ryu Cheng-wu nodded his head together and jokingly added.

“Ah, only Sejin did it, right?”

Big Sejin smiled.

“You can’t call it a proper tour.”

“… … .”

“No really… yes.”

That would have been embarrassing.

“Anyway, I missed our group so much~ Now that we’re going on tour, are you really excited to perform?”

Got it baby

“Huh? It seems that Moondae is the only one who doesn’t respond?”

“Because I asked for something obvious.”

“… !”

It’s good to take a break, but you have to do something stimulating to get your head back.

“Let’s do the tour right.”

A smile spreads across the faces of the other guys, including Sejin.

That’s how the day came to a conclusion.

It was the night of the fourth and final day of the trip.

And morning check out.

“Thanks to you, I’m doing really well. thank you!”

“no. I am… !”

We presented autographs and proof shots to the counter staff and owner who had been silent, and boarded the car back to Seoul. The guys wearing neck pillows one by one laughed.

“It was fun.”

“It was definitely a camping trip that made me realize that rest is also a beneficial time.”

“We are going to the sea next time!”

“Good, good.”

Between the chattering guys, I picked up my smartphone and accessed the group’s official account… I suddenly remembered.

Come to think of it, I brought it with me just in case.

“Everything is fine now.”

“hmm?”

Fortunately, it is clean and well-maintained in preparation for the future when I will take a photo at the counter.

then.

After some discussion, we took the air gauge out of our bag. It was a smartphone for the W app.

If you attach it in front of the passenger seat, adjust the angle, and then turn on the broadcast… .

Tidik.

“Hello Lover!”

-???

-1st brother

-What is it? What’s going on?

From the morning, the comments are flooded with questions asking what’s going on and greetings.

Then comes the common sense question.

-Are you filming?

“Are you filming? No~ We are coming up after playing together!”

And the members chatted happily among themselves.

“Ah what… Our hot springs, horseback riding… I also touched the baby sheep. I also brought Munge.”

“Ah, at that time, Moondaemundae was really funny. That Eugene made lava out of marshmallows? The expression on Mundae’s face at that time~”

“Hmm, I remember when Sejin talked about lava. Ahyeon had a successful barbecue yesterday! We were all surprised. It was delicious.”

“A picture? I didn’t take any pictures… .”

“Ugh. Like that video… Oh, there is a video!”

Sun Ah-hyun smiles and shows a munge on a tube floating on the grass on her smartphone.

[Mueang!]

That was the beginning and end of all the materials.

“uh… It’s not like a broadcast, it’s really just a way for us to hang out together!”

No more.

-?

-No Testa’s face

-Show us what you guys did

-A brutal act that only shows the ending

A silent scream occupied the chat window.

‘… … Did I play too much?’

I realized.

This was just for the purpose of conveying the current situation, but after listening closely, it was clear that the chatter was a break with the angle for its own content.

So that it greatly stimulated the interest of those who were interested.

However, the empty rice cakes were overflowing live.

– Go back guys, quickly camp again

Thanks to the comments, the madness flows.

… … This was the beginning of all the Great Transmutation that would happen after that.

Chapter 417

Episode 417 Testa

‘s fans are already used to a variety of things, from malicious individual fans’ behind-the-scenes dogfights to rumor-spreading agencies’ aggro.

Of course, not only negative things are familiar.

I got used to the mouth-watering stage quality, the sincere fan service, the cute stories and heartwarming group episodes.

However, I had to like this blindly, but there was something ambiguous about it. That’s Testa’s entertainment talent.

-Testa Entertainment = Inferno Party

-This is all because of the production team

-I sent them to heal, but I gave up after seeing them in distress hahaha

It’s fun.

It’s definitely fun, so Testa’s entertainment has a high batting average for popularity thanks to the topical explosion with a development that doesn’t care.

Even in the midst of that, the feeling of an ‘idol caught up in entertainment’ was stronger than the feeling of a professional entertainer, so there was no change in the image.

Fans enjoyed the content and flow happily. But at the same time, he also talked about other thoughts.

-I just want to see the kids doing whatever they want without thinking about it

-I sometimes think that the kids are having a hard time

. There was a subtle demand for it.

In addition, if entertainers, who are not originally in entertainment as their main job, do special entertainment, isn't it common to enjoy a calm healing experience away from everyday life?

'Observation type healing trip!'

But now… All of a sudden, the members did it.

Fans all loved it.

The kids camped, ate s'mores, came back intact, horseback riding, and played with sheep

Loveuer was taken aback.

Good thing was right. The kids with a smile saying that they will work harder at the concert now that they have rested well are looking good and full of passion, probably because they ate and slept well.

By the way.

-No, we are

-Why are you bullying lovebirds?

-How can I upload anything?

I thought there was at least a video for its own content.

In addition, there were signs that were revealed in the W app.

[Hey, water here. But get up and eat.]

[Hee hee!]

[Wow, isn’t our car exploding like this? Everyone lies down.]

Originally, as a team, it looked nice and close. But this time, more than that, it felt like something was peeling off.

-Hey, the kids are secretly talking – (Except for Confucian rabbits)

It was a bit sad to listen to each other while the relaxed atmosphere flowed throughout W Live, as if everyone were open to each other.

A scene full of unity, as if they had been disbanded and then reunited. It was meaningful.

-It seems that all groups’ ppongs have been maxed out.

-What did you do

? -Tell me! let me know! ㅜㅜㅠㅠㅠㅠ

The viewers of W Live cried even more when they guessed that something like a narrative turning point had happened at the camp they had been to.

And I knew the cause of this situation by looking at the members who were embarrassed that they didn’t feel any problem about not bringing a picture.

… I hadn’t even guessed that there would be a demand for it.

-Since our kids are always messing around in variety shows, the formula for healing is stuck in their heads, so what are you going to do?

-I think the kids played better because they were comfortable without a camera… Of course, I'm going crazy for letting you know everything ㄴ Hahahah

To be precise, Ryu Cheng-wu shook his head and handed it over.

“Is PD-nim doing well?”

He was the representative PD of the entertainment division that created various gem-like entertainment programs, from foreign hotteok selling entertainment to carrot coins.

And I already guessed what this person was talking about.

-Oh, we’re doing well! And Testa seemed to be like that too. We heard it too.

“yes?”

-Glamping~ Ah Testa’s Healing Camp!

yeah i knew this I was silent for a while, recalling the Internet situation over the past few days.

‘… I didn’t expect people to be stimulated that much.’

The fact that there is no video evidence seems to have maximized fans’ curiosity and expectations.

-Testa enjoyed a crazy vacation with all kinds of entertainment including cooking, camping, hot springs, horseback riding, and animals…

Testa Glamping, which only went for 4 nights and 5 days just by listening to the fans, was degenerating into a rare camping entertainment that mixed touching comical healing.

In addition, rice cakes, not blackmail, came out one by one in that atmosphere.

[Can I upload something like this? Testa’s review]

I was working part-time at a glamping site, but he suddenly appeared in a funny and suspicious outfit, so I checked in handsomely

. I will receive it, please comment in the comments haha

Starting with the long-suffering part-timer's review, the campsite owner's publicity post Sheep ranch and horseback riding Employees also reported eyewitness accounts.

Photos and short videos seem to have become indirect evidence and great rice cakes.

-Cha Yoo-jin riding a horse is crazy. 23,413,241,324 cowboy movies have passed

-What's the difference in physique with President Chungwoo? No, no, short videos taken with a smartphone saying I love you and shaky short videos and few proof shots made the fans thirsty even more.

'There are definitely traces of being there, but there's no substance… .'

Even people who rented a caravan and tent used by Testa and tried to find traces relayed it on social media and got off after swearing.

-I don't know how to control the viewer. It's just an invasion of privacy because

I'm so overheated right now. It went quietly, you idiots haha

Right before the release date, the publicity of the tour went in, and it entered a calming phase, but it was close.

The degree to which I managed to keep the extremely built-up excitement from burning out due to overheating.

Still, the atmosphere of crying out for healing as if protesting is still the same.

I clicked my tongue inwardly.

‘Didn’t they catch on because they were grouped in different time zones for 10 months?’

Now, it is forbidden to turn on a live performance with a stupid idea that you just want to try it without thinking.

Anyway, in this situation, isn’t it obvious what the entertainment crew who originally worked with us would say?

-The term is a bit short, but the timing is great, right? The healing entertainment we originally promised! It’s the tour season, so let’s go. testers.

That’s supply creation.

Let’s film the promised testa healing variety show now.

“Entertainment?”

“Ah~ Are you our PD? Long time no see. Jung PD!”

Those who fell asleep in the car are starting to react secretly.

And the PD, who eagerly returned his greetings, starts the business without spitting on his mouth.

-Even though we are running out of time, we have prepared properly to serve Testa.

It is said that they are planning a content series dedicated to WiTube on their channel with over 3 million subscribers.

And he wants to showcase Testa as the first hitter there.

-Wouldn't it be best to take a picture right where you are resting during the tour?

I looked around.

'Shall we set the mood with a show of hands?'

But Liu Cheng-wu smiles first and opens his mouth.

"Do you want to do what you want to do?"

hmm?

"great… !"

"That's right~ You can honestly decide this at Moondaemun University."

"It is reasonable because Moon Dae-hyung felt the greatest sense of betrayal in the last variety show < That House's Grandson >."

OK.

In the last variety show, the best for the children of the production team… Since I was the one who ate a lot of candy, it seems that the right to host has returned to me.

I stared at my smartphone for a while and then nodded.

"great."

– Ohhh!

It would be right to relieve the fandom atmosphere here.

Anyway, if it coincides with the tour season, it will be fine without being so hung up on the topic, so let's think of it as a break.

"I will trust the production team for the last time on this healing entertainment show."

– I swear right here and now. I bet my entire entertainment career!

"You don't mean to say that the entertainment career you swore to betray is right here."

There was silence for a moment.

-… … Moondae, we are sorry. No, this is the first time I distrust idols like this.

PD continued with a trembling voice.

Of course, I'm nervous because I'm laughing.

– You must have suffered a great wound in your heart. I'm full of tears.

"no."

no baby

"Kheop!"

On the other side of the phone, I could hear the writers snuffling and holding back their laughter.

A similar thing is happening around the corner. I slapped the big Sejin on the back.

"evil!"

"Anyway, that's how it is. i look forward to."

Everything was sorted out with Liu Cheng-wu's handling.

-Please take good care of us~

That's how Testa's healing entertainment WeTube version was confirmed.

* * *

And after an urgent meeting and practice.

Filming started the moment we boarded a plane for the tour and left the country.

"We are here to save you time."

"Mom!"

The production team said that they could not give up even with such a gag, and performed a surprise appearance at an intermediate stop.

After making a fuss that the airport lounge had managed to allow.

'I don't think he really intends to cheat.'

Seeing that he is trying to eat something like that, it seems that he will heal him with sincerity this time.

I looked at the PD wearing angel wings, grasped the atmosphere, and nodded.

"I made the decision to fully respect everyone's wishes because everyone who goes on the Zaza tour shouldn't have to worry about anything other than the stage!"

"Oh oh."

"Exactly… It is self-planning!"

Soon, the story that has already been discussed comes out to the PD with a deep expression.

‘It’s not that simple.’

1. Pair up two testers and create a healing course for each team.

“And everyone in turn enjoys it! No exceptions or manipulation.”

“Ohhh~”

2. One person who won the mini-game alone can create the desired healing course.

“congratulations. Mr. Rabin!”

“congratulations!”

That is Kim Rae-bin here.

Kim Rae-bin nodded his head eagerly with an expression that the reward he had obtained through the board game was undeserved.

“We will create an efficient course that everyone can enjoy and will not feel pressured… !”

“No, it’s okay, Rabin, do what you want!”

It warmed.

It is an atmosphere where a peaceful and stress-free scene will be produced.

‘hmm.’

Besides, the conditions were the same.

“We check each other’s course and keep things in check, and we can’t do that, and we really do what we want to do~” “

just do what you want.

There are travel expenses and time limits, but without these, it would create a sense of incongruity, so it is correct to have them.

Finally, let’s look at the two-member team formed inside Testa.

“Shall we do this?”

“… ! I’m fine.”

1. Ryu Chung-woo and Seon Ah-hyun’s team name is < Happy Trip >.

“Oh, it looks nice here.”

“… Isn’t that a bit over budget? No, I’m fine with doing this and doing a little less.”

“No, it just looks good, hyung~ Let’s see other things together!”

The name of the second team is < Sejin Is >, of course, but it is a team formed by Sejin Lee and Sejin Bae.

I nodded.

‘It’s already coming out.’

Either way, a good healing course will come out without any problems.

The team in front is originally gentlemen, and the two guys with the same name have opposite tastes, so if you compromise in front of the entertainment camera, a popular course will come out in the end.

‘If that’s the case.’

In the end, it means that there will be a team that is in charge of stimulating even a little bit.

I looked back at my teammates.

“brother! Can I be the leader?”

“uh. then.”

Cha Yoo-jin was accessing the Internet with her eyes shining.

Yes.

Team 3 Cha Yoo-jin and Park Moon-dae.

-Team name: 〈I will do what we want to do〉

An American guy who chased sheep imitating a shepherd dog even when he went to camp, and a Korean guy who first greeted them by eating chicken feet.

This is why image is important.

‘Healing is originally a subjective expression.’

Looking back at my reliable team members, I am satisfied with killing…
No, I started making a healing plan.

Chapter 418

If I can’t debut, I’ll get a fatal disease. Episode 418

No matter how the variety shows work, there are things I need to pay attention to first.

performance right away.

“Thank you!”

I looked up. The choreography of the debut song ‘Hi-five’ ended with a voice echoing from the microphone next to it.

It was the last encore song.

Waaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa!

Heat, cheers, and lights. My body resonates with the vibrations.

‘… A long time.’

Sweat dripped down his temples.

I slowly closed and opened my eyes and saw a group of lights filling the huge plaza.

In fact, tours are not exposed to the media, so it is not very helpful in raising awareness or reputation.

Since they are harvesting the popularity they have already earned through audiences, agencies are using them as cash cows.

But once you're in the position of performing, it's hard to dismiss it that way.

"Hoo-wook."

'just… I'm getting goosebumps.'

In fact, I wonder if my priorities have changed.

Raising awareness isn't about trying to gather an audience who will watch and listen to this.

"thank you!"

The adrenaline rush makes you think stupid things. I roughly wiped my forehead.

"See you again!!"

"See ya!"

The tour that has been on for such a long time has heated up the atmosphere of the group itself.

To the extent that there was a guy who shouted like this as soon as he came down to the backstage.

"I think today's performance was very complete without any mistakes!"

"Yeah, I think so too… !"

The performance in Singapore on both days was highly praised by the two perfectionists in their self-evaluation.

I nodded my head as I checked the camera that came in just in time.

"Starting tomorrow, you will be able to enjoy the healing course without being ashamed."

“I know!”

The camera of the entertainment crew moves as if they were excited among the people who are gasping for breath.

“Ah~ But no matter how much you think about it, isn’t it a dream schedule? Healing while meeting fans and having fun performing! And the performance again~”

This is an introductory comment that looks like it will appear in a variety show trailer. I would have known it myself.

“Just tell hyung lightly, where did Yujin and Moondaemundae pick?”

“It’s a secret. I want to see the faces of the members screaming!”

“Oh~ I thought it was luxurious?”

“Oh, I spent a lot of money on the budget.”

“I knew that too!”

Big Se-jin smiles and hits Cha Yu-jin on the back.

But the truth that it won’t be where you think it’s going to be for your budget should be buried for good reaction quality.

“Everyone had a hard time!”

And at midnight that day, when the guys who had been gathering for a late-night snack after a long time were widening their eyes, the PD finally came in.

Ding-dong.

“Oh my God, everyone, have you gathered to wait for us?”

“Oh, when we originally tour, we share a room to unite once a week.”

“Party tonight~”

“No, are you revealing that for the first time to Lovers right now? Because of this~~ the fans are sad!”

It’s true, but it’s also a skill that makes it sound nasty.

“I will correct it.”

“Once you’re going to talk, I’ll prepare a proof shot first.”

As if this side was filming an apology video, it was deliberately more polite, and even the camera director suppressed a laugh.

‘It’s like an entertainment show.’

Progress continued in that pleasant atmosphere.

“Now, shall we give ourselves a round of applause for successfully completing our first tour country?”

“Wow!”

Smiles spread across the faces of those who laughed and slapped their palms. That’s sincere.

“Mr. Moondae, this is the first time since the start of filming this sincere smile.”

“I always have a good laugh with all my heart.”

“Ah~ You couldn’t really smile last time… sorry. It’s a joke, Mr. Moon. I’m sorry.”

stop.

With the laughter of the writers in the background, PD finally got to the point.

“Now then, our < Sejinis > was the first order, right?”

“Yeep~”

The PD showed the plan file submitted in advance by Saejin Bae, who smiled and nodded seriously, in front of the camera.

“Here! It contains the healing course you have chosen.”

Since we go to various countries on tour, the order has been fixed for smooth selection of travel destinations.

‘They were Indonesian.’

When it comes to healing, keywords such as yacht snorkeling and beaches come to mind. I put my hands down and waited patiently.

PD exclaimed vigorously.

“Now, please do a drum roll~ < Sejinis > Healing Course, those titles are~”

“Dugudugudugu!”

The PD opens the file with exaggerated movements.

However, as soon as he reads the contents, the PD’s face disappears like magic.

“PD?”

A question mark seems to float on the face of the PD who has his head in the file, and then a bewildered voice is heard.

“… “Climbing an active volcano”?”

“… … .”

“… … .”

for a moment.

“Oh, climbing is good.”

That’s only Ryu Chung-woo’s thoughts.

When he turned his head, Bae Se-jin opened his mouth seriously with a flushed face.

“… The next destination for Testa’s tour is Indonesia, and there are many famous volcanoes.”

“I thought everyone would do a lot of luxurious things, so we decided to save money and build up our stamina!”

“For tours, power is the most important.”

“… … .”

I realized.

You guys took a sharp curve while trying not to fight.

Since the two of them don’t match their hobbies, it seems that they’ve made bizarre, rapid progress towards the only place where their values match.

“okay. What a meaningful idea!”

Of course, as long as Kim Rae-bin got rid of that line first, the person grumbling here is a sucker without a professional mindset.

‘Is all healing dead?’

In the end, seeing them nodding their heads, saying that it was a choice worthy of a professional idol, I wondered if there was something wrong with this.

If this is the case, our team's choice is… for a moment.

However, I soon saw the side of the next team and corrected it.

'It's a combination of Ryu Cheong-woo and Sun Ah-hyun.'

A good course… I'm a bit suspicious that Ryu Cheng-wu might have climbed the mountain again.

So I honestly asked the PD.

"Is there any overlap between us?"

"… No, Mr. Mundae, this is really the first time I'm checking it out. I didn't see it secretly!"

Do you have anything to stop broadcasting? don't lie

"… Oh, of course, writer Lee checked in advance to make sure there were no overlaps!"

Over there, the artist with his face covered sends an ok sign with his finger. I can't see her face because she covers her face… Anyway, it won't be a lie. I decided to correct the route.

'… The curved feeling isn't bad either.'

I was worried about the ratings, but it turned out better.

We immediately received PPL, an accommodation reservation application, and after a good night's sleep, we left for Indonesia the next day.

And I really started climbing on Mount Batur.

"The weather is nice!"

"… … and."

I will correct the word well. Park Moon-dae's stat-fed body is weaker than Ryu Gun-woo even after being an idol for four years.

In that sense, if you think of this as physical training, the cost performance isn't bad… … .

I looked to the side.

"The scenery is very pretty. yes… ?"

"Cooool"

"… … ."

Behind the ex-athletes who walk happily.

Bae Se-jin was silently moving his steps with the expression of walking on his own ascetic path.

Why did he choose mountain climbing when he was going to do that? And why did I have to take joint responsibility for that bastard's choice?

'this… healing?'

Anyway, the scenery I saw from this grinning climb was amazing.

So at the moment I thought I could finish the healing cut with it.

"Tomorrow is a night hike, everyone. Are you excited?"

"and."

"I can see the blue glow from the volcano, and it looks like hellfire."

"… … ."

"You get a valuable cut, thank you. Mr. Sejin~ Huh? There is also a hot spring right in front of it, make a reservation… Didn't you? Aigoo~ Think of the budget!"

Even the big Sejin almost moved his facial muscles.

Opinions will continue to diverge anyway. Since it's WiTube content, he expected it to be compressed into 30 minutes, so he must have tried to catch all the highlights and main goals.

His judgment was extraordinary, but it must have been difficult for him to endure PD's crazy giggling.

'That bastard didn't even flinch.'

I can see the writers watching the sinking of entertainment people with joyful faces. I could already see how the editing would go.

"Mr. Sejin?"

"… Oh, that's good!"

late.

"Good? It's your choice!"

"I'm happy!"

"great!"

is this the army?

After the night hike the next day and the rock climbing on the last day, we slept in the hotel all day. It's just a relief that I don't have muscle pain because it's a job that uses my body. Even that would have been calculated.

Still, after the rehearsal and the performance, the faces of the guys gathered… .

'Please heal!'

It seemed so written.

okay. Unless you are a mountaineering enthusiast, 3-day hiking is not healing.

“Come on, everyone, cheer up. I have to go to the healing course!”

“Nenep!”

I nodded and looked at the file the PD guy was accepting.

‘Next destination… England.’

The flight line was twisted due to the coronation schedule, but it was rather good. Wouldn’t it be great to go to England and ride a mountain?

‘I’m not going to say crazy things about climbing Big Ben.’

“Here~ < Happy Trip >, Chung-woo and Ah-hyun’s group, right?”

“yes… !”

“I’ll open it right away~ right away!”

< Horror Experience >

“… … .”

“… … .”

Sincerity… no really?

“I picked one because there are several famous horror experience parks in the UK.”

“Since it’s summer, I thought this would be the place to go, so I decided… Everyone thought how to rest and do something fun.”

Ryu Cheong-wu smiled shyly, saying, “I didn’t know that I would be climbing the mountain as the first course.”

“You’ll be fine, don’t worry guys.”

It’s just that your body is comfortable.

“Okay, and this… !”

I received several tickets that Seon Ah-hyun took out of the file and handed out.

There are traces drawn with crayons as if it was made by hand.

‘what.’

I turned the ticket over.

[Experience exemption ticket]

I even drew a flower pattern.

“It’s okay if you don’t have to be a very scary person. No need to force… !”

“That’s right, I will do it voluntarily.”

But why give me

“I mean, if you don’t like it while you’re talking about it… .”

“I will.”

“Yes?”

“I will.”

this… Is there anyone who uses this in this situation?

I returned the ticket with superhuman patience.

‘I’m going to prepare.’

While making a plan to push away the two guys, Cha Yoo-jin, who claps, and Se-jin, who laughs, side by side, in front of the ghost part-timer.

and… I will explain that I spent my stay in the UK with nothing good besides performances.

At this point, the plan was abandoned.

“Hey Moondae hyung! [What do you think about the fact that only we truly created a ‘healing’ course?]”

Even when Cha Yoo-jin said this backstage after the performance, I was not shaken.

“… Too bad.”

“that’s right!”

I decided not to tell you that it is healing only for you.

It will be revealed in 30 minutes anyway.

“First of all, I enjoyed watching your performances in England. Did our staff bring it from eyes to hearts?”

“Hi-Hi!”

“thank you! thank you!”

This time, the production crew who had seen the performance smiled and joined again.

I wonder if they are planning to ambitiously collect the number of views since an overseas business trip once a week is covered as expenses.

Anyway, the PD finally calls the long-awaited team.

“ruler. This order… Oh Yujin and Moondae’s team.”

“Yeah~”

I did not refuse Cha Yoo-jin’s request to raise one hand. I wish I could make you laugh

“The team name is very avant-garde. whopping… “I will do what I want to do”.

As if asking for sound effects to be added, the PD made an editing point, gestured, and then continued.

I followed the PD’s gesture. Bae Se-jin looked at me with disbelief eyes.

“Oh~ And according to this writer, he spent a lot more budget than the previous teams!”

“Oh oh!”

“Luxury!”

Cheers rang out.

“ruler. Then, the fantastic healing course that will be held in ‘Mexico’… .”

PD reversed the file. Then a huge title is revealed.

–< Great White Shark Cage Experience >

“… After entering the cage and descending to the sea floor… You will meet a great white shark.”

“… … .”

There was a moment of hellish silence.

“The one from that thriller movie?”

I stayed still for a while and finally admitted it.

“yes.”

“hey!”

Bae Se-jin shouts.

“Park Moon-dae, you are the same!”

“What are you going to do with mountaineering and beating me up like that while seeing you right in front of the great white shark!”

Cha Yoo-jin replies to the screaming Dongmyeong-in. this guy is sincere

“We don’t use our stamina. We chose to have fun! Everyone picked something weird!”

“What kind of fun is it to meet a shark in a cage? It must be fun for a shark…” !”

“Listen.”

I opened my mouth.

“Originally, healing is a combination of recovery and touching laughter.”

“… however?”

“Our team was in charge of the laughter there.”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin opened his mouth expressionlessly.

“You know it’s bullshit… ?”

huh.

Liu Qingyu smiled and opened his mouth.

“After all, nobody… You didn’t choose a healing course where you can take a good rest.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

It was the end of a healing journey without healing.

“No, it’s ruined! You made such a great choice artistically!”

I want to punch the PD in the mouth.

“And we have our last too~ Mr. Rabin!”

The name of the guy with the most workaholic temperament in this group is called.

“yes!”

“This is what happened, let’s look at Mr. Rabin’s course in advance!”

Excited.

I rubbed my temples with the feeling that I had already guessed what ending would happen, but… .

– Plan for < Night Massage Experience Counting the Stars >

Horseback riding takes you to a beautiful plateau by the lake, where you can enjoy an aromatic campfire and all the chef’s prepared dishes.

After that, you will receive a massage from a professional while watching the Milky Way in a warm outdoor environment with a grassy breeze.

And go to bed after taking a hot spring bath.

“… … .”

“I’m sorry. Everyone chose a course that contributed to their role as idols while maintaining the characteristics of each country and the team’s personality, but I tried to recreate the past vacation too much by myself… .”

“I love you, Rabin.”

“Kim Raebin is the best.”

“… ??”

That’s how Testa went to see the shark, promising the last healing course that was promised… .

For reference, the release of episode 1 was the very next day.

A healing journey without healing.

… For the first time, I started to be afraid of the fan reaction as to what kind of feedback this entertainment show would receive.

Chapter 419

If you can’t debut, you’ll die of a disease Episode 419

Testa Healing Variety’s titles were like this.

–< Healing Artisan Testa >

Healing Testa for short.

It was a name that showed ambition to give the cast a good rest.

Of course, as soon as the plan was announced and the sequel was mentioned in the production team’s previous work, Testa fans went wild.

-Finally

-Supply in Demand! Supply in Demand!

-Ah, please let us see Testa Camping tooㅠㅠㅠ Ah1!!!

However, everyone was aware of the splendid history of these entertainment production crews.

Truly a history of betrayal!!

So, where the enthusiasm has passed, cold speculations about the big picture of the production team have already poured in.

– Wearing a healing mask and going to hit the kids in the back again

. No matter who sees that, it’s ironic lol ㅠㅠ

-Oh no, let the kids play comfortablyㅠㅠ

The fans cried out to the production team, asking them to give up the betrayal, and the production team responded by releasing it in advance.

[Testa and Jung PD challenge healing… Betrayal (X) Sincerity (O) Testa A plan to do everything you want to do | 〈Healing Artisan Testa〉 Pre-release video]

The pre-release began with the production crew hearing about Testa's camping and having a conversation.

[Testa's insubstantial healing camping heats up the internet…]

[(Photo) (Certification)]

[Testa's past days spread even to voices of condemnation of infernal entertainment without healing!]

Testa's broadcasting material screen flashes with a vain expression or screams at the vicious numbers of the production team. brushed like

And this word comes out.

[Writer Lee: To be honest, PD-nim did too much.]

[PD: These people did everything together and only made me the devil.]

[Hahahahahahahahaha]

After looking back at the variety show, he eventually admitted it.

[PD: It was a bit(?) excessive.]

[Starting self-objectification]

And after reflection, I tried to call Testa.

Yes. The world's Bakmundae didn't realize it at the time, but the production team designed it as a picture for shooting from here on out.

[PD: Hello testers~ How are you? (Pretense)]

The PD gently seduces Testa with a voice that is very soothing.

And Testa, who has already been fooled a lot, especially Park Moon-dae, is a painting that barely makes it okay amidst suspicion and vigilance.

[Park Moon-dae: Good.]

[!]

[Caught… ! Ah, not this time]

[It's a choice with no regrets… ☆]

-Hey, the production team has been rehabilitated, right? Ha ha ha

ha ha ha

Cheers from Testa enjoying healing mixed in the background.

[Wow]

[Awesome!]

[< Indonesia, England, Mexico, and even Chile >]

On the screen, the capitals of each country and the superb view cut past them, and the image of Testa rushing out of the airport excitedly passed by.

[Everything is Testa's choice!]

[Will Testa, the master of entertainment, succeed in healing?]

[See you on Tuesday, August 23rd, Testa, the master of healing!]

It ends with Testa waving and smiling.

If betrayed here, no matter how much entertainment it is, the production team created a lot of atmosphere where it seemed like they would be embarrassed and cursed.

So the fans believed it.

– It's awesome.

-Wow, it must be really healing.

-I heard that the kids plan it themselves, so I'm really looking forward to it. You can also know the kids' tastes

.

And as the second pre-release, a hotel party night during Testa's tour was revealed, further heating up the atmosphere.

-healing!

It was in this situation that Episode 1 was revealed.

A heart-warming team-sharing mini-game, exciting testa's fun plane cut, and a great performance cut… what appeared.

[Climbing an active volcano]

"… … ."

"… … ."

what is this

Homma, who was watching the premiere by renting a room cafe with her graduate student friend, had her eyes quivering.

The graduate student spewed the ade he was drinking.

However, Testa's appearance, climbing like a goat on a rock, does not change.

[Seon Ah-hyun: The air is really nice… !]

[Park Moon-dae: (Can't even answer)]

Why are my kids training instead of healing… … ?

The moment I want to catch the cut of the two Se-jin, who are silently moving their steps, I enter the flashback scene with a conversation cut between the two.

[Lee Se-jin: Oh~ How about a natural swimming pool with a waterfall? And the water park looks good too? There is also a safari!]

[Bae Se-jin: It's good to play, but… You can go there even if you are not in Indonesia. I am… I wonder if temples or history museums are more distinctive.]

[Lee Se-jin: Oh~ yep.]

The two began to set up a healing plan with great excitement.

"But why are you climbing?!"

"Wait a minute"

because you will soon run into trouble.

[Bae Se-jin: … Yeah, I think the rice terraces are worth a look. If you go next to the museum, you can also give a historical explanation!]

[Lee Se-jin: … Uh hyung, by the way, our name is healing entertainment, but wouldn't that be a bit too cultured?]

[Bae Se-jin: Entertainment can also contain cultural meanings!]

[Lee Se-jin: That's right. But first of all, it's funny and fun, but it's good to see that it has additional meaning!]

[Bae Se-jin: It'll be fun too.]

[Lee Se-jin: Eh~ Ask the staff over there

.

[Lee Se-jin: … … .]

[Bae Se-jin: … … .]

The images of ferocious red pandas confronting each other appear translucently behind the faces of the two people with the same name.

[Suffocating confrontation]

The interview even pops up.

[Lee Se-jin: You know what?]

[Lee Se-jin: We… The MBTI is also the opposite.]

Kukkung!

thunderbolt effect

Lee Se-jin's desperate character appeal interview with the determination that she would not be caught on camera too quickly became a great material.

[Two people with the same name only]

[These people… Nothing fits!]

I wondered if the image of the two choosing completely opposite menus, even for the in-flight meal, had been edited out… .

Different cuts pass by, from the way I carry my carrier, the way I play with the members, and even the way I cover the blanket.

[Surprising thing here]

[※They say they fit well when working]

-ㅅㅅㅋㅋㅋㅋㅋㅋㅋ

That was the beginning of all the tragedies.

As if they couldn't understand each other, the two of them made a dramatic compromise while looking at each other funny with exaggerated subtitles and effects.

[Lee Se-jin: Hyung, then we just… … Do you want to do something that will help your activity? Self-development?]

[Bae Se-jin: … … ! that… It’s okay.]

[(Pok) So I decided to work (porridge)]

The course is introduced in strong cursive with magnificent BGM.

[The base of the performance is physical strength!]

[3-day climbing course for Testa’s physical training]

Hell fire burns.

-Hey

-
Aaaa

Even then, in everyday life, as if they couldn't understand each other, they were caught looking at each other slightly, and it came out as a reaction.

[Lee Se-jin: Do you want to drink ice water at Moondaemundae? Oh, but it's not free~ You have to do three kinds of cute acts on camera.]

[Bae Se-jin: (He's giving it to me quickly, why is his face like that)]

[We really don't understand each other]

[ENTJ < - > ISFP]

It couldn't be that funny.

"Puhahaha!!"

'My God,'

the graduate student burst out laughing while spilling Ade, and Homma laughed and admired it.

'It worked out!'

In fact, the two Sejin are not very close… This is because it was a rice cake that steadily attracted aggro under the water.

The consensus was that someone was ignoring someone or not talking when the camera was turned off, but it seemed pretty dumb, maybe because the editing went so crazy.

'Testaden is not healing! Still, it's unexpectedly healing for the fans.'

Homma felt the coolness of drinking a can of cider.

'Now I won't be able to see bullshit like Mundae instigating Lee Se-jin and bullying Bae Se-jin!'

And separately, the climbing itself was quite a pleasure to watch as a viewer.

The beautiful and mysterious scenery of the active volcano and the image of Testa climbing the mountain while communicating with the locals passed by with a sense of speed.

In addition, the PD's nasty and funny appearance that draws aggro like crazy and the final hwaryong climax came out.

exactly what the author said.

[On the last day of the course]

[I briefly talked to < Sejin-Is >.]

[Writer Park: But didn't it just take one day to go to the rice field and one day to the water park?] [

Sejin Lee: !!!!]

[Sejin Bae: !! !!]

It was a perfect healing solution.

After a shocking silence.

The nagging of the members and the cute resentment of the two Se-jin briefly behind them, the high school student who had been climbing was rewinded… .

[Lee Se-jin: Our wonderful and talented writer Park, please keep it a secret.]

[Bae Se-jin: (nods vigorously)]

At that earnestness, writer Park clapped and burst into laughter, then fell down.

And large subtitles appear along with cool commercial cuts of a water park and rice terraces.

[We’ve kept the secret~]

[From today, all you have to do is prevent Testa members from accessing WeTube. 〈Sejinise〉 Fighting! ^^]

It was nonsense.

“Hahahaha!”

“Ah, you must be crazy!!”

The two friends also burst into laughter. The two of them forgot the embarrassment that it was not healing and were watching ‘Healing Artisan Testa’ in a cool way.

‘This is fun!’

It was a combination I could trust.

[End of the first healing (?) course]

And episodes 1 and 2 were released at the same time, and the first course, Sejinise, was organized so that you could see the trip to the end at once.

In the end, it ended well without being too sadistic because it ended with a good night’s sleep in a hotel.

[Munge: Looking at the wonderful mountains, the hyungs took turns hugging Munge]

[Munge: So warm, so warm! The mountain is cool!]

It was very cute until it ended in the form of a picture diary of Munge sleeping soundly among the members.

The two rented a room cafe and applauded happily as if they had seen the ending credits for no reason. I was a bit surprised, but it was really fun and good!

“Ah~ it was fun!”

“Who’s next? Ah, Ryu Cheong-woo and Seon Ah-hyun,” the homema who said, guessed it, and even the graduate students knew it.

‘This must be real healing!’

There must have been a goal to attract a little more viewers by composing episodes 1 and 2 like a variety show.

Homma and other people with thick bones in the idol world guessed that, and there were many people who said that on social media as well. And the common reaction of all Testa fans was that real healing would come from next time… .

next week.

[Ryu Chung-woo: But we all really enjoy our leisure time in the summer.]

[Seon Ah-hyun: I prepared a countermeasure in case there are people who don’t want to do it.] [

These people… I’m ready to properly enjoy healing.]

What the two members of the < Happy Trip > team put forward after a gentle discussion… It was a horror experience.

“… ??”

For reference, the viewers’ hearts were represented by Park Moon-dae on the screen.

[Park Moon-dae: (denies reality)]

[Park Moon-dae: (read again)]

The production team gave this explanation.

[?? : Aaaaaaa!!]

[?? : Aaaaaa!!]

[?? : That doesn’t taste good!(?)]

Someone screaming desperately.

That was the ending of episode 3.

And the ending credits have famous British horror spot cuts.

Of course, viewers turned upside down at this appearance of completely switching routes to killing, and the news quickly spread all over the place.

[Healing Testa I thought it would be fun, but the story was really entertaining.jpg]

[Healing Testa Climbing

is followed by a horror experience.

It started to draw huge aggro.

“… … .”

“… Shall we prepare our album?”

In an unexpected publicity opportunity, Testa members monitor this mess while on tour.

But the aggro isn’t over yet.

Since the WeTube channel was operated professionally enough to organize its own content, it provided subtitles in various languages when released.

So, fans in the country where Testa created ‘Healing Course’ were also watching with great anticipation… … .

-I mean…what have I seen now -What we expected: testa promising to revisit this country reality: give this country the toughest tour scream (caps)

-laughter and scream Unstoppable

Riding on the astonished reaction of the country’s fans, Testa’s killing travel story suddenly went viral on the popular video tab of that country.

… And in that situation, Britain’s famous horror experience was aired properly.

Chapter 420

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 420

"Ohhh Let's start! hurry!"

"Ah-cha-cha wait!"

Sejin Keun, who made popcorn in the microwave at the Gearco Hotel, sat down on the sofa happily.

'Damn it.'

Needless to say, today is his tour camp.

Feeling like cattle being led to the slaughterhouse, I sat down roughly nearby. Seon Ah-hyun, who was restless for no reason, opened her mouth.

"excuse me… Even if you don't necessarily watch the broadcast. I think it would be fun to watch the movie… !"

"Monitoring comes first."

"Yes… ."

Seon Ah-hyun sank, and Ryu Cheng-wu smiled and held the remote control. He's a guy with a thick face.

"hmm. Turn it on then."

"Yeah~"

And the smart TV plays the real-time video from WeTube.

[4 3 2 1 0]

[Diri-ring~]

“Ohhh!”

The first release of the 4th episode of < Healing Artisan Testa > was about to begin.

… The ultimate horror experience.

[Selection of < Happy Trip >]

[British horror attraction course]

The letters are red.

From the opening of the 4th episode, it was a summer breeze special, and all the special effects were put in and all the fuss was created.

It wasn’t ‘let’s all try a horror experience together’

.

[Fear proxy service]

[※Testa is surprised and viewers are healed.]

“… … .”

It’s kind of embarrassing… no. It is good if the audience pool is wide.

“Ha ha ha!”

In a little while, let’s leave it alone and watch whether the screaming person on the screen laughs or not. The first attraction selected by the < Happy Trip > team appears on the screen after all the famous horror spots in England.

[The Devil's Hotel]

[A European traditional horror attraction franchise with a long history An extremely realistic horror that stimulates the five senses is approaching… .]

It sets the mood quite a bit.

"… That was pretty scary."

"That's right, everyone came out without knowing how to react~ Now we'll see!"

I crossed my arms.

The Testas, who were scared and chattering among themselves on the screen, after twists and turns, form their own teams and enter the attraction in turn.

Bloodstains that have turned dark red are scattered in the old hallway of a gloomy 20th century building with flickering lights.

the moment you enter it.

[Kikiiik]

"Evil!"

"I'm already scared!"

The attraction starts when the front door closes. And every time you walk down the soggy hallway and pass in front of the hotel room on either side, a strange phenomenon occurs.

thud.

[Lee Se-jin: Ahhh! OMG!]

[The staff hasn't even appeared yet]

Keun Se-jin chews on popcorn while watching himself on the screen making a fuss.

“Oh oh… I wonder~”

What is the guy on the screen right now?

“No, who had the best reaction~ Ah, Sejin shouldn’t lose!”

“… … .”

That bastard over there smirking at me, I know what you’re trying to say.

Just in time, a yellow head is captured by an infrared camera in the midst of screaming scenes.

grow.

[Park Moon-dae: (Stand up)]

[For reference, if I were to speak entirely of this person… … .]

And my fear-related reactions from Testa’s past reality program that I collected sparingly passed on the screen.

[Is today’s Moon University?]

After that meaningful subtitle, I am on the screen that started to move again… .

[Kwaaaaaaaaa!]

[Ah, help me! Ah!]

The door to room 404 suddenly opens from the left, and then to the woman tied to the old bed, twisting her head and crawling out… .

[Park Moon-dae: (nodding)]

[????]

[Good manners]

After saying hello, I ran out into the hallway following the members who came in and ran.

"… ?!"

"Park Moon-dae, you… ?"

What are you surprised at?

I smiled and crossed my arms.

because you've been studying

* * *

Around the time Testa was watching the main broadcast together.

Fans were also laughing while watching the introduction of episode 4, looking forward to the members' reactions.

In particular, the member who is famous for having the biggest gap between the ghost reaction and the usual one!

-I'm really looking forward to Park Moondae

Hahahah

[Lee Se-jin: … Wouldn’t it be more fun for our PD and writers to go in together?]

[Bae Se-jin: Yes.]

[Cha Yu-jin: That’s right! Everyone, try it!]

It didn’t even work.

[Kim Rae-bin: If so! I believe you planned it as a course for at least several people to enter together!] -It’s the first time I’ve seen Kim Rae-bin talk like that forcibly

-My child wasn’t a rabbit in the Middle Ages, he just became a rabbit

[PD: Huh? There’s nothing special about that in the plan… Aye, if Testa wants it, of course! Let’s go as a team~]

[Rabin Kim: Thank you.]

[Sejin Lee: I love you.]

[PD: But aren’t you too offended by the < Happy Trip > team? uh? You chose a course that was too tasteful!]

At the PD’s words, the members’ heads turned and turned to the two people who were the culprits. Ryu Cheong-wu smiled a little apologetically, and Sun Ah-hyun’s face reddened.

But it can’t be tampered with. Then came words like whispers from the devil.

[PD: Should each team go in alone?]

[Testa: Wait a minute!]

[This is… ✿❀Beautiful friendship?❀✿]

But it didn’t work.

Not because of friendship, of course.

[Cha Yu-jin: Those hyungs aren’t surprised anyway!]

[Bae Se-jin: That’s right, so… If we just disperse the staff, we have to lose.]

[Lee Se-jin: That’s right, that’s right. This is to wear one at a time!]

Two strong hearts without reactions.

It was an instinctive reaction that he could not throw away that sense of security totem.

-ㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

You can’t send the kids who are not the most scared from the team

-Do Sejin suddenly fit well

[Ryu Cheong-woo Team: Lee Se-jin Cha Yoo-jin Park Moon-dae]

[Seon Ah-hyun Team: Bae Se-jin Kim Rae-bin]

– The Jjolboz are back!!

-Ah, I’m so embarrassed just looking at the roster for the first team!

-It’s already fun Guys,

as the most timid guys rushed in, thinking that it was a multi-person team, people were excited and let their imaginations run wild.

however.

[Park Moon-dae: (bowing)]

-???

Moondae Park, a member of the Core of Jjoolbo… Are you fine?

-Mother,

Park Moon-dae calmly and calmly let go of all kinds of strange phenomena and the appearance of employees with an expression of ‘mountain is mountain and water is water’. And walking down the hallway.

-I’m not a kid like this

-What kind of Cheongsim pill did you take

? -Certainly timidity was a character?? Did you decide to stop doing concepts today?

while viewers are shocked.

In an instant, the video changes to an interview screen.

And the answer comes out.

[Park Moon-dae: I prepared.]

The calm guy said triumphantly.

Viewers were more perplexed.

-No, what did you do?

-Did you have a special lecture on horror?

With all kinds of dog dripping comments, the screen went back and illuminated Park Moon-dae’s hotel room the day before.

[…] … Um.]

Park Moon-dae was lying on the bed, looking intently at the tablet PC.

It’s all sorts of horror websites. It seemed like he was checking hard while wriggling his eyebrows from time to time… .

More interview comments than expected came out.

[Park Moon-dae: I searched and checked the websites and Witube of famous horror sites in the UK.]

– No

– That much

– How much do you hate the great king

?

But the words did not end there.

[Park Moon-dae: But then, the employee’s Vlog is recommended.]

-??

– Wait

– Vlog?

Yes.

Just like the vlogs of amusement park staff, personal vlogs by horror attraction staff also existed.

[Park Moon-dae: But in that Vlog, his SNS account came up again… .]

… I mean, after wandering the web like that, I ended up seeing an employee’s 10-year-old daughter’s birthday party and wonderful vacation plans.

On the screen, the warm SNS screen of the employee who was allowed passed brightly.

[Park Moon-dae: So, I found out that the employee who plays the bed ghost is planning to spend a wonderful vacation at the beach in Spain.] [Park Moon-dae: (thumbs up)] Then the screen returns to the horror attraction.

[Ahh!]

But this time, an in-heart filter was put on the bed ghost, and warm BGM played.

It was the prediction of Park Moon-dae's view.

-yes????

-
Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

_

_ After preparing too much, the ghost reached the point where it seemed to be a member of the modern society who lived hard in reality.

[Cheering for the holiday of the bed ghost staff. by all production crew]

With that subtitle, Moondae Park proceeded with the first attraction again with great courage.

[Preparation success!]

And I was able to finish the attraction by closing the door like an improved general from the back of the team.

None of the members on the screen noticed this situation and just took care of Park Moon-dae… .

It was the perfect crime.

– Crazy.

-Yes, our Mundaengdaeng is brave and strong. He is not afraid of any ghosts. He is so cool.

On the contrary, it had a small adverse effect of being cute.

… if it ended here.

However, the screen that evenly illuminated the other members once again illuminated Park Moon-dae.

[Park Moon-dae's ambitious plan was successful on the second day.]

[However]

The subtitles change cheerfully.

[Actually, I didn't have to!]

An attraction where you can survive in a fog-filled, silent cemetery where a spooky ghoul happened on the second day.

this statement came out.

[Lee Se-jin: Oh, I use that exemption ticket~!]

[Cha Yu-jin: I use it too!]

The two of them, who had the most impressive horror experience reaction after Park Moon-dae, boldly used the 'experience exemption ticket' with a smile.

[Park Moon-dae: … !!]

[↑The person who boasted that he would not use it]

Park Moon-dae quickly got the team leader.

[Park Moon-dae: Didn’t Cha Yoo-jin say you don’t avoid things like this?]

[Cha Yu-jin: I don’t avoid it! But I want to do that!]

Yes.

The content of this horror experience exemption was a zombie hunt.

[Cha Yoo-jin: My brother also uses an exemption ticket! Come with me!]

[Park Moon-dae: (Struggling moaning of rejection)]

[Cha Yu-jin: Oh… .]

Cha Yoo-jin was very disappointed, but he and Lee Se-jin excitedly disappeared anyway to catch zombies.

-ㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋ

So -jin -like selection-

but that looks so funny.

– If you do well, Park Moon-dae will do it alone?

Of course, the content didn’t break down like that.

[Kim Rae-bin: I will not write! This is because as the number of people decreases, you have to deal with fear alone, and there are physical limitations in giving viewers a different kind of pleasure.]

[↑ Adult gentleman type]

-Chun Won-gum, who said that Park Moon-dae served Kim Rae-bin late-night snack -This is why you love Rabin-

Completion of understanding

The remaining testa disappeared after being sucked into a cemetery-type attraction to spontaneously experience horror content… .

Anyway, Park Moon-dae did well here as well.

When the two members who screamed the loudest disappeared, it felt like a serious chase, so it was fun to have another sense of excitement.

-Ah, but I tried hard.

-The kids are quite calm here hahaha

-Wow what is Ryu Chung-woo Why do I have to feel cool here;;

The last day after such a fruitful two days.

Anyway, this time, Mundae Park triumphantly appeared in front of the filming crew, but heard unexpected news.

[Ryu Chung-woo: Ah, because they said it was more difficult in the UK due to schedule.]

[Park Moon-dae: ????]

[Ryu Cheong-woo: I took the last attraction to the next country.]

[Park Moon-dae: … !!!!!]

What that means.

It means that all of his preparations will be useless… !

– Ha ha ha

Still, Park Moon-dae succeeds in his revenge from next week.

Because the healing course created by his team 〈I will do what we want to do〉 has finally aired!

Chapter 421

If you can't debut, you'll die from a disease. Episode 421,

Moondae Park, received a lot of attention for a week after the airing of episode 4, which was a way to prepare for the horror experience.

As predicted, he embraced the fate of the laugh button in the group.

'me. Indeed,

there was even a fan who threw a ghost doll at himself at the concert.

-It's over Mr. Seon (video)

After becoming quite controversial on social media, that kind of behavior disappeared, but it meant that the impression of entertainment was clear.

A coward who wants to make fun of me.

– On the way home from Doll Island, the eldest brothers stroke Park Moon-dae's hair (GIF)

-Dog stepped on a scary doll and hardened like a puppy wearing shoes ㅋㅋㅋㅋ (Photo)

Of course, that was also the end of the week.

'of course.'

Even if he doesn't mind ghosts, he doesn't mind all other thrilling situations.

next tuesday.

[Experience the great white shark cage]

Inside the cage that has sunk to the bottom of the sea.

Amidst the screaming members of Testa, dressed in snorkeling gear, move like a mime.

Park Moon-dae stands still.

Anyone who sees it will know that it is flat.

-Hul

-That’s right

. And show interest with your hand on your chin. It means that he is quietly enjoying the subject of watching a great white shark trapped in a steel cage on the sea floor.

[↑ Since then, he has been extremely interested]

-Wow, Tibet

Park Moon-dae recovered his dignity in one shot!

The interesting thing is that Moondae Park wasn’t the only one who was interested.

After a few minutes of group fuss.

[(Gyaaaaagh!)]

[Raebin Kim: (It’s a surprisingly delicate creature!)]

[Sejin Bae: (I don’t understand what it means)]

[Raebin Kim: (You don’t agree! It could be!)]

[Sejin Bae: (Still unknown)]

Surprisingly, despite its terrifying name, the great white shark cage experience was well received by most of the members.

It's stable enough to be commercialized, and it's already been accepted as fun because the fear threshold has already increased as much as it rises through the horror experience.

Besides, it was definitely a strange and unique experience.

The course of the < I will do what I want > team was no different from a healing success.

-After all, it was a broadcast and it was a nabal, so doing what you wanted was the best hahaha

Although the team members of this team were extremely conscious of the broadcast, they were items chosen, but the team leader was right in that comment.

[Cha Yoo-jin: Moon Dae-hyung and I got along!]

Cha Yoo-jin grinned in the cut of the interview.

… Although Park Mun-dae passed by behind him, accepting everything Cha Yu-jin threw under the name of 'two', anyway, the two of them were a team.

[Cha Yoo-jin: Teamwork is the best!]

And Park Moon-dae takes a picture of a two-shot between Sun Ah-hyun and the shark, and relieves the sense of betrayal to some extent.

[Seon Ah-hyun: (Like this?)]

[Park Moon-dae: (Good)]

And on the jungle speedboat that followed, he showed great collaboration with Ryu Chung-woo and cleared up the sediment (by himself).

Finally, to the zip line over the cliff.

[Cha Yoo-jin: Whoa-whoa!!!]

It was extremely exciting, but everyone else had fun, so I didn't cross the line of pain. And Kim Rae-bin's full course, which continued one after another, soothed all the regrets of fans who expected healing.

-Maknae is the best

-Our bunny Aaaaaaah How can you be so good at filial piety ? Kim Rae-bin beat Munge and became the mascot of Healing.

[Munge: (See Sipper! Brothers, hurry up and come to Korea!)] The healing variety show ended in a really healing way, with the outdoor cut of a wonderful starry night waving while having a video call with Munge who returned from Indonesia to Korea.

8 episodes in total. It was short and intense self-content.

– It was really good!

– At the end, they were so happy that they even took care of what we wanted to see, so it was perfect.

And the Chilean fans got an unexpected win.

-Testa went to enjoy the beautiful scenery and traditional food of Chile! "True satisfaction"

– only Chile won (smiley emoticon)

though it was a bit of a disappointment.

-Healing (Shyly rocking the 3 nights 4 days tough Torres del Paine trekking course

And all of this happened when Testa properly digested variety shows.

Happy viewers and fans' impressions.

Park Moon-dae was lying on the bed I took down my smartphone.

I had already deleted the horror preparation account that seemed like I had just built it to show on the air.

Instead, the name of the account for monitoring that I changed regularly shone from the top.

-Ah, this entertainment was so good, it filled the tour void well. … To be honest ,

I'm so amazed and thankful that I haven't lost my original intention with each content -I really want to like it for the rest of my life, Testa

, let's keep going like this♡

It felt right once.

The certainty and realization that he had returned.

"……Huh."

He put down his smartphone.

The end of the tour.

He was able to sleep deeply without having nightmares about waking up in that ambiguous space of a system that only consisted of skeletons after a long time. It was a complete return to the orbit of Testara.

And Park Moon-dae made a decision the next day.

I agreed with the company and the members saying ‘Let’s prepare an album’, but there was something I wanted to do first.

” It’s a big moon.”

[Uh bro! Are you able to contact me right now? What’s going on?]

” …There

‘s a place

I’d like you to go to.

” “” was made quite loudly.

It was because it was a long time since it was difficult to schedule a domestic schedule because I was filming entertainment during the tour.

However, the steps after entering the country were carried out quietly.

After spending a few days doing some undisclosed schedules, today.

I packed my clothes. Put on and left the room.

“Are you going today?”

“Yes.”

“Good-bye.”

Tuk. I didn’t bother to resist the big Sejin who lightly tapped my back. Instead, I bumped the back of my hand into a fist once and continued walking

. I can’t mobilize a car, and even less public transportation.

Because my body can’t drive. recruited one more person.

“Are you going from the officetel?”

“okay.”

It is Liu Qingyu with a license and a car.

The SUV he bought right before the tour came in handy when camping.

“thanks.”

“What are you doing with this?”

Ryu Cheong-wu, who was happy to reward the schedule-free days, took the steering wheel.

“I’ll leave.”

And after spending a long time on the road after burning a large moon at the officetel, I arrived at my destination.

“… hello.”

It was a very old grave.

I approached a glass cabinet that filled one wall and saw white ceramics beyond just one of them.

It is an ashes.

A few photos around the simple composition with the name written on it.

“… … .”

Money is money to run a store, and I was underage, so there was nothing I could do properly.

So, when I came to my senses, it ended with the cremation and the burial in the charnel house.

I didn't choose the seat, the view was too high… I'm fine now.

I lightly wiped the glass.

"hello."

The big moon, who has now become Ryu Gun-woo, opened his mouth and bowed his head toward the charnel house.

It was a thank you.

I raised my hand to open the glass and put the bouquet I had bought into it.

space is tight Enough to crumple the bouquet.

"If it's okay, I'd like to move to a wider location."

"… … yes yes?"

yes you are right

I laughed lightly.

"The place of the urn. Since I can't do it, please sign me. Of course, I will pay for it."

"… ! Of course… No, you don't have to pay."

"No, I have to."

If you don't give it to me, aren't you ripping me off?

And if I don't pay, it won't seem like I really did it.

I pulled down my hat.

It’s not even a weekday holiday, so there are few people. If you get caught though, you will be in trouble.

‘There are too many three.’

The fact that rumors will spread that you came to the charnel house of your friend’s parents is a bit… It feels strange, though.

‘It doesn’t matter.’

I raised my head and took out the bouquet and disassembled it. No matter what kind of embalming it was done, it was almost undamaged. Just take out a few flowers and put them in a glass case and close it.

widely.

It didn’t look bad.

It was the moment when he turned his head to Liu Cheng-wu to say that he would stay a little longer.

“… !”

you… Are you crying?

“brother.”

“ah… I’m sorry for some reason.”

“… … .”

yes.

He is also a relative. That’s our parents.

I inadvertently looked at the white ashes and thought.

‘… That’s how it happened.’

I don’t really think my parents will be here.

Because I can still see it

‘I’m living well, so don’t worry. … I’m sorry that the body you gave me has changed. But he’s also living well.’

I hope it will be extenuating circumstances by bringing Ryu Gun-woo, who is fine on the inside or on the outside. I smiled faintly.

After wiping the water off his face, Liu Qingyu also seemed to stand calmly again.

sunny interior.

I stood in front of the charnel house for quite some time in the quiet morning.

* * *

After changing the location of the urn to a better place, the way back was quiet, but not uncomfortable. But I couldn’t help but ask this story.

“Your parents.”

Big moon slightly shook his shoulders.

“Ah… you are at the sea. You said you wanted to do that before… … .”

“… okay.”

Considering the environment of this guy, there was no cost to enshrine it in the charnel house, so a suspicion that it might have been caused by the person concerned, but stopped.

When you have to think about such useless thoughts… .

“When the time comes, how about we go together?”

“ah… .”

“far?”

“Oh well. It’s reinforced, but… .”

I thought so.

“Then you take the weekend off.”

“omg! are you okay. You must be busy again now… .”

“Then do you want to go today?”

“… !”

The above is not what I said.

“Today is the time. let’s go. I will give you a ride.”

Those are the words from Ryu Cheng-wu in the driver’s seat.

And after several persuasion, the destination was finally decided.

“thanks.”

“No, I will also see the sea after a long time.”

The guy I saw a month ago while filming a variety show speaks well. So I stopped by Ganghwa Island for a short time along the way.

Hui Ik –

The season that summer is almost over.

The beach was not without people at all, but it was still quiet.

Thanks to this, big moon could sit on a beach bench and watch the sea as long as he wanted.

“… … .”

I sat down on the bench next to him without saying a word. I knew there was no need to talk.

And Liu Qingyu politely lowered his voice.

“I’ll go and buy something for a while.”

What about a guy who even drove?”

However, the guy didn’t listen to the answer and turned around and started going to the mall with his back to the beach.

‘I am.’

He was consistent in many ways. It was then.

It was then.

The sea breeze is blowing behind him… .

no wonder. I thought that this cut in my field of vision was like a familiar scene.

And I realized right away.

‘ah.’

That guy… I came to Ganghwa Island in a variety show filmed during Steer.

A new variety show that just started on the airwaves, it didn’t do very well.

-Oh~ As expected, the national representative!

‘This reminds me so clearly.’

Memories recovered by destroying the system settled in my head as well as they were.

That's why it's not a grotesque shape that usually pops out of nowhere, but once in a while it naturally reminds me of it.

'Come to think of it, it's a more unusual situation.'

I was on a team with an idol I recognized before, but we were even related.

I didn't realize it right away because I lived as a testa for so long, but this… I feel a bit strange.

It means that we became interfering with the target we knew one-sidedly and spent quite a long time together.

Ryu Cheng-wu and the others.

"… … ."

I put my head on the bench.

It was then.

"Park Moon-dae… ?"

"… !"

"It's a real Park Moondae."

The time has finally come. it took

Two high school students who ran to the beach, perhaps for fun, take out their smartphones with excited faces.

"Look at that picture!"

"Me too!"

“yes. wait a minute.”

what is this

I lowered my mask and looked at the lenses of their smartphones alternately.

Then, Moondae Park’s face is reflected on the screen.

with my parents… Well, there’s no way it’s similar.

“thank you!”

“No, I am.”

done.

It’s been a few years, so let’s not fall into unnecessary sentimentality.

‘That bastard system isn’t helpful.’

I must have had wind in my head because that bastard imitated someone else’s parents as some kind of Antarctic researcher. ‘If you knew this much, you would be holding your thumbs up even in the ashes, regardless of whether or not your face resembles them, but what?’

“Oh ah, go in well !!”

“yes.”

After nodding at the returning high school students, I turned my head away while internally clicking my tongue.

what is this now… for a moment.

“ah.”

However, when I turned my head again, the afterimage-like hologram window disappeared.

I inhaled.

What is this?

‘… … Status window.’

It was the same even when I called up the status window and opened it all up.

There is no such thing as an emergency pop-up.

“… … .”

“brother?”

“no.”

As soon as the high school students leave, Big Moon talks to them from the bench next to them.

I asked hastily.

“Have you seen it?”

“… ?? Are they them? Did you take the picture?”

I checked my face. There is no sign that he is bewildered but slightly nervous.

truth.

I slowly opened my mouth again.

“… okay. I took a picture for you.”

“yes… . Yes?”

I loosened my shoulders.

I don’t know who is the best at detecting status window abnormalities, so how could something like that pop up on me all of a sudden?

‘I guess I’m a little tasteless.’

Maybe it’s because I’m suffering so much that I’m even hallucinating.

I clicked my tongue and corrected my posture.

“I bought ice cream, would you like to eat one?”

“Oh, thank you!”

Not long after, Liu Cheng-wu returned and I decided to eat ice cream to cool my head. I wondered if I had eaten the heat.

But the shocking news wasn’t over yet.

“And I just got a call from the company.”

“company?”

“Yeah. He says he has something to talk about.”

And Liu Cheng-wu continued talking as if he couldn’t understand.

“… You want to postpone the album?”

Chapter 422

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 422

I row when the water comes in.

There is no place where this formula does not work in any field where money is made, but it is especially true in the entertainment industry.

Even if you bring the same thing, don't you think it's going to be popular or not depending on the trend?

But right now, when the tide is pouring into entertainment, the company insists on delaying the album that the affiliated label will plan and release on its own?

"Shiryu? It's important. However, Testa is now past the level where it is eager to become a topic. He is a top idol in name and reality."

"… … ."

"Come to think of it, I heard that the former director forced Testa to recklessly self-produce their debut album in a month, and they suffered a lot."

"yes."

And that's a big hit.

I looked at the director of the company who was talking with a thin face.

It's quite interesting to see another guy suddenly call someone and shake his mouth instead of the head of the division, which he messed up once while independent from the label.

“At that time, it was important to debut quickly and take the impact of broadcasting in time, but now Testa is a brand in itself.”

uh.

“That’s why I thought that raising the detail by paying more attention to each album’s quality would be a move that suits the testa level.”

The director intelligently recommended it, and Kim Rae-bin raised his hand at once.

“But the current plan is not too tight compared to the past.”

Director shrugged at the remarks of a workaholic who produced a movie OST draft within a week.

I guess you already guessed.

“But if you have enough time, you can make up for it. Can you discover and develop additional points?”

“hmm… It is!”

Kim Rae-bin immediately agrees with the reasonable remark. Cha Yoo-jin almost looked at Kim Rae-bin with a dynamic eye.

In any case, the Director, who has overcome one difficulty, continues his speech in a calmer and more polite manner.

“Of course, if our testers say they are releasing an album right now, the company will do their best to support it.”

is it?

“It’s just an opinion about whether this one fits better.”

“Is that the director’s judgment?”

“Well, actually, it was a story that came out at the end of a discussion at a company mid-term meeting. The CEO himself agreed.”

oh. Blame others.

Since the general manager had the experience of being beaten up when Testa became independent of the label, this guy doesn’t roll his tongue at us the way he does to people below him.

It comes off like a formal, polite business partner. It’s like a card to convince investors.

“Anyway, the testers are the most iconic and highest-grossing artists of this company. This is something we have been thinking a lot about.”

“thank you.”

“Thank you. Of course, that’s the agency’s job.”

It is to tremble once and present a new plan in earnest like this.

“Of course, I’m not saying that we should abandon the popularity of entertainment. There was a proposal to transmit Testa’s performance tour live on the airwaves, and I’m thinking of doing this.”

The director explained the plan quite convincingly, perhaps because he was originally from the entertainment industry.

Members listened to it seriously.

The atmosphere wasn’t bad.

“First of all, thank you very much for the kind words. Would it be all right if the members talk a little more?”

“Sure.”

At Liu Chengyu’s words, the director obediently let us go. It’s like making a decision with ease.

So, after returning to the dorm, the atmosphere became like this.

“… I don’t think it was something to be called so urgently.”

“I am grateful that you are seriously thinking about the quality of the newly released album, but I think I have been working with enough support lately!”

The one who muttered suspiciously and the one who took it in good faith. And both of them are puzzled that a high-ranking person called them.

However, the guy who grasped the situation smiled bitterly from the side.

“Ah~ I want to give less now.”

“what?”

“It’s an album. Paying for that is all an investment.”

Yes, this is the core of the company’s story.

– I won’t release an album.

Sejin Bae raises his eyebrows at Sejin’s calm words.

“… This company has a lot of money.”

“Well, even if it’s not necessarily money… Good manpower or promotional ideas are limited, right? That’s it~”

The moment the question mark on Bae Se-jin’s face turns into an exclamation mark.

I came to a conclusion

“It is more beneficial for the company to invest in raising the weight level of groups that have a lot left in their contracts while we just run tours.”

“… … !!”

my eyes will pop out

No, looking at it again, not only Bae Se-jin, but also Kim Rae-bin and Sun Ah-hyun have similar expressions.

“Then, if we go on like this… .”

“yes.”

This is the reality of a first-team idol whose contract period is just around the corner.

“From now on, we will start going towards maximizing the spending power of the fans we have collected rather than making a new album.”

“… !”

“The album… Will you give me a report on the nuances of contract renewal early next year?”

It is rather fortunate that there is no contract for an album in Japan. Or it would have rolled only on that side.

Bae Se-jin’s face cooled.

“… I don’t understand, but we also set up a label… … If you renew the contract, you will stay there, so why are you doing that? No, what if we renew the contract right away?”

That doesn’t work. There is a defect in the terms of the contract.

Originally, the one who bows down and enters first suffers a loss.

Besides, if the conditions are good, it is a problem as it is good. Big Sejin shakes his head and opens his mouth.

“Ay, if you renew the contract, you usually adjust the ratio so that the artist is paid more~ From the company’s point of view, so… Your return on investment is going down!”

“… !!”

yes. Because the better the singer’s income is, the more the company loses.

Besides, there are more practical problems.

“Even if you exclude that, I think you will still be pushed out of the album investment.”

“why??”

I conceded.

a painful reality.

“We are also going to the army.”

“… … .”

Because V-tic is not that future.

Because we debuted older than them. Still, you can try rubbing it for a few more years.

I waited for the person I had to go first to digest the shock before continuing.

“And from the point of view of raising the original company, Rising investment looks more attractive than a group that has already been launched.”

“… okay?”

“yes. Shareholders like it when there is a new business with good prospects. The superiors also feel competent and like it.”

In particular, it will be more so for the board of directors, who have been blown away by the head of the division now suffering from a business disease.

I even signed a contract with Testa telling the company to stop interfering with me because I will make money, so as soon as more juniors become popular, Testa becomes a cash cow.

in conclusion.

-From a business point of view, I want to raise a new group with the money from Testa!

“Whoa… .”

“Oh, take a deep breath.”

Bae Se-jin’s face went red and blue, but he managed to calm down.

I must also give you the good news.

“But hyung, I think you can finally do acting in earnest.”

Instead of an album, I’ll spread it out with individual activities.

I raised both fists and cheered.

“go for it.”

“I already did my best… … !”

Bae Se-jin gloomily burrows into the sofa while mumbling four psychopaths in a row. It seems that the acting experience that I had in the fake world of the system is nowhere to be found.

Liu Cheng-wu smiled as if he was a little embarrassed and suggested it.

“But you said you wouldn’t stop us from releasing an album, so shall we prepare?”

“It seems like it will be given without stopping it, but the schedule will continue to be delayed and postponed due to the company’s sudden circumstances.”

“… … .”

Even if affiliated labels do their own independent planning, in the end, the release schedule is set by the company.

‘There are many excuses.’

Whether it overlaps with other artists in the company or the timing is bad… .

Then, if you’re lucky, you can barely pay one before renewing the contract, and even that promotion is a bit meager… Isn’t there such a typical route?

“Actually, I expected this far.”

Since season is season, I expected this development from the moment I heard that these bastards wanted to postpone the album.

But there is one more.

“That’s why you don’t talk until the end.”

I chuckled. Kim Rae-bin, who opened his mouth as if denying the world and had a blank expression, asked in disbelief.

“also… Are you there?”

“uh.”

I brought my laptop from my room. A few people are chasing after me, but I don’t need to do this, so why are you doing this?

Anyway, I brought up the file on the screen and opened it.

“This is our company T1 Stars’ plan for the fourth quarter of this year.”

“No, Mundaemundae, where do you get something like this?”

“It was announced at the shareholders’ meeting.”

All you need is an employee's contact information with access to the company's archives.

anyway.

"If you look at the monthly plan there… Yes October."

Originally, it was right in the section where we were releasing the album this time.

"… !!"

"this."

I nodded.

"It's a spacer."

[Mid-October – Release of Spacer's 1st regular album / Target to increase overseas sales]

That's right. It was to prevent Testa from preying on the existing spacer album release plan.

This is not the end.

"Then, how are these paintings connected… ."

I said, shaking my hand off the mouse.

"You remember earlier that we had our album aired instead of a comeback."

"Yes."

"It will definitely sound different when it materializes."

Well, broadcasting the entire concert is difficult considering the copyright or VOD sales rate, so let's just do some stages.

… And anyway, let’s fill the free time with another group instead.

For example, this agency’s rookie male group.

spacer.

“We’re going to expand the broadcasting of our performance into the second special feature of the agency, put them in, and make a comeback with that buzz.”

“… !!”

In a word, tying is the start of a generational shift in which fans expect to switch to spacers during our hiatus.

At that moment, Bae Se-jin, who came to his senses, shouted out loud.

“Wait a minute, Park Moon-dae, you said last time that the company wouldn’t do something like a generation change yet… ! Because we will renew the contract!”

“Yeah, I thought it would.”

“… … “

… I thought I wouldn’t try this even if it was a waste of the goose that lays the golden eggs since I had built a friendly relationship well.

It seems that they have become independent as a label so that they cannot get involved, and they are slowly losing their strength and dissatisfaction is building up.

‘These bastards are daring to make transfers.’

And so blatantly.

“Ooh!”

“… Isn’t this against the principle of good faith? I think I can argue, but how can I press… … .”

“hmm. I think it will be difficult.”

Bae Se-jin also tried to make the president of the actor’s agency plaster the dead, and it seems that the options have widened a lot.

But it’s hard to have a dispute with the company over this.

“… then?”

“It just puts out the album late. Because of priorities.”

In fact, it means that wherever you go, it is a natural flow for an agency that nurtures rookies. In particular, this agency is not evil.

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin sat down on the sofa again with a sunken face. Even those around him smile bitterly and gain one word at a time.

“It is difficult.”

“Iknow, right.”

“… I didn’t know that I would be worried like this after having such a supernatural experience.”

“Even heroes who save the world have their own issues. We can win again!”

Cha Yu-jin shrugs.

It may be disillusioned that only the pups who want to take advantage after having succeeded after hard work may be disillusioned, but isn’t capitalism originally like that?

As expected, the atmosphere was a little better at the neat remarks of a guy from the country, the capital of capitalism.

“Okay again… The number will come out.”

“That’s right, we have Mundae.”

“… ?”

If anyone sees me, they’ll think I’m a goblin’s bat.

Of course, I wanted to refrain from releasing a new album until next year. Raising the quality of the album isn’t bad, but… Isn’t that what these bastards are for?

As if harvesting, they are going to consume all the fans they have and suck only the honeydew.

‘These idiots only pay for it, but they mistakenly believe that they floated it.’

It was time to click my tongue.

“excuse me.”

“hmm?”

Seon Ah-hyun raised her hand. And say it pretty emphatically.

“Shouldn’t we do better than those spacers?”

“… !”

“Oh oh.”

“I… If we do better and show a great stage in the live performance. that. The company might change their mind too. Because it doesn’t work… !”

It’s a pretty radical remark for what Sun Ah-hyun did, but it was standard. It is also the method we have used in the past.

In a head-to-head match, just remove the rank insignia and stick together and smash it.

But this time the case is a bit different.

“The spacer will benefit, though.”

The reason is simple.

‘Because they’re not in the same weight class in the first place.’

stick with the dog?

It goes without saying that we do better. This is just a situation where you have to be overwhelmingly good at it.

Conversely, since they are in the same agency, they can receive the halo effect of being ‘direct subordinates of a group that is good at it’ and can meet other demands.

“Um… .”

“That’s right. sorry… .”

“Oh no~ But it was a cool and cool way.”

“that’s right! That’s cool!”

“okay.”

While Seon Ah-hyun is encouraged, Ryu Cheong-woo directly asks the members.

“Then do you really want to refuse to broadcast live performances?”

“hmm.”

Surprisingly, there are quite a few people who agonize over whether they even consider such a radical option because they are pissed off.

But not everyone is like that.

“for a moment! Our thoughts are too focused on one side right now. Shall we talk after thinking about each other a little more? It’s an album, you just have to keep preparing~”

“Ah, that’s right.”

You hung up when you needed it.

As soon as our eyes met, Keun Se-jin shook his head slightly as if he had no answer, but he communicated well anyway.

Because the meeting ended there.

“Let’s get some rest.”

“yes.”

Each member left with a look deep in thought… .

“hmm.”

I just sat there, put my chin on my chin, and called.

The cleanest way to do it without any other conflicts here. In fact, there are.

‘Elimination of substitute goods.’

That means sending spacers.

How to clear the option so that you have no choice but to invest in Testa.

-… … .

“… … .”

-… that brother Shall I write a wish ticket now? Should I write it!?

“No. Save it.”

Spacer Kwon Hee-seung’s long sigh of relief can be heard over the speaker.

I’m calling to ask if this guy knows about the live concert appearance, but he’s quick to notice.

‘… I owe something to this guy.’

Come to think of it, it would be right to take a longer-term view.

In the future, this agency will catch all the groups that came out through survival programs on Tnet, so even if it’s not a spacer, there are many investment options.

‘I’ll have to approach it in a different direction.’

I concluded that

And in the meantime, the agency started to show the schedule more and more as expected.

“I heard you plan to add a tour schedule?”

This was the first step.

Chapter 423

Episode 423

Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth with a nervous face.

“Summarizing, when our performance is broadcast live, demand is expected to increase due to the publicity effect, so the company is doing a kind of encore tour to match it. Is it true that you are planning an additional concert?”

“okay.”

“But this is all a planned path and somehow to convince us to continue the tour without backlash… Is it a conspiracy?”

“Similar.”

It’s not even a conspiracy, it’s just a gimmick.

Then, Kim Rae-bin looked vain as if he had realized that his company was a global drug smuggling organization.

I got it anyway.

“Wouldn’t the fans be suspicious too? If we keep not releasing our album like this.”

“Even if fans doubt it, public opinion won’t be formed because the public doesn’t know.”

In fact, I think there is a high probability that even fans who enjoy content lightly will not go there.

Just looking at Testa, not releasing an album is because it makes no sense in terms of the market economy. I just want to be late because I filled the album with my own songs.

“It’s not because we haven’t been together for a long time, and it’s not because the results of our last album were bad.”

“… I see If we were to count, it only took four years.”

In fact, objectively, Testa has just received the grand prize and is in the beginning of its heyday as a first-team idol in name and reality.

Big Sejin smiled bitterly.

“But it can’t be helped because it’s a 5-year contract instead of a 7-year contract~”

Yes.

The problem is that deformed 5-year contract and… .

‘The point is that it’s an agency affiliated with a broadcasting station that can produce endlessly worthy rookie groups through survival programs.’

I made a label to prevent them from stealing the planning staff, but in a situation where they don’t schedule their activities, everyone sighs.

“Still, it’s a bit like a random tour like this.”

“I love that show! But you can’t lose. We boycott the tour now.”

“Isn’t the boycott a bit strange from the point of view of doing it? Still, it’s our meeting.”

“If I say no because I just don’t want to… can’t it… ?”

Protest not to tour.

I touched my chin and predicted a future where it would become a reality.

[Famous male idol group… “They don’t have concerts.” The meeting room goes wild]

-Who is it?

-Slight initial consonants.

-It’s a rumor, but if it’s true, isn’t it?

“Because he is uncooperative, I think he has low intention to renew the contract, so I think he will try to lower the ransom and hit the media.”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin’s expression turned grotesque, probably because of a bad memory.

“I know.”

okay. At the beginning of my debut, I saw examples of former agencies like Ne X and scraped some information. Those bastards are a little unusual, but it’s rare to not do it at all.

Anyway, so we decided to wait for the right time without rejecting the live broadcast concert.

“The album preparations are continuing.”

“okay.”

And as expected, the broadcast changed at some point to distributing part of the set list to guests rather than our Tong concert.

“These kids are really… .”

“As expected, Moondae is a pair of tweezers~”

Moreover, using the language of ‘appearance of a junior from an agency on a secondary stage’, it was assigned in a clever style that didn’t call it a concert by an agency like last time.

The title is that the testa performance was correct.

‘It seems like he wants to use the whole topicality of Testa.’

If you’re not annoyed, you’re not human, but it’s ambiguous to deny it.

Since there are all those who have a stake in the concert, such as broadcasting companies and investors, if they are dragged into copyright issues, only our angry image is accumulated for no reason.

‘I have to aim for one shot.’

Before that, I’ll have to lower my body a bit and go out there saying I’m not quite sure of the whole picture of how things are going.

“Let’s practice.”

“of course. Now, everyone, let’s start with the angle of our feet again.”

And while we were refining the concert stage for broadcasting… . I got an unexpected phone call from a company official.

from juniors.

But it wasn’t a spacer.

– Hello, senior!

Mirinae Park Min-ha is the idol who came in second place on Azusa.

The purpose was ‘inquiries related to the auxiliary stage’, but when I answered the phone, he said something else.

-I… .

“yes.”

-Senior, I have something to tell you. No, sorry for taking up your time. Can I take your time?… … ?! no sleep

“yes.”

But why are you so flustered again?

“I don’t think I’m taking up time, so feel free to get down to business.”

-… ! Yes, no different… .

Mirinae hit the point right away.

-if… Is there any way to move other groups in the company to your label?

“… !”

I called it ‘another group’, but in fact, there is only one group that juniors will ask about.

themselves.

“Are you saying this in advance?”

-… Swing. Including us. Since it’s basically the same company, I was wondering if there was a way to change the affiliation even if the ratio and things like that remained the same… .

Yes.

‘But you should ask the label representative, why are you asking me?’

As expected, I was a little nervous because I thought it was too strong to say that I would be appearing as a label at the awards ceremony, but I told a common sense story for now.

“It would have to be a condition when renewing the contract. But isn’t Mirinae’s contract renewed with an opponent who still has more than a year or two left?”

-ah. hmm.

The voice is slightly lowered and hesitant.

‘hmm.’

Is this maybe?

I deliberately asked outright.

“Are there any other problems now?”

-That’s true… .

take a deep breath

-The album… I think it will push a lot.

“… … .”

– Our staff has been out a lot recently due to personnel reorganization.

yes.

“You didn’t quit, did you go to another team?”

-… … yes.

I get it roughly. However, our case is a bit different here.

-There is a group that will debut under this agency this time, right? People who debuted on the < Be My Girls > program.

“ah.”

What this junior said is Tnet's new survival program that has just ended. That broadcasting station couldn't give up the taste of idol survival.

It didn't have the same ripple effect and topic as Azusa, but it managed to do well overseas and thanks to that, it secured a basic fan base.

And according to the internet… .

[Survival program in which the final debut group is the best hope ever]

I read that the number of people interested in the debut group increased significantly as soon as the list was announced.

A rookie group with a clean fan base without the last image of < Azusa >? Maybe they're excited and they're attaching manpower.

And where did you get that manpower from?

I ripped off people who worked in the same field.

-The people we worked with went that way… The album production was in progress, but it stopped.

So, this is not a question of the renewal period at all.

When an attractive new business item appears, it is a situation where all the existing planning personnel are ripped off and attached to it.

There is no separation of labels here, so even if you take it all the time, it is difficult for a singer to defend it. It is a company employee from the beginning.

then.

'Perhaps this side also talked about additional tours.'

Among the guests included in our concert, there must have been Mirinae.

Here, while talking about the effect of publicity, we will set up a tour and save time and money until we hire new planning staff. Because it is a group with a good overseas fan base.

Even if you catch it in advance, you will not be notified in advance.

There aren't that many idols who welcome the fact that they'll only be on tour all year round.

Anyway, Mirinae 2nd place continued talking quite calmly.

-If it's an independent label, there are separate staff, so I thought it might be a little different from us… I was trying to ask what it was like.

It was an honest answer without a slight laugh. Apparently, he took the situation quite seriously.

'I think he guessed that we were in a similar situation.'

Even so, no matter how similar the situation is, I would be reluctant to talk about this to seniors in other groups.

'I admit the guts.'

Still, there is no way for you to change your affiliation now. Even if I know, I won't tell you.

"Even if it is independent, there is nothing special because it is affiliated in the end. And moving now… Actually, I am not an employee with such authority, so I don't know."

-… Ah yes! sorry. I told you so suddenly!

But before that, I came up with a pretty good idea.

After hearing this case, one thing became clear.

'After all, the company has its eyes on a new project that looks promising.'

“… … .”

Hmm worth thinking about.

Shall we cook some ground rice first?

-I should have organized my thoughts and contacted you, but I made a mistake in my first greeting and showed a bad side. I will be more careful in the future!

“it’s okay.”

Anyone who sees it will know that I am their boss. I held my breath and started to lay the ground rice.

“And the album.”

-… yes.

“Coming to think of it, I don’t think there’s a way to make ends meet without transferring to a label.”

-… … !

“Are you willing to cooperate? I can’t say it’s not dangerous at all.”

There is a brief silence on the other side of the phone, followed by a question.

– What kind of risk is it?

In fact, I mean, I’ll do it anyway.

I smiled and opened my mouth.

“The risk of losing the agency.”

“… ?!”

* * *

“Then Testa has been sorted out?”

“yes. We will proceed as it is without any special matters.”

T1 Stars’ largest meeting room.

Working-level staff attended the general meeting on Monday morning and talked busily.

To be precise, the time when the directors nod their heads every time they say a word, give a plausible answer, and expect time to pass quickly.

“As much as possible, we should go towards securing time zones rather than running time. is not it?”

“Yes yes it is… .”

This week’s topic is the story of planning the concert version 2 of the agency wearing the mask of this testa concert to be broadcast over the airwaves.

And there was talk about hiring for a while, but it disappeared… anyway.

A public relations staff member who seemed to be going crazy with boredom even though his eyes were wide open after many years of experience suddenly thought.

‘Come to think of it, why do you do this with airwaves and not Tnet?’

As soon as the word came out, this kind of broadcasting rights were ripped off from there.

The employee became more puzzled because he couldn’t come up with a particularly suitable answer, but he soon deleted it.

what do you know It was enough for him to receive his salary.

“Thank you for your hard work~”

“Everyone, let’s pay more attention this week, please.”

It’s only when you quietly come out of the meeting room, listening to what you hear every time, that you walk down the hallway with people of similar ranks and whisper.

“Then the spacer is on the line now, right?”

“Maybe that’s the case?”

Gossip about promotions and tensions between departments and teams.

“There’s been a lot of talk about how the label is supported by T1, so I honestly think that I don’t know what will happen… .”

“Ah, but the Orbit people’s faces are fine.”

“that’s right! Isn’t it obvious from the fact that the workplace is there or not? Usually, it is normal to say that I will die unconditionally.” Every time I met people from Testa’s label, ‘Orbit’, the staff’s mouths became busy as I remembered seeing them with nice faces and relaxed.

‘The planning is fun’, ‘High autonomy’, ‘The artist’s personality is good’, etc.

There is such a typical good job story, but there is also a malicious worry that my career will sink as it becomes an isolated island.

Maybe it’s because it’s complicated to go back to work now.

‘You don’t know who will rise and what will fail.’

Isn’t it the same to push a new group instead of the testa that is starting to get the best?

Ah, enter business!

Even when we sit down, we continue to exchange such stories through messengers.

-That Shiki has a nice face too– -Let's start evil haha

This is what the head of the management office said as he passed by.

That guy, who has always been in a position with the number of cases related to the Testa team, still has a slim face.

The staff thought indifferently.

Maybe Testa is like that too?

'Yes, I made a lot of money… Tour settlement money is no joke.'

I didn't know if it would be better if we made a comeback a little less often. They say that if you go on tour, you can go out to play on weekdays when there are no performances.

'No matter what, it's certain that he's a better seller than me.'

So let's work as much as we get paid. Only as much as we get paid!

The staff checked and refined Spacer's materials for press distribution once again.

Little did he know that around that time, a director suddenly received an urgent verbal report and was excitedly recruiting for an emergency meeting.

And no matter how all those uncertain elements flowed, the 'Testa Concert' project was successfully realized and the broadcast date was steadily approaching.

Chapter 424

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 424

"Is landing okay when I go around here?"

"huh. But watch your arms."

In the season right after Testa from 〈Azusa〉, his junior, Mirinae, was preparing hard for the broadcast stage.

Even if it was a secondary stage for Testa's live concert.

Of course it was embarrassing.

'Hasn't the timing passed for us to join something like this?'

I'm not trying to be cocky, I'm just saying it's common sense.

No matter how much I think about it, Mirinae is not a rookie idol who has never established herself as a rookie idol, and the appearance of riding a bus to a senior performance of a different gender was counterproductive.

'Still, the spacer will benefit.'

I am not an idiot, and the idols knew what kind of picture the agency was drawing.

The members of Mirinae performed the solo dance while thinking a little complicated.

"after!"

From popularity to visual image, shouldn't we do as much as we received as main dancer, if not as much as Yulgi, who is actually the center?

And a member with quite a bit of length like himself was looking into the pad with a serious face right next to him.

It is Park Min-ha, who debuted in second place in Azusa.

He was a member that I was thankful for and a little bit sorry for as he almost played the role of a leader in a group without a specific leader.

But lately, the movement has been a bit erratic.

'… Minha, are you dating?'

It was a few days ago that I saw her often fidgeting with her smartphone or sneaking out with a determined face.

And crucially, I unintentionally overheard Park Min-ha secretly talking on the manager's smartphone in the dorm bathroom.

-Hey, senior.

And echoing on the narrow tile walls is evident… It was a soft, gentle male voice.

-are you okay.

I knew who.

'Park Moon-dae… … .'

Testa's main vocalist, AKA Mundaengdaeng.

"okay!"

The member stopped and wiped his forehead.

To be honest, as a member of the opposite sex my age, it was understandable even if I had romantic feelings.

‘He was handsome.’

In the first place, Testa had a ridiculously good average value overall.

‘It’s a scam.’

Rather than the pounding heart, the sense of crisis as a survivor from the same field sounded more alarm bells.

ruined… It’s not to the point of ruin, but I hope we do better. Mirinae finished the practice with dark thoughts.

“Shall we give Minha some water? Would you like some water?”

“Oh it’s okay. sister.”

And while listening to the conversation between Jung Yul-ki and Park Min-ha, I plugged in my earphones and sat leaning against the mirror wall.

“Here, Harin.”

“huh?”

Park Min-ha, who was sitting next to me, started talking.

However, the expression is a bit strange.

Something… Are you feeling determined?

“Even if it’s a little dangerous… … no.”

“… ??”

“No, it’s nothing. I must have been mistaken!”

Even if it’s a bit risky… what?

‘You mustn’t have meant to introduce me to someone good enough to take the risk, right?’

Anxiety creeped in, but I ignored it.

Rather than introducing someone to Park Min-ha that he had seen so far, he was more concerned about whether such a member might appear.

‘But let’s float it.’

The member rolled his eyes and opened his mouth.

“Minha, I’m just asking… . Are you that… Are you in a good mood with senior?”

“Huh? who?”

member whispered. ‘Park Moon-dae.’

First-team male idol in name and reality!

And Park Min-ha… .

“no.”

It was straight.

“Never say anything like that anywhere. Absolutely not. It can’t be.”

I thought you were rapping

“Oh okay… “

I don’t think so. Looking at Min-ha Park, Goo seemed to have heard that he was dating a ghost who climbed up from hell, and the members were convinced.

‘Then what was that currency?’

I wonder if the atmosphere was very tense and good. Member Seong Ha-rin shrugged and continued practicing.

‘… I don’t practice new songs.’

Thinking of the choreography for the title of the new album, which has been postponed without an appointment and is not even mentioned these days.

and after a few days

It’s been a while since I had a schedule that wasn’t a practice or an event.

“What’s that?”

“Ah, something like a pictorial and advertisement.”

It seemed to be a fashion magazine affair.

‘It seems oddly bad for something like that?’

Member Mirinae sharply checked her own fabric and lines, but work is work anyway.

I’ll take another pictorial.

It was when I entered the filming set with that thought in mind.

“Oh, it’s Testa senior.”

“… !”

I met Testa who was preparing to leave after filming. It must have been filmed here at the right time.

“hello.”

“hello!”

‘oh.’

The clothes are ambiguous here too, but the clothes hanger and the face are good, so the attitude was good.

‘Wow, I really want to know how to manage it.’

The member greeted Kim Rae-bin passing by and thought inadvertently, then realized that he was wearing a similar outfit to himself.

And groaned.

‘Are we doing commercials together again?’

My mentality was about to waver when I remembered the advertisement for a certain smart device and all the ridicule I had in the beginning of my debut, but I endured it with years of experience.

I just need to do well!

“Wait a minute.”

“Yes~”

Mirinae moved to the waiting area prepared on the other side without muttering.

“I’ll get the costume fit just one more time~”

“Yes, yes!”

But the first step, Jeong Yul-gi, got up and excitedly left to prepare… .

Park Min-ha carefully went out through the back door.

As if secretly meeting someone.

“… … ?”

Wait, if there's someone I can secretly meet at this set… No, if it's a group, doesn't only one come to mind?

'this… Isn't that too signal?'

No way no way!

Seong Ha-rin secretly followed Min-ha Park without realizing it. To prevent an unexpected catastrophe.

And I really did see it.

Park Min-ha and Park Moon-dae standing in the hallway!

"… !"

hey these… Come to think of it, isn't it a same-sex sibling? oh no Let's calm down. The member averted his surprised eyes and calmly grasped the situation.

Although they stood a little closer, there was no physical contact. Still have that strange tension?

If you listen to the conversation… .

"Senior, I can't believe this is what you said last time… ."

"yes. But I didn't know that it would be like this."

"… All right!"

… It's like a secret agent conspiring to do something, let alone a flirt just listening to the story.

Seong Ha-rin opened her eyes, but soon sighed and fell from the hallway.

'I don't know.'

Anyway, he wasn't a kid who would do anything stupid, so he thought it would be good for him to do something like this. Even now, it seems to have crossed the line a bit.

'It's a little bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of

‘Aww!’

It was Testa’s SNS.

The capture of Lee Se-jin and Cha Yu-jin, who smiled mischievously, and Park Moon-dae, who looked at them with incomprehensible eyes, came up with a moderately humorous and colorful tteok.

‘You filmed it first and posted it first!’

Needless to say, the composition was also similar.

The same emoji on a similar costume accessory background? This was a controversial reservation.

No matter how overlapping their schedules will be, it will be explained later, but I couldn’t be cornered into dating rumors or speculation even for a moment.

‘Ah, that’s really annoying!’

Recalling the sickest rumor-positive Lekkas on WeTube, Mirinae gritted her teeth and deleted the social media she was trying to post.

‘I’ll open it… !’

I’ve become an idol with better sound quality than Testa, so even if there are dating rumors, I’ll hear that I’m sorry.

Even to himself, the possibility of realization seemed far away, but isn’t it meaningful to burn ambition in the first place!

Then, I suddenly thought that I had a junior.

‘… Are they going to film this too?’

That new girl group that took away all the older sisters and brothers who worked together.

Sung Ha-rin hesitated for a moment, then decided not to think about it any further.

‘Let’s practice.’

Because that’s something you can’t do on your own. I’d rather do my best in whatever I can do.

And it turns out that Seong Ha-rin’s rather gloomy speculation was true through an article a few days later.

[< T1-Stars > X < Tusle-A > Joint Line Launching]

[Reborn as idol brand clothing of Tnet, a famous survival company… Innovative attempt by ‘Tusle A’]

With media reports full of splendid rhetoric.

To sum up the story, this was it.

-T1 Stars launches a collaboration line with a clothing brand! We are considering having our idols directly participate in the design of exclusive models.

‘Ah, of course.’

This agency did it on its own.

Sung Ha-rin nodded. And after thinking about it there, I decided not to waste my emotions by clicking on the pictorial cuts of the rookie group or browsing the comments.

So I didn’t know.

[Did you see this? T1 idol clothes (12)]

[I knew they were crazy about money, but they really did everything… (7)]

[Let Raebin Kim design it (8)]

[But I like goods like a good one hahahahaha (3)]

The reactions continued like this… ..

[This article is a bit strange (534)]

It means that it has changed considerably from this point on.

So some time later, on the day of the testa concert broadcast.

[The clothes that only idols can wear]

When articles like this started pouring in.

[“Platinum rating is not something you can wear”… The effect of Tnet’s survival program on us]

[T1 Stars fans start a boycott… A mistake by < Tusle A >?]

Waiting for the live broadcast Backstage In , the members of Mirinae were a little taken aback by the turmoil. Even the manager of ‘Wow, it’s crazy’

got a call and ran.

She also knew that boycotting the agency was a normal thing. But for some reason the atmosphere was unusual.

‘what?’

In fact, these articles did not suddenly start appearing.

She didn’t know that after she cut off the Internet for several days, something that had been boiling like lava from SNS and other places and was boiling like lava on Witube.

“ah… . hmm.”

“now. Concentrate on the stage!”

And roughly looking at the atmosphere, it seems that the agency is being criticized, not us, so the atmosphere between the members quickly changes.

she saw

Park Min-ha creaking in a cold sweat.

“… ?”

The pressure of the leader… ?

“Minha, are you surprised? what’s the matter.”

“… No, I’m a bit surprised!”

Park Min-ha was startled and soon put on a firm expression. The energetic chick-like appearance did not seem like a fatal danger situation.

‘Do you think everything is fine?’

“Here’s just a little bit of makeup.”

“yes.”

A stylist came in to repair the spot where Park Min-ha’s cold sweat had passed.

And then.

“A little light here, please.”

“Yes yes.”

Testa Moondae Park. Through the open waiting room door, I could see him walking down the hallway talking to the staff.

And Seong Ha-rin saw it. As if checking, the gaze that briefly looked at Park Min-ha.

"… !"

It was a light gaze, but Seong Ha-rin hardened slightly from shock.

'That person woo… Didn't you laugh just now?'

The misunderstanding deepened again.

* * *

"It's noisy."

"Iknow, right."

Behind the scenes of a pre-recorded concert, while waiting for a special stage for broadcast, the bomb finally exploded.

Of course, the staff are still in perfect order and there is no problem, but it is clearly revealed in the dynamics of the company officials.

We're waiting right behind the stage without a smartphone, although there's no way to check.

"Hmm~ I guess there's an article coming up."

At Sejin's words, Kim Raebin raised his hand.

"Should I consider the possibility that this is the kind of problem that needs to be fixed on the stage?"

It was an immediate question. and.

"no."

Liu Cheng-wu neatly concluded.

“You just have to do well and come back as you originally intended to do.”

A smile spreads among them.

“Good.”

“All right!”

And when the standby sign came in.

“Hyung, you’re good!”

Cha Yoo-jin hit Seon Ah-hyun on the back.

“okay.”

The damn system of virtual reality is tiring, but it’s not like there weren’t any good things about coming back to reality.

‘chamberlain.’

For example, the years of professional ballerino experience he acquired.

“The audience will be really surprised.”

And on air 12 minutes later, regardless of whether the agency is overturned or not.

Seon Ah-hyun started soloing the intro.

Chapter 425

Episode 425

Kim Rae-bin's fan was checking Testa's trend as usual.

She treated it as bullshit to call a tour that only had a few fancams or shows, but this time I was looking forward to it.

'If it comes out on TV, it's a rice cake.'

The problem was that when I opened the lid, only 'Testa's concert' wasn't the only content!

[Spacer – To the World

She was holding back her double bath and watching airwaves on TV for the first time in a long time.

[Make some noise!]

The opening and first few stages were real live concerts, but in the middle, when the VCR and the stage for the concert event were to be placed, other groups followed, making people angry. Especially if you have fans who speak like this!

-Toestar.. sticks to it -Looks like they're going to be entertainment idols like T-Holic haha Young and handsome cosmonauts chat while they're idols -Call it popular and read it as image consumption No subject

‘Crazy bastards!’

Because they were also criticized so much, aggressive opinions came out like an awl, like a rat in a corner biting a cat, but it was an awl anyway.

Of course, he gnashed his teeth and refuted as coolly as possible.

-A rare scene where they insist that Mangdol is far-fetchedly rising and call Gatgi Group 1 a “retired thing”. Since it is a survival group in the first place, there is no such thing as ‘I love my juniors even at the same company’, except for genuine survivalists.

Since Testa established a label and came out, it would be good to treat each other as if they were strangers.

And now there is the predetermined result.

-Oh

-It’s quite good

-The stage is fun, but why are you fucking

? !”

The interest and favorable response from the general public on Spacer’s guest stage!

Even the fans can’t blatantly criticize. Because it was on airwaves at 11:00 p.m., even non-fans were flocking to it.

‘There will be part-time jobs with the agency.’

If I didn’t think so, I couldn’t stand it because I was pissed off.

… And that wasn’t the only problem.

– Shouldn’t T-one idols be boycotted?

-Aren’t you

ashamed of yourself if you consume like this after making it public?

Raebin Kim’s fans mumbled while furiously posting comments such as ‘It’s not the victim’s fault’.

‘Be good.’

They were always good at important times, but this time I had to do really well.

Especially in the current situation.

[—]

The screen changed and finally the owner of the performance title appeared again.

The lighting changes to a quiet stage instead of a concert hall full of heat.

widely.

White, pale lighting.

A color like moonlight illuminates the stage and shines softly like the surface of the water.

And what appears is a dancer.

ballerino.

Breaking the still silence, a slender dancer who covered her face with a white mask over a classic black poet shirt began her solo dance.

With a melody that I haven’t heard in a while, but is familiar to fans.

(It’s quiet, now

forget all the songs and dreams)

The elegant cello melody of ‘Midnight and Next’, the title of Testa’s first regular album, filled the speakers with piano and string instruments.

(It’s midnight here.

Your Midnight)

There are no lyrics, but I can hear them.

Movements and expressiveness of creepy quality, close to art performances, strike an exquisite balance between traditional choreography and classical ballet.

yes it’s all good

‘… But what about Testa?’

No, can you sell ballerinos now? Are you doing a ballet survival show on Tnet?

By the time Kim Rae-bin’s fan, who had been watching with his mouth open as if possessed for a moment, eventually burst into anger.

The music ends as the ballerino gracefully stands outside the stage and slowly adjusts her body lines.

And the white hand on the black sleeve took off the mask… .

[Midnight Intro – Seon Ah-hyun (TeSTAR))

-????

-Uh

-Seon Ah-hyun?

-You thought you were a steamed ballerino

. -It’s Ahyeon

. ??”

what is this

Rabin Kim’s fans thought his eyeballs would pop out.

But it was a real situation. If it’s not synthetic, then the ballerino that just appeared on the screen is Sun Ah-hyun?

“… … .”

Check again and you’re right.

Even this life… A live broadcast?

Recalling the body of a ballerino wearing a mask earlier, she saw Seon Ah-hyun with her bangs turned back in the screen where a grand orchestra was playing.

‘… Looking at it again, I’m sure Seon Ah-hyun’s body suits her.’

Even if he said he didn’t know because he didn’t like Seon Ah-hyun, there must have been a reason why Sun Ah-hyun’s fans didn’t bother talking about it.

Because it was at a level that was impossible to common sense!

Even for an outsider, there was no professional ballet performance.

‘When did you practice this?’

No, can this be said to be a short practice? Even though Seon Ah-hyun majored in modern dance, she said she only learned ballet when she was young!

“ah!”

At that moment, there was Kadera who passed like lightning.

When the tour started, not only Seon Ah-hyun, but all of Testa as well!

-The mood of the kids seemed to have changed a bit. In a good way.. I should say that the stage has become more dense. Anyway, I recommend watching this tour in person

.

– Did the real kids go camping and practice at the falls? Hahahahahahahaha

‘I thought they were promoting a sense of relative deprivation by arguing with each other because they had tickets.’

It seems that they are really in a state of awakening.

‘What’s that, athletes say there are people like that.’

-Wow, I’m tired of the crazy Django X-days~

-Hey, shut up!

Kim Rae-bin’s fan complained about the commotion he had with his younger brother… He nodded his head inwardly, recalling the verbal fight.

very eager

‘Everyone in this group has to do well. If I can’t do it, I will die.’

Although no one intended, it was the effect of uniting individual fandoms inside Testa, created by an external enemy.

Of course, this situation was not the case she thought, but there were some similarities. It felt like an awakening.

‘Whoa.’

on stage.

Seon Ah-hyun lifted her head and moved on. A lit camera follows.

And soberly evaluated. Just had a good performance.

Of course, there are limitations because the body has changed. Difficult techniques and details cannot be captured.

still.

‘This too… fun.’

Newly acquired knowledge and experience boosted the sense of uplift on stage.

And members dressed similar to themselves appeared on stage with effects.

[Welcome]

Seon Ah-hyun joined the formation with a faint smile.

What follows is another old hit title from Testa.

Call (Nightmare).

A sticky song in a minor key, which was arranged for an orchestra and deepened, sounded.

[Call-it,

sing it now, its name

will stick like honey and won’t fall off]

This decadent song, which only briefly appeared in the medley, was organized as a special stage on this tour.

And, as always, the stimulating sexy concept was intense. There were many members who temporarily changed their hair for this stage, so the reaction was even hotter.

Even Kim Rae-bin's fans eagerly posted.

-Kim Raebin's secret two-tone??? I can't believe that there are male idols who can handle crazy things like this.

In addition, even the closing remarks specially prepared for the broadcast.

[Thank you for enjoying the concert for a long time. Finally, only the last stage is left.]

-Huh?

-Ahyeon Sun speaks so

well

.

[Then, I'll tell you the 'promise' now.]

That's how Testa's concert relay ended successfully.

It was thanks to the unexpectedness and singularity that went beyond simply performing very well on stage, which drew attention.

However, because of that reason, the 'controversy' that occurred in the agency grew bigger.

* * *

After returning home after the live concert schedule was over.

[You can't buy this costume from the Testa concert. (Jungjin Ilbo talk talk sympathy)]

“Hmm, it seems the articles are getting stronger?”

“Oh, you connected well with the story of our concert.”

“… I mean.”

I don’t know why you’re looking at me that way, but I didn’t do it.

‘It’s just wind.’

It just started by pretending to send an early holiday gift to the head of the management office and listening to the thoughts of the seniors at the agency.

“It is an obvious result.”

I shrugged and wiped dry. After washing, the body felt refreshed.

As if it is natural to feel refreshed after washing, in fact, if no one touches it, it will inevitably fail.

Because I didn’t raise the idols that the agency told me to raise and did other things.

-Collaboration in the clothing business of T1 Stars, an agency with no roots.

Still, in fact, this level was good considering that I had collaborated with a game like < 127 Section >.

‘Idols do a lot of clothing commercials.’

the problem is… The point is that the company did something reckless, dreaming of ‘diversification of sales’.

I grew up with this collab a lot.

– and ‘Bronze to Platinum. A variety of options from affordable prices to special premiums?’

-There seems to be a big difference in the quality of design and fabric depending on the grade… .

First of all, I somehow split the design and made several lines, but it seems that this was directly taken from the rating of < Azusa >. It is said that he did this while paying royalties to the program.

'It's a business thing.'

Still, if only this had been announced, they would have been scolded for being senseless and old-fashioned.

The problem is from

– 'T-shirts made by idols' can only be purchased by membership members.

First of all, he revealed his desire to collect money once more between the lines, making fans extremely uncomfortable. Still, this would have been fixed somehow.

If it wasn't for the next unplay.

-The 'platinum' clothes that Testa Mirina wore?

– 'Platinum' grade is made only in one size of the idol worn to present the most beautiful image… .

Even if these lunatics hadn't posted to the press that platinum grade clothes were only sold in 'sizes that idols can actually wear'.

I know what you're after.

Maybe he wanted to go beyond the feeling of 'actually wearing it' and encourage the fans' desire to own it, but it turned out to be X.

The result of not recognizing the difference between goods and clothing came like this.

-Aren't you crazy

? -Idols are currently being broadcasted on a flat screen, so they're all in a state of extreme management

. ?

In the meantime, an interview with an official saying, 'I'm taking a chance at a real-life certification shot event' was discovered, and it was completely… Public opinion has gone awry.

-Yeah, I understand the sign that only people with idol bodies wear it.

-If you go to the store, you will be scanned up and down and you won't be able to buy it, Trauma ON

-If you launch like this, you won't even see my face for some reason.

'A fool.'

In fact, if you think about it, you can see the angle of collecting money unethically by using 'only idol-like people can wear it' as a differentiation strategy.

I couldn't stab the person's psychology correctly, so I was fatally injured in reverse.

'If I want to benefit from classifying, I should have done it more subtly.'

Why does Tnet's survival show keep people watching even though it's being criticized?

This is because it created a content-like appeal while being stimulating, sophisticated, and caricatured by itself.

'But what about these bastards?'

There aren't many people in this company who can do that. It's because we wiped it out while making the label.

And all the people there are also in the working-level, but who did this business? In order to share the portfolio and profits, the seniors actively signed contracts.

therefore… .

‘The promised result has arrived.’

it will be smashed

“okay?

Yes.

“Is that all?”

I am innocent.

I just posted an anonymous post out of context.

– Platinum-level line from < Azusa >, which means the highest grade that everyone knows, only one size idol…

-There are people of various sizes with various charms in the world.

“That is incitement!”

“no. I wrote it exactly as it was in the article.”

“… Are you sure?”

“yes.”

I wrote it while using a VPN just in case. There is nothing to take.

Well, since there are only those at the top who want to rip off the company, not the bastards who originally launched the agency with a vision, in fact, they just dragged on a planned disaster.

“… And the costumes we wore at the live concert were originally intended to be sold here at a ‘platinum’ level.”

“Yeah, our agency is really great too.”

“That’s why there were so many articles like this… .”

Thanks to that, the live broadcast of the concert went well, so it seems that it became more firewood and attracted aggro.

So, are we, who are tied to the agency, also affected?

‘I might have worn it for a moment.’

It’s probably because it’s the sign of this agency.

-Doesn’t Testa agree to this after all and come out

? Did the dogs know?

But it won’t last long enough to make an impact.

This is because when the problem grows to this point, the head office steps in.

“hmm. Shouldn’t it affect the stock price?”

“Perhaps.”

Besides that.

‘From the standpoint of TI Entertainment, the agency under you only needs to act as an agency.’

From the head office’s point of view, other businesses can be done through other affiliates. The only thing I regret about the supplementary business is that it was only for the top heads.

If so, what will T1 entertainment experts who are smart about this business do, unlike the top heads of this agency?

I try to preserve the value of the original brand product.

The company's idol that sells well.

"There's an article on bee hunting."

While I was updating the news page, I noticed the head office movement.

I think I watched it while preparing, and as soon as the concert was over, I checked the reaction and released it.

[TI Stars's arbitrary move, the artists' embarrassment]

[Tussel A said, "The contract was groundless… It was at the stage of discussion."]

Everything is being sorted out as the agency's unresponsive management.

It's a beautiful sight where the wrongdoers pay the full price. In this way, the directors of this agency are cut off from the head office.

'I can't keep one or two in place.'

And in order to quickly cover up this bad news, why not hold an event as the main event as well?

Seongwu Ryu grinned.

"What do you mean by that?"

I laughed too.

"It's about releasing an album."

"Oooh!"

It was a promised development.

“I will give priority to teams with good grades. Because it has to be covered with good news.”

“Then… .”

Bae Se-jin didn’t talk behind his back, but everyone realized and smiled. Testa, of course.

“And that! It was easy thanks to Ahyeonie who did well on today’s broadcast~”

“Yes, well done!”

“thank you… !”

This late at night, a gongchisa flies around the living room.

‘Those who were fooling around are ruined… We put out an album.’

the atmosphere is fine

It was then.

Giying –

My phone is ringing.

“Have you already called… ?”

“Could it be T-One??”

2 in the morning?

I wonder if T1 will act as fast as that, but I also have some expectations.

I quickly lowered my gaze to my smartphone, and suddenly a thought occurred to me.

‘But when it comes to the album, wouldn’t it be better to call Ryu Chung-woo, not me?’

I know.

And again, it wasn’t an album phone call. Instead, a guy I had never imagined called.

“… … .”

“Is it Moondae?”

once received

-hello.

It was the voice of VTIC.

… But he’s never called.

– How are you, Mr. Moondae?

It is the main stage.

The guy going to the military calls at dawn… .

-There is something I would like to suggest, but I think this is a game where no one loses.

I already want to quit.

Chapter 426

If I can’t debut, I’ll get a fatal disease Episode 426

Actually, after returning to reality, I didn’t lose contact with the VTIC guys at all.

in the first place

-VTIC Chae-yul senior: Mr. Moondae~~

-VTIC Chae-yul senior: Do you remember Sowon? haha wish!

That’s when I got a call the very next day.

No matter who sees it, it’s like, ‘I’m looking at you in case you don’t remember, but something happened between us!’

‘Even if I didn’t remember this, I would have questioned it in reverse.’

Anyway, the fact that I managed to dissuade the VTIC guys who were trying to create a ‘Wishes group chat room’ happened before filming the healing variety show.

-VTIC Chae-yul senior: Oh, that’s right, there are people who weren’t Wishz, so you might feel left out.

All members almost replied to the senior group’s regards every day.

‘I thought it was quiet after that and nothing happened.’

I saw the title of the article saying that the enlistment date was set as I passed by, so I thought that there would be nothing to see for a while.

I would have thought that way even if one guy hadn’t called.

even at this time.

‘… What game?’

Who taught you the crazy act of calling your juniors at 2:00 a.m. just because you had an idea?

When asked again, this answer came back from Joo-dan.

-Since it was right before the live broadcast, you must have not gone to bed yet. I also have a case.

“… … yes.”

That’s not the case, it’s called speculation.

Anyway, he started talking.

-I have a plan. It was a proposal to release a fan song without notice before enlisting and treat it as a meaningful memorial even if it is inactive.

is it? I have to pay so that they don’t overlap, so I’m going to have to dig up a line or something.

“Congratulations. When are you announcing?”

– We are discussing.

“… ?”

There won’t be much time left for that, but if we’re still discussing it… .

hey let’s do this

“Didn’t Senior Cheongryeo give permission?”

-… … .

“I didn’t tell you.”

A long silence passed.

-We are always members of the same group, so the expression of permission is a bit clumsy.

You didn’t get permission. i get it.

-and… Wait, maybe this currency isn’t being leaked?

I turned my head.

“Are you senior Ju Dan?”

“Yes.”

“Oh, that’s right. Say hello.”

Everyone is not very interested. It’s because I realized that it wasn’t news about the album I was waiting for.

When I let them know that they are already being treated as personal calls, Judan lowers his voice.

-The timeline he knew was already over. Wouldn’t there come a time when long years have become obsessive and your judgment is clouded?

Are you serious? is that kid?

“Then you can talk about it in person… .”

– Of course, that doesn’t necessarily mean now.

Take a deep breath and answer.

Anyway, the leaders are going to convince themselves somehow, so they have something to ask of Testa.

From here on, we listened together through speakerphone.

-So what I want to ask is… .

“Nenep.”

– This is a charity concert.

“… ??”

Suddenly, the topic of conversation jumped from the album to helping the less fortunate.

“What a meaningful idea!”

no, don’t do that already.

-Yes. Fan songs are universal with the theme of gratitude and love. That’s why I think the frequency of the theme is quite right, so I’m planning it.

To sum up Nome’s explanation, instead of being active, he plans to hold a charity concert hosted by VTIC.

-And I want testers to come here as guests.

And this is a strange déjà vu.

As expected, Liu Cheng-wu cautiously intervened.

“Is that an extension of the charity concert that Mundae invited seniors to?”

– I also say this because I think it would be better if the narrative was composed like that.

Yes. It was a thank you for appearing as a guest at our charity concert.

Since we held our first charity concert in association with VTIC's company, they wanted us to come out as guests.

"oh."

"That's a good thing! I like it.

It is not even just us, but several teams are called.

'Then it just feels like a big event.'

To be honest, I was invited as a guest before, and we didn't even say no.

Naturally, it was the moment when the atmosphere was about to become a tentative agreement with consent.

"Yeah~ I think it's a very meaningful and wonderful day, senior! Still, I need to hear the story of the other company, so could you give me some time?"

-of course. We will call you back around ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

It was an answer that did not take into account that people sleep, but anyway, the agreement was not reached.

"Ah, we have to give it ourselves~ We can't have senior call us again!"

The other guys did not intervene and condoned the guy who ended the call.

It's because the guy who intervened isn't the guy who would do it without a reason.

"hmm."

And let the phone hang up.

The culprit, Keun Se-jin, sat in the living room with a wry smile.

“you… Did you have any other thoughts?”

“… Kind of like that, right? Like volunteering, in case the company might be stung by this controversy and send us out to a charity concert.”

“… !”

“Couldn’t that be… ?”

Can not be done.

I opened my mouth.

“If we go in the direction of taking responsibility for the company’s faults, it looks like we are doing it because we have faults too.”

“Answer~”

“Ah… .”

images are bound.

We managed to keep the agency’s X scene away from us under the proposition, ‘Artists are also victims’, but they’re holding a charity concert?

On the contrary, it was a problem because it could lead to the image that ‘artists are self-sufficient’.

-Working hard T

-1 Working hard Testa

haha

‘After struggling a bit in Zyrop, he became more agile.’

I glared at Big Sejin and nodded.

“I think we should approach it well. Well, it’s nice to be able to adjust the album schedule a bit with this as an excuse.”

It’s a happy worry compared to when I put off the album endlessly, but it’s possible that the head office may release it too quickly and try to see it.

‘Then the promotion is clumsy.’

Taking a charity concert as an excuse to secure time for a few weeks of PR staff is a pretty tempting lure.

“It doesn’t seem necessary to adjust the schedule. Album preparation can be completed within 15 days!”

“You can do it, but wouldn’t it be difficult for the people in charge of promotion at the company?”

“Oh~ Isn’t it frustrating that our Rabin isn’t a genius like everyone else in the world?”

“… ?! Undeserved praise No, I never thought of that… … .”

“Ahaha!”

Hey baby I’m going to break down anyway so that’s it.

“A person with good opinions.”

To be honest, this charity concert is not a must, it’s just a commercial moral issue.

“Yeap.”

Cha Yoo-jin, whose eyes met, smiled.

and the next day.

“It’s because we’re close. Be sure to tell the fans about that first!”

Cha Yu-jin proudly shouted at Ju-dan. Yes.

-It’s okay to be charitable as a friend. It’s not a lie because we’re friends with those seniors now.

‘Let’s go like we do because of group friendship.’

Since he’s just one of many guests, he won’t be offended by our fans. Take care of the image of being worthy of your name enough to help in charity events.

-Well, it’s not difficult with a few preliminary preparations.

“It’s not me, it’s Moondae hyung.”

– It seemed so.

Those who had memories of being in the same group communicate without being awkward.

“okay. by the way.”

I smiled faintly.

Would you like to see some more gains?

“Senior, there is one more guest I would like to recommend.”

-hmm?

In fact, a few minutes ago I made a phone call in advance. But it wasn’t for Judan.

-yes. Hello senior!!

Right in Mirinae 2nd place.

This one somehow seems to be getting more military with his voice, but I don't know why.

Anyway, I want to get to the point… That one said it first.

– First of all, I want to say thank you so much!

-yes?

-… oh.

But before he could react properly, his words sped up with a single sigh.

-just… yes. It's not a thank you for a specific situation, it's just a word for always taking good care of juniors!!

-Ah yes.

– That was all!

No, it's okay to talk about the album.

Anyone who sees it will know that I threatened to shut up from now on.

'Why are you doing this after you cooperated well?'

I recalled this junior's whereabouts over the past few weeks.

It is because the labels are divided, and the information I can find out is biased.

Mi-nae Park Min-ha, who has brought and devoted all of the things that happen at the company and schedule changes from the perspective of her artist, has paid for her meal as an informant.

So I thought of giving this suggestion a try.

– I got a good offer. I contacted you because I thought it would be good to tell my juniors.

-Uh what… ?

– A charity concert.

We intend to highlight the side of coming out as a personal acquaintance with VTIC first.

But what if Mirinae is included here in the next order?

‘It’s what Testa called.’

When the plate gets bigger like that, it takes on a slightly new meaning.

I think of the controversy of the agency, but it is distorted because the base that personal friendship comes first is already laid.

-This is.. the agency

‘s loss of money -crossing the line

hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

To ‘If we really did, we would choose such a good influence’.

‘And the executives who are leaving now won’t be able to get their hands on our schedule anyway.’

not bad.

And Mirinae’s reaction to the explanation was also positive.

-that… I think all of our members will like it.

So, that is the final decision.

Ju Dan nodded at the guest recommendation.

– That’s fine. In order to broaden the audience, I was thinking of casting a wide range of singers’ genders and age groups.

“yes.”

It’s a tight fit.

Is there only one final check left?

“But how did you convince Senior Cheong-rye?”

How did you deal with your leader’s permission problem?

Surprisingly, he just said that he got an ok with great confidence.

-… I’ve heard various logics and grounds, so I won’t be quick to specify which one worked.

But I don’t even know why.

‘Anyway, he seems to have found a corner to benefit from somewhere.’

I’ll be a little careful and watch the progress.

I willingly handed over the phone call with Joo Dan to others and reviewed the situation in my head.

Buying time to properly promote the ‘Um’ album, killing two birds with one stone.

It didn’t look like it would fall in the middle.

So I called the status window.

[Hyung?]

‘Are you okay today?’

It’s in Korea and there are a lot of people I know, so it would be okay if I send you tickets for this much.

‘Come see the pre-recording.’

[Huh uh uh uh??]

And a few days later.

It all started with a capture posted on VTIC’s official SNS account.

What was assigned was the contents of KakaoTalk that Chae-yul and I deliberately concocted.

The conversation history, which consisted of roughly falling for a late-night snack and a picture of a puppy, was released without any notice, drawing people’s curiosity.

Chapter 427

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 427

VTIC’s charity concert quickly took shape. The lineup is also gorgeous.

-Hey

, Maximite is also coming out

.

There was even news that Soft and Sweet would reunite after a long time. Its popularity soared almost to the level of hosting in general entertainment.

[Then, are you going to see those testers and see them all?]

That’s not true.

‘The guest was designed only for broadcasting.’

Part 1 with only VTIC and Part 2 with guests are said to be organized.

And only Part 1 is enjoyed with fans offline, mixed with Part 2, pre-recorded by guests, and broadcast together on the Internet and CVN.

‘You did a good job.’

Wouldn’t it be crazy if the performance that fans booked to see the VTIC full group ahead of their hiatus had half of the guests.

At the same time as avoiding that, the name value of each guest is good, so the name value of the event goes up, so the effect of making the position of VTIC, the host, more solid among the public is good.

‘This design must be clean.’

Thanks to that, the broadcasting station was excited and already hit the commercials and went crazy.

‘It would have been a bit embarrassing if I had refused this.’

And seeing how things go, I have no regrets about deciding to appear.

Since the format is similar, there must have been a Witube Lecca kid trying to compare it with the ambiguous tying-up airwaves concert live that we did.

-Is this the difference in planning ability? Class’ dignity, Letty’s V-Tech VS Hell’s T1 Stars’ Testa, like this.

After all, if you get involved with VTIC guys, it’s right to look for traps first. I nodded my head at the mine that had been avoided.

Anyway, time passed and it was the afternoon of the second Sunday in October.

Testa is changing her outfit in the station’s waiting room.

“Come to think of it, it seems like it’s been a while since we all did this together as Testa.”

“That’s right bro~ It seems like it’s been a while since we appeared on a music show.”

Today we’re going on stage to pre-record this charity concert, “Save the World by VTIC.”

In other words, only Testa fans who were cast for broadcasting were in the audience.

‘It must really be the same as a music show.’

I smiled at the memory of the first pre-recording at the beginning of my debut. I wonder if I was frightened by the SNS notification that went off at dawn to prove that I had received a lunch box.

“Sweet and sweet sunbaenim was right before us… okay. VTIC seniors also said that they would be recording next to us.”

“Ah, is it today?”

“Then, I’ll have to contact you to say hello after the performance!”

After getting ready while chatting, we headed to the stage.

In front of me is Sage with a camera all over it.

‘There’s a drone’

Even though it’s a broadcasting station that doesn’t even have a music show, it seems that they put a lot of thought into it in their own unique way.

The staff seems a little lacking, but since it’s not a live broadcast, it’s likely to be covered by post-editing.

win first.

“hello. everyone!”

“Aren’t you all hungry? Oh are you okay? okay!”

Lights and cheers shine in front of your eyes.

The fairly large auditorium, accommodating about 1,000 people, was full. There’s probably a big moon somewhere, but it’s like a guy who doesn’t notice pop-up messages.

I smiled and waved my hand. The end of the harness belt attached to the costume shakes as well.

‘We’re allotted 16 minutes.’

It was a good time for just four songs and even a special performance.

-Then shall we go to ‘Savior’, ‘Promise’, ‘Black hole’, ‘Wheel’?

And in the last arrangement of Wheel, Drill is added, and it is a splendid composition that sublimates into daybreak.

I thought I struck the balance as much as possible between the latest songs and popularity.

‘The recording time should be about two hours.’

“Then we will begin.”

As in any pre-recording, after light chatting and fan service towards the fan seats, they stood in formation.

I thought as I bent over on the outskirts of my seat on the right.

‘It’s a position that comes out from behind the dancers and is exposed to the camera. So pay attention to the angle… .’

at that time.

thud.

suddenly.

I was out of breath.

“Huh.”

My head is dizzy. The lighting and accompaniment are distorted, deafening, and colors spread across the field of vision.

weird.

“… Are you Mundae?”

The condition of the body that seems to be abnormal somewhere, like when pressed by scissors… .

‘Addicted?’

Strange chemistry seems to be taking place inside the body. My heart races and my hair stands on end.

What have I done?

“Park Moondae!”

I stumbled and reached for my arm.

elbows are cold The texture of the dusty stage floor pressed against the ball.

No, my face is buried on the floor.

“… !”

In an instant, my ears were open.

“here!”

“It has to be moved first.”

Hoo-wook.

I can feel the tension rising from my head to the tips of my limbs. When I came to my senses, I felt like I was covered in a blanket while backstage.

A hand grabs your shoulder in front of your eyes.

Park Moondae! Moondae Park Look at me, where are you now?”

Sejin Lee.

I caught my breath.

*… Broadcast stations.”

“What were you doing?”

“The stage is huge!”

I can’t breathe again X-foot.

A cough comes out as if you heard a cough. It wasn’t because of the pain.

because of the shock.

‘suddenly.’

As if you were being chased by a murderer in the middle of the night, or as if you were standing on the edge of a rooftop railing with one foot on the edge, you felt a tremendous amount of pressure.

My eyes were dizzy.

“Call 911! call an ambulance hurry!”

“Let’s look at the situation a bit more… .”

“Park Moon-dae can’t breathe, but look at the situation. now!”

I raised my hand.

and slapped my face

match.

The fist is not clenched, so the sound is a bit shabby, but the pain has returned the head anyway.

“… for a moment.”

“… !”

“If this happens… !”

I didn’t refuse Seon Ah-hyun, who was trying to help me, and swallowed my saliva.

“I think you should get some rest.”

It’s a mental problem. the body is fine

The problem is that I… .

“… … I don’t know.”

There are not one or two people with panic disorder on this floor, and I think everyone will think that way… Well, it has to be a trigger to make sense when it breaks out.

‘No.’

Fuck, I just looked at the audience seats without thinking and set up a formation. No, if that’s the case… .

‘… He just collapsed on stage.’

Damn.

“How is the atmosphere? above.”

“Now is the time to worry about that?!”

“Hyung, wait a minute.”

Lee Se-jin said calmly.

“You wouldn’t have known. You were in a position where you couldn’t be seen.”

“… … .”

“Understand? They’ll just think where you stumbled.”

I get it. I thought… .

“Brother, are you cold? Can you feel your body temperature drop?”

“Wait a minute.”

I guess I was shaking my hands. I heard several people running around to get blankets.

Then I heard Liu Cheng-wu talking to the staff.

“please. I will call an ambulance.”

“No.”

brain doesn’t work “Give me”

not to call .

After Ryu Chung-woo received the smartphone from the staff as if robbing it, he approached in an instant.

And ask in a low voice so that the people around you can’t hear.

“… Bro, have you seen anything uncomfortable up there? I’ll tell you to get rid of it, so tell me. I’ll turn it around and deliver it well.”

“No no.”

That’s not it.

No, I think my head will explode. No, rather than the brain, the spinal cord or heart… .

‘What’s this.’

thoughts are shit It’s a situation where I don’t have a fucking logic like this in my life.

The sound of a heart beating echoes through the skull. The ends of the head stand on end.

In the meantime, I hear a squeaking noise next to me. Looks like the manager is fighting with the other guys… .

“What kind of phone is he answering right now? !”

phone call?

“Yes, I will cut myself off the line for now… .”

“Who are you?”

“… !”

The sound stopped. It’s a little quieter now. The manager had a puzzled face, but as soon as he saw me, he reflexively opened his mouth to answer.

‘that is… .’

I read the shape of the mouth.

Damn.

“… Give it to me.”

“hey!”

With trembling hands, I snatched the smartphone from the manager.

and brought it to the ear.

– Junior.

Cheongrye.

Apparently, the fact that I tasted it must have flowed to the waiting room over there where I just came to work, but let's think about it. You have to think about this.

'The fact that this bastard even made a phone call… … .'

Of course not because of worry.

– How are your symptoms?

… when you guessed something

– Sensitive alertness more than necessary.

-Sense of pressure without context. For the first time, hyperventilation, fear, and sense of crisis. Feeling that everything is not in the right place.

– Is it this way?

A short silence passed over the smartphone, but soon a voice came out.

A low voice as if the blood had gone…

-That's a symptom of mission failure.

"… … "

What?

-Your junior called it ‘status abnormality’.

What are you talking about.

It’s been a while since I got rid of it, no, it went over from me and went to Gold 2. But what… … .

for a moment.

‘… Abnormal condition.’

Abnormal Status I suddenly remembered.

The strange afterimages I saw on the beach after visiting the grave.

“Park Moon-dae, what are you listening to?”

The voice over the smartphone rings again.

-Have you ever felt the need to do something, junior?

And the stage set started to fall over my head.

I rolled over and started running towards the end of the stage.

I opened my eyes.

The smartphone bounced off the impact and flickers on the cracked floor.

A low sound was heard as if blocked.

– You’re alive.

yeah live baby

Didn’t I tell you to live?

But to say that, my condition was still trash.

‘It tastes like shit.’

The eyes shake and the heart becomes unstable as if it is about to jump out of the mouth. It almost feels like a pang.

‘When did you lose your mind?’

I don’t even know where my limbs are… .

‘… I lived anyway.’

I stole my mouth The back of my hand strokes my teeth under my lips, and it tastes like blood. that he didn’t die

-Did the stage equipment collapse?

“okay.”

He held back a cough and struggled to open his mouth.

“I came up on stage.”

My status ailment failure is death.

So if the system tries to kill me right away, isn’t it comfortable if that’s how ‘nonsense’ happens.

‘Buy by accident.’

absurd accident.

That’s why I induced the direction to guess what would happen as much as possible.

Since no one was on stage, I reflexively thought that whatever would happen would end up at the level of a facility collapse.

Fortunately, that seems to be the case.

‘… If it was a hallway, I would have searched all over.’

It was a direction that would not attract the people around me as much as possible, but I led it into a predictable accident.

‘And somehow I didn’t die in the first hit and avoided it.’

but.

“This won’t be the end.”

-… … .

“okay.”

I spoke boldly.

“If this was the end, you wouldn’t have to complete the mission.”

It couldn’t be avoided, so this bastard wouldn’t have restarted so many times.

I held my breath and waited. Soon, a low voice came out of the smartphone.

-yes.

I gritted my teeth.

“… when?”

-soon.

X feet.

I looked up.

At first glance, it can be seen that the surroundings are a mess with the dangerously stacked steel frames and fragments of lighting.

Anyone can see that the moment the balance shifts, it seems like it will end up pouring down on me.

‘If you rescue me before then… No, that’s worse.’

I don’t know what will happen in the process of my rescue. The more variables there are, the more difficult it becomes.

this is correct

I caught my breath and cleared my head. And from what I had to say.

“Don’t report it.”

-… … .

“Don’t tell me that I’m fine and that I can get in touch with you and things like that.”

Even if you don’t tell me, you’ll understand, but just in case…

-Never mind that.

“… … .”

It seems that the situation is like X. This bastard even writes this kind of tone.

The voice continued quickly.

– And until the next thing happens.

‘… Until what.’

But the next words were not heard.

-… … .

silence.

“Shin Jae-hyun?”

I realized as I turned my head towards my smartphone.

The dimly shining lights disappeared.

“… !”

X feet.

I immediately reached out and groped the floor where I was looking at my smartphone.

Soon, angular and hard pieces… .

“Sigh.”

A sharp pain stabbed his knuckles. It’s hot.

‘Damn it’

I somehow wrapped my hand in my costume and flipped my phone over.

“… … .”

Smartphone was smashed. It must have been the shock of a steel frame falling.

So the call was disconnected. No, it's amazing that they've been connected until now with that shattered look.

… So

'quickly admit it.'

I don't know what kind of situation this is, but I failed to clear the status abnormality.

… And communication with the outside world was completely cut off.

I bit my tongue.

another way another way.

hearing once.

'… … What happened?'

I tried to listen as much as possible to the sounds outside. But there is only a hum.

Apparently, if it was blocked to this extent, it seems that not only the stage equipment but also the ceiling were properly poured.

then… next.

'It moves quickly.'

Hurry up, before you fuck up again. I immediately got up from my upper body.

My side hurt. The ribs that were broken last time seem to be cracked or broken again.

'Or it could be because of my mood.'

Let's hope it's the latter.

Anyway, I can stand up with my own body… .

‘… It hits the head.’

I feel the cold metal passing dangerously over my head.

Perhaps it is the remains of a stage set.

“after.”

I closed my eyes and waited for a while. I’m damn nervous, but vision takes precedence.

And when I open my eyes, the vision applied to the darkness reveals the overall outline.

“… !”

The stage was a mess.

The steel frame has all collapsed, and in fact, there is no stage left, and nothing can be seen outside with the steel frame and ceiling materials surrounding it on all sides.

And the place where I am is right in front of the backstage on the other side.

I was pushed almost to the point of sliding down to this point and avoided that.

“Whoa.”

I’m done figuring it out, and I won’t be able to get anything useful if I observe more with this mental head.

‘Move once.’

If I stay here, the steel frame will fall and I’ll be crushed to death.

Fortunately, however, the limbs did not appear to be seriously injured.

Instead, my back is a bit strange… It doesn't interfere too much with movement, so it's okay.

I did my best not to stumble and headed backstage on the other side.

what to look for.

'A place where the danger is certain.'

It's not a safe place to look at. I might do some crazy shit like the gas burst.

A space where an accident that I could roughly predict would occur.

and… .

'I have to be alone.'

I had to move in a direction away from the other guys as much as possible.

If you get caught up in it, you will lose even the slightest bit of control you have since then.

"… … ."

So, you should never wait here.

It's easy to think of a way for people to approach the collapsed stage through this other side the moment the shock wears off and you get a grip on the situation. let's move fast

I decided to go around the outskirts of the backstage and exit in the direction of the emergency stairs. Fortunately, even though the fire is out, the emergency exit blue light is visible.

"Hoo-wook."

I opened the emergency exit door with my bare hands.

And after a moment of trouble, I ran upward.

‘I went downstairs, but if the top collapsed and I was buried to the point of dying, I couldn’t handle it no matter what I did.’

Go up the stairs as quickly as possible… .

Sigh.

I keep hearing ominous noises behind my back.

‘No way’

But an artificial sound breaks through the creak.

[DING- DNG-]

Ringtone.

An announcement echoed through Dinga’s speakers.

[A guide to the audience. Currently, safety accidents have occurred due to ground instability. Following the guidance of the staff, through the emergency stairs… .]

I immediately stopped walking up and turned my feet.

People may pour into the ‘upstairs hallway’ through the emergency stairs, so let’s fall into the hallway instead.

And that was the moment when I went up one floor, got out of the emergency stairs, opened the door, and stepped into the hallway.

… My head stood on end.

thud.

My footsteps sounded strangely.

to the next… .

The spine-chilling sense of crisis and fear without common sense come again.

‘X feet..!’

I clench my teeth and run one step ahead.

Kkwakkwakkwakkkwak Kwak Kwak Kwak Kwak Kwak!

With a deafening roar, the ground beneath my feet collapsed without warning.

I know why.

‘This is the stage.’

It is the most insecure place in terms of location.

Also, since it is used by the broadcasting station as a storage line, no one resides there.

There should be no

‘Because I chose it on purpose… !’

Okay.

can do. can do!

I pictured the structure in my head.

I do not go to toilets and facilities that are intentionally designed to better withstand large pillars or weight.

If there is a collapse so big that it collapses, the people inside will get hurt amicably.

‘It’s hell.’

There are 1,000 people in the audience alone.

“Huh!”

Dust and air large and small debris splashes.

Where I’m running is… .

[Supplies Room 303]

Here.

‘Not right on the stage!’

Instead of fooling around pulling on the door, I slammed my whole body against it.

and.

Kwakwagwagwang-!

The room shakes.

‘Fuck it’,

you goddamn system son of a bitch.

I clung to the heaviest and most massive thing in the midst of it and brought it to my head.

A roar followed, and the body continued to shake. Small and large objects hit the hands and arms.

how much time has passed

“Huh.”

The roar and vibration stopped.

I closed and opened my eyes repeatedly to secure my sight. I was out of breath.

If you start by checking the objects held in your pale hands… it's iron The combination of hard cotton and pipe looks like a lathe. It was half torn from the wall. No, the wall is torn apart and you can see the dark void beyond it.

I turned my head.

The door I entered was closed when the space was shaken, and it seemed to be caught in a narrow fit.

"… … ."

Doesn't open.

"her."

I found myself trapped in this little supply room. and.

Rolling around… .

Pens that seem to be furnishings are rolled into one corner.

'It's tilted.'

The room itself is tilted and twisted. It seems to be leaning toward the stage and hanging precariously.

"… … Hoo-wook."

I was trapped in a smaller and more unstable space than on the stage.

I can't move.

I tried to accept reality as it was hanging from the iron shelf.

An hour or even just a few tens of minutes ago, all I had to do was finish well.

Now it's like this.

The second time, I somehow survived, but I was being chased by a crazy supernatural power source that was determined to kill me somehow.

"… … suck."

Pain begins to rise throughout the body. But what's stronger than that pain… It's helplessness.

'I don't know.'

How much longer can I hold out?

At least there is no information.

"… … ."

In fact, there is no way to try to contact other people.

I knew.

'The big moon.'

Even if you don't have a smartphone, you can call the opponent's window.

This guy might even know a clue about something. Because I can access the status window… .

But the question is, can I open the status window now?

Maybe that could be some sort of bomb switch that could bring about the next 'nonsense' sooner or result in a more certain death sentence.

so don't call never.

“… … .”

I thought so… I mean.

I loosened my hands. And he bowed his head.

The cold iron cooled his forehead.

‘Isn’t it better to give up?’

According to common sense, if everyone here dies and I die too, then what the hell does all this shit mean?

I don’t know what the human casualties will be if this scale gets bigger and bigger.

‘Idiot.’

Now that I look like a dead man, I wonder if I have the spirit to take care of other people’s lives. It’s funny.

They’re not strangers, they’re the ones I’ve been with for years.

and.

‘… They’re all fans.’

All 1,000 seats in the audience are filled with fans. This is X feet. Isn’t it an environment where I can easily give up, to the extent that I wonder if this was on purpose?

I let out a long sigh.

The shelves were glistening with blood from palm wounds cut by broken smartphones.

‘… heavy.’

I closed my eyes.

He closed his mouth and bowed down.

It was as quiet as the void.

how much time had passed

“… hey?”

“… !!”

human voice.

I looked up.

The first thing I saw was the glowing light.

The iron shelf collapsed, and a yellow light came through from the other side of the half-torn wall.

And a step later, I realized what kind of light it was.

… … It was a light stick.

“Mumundae?!”

What found me over the wall… It was a fan who was sitting in the audience earlier.

Chapter 429

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 429

Talking directly with a fan.

In fact, it’s rare. Most of them communicate indirectly with light sticks shaking on stage or through texts posted on the Internet.

Even at a fan signing event, they lined up and had a short conversation in a space where many people were together.

So it’s extremely rare to have a one-on-one conversation like this.

“… … .”

Even though I am in a suspended room leaning over a collapsed stage. And even though I could die right now.

“Why are you here? Why are you here?!”

A cry was heard from beyond the wall. sound bewildered.

There is little fear or panic. Just about this situation where the stage collapsed.

‘… I don’t know.’

I slowly regained my senses and judged.

The light stick that the fan is holding is quite bright, but it doesn’t shoot forward, so it doesn’t have much of an effect on lighting beyond the field of vision. I’d rather just make that fan look good.

So, that fan is enough to recognize my clothes or my overall outline.

I don’t see my situation or opponent well.

I swallowed and opened my mouth.

“… I came to get something and got stuck. are you okay.”

Are you okay?

A wall was blocking it anyway. In such an unstable situation, why would something crazy and bizarre happen that even involved that person… .

‘Idiot.’

It was right to just send it. Why are you trying to create a variable?

“What can I do? Wait a minute. I will call people… .”

“no. It shouldn’t be too noisy.”

Sending it now would be a problem. I’ll call other people.

The problem is that it was reassuring.

“Oh well… . sorry sorry! then… Shall I go to the other side and open the door?”

“It could be dangerous, so why don’t we wait like this until rescue comes.”

“Yes… .”

I’m glad to have to spend time talking. The eyes are hot.

I never thought the day would come when I felt this way, but it was so funny that I almost laughed out loud.

‘Stupid bastard.’

I stepped back further and leaned against the door as if I were leaning against a wall and again grabbed the iron ledge. As the distance increased, it became more peaceful.

won’t dry up

And he inadvertently opened his mouth.

“Are other people okay?”

“I don’t know, but maybe all the members left. An announcement came out and everyone went out with the audience… .”

fortunately it was I asked, biting my tongue to avoid needlessly feeling relieved.

“… Who is your sister?”

“Nana? I am… oh okay! I’m not sick, and the shaking of the building seems to have almost stopped.”

This person said that he was looking for a place where the production team had collected the stolen cell phones for the purpose of preventing spoilers.

And he found me over the collapsed wall while carefully climbing the emergency stairs.

“I’m a little late to go out, so I’m stuck. I was sitting in the front seat.”

I laughed helplessly. It made my mouth dry.

“yes. saw.”

“… Did you see me?!”

“yes. You were sitting in the front left. So, by my older sister’s standards, she’s on the right side.”

“Huh.”

To be honest, I think I've seen it from time to time since my debut, but let's not bother talking about things like that.

just… let's keep talking

"How did you come? Is it time for the weekend?"

"Ah yes. I'm not working, I… I am a graduate student."

Majored in biotechnology, raised a dog… .

In fact, perhaps that person was also quite anxious, so he usually tells personal stories that he would not have bothered to tell to strangers.

Also, why do you like me, which stage and which broadcast scene did you like and support?

There is a warmth that does not match the situation in the familiar and unfamiliar story.

So will you do more? to forget the situation.

"… I see."

I listened to it quietly.

This one wasn't bad either.

Then, as the other party gradually relaxed, he asked if he had realized that he was trapped in the building again.

"excuse me… Did you stop the performance earlier because it felt weird?"

"It's similar."

Probably didn't see me fall.

Besides, thinking about it, he didn't seem to be surprised that I was alive, so he didn't even see that I was the one who jumped out.

I won’t talk about someone who seems to have been crushed to death by a stage set for fear of disturbing me.

“… Thank you. for your concern.”

“… !! What are you talking about, of course… ah. We’re here in the middle of Seoul, and we’re coming to the rescue soon. do not worry… Let’s wait a little longer!”

It is a courageous voice that is deliberately raised a tone.

I laughed.

“yes.”

A decision was made.

at the same time.

sigh.

There was a sound from the door behind me.

and foreboding.

The cold sweat and nervousness, as if everything was over, the sense of near-miss failure returned again.

‘… … It’s over.’

Sharp judgment that returns in an instant. Why don’t you jump out right now and somehow get over the hole in the wall where the fan is standing?

Like jumping into this furnishings room.

‘If the timing is right… .’

“… … .”

“… Are you Mundae? Are you hurt or sick somewhere?”

Then the chance of getting involved with that fan is extremely high.

“no.”

okay.

I put an iron shelf.

At the same time, an ominous crushing sound rang from behind.

The sound of a door being smashed.

“… !”

“ah.”

Support-support-support-

concrete scraping each other and breaking.

The small supply room fell down and descended with an eerie sound.

At the same time, I ran through the broken door.

thud.

But the corridor is already broken. Moreover, because the furnishings room tilted, it was so high that your hands, not your feet, could barely touch the hallway floor.

All that remains is a black void.

“Suck!”

Tup.

I barely managed to grab hold of the broken hallway and cling to it.

‘… no.’

But the goddamn hand lacks strength.

The output of the limbs, which have already been used several times, has significantly decreased, and even one hand cannot sustain my body.

‘It will fall soon.’

I felt like I could hear a scream calling me from behind the roar.

“… … .”

But it’s okay.

This is the right choice, not the other side.

If I can’t avoid it no matter what, at least I have to choose how to get rid of it.

I hung on to a piece of concrete protruding from the material, thinking I might be the last one.

-brother!

“… … .”

Now that this had happened, there was only one last attempt left.

‘Status window.’

Aim at the status window to contact Big Moon… .

[Settling]

At that moment, the bloody hand slips like a lie.

“… !!”

I just fell into the void.

A short thrill.

Soon, a tremendous sense of blow and pain in the cool darkness should cover the whole body… at the time.

The world has stopped.

As if it had slowed down infinitely, it accelerated as if seeing a kaleidoscope.

And the display of the status window that appears in front of you is suddenly opaque and clearly visible. Hundreds of pop-ups overlap and shine.

Even a new pop-up on top of that.

Seeing that, I remember.

I cleared the last status ailment before… This is a privilege received after completing the truth check at Bae Se-jin’s house.

A law received from the system by Big Moon and expressed in language.

… The guarantee of the status window that you will not be affected by status abnormalities again in the future.

If so,

‘the situation like this X… Contrasting with the title.’

It was then.

I stopped in the air at the tremendous pressure that began as I grabbed my wrist and the force that seemed to cut it off.

Time goes by again.

A voice was heard.

“Mundae… !”

I looked up.

on concrete. I see a white face and a hand holding my arm.

It was Seon Ah-hyun.

“… !”

I don’t know why I’m here or what the situation is.

But I screamed that the pain was real.

“Wait a minute.”

Seon Ah-hyun pulled me with amazing power. And beyond the status window, a phrase appeared on that earnest face.

“Huh.”

short of breath The tension and irrational pressure that filled you up to the top of your head are scrutinized like the ebb and flow, leaving fatigue, pain, and reasonable anxiety to melt away for a while.

“are you okay… .”

I accepted it slowly, almost leaning on Seon Ah-hyun.

“… … .”

that you are still alive.

“Hey water here.”

“… thanks.”

I accepted the plastic bottle of mineral water offered by Seon Ah-hyun. It was a bit difficult to drink because my teeth clashed, but I drank as much as I could and wiped my mouth, and the label came into view.

‘This.’

I didn’t prepare for being caught on camera.

‘… If you pulled it from a vending machine, you wouldn’t have any coins.’

Basically, we were all bare-chested, wearing only our stage costumes. Isn’t it funny to go on stage with something in your pocket? This question will come to light after a while.

“… !! Moondae hyung! Are you okay?”

As she moved a little with Seon Ah-hyeon’s support, she soon ran into Kim Rae-bin, who had packed an emergency flashlight and was carrying a lot of water.

It turns out that as soon as they thought I looked cold, they rushed to the waiting room to find blankets, but they broke up and separated from the members.

‘I don’t know that the stage set has been poured over me.’

I don’t need to talk about it.

“… You are seriously injured. There is a first aid kit in the waiting room, so after disinfecting first… ”

“Okay.”

I asked Rabin Kim, who was about to cry, as calmly as possible.

“Then this is the second floor with a waiting room.”

“You are correct… The source of this water was the waiting room. The road down to the backstage on the first floor was blocked when the ceiling of the stage poured down.

If so.

“What about the other staff?”

“We broke up during the evacuation… I’m not sure where it went.”

“… … .”

I narrowed my eyes and saw the two guys. Now that I look at it, these guys look like they’ve been rolling in a pit of dust.

I don’t think these bastards heard something strange during the evacuation and stayed here to find me.

But it’s not too late to talk about that after escaping, so let’s move on.

‘okay.’

escape.

I checked the status window pop-up that appeared earlier.

In fact, I didn't even put it in.

… I'm afraid it will disappear.

[Mission Failed: Building Collapse]

– Disaster of Collapsing Death

: Until the next accident 00:55:37

Changed from abnormal status failure to mission failure, and the range became narrower and a little kinder.

'Did I connect with it because I have a 'mission constitution'?'

It seems to have been put together somehow.

Still, if I had seen that phrase in the status window before this shit started, I would have wanted to turn around.

But doing this makes me feel at ease. where is an hour

'I can try at least once.'

It is really traumatic when an idol you like gets killed while having a conversation right in front of you. At least I want to leave a trace that I lived a little after that.

I went to the waiting room and received the first aid that Kim Rae-bin insisted on.

"The back… ."

"You just have to go out and get proper treatment.

The hand that heals the back trembled.

“What the hell were you doing upstairs while all this was happening… ?”

“… … .”

After a moment of hesitation, I changed my mind.

for work to be done in the future.

“Actually, I was looking for the big moon.”

“Big moon… ?”

“I saw you in that gold chat before.”

“ah!”

He must have been the one I just tried countless times to search on my status bar. Because he’s the only one who can access the status window.

‘And I think I somehow created a gap in the interpretation by intertwining my title and mission constitution.’

It was similar to what I had done to him a lot.

… He was trying to save me somehow.

then.

‘… I’ll have to see if Big Moon knows more and see if I can deal with this again in a similar way.’

But now communication is impossible.

[‘Mission Failed’ penalty: Restricting use of the status window add-on.]

Now, whenever I try to have a pop-up chat with Keundal, this pops up.

‘We have no choice but to meet in person.’

So let’s be honest here for cooperation.

“This situation appeared on the status window as a preview.”

After explaining the general situation, I swallowed and said with a dry mouth.

“So, find the big moon somehow and discuss if you know anything… .”

“Oh, no.”

“… ?!”

“Right now, Mundae is so hurt. I’ll buy it and look at it until it’s rescued.”

“I want to too.”

Actually, I don’t really want to do that, but let’s do it at least with words.

anyway.

“If you stay still… They say this building will collapse again in 49 minutes and 31 seconds.”

“… !!”

“I might find a way to stop it, so I’ll do something.”

I got up. It seemed that some strength had returned.

let’s move

If it was that guy, he would have stayed in the building while watching this.

* * *

“… … .”

Cheong-rye pressed the call on her smartphone.

The customer's phone is off, so it connects to voicemail…

Beep.

It still made the same sound.

no response.

But the traces in front of my eyes don't lie.

He opened the emergency door and saw a collapsed third-floor hallway.

would have jumped here. and… .

'I was alive.'

At least so far.

He looked down and turned on the flashlight function on his smartphone. There is a mess of concrete and iron.

no bloodstains

"I'd rather find a place that has announcements… "

"Quiet."

"… … ."

Ju Dan shut his mouth.

'Did I follow you for no reason?'

When I saw the leader who left the waiting room, I followed the premonition of the incident and came out, but I was trapped in a collapsed building.

‘There was a game like this… .’

Ju-dan frowned and chased Cheong-ryeo down the emergency stairs.

Knock.

The sound of dripping water echoed through the dark hallway.

“The electricity must have gone out.”

“I’m glad the emergency lights came on, though.”

While I was treating my back in the waiting room and changing my top, perhaps even the flickering lights went out, and the hallway on the second floor became bleak.

‘The wall in one corner even collapsed… .’

It was dangerous. At least, thanks to the flashlight Kim Rae-bin brought, I was able to walk slowly.

“Because it’s okay.”

It shouldn’t have slowed down any further here. I even had to walk.

And after a while, I saw reality in front of the stairs leading to the backstage.

“hmm.”

A chunk of concrete could be seen through the gap where the ceiling material had collapsed on the stage and had been ripped open.

“I got stuck when I heard that second collapsing sound.”

It means that when the hallway on the third floor where I was was destroyed, this place was also destroyed.

‘The first time the stage set collapsed, I guess they told me not to come because it was dangerous.’

Anyway, if you clean up stones to go here, it will eat up for an hour without hesitation, so throw it away without any regrets.

In the end, there is only one way to go.

“We have to go down this way.”

I went to the place where Seon Ah-hyun caught me earlier.

The side of the hallway right next to the stage where one side of the wall had completely collapsed and was pierced through.

“… … .”

I shined down with a flashlight.

Hui-i-

yi- The space expands and the suffocating and cool air touches you.

I could see the remains of the collapsed stage, but everything that was going to collapse had already collapsed, so it looked pretty stable.

“Let’s go down here for now.”

on the collapsed stage.

The stage was huge, encompassing the first floor with audience seats and the second floor with stage equipment.

And the second floor was divided in half centered on the stage, and the right side here where the waiting room is is blocked from going upstairs.

Well, in the end, singers and agency employees are all outsiders, so it was the right design to not connect the upper floors used by those involved, but we were stuck.

‘So, in the end, there is no other way to move.’

Let’s write.

I grabbed what I had prepared in the waiting room.

It is a temporary rope made by twisting and tying thick curtains that were hung in the waiting room for the purpose of changing clothes.

It caught my eye while I was changing clothes.

“Would it be okay with a larger curtain?”

“It’s okay because I twisted it several times.”

Meanwhile, time continued to tick.

[00:33:12]

“33 minutes left. Time is running out, so we have to see if we can move somehow.”

“… … .”

Just to seize the chance to prevent another crazy accident of the building collapsing here.

Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth with a determined face.

“I will go first.”

“No, my… … .”

“Yes! I’ll catch you… !”

“thank you!”

“… … .”

yes do it your way I guess I’ll have to bend over so I can catch it.

Kim Rae-bin asked as he watched Seon Ah-hyun fixing the other side of the curtain with her waist tightly tied.

“Dae-hyung Moon, do you know how exactly the unit of an hour is measured?”

“I want to know that too.”

“It’s an uncertain situation.”

Kim Rae-bin nodded and carefully stepped down from the edge of the concrete.

“If the building collapses in exactly one hour, it sounds like someone predicted that the building would collapse rather than a prediction, so I asked.”

look at this guy

“… Let’s go downstairs and talk. be careful.”

“yes!”

Indeed, he was sharp in theory.

Even earlier, it was clear that he was holding back from wanting to ask a question, “How does the status window know such a thing?”

‘When the system says it’s after me… It will bother you.”

It wasn’t because he blamed me, but because he overprotected or worried unnecessarily, things couldn’t go ahead.

‘Let’s shut up.’

After Kim Rae-bin, I carefully descended onto the wreckage of the stage.

And after confirming that the last Seon Ah-hyun landed safely, I turned my head and looked at the audience… …

“… … .”

“… Who are you?”

There was no answer from the spectator seats covered in dust and darkness.

[—-]

Only a small echo echoes.

I felt uncomfortable…

‘Why are there no people?’

Earlier, when I met a fan who was a graduate student, he said with a nuance that there were other people besides himself who couldn’t get out of it.

‘In the first place, if someone came down from the collapsed stage with flashlights shining on it, the people in the audience would of course react.’

It was quite disconcerting that there was no sound or reaction.

“It’s nothing. first… I will find a way.”

“… yes.”

I grabbed the rope made from the curtain and carefully descended from the stage. And the result of examining it spilled in all directions of the dark audience seats.

'… The door is pressed.'

As the graduate student said, the evacuation routes were all blocked. It is probably the shape that has been twisted and depressed because the weight balance has collapsed.

'If you try to open it by force, but it collapses, there is no answer.'

There seemed to be no way out to the lobby on the first floor.

And there is no one else besides us.

"The big moon that Moon Dae-hyung is looking for must have come as an audience member, so it seems highly likely that he has already escaped."

"Yeah, but I'm sure that Mundae will remain… If that's the case, wouldn't the fact that you're not here mean that you've moved somewhere else?"

"Have you ever seen someone else, Moondae hyung?"

have seen

"… There was a fan on the other side of the emergency stairs."

"… !!"

"We talked through the collapsed wall, but the room I was in collapsed, so I don't know where he went after that."

Concerns and doubts flashed across their faces, but they gave realistic answers first.

"Then you might have gone up."

okay.

However, the emergency exit leading to the emergency stairway on the other side, which I and the graduate students used, was also half-blocked with debris.

“a moment ago… When the mumundae falls, it seems to be clogged with debris then.”

isolation.

[00:26:51]

In the meantime, the time went down to less than 30 minutes.

‘… Let’s stay calm.’

Panic doesn’t help. use your head

‘I think it would be too dangerous to clear the emergency stairs in 20 minutes.’

In the meantime, would it be better to somehow forcefully open the door and let these guys come out?

I held back my sleep. And I saw the darkness beyond the half-exposed emergency stairs.

just can’t get past too narrow

‘All three of us are tall, so no.’

I’d rather scream… Could it adversely affect the building?

‘I just need to be able to communicate somehow.’

I wish I could do a broadcast… for a moment.

“… Rabin.”

“yes?”

I lowered my gaze.

Evacuation routes were all blocked, but there was still one place to move.

The place where the staff resides while preparing for filming. The place where I ran out of panic.

backstage.

And that's what I remember while filming.

'I also prepared new equipment for the shoot this time.'

"Can you use a drone?"

"… ??"

This broadcasting station tried to shoot with a new product in hopes of doing a new technology PPL.

There were one or two flying around during our filming, and I saw the wreckage in front of the stage earlier.

'then.'

Wouldn't there be one or two spares?

I went into a kind of simple editing room that manages temporary stage transmissions backstage.

It was dark here as well, without lights, but it was obvious where to put such heavy and expensive equipment.

"… yes."

And I found it right away, not too late. A drone in a box that had already been ripped open under the desk.

I picked up a drone.

“Let’s send this through the emergency stairs.”

“What a strange idea! I didn’t know that Moon Dae-hyung would have a hobby for drones.”

“doesn’t exist.”

“… ?”

I grabbed Kim Rae-bin’s shoulder.

“I believe you can do it.”

“… … .”

Isn’t he a guy who has mastered music equipment and various electronic devices? I believe that with amazing creativity and intuition, you can do this too.

“I will do my best… .”

okay.

“Hey there, the computer doesn’t turn on… … “

Let’s do it with a laptop.”

It’s a shame, but the internet wasn’t caught, but the drone has its own cellular system built into it, so it doesn’t work… possible.

then.

[Uuuuuuuuuuuuu]

“… ! It’s possible!”

Kim Rae-bin quickly went through the drone manual, picked up the joystick, and with her eyes shining, connected the drone in an instant and activated the drone.

“That’s great, Rabin… !”

“Yeah, that’s great.”

“no! Luckily, it was already connected to the laptop. Then we’ll move right in front of the emergency stairs!”

“Yes!”

‘… Is it a waste to only be an idol?’

I briefly thought about this guy’s abilities, but now wasn’t the time to think about things like this.

[00:17:52]

Time was cut in half again in the meantime.

‘Whoa.’

I clenched my fists and headed for the emergency stairs.

Sigh.

Open the iron door and Seon Ah-hyun fixes it with one foot.

Kim Rae-bin sat down holding a joystick.

“then… I will send it.”

“okay.”

[Wheeying-]

A drone flew through the black darkness.

“Fortunately, I have enough batteries, so the attached lights are doing their job.”

“I know… !”

In the camera linked to the laptop, you can see the screen of a drone driven by a beginner tilting and holding it awkwardly. Climb the stairs quickly and see the light… .

“There is a hole in the wall here.”

‘… You were standing here.’

This is the hole in the wall I was talking to the graduate student earlier.

Now, instead of the furnishings room that leans into the air on the stage and touches the wall on the third floor, the light from the drone simply crosses the air.

“… … .”

On the other side of it, there was a road connected to the backstage on the other side where I came out of the stage equipment, but it is an iron door, so I can’t open it with a drone.

… where did you go

“Let’s keep going.”

“yes.”

Let’s find some traces of people.

So, when you turn the corner on the railing at the top of the dark stairs colored by blue emergency exit lights and red fire hydrant lights and look up… .

“… … .”

“… I am blocked.”

thud.

Above it is again clogged with debris from the third floor entrance.

This is the floor where the furnishings room I entered earlier was located.

It seemed to be blocked by the shock of the floor collapsing.

“… … .”

The search is over. Without any trace or income.

“ah… .”

“What would you like me to do?”

[00:15:47]

X-shot.

I swallowed and worked my brain as hard as I could.

If your stomach is blocked… .

“Let’s go underground.”

“ah!”

Emergency stairs will lead to the underground parking lot.

Psychologically, people may have been reluctant to go down underground from a collapsing building, so they could have gone upstairs, but rationally, it is possible to escape that way as well.

If there was a parking lot, it would have been designed to withstand the load well, and the entrance was large, so it might not have collapsed.

‘Keundal could have remembered that.’

“Then I will go there.”

[00:14:25]

The drone flies again. Let’s go down and down… .

“… !”

“The door is open!”

Surprisingly, you can see an iron door artificially held by using a fire extinguisher.

‘I prepared for the collapse and the door to be twisted.’

“Looks like someone… !”

“Yes, let’s go in!”

Kim Rae-bin carefully moved the joystick with his impatient hand.

Hazard lights flash through the laptop screen.

There was a corridor beyond the iron gate, but no matter how I looked at it, it didn’t look like a road leading to an underground parking lot… .

It seemed like a space used by facility management staff, but I’m not sure because it was dark. There must be a resting room or a CCTV room.

‘Could everyone evacuate this way?’

But there are no traces of people… for a moment.

“that.”

“oh!”

“It’s like a person.”

At the end of the hallway, next to the rugged gray door, I saw something. As soon as Kim Rae-bin saw it, he moved the drone faster and approached… .

“… ??”

“… !?”

man was right however… .

“Seniors?”

It was a cast iron.

The guy standing in front of the door as if he were a sentry makes eye contact as if he had checked the drone, makes a mysterious expression, then puts his chin on his head and nods. Why isn’t this kid surprised… no more than that

‘Why are you here?’

Since VTIC was in the waiting room, we should have been able to get out right away… No, come to think of it, these guys were also in the waiting room and couldn’t get out.

I looked back at Seon Ah-hyun and Kim Rae-bin, but they were also in a state of infatuation with the seniors with whom they had indirectly contacted out of the blue.

‘driving me crazy.’

[00:12:46]

I alternated between the remaining time in the pop-up window and the notebook’s cycle.

‘Let’s think. If you think… .’

Then all of a sudden, when your head seems to be overloaded. A bell rang from behind.

[DING-DING-]

“… !”

No, it’s not like the ringing of a smartphone… This.

“Announcement… ?”

The moment I heard Seon Ah-hyun’s voice, I took my eyes off the laptop screen and raised my head.

Loud voices from the speakers hanging everywhere next to the collapsed stage spread throughout the audience.

[This is a guide to those who are still in the building. The vibration seems to have almost stopped. However, actions such as breaking the door can be dangerous.] [

You can wait for the rescue team in a safe place, such as near the emergency stairs or the central pillar in the bathroom.]

It was a calm and articulate male voice. .

No matter who hears it, it’s the right voice to come out as an announcement in an emergency situation.

The problem is that it’s a voice I know.

And it’s a voice that even the guys next to me know.

“… Sesejin hyung?”

That’s Sejin Bae.

Why is that bastard not going out and broadcasting over there?!

Chapter 431

Episode 431

I took a deep breath.

… Let's sort it out.

Bae Se-jin is holding the microphone in the announcement broadcast, and VTIC Ju-dan can be seen on the drone screen.

'I'm kidding.'

There are 12 minutes left until the collapse.

All the managers and staff are not X-sin idiots, and all of them escaped except for some celebrity.

[DING-DING-]

"The broadcast is over… In the meantime ,

Sejin Bae's voice disappeared.

'If so',

first of all, the person who is continuously confirmed is first attracted quickly. If you parent here, you can lose everything.

I gritted my teeth and looked at the laptop screen.

There is a cast iron… why not

“Where has this guy gone?”

“… ! He probably didn’t go into the room… ?”

Fortunately, the guy appeared on the screen again.

Holding a piece of A4 paper with text on it.

– Are you a survivor inside the building??

It was an attempt at communication.

“omg!”

“There is no function to send voice to this drone, so what should I do… .”

“Control the drone up and down.”

“ah.”

According to Kim Rae-bin’s operation, the drone’s view fluctuates. Then Ju Dan writes a new text on A4 and shows it.

– Looking for an escape route?

Rabin Kim nodded.

“hmm. We’re looking for people, so to be precise, the first thing to do is to say no… .”

“for a moment.”

Can not be done.

“It’s even weirder when a person trapped doesn’t find a way out. Let’s try to find it.”

“indeed!”

I had to start there and move the conversation quickly.

‘I’ll ask if there are any achievements on our side or guess the identity.’

I drew the conversation history in my head, pointing to this guy’s next answer.

In the meantime, the guy who confirmed that the drone was moving up and down again scribbled on the A4 and lifted the completed sentence.

… Words I wasn’t expecting.

-There is an escape route in the staff area in the basement here.

“… ?!”

“Uh uh uh.”

The sentence was not over.

-There is a door leading to the outside, but emergency power comes in and works.

“Then… .”

“Preventing the collapse is important, but securing an escape route is also important as time is running out!”

“Yeah right!”

That’s right. If necessary, the remaining personnel must be sent out.

the problem is… .

‘I have to ask when it’s been working.’

Normally, a building of this size would last for less than an hour even with emergency power, but I don’t know how much time is left.

‘And this guy has a door, so why isn’t he going out?’

one more.

… Usually the door just opens, and you don’t need power.

The guy who was watching the shaking drone writes one more line on the paper in real time.

-However, a staff pass is required.

‘also.’

what was it

I think I found a door for staff that needs a security key to open.

-Please find the staff pass and come to the basement.

The stairs are blocked. this child

I don’t know how it happened that I fell alone and went to the basement, but in the end, only the mission was renewed.

‘… Find the staff card and go to the basement.’

That too.

[00:10:34]

In this hour.

“… … .”

“I don’t think the staff ID wasn’t there in the editing room earlier… Still, I’ll look for it one more time… !”

“Then I will find a way to go underground… Moondae hyung?”

I put my laptop on the floor.

“Ten minutes left. Both are impossible.”

“… … .”

“I will use another method.”

“yes?”

There’s nothing you can do about it.

I got up and grabbed the curtain rope I had packed earlier.

* * *

Ju Dan raised his head. From the end of the dark hallway, a bright light shines on you.

[Weiying~]

It was a drone that is now a familiar element in modern disaster apocalypse content.

‘Hoo.’

He rested his chin and nodded. Gradually, the survivors who are isolated in the building are finding their way out in various ways.

Then I’ll have to respond in the traditional way.

He quickly turned around and entered the room.

“I wonder if I can borrow the smartphone my older brother is holding… .”

“… … .”

No answer.

What did you really expect?

He quickly changed his route and picked up the A4 paper.

-Are you a survivor inside the building?

The drone moves up and down hard. Oh, he was a man who knew how to respond. Ju-dan was interested and gave the information he knew quite sincerely.

‘What I’m looking for is… hmm. That’s a bit overkill.’

You have to live within your means. After shrugging his shoulders, Zhu Dan staggered at the surprising information and suddenly saw the drone that had fallen to the ground.

‘The probability of being surprised and looking for the staff is more than half.’

This was enough to protect his humane duty.

“Hyung, a drone just came and we had a short conversation. It’s not a rescue team, it’s another survivor trapped in this building.”

“okay.”

And there was a party of his own who did not show interest in this singularity.

Facility management room in the basement.

Standing there, Cheong-Ryeo was operating the device with an expressionless expression.

I thought I wouldn’t be able to see CCTV because the power went out, but I turned a few CCTVs on a small screen just before gearco using a portable security device that was charged wirelessly.

Usually idols have never done it and have no way to know how to do it.

‘Those things must be the experience accumulated while returning.’

Judan concluded that he might have lived as a murderer under pressure at least once in his many lives, so he should be polite in the future.

Whether he does it or not, Cheong-Ryeo quickly turns over the CCTV with mechanical hand movements.

The screen is dark because the lights do not come on and then the screen again.

“… … .”

and then.

“ah.”

there is.

Cheong-Ryeo checked the In-Young she was looking for through the open wall of the emergency stairway on the second floor, illuminated by the light of the light stick.

Moondae Park.

Right after that, he confirmed without a slight movement that the entire furnishings room where Park Mundae was located collapsed.

“… … .”

He found that his reasoning based on experience was surprisingly accurate.

There was no particular joy.

It’s just confirming what I already knew.

It was on the collapsed stage that the furnishing room was poured. There is no CCTV because it is originally caught with broadcasting equipment. So it was impossible to check here.

Although there were no bloodstains when I checked with the naked eye earlier… It may have been buried under it.

“… … .”

Chung-rye lowered her hand.

I knew that I could check the audience seats around me with the remaining battery.

But I felt rejected.

because… .

‘Because it’s quiet.’

If Moondae Park had lived, irrational disasters would still have to be poured out.

But being quiet… It means it’s over.

“… … .”

‘Why do I have to confirm that this guess is also correct?’

Cheong-rye looked down at the equipment without expression.

And the silk fabric was also watching it. a bit far-fetched

“… ?”

Does that brother even have flashbacks?

It was then.

Kiki Kiki Kiki Kwa Kwa Kwa Kwang!

“… !!”

Above your head, no further away… Somewhere upstairs, a tremendous vibration and noise struck down and hit the basement.

It was the third collapse.

“Ugh!”

Things fall and shake everywhere.

Zhu Dan thought as he immediately got under the desk to protect his head.

‘Is it a double line?’

The role of giving good information to the main characters who flew the drone and dying when they come to the basement.

‘That’s troublesome.’

He made up his mind to be fully prepared, and conscientiously raised his head to see the party.

And I was surprised.

“… !”

Cheong-Ri… was smiling faintly.

It was even unrealistic to see them standing still and smiling amidst shaking equipment and flickering lights.

‘… Do you feel the sense that you are alive in danger?’

It was a guess.

And amidst the roar and collapse, the murmur of the young woman was heard.

“Shall we go find it?”

* * *

8 minutes before collapse.

“Are you dumb?”

“for a moment.”

I returned to the collapsed stage and carefully climbed back onto it.

‘The place we came down earlier.’

And I looked around the structure of this place, including the stage.

The second floor area is divided into right and left halves in the shape of a ‘U’ because of the stage that occupies the space in the middle.

‘The one we fell on using the curtain as a rope is the waiting room area on the right.’

A collapsed wall was visible on the right.

And the second floor on the other side is an office area used by broadcasting staff and officials.

A place where you can go upstairs. but nowhere to go.

‘After’

I caught my breath and turned my head to the two guys.

“I have a favor.”

“What… ?”

“I need to go up there again, can you help me?”

“… !”

When he said he would go back to the waiting room hallway, he clearly looked embarrassed.

“I’m trying to find a staff ID… going to be?”

“Similar. But there is no time to explain.”

I said quickly.

“If I go… … .”

“I don’t have time to explain how to find it. Hurry up!”

Seon Ah-hyun bit her lip. He looked like he would shout no sooner, but he soon nodded with a firm face.

“Ah Okay. … I believe in it.”

“… … okay.”

Damn.

I turned around and tied the curtain rope around my waist so I wouldn’t needlessly shed my guilt.

If you hang it in the middle and go up, even if you stumble, you won’t die, and if you go up all the way and tie one side to the wall, you’ll be able to catch these guys later.

“You have to lean in… !”

“You have to be comfortable!”

“okay.”

I grabbed the two of them’ thighs and shoulders and ran, reaching into the air.

‘Caught… !’

done.

After grabbing the rebar, I raised my other hand on the second floor floor with arm strength and recoil.

The ship crashes roughly into the broken concrete.

snap.

‘Damn it’

hurts so bad. But the important thing is… .

‘It means you’ve arrived… !’

“Huh.”

After I climbed onto the floor of the second floor as if rolling over. I untied the curtain rope from my waist. A cry was heard from below.

“Gwa are you okay?!”

“uh! It’s sharp and dangerous, so get away from the stage and go to the center pillar, I’ll call you when it’s over!”

“All right! How many minutes do you have left?”

[00:04:31]

“… 8 minutes!”

If you do this, you won’t fall into a panic even after 4 minutes.

I confirmed they were listening and moved my feet.

And I went around several rooms with the flashlight on and looked for the employee ID, but I couldn’t find it either.

It deserves it. Because this is a space used by outsiders.

[00:01:57]

‘There was no employee ID even backstage.’

After all, the space where the staff was located was correct. I had to go to the office space on the second floor on the other side.

But what if there is no road?

‘… I have to make it.’

I turned around and walked to the end of the hallway, estimating the position of the stage.

“… … Whoa.”

here.

Beyond the wall of this small waiting room is the opposite area. maybe.

“… … .”

Of course, I don’t have the ability to break down this wall. It might be a more realistic way to clear the front of the emergency stairs below, but… There is no time.

‘If that’s the case.’

Don’t you think like this?

see.

It’s a certainty that the building will collapse soon after targeting me. However, even if the building collapses again, the debris accumulated in the already collapsed place does not disappear.

‘But a good wall can be knocked down… !’

[00:01:03]

I started moving heavy objects around the waiting room in front of the wall.

‘Earlier, the wall fell precisely aiming at me.’

If so, it is likely that this disaster, which was renamed ‘Mission Failure’ because the Big Moon (presumably) found an inconsistency, was more localized and moderate there.

Won’t you kindly inform them that it’s a collapse?

‘Use it in reverse.’

I’ve lived twice, so I’ll do better this time.

Take a deep breath, calm down and prepare.

A countdown has entered.

[00:00:03]

[00:00:02]

[00:00:01]

Pop.

breaking sound.

I’m leaning against the wall

[00:00:00]

Turned sideways.

“… !”

At the same time, the room shakes with a tremendous explosion. And the heavy furniture and iron props piled up in front of me were poured into the seat where I was.

Kiki-kiki-kiki-gwa-gwang!

Even heavy ceiling lights. At the moment of the regret of having done something crazy… No, shut up. This is all. this is right!

‘X-foot’,

in action!

I rolled onto my side.

“Sigh”

and slipped under the dressing table.

Sharp debris bounces off my cheeks and burns.

Chii-iik-

and the crashing noise and shaking. when it faded a bit.

… Unexpected sounds also start ringing loudly.

“Aaaagh!”

“Mom!”

screams and cries.

“… … .”

I staggered out from under the dressing table.

All kinds of things were smashed and rolling on the floor. And beyond the half-collapsed wall, light and sound were leaking. walked slowly

Beyond the wall I saw after stepping on the rubble… .

“This person… Mumundae??”

More than ten people were sitting in front of the elevator.

It didn’t end there.

Sounds come from here and there in the hallway, dimly visible from the blinking emergency lights.

“Who are you?”

“What’s going on now?”

“… … .”

Everyone who wasn’t in the audience was here.

‘what.’

I blinked. And with that shock, a beat late… saw.

[Management Office]

The nameplate on the open door shows an announcement device with a microphone.

And the guy who ran out of there.

“… Moondae Park?”

It was a big Sejin wearing a stage costume.

He looked at me in disbelief, then ran over and grabbed my head with both hands.

It didn’t end there.

“Mundae??”

“what?”

Others come out one by one from beyond the door.

“Moondae hyung!!”

“you… you… !!”

Ryu Cheong-wu rolled up Cha Yu-jin’s arm, whose harness was torn.

And even Bae Se-jin, who was broadcasting earlier.

‘… no.’

It was the worst. It’s like a nightmare that all these guys are left here.

Even so.

I’m damn glad

I struggled to open my mouth.

“… sorry.”

“You crazy crazy bastard… !”

“… … .”

It’s the first time I’ve heard a big Sejin swear like this. Even in front of the fans.

But he wasn’t angry. The pain in his ribs from hugging him was tolerable.

‘It’s heavy, bastard.’

I paused all the questions and confirmations and accepted the reunion.

But the popup was updating again.

Chapter 432

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 432

A few hours ago.

After Park Moon-dae rushed out onto the stage and stage equipment poured over him like a lie.

Aaaaaagh!

Whoops!

On the backstage filled with screams and confusion, Sejin Lee stood there and thought.

'Is it a dream?'

I guess I'm having a strange nightmare.

If not, how could a member who had been fine all of a sudden collapse and run out onto the stage, with stage equipment pouring down on top of him?

No matter how paranormal you've experienced, this is so absurd… So it's nonsense.

'This can't happen… .'

match.

ache.

"Wake!"

When I turned my head, I saw Bae Se-jin slapped his back with a white face.

“Maybe he’s alive. He’s alive. I’ll have to check…” !”

“… !!”

Sejin Lee took a deep breath. sound poured in.

He looked again at the stage where the massive, massive apparatus had collapsed in a mess.

It wasn’t the density of a human-like Gebo at all. But, but the possibility that there is a space inside… .

“I need to check inside.”

Perhaps he had heard those dumb words, but he heard Liu Cheng-wu speaking in a rare emotional voice.

“Opposite Backstage!”

“… !”

“Let’s go that way!”

Cha Yoo-jin immediately jumped out. The rest of the members also started going in the opposite direction by turning around the backstage while the staff and staff were unable to stop them due to confusion.

But on the other side of arrival… Only the completely collapsed steel frame was piled up like a terrifying sculpture.

“… … suck.”

Chi support… .

Electricity bouncing from broken lights.

And a little bloodstained steel frame.

The moment it was crushed, I could imagine what it would be like to be terrified.

It didn't work.

'I'll be alive here… … .'

That was the moment.

thud.

I'm going to go to the middle of the day, and I'm going to go to the middle of the day!

It's like thinking is a meme. In an instant, even the concrete structure of the ceiling above the stage collapses again.

"… !!"

*Come here! hurry!"

The walls shook.

"Go in at once!"

The members jumped up the emergency stairs opened by Cha Yu-jin in a hurry and grabbed them.

And hearing the screams and shouting footsteps heard everywhere, they must have escaped by following the instructions of the staff.

Even if you haven't seen this.

"… Bloodstains here!"

What Bae Se-jin unknowingly found was Park Moon-dae's bloodstains leading up.

“… That’s how it happened.”

“… … .”

Ryu Cheng-wu brushed off all of the briefly summarized explanations so far.

After that, the people who were still in the building were gathered to make it easier to escape, but after another collapse, all the doors on the 1st and 3rd floors were blocked and they were isolated on the 2nd floor.

And I realized

I saw it earlier with a drone… The iron door on the second floor opposite the wall of the collapsed emergency staircase.

That wasn’t the door I got out of backstage when the stage collapsed. At that time, I was frantically running upwards, and then I was confused for a moment.

‘The higher backstage door would have been next to where we flew the drone.’

The iron door on the second floor that was firmly closed… In fact, it is connected to this office space.

Ryu Cheng-wu finished his speech.

“So Sejin came up with an announcement. Fortunately, the walkie-talkie is rechargeable, so I can use it.”

“… … .”

That’s why I couldn’t throw away the possibility that I could remain here alive, so I couldn’t escape with that difference.

I’m going crazy.

I barely said

“thank you. But in the future… .”

“… from now on?”

I was about to say, ‘Don’t do such a reckless thing’, but I realized that I had a three-pointed nose and decided to keep my mouth shut.

There’s no way these guys would have stayed if I hadn’t done what looked like suicide in the first place.

“… I’ll explain when I have time, but I’m really in a hurry this time.”

“… … .”

Liu Qingyu looked at me with an expression that he had a lot to say, but in the end he didn’t pour it out.

Because I have explained it.

“… Let’s get up now, saying that we don’t have enough time.”

“yes.”

I don’t know if it’s a system or what, but I just explained that the status bar popped up a collapsed message.

[00:26:03]

“Then you have to find the big moon first.”

“yes. But for others, escape is a priority.”

Then open the door to the office and come out. Just then, someone bursts out from the next room.

“Here you are!”

Cha Yoo-jin was holding three or four employee ID cards in her hands.

In these few minutes, the office in this hallway has already achieved its goal.

“I found the fans together. Let’s go out now!”

There must also be sufficient manpower.

In the same sense, we were able to take care of the two guys in the audience at the same time because there were enough people.

“omg!!”

I turned my head to the screams of the fans next to me.

“Bar Park Moondae… !”

“brother! You’re all right!”

“… !”

Beyond the wall, I saw the two guys Sejin Bae had brought. Maybe I felt the same way too.

It must have been climbed using the hanging rope, but it is more dusty than before.

“… … .”

And both of them looked like they were about to burst into tears.

As for them… Suddenly, the building collapsed early, and I lost contact with the guy who climbed up.

Damn.

“that… .”

I hastily rolled my head.

“I miscalculated the time.”

“I don’t believe you.”

It was a big deal.

“Park Moon-dae, you… .”

“It was a real mistake.”

I moved along with Seon Ah-hyun and Kim Rae-bin as if I was surrounded under Bae Se-jin’s suspicious gaze. In the meantime, it is surprising that Kim Rae-bin even brought a laptop and a drone joystick.

“Kim Raebin! are you okay? What is it? We have to make our bodies lighter!”

“You shouldn’t carelessly judge whether it’s worth it based on your knowledge… … Rabin

Kim rarely checked his surroundings and grasped the atmosphere.

“… It’s something that could potentially be used to escape!”

The problem was this. Dozens of fans are staring at us right now.

I can still hear whispers.

“Are all the kids left?”

“ah… oh my god.”

In this situation, if we disappear and talk to each other in order to brief the status window, something might happen.

In fact, being in a confinement situation is all the same, but as a public figure, it attracts attention. Since they were fans in the first place, they are still concerned about us as much as their own situation.

It means that he didn’t just enter the room and talk with Ryu Cheng-wu for nothing.

I had to spread it while being careful not to say unnecessary things, so the difficulty level was a bit higher.

Of course, the remaining time is tighter.

[00:24:01]

Of course, there are people who are still agitated by the rapidly changing atmosphere and situation.

“excuse me… Are you having any problems?”

“are you okay. It’s because I accidentally fell alone in the beginning and everyone was surprised.”

“ah… … .”

I smiled as moderately as I could. I hope it was roughly similar to a fan signing event.

The fan was glancing at my changed top. The rest of them will stand out because they are all in stage costumes.

‘They didn’t notice the wound.’

“That’s right~ Still, it’s so nice to meet you like this, right? I was really surprised and happy! I guess we just have to worry about getting out safely!”

Big Sejin trembles and pats my shoulder.

Even so, the guy who even cursed at me earlier must have suffered a bit as if he were a good reader in the hallway atmosphere.

“thanks… .”

“Go out and talk.”

“… … .”

No, because there was a situation… what happened

I started right away with the urgent.

“Is there any male audience here?”

There are people scattered all over the office, so it’s quite possible that there will be a big moon among them.

‘Maybe I didn’t even notice this commotion because I was accessing the status window.’

If you’ve tried to search more than a hundred times, you must have put all your mind into it.

“If it’s something I’m struggling with, can’t we all do it together?”

“no. ah. It’s not like that, it’s because I’m looking for someone.”

“iced coffee… .”

Everyone starts looking for people without bothering to ask what the matter was, as if I seemed in a hurry.

But no. Most of the fans are female, and the one or two remaining staff members are also female.

“hmm.”

Any further delay would be foolish.

“What… ”

“It’s okay. Let’s start evacuating immediately.”

I said to the fans and winked at Liu Chengyu. Liu Cheng-wu calmly gathered the people and began to tell them to go underground.

“You see Lavin over there? It’s a controller, and with that, they confirmed that there was a door in the basement. Disrupting our order, in turn… .”

People quickly rose to the hopeful story. Then, with anxious faces, even the people who were scattered here and there raised their heads.

Among them was a man squatting in a corner of a room and sticking his head out.

“What is it?”

“… !!”

I’ve heard the same sound many times, but this time it’s a little different.

Because I just heard that cheering rod and voice.

‘ah.’

… It was a fan I saw earlier in the supply room. postgraduate student.

You ran away well.

“Uh… .”

“hello. I saw you earlier. we.”

When our eyes met, I could see that he was holding back tears.

It seems that I did not tell anyone that I think I died from falling.

‘Even if I say it, it will only create fear.’

It’s easy for anyone to think like that, but it wasn’t normal to put up with it.

I spoke in the most moderate voice. I don't have time, but I fucking gotta do this.

"I came out well thanks to Ah Hyun. Thank you for your concern."

"no… ."

His face soon calmed down, as if he was trying to keep his composure as much as possible given the situation. Being a graduate student, it seems that one of the two is certain, whether it is mental strength or a high threshold for mental pain.

Anyway, now is not the time to enjoy the afterglow. I should imitate you too.

I also asked this graduate student.

I couldn't see the man himself, so this time I thought of collecting eyewitness accounts.

"Have you ever seen a man with glasses this tall? You should look like you are in your late 20s."

"You look good."

"… … ."

Even when Sejin is upset, he helps out. I don't know if that helps.

The graduate student had a blank expression on his face, not knowing what the hell this was about. I knew it… .

"I think I know me!"

"… !!"

"I fell while leaving the front seat and couldn't use the escape route in time… . At that time, there was someone who helped me and lifted me up!"

what?

A graduate student gesticulates.

“I wear a hat and glasses like this… He’s tall, fair-skinned, and yes, I think he’s handsome!”

They match perfectly.

I asked hastily.

“Did he evacuate?”

“Ah no, it was already blocked by evacuation, so the members called and tried to come up together… … .”

The graduate student had a face that he knew he would be somewhere after falling into chaos.

But there is no such guy here.

“uh? where did you go… ?”

Damn!

“When will that be?”

“That was the second time it went crazy! The entire battlefield fell off the stage and just… When it did!”

“You came up the emergency stairs.”

“Uh uh!”

After taking a deep breath, I drew the route with my head.

This person was sitting in the left front audience seat.

‘I would have run back and tried to get out.’

However, I fell down in the middle, and the big moon helped me up, and in the meantime, the escape route was blocked and everyone went to the emergency stairs.

‘But there is no big moon on the emergency stairs… ‘

Even when I saw it with a drone, I couldn’t see it, and the top of the 3rd floor collapsed.

then.

“… … .”

oh shit

I turned and ran down the hallway.

“hey!”

“Who remains! Everyone else, please use the emergency stairs to go downstairs!”

I screamed and then jumped over the wall.

Then, in an instant, Seon Ah-hyun and Big Se-jin joined on both sides.

“You now… ”

“I think I found it!”

I passed the waiting room and headed for the collapsed stage, where the stair ropes were still hanging.

And saw.

Audience seats beyond the stage.

“W Why are you here again… ”

I caught my breath as I held onto the rope.

“He will be here.”

“… !!”

The big moon is still in the audience.

‘And the reason we haven’t met even though we’ve been here for a while… .’

Because I can’t meet you.

“But he must be down.”

“… !”

Why did he suddenly disappear from the movement? it can’t move

‘Isn’t it that I can’t use my body?’

There is a possibility that he went beyond concentrating on accessing the status window to stop this shit and opened the status window again… high.

So I couldn’t follow the emergency stairs, and then I still… .

“I’m sure you’ll be in the audience.”

My head clears up.

I grabbed the rope and wrapped it around my waist. I was going to go down and search like this, but… for a moment.

‘there is a problem.’

As my head cleared, I could see the size of the dark spectator seats.

“… under.”

This is an audience seat that can accommodate 1,000 people.

After finding and waking up in this area within the time, what would I have time to discuss with him?

[00:19:35]

In this hour?

Then you can go back up here and go underground.

"… … ."

it's X

In fact, I knew I had to move quickly at the time to feel that sentiment, but when I instinctively lost my strength and let go of the rope at the moment.

A low voice came from the side.

"Park Moon-dae, you're hurt right now."

"not really."

"No, give it to me because I'll come down quickly."

Big Sejin held out his hand with a firm expression. And Seon Ah-hyun approaches without hesitation.

"no… ! I've used ropes and know the bottom well… I'll come."

Going crazy.

I would have wrapped a rope around my waist well. You might be lucky, so the moment you think about whether to just throw your body down.

Fighting.

"… !"

Huge stage and audience seats. The end of that dark and vast space.

A small sound was heard from the blue light in the corner. It was an emergency exit.

“That… This is where the drone was put in because it was half-blocked.

However, like a lie, shoes come out from there.

Men’s dress shoes that are dusty but still look good.

And the face of the upper body where the long legs come out under the emergency light and finally shake off the hands… .

“… !!”

Cheongrye.

He didn’t even look around the audience seats once, he looked straight ahead. on the collapsed stage. To us with flashlights.

“… … .”

this… What’s the situation? Cheong-rye smiled faintly under the emergency light and opened her mouth.

“Who are you looking for?”

In his hand was a portable monitoring device that appeared to be for facility staff.

… CCTV.

Chapter 433

If you can’t debut, you get a fatal disease Episode 433

“… … .”

I stopped my hand.

This is not the first time that an unexpected face has appeared in a collapsed building, but it is low-pitched that it is not realistic.

Cheongrye.

I thought he would already be doing an interview outside.

‘I thought they escaped smoothly.’

Isn’t that someone with experience?

However, no matter how dark the audience seats were, the blue eyes under the emergency lights were not hallucinations.

No, and even if there were, how did you get out of the half-blocked emergency door?

However, there is no time or space for long doubts.

As if he had seen a ghost, he started walking in a frozen atmosphere. The sound of footsteps echoes, and the voice is heard again.

“Your junior?”

In that moment, I knew what to do.

“The one in your hand.”

I swallowed.

“Is it CCTV?”

“… … .”

He stopped in front of the stage and looked up.

“I was also looking for something.”

“person.”

I lifted the rope again.

“There is a person who has collapsed in this audience.”

“… … .”

“I have to find it.”

Cheongryeo stopped and turned her gaze to the audience.

I stared at him in a cold sweat, barely noticing that the rope had been taken back by Seon Ah-hyun.

And the answer came back.

“I think I already found it.”

“… !”

He heard the CCTV device.

An infrared camera was running near the main entrance evacuation route.

“excuse me!”

I hurriedly turned the flashlight on. A slumped leg is visible under the rear seat on the left exterior.

Big Se-jin, who ran closer, illuminated his upper body with his flashlight.

“for a moment.”

As he turns his upper body, which has fallen under the chair, a familiar face is revealed.

Ryu Gun-woo’s face with his hat off.

It’s a big month.

‘after.’

I exhaled.

Cheongryeo’s CCTV, which was ‘accidentally’ watching the audience, was able to record and confirm even the appearance of a large moon suddenly falling at the time of evacuation.

I have a lot to say about it though.

“I’ll get you up right now.”

“for a moment.”

now this is urgent

While holding the large moon, I checked the status window.

[00:15:53]

… There is no change.

‘It’s impossible to have contact.’

After all, I’ll have to talk directly so I can sort things out.

“Keundal Bakmundae Ryu Gun-woo!”

I used all the titles he had used and tapped and shook Big Moon’s shoulder.

However, the big moon does not even flinch and just shakes when an external force comes in.

‘… no way.’

I put my hand under his nose. Fortunately, he is hiding. It’s pretty stable, even like sleeping.

then… That I still can’t wake up.

‘I still don’t know what’s going on inside the status window.’

I decided not to waste any more useless time. Because the time limit was tight.

‘Still, going out is no problem.’

Once up and moving… .

“it’s crazy?”

“I gave myself a mouse… !”

“… … .”

… I tried to do it, but I ended up moving along with the other guys.

“You have to move in a line.”

“… okay.”

The roads going down underground would all come together and there wouldn’t be enough space to move.

Still, it was fortunate that the aisle toward the emergency stairway where Cheongryeo came out was open, so it was time to go back.

I lifted the big moon together with Ahyeon Seon and Sejin. As long as the balance is right, lifting one guy doesn't seem to be a big problem.

"Would you like to listen?"

"done."

I had no intention of making another one. However, Chung-rye unexpectedly held up the neck of the large moon from the front.

"… !"

'What is this bastard kangaroo?'

We'll get our appreciation for this wonderfully cooperative thing later.

"Let's go for now."

First is escape.

We started moving quickly towards the emergency stairs. The dark spectator seats quickly brush back.

A voice came from the black silhouette of Sejin in front.

"Senior, I didn't expect to see you here, but how did you stay?"

"well."

Big Se-jin tried to bite his teeth and endured it with superhuman expression management, which was reflected in the flashlight. It's not like other people's work.

'I shouldn't ask questions.'

[00:13:06]

13 minutes left.

And although the area in front of the emergency stairs that arrived was littered with rubble, it was passable enough if you stepped on it well.

I don’t know when it was cleaned, but ‘enough.’

“Let’s go in carefully!”

“okay.”

We entered the emergency exit, being careful not to break Big Moon’s neck or limbs.

Then, out of nowhere, a voice came right next to my ear.

“You are here.”

“… ??”

I was about to hit

Instead, when I turn my head, what I see is the one I saw earlier with a drone. A panicked voice is heard from Seon Ah-hyun, who raised a flashlight.

“Senior Seo… ?”

“Nice to meet you. testers. As expected, given the circumstances, I thought there would be at least one person you rescued.”

It was VTIC cast.

Why is the guy who looked at the exit from the basement here… no way.

I glanced over at him.

Unlike the blue guy, who was wearing a suit while watching MCs, Joo Dan was dressed in plain clothes, befitting a guy who had just arrived in the waiting room.

In a word, it means that it is more suitable for work.

'… This guy cleaned it up together.'

"Let's go for now."

Somehow, it didn't make sense to clean the cheongrye alone, so there was another labor force.

Ju Dan shrugged his shoulders as he brushed off his dusty gloves.

"We were cooperating pretty hard for the perfect timing."

I don't know what kind of bullshit it is.

"And it goes with a classic successful happy ending."

Think freely.

"Yes, thank you anyway."

In the meantime, his eyes, which had adapted to the darkness, finally checked the fans who were moving with their heads covered behind him.

It seems that they have started to evacuate after tidying up.

"Journal cast iron??"

The person who discovered VTIC unconsciously shouts out the name like just before, but basically everyone keeps their mouths shut and moves their feet without hesitation.

Someone is going to get hurt moving a crazy person between them.

"I have to send and move."

“okay.”

We caught our breath while leaning against the big moon for a moment.

‘after.’

I suddenly opened my mouth while watching people go down at intervals so that they would not fall.

It’s because the staff took it away to prevent spoilers, so the audience didn’t have it, but Cheong-Ri remembered what he had.

‘I was on the phone.’

Smartphone.

“Did you report it?”

“ah.”

He looked down into the pocket of his suit jacket. From the looks of it, I don’t think I did.

It’s faster to escape than to report now, so it’s better to keep moving without muttering.

“Um, that’s strange.”

“what.”

“no.”

“… … .”

let’s not pursue Escape comes first.

But on the contrary, he opens his mouth again from the other side.

to another topic.

“what.”

“Your junior’s condition.”

It must mean that he doesn’t seem to be in immediate danger of his life, and his mental state seems to be quite good, even though he’s about to be searched for due to a status abnormality failure.

“What do you know?”

I can’t answer, but I can feel the gaze from both sides. It is Seon Ah-hyun and Se-jin.

“Damn it”

is… I’d rather explain it roughly.

“… I can see the time of the next collapse.”

“yes.”

“… The next one is final. It floated as the last.”

A moment of silence fell.

Even those who were listening noticed.

“last?”

“okay. It seems to be over.”

“ah… !”

In fact, it can be interpreted in several ways.

However, before the people present could think about the meaning, a voice was heard from above.

“There he is!”

“ah!!”

“… ! You put that on the door!”

The guys who sent the audience first finally started jumping down from the second floor.

“Are you all here?!”

“okay!”

As soon as the other members of Testa found us, they were delighted and ran.

“you!! Please, discuss it first and act!”

Let’s pretend we’re happy

Cha Yoo-jin, who was the first to run, shouted.

“Brothers are here! All OK… Who the hell was that?!”

“Do you remember who I was looking for?”

“Oh-”

The guy dragged out a long exclamation, then confirmed the drooping face of the big moon and nodded.

“Give me! I carry it.”

“No, I’m fine.”

Keundal’s body passed through several people’s hands like a bill at a restaurant, and eventually was attached to Cha Yujin’s back.

“song!”

The guys who checked VTIC seemed surprised by that too, but they started moving with the tacit agreement that going down first was a priority.

“Can we leave now?”

“yes.”

All that can be done has been done. The atmosphere right before the escape, where the pressure and tension are slightly relieved.

When I cut it open, I heard Cheongryeo muttering.

“hmm. Maybe one of the two. Either that will end the disaster or… .”

Were you still counting?

“Your junior’s chance is over.”

“… … .”

after.

“What does that mean?”

“Park Moondae?”

I closed my mouth. Chung-rye finished the sentence.

“The building is completely collapsing.”

at that time.

thud.

Cuckoo-!

“… !”

“vibration?”

“Hyung, I can’t believe the distorted time this time… .”

“no.

I hurriedly checked the popup.

[00:09:59]

Clearly there is time left.

“I’m sure there’s time left.”

Then Bae Se-jin muttered with a pale face.

“… Isn’t the bigger the collapse, the earlier the precursor symptoms?”

“… … .”

A brief silence passed.

Cheongryeo murmured again.

“hmm. Was it the latter?”

Is this the time to talk like that?

“If you know, run!”

I took the others and started running fast.

bang!

“Aagh!”

A scream rang out from the basement.

I exclaimed.

“key! where is the key?”

“I gave it to the person in front! Two!”

There is no way Liu Chengyu would lie, so it is the truth.

Then people should be leaving right now… .

‘Why are they all together?’

When we arrived, the underground corridor was filled with dozens of people.

Squeak bang!

“Uhhhhh!”

And whenever a roar is heard from above, people are covering their heads with light sticks or hands.

‘what.’

why are you saying you can’t

“wait a minute!”

I dug in between people. As soon as our eyes met, a person standing in front of an iron gate with the words ‘for facility security’ written on it shouted urgently.

“The door won’t open here!”

“… … .”

what?

I made my way through the crowd. And I took it from the hand of the audience holding the card key and brought it myself.

Beep-!

[This is an unauthorized card.]

Denied.

‘X feet.’

I put in another card.

Beep-!

next one too.

Beep-!

“… … .”

It doesn’t work.

“… !!”

“Why can’t I do this?”

“Huh uh uh huh.”

Among the people who seemed to be hyperventilating with embarrassment and fear, I rolled my head.

There is a reason.

‘Why not… .’

let’s think let’s think

‘You don’t have permission?’

I busily inspected the keypad and iron door for the security key. and looked again The words written on the iron gate.

[For Facility Security]

“… … .”

oh shit

“Is it Moondae?!”

“Wait!”

I made my way through the crowd, almost shouting.

“What are you doing?!”

“Card for Facility Manager!!”

I yelled.

“We brought white-collar people and must have a security team card!”

“… !”

This is a space for the security team, so it wasn’t strange at all that the permissions were set that way.

I gritted my teeth.

‘Is there any possibility that he left at least one guy?’

If you go to the next room and search… yes x feet. I know.

‘I couldn’t even find the silk thread that came first.’

Shouldn’t you give it a try though? I told the people and shook them in perfect order to get ready to search.

It was then.

“Brother.”

Took.

A square plastic badge with a golden logo sways in front of you. It was something that Cheongryeo had just taken out of the inside pocket of her suit.

“Here you go.”

“… … .”

[Seton Security]

“It was in the drawer where the CCTV was.”

I immediately snatched it up and ran forward.

and brought it

Tiririk!

With a short, upbeat, major-toned sound.

Click.

“It’s open!”

The door is open.

Shouts, screams and hurried footsteps intersect with crackling sounds as people escape through the open door. The outside air hits your face.

“under.”

I covered my face with one hand.

It would have been a big deal.

‘Somehow that bastard didn’t escape.’

It was clear that there was a way to get out of it, so it was clear.

“If it were Cheongryeo-hyung, he wouldn’t have shared it in case I betrayed him in an extreme situation.”

“no. With that, you were also by my side when the CCTV security was unlocked.”

“… … .”

Ju-dan, you bastard, couldn’t recognize your employee ID because it was in the form of a badge… .

‘No, I opened it anyway.’

I deliberately grabbed the door and stepped aside to pass the time pretending to lead the people out smoothly.

[00:06:16]

Time is fine.

“All of you, get out quickly!”

“Okay.”

Just like the fans going out in the back looking back and throwing words one by one, it will be like that anyway.

“Are you all out?”

“Let’s go now!”

And needlessly, the responsible guys followed suit and waited until the end, and I opened the door again as if telling them to leave first.

Then some of them narrow their eyes.

“You can’t… .”

“Because it isn’t.”

Hey, will I voluntarily stay in a collapsing building?

thump thump!

Again, a heavy crack is heard from above. I hurriedly opened my mouth.

“When I look at the time, I want to go out last. get out at once! The more you do this, the later it gets.”

“… … .”

However, Seon Ah-hyun took a deep breath and stopped.

“… !”

“If you don’t go out at the same time, I won’t go out.”

oh shit

‘I was afraid that crazy things would happen again, so I was trying to widen the distance.’

I winked at Cheong-ryeo, but he didn’t respond and just looked at me.

And not only Seon Ah-hyun, but other guys also hold the door and start staring at me. do you fight?

‘I’ll turn around.’

You have 5 minutes left, idiots.

“… … .”

I looked outside the door and at them, and finally opened my mouth holding back a sigh.

‘Whether it’s pushed or not, the angle will come out.’

“… Okay, let’s go out together.”

“… !! huh!”

I pushed Seon Ah-hyun’s back and came out.

That moment.

Outdoor air pours in.

The cool air of early autumn.

The backyard-like place covered by the container wall was dark, but as soon as I turned the angle away from the wall, sunlight fell.

“… !”

… It was sunset.

At that moment, the warnings and cold fear of the survival instinct that stood sharp in anxiety and nervousness disappear in an instant.

All of that was pulled out as if sucked in, and only tranquility remained.

“ah… … .”

I took a deep breath and exhaled. My head was cool.

And the pop-up changes as if it were matched.

[00:04:47]

[00:04:47]

[Target lost]

[Release]

The sense of security is back.

I turned around and saw the building we came out of.

The roar disappeared in an instant.

Unconsciously, I opened my mouth.

“uh?”

“Looks like it’s over. collapse.”

The others looked back at the building and either gave out long sighs or burst into small laughs.

It couldn’t have been that refreshing.

* * *

The body is heavy, but the atmosphere is quite friendly and hopeful.

“Whew.”

“Everyone has had a hard time.”

“I’m glad everyone came out safely… .”

“I’d rather move quickly now, though. Because if it collapses, you could be swept away.”

“It’s not like that.”

Everyone hurried their steps at Sejin’s words. Even so, the mouth does not stop.

“Where is this?”

“It must have been a secret entrance behind a building that not everyone knows about.”

“Ah, then I think the front will be full of media.”

that… not sure

‘There won’t be any rice cakes this good.’

The delay in the rescue team might have been because the media had already occupied all the seats, and they were mad.

Well, anyway, since I came out, the collapse seems to have stopped… Even if there is an employee stranded on the third floor, they will be rescued soon.

Didn’t all the people the media were aiming for come out?

“Remedy… hmm.”

Group 1 idols are trapped in a building at a charity concert hosted by group 1 idols?

Honestly, hell is expected.

“Let’s go to the hospital first, without thinking about training for the first year of college.”

“… … .”

No, if anyone sees it, they will think that I am someone who does not use modern medicine.

“… yes. anyway. It looks like this is the front, so if we go back… .”

“okay.”

Anyway, we trudged along pretty shabby-looking back roads overgrown with weeds and came out in front of the building.

‘Suddenly people scream… .’

however.

“Why are there no people?”

There was nothing in front of the building.

“… ??”

Now passers-by siren sound reporter onlooker.

There is no trace of everything I thought would exist.

Only silence flows.

Not even a single car goes on the road.

what.

“for a moment. … What about the fans who came out earlier?”

“… !!”

Bae Se-jin urgently exclaims.

“Even if there is no mass media, those people shouldn’t be seen!”

However, there was still no one in front of the building where the sunset was setting.

As if everyone went somewhere else.

“Ah, was this?”

I turned my head.

Cheongryeo was looking down at her jacket with a strange expression.

A seat with your own smartphone.

“It was strange that I didn’t even get a call.”

“… !”

Yes.

If the building had collapsed, it would have been natural for the phone to flood the smartphone of the person who was presumed to be trapped.

But the fact that he didn't even call me… .

'… It was cut off from the outside world.'

Or it was cut off at some point.

And then.

"… Whoops!"

"Hup!"

The big moon, who was sitting on Cha Yu-jin's back, opened her eyes.

"I won!"

"… ??"

with a new popup.

Chapter 434

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 434

A few hours ago.

Kwagwagwang!

"Aaaagh!"

When the stage equipment collapsed and screams began to flow.

'Quick fast… !'

Keundal tried to connect to the status window and try to communicate with Testa Park Moon-dae, or Ryu Gun-woo, to see if there were any problems.

But it was impossible.

'… uh?'

And instead, I saw a bright red warning window. 'Status Failed' pop-up.

"… !!"

I swear, the big moon wasn't vigilant after returning to reality. In the first place, Park Moon-dae also gave hostages separately.

-Do you feel like you are resonating with the system like before? It seemed to be absorbed.

Naturally, he also carefully checked the system, worried that it might still be there. But it didn't look like that… .

– No, I don’t feel that way anymore!

-okay. thank god.

Suddenly a status ailment failed.

If so then… isn’t it dying

Geonwoo’s older brother.

‘What should I do?’

Still, the powerful presence of the system was not felt. But things have already happened.

Even as her hair turned white, the big moon worked hard.

And miraculously, it came to mind. The clear congratulatory title he gave to Moondae Park.

“… !”

Abnormal status permanently suspended! Completely ignoring it, this situation where the abnormal status failure popped up is a contradiction!

‘How to dig into this… .’

Past experience has shown that systems can work through these logical flaws. Besides, because he was the status window itself in the first place.

‘Maybe it’s possible!’

He gritted his teeth and began digging through the status window nervously.

* * *

“… That’s why I tried to make the disaster as light as possible with a mission failure instead of a status abnormality. And in the process, after trying so many times, I poured all my mind into the status window and lost my mind.”

“yes yes… A bench in front of the broadcasting station building at sunset

It seems quite peaceful to sit around and listen to the story without any other interruptions.

Except there isn’t a single ant cub around.

I sat on the bench and saw the big moon gratefully accepting and drinking the water offered by Kim Rae-bin.

We are still in the front yard of the broadcasting station with no one around.

And it’s a very positive situation for him to come to his senses and have my guess confirmed right, but other than that, I still don’t know what the situation is.

‘What else is this reward window?’

I just glanced at the pop-up that popped up at the same time as the big moon came to my senses.

[Mission failure scenario complete]

Victory: Player Park Moon-dae (Ryu Gun-woo)

Reward: ■■■ fragment 1 (1/4)

From the scenario to the victory fragment, there are many things I want to ask, but there is a reason why I can’t.

“… Mmm.”

There are eight people who are blind all around right now.

In addition, one guy even slightly raised his hand and intervened.

It's a big sejin

"Well, I'm sorry to hear such a personal story, but anyway, since we went through all of this together, I'm asking."

"yes yes!"

"Then now, Park Moon-dae knows that this happened to target him and that he might die right away… You mean you knew?"

"… … ."

In an instant, the atmosphere cooled. I averted my gaze.

'You escaped because you didn't tell me. Fuck you.'

this is a bit embarrassing

Fortunately, there was a guy who stood up for me.

"Moondae-hyung suffered a lot. I understand you losing. He wanted people to be safe."

It is surprising that Cha Yoo-jin made the most mature judgment.

"But understanding and understanding are not synonymous words. Your brother's behavior is too cruel!"

"… … ."

It was a build-up.

"The situation turned so fast that I couldn't even think about it. I couldn't ask anyone, so I couldn't tell you because I wasn't sure."

I quietly explained the situation.

“I moved hard because I wanted to live, and I didn’t do it with the thought of sacrificing for others.”

“… … .”

The atmosphere calmed down a bit. Big Sejin wiped his face with his hand and eventually surrendered.

“okay. It was a lot of trouble.”

“… !”

good.

I quickly looked at the big moon before the backlash came in from around me. Just in time, the next questioner appeared.

“I have a question too.”

It is the main stage.

That guy is the most interesting guy here.

“Then, is this place like the mental world you created last time?”

Is this what you’re even curious about?

The big moon readily replied.

“No, not really. Reality is true here too… Because my brother successfully escaped, there was no penalty for collapsing the building. So this reality will soon disappear!”

“… !”

Here’s the explanation.

Originally, I had to be hit until the last building collapsed to complete the ‘mission failure penalty’.

‘But I avoided that.’

Thanks to that, the penalty was removed, and retroactively, the fact of the ‘collapse of the building’, which was the penalty for mission failure from the beginning, disappeared.

‘I think I’m talking bullshit, knowing the circumstances.

“Well maybe maybe the system going back to the past seems to have a similar power to get rid of reality and start over… .”

“… !”

And there was one other person here besides me who could understand that.

I looked back at Cheongnyeol. The guy just listened to the words with no expression.

The big moon continued to explain.

It is said that it is probably because these guys escaped out of the building at the same time as me, so they did not go back to the past and stayed here.

“… Anyway, soon you’ll be leaving here and going back to where the building didn’t collapse! Like everyone else.”

“Oh oh.”

“That’s nice, really.”

In any case, the conclusion seemed to be to their liking. Anyone could see that the speckled guys who had escaped from the disaster nodded their heads with a much calmer face.

And the questioner himself was amazed.

“It’s kind of… If you choose one of the parallel worlds, the rest are discarded.”

“… ! Do you understand?”

“On a theoretical level, yes. If necessary, I can recommend some related materials.”

I pretended not to see that Cha Yoo-jin muttered a short ‘Nerd’ next to Kim Rae-bin.

Liu Cheng-wu gently asked the big moon again.

“Then when can we go back?”

“uh… Now!”

“… !”

and the next moment.

[—]

The figures sitting on the bench disappeared as if evaporating.

But I didn’t disappear.

Instead, I saw the big moon taking a deep breath and looking at me.

“Anyway, I have something I need to say to my brother. I sent it a little early!”

That’s a pretty unique idea.

But the problem is that not all of them are gone.

“I see the countdown.”

“omg.”

“Looks like you still have the GM authority.”

Cheong-rye was still sitting on another bench.

And I checked the countdown he was talking about.

[100 seconds until the scenario is deleted]

This must mean 100 seconds until it disappears. Then there's no room.

"Just don't bother and tell me quickly. It seems like we don't have enough time for the countdown."

"yes. yes."

I'll leave the other questions, starting with the viability of the system, for later, and listen to what this guy has to say.

Keundal opened his mouth with a tone that seemed to be trying to stay calm.

"brother."

okay.

"If we go back like this, it will probably be before the building collapses… It must have happened before that."

"… ?"

the day before that?

And I realized a beat late.

"I started interfering after my brother was first threatened with his life due to a status abnormality failure."

First abnormal status failure signal flare.

The big moon swallowed and spoke lowly.

“When you leave, it will be the point where stage sets are pouring over you from the stage.”

“… … .”

“That was right, right? I avoided it, but it’s still dangerous, so I thought I’d be able to avoid it again if I knew this… I thought I should tell you.”

I realized there

‘They don’t know I was hurt then.’

This guy is just a little nervous because he thinks I safely dodged the first one.

“I get it. Just in case, I’ll be more careful and avoid it.”

“… yes.”

I looked at Cheongnyeo to mean shut up, but soon realized that it was time for this guy to worry about himself as well.

“… The collapse of the stage setting will hurt you too, so why don’t you think about how to respond from now on.”

Isn’t it a donation concert hosted by VTIC? The moment accidents and events are linked by keywords, it will become a mess.

But Chung-rye laughed… no i didn’t laugh

The boy opened his mouth with an expressionless expression.

“Why don’t you worry about yourself?”

“… … .”

No, even if you pay attention… what happened It’s true that my nose sleeps three.

“Protect your head first and foremost.”

“uh. I know everything.”

I took a deep breath and reviewed my actions going forward. Fortunately, time runs out before Big Moon notices the strange appearance.

“The countdown is almost over.”

“yes… .”

I read the numbers

3.

2.

1.

And when I blinked.

“Park Moon-dae… !”

I was running on stage again.

Instead of the musty air from the dust pouring from the cracks, you can feel the smell of dry ice on the stage and the warmth of the harsh lighting heating up the air-conditioned air.

‘come.’

And devices that fall upwards.

Wooded Deuk!!

But this time, with a clear mind, I know exactly what to do.

I don’t know how far it falls.

‘More quickly… !’

Instead of running aimlessly this time, I accelerated and skidded.

to warm your thighs.

Cuckoo coo coo!

in the roar.

It turns into rubble with a chilling sound behind it. A scream rang out.

“Aww!”

“evil!”

And

“Hoo-wook.”

The moment my sliding stopped, I knew where I was.

It was backstage, completely off the stage.

“… … .”

I looked back.

Then I saw the stage equipment that was smashed and collapsed, but this time… It’s as far as my height.

complete avoidance.

‘It’s a success.’

My back and ribs don’t hurt like before.

waited a little longer

My thighs are hot from friction, but that’s all.

That was it.

“you!”

The members who appeared around the backstage with shocked faces suddenly came running in relief.

And the building doesn’t collapse or shake any more there.

“After”

I stretched out on my back and lay down without a circle.

There are still many unanswered questions and problems to ponder, but I couldn’t help laughing.

“Smile?”

‘I lived.’

No one died and got out unscathed.

* * *

After that, things went strangely.

Of course, as soon as the audience got their smartphones and evacuated, they posted all sorts of articles on social media and articles appeared one after another.

[SBC Station Stage Collapse (Breaking News)]

[‘Unprecedented Stage Collapse’, no casualties… All unharmed]

Tylers were horribly chosen, but that’s what the original article said. Fortunately, no one was hurt, so the public repercussions didn’t seem to last long.

No matter how big the collapse was, there is no stage proof photo because all the smartphones were taken away.

But it's not even a human accident? Then the actual shelf life is shortened.

I was wondering if the pre-recording schedule would be rescheduled somewhere else… .

[Testa member Park Moon-dae, who avoided a stage accident by a hair's breadth… "Scheduled to recuperate"]

Who are you?

– He seems to be threatened by a steel frame whenever he sees an article

.

-I heard you ran out onto the stage, but why are you doing that all of a sudden? Who did you want to let go of? Stage manager?

ㄴSomeone almost died, but there is a bastard who comments like this ㄴ

Why do you gamble on the life of a handsome idol who makes a lot of money?

Thank you very much.

Besides, I haven't yet seen who the arrow went back to when the stage set collapsed, and how VTIC responded to it.

because… .

Because I am like this now.

"I want to contact the company… ."

"Um~ Just lie down. Take a good rest."

"… ??"

“I want to buy an apple, Mundae-ya… ?”

Yes.

… I’ve been in the hospital for a week.

For reference, there were no injuries other than a minor laceration to the thigh.

Even that got better in two days.

‘why.’

“I am discharged… .”

“Ah, they say you can’t be a doctor~”

“That’s right.”

“… … .”

Where did these bastards come from kissing and telling obvious lies… .

‘driving me crazy.’

And so the forced break began.

Chapter 435

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 435

Are you hospitalized even though you're not hurt?

Thanks to the traits 'Bacchus' and 'Nectar', the days of having to deceive people with superhuman resilience are over, but I didn't know that I would do such a thing.

'no.'

It seems that my brain is degenerating like this. I said, putting down the ebook reader Bae Se-jin brought me as a 'gift'.

It was at this point that four days had passed since he was hospitalized.

"There is also a problem of lack of hospital beds, but isn't it a little harsh to use it like this?"

"Ah~ It's a special room here, so it's rarer to have a complete room."

"I'd rather go home anyway."

"Even if you tell me at Moondaemun University, I am not a medical professional. Do you understand that I have no choice?"

"… … ."

this heinous… for a moment. Could this bastard copy what I did when the building collapsed?

I looked at Sejin in awe, but left the room with a big smile.

“Relax~”

“… … .”

Let’s catch the next guy.

Surprisingly, Rabin Kim came to visit the hospital in the evening with a turntable capable of playing LPs.

“Classical music is said to help calm the mind and body!”

I will avoid the latest music.

To anyone who seemed to have consciously blocked the topics of ‘album’ and ‘activity’ from his brain, he took a logical approach.

“It’s strange that I’m in the hospital even though I’m not sick.”

“As you have been through a very dangerous situation, they say you will have to wait a few more days.”

Kim Rae-bin really seemed to believe that. It seems that a few guys made a really plausible justification because of conspiracies.

“You can do that even at the dorm. Honestly, it’s a waste of money.”

“You don’t have to worry about that. The company says it will be covered!”

“It is a structure in which net profit decreases by that amount when expenses are processed, and eventually our settlement amount decreases.”

“… ??”

For a moment, question marks and exclamation marks passed across Kim Rae-bin’s face, but he nodded as if he knew.

Did it work?

“it’s okay! I believe that all the members will not mind spending that much for hyung’s peaceful rest.”

“… … .”

The halo of the copyright holder was visible on the face of the guy who said he would pay for it if he really cared about it.

I lay back on the bed, enduring a long sob.

next batter.

“All my muscles will disappear. I need to get back to my routine soon.”

“okay?”

Ryu Chung-woo, who visited in the morning, responded positively to Jebib. I was thinking of slowly building up from here, but… .

Nom reserved a one-person exercise room next to the hospital’s rehab room.

“… … .”

Come to think of it, if the company paid for the hospital room, this guy, the leader, would have convinced me.

In fact, he was trying to build up to the guy who was the instigator of this situation. can you get through “Facility was good. Oh, if you want to write longer, tell me.”

done.

I gave up and went to the balloon.

Let’s lower body… .

“I am self-employed.”

“Self-employed.”

“Whatever.”

Cha Yoo-jin, who was sitting in the caregiver’s seat, shrugged and chewed the whole apple. I gritted my teeth and spoke lowly.

“Anyway, ask for a smartphone.”

“I don’t have one. Watch it on your smart TV.”

“… … .”

Needless to say, I burst into anger at the special room with 4 OTTs installed.

There is no delay as the Wi-Fi works so well. And it’s a situation where you can’t use that exploding Wi-Fi for internet purposes.

‘It’s over the line.’

I asked for a smartphone from the manager I saw two days ago, but the excuse that came back was obvious.

-There is a doctor’s advice that it may adversely affect your mental health, so I ask you to exercise a little restraint.

‘It’s a trick.’

Too much was too much.

“But you have to be patient.”

“… … .”

[You already know, right? You’re in a situation where you need to get the most important thing back. Trust.]

Yes.

I pressed my temples.

To be honest, it's not that difficult to catch the pod in this ridiculous situation and get discharged.

The difficult thing is the persuasion process to convince the people around me that I will be discharged.

But this time it was hard to ignore it. After all, they've been trapped in a collapsing building because of me…

'I must have been nervous that I might have searched.'

If you think this is your own revenge in a situation where you are not willing to consult with anyone because everything has happened, you will not.

… but.

"How much should that be?"

No, how long do you think you're going to keep it here? When do you release an album, when do you prepare for the end of the year, and when do you plan for next year's activities?

There is a limit to being patient by looking at the atmosphere.

Still, I decided to exercise my last patience.

"hey."

"What."

"At least tell me how it goes outside."

You can endure a few days just by gathering information. Cha Yu-jin shrugged.

“No big deal. [No terrorism, no buzz, um, I think I only saw ordinary traffic accidents in the headlines? Oh, and bank fraud.”

“… Other than that”

Who asked about current affairs in modern society?

“How is the public opinion on the Internet in our group or VTIC going?”

“I don’t know. That’s not my interest.”

I was ready to clenched my fist, but I calmly imagined Cha Yoo-jin exploring the internet community and SNS.

And he admitted that he didn’t like it.

Let’s find the next hitter.

I listened to jazz on LPs all afternoon and relieved my stress with detective stories.

And meeting Bae Se-jin who visited in the evening… .

“no.”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin avoided her gaze.

“… I can recommend more books.”

Not required.

I tried to persuade Bae Se-jin to spill his words by mistake, but I endured it. Then he threw the mung bean samgyetang he had packed into his mouth.

It felt like being fed a meal by a visiting lawyer in prison.

The last remaining candidate… Thinking that there is virtually no hope.

Seon Ah-hyun visited quite often.

But since the first day, I hadn't bothered to ask him to leave the hospital.

Not only did it not work surprisingly well, but it made the expression look like it would kill to have a conversation like this.

"Moondae, are you okay?"

"You know, but I can't be this fine."

Look at that, I'm peeling tangerines while avoiding my eyes again.

But now is the time to speak.

"I think it will be more difficult to stay in the hospital. I also want to practice."

"Yes."

Sun Ah-hyun averted her eyes. As expected, he doesn't have the shameless social skills to say something like 'I don't know~' like Sejin.

So I took a direct stab.

"I'm serious, but I can't be sane like this, so let's get out of the hospital now."

"… but."

Seon Ah-hyun trembled.

"You lied. more… big ones."

"… … ."

He peeled a tangerine and put it down in front of me. His hands were trembling slightly.

I held back a sigh.

‘It must have been a big shock.’

When I faked the remaining time and bounced upstairs.

After that, with the sound of the building collapsing, contact was lost, so this was unavoidable.

just… Let me put it all down and explain.

“It was because I was scared too.”

“… !”

“There’s no way you wouldn’t be afraid of dying suddenly. Besides, other people might be involved in my death.”

“… … .”

“But it seemed like there was nothing I could do, and it wasn’t a situation where anyone could help.”

It’s the first time I’ve had such an experience that I feel like I’m going to die no matter what I do.

“That’s why I couldn’t explain it properly. … But if you think you’ve been tricked, I’ll say it again, I’m sorry.”

It was sincere.

Seon Ah-hyun opened her mouth, but soon put the words together with difficulty.

“Oh no. I’m sorry… . carelessly ah Just because I don’t believe… “

It’s nothing for you to apologize for.”

To be honest, that was a fairly moderate reaction for being hit in the back of the head.

I chose a horse

“It’s good to just take a break, but I don’t feel like taking a break right now because there are so many things I care about.”

“… … !”

“I want to stop at the hospital.”

The boy seemed to be holding back his tears, but soon got a pretty strong expression and nodded.

“I. Let’s talk… !”

“… thanks.”

There were signs of a solution.

and that evening.

“Did you pack all your things?”

“yes.”

I was finally able to go through the discharge process.

It was more than a week after being hospitalized.

‘done.’

I was relieved, but there was a lot to do. First of all, I’ll have to go out to the company after checking the public opinion and carefully establishing an activity plan.

I was going to have time to go back to the dorm and have a good conversation with the other guys.

“let’s go.”

“yes.”

Liu Chengyu willingly volunteered to drive and helped with discharge procedures.

However, the car he was driving did not go to the inn. Instead, they run happily in the opposite direction.

“… ?”

wait for a sec.

“Where are you going?”

“Oh, I’m not going to the hospital.”

“Then where is it?”

“haha.”

to answer

The car on the highway eventually headed to the outskirts of Gyeonggi-do and soon arrived at a remote country house with a nice white stone wall.

Liu Chengwu said clearly.

“arrived. You can get off.”

These pups… It put me in a pension.

‘Seonahyeon!’

How is this different from hospitalization? It doesn’t mean that you just have to leave the hospital!! However, the retreat had already been blocked.

“The accommodation was going to be remodeled for a while, so everyone was planning to stay here.”

“… … .”

“I decided to refrain from going out. I thought it would be a bit difficult if eyewitness reports surfaced.”

When did these cubs be the leader of the dragon?

And when we went inside, Kim Rae-bin and the other members, who were holding a cake with ‘Congratulations on discharge’, set off party firecrackers with a smile.

phut!

“Congratulations on your discharge!”

“… … .”

Somehow, only Ryu Cheng-wu came out to meet me, so it seems that everything was planned up to this point.

I’ll admit it.

‘It’s my defeat.’

I silently removed the pollen from my hair.

Fortunately, though, it was revealed after a while that there was no harvest at all.

“here!”

After an upsetting celebratory meal.

Calling me to his room, Cha Yoo-jin held out a smartphone with a white dog’s head on it. It was my smartphone.

“… !! thanks.”

This is where the reward of persistently asking for outside information from this guy throughout the hospitalization came from.

“Hyung, you have to feed me delicious food. I am a traitor now.”

Cha Yoo-jin shrugged, saying that he had tried to persuade him and that he hadn’t even told Bae Se-jin the truth yet.

[Let’s change the expression to say you’re faithful to me.]

I gladly answered in English.

[It’s okay. In fact, they are all a bit excessive. I don’t think that forcing someone to rest doesn’t mean that person can really get “recovery”.]

He explained, stressing ‘recovery’ with one hand.

[Still, I was wrong if hyung used too much. Promise me that that won’t happen.]

“Yes.”

I gladly made an appointment with him and returned to my assigned room and plugged my dead phone into a charger.

Then I turned on the power and started talking.

‘Can you hear me?’

to the big moon.

Just like a thunderbolt, a pop-up appeared.

[Hyung, are you discharged now?]

‘… okay.’

I replied gloomily. The pop-up flinched.

Even this guy kept his mouth shut and didn't say a word to me while he was in the hospital.

"What kind of guy did you crack down on?"

Instead, of course, we had some pretty useful conversations.

I remembered the conversation I had with this guy on the day of hospitalization.

About this status failure and the last reward pop-up.

[Complete Mission Failed Scenario]

Victory: Player Moondae Park (Gunwoo Ryu)

Reward: ■■■ Fragment 1 (1/4)

– What the hell is this 'fragment' reward?

It was at this point that I roughly realized the phrase that treats a mission failure as a scenario.

It was probably because the collapse of the building was not happening, so it seemed to be treated as a scenario rather than a reality. However, the 'Fragments of ■■■' of the reward… To be honest, I have a pretty pessimistic prediction.

[I'm not sure about that. Because I'm trying to make the mission fail… Naturally, the status window took care of it and created that shape!]

Is that so.

[Yes!]

So I answered like this.

-Then what about the interpretation that in fact the system remains fragmented and I won the fragments and received the thing itself as a trophy?

The pop-up stopped as if it were frozen.

And it became a chat with a trembling handwriting.

[Actually, me too… The system left only fragments, and I wondered if that's why I didn't notice… .]

Also.

[I'm sorry ㅜㅜ]

-What do you have to be sorry for? I was mistaken that I had removed it.

I tasted bitter.

'I thought it was completely removed.'

It's not some kind of marble or pizza, it's going to remain split apart. Even with (1/4) attached to the description, it bothers me quite a bit.

1/4.

"I'm asking this after I've been discharged."

[Yes!]

"I bet this won't happen three more times."

There was a short, giddy silence.

[Oh, no. I missed it because I didn't know if the system was fragmented this time, so I figured out this wavelength separately and scanned the status window!]

[You’re clean now!]

Yes.

That’s a very positive feedback.

But I decided not to fully believe it. It’s because it’s not once or twice that I’ve been hit in the back of the head thinking that way.

In that sense, let’s think about it from now on so that the second state or more does not fail.

‘Let’s see.’

Did you say that the goal you want to do the most is a symptom of abnormal condition?

Just like I was obsessed with the album right before.

Yeah, after everything was over, I think I wanted to release an album in an unusual way, but it must have been influenced by it.

‘Then what I want to do most right now is… .’

What is it?

So I decided to listen to the summary information that can be heard right away before searching for a smartphone.

First of all, to prove that I was discharged from the hospital, I sent a text message to Big Moon on my smartphone and then asked this question.

‘How did the VTIC donation concert go?’

Cancellation or atrophy?

It must have been one of two things since there was such an uproar.

I was thinking of starting from here and taking a stance to search social media… .

[I’m promoting it successfully… ?]

Chapter 436

Episode 436

The stage collapsed during the pre-recording of VTIC's donation concert.

And a popular junior idol almost got hit by that.

Looking at these facts alone, there seems to be no way for VTIC to avoid being bombarded with excited people by finding justification for swearing.

'But he avoided it.'

No, I didn't avoid it, but it sublimated into viral.

[uh… Yep.]

I immediately started browsing on my smartphone.

If the period is set from the date of the accident to now and goes back from the latest public opinion… .

"… … ."

[Oh oh oh… .]

I also admire the guy who shares my view. I touched my chin.

'You moved the frame.'

It is a public enemy.

broadcaster.

[Is the station okay? -Kim Se-hwa's talk talk]

'The stage collapsed. But no one was hurt, so there's no problem.'

To sum up SBC's position on the collapse that took place on the set of SBC's stage on October 9th in two sentences, it would be something like this.

Even at the moment of the accident, the behavior of airwaves music broadcasting, which focuses on hierarchy rather than internal stability, where you have to say hello to the PD to leave work, was still the same.

It was possible because what fell was not a stage set installed by the VIIC concert staff, but a lighting device basically managed by the broadcasting station. .

This work was exquisitely carried out right before VTIC was cursed by the theory of responsibility after the shock of the stage accident had swept away.

-It's really creepy. It was held tight for three days, but anyone could have been hit by a steel frame

. There was someone who said that he said he could see it ㄴ Hey,

did you come out to check it out and almost got hit? Being hit with a steel frame would have been VTIC!

It is acknowledged that anyone in the cast, whether or not the organizers, could have been trained and only narrowly avoided the accident.

And the point is solidified.

-The problem is the power of the broadcasting station!

In an incident, if the victim and the perpetrator are clearly divided, only the perpetrator should be held accountable.

And since the broadcasting station has a splendid record of power abuse in the music field, this composition worked well.

-In an industry where it's customary to slap an appearance fee haha -Is it a day or two that the kids and staff were injured due to a problem with the stage equipment or a slip

? -The annual event happens again

. It is to touch social issues slightly with outsourcing of manpower who maintains the stage and insensitivity to safety.

Then, just as people who just want to get something say certify word by word, they whispered stories that had no basis but seemed like evidence.

-I went to pre-recording that day, but there was no one really checking the stage ㅇㅇ

-There was Maximite pre-recording on the same stage the day before Lesso saw the lights and said something, but no way… ? Thanks to (a leaked blurry capture), it's even a rare thing on the internet.

-Let's make a joint entrance statement among the fans of the cast

-I can't do this when the timing is over -I need to apologize and get compensated for saying it properly

-I made a link to collect opinions on the entrance statement (link) A joint statement to increase influence in some fan communities of VTIC and Testa It was planned until

‘Some of the VTIC fans were deliberately more angry.’

The moment the arrow turns again, they may suffer damage, so they actively come out friendly to fans of other casts and bite the broadcasting station.

Adding to that, the anger over inviting almost the last event before enlistment and the panic that VTIC might have had an accident were enough to justify it.

-This is a statement from the cast union regarding the SBC stage broadcasting accident (photo)

In that way, VTIC was completely excluded from responsibility and became a victim.

‘It’s neat.’

It was a skill that made me want to be a deceased person to skillfully and quickly drive public opinion so that not a single trace of instigation was left.

If that’s the case, there’s a problem.

-So, what happened to the donation cone?

‘It’s going to be tough to keep this concert going on the airwaves.’

The frame of public opinion was framed as ‘the attitude of the people at the top of the broadcasting station is the problem in the first place’ and it was impossible to cut off the tail of the person in charge, so the people at the top of the broadcasting station must have been quite upset.

In the end, in addition to incurring antipathy from them, it becomes unclear whether or not the donation concert will be held.

Kang-soo could make it difficult for all the singers under his agency to appear on the broadcasting station.

If it's a group that plans to be active, it's a choice that can't be easily made…

'These guys go to the army.'

He must have calculated that if he had 18 months to spare, he would be able to quietly reconcile with the broadcasting station within that time.

And the donation icon right now is… It was handled like this.

– Vtick donation con aired on SBC canceled

ㄴHull,

these guys vehemently canceled the broadcast on airwaves.

The reason was 'progress due to an accident' and explained that it was because of the schedule, but in fact it was no different from hitting the boycott first by hitting the player first.

you made a big mistake

'It strengthens the frame.'

Fans of the pissed-off cast reacted amicably, resenting it. No, not just the fans, but the public who were interested in it all liked it.

-ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ It's hot

-It's not the three major agencies

. The meta is inevitable.

And here comes the build-up once again.

-VTIC's donation concert is here! (Link) An infinite audience participation platform that can be viewed without signing up… (Read more)

The broadcast of the donation concert was not canceled at all, but continued only on the Internet platform. That too, along with fancy advertisements through Witube and various social media.

At first glance, it seems to be a loss because the target audience of viewers has decreased, but by blowing it up like this, viewers aggro was attracted.

It's WiTube Lexcar.

[True education on broadcasting by KPOP top-class idol agencies!]

[Letty class certification~ We will inform you in 1 minute from the collapse of the stage to the present]

[So, where do you watch the V-tic Donation Con? right here! | Issue Talk]

It is said that right after this appeared in a popular video, a fundraising box and a pre-release video appeared on the platform.

The aggro attracted by the stage collapse led to the donation cone itself emerging as a hot keyword, and the amount of money raised was steadily increasing.

'And I will unplay again with the amount raised.'

It was a virtuous cycle. I looked at some of the latest media play articles and nodded.

It's a skill I've done a lot.

[Wow, I didn't know that the concert went smoothly in this way. That's amazing!]

Keundal, who followed my search path and commentary, admired the pop-up. But that's it.

“Not quite like that.”

[Yes?]

Is the payoff right? Did you survive safely? It wasn’t on that level.

I smiled bitterly and tapped the screen of my smartphone.

‘These guys made a huge profit.’

[????]

Do you know what this platform is like?

‘This is our platform.’

it’s theirs

[!]

Leti is a half-owned live platform.

These guys have hooked a huge number of new users to this platform with this aggro. Even the kind of people who couldn’t have been brought in just by promoting it.

In addition, the effect of increasing platform awareness naturally.

‘Leti benefited tremendously.’

As a platform operator.

[By the way, just because the agency benefits, doesn’t mean the group benefits… ? Right? Same with my brother’s agency… .]

Oh. Have you already deduced that far?

‘that’s right.’

I wholeheartedly affirmed.

This is probably what TI Stars said in the context of an incident where they were doing useless things in an attempt to diversify their sales.

But unfortunately, the case is different this time.

[Ah, what is it… ?]

‘Because Leti is not T1 Stars.’

My situation is completely different from Testa. Years and attributes. I murmured expressionlessly.

“VTIC is almost on Leti.”

[Uhhhh?]

VTIC are the guys who hold a significant amount of Leti’s stock while renewing the contract.

Let’s compare it to a medieval fantasy. If Testa adopted them hastily, it means that they are the eldest sons of the agency.

It was fake, but based on my experience of debuting on Leti, I know for sure. The president sees the group as more than just making money.

‘I was over-immersed, like a gamer empathizing with a game avatar.’

VTIC started in an environment where it would not be strange to care more about VTIC’s brand value than company profits.

Thanks to that, even the male idols who are directly under my juniors whom I will be dating have not debuted. It was an incredible influence.

Take a look at how T-One Stars induced transfers with Testa and spacers right away. Guys who want to do that must be full on top, but did you get rid of it?

It means that the person who implicitly had the decision-making right held tight.

… Cheongrye.

‘As long as he’s blocking it, I won’t see a male idol with a line similar to VTIC coming out of LeTi.’

I don’t know if that bastard becomes an executive and makes it himself.

Anyway, it was a number that could never be solved unless you were a guy who could use your agency like your own limbs. It was a gain. This platform will continue to be used well in the future. for a long time.

[…] Can’t the older brother, Testa, just set up an agency on his own?]

Don’t say stupid things.

[Yes.]

I wonder if I can control it from the back like that. The moment an idol sets up a company under the name of a group, it is a path of hardship and adversity.

Testa needs more time and experience.

Not yet.

I suddenly shrugged my shoulders after lowering the screen.

Anyway, public opinion about the donation concert was enough. The next thing to look at is public opinion about me.

[Ah, there was an article saying that hyung was taking a break!]

After looking at it for a while, I was a little worried, but thanks to the article that he was barely hurt, most of the inference was that he wasn’t posting on social media because of the atmosphere.

-A typical teddy bear

-I like the fact that we don’t upload all of them together. Don’t even think about fighting with the broadcasting station

. … .”

yeah what… don’t try too hard

Now, let’s go to the next step, which is the contact function of the smartphone.

-Missed call (64)

Mi-nae Park Min-ha junior

Golden Age Ha Il-jun hyung

spacer Kwon Hee-seung

‘Quite a lot’

In the early days when the smartphone was turned off, missed calls from various people piled up, and after a few days there are almost none. Apparently, rumors spread that I was taking a break.

However, there was constant contact.

-(Photo)

It’s just a stack of letters.

‘I’m not even surprised anymore.’

what is this… Is it like proof of survival?

I called the sender after looking at several days worth of dog walking pictures.

——.

After a short phone call, words are suddenly heard.

– The phone is on.

“okay.”

I said moderately while fixing my smartphone.

“The doctor told me not to use my smartphone, so I lived apart for a few days.”

-hmm.

“How about that one?”

from the check.

“Do you remember the building incident?”

In fact, since the collapse had never happened, I speculated that all other memories could be lost at the time.

However, Testa remembered everyone.

It’s a bit unique situation to see it because he came out with me, so I was wondering what about other groups… . Well, of course, the answer comes back to this guy.

-yes.

“Even cast iron?”

– Um, I hope you don’t remember?

I mean remember. I understand.

“I was asking to infer how you remember.”

-well.

Cheong-Ryeo answered in a voice that was quite interesting.

– What reasoning did you make?

“I wonder if it’s because everyone has been infected with errors in the fake world before.”

The power of ignoring the laws of the system created by Sun Ah-hyun’s characteristics.

If that still exists, it makes sense that the exception was handled.

– Like I still have the GM rights.

“okay.”

-Maybe.

The guy readily agreed.

The words flowed well without any tension. There are also things that this guy doesn’t piss people off for some reason. hmm.

‘… Could this be the effect of internet detox?’

Contribute to loosening my mental head… no it can’t be I guess it’s just because I owe my life.

As I remembered, I opened my mouth.

“and.”

In fact, it should have been done on the same day.

“thanks.”

-… … .

“Thank you for finding the key then. I live thanks to you.”

However, there is still no answer from the caller. It’s like being speechless.

It’s been a long time since this guy was so agitated.

-Yes..

And the answer that came back a step later was also short. It sounds like you don’t know how to answer.

hmm.

‘Maybe because he looks scared.’

If this guy had died several times while trying to get out of the mess, it would have been new to feel about this situation that was resolved intact.

This guy must have been the first to solve a status abnormality failure situation with his own measures.

If there was a long-standing resignation, it would have been relieved to some extent.

‘hmm.’

I nodded.

“So that’s what I mean.”

In any case, it cannot be denied that even the main stage, including this cub, helped in the escape.

Originally, they would have eaten their poems and drew a line, but since they are going to go to the army and come on a hiatus anyway, this much should be enough.

‘I don’t intend to go into debt.’

And I have no intention of letting them eat it all by themselves.

As much as we prepared, shouldn’t we also pick out what we have to pick out?

“It’s still before the main broadcast of the donation concert.”

I smiled and continued.

“I have a suggestion.”

I remembered what I could do even while staying at this pension full of people frantically watching if I was ‘relaxing’ properly.

and after a few days.

Chapter 437

Episode 437

‘There is no rice cake… ‘

Kim Rae-bin’s fan, who was wandering around SNS without meaning while muttering gloomily, saw an article shared from beyond the timeline.

It was the official account of VTIC.

[< Save the world > Sharing Concert D-7 Commemorative Special News!

The indomitable guests return.

(Photo)]

And the account that shared it posted a short, ominous comment.

– Maybe our kids?

“… … .”

Raebin Kim’s fans also fought. It was mainly a premonition when the touch was right.

‘Oh please.’

Despite the uproar, Testa still appears at the VTIC donation concert?

I liked it and hated it.

It was good to not miss the flow and cleverly declared participation in the yard where the donation concert was a topic. More content is better.

the problem is… VTIC seemed to only do good things, so it was like X.

‘No, those bastards are also responsible. It’s not like they almost got into an accident, but shamelessly, we’re also victims everywhere… !’

It was an obvious trick, but it was regretful that the broadcasting station was more pissed off and passed over.

Now that Testa is out, the sharing concert will be even more successful! Kim Rae-bin’s fans cheered up and eventually accepted the reality.

It is because after going through high school preparing for a job, her fighting power on the Internet has gradually softened.

‘what… Are you going to stage?’

I’m not sure because an incident broke out before I even performed on the same day, but I’ll probably do a few titles in moderation.

So, naturally, a thought came to my mind.

‘… Park Moon-dae, right?’

No matter how strong he is, he was almost crushed by the stage equipment because it seemed like it would remain as a trauma.

Still, just yesterday, Testa also resumed using social media.

– Exciting board game (dog emoji)

The attached short video contained images of Lee Se-jin rolling at the ruined dice numbers and Laughing Testa affectionately.

Looking at the scenery, it was indoors, but seeing that everyone was staying together, the atmosphere didn’t look bad.

‘Of course I would have posted only those things.’

As Raebin Kim, dressed in neat pajamas, captured the moment passing by, she decided to focus on rice cakes instead of wasting emotions.

However, the scheduled ‘that’ rice cake was not what she expected.
